AMEREN RECOMMENDS STOCKHOLDERS
NOT ACCEPT MINI-TENDER OFFER

St. Louis, Mo., May 17, 2001---Ameren Corporation (NYSE:AEE) strongly recommends that stockholders not accept TRC Capital Corporation's mini-tender offer to purchase up to 4,000,000 shares of

Edgar Filing: AMEREN CORP - Form 8-K

Ameren outstanding common stock, or approximately 2.9% of Ameren's outstanding shares, at an offer price of $40.00 per share.

TRC's offer price of $40.00 per share is less than Ameren's closing price on May 10, 2001, the day prior to the date of TRC's offer, and is less than Ameren's current trading price. TRC's offer states that it can be withdrawn at any time for any reason.

The Securities and Exchange Commission has said that mini-tender offers "have been increasingly used to catch investors off guard" and that investors "may end up selling their securities at below-market prices." The combination of the offer's current below-market price and TRC's right to withdraw the offer at any time enhances the risk that the offer will only proceed to consummation if at the time of purchase the offer price is below market.

Ameren suggests stockholders direct questions about the mini-tender offer to their investment advisers. Investors can obtain more information about mini-tender offers by visiting the SEC's Web site at www.sec.gov/investor/pubs/minitend.htm.

With assets of $10 billion, Ameren serves 1.5 million electric customers and 300,000 natural gas customers in a 44,500-square-mile area of Missouri and Illinois.
