Item 4. Description of Securities.

Edgar Filing: TIREX CORP - Form S-8

The authorized capital stock of Registrant consists of two hundred fifty million shares (250,000,000), par value $.001 per share, all of which are designated Common Stock par value $.001 per share. As of May 8, 2002 there were two hundred sixteen million, eight hundred eight thousand, seventy-two, (216,808,072) shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding.

Registrant's board of directors may determine the times when, the terms under which and the consideration for which Registrant shall issue, dispose of or receive subscriptions for its shares, including treasury shares, or acquire its own shares. The consideration for the issuance of the shares shall be paid in full before their issuance and shall not be less than the par value per share. Upon payment of such consideration, such shares shall be deemed to be fully paid and non-assessable by Registrant.

The holders of shares of Common Stock of the Registrant are entitled to dividends when and as declared by the Board of Directors from funds legally available therefore and, upon liquidation, are entitled to share pro rata in any distribution to shareholders. Holders of the Common Stock have one non-cumulative vote for each share hold. There are no preemptive, conversion or redemption privileges, nor sinking fund provisions, with respect to the Common Stock.

Stockholders are entitled to one vote of each share of Common Stock held of record on matters submitted to a vote of stockholders. The Common Stock does not have cumulative voting rights. As a result, the holders of more than 50% of the shares of Common Stock voting for the election of directors can elect all of the directors if they choose to do so, and, in such event, the holders of the remaining shares of Common Stock will not be able to elect any person or persons to the board of directors of Registrant.

Item 5. Interest of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Registrant's certificate of incorporation provides for indemnification to the fullest extent permitted by Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law ("Section 145"). Pursuant thereto, the Company indemnifies its officers, directors, employees and agents to the fullest extent permitted for losses and expenses incurred by them in connection with actions in which they are involved by reason of their having been directors, officers, employees, or agents of the Registrant. Section 145 permits a corporation to indemnify any person who is or has been a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation or who is or has been serving as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, organization, or enterprise at the request of the corporation, against all liability and expenses (including but not limited to attorneys' fees and disbursements and amounts paid in settlement or in satisfaction of judgments or as fines or penalties) incurred or paid in connection with any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative, or otherwise, in which he or she may be involved by reason of the fact that he or she served or is serving in these capacities, if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. In the case of a claim, action, suit or proceeding made or brought by or in the right of the corporation to procure a recovery or judgment in its favor, the corporation shall not indemnify such person in respect of any claim issue or matter as to which such person has been adjudged to be liable to the corporation for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duty to the corporation, except for such expenses as the Court may allow. Any such person who has been wholly successful on the merits or otherwise with respect to any such claim, action, suit or proceeding or with respect to any claim, issue or matter therein, shall be indemnified as of right against all expenses in connection therewith or resulting there from. The effect of this provision in the certificate of incorporation is to eliminate the rights of the Registrant and its stockholders (through stockholders' derivative suits on behalf of the Registrant) to recover monetary damages against a director for breach of fiduciary duty as a director (including breaches resulting from negligent or grossly negligent behavior) except in the situations described above.

The Registrant's By-laws provide for indemnification of the Registrant's officers and directors against all liabilities (including reasonable costs, expenses, attorney's fees, obligations for payment in settlement and final judgment) incurred by or imposed upon them in the preparation, conduct or compromise of any actual or threatened action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, or administrative, including any appeals there from and any collateral proceedings in which they shall be involved by reason of any action or omission by them in their capacity as a director or officer of the Registrant, or of any other corporation which they serve as a director or officer at the request of the Company, whether or not such person is a director or officer at the time such liabilities are incurred or any such action, suit, or proceeding is commenced against them. The indemnification provided by the By-laws does not extend, however, to certain situations involving misconduct, willful misfeasance, bad faith, or gross negligence.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers, and controlling persons of the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the Registrant has been informed that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by registrant of expenses incurred in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Except to the extent hereinabove set forth, there is no charter provision, by-law, contract, arrangement or statute pursuant to which any director or officer of registrant is indemnified in any manner against any liability which he may incur in his capacity as such.

Item 7. Exemption From Registration Claimed.

Not Applicable.

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a) (3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
