SUMMARY

The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the more detailed information appearing elsewhere in this prospectus supplement and accompanying prospectus, as well as the materials (including the consolidated financial statements) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), that are considered to be part of this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus. Unless otherwise indicated or the context otherwise requires, all references in this prospectus supplement to "the Issuer," "OB Holdings," "we," "us," "our," or similar terms mean OneBeacon U.S. Holdings, Inc. and not its subsidiaries and all references to the "Company" mean OneBeacon U.S. Holdings, Inc. and its subsidiaries. Any references to "the Issuer's outstanding 5.875% Senior Unsecured Notes due 2013" excludes the $25.0 million principal amount of 5.875% Senior Unsecured Notes currently held by OneBeacon Insurance Company.

OneBeacon U.S. Holdings, Inc.

The Issuer was created in 2000 by White Mountains Insurance Group, Ltd. ("White Mountains") to acquire and subsequently be the holding company for OneBeacon Insurance Group LLC ("OB LLC"). On June 1, 2001, OB Holdings acquired OneBeacon Insurance Group LLC from Aviva plc (the "OneBeacon Acquisition"). During 2006, White Mountains undertook an internal reorganization and formed OneBeacon for the purpose of holding certain of its property and casualty insurance businesses. As part of this reorganization, certain of White Mountains' businesses that were historically indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries of White Mountains, including OB Holdings, became indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries of OneBeacon. White Mountains is a holding company whose businesses provide property and casualty insurance, reinsurance and certain other products. During the fourth quarter of 2006, White Mountains sold 27.6 million or 27.6% of OneBeacon's common shares in an initial public offering. As of September 30, 2012, White Mountains owned 75.2% of OneBeacon's common shares. The Issuer is a U.S.-based company with its corporate headquarters located at 601 Carlson Parkway, Minnetonka, Minnesota 55305. The telephone number of its principal executive office is (952) 852-2431. OneBeacon is an exempted Bermuda limited liability company. OneBeacon's headquarters are located at 14 Wesley Street, 5th Floor, Hamilton HM 11, Bermuda, its U.S. corporate headquarters are located at 601 Carlson Parkway, Minnetonka, Minnesota 55305 and its registered office is located at Clarendon House, 2 Church Street, Hamilton HM 11, Bermuda.

The Company operates through operating companies that are U.S.-based property and casualty insurance writers, most of which historically have operated in a multi-company pool or have participated in 100% quota share reinsurance agreements. The Company offers a wide range of specialty insurance products and services through independent agencies, regional and national brokers, wholesalers and managing general agencies. As a specialty company, the Company is guided by a focus on certain products and/or customer or industry groups where it believes its targeted approach and expertise deliver a competitive advantage. The Company believes specialization will result in superior returns as compared to a more "generalist" underwriting approach and that its knowledge regarding its targeted industries, classes and risk characteristics provides the Company with a competitive edge for its terms and conditions on individual accounts. The Company's products include professional liability, marine, collector cars and boats, energy, entertainment, sports and leisure, excess property, excess environmental, group accident, property and inland marine, public entities, technology and tuition refund.

The Company's reportable segments are Specialty Insurance Operations, Other Insurance Operations and Investing, Financing and Corporate Operations. The Specialty Insurance Operations segment is comprised of a number of underwriting units that are aggregated into three major underwriting units for financial reporting: Managing General Agency ("MGA") Business, Specialty Industries and Specialty Products. The Company's Other Insurance Operations segment has historically included the results of the non-specialty commercial lines business, to which the Company sold the renewal rights, other run-off business, which includes asbestos and environmental reserves, and certain purchase accounting adjustments relating to the OneBeacon Acquisition. The Other Insurance Operations segment also includes the results of a reciprocal insurance exchange that is not actively writing any business. Investing, Financing and Corporate Operations includes the investing and financing activities for the Company on a consolidated basis, and certain other activities conducted through OneBeacon and its intermediate subsidiaries which include OneBeacon U.S. Financial Services, Inc. and the Issuer, both U.S.-domiciled companies, as well as various intermediate holding companies domiciled in the United States, Gibraltar, Luxembourg and Bermuda.

Recent Developments

On October 16, 2012, OneBeacon announced its agreement to terminate its underwriting arrangement with the Hagerty Insurance Agency and to sell OneBeacon's indirect wholly owned subsidiary, Essentia Insurance Company ("Essentia"), which writes the Hagerty collector car and boat business, to Markel Corporation. The sale is expected to close in the first quarter of 2013, subject to regulatory approval and other customary closing conditions. OneBeacon anticipates recording a $23 million pre-tax gain on sale ($15 million after tax) upon closing the transaction. The termination of the Hagerty underwriting arrangement will be effective as of the closing date of the Essentia sale. The business associated with this arrangement generated written premiums of approximately $179 million, or 16% of consolidated written premiums, for the 12 months ended September 30, 2012.

On October 17, 2012, one of OneBeacon's indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries, OneBeacon Insurance Group LLC, entered into a definitive agreement (the "Stock Purchase Agreement") with Trebuchet US Holdings, Inc. ("Trebuchet"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Armour Group Holdings Limited (together with Trebuchet, "Armour"), to sell its runoff business. The Company's runoff business includes the results of the Company's remaining non-specialty commercial lines business and certain other run-off business, including asbestos and environmental reserves, as well as certain purchase accounting adjustments related to the OneBeacon Acquisition (the "Runoff Business", the sale of which is referred to as the "Runoff Transaction"). Pursuant to the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement, at closing, the Company will transfer to Armour all of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of certain legal entities that will contain the assets, liabilities (including gross and ceded loss reserves) and capital supporting the Runoff Business as well as certain elements of the Runoff Business infrastructure, including staff and office space. Additionally, as part of the Runoff Transaction, the Company may provide, under certain scenarios, financing in the form of surplus notes. The Runoff Transaction is expected to close in the second half of 2013, subject to regulatory approvals.

The Runoff Transaction is subject to closing conditions, including but not limited to the receipt of regulatory approvals and the completion of certain internal restructuring actions by the Company (the "Internal Restructuring"). Upon completion of the Internal Restructuring, the Runoff Business will be contained in certain legal entities to be transferred to Armour at closing.

The impact of these transactions is further described in OneBeacon's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2012 which was filed with the SEC on October 30, 2012 and is incorporated by reference herein.

RISK FACTORS

Investing in the Senior Notes involves significant risks. Before making an investment decision, you should carefully consider the risks and other information we include or incorporate by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus. In particular, in addition to the risk factors set forth below, you should consider the risk factors set forth in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC, as those risk factors are amended or supplemented by subsequent filings with the SEC. The risks and uncertainties we have described herein and therein are not the only ones we are facing. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial may also affect our business operations.

Risks That Relate to This Offering

The Senior Notes and the Guarantee are structurally subordinated to the indebtedness of the subsidiaries of the Issuer and OneBeacon.

The Senior Notes are the Issuer's obligations exclusively and not of any of its subsidiaries, and the Guarantee is an obligation exclusively of OneBeacon and not of any of its subsidiaries. Our and OneBeacon's operations are conducted primarily through our and its respective subsidiaries. The Issuer and OneBeacon's subsidiaries (other than the Issuer) are separate legal entities that have no obligations to pay any amounts due under the Senior Notes or the Guarantee or to make any funds available therefor, whether by dividends, loans or other payments. Except to the extent the Issuer or OneBeacon are a creditor with recognized claims against such subsidiaries, all claims of creditors (including trade creditors) of any such subsidiaries will have priority with respect to the assets of such subsidiaries over the Issuer's claims or the claims of OneBeacon, as the case may be (and therefore the claims of the Issuer's and OneBeacon's respective creditors, including holders of the Senior Notes). As of September 30, 2012, the liabilities of OneBeacon's subsidiaries other than the Issuer (but including the Issuer's subsidiaries) that are structurally senior to the Guarantees would have been approximately $4,252 million (including $2,388 million of liabilities classified as held for sale). In addition, the indenture does not limit the ability of the Issuer's or OneBeacon's respective subsidiaries to incur additional debt and other liabilities. Such additional debt and other liabilities, and any future subsidiary debt will also have priority over the Senior Notes and the Guarantee.

The Senior Notes and the Guarantee will be effectively subordinated to any future secured indebtedness of the Issuer and OneBeacon to the extent of the assets securing such indebtedness.

The Senior Notes will not be secured by any of the Issuer's or OneBeacon's assets. Neither the Issuer nor OneBeacon currently have any secured indebtedness outstanding but the indenture permits them to pledge assets without also securing the Senior Notes to, among other things, secure any indebtedness if the aggregate amount of secured debt (excluding liens otherwise permitted under the indenture) does not exceed 10% of the total consolidated stockholders' equity (including preferred equity) of OB Holdings. The indenture does not restrict OneBeacon's ability to pledge its assets to secure any of its obligations. The holders of any secured debt incurred by us or OneBeacon in the future may foreclose on the assets securing such indebtedness, reducing the cash flow from the foreclosed property available for payment of the Senior Notes or the Guarantee, as applicable. The holders of any secured debt would also have priority over unsecured creditors in the event of liquidation. In the event of the bankruptcy, liquidation or similar proceeding involving us or OneBeacon, any holders of any such secured debt would be entitled to proceed against any collateral securing the debt, and that collateral will not be available for payment of unsecured debt, including the Senior Notes and the Guarantee. As a result, the Senior Notes and the Guarantee will be effectively subordinated to any future secured debt incurred by us or OneBeacon, respectively, to the extent of such assets securing such indebtedness.

Table of Contents

We and OneBeacon are holding companies and require cash from our subsidiaries to make payments on the Senior Notes and Guarantee.

The Senior Notes and the Guarantee are solely the obligation of the Issuer and OneBeacon, respectively, and no other entity will have any obligation, contingent or otherwise, to make payments in respect of the Senior Notes or Guarantee. We and OneBeacon are holding companies for several direct and indirect subsidiaries with no substantial operations of our own and the subsidiaries of OneBeacon generate substantially all of OneBeacon's operating income and cash flow and the subsidiaries of the Issuer generate substantially all of OB Holdings' operating income and cash flow. The subsidiaries of OneBeacon (other than the Issuer) will have no obligation to make payments in respect of the Senior Notes or the Guarantee. Accordingly, we and OneBeacon will depend on dividends and other distributions from our subsidiaries to generate the funds necessary to meet our respective obligations under the Indenture that will govern the Senior Notes, including payment of interest. Such subsidiaries may be restricted from paying dividends by contract, including other financing arrangements, charter provisions or applicable legal or regulatory requirements, and their ability to do so may depend on their financial condition and regulatory requirements. For a description of certain regulatory restrictions on the payments of dividends by OneBeacon's subsidiaries, see "Regulatory Matters" in OneBeacon's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2011. If the Issuer and OneBeacon are unable to obtain cash from their subsidiaries, they may be unable to fund required payments in respect of the Senior Notes and the Guarantee.

Our financial performance and other factors could adversely impact our ability to make payments on the Senior Notes.

Our ability to make scheduled payments on the Senior Notes will depend on our financial and operating performance, which are subject to prevailing economic conditions and to financial, business and other factors beyond our control.

Changes in our credit rating may adversely affect your investment in the Senior Notes.

Our credit risk is evaluated by four independent rating agencies. There can be no assurances that we will be able to maintain our current credit ratings, and any additional actual or anticipated changes or downgrades in our credit ratings, including any announcement that our ratings are under review for a downgrade, may have a negative impact on our liquidity, capital position and access to capital markets and could affect the market value of the Senior Notes. Also, our credit ratings may not reflect the potential impact of risks related to structure, market or other factors related to the value of the Senior Notes.

Optional redemption may adversely affect your return on the Senior Notes.

We have the right to redeem some or all of the Senior Notes prior to maturity. We may redeem the Senior Notes at times when prevailing interest rates may be relatively low. Accordingly, you may not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds in comparable securities at effective interest rates as high as those of the Senior Notes.

An increase in interest rates could result in a decrease in the relative value of the Senior Notes.

In general, as market interest rates rise, notes bearing interest at a fixed rate generally decline in value because the premium, if any, over market interest rates will decline. Consequently, if you purchase the Senior Notes and market interest rates increase, the market value of your Senior Notes may decline. We cannot predict the future level of market interest rates.

Table of Contents

Investors may find it difficult to trade the Senior Notes.

The Senior Notes are a new issue of securities, and there is currently no public market for the Senior Notes. We do not intend to apply for listing of the Senior Notes on any securities exchange. Although the underwriters have informed us that they intend to make a market in the Senior Notes, they are under no obligation to do so and may discontinue any market-making activities at any time without notice.

We also cannot assure you that you will be able to sell your Senior Notes at a particular time or that the prices that you receive when you sell will be favorable. Future trading prices of the notes will depend on many factors, including:

our operating performance, prospects and financial condition or the operating performance, prospects and financial condition of companies in our industry generally;

the interest of securities dealers in making a market for the notes; and the market for similar securities.

RATIO OF EARNINGS (LOSS) TO FIXED CHARGES

The following table sets forth OneBeacon's ratio of earnings to fixed charges for each of the periods indicated.

	Year December 31,(1)					Nine Months Ended September 30, 2012
	2007	2008(2)	2009	2010	2011
Ratio of earnings to fixed charges	7.9		11.8	4.8	4.3	9.8

- (1) Effective January 1, 2008, we and OneBeacon adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 159, "The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Liabilities", subsequently codified within FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 825, and elected to record the changes in unrealized gains and losses from available-for-sale securities and investments in limited partnerships, hedge funds and private equity interests in net income. In prior periods, these changes have been included in other comprehensive income. Accordingly, earnings for the years ended December 31, 2011, 2010, 2009 and 2008 and the nine months ended September 30, 2012 are not directly comparable to earnings for the year ended December 31, 2007. The changes in net unrealized investment gains and losses, reflected in earnings, for the years ended December 31, 2011, 2010, 2009 and 2008 were $(46.2) million, $(7.3) million, $269.1 million and $(444.7) million, respectively, and for the nine months ended September 30, 2012 was $27.8 million.
- (2) Earnings were insufficient to cover fixed charges and combined fixed charges and preferred stock dividends in the year ended December 31, 2008. During the year ended December 31, 2008, the dollar amounts of the deficiency of earnings to cover fixed charges and to cover combined fixed charges and preferred stock dividends were approximately $600.6 million and $634.0 million, respectively.

DESCRIPTION OF THE SENIOR NOTES

The following description of the particular terms of the Senior Notes supplements, and should be read together with, the description of the general terms of the senior debt securities set forth under the heading "Description of Senior Debt Securities and Subordinated Debt Securities" in the accompanying prospectus. If the descriptions are inconsistent, the information in this prospectus supplement supersedes the information in the accompanying prospectus. Capitalized terms used in this prospectus supplement that are not otherwise defined will have the meanings given to them in the accompanying prospectus.

The Senior Notes will be issued under a base indenture to be dated as of November 9, 2012, as supplemented by a supplemental indenture to be dated as of November 9, 2012, among OB Holdings, as Issuer, OneBeacon, as guarantor, and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as trustee. References to the "indenture" in this section mean the base indenture as so supplemented. The form of the base indenture is filed as an exhibit to the registration statement on Form S-3, as filed with the SEC on June 13, 2011 (File No. 333-174867). We will file copies of the base indenture and the supplemental indenture, each as executed, as exhibits to a Current Report on Form 8-K, which will be incorporated by reference in such registration statement and this prospectus supplement. The following description does not include all the terms of the Senior Notes as set forth in the indenture. We urge you to read the indenture in its entirety to fully understand the terms of the Senior Notes.

General

The Senior Notes offered by this prospectus supplement are a series of "senior debt securities" as described in the accompanying prospectus. There is no limit on the aggregate principal amount of Senior Notes that OB Holdings may issue. The Senior Notes will initially be issued in an aggregate principal amount of $275,000,000, will bear interest at 4.60% per annum and will mature on November 9, 2022. Unless previously redeemed in full as provided herein, we will repay the Senior Notes at their principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest on November 9, 2022. Interest will accrue on the Senior Notes from November 9, 2012. Interest on the Senior Notes will be payable semi-annually in arrears on May 9 and November 9 of each year, commencing on May 9, 2013, to the persons in whose names the Senior Notes are registered at the close of business on the preceding April 24 or October 24, as the case may be. Interest will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months. The Senior Notes will not be entitled to any sinking fund.

Further Issues

OB Holdings may from time to time without the consent of the holders of the Senior Notes, issue additional debt securities having the same ranking and the same interest rate, maturity and other terms as the Senior Notes, except for the issue price and issue date and, in some cases, the first interest payment date and the first date on which interest accrues. Any additional debt securities of a series having such similar terms will, together with the Senior Notes offered hereby, constitute a single class of notes under the indenture, and as such will vote together on matters under the indenture. No additional notes of a series may be issued if an event of default has occurred and is continuing with respect to the Senior Notes.

OneBeacon Guarantee

OneBeacon will fully and unconditionally guarantee to each holder of Senior Notes the due and punctual payment of the principal of, and any premium and any interest on, the Senior Notes, when and as the same becomes due and payable, whether at maturity, upon acceleration or otherwise. OneBeacon has:

agreed that its obligations under the guarantee, upon the occurrence and continuance of an event of default with respect to any guaranteed Senior Notes, will be as if it were principal

obligor and not merely surety, and will be absolute and unconditional, irrespective of any invalidity, irregularity or unenforceability of any security of any series of guaranteed Senior Notes or the indenture, any failure to enforce the provisions of any security of any series or the indenture, any waiver or modification granted to OB Holdings with respect thereto by the holder of any security of any series or the trustee, or any other circumstances which may otherwise constitute a discharge of a surety or guarantor (subject to applicable bankruptcy and other customary legal and equitable principles); and waived its right to require the trustee or the holders of Senior Notes to pursue or exhaust their legal or equitable remedies against OB Holdings prior to exercising their rights under the guarantee.

Ranking of the Senior Notes and the Guarantee

The Senior Notes will be the senior unsecured obligations of OB Holdings and will rank equally in right of payment with all of OB Holdings' other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness from time to time outstanding. The Senior Notes will rank senior in right of payment to any subordinated indebtedness of OB Holdings, will be effectively subordinated to future secured indebtedness of OB Holdings to the extent of the value of the assets securing such secured indebtedness and structurally subordinated to all debt and other liabilities of OB Holdings' subsidiaries. The guarantee will be the senior unsecured obligation of OneBeacon and will rank equally in right of payment with all of OneBeacon's other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness from time to time outstanding. The guarantee will rank senior in right of payment to any subordinated indebtedness of OneBeacon, will be effectively subordinated to future secured indebtedness of OneBeacon to the extent of the value of the assets securing such secured indebtedness and structurally subordinated to all debt and other liabilities of OneBeacon's subsidiaries (other than OB Holdings). As of September 30, 2012, OB Holdings and OneBeacon would have had $294.9 million principal amount of unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness (including $25.0 million principal amount held by OneBeacon Insurance Company but not including an additional $24.3 million principal amount held by OneBeacon Insurance Company on such date that was transferred to the Issuer in October 2012 for cancellation in connection with a dividend declared by OneBeacon Insurance Company in August 2012) that would rank equally in right of payment with the Senior Notes and there would have been $4,252 million of liabilities (including $2,388 million of liabilities classified as held for sale) of the subsidiaries of OneBeacon (other than the OB Holdings, but including the subsidiaries of OB Holdings) that are structurally senior to the Senior Notes. The only significant assets of OB Holdings and OneBeacon are the capital stock of their respective subsidiaries, and the Senior Notes will not be guaranteed by any of those subsidiaries. As a result, the Senior Notes and the guarantee will be structurally subordinated to all the existing and future indebtedness, preferred stock and other liabilities of OneBeacon's subsidiaries other than OB Holdings (but including OB Holdings' subsidiaries), as the case may be, including claims of secured creditors and creditors holding indebtedness and guarantees issued by the subsidiaries, claims of preferred and minority stockholders of the subsidiaries and insurance liabilities of the subsidiaries (including reserves). Although the indenture limits the ability of OB Holdings to incur liens on any stock, indebtedness or property of any subsidiary and limits sale and leaseback transactions and incurrence of secured indebtedness by any subsidiary, these limitations are subject to a number of significant exceptions. Moreover, the indenture does not limit the subsidiaries' incurrence of unsecured indebtedness.

Holding Company Structure

OB Holdings and OneBeacon are both holding companies with no direct operations, and their only significant assets are the capital stock of their subsidiaries. Their ability to satisfy their respective obligations with respect to the Senior Notes and the guarantee is dependent on the earnings and cash flow, dividend paying ability and tax sharing paying ability of their subsidiaries. For more information, please refer to "Risk Factors We and OneBeacon are holding companies and require cash from our subsidiaries to make payments on the Senior Notes and Guarantee".

Optional Redemption

OB Holdings may redeem the Senior Notes at any time, in whole or in part, at a "make-whole" redemption price equal to the greater of (1) the principal amount being redeemed or (2) the sum of the present values of the remaining scheduled payments to maturity of the principal and interest (other than accrued interest) on the Senior Notes being redeemed, discounted to the redemption date on a semi-annual basis (assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months) at the Treasury Rate plus 45 basis points, plus accrued interest to the redemption date.

"Treasury Rate" means, for any redemption date, the rate per year equal to the semi-annual equivalent yield to maturity of the Comparable Treasury Issue, assuming a price for the Comparable Treasury Issue (expressed as a percentage of its principal amount) equal to the Comparable Treasury Price for the redemption date. The Treasury Rate shall be calculated on the third Business Day preceding the redemption date.

"Comparable Treasury Issue" means the United States Treasury security selected by an Independent Investment Banker as having a maturity comparable to the remaining term of the Senior Notes being redeemed that would be utilized, at the time of selection and in accordance with customary financial practice, in pricing new issues of corporate notes of comparable maturity to the remaining term of such notes.

"Independent Investment Banker" means one of the Reference Treasury Dealers appointed by OB Holdings.

"Comparable Treasury Price" means, for any redemption date, (1) the average of the bid and asked prices for the Comparable Treasury Issue (expressed in each case as a percentage of its principal amount) on the third business day preceding the redemption date, as set forth in the daily statistical release (or any successor release) published by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York and designated "Composite 3:30 p.m. Quotations for U.S. Government Securities" or (2) if that release (or any successor release) is not published or does not contain those prices on that business day, (A) the average of the Reference Treasury Dealer Quotations for the redemption date, after excluding the highest and lowest Reference Treasury Dealer Quotations for that redemption date, or (B) if OB Holdings obtains fewer than four Reference Treasury Dealer Quotations, the average of all the Reference Treasury Dealer Quotations obtained.

"Reference Treasury Dealer Quotations" means, for each Reference Treasury Dealer and any redemption date, the average, as determined by the Independent Investment Banker, of the bid and asked prices for the Comparable Treasury Issue (expressed in each case as a percentage of its principal amount) quoted in writing to the Independent Investment Banker by the Reference Treasury Dealer at 3:30 p.m. New York City time on the third business day preceding the redemption date for the Senior Notes being redeemed.

"Reference Treasury Dealer" means (1) each of Barclays Capital Inc., Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated and HSBC Securities (USA) Inc. and, in each case, their respective successors; provided, however, that if any of them ceases to be a primary U.S. Government securities dealer in New York City, OB Holdings will appoint another primary U.S. Government securities dealer as a substitute and (2) any other U.S. Government securities dealers selected by OB Holdings.

If OB Holdings elects to redeem less than all of the Senior Notes, then the trustee will select the particular Senior Notes to be redeemed in accordance with the terms of the indenture.

Table of Contents

Notice of any redemption will be mailed at least 30 days but not more than 60 days before the date of redemption to each holder of the Senior Notes to be redeemed. Unless OB Holdings defaults in payment of the redemption price, on and after the date of redemption, interest will cease to accrue on such Senior Notes or the portions called for redemption. See " Notices" on page S-16.

Covenants

The indenture does not contain any provisions that will restrict OB Holdings or OneBeacon from incurring, assuming or becoming liable with respect to any indebtedness or other obligations, or from paying dividends or making other distributions on their capital stock or purchasing or redeeming their capital stock. The indenture does not contain any financial ratios or specified levels of net worth or liquidity to which OB Holdings or OneBeacon must adhere. In addition, the indenture does not contain any provision that would require that we repurchase or redeem or otherwise modify the terms of any of the Senior Notes upon a change in control or other events involving either of them that may adversely affect the creditworthiness of the Senior Notes.

The following covenants will apply to OB Holdings and, as applicable, OneBeacon with respect to the Senior Notes and the guarantee.

Amalgamation, Consolidation, Merger and Sale of Assets

The provisions under "Description of Senior Debt Securities and Subordinated Debt Securities Amalgamation, Consolidation, Merger and Sale of Assets" in the accompanying prospectus will apply to OB Holdings and OneBeacon with respect to the Senior Notes and the guarantee.

Limitations on Liens

OneBeacon and OB Holdings will not, and will not permit any subsidiary to, create, incur, assume or permit to exist any lien on any stock or indebtedness of a subsidiary or property of OneBeacon, OB Holdings or any subsidiary, to secure any indebtedness of OneBeacon, OB Holdings or any subsidiary or any other person, or permit any subsidiary to do so, without securing the Senior Notes equally and ratably with such indebtedness for so long as such indebtedness shall be so secured, subject to certain exceptions. Exceptions include:

liens otherwise prohibited by this covenant, securing indebtedness, if the aggregate amount of all indebtedness then outstanding secured by such lien and all similar liens (excluding liens otherwise permitted under the indenture) does not exceed 10% of the total consolidated stockholders' equity (including preferred equity) of OneBeacon.

Limitation on Sale and Leasebacks

OneBeacon and OB Holdings will not, and will not permit any subsidiary to, enter into any arrangement with any person pursuant to which One Beacon, OB Holdings or any subsidiary leases any property that has been or is to be sold or transferred by OneBeacon, OB Holdings or the subsidiary to such person (a "sale and leaseback transaction"), except that a sale and leaseback transaction is permitted if OneBeacon, OB Holdings or such subsidiary would be entitled to secure the property to be leased (without equally and ratably securing the outstanding Senior Notes) in an amount equal to the present value of the lease payments with respect to the term of the lease remaining on the date as of which the amount is being determined under the provisions described in "Limitation on Liens" above.

In addition, permitted sale and leaseback transactions not subject to the limitation above and the provisions described in "Limitations on Liens" above include:

existing leases;

leases for a term, including renewals at the option of the lessee, of not more than five years;

leases between OneBeacon or OB Holdings or a subsidiary or between subsidiaries; and

Events of Default

The events of default described in the accompanying prospectus under "Description of Senior Debt Securities and Subordinated Debt Securities Events of Default; Waiver and Notice of Default; Debt Securities in Foreign Currencies" will apply to OneBeacon and OB Holdings with respect to the Senior Notes.

An event of default under the indenture with respect to the Senior Notes will also occur if a default under the terms of any instrument evidencing or securing indebtedness of OneBeacon, OB Holdings or any of their respective subsidiaries results in the acceleration of the payment of such indebtedness or constitutes the failure to pay the principal of such indebtedness when due (after the expiration of any applicable grace period) and, in each case, the total amount of such indebtedness has an outstanding aggregate principal amount greater than $75.0 million.

Defeasance

The discharge, defeasance and covenant defeasance provisions described under "Description of Senior Debt Securities and Subordinated Debt Securities Satisfaction and Discharge of the Indentures; Defeasance" in the accompanying prospectus will apply to the Senior Notes.

The Trustee; Paying Agent and Registrar

The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., will be the trustee under the indenture. The trustee and its affiliates also perform certain commercial banking services for us and may serve as trustee pursuant to indentures and other instruments entered into by us or trusts established by us in connection with future issues of securities, for which they receive customary fees. The trustee will also be the paying agent and registrar for the Senior Notes.

Global Securities; Global Clearance and Settlement Procedures

See "Description of Senior Debt Securities and Subordinated Debt Securities Global Securities" and " Global Clearance and Settlement Procedures" in the accompanying prospectus.

CERTAIN TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following is a discussion of certain anticipated United States federal income tax consequences of the acquisition, ownership and disposition of Senior Notes by a Non-U.S. Holder (as defined below). This discussion is limited to the tax consequences to those holders who acquired Senior Notes in this offering at their initial offering price and hold such notes as capital assets. This discussion does not address specific tax consequences that may be relevant to particular persons (including, for example, pass-through entities (e.g., partnerships) or persons who hold Senior Notes through passthrough entities, banks or other financial institutions, broker-dealers, insurance companies, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, tax-exempt entities, common trust funds, controlled foreign corporations, passive foreign investment companies, dealers in securities or currencies, traders in securities that have elected the mark-to-market method of accounting for their securities, U.S. expatriates, persons liable for the alternative minimum tax and persons in special situations, such as those who hold notes as part of a straddle, hedge, conversion transaction, or other integrated investment). In addition, this discussion does not describe any tax consequences arising under United States federal gift and estate, Medicare contributions or other federal tax laws or under the tax laws of any state, local or non-U.S. jurisdiction. This discussion is based upon the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the Treasury Department regulations (the "Treasury Regulations") promulgated thereunder, and administrative and judicial interpretations thereof, all as of the date hereof and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. We have not and will not seek any rulings from the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") regarding the matters discussed below. There can be no assurance that the IRS will not take positions concerning the tax consequences of the purchase, ownership or disposition of Senior Notes that are different from those discussed below.

Prospective purchasers of Senior Notes are encouraged to consult their own tax advisors concerning the United States federal income, estate and gift tax consequences to them of acquiring, owning and disposing of Senior Notes, as well as the application of any state, local and non-U.S. income and other tax laws.

For purposes of this discussion, a "Non-U.S. Holder" is a beneficial owner of Senior Notes that is, for United States federal income tax purposes, an individual, corporation, estate or trust, and is not: (i) a citizen or individual resident of the United States; (ii) a corporation (including an entity treated as a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia; (iii) an estate, the income of which is subject to United States federal income tax regardless of the source; or (iv) a trust, if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the trust's administration and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all its substantial decisions, or if the trust was in existence on August 20, 1996 and has properly elected to continue to be treated as a U.S. person.

If an entity taxed as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes holds Senior Notes, the United States federal income tax consequences of payments received by such partnership will in many cases be determined by reference to the status of a partner and the activities of the partnership. If you are a partnership or a partner in a partnership holding Senior Notes, you should consult your own tax advisor.

Payments of Interest

Subject to the discussion of backup withholding below, payments of interest on Senior Notes by us or any of our agents to a Non-U.S. Holder will not be subject to United States federal withholding tax, provided that:

1. the Non-U.S. Holder does not actually or constructively own 10 percent or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of our stock entitled to vote;

Table of Contents

2. the Non-U.S. Holder is not a controlled foreign corporation that is related to us (actually or constructively);
3. the income from Senior Notes held by the Non-U.S. Holder is not effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States;
4. the Non-U.S. Holder is not a bank whose receipt of interest on Senior Notes is described in Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code; and
5. either (A) the beneficial owner of Senior Notes certifies to us or our agent on IRS Form W-8BEN (or successor form), under penalties of perjury, that it is not a U.S. person and provides its name and address and the certificate is renewed periodically as required by the Treasury Regulations, or (B) Senior Notes are held through certain intermediaries and the beneficial owner of Senior Notes satisfies certification requirements of applicable Treasury Regulations, and in either case, neither we nor our agent has actual knowledge or reason to know that the beneficial owner of the note is a U.S. person. Special certification rules apply to certain Non-U.S. Holders that are entities rather than individuals.

If a Non-U.S. Holder cannot satisfy the requirements of the portfolio interest exemption described above (the "Portfolio Interest Exemption"), payments of interest made to such Non-U.S. Holder will be subject to a 30 percent withholding tax unless the beneficial owner of the Senior Note provides us or our agent, as the case may be, with a properly executed:

1. IRS Form W-8BEN (or successor form) claiming an exemption from withholding or reduced rate of tax under an applicable tax treaty (a "Treaty Exemption"); or
2. IRS Form W-8ECI (or successor form) stating that interest paid on the Senior Note is not subject to withholding tax because it is effectively connected with the conduct of a U.S. trade or business of the beneficial owner, each form to be renewed periodically as required by the Treasury Regulations.

If interest on the Senior Note is effectively connected with the conduct of a U.S. trade or business of the beneficial owner, the Non-U.S. Holder, although exempt from the withholding tax described above (provided that the certification requirements discussed above are satisfied), generally will be subject to United States federal income tax on such interest on a net income basis in the same manner as if it were a U.S. person unless an applicable income tax treaty provides otherwise. In addition, if such Non-U.S. Holder is a corporation, it may be subject to a branch profits tax equal to 30 percent (or lower applicable treaty rate) of its effectively connected earnings and profits for the taxable year, subject to adjustments. For this purpose, interest on a Senior Note will be included in such corporation's earnings and profits.

Disposition of Notes

Subject to the discussion of backup withholding below, no withholding of United States federal income tax will be required with respect to any gain realized by a Non-U.S. Holder upon the sale, exchange or other disposition (including a retirement or redemption) of a Senior Note.

In general, a Non-U.S. Holder will not be subject to United States federal income tax on gain realized on the sale, exchange or other disposition (including a retirement or redemption) of a Senior Note unless (a) the Non-U.S. Holder is an individual who is present in the United States for a period or periods aggregating 183 or more days in the taxable year of the disposition and certain other conditions are met, in which case the Non-U.S. Holder will be subject to United States federal income tax on any gain recognized, which may be offset by certain United States source losses, at a flat rate of 30 percent (except as otherwise provided by an applicable income tax treaty), or (b) such gain is effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's U.S. trade or business, in which case the Non-U.S.

Table of Contents

Holder will be taxed in the same manner as discussed above with respect to effectively connected interest.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

When required, we or our paying agent will report to the IRS and to each Non-U.S. Holder the amount of any interest paid on Senior Notes in each calendar year, and the amount of United States federal income tax withheld, if any, with respect to these payments. Backup withholding will not be required with respect to interest payments that we make to a Non-U.S. Holder if the Non-U.S. Holder has (i) furnished documentation establishing eligibility for the Portfolio Interest Exemption or a Treaty Exemption or (ii) otherwise established an exemption provided that neither we nor our agent has actual knowledge or reason to know that the holder is a U.S. person or that the conditions of any exemption are not in fact satisfied. Certain additional rules may apply where Senior Notes are held through a custodian, nominee, broker, non-U.S. partnership or non-U.S. intermediary.

U.S. information reporting and backup withholding will not apply to the proceeds of the sale or other disposition (including a retirement or redemption) of a Senior Note made within the United States or conducted through certain United States related financial intermediaries, if the payor receives the statement described above under "Non-U.S. Holders Payments of Interest" and does not have actual knowledge or reason to know that the Non-U.S. Holder is a U.S. person, or the Non-U.S. Holder otherwise establishes an exemption.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld from a payment to a Non-U.S. Holder under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a credit against such holder's United States federal income tax liability and may entitle it to a refund, provided it timely furnishes the required information to the IRS.

In connection with the offering of the Senior Notes, the representatives may engage in transactions that stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the price of the Senior Notes. Specifically, the representatives may over allot in connection with the offering of the Senior Notes, creating a syndicate short position. In addition, the representatives may bid for, and purchase, Senior Notes in the open market to cover syndicate short positions or to stabilize the price of the Senior Notes. Any of these activities may stabilize or maintain the market price of the Senior Notes above independent market levels. The representatives are not required to engage in any of these activities, and may end any of them at any time.

Other Relationships

Some of the underwriters and their affiliates have engaged in, and may in the future engage in, investment banking and other commercial dealings in the ordinary course of business with us or our affiliates. They have received, or may in the future receive, customary fees and commissions for these transactions.

In addition, in the ordinary course of their business activities, the underwriters and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of ours or our affiliates. Certain of the underwriters or their affiliates that have a lending relationship with us routinely hedge their credit exposure to us consistent with their customary risk management policies. Typically, such underwriters and their affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in our securities, including potentially the notes offered hereby. Any such short positions could adversely affect future trading prices of the notes offered hereby. The underwriters and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.

Selling Restrictions

The underwriters have represented and agreed that they have not and will not offer, sell or deliver the Senior Notes, directly or indirectly, or distribute this prospectus supplement or the attached prospectus or any other offering material relating to the Senior Notes, in any jurisdiction except under circumstances that will result, to the best of their knowledge, in compliance with applicable laws and regulations and that will not impose any obligations on us except as set forth in the underwriting agreement.

European Economic Area

In relation to each Member State of the European Economic Area which has implemented the Prospectus Directive (each, a "Relevant Member State"), each underwriter has severally represented and agreed that it has not made and will not make an offer of Senior Notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated by this prospectus supplement to the public in that Relevant Member State other than:

to any legal entity which is a qualified investor as defined under the laws of the applicable Relevant Member State;

to fewer than 100 or, if the Relevant Member State has implemented the relevant provisions of the 2010 PD Amending Directive, 150 natural or legal persons (other than qualified investors as defined in the Prospectus Directive), in any Relevant Member State subject to obtaining the prior consent of the underwriters as permitted under the Prospectus Directive; or in any other circumstances falling within Article 3(2) of the Prospectus Directive; provided that no such offer of securities shall require us or any underwriter to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive.

For the purposes of the above, (i) the expression an "offer of notes to the public" in relation to any Senior Notes in any Relevant Member State means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Senior Notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe the Senior Notes, as the same may be varied in that Member State by any measure implementing the Prospectus Directive in that Member State, (ii) the expression "Prospectus Directive" means Directive 2003/71/EC (and amendments thereto, including the 2010 PD Amending Directive, to the extent implemented in the Relevant Member State), and includes any relevant implementing measure in the Relevant Member State, and (iii) the expression "2010 PD Amending Directive" means Directive 2010/73/EU.

No advertisement, invitation or document relating to the Senior Notes may be issued or may be in the possession of any person for the purpose of the issue, whether in Hong Kong or elsewhere, which is directed at, or the contents of which are likely to be read by, the public in Hong Kong (except if permitted to do so under the laws of Hong Kong) other than with respect to the Senior Notes which are intended to be disposed of only to persons outside Hong Kong or only to "professional investors"

ABOUT THIS PROSPECTUS

Unless the context otherwise indicates, the terms "we," "us" or "our" mean, collectively, OneBeacon Insurance Group, Ltd. and its consolidated subsidiaries; the term "OneBeacon" means OneBeacon Insurance Group, Ltd.; the term "OB Holdings" means OneBeacon U.S. Holdings, Inc.; the term "OB Holdings Trusts" means, collectively, OneBeacon U.S. Holdings Trust I, OneBeacon U.S. Holdings Trust II and OneBeacon U.S. Holdings Trust III; and the term "Selling Shareholders" means Lone Tree Holdings Ltd. and Sirius International Holdings (NL) B.V., each a subsidiary of White Mountains Insurance Group, Ltd., or any other selling shareholder identified in a supplement to this prospectus.

This prospectus is part of a registration statement on Form S-3 that we filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or the SEC, using a "shelf" registration process. Under this shelf registration process, OneBeacon, OB Holdings and the OB Holdings Trusts may from time to time sell any combination of the securities described in this prospectus in one or more offerings up to a total dollar amount of $1,000,000,000 or the equivalent denominated in foreign currencies and the Selling Shareholders identified in this prospectus may, from time to time, sell up to 71,754,738 shares of OneBeacon's Class A common shares. This prospectus provides you with a general description of the securities we or the Selling Shareholders may offer. Each time we sell securities, we will provide a prospectus supplement and, if applicable, a pricing supplement, that will contain specific information about the terms of that offering. The prospectus supplement and any applicable pricing supplement may also add, update or change information contained in this prospectus. The prospectus supplement and any applicable pricing supplement may also contain information about any material U.S. federal income tax considerations relating to the securities described in the prospectus supplement. You should read both this prospectus, the applicable prospectus supplement and any applicable pricing supplement, together with the additional information described under "Where You Can Find More Information."

When acquiring any securities discussed in this prospectus, you should rely only on the information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus, any prospectus supplement, any pricing supplement and any "free writing prospectus" that we authorize to be delivered to you. Neither we, the Selling Shareholders nor any underwriters or agents have authorized anyone to provide you with different information. Neither OneBeacon, OB Holdings, any of the OB Holdings Trusts nor any of the Selling Shareholders is offering the securities in any jurisdiction in which an offer or solicitation is not authorized or in which the person making such offer or solicitation is not qualified to do so or to anyone to whom it is unlawful to make an offer or solicitation. You should not assume that the information in this prospectus, or any prospectus supplement, pricing supplement or free writing prospectus, is accurate at any date other than the date indicated on the cover page of these documents.

This prospectus does not contain separate financial statements for the OB Holdings Trusts. We believe these financial statements would be unnecessary pursuant to Rule 3-10(b) of Regulation S-X ("Rule 3-10(b)") since each trust is an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of OneBeacon, and OneBeacon files consolidated financial information under the Exchange Act. The OB Holdings Trusts will be "finance subsidiaries" under Rule 3-10(b) with no independent function other than to issue common and trust preferred securities and to purchase junior subordinated debt securities of OB Holdings. OneBeacon will provide a full, unconditional guarantee of each trust's obligations under its respective common and trust preferred securities and no other subsidiary of OneBeacon will guarantee these obligations.

The securities described in this prospectus as being offered by OneBeacon or by the Selling Shareholders may be offered or sold in Bermuda only in compliance with the provisions of the Investment Business Act of 2003 and the Exchange Control Act 1972, and related regulations of Bermuda which regulate the sale of securities in Bermuda. In addition, specific permission is required from the Bermuda Monetary Authority, or BMA, pursuant to the provisions of the Exchange Control Act 1972 and related regulations, for all issuances and transfers of securities of Bermuda companies, other than in cases where the BMA has granted a general permission. The BMA in its policy dated June 1, 2005 provides that where any equity securities, including OneBeacon's common shares, of a Bermuda company are listed on an appointed stock exchange, general permission is given for the issue and subsequent transfer of any securities of a company from and/or to a non-resident, for as long as any equities securities of such company remain so listed. The New York Stock Exchange is deemed to be an appointed stock exchange under Bermuda law. Notwithstanding the above general permission, the BMA has granted OneBeacon permission to, subject to OneBeacon's common shares being listed on an appointed stock exchange, (a) issue and transfer its shares, up to the amount of our authorized capital from time to time, to persons resident and non-resident of Bermuda for exchange control purposes; (b) issue and transfer its options, warrants, depositary receipts, rights, and other securities; and (c) issue and transfer its loan notes and other debt instruments and options, warrants, receipts, rights over loan notes and other debt instruments to persons resident and non-resident of Bermuda for exchange control purposes without the approval of the BMA. The BMA accepts no responsibility for the financial soundness of any proposal or for the correctness of any of the statements made or opinions expressed in this prospectus.

As permitted by the rules and regulations of the SEC, the registration statement, of which this prospectus forms a part, includes additional information not contained in this prospectus. You may read the registration statement and the other reports we file with the SEC at the SEC's web site or at the SEC's offices described below under the heading "Where You Can Find Additional Information."

In particular, you should consider the risk factors set forth in each of OneBeacon's and OB Holdings' most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC, in each case as those risk factors are amended or supplemented by subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q. The risks and uncertainties we have described are not the only ones facing our company. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial may also affect our business operations. Additional risk factors may be included in a prospectus supplement relating to a particular series or offering of securities.

SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus, any prospectus supplement and the documents we incorporate by reference in this prospectus include "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, which we refer to as the Securities Act, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, which we refer to as the Exchange Act. All statements, other than statements of historical facts, included in this prospectus, any accompanying prospectus supplement and any document we incorporate by reference that address activities, events or developments which we expect or anticipate will or may occur in the future are forward-looking statements. The words "will," "believe," "intend," "expect," "anticipate," "project," "estimate," "predict" and similar expressions are also intended to identify forward-looking statements. These statements are based on certain assumptions and analyses made by us in light of our experience and perception of historical trends, current conditions and expected future developments, as well as other factors believed to be appropriate in the circumstances. However, whether actual results and developments will conform with our expectations and predictions is subject to a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from expectations, including:

the risks discussed in any prospectus supplement and in the documents we incorporate by reference; recorded loss and loss adjustment expense reserves subsequently proving to have been inadequate;

claims arising from catastrophic events, such as hurricanes, windstorms, earthquakes, floods or terrorist attacks;

the continued availability and cost of reinsurance;

other factors, most of which are beyond our control.

Consequently, all of the forward-looking statements made in this prospectus, any accompanying prospectus supplement and any document we incorporate by reference are qualified by these cautionary statements, and there can be no assurance that the actual results or developments anticipated by us will be realized or, even if substantially realized, that they will have the expected consequences to, or effects on, us or our business or operations. Ratio of earnings to fixed charges	7.9	4.6	10.7		8.1	7.3

- (1) Effective January 1, 2008, we adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 159, "The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Liabilities", subsequently codified within FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 825, and elected to record the changes in unrealized gains and losses from our available-for-sale securities and our investments in limited partnerships, hedge funds and private equity interests in net income. In prior periods, these changes have been included in other comprehensive income. Accordingly, earnings for the years ended December 31, 2010, 2009 and 2008 and the three months ended March 31, 2011 are not directly comparable to earnings for the years ended December 31, 2007 and 2006. The changes in net unrealized investment gains and losses, reflected in earnings, for the years ended December 31, 2010, 2009 and 2008 were $(7.3) million, $269.1 million and $(444.7) million, respectively, and for the three months ended March 31, 2011 was $5.1 million.
- (2) Earnings were insufficient to cover fixed charges and combined fixed charges and preferred stock dividends in the year ended December 31, 2008. During the year ended December 31, 2008, the dollar amounts of the deficiency of earnings to cover fixed charges and to cover combined fixed charges and preferred stock dividends were approximately $600.6 million and $634.0 million, respectively.
- (3) Preferred stock dividends relate to (A) shares of Series A preferred stock of OneBeacon U.S. Holdings, Inc., an indirect subsidiary of OneBeacon and the parent entity of OB Holdings, all of which were redeemed on June 29, 2007, and (B) shares of Series A preferred stock of OB Holdings, all of which were redeemed on May 30, 2008.

We have computed the ratio of earnings to fixed charges set forth above by dividing earnings by fixed charges. We have computed the ratio of earnings to combined fixed charges and preferred stock dividends set forth above by dividing earnings by combined fixed charges and preferred stock dividends. For the purpose of determining the ratios, earnings include pre-tax income from continuing operations before equity in earnings of affiliates plus fixed charges (excluding capitalized interest). Fixed charges consist of interest on all indebtedness (including capitalized interest) plus the interest portion of operating lease rental expense. Preferred stock dividends consist of dividends and accretion on preferred stock.

SELLING SHAREHOLDERS

The Selling Shareholders, Lone Tree Holdings Ltd. and Sirius International Holdings (NL) B.V., are wholly owned subsidiaries of White Mountains, which has held the shares offered by the Selling Shareholders pursuant to this prospectus since before OneBeacon's initial public offering in November 2006. For information on our relationship with the Selling Shareholders and related person transactions involving the Selling Shareholders and their parent, White Mountains, including those relating to our separation from White Mountains as a result of our initial public offering in November 2006 and certain contractual arrangements with White Mountains, please refer to the section entitled "Transactions with Related Persons, Promoters and Certain Control Persons" in our Definitive Proxy Statement filed with the SEC on April 7, 2011 and to the notes to our audited and unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements that have been incorporated in this prospectus by reference.

As of March 31, 2011, we had 22,661,739 Class A common shares outstanding and 71,754,738 Class B common shares outstanding. The Class B common shares may only be owned by White Mountains and its affiliates. Upon any sale or other disposition by White Mountains of its Class B common shares to any person other than White Mountains or an affiliate of White Mountains, such Class B common shares will automatically be converted into Class A common shares. In addition, on the first date on which White Mountains no longer beneficially owns at least 20% of our outstanding common shares, all outstanding Class B common shares will automatically be converted into Class A common shares, and we will no longer be authorized to issue Class B common shares.

In connection with our initial public offering, we granted certain registration rights to White Mountains and its transferees, including the Selling Shareholders. The following table sets forth, to our knowledge, certain information about the Selling Shareholders as of March 31, 2011. Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the SEC and includes voting or investment power with respect to our common shares. We will supplement or amend this prospectus to include additional Selling Shareholders upon White Mountains' request. Information concerning the Selling Shareholders may change from time to time and any changed information will be set forth in supplements to this prospectus if and when necessary.

(1) We do not know when or in what amounts the Selling Shareholders may offer shares for sale. The Selling Shareholders might not sell any or all of the Class A common shares offered by this prospectus. Because the Selling Shareholders may offer all or some of the Class A common shares pursuant to this offering, and because there are currently no agreements, arrangements or understandings with respect to the sale of any of the Class A common shares, we cannot estimate the number of the shares that will be held by the Selling Shareholders after completion of the offering. However, for purposes of this table, we have assumed that, after completion of the offering, none of the Class A common shares covered by this prospectus will be held by the Selling Shareholders.

(2) The shares held by the Selling Shareholders are Class B common shares, which will automatically be converted into Class A common shares on a one-for-one basis upon any sale or other disposition to any person other than White Mountains or an affiliate of White Mountains. White Mountains, through the Selling Shareholders, beneficially owns all of the outstanding Class B common shares.

DESCRIPTION OF ONEBEACON'S SHARE CAPITAL

The following description of OneBeacon's share capital, together with the additional information included in any prospectus supplement, summarizes the material terms and provisions of OneBeacon's share capital and reflects OneBeacon's memorandum of association and amended and restated bye-laws and is a summary of the material terms of these documents and relevant sections of the Companies Act 1981 of Bermuda, or the Companies Act. OneBeacon's memorandum of association and amended and restated bye-laws are incorporated by reference as exhibits to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part, and we refer to them in this prospectus as the memorandum of association and bye-laws, respectively. The summaries of these documents are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the documents.

OneBeacon is an exempted company organized under the Companies Act. The rights of OneBeacon's shareholders are governed by Bermuda law, OneBeacon's memorandum of association and bye-laws. The Companies Act may differ in some material respects from laws generally applicable to U.S. corporations and their shareholders. The following is a summary of the material provisions of Bermuda law and OneBeacon's organizational documents.

OneBeacon's authorized share capital consists of (1) 200,000,000 shares of Class A common shares, par value $0.01 per share, (2) 200,000,000 Class B common shares, par value $0.01 per share and (3) 80,000,000 preference shares, par value $0.01 per share. We refer to OneBeacon's Class A common shares and Class B common shares collectively as OneBeacon's "common shares." As of March 31, 2011, 22,661,739 Class A common shares, 71,754,738 Class B common shares and no preference shares were outstanding.

Common Shares

Voting Rights

Except for the approval rights of the holders of the Class B common shares over certain corporate actions and except to the extent provided for below, holders of Class A common shares are entitled to one vote per share and holders of Class B common shares are entitled to 10 votes per share on all matters submitted to a vote of OneBeacon's common shares. Other than with respect to voting and other than as required by law, the rights of the holders of the Class A common shares are identical to those of the Class B common shares. Until the time that White Mountains ceases to be entitled to 20% or more of the votes entitled to be cast, the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the votes entitled to be cast is required to alter, amend or repeal, or adopt any provision inconsistent with the voting provisions described above.

Class A shareholders are entitled to one vote per Class A common share, except to the extent modified below. If and so long as the votes conferred by "Controlled" Class A common shares (as defined below) of any person, other than White Mountains, constitute more than 9.5% of the votes conferred by OneBeacon's outstanding common shares, the vote conferred by each Class A common share comprised in such Controlled Class A common shares shall be reduced by whatever amount is necessary so that after any such reduction the votes conferred by such shares constitute 9.5% of the votes conferred by OneBeacon's outstanding common shares.

In giving effect to the foregoing provisions, the reduction in the vote conferred by the Controlled Class A common shares of any person shall be effected proportionately among all the Controlled Class A common shares of such person; provided, however, that if a holder of OneBeacon's common shares owns, or is treated as owning by the application of Section 958 of the Internal Revenue Code, interests in another holder of OneBeacon's common shares, the reduction in votes conferred by Controlled Class A common shares of such holder (determined solely on the basis of Controlled Class A common shares held directly by such holder and Controlled Class A common shares attributed from such other holder) shall first be effected by reducing the votes conferred on the Controlled Class A common shares held directly by such holder and any remaining reduction in votes shall then be conferred proportionately among the Controlled Class A common shares held by the other holders (in each case, to the extent that so doing does not cause any person to be treated as owning Controlled Class A common shares constituting more than 9.5% of the votes conferred by the outstanding common shares of One Beacon). In the event that the aggregate reductions required by the foregoing provisions result in less than 100 percent of the voting power of the shares being entitled to be cast, the excess of 100 percent of the voting power over the votes entitled to be cast shall be conferred on the Class A common shares held by OneBeacon's holders proportionately, based on the number of Class A common shares held by each holder; to the extent that doing so does not cause any person to be treated as owning Controlled Class A common shares constituting more than 9.5% of the votes conferred by the outstanding common shares of One Beacon.

"Controlled" Class A common shares in reference to any person means:

- (1) all Class A common shares directly, indirectly or constructively owned by such person within the meaning of Section 958 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, of the United States; and
- (2) all Class A common shares directly, indirectly or constructively owned by any person or "group" of persons within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder; provided that this clause (ii) shall not apply to any person or group that OneBeacon's board of directors, by the affirmative vote of at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the entire board, may exempt from the provisions of this clause.

Upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of OneBeacon, the holders of OneBeacon's common shares are entitled to receive their ratable share of OneBeacon's net assets available after payment of all debts and other liabilities, subject to the prior rights of any outstanding preferred shares.

As of March 31, 2011, White Mountains and its subsidiaries beneficially owned all of OneBeacon's outstanding Class B common shares, representing 96.9% of the voting power of OneBeacon's voting securities and 76.0% of the equity interest in OneBeacon. Unless a different majority is required by law or by OneBeacon's bye-laws, resolutions to be approved by holders of common shares require approval by a simple majority of votes cast at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

Variation of Rights

The rights attaching to a particular class, unless otherwise provided for by the terms of issue of the relevant class, may be varied either: (1) with the consent in writing of the holders of a majority of the issued shares of that class; or (2) with the sanction of a resolution passed by a majority of the votes cast at a general meeting of the relevant class of shareholders at which a quorum consisting of at least one person holding or representing one-third of the issued shares of the relevant class is present. OneBeacon's bye-laws specify that the creation or issue of shares ranking equally with existing shares will not, unless expressly provided by the terms of issue of existing shares, vary the rights attached to existing shares. In addition, the creation or issue of preference shares ranking prior to common shares will not be deemed to vary the rights attached to common shares or, subject to the terms of any other series of preference shares, to vary the rights attached to any other series of preference shares.

Dividends

Under Bermuda law, a company's board of directors may declare and pay dividends from time to time unless there are reasonable grounds for believing that the company is, or would after the payment be, unable to pay its liabilities as they become due or that the realizable value of its assets would thereby be less than the aggregate of its liabilities and issued share capital and share premium accounts. Under OneBeacon's bye-laws, each common share is entitled to dividends if, as and when dividends are declared by OneBeacon's board of directors, subject to any preferred dividend right of the holders of any preference shares. There are no restrictions on OneBeacon's ability to transfer funds (other than funds denominated in Bermuda dollars) in and out of Bermuda or to pay dividends to U.S. residents who are holders of OneBeacon's common shares.

Conversion

The Class B common shares may only be owned by White Mountains and its affiliates. Upon any sale or other disposition by White Mountains of its Class B common shares to any person other than White Mountains or an affiliate of White Mountains, the Class B common shares will automatically be converted into Class A common shares. In addition, on the first date on which White Mountains no longer beneficially owns at least 20% of OneBeacon's outstanding common shares, all outstanding shares of Class B common shares will automatically be converted into shares of Class A common shares, and OneBeacon will no longer be authorized to issue Class B common shares.

Other Rights

The Class A common shares do not have any preemptive, subscription, redemption or conversion rights.

Approval Rights of Holders of Class B Common Shares

OneBeacon's bye-laws provide that, for so long as Class B common shares are outstanding, the prior consent of the holder of Class B common shares then outstanding will be required for:

any consolidation, merger or amalgamation of OneBeacon or any of OneBeacon's subsidiaries with any person, other than a consolidation, merger or amalgamation with a subsidiary; and any sale, lease, exchange or other disposition or any acquisition by OneBeacon, other than transactions between OneBeacon and its subsidiaries, or any series of related dispositions or acquisitions, involving consideration in excess of $25 million.

Preference Shares

The following description of OneBeacon's preference shares, together with the additional information included in any prospectus supplement, summarizes the material terms and provisions of these types of securities. If OneBeacon issues preference shares, the certificate of designation for the preference shares will be filed with the SEC as an exhibit to a Current Report on Form 8-K and a prospectus supplement will contain a full description of the terms thereof.

Pursuant to Bermuda law and OneBeacon's bye-laws, OneBeacon's board of directors by resolution may establish one or more series of OneBeacon's preference shares and to determine, with respect to any series of its preference shares, the terms and rights of such series, including without limitation:

the designation of the series;

the number of shares of each series, which number OneBeacon's board of directors may thereafter, except where otherwise provided in the applicable certificate of designation, increase or decrease, but not below the number of shares thereof then outstanding;

the rights in respect of any dividends or method of determining such dividends payable to the holders of the shares of such series, any conditions upon which such dividends will be paid and the dates or method of determining the dates upon which such dividends will be payable;

whether dividends, if any, will be cumulative or noncumulative;

Table of Contents

the terms of redemption, if any, for shares of the series;

the amount payable to holders of shares of the series in the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of OneBeacon's affairs;

whether the shares of the series will be convertible or exchangeable into shares of any other class or series, or any other security, of OneBeacon or any other corporation, and, if so, the terms of such conversion or exchange; restrictions on the issuance of shares of the same series or of any other class or series;

the voting rights, if any, of the holders of the shares of the series; and any other relative rights, preferences and limitations of the series.

Any preference shares of any series which have been redeemed (whether through the operation of a sinking fund or otherwise) or which, if convertible or exchangeable, have been converted into or exchanged for shares of any other class or classes shall have the status of authorized and unissued preference shares of the same series and may be reissued as a part of the series of which they were originally a part or may be reclassified and reissued as part of a new series of preference shares to be created by resolution or resolutions of the board of directors or as part of any other series of preference shares, all subject to the conditions and the restrictions on issuance set forth in the resolution or resolutions adopted by the board of directors providing for the issue of any series of preference shares.

Registration Rights Agreement

In connection with OneBeacon's initial public offering in November 2006, OneBeacon entered into a registration rights agreement dated November 14, 2006 with White Mountains that provides that White Mountains can demand that OneBeacon register the distribution of its common shares owned by White Mountains, which is referred to as "demand" registration rights. In addition, White Mountains has "piggyback" registration rights, which means that White Mountains may include its shares in any future registrations of OneBeacon's common equity securities, whether or not that registration relates to a primary offering by OneBeacon or a secondary offering by or on behalf of any of OneBeacon's shareholders. These registration rights are transferable by White Mountains. OneBeacon will pay all costs and expenses in connection with each such registration, except underwriting discounts and commissions applicable to the common shares sold by White Mountains. The registration rights agreement contains customary terms and provisions with respect to, among other things, registration procedures and rights to indemnification in connection with the registration of the common shares on behalf of White Mountains. OneBeacon will register sales of its common shares owned by employees and directors of White Mountains pursuant to employee share or option plans, but only to the extent such registration is required for the shares to be freely tradable.

Certain Provisions of OneBeacon's Memorandum of Association and Bye-laws

The provisions of OneBeacon's memorandum of association and bye-laws and of the Companies Act summarized below may have an anti-takeover effect, may delay, defer or prevent a tender offer or takeover attempt that OneBeacon's shareholder might consider in their best interest, including an attempt that might result in a shareholder's receipt of a premium over the market price for shares, and may make more difficult the removal of OneBeacon's incumbent directors.

Election and Removal of Directors

OneBeacon's bye-laws provide that its board of directors is divided into three classes. The term of the first class of directors expires at OneBeacon's 2013 annual general meeting of shareholders, the term of the second class of directors expires at its 2011 annual general meeting of shareholders and the term of the third class of directors expires at its 2012 annual general meeting of shareholders. At each of OneBeacon's annual general meetings of shareholders, the successors of the class of directors whose term expires at that meeting of shareholders will be elected for a three-year term, one class being elected each year by its shareholders. In addition, if the number of directors is changed, any increase or decrease will be apportioned among the classes so as to maintain the number of directors in each class as nearly equal as possible, and any additional director of any class elected to fill a vacancy resulting from an increase in such class will hold office for a term that will coincide with the remaining term of that class, but in no case will a decrease in the number of directors shorten the term of any incumbent director. The board of directors has and, for so long as White Mountains owns, directly or indirectly, shares representing a majority of the voting power of OneBeacon's then outstanding shares, White Mountains will have the authority to fill any vacancy on the board of directors, whether such vacancy occurs as a result of an increase in the number of directors or otherwise. This system of electing and removing directors may discourage a third party from making a tender offer or otherwise attempting to obtain control of us if White Mountains no longer controls us because it generally makes it more difficult for shareholders to replace a majority of the directors.

The bye-laws also provide that directors may be removed only for cause at a meeting of shareholders at which a quorum is present by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast thereon provided notice of a shareholders' meeting convened to remove the director is given to the director. Any amendment to the provisions of the bye-laws described in this paragraph requires the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast on such matter.

Each director elected by the holders of the common shares will serve until the earlier of his or her death, resignation, disqualification, removal or until his successor is elected and qualified. The common shares will not have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors.

As of March 31, 2011, White Mountains and its subsidiaries beneficially owned all of OneBeacon's outstanding Class B common shares, representing 96.9% of the voting power of OneBeacon's voting securities and 76.0% of the equity interest in OneBeacon. Therefore, White Mountains has the power to elect all of the members of OneBeacon's board of directors that are elected by shareholders and has the power to control all matters requiring shareholder approval or consent.

Meetings of Shareholders

Under Bermuda law, a company is required to convene at least one general meeting of shareholders each calendar year. Bermuda law provides that a special general meeting of shareholders may be called by the board of directors of a company and must be called upon the request of shareholders holding not less than 10% of the paid-up capital of the company carrying the right to vote at general meetings. Bermuda law also requires that shareholders be given at least five days' advance notice of a general meeting, but the accidental omission to give notice to any person does not invalidate the proceedings at a meeting. OneBeacon's bye-laws provide that the chairman, the president or a majority of OneBeacon's board of directors or a shareholder or shareholders representing a majority of the voting power of the issued and outstanding shares may convene an annual general meeting or a special general meeting. Under OneBeacon's bye-laws, at least five days' notice of an annual general meeting or a special general meeting must be given to each shareholder entitled to vote at such meeting. This notice requirement is subject to the ability to hold such meetings on shorter notice if such notice is agreed: (1) in the case of an annual general meeting by all of the shareholders entitled to attend and vote at such meeting; or (2) in the case of a special general meeting by a majority in number of the shareholders entitled to attend and vote at the meeting holding not less than 95% in nominal value of the shares entitled to vote at such meeting. The quorum required for a general meeting of shareholders is one or more persons present in person at the start of the meeting and representing in person or by proxy in excess of 50% of the total issued voting shares.

Advance Notice Requirements for Nominations

Except with respect to candidates nominated for election by holders of OneBeacon's Class B common shares, OneBeacon's bye-laws contain advance notice procedures with regard to shareholder proposals related to the nomination of candidates for election as directors. These procedures provide that any shareholder entitled to vote for the election of directors may nominate persons for election as directors only if written notice of such shareholders' intent to make such nomination is given to OneBeacon's corporate secretary not later than (1) with respect to an election to be held at an annual general meeting, not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting or not later than 10 days after notice or public disclosure of the date of the annual meeting is given or made available to shareholders, whichever date is earlier, and (2) with respect to an election to be held at a special general meeting for the election of directors, the close of business on the tenth day following the date on which notice of such meeting is first given to shareholders.

A shareholders' notice to OneBeacon's corporate secretary must be in proper written form and must set forth information related to the shareholder giving the notice, including:

the name and record address of the shareholder;

the class and number of shares of OneBeacon's share capital which are owned beneficially and of record by the shareholder;

a representation that the shareholder is a holder of record of OneBeacon's shares entitled to vote at that meeting and that the shareholder intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to bring the nomination before the meeting; and a representation whether the shareholder intends or is part of a group which intends to deliver a proxy statement or form of proxy to holders of at least the percentage of OneBeacon's outstanding shares required to elect the nominee, or otherwise to solicit proxies from shareholders in support of such nomination.

As to each person whom the shareholder proposes to nominate for election as a director:

a description of all arrangements or understandings between the shareholder and the nominee;

all information relating to the person that would be required to be disclosed in a proxy statement or other filings required to be made in connection with solicitations of proxies for election of directors pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; and the nominee's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected.

Advance Notice Requirements for Shareholders Proposals

OneBeacon's bye-laws contain advance notice procedures with regard to shareholder proposals not related to director nominations. These notice procedures, in the case of an annual meeting of shareholders, are the same as the notice requirements for shareholder proposals related to director nominations discussed above insofar as they relate to the timing of receipt of notice by OneBeacon's corporate secretary.

A shareholders' notice to OneBeacon's corporate secretary must be in proper written form and must set forth, as to each matter the shareholder and the beneficial owner (if any) proposes to bring before the meeting:

a description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting, the text of the proposal or business (including the text of any resolutions proposed for consideration and if such business includes a proposal to amend OneBeacon's bye-laws, the language of the proposed amendment), the reasons for conducting the business at the meeting and any material interest in such business of such shareholder and beneficial owner on whose behalf the proposal is made;

the name and record address of the shareholder;

the class and number of shares of OneBeacon's share capital which are owned and of record by the shareholder and beneficial owner;

a representation that the shareholder is a holder of record of OneBeacon's shares entitled to vote at the meeting and that the shareholder intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to propose such business; and

a representation as to whether the shareholder or beneficial owner intends or is part of a group which intends to deliver a proxy statement or form of proxy to holders of at least the percentage of OneBeacon's outstanding share capital required to approve or adopt the business proposal, or otherwise to solicit proxies from shareholders in support of such proposal.

Access to Books and Records and Dissemination of Information

Members of the general public have the right to inspect the public documents of a company available at the office of the Registrar of Companies in Bermuda. These documents include a company's memorandum of association, including its objects and powers, and alterations to its memorandum of association. The shareholders have the additional right to inspect the bye-laws of the company, minutes of general meetings and the company's audited historical consolidated financial statements, which must be presented at the annual general meeting. The register of shareholders of a company also is open to inspection by shareholders and by members of the general public without charge. A company is required to maintain its share register in Bermuda but may, subject to the provisions of Bermuda law, establish a branch register outside Bermuda. OneBeacon maintains its principal share register in Hamilton, Bermuda. A company is required to keep at its registered office a register of its directors and officers that is open for inspection for not less than two hours each day by members of the public without charge. Bermuda law does not, however, provide a general right for shareholders to inspect or obtain copies of any other corporate records.

Amendments to OneBeacon's Memorandum of Association and Bye-laws

Bermuda law provides that the memorandum of association of a company may be amended by a resolution passed at a general meeting of shareholders. OneBeacon's bye-laws provide that no bye-law shall be rescinded, altered or amended, and no new bye-law shall be made, unless it shall have been approved by a resolution of OneBeacon's board of directors and by a resolution of OneBeacon's shareholders, provided that, if under applicable law, action by OneBeacon's board of directors would be sufficient to amend a bye-law then only a resolution of OneBeacon's board of directors is required to amend such bye-law. In the case of certain bye-laws, such as the bye-laws relating to election of directors, rights of holders of Class B shares and amendment of OneBeacon's corporate opportunity provision, the required resolutions must include the affirmative vote of a majority of OneBeacon's directors then in office and the holders of a majority of the voting power of the issued and outstanding shares. OneBeacon's bye-laws provide that the affirmative vote of a majority of OneBeacon's board of directors and the holders of at least two-thirds of the voting power of the issued and outstanding shares will be required to amend, alter, change or repeal or adopt any provision inconsistent with the bye-laws relating to the removal of directors. For so long as White Mountains owns more than 20% of the total common equity, the affirmative vote of a majority of the board of directors and at least 80% of the voting power of the issued and outstanding shares will be required to adopt any provision inconsistent with the bye-laws relating to the rights of the Class B shares.

Table of Contents

Under Bermuda law, the holders of an aggregate of not less than 20% in par value of the company's issued share capital or any class thereof have the right to apply to the Supreme Court of Bermuda for an annulment of any amendment of the memorandum of association adopted by shareholders at any general meeting, other than an amendment which alters or reduces a company's share capital as provided in the Companies Act. Where such an application is made, the amendment becomes effective only to the extent that it is confirmed by the Bermuda court. An application for an annulment of an amendment of the memorandum of association must be made within twenty-one days after the date on which the resolution altering the company's memorandum of association is passed and may be made on behalf of persons entitled to make the application by one or more of their number as they may appoint in writing for the purpose. No application may be made by shareholders voting in favor of the amendment.

Provisions of OneBeacon's Bye-Laws Relating to Related Party Transactions and Corporate Opportunities

In order to address potential conflicts of interest between OneBeacon and White Mountains, OneBeacon's bye-laws contain provisions regulating and defining the conduct of OneBeacon's affairs as they may involve White Mountains and its officers and directors, and OneBeacon's powers, rights, duties and liabilities and those of OneBeacon's officers, directors and shareholders in connection with OneBeacon's relationship with White Mountains. In general, these provisions recognize that OneBeacon and White Mountains may engage in the same or similar business activities and lines of business, have an interest in the same areas of corporate opportunities and that OneBeacon and White Mountains will continue to have contractual and business relations with each other, including service of officers and directors of White Mountains serving as OneBeacon's directors.

OneBeacon's bye-laws provide that White Mountains will have no duty to refrain from:

engaging in the same or similar business activities or lines of business as OneBeacon, doing business with any of OneBeacon's clients or customers, or employing or otherwise engaging any of OneBeacon's officers or employees.

OneBeacon's bye-laws provide that neither White Mountains nor any officer or director of White Mountains, except as described in the following paragraph, will be liable to OneBeacon or its shareholders for breach of any fiduciary duty by reason of any such activities. OneBeacon's bye-laws provide that White Mountains is not under any duty to present any corporate opportunity to OneBeacon which may be a corporate opportunity for White Mountains and OneBeacon, and White Mountains will not be liable to OneBeacon or its shareholders for breach of any fiduciary duty as OneBeacon's shareholder by reason of the fact that White Mountains pursues or acquires that corporate opportunity for itself, directs that corporate opportunity to another person or does not present that corporate opportunity to OneBeacon.

When one of OneBeacon's directors or officers who is also a director or officer of White Mountains learns of a potential transaction or matter that may be a corporate opportunity for both OneBeacon and White Mountains, the bye-laws provide that the director or officer:

will have fully satisfied his or her fiduciary duties to OneBeacon with respect to that corporate opportunity, will not be liable to OneBeacon or its shareholders for breach of fiduciary duty by reason of White Mountains' actions with respect to that corporate opportunity, will be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, and not opposed to, OneBeacon's best interests for purposes of OneBeacon's bye-laws, and will be deemed not to have breached his or her duty of loyalty to OneBeacon or its shareholders and not to have derived an improper personal benefit therefrom for purposes of OneBeacon's bye-laws, if he or she acts in good faith in a manner consistent with the following policy:

a corporate opportunity offered to any of OneBeacon's officers or employees who is also a director but not an officer or employee of White Mountains will belong to OneBeacon, unless that opportunity is expressly offered to that person solely in his or her capacity as a director of White Mountains, in which case that opportunity will belong to White Mountains;

a corporate opportunity offered to any of OneBeacon's directors who is not one of its officers and who is also a director or an officer of White Mountains will belong to White Mountains, unless such opportunity is expressly offered to that person solely in his or her capacity as a director of OneBeacon, and otherwise will belong to OneBeacon; and a corporate opportunity offered to any of OneBeacon's officers or employees who is also an officer or employee of White Mountains will belong to White Mountains, unless that opportunity is expressly offered to that person solely in his or her capacity as an officer of OneBeacon, in which case that opportunity will belong to OneBeacon.

For purposes of the bye-laws, "corporate opportunities" include business opportunities that OneBeacon is financially able to undertake, that are, from their nature, in OneBeacon's lines of business, are of practical advantage to OneBeacon and are ones in which OneBeacon has an interest or a reasonable expectancy, and in which, by embracing the opportunities, the self-interest of White Mountains or its officers or directors will be brought into conflict with OneBeacon's self-interest.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, White Mountains and OneBeacon's directors who are also officers or directors of White Mountains have indicated to OneBeacon that, subject to their fiduciary duties to White Mountains, and based on existing circumstances, it is their current intention to make corporate opportunities available to OneBeacon when they are appropriate and appear to represent a good fit with OneBeacon's business and strategy. In applying this standard, White Mountains and such directors have further indicated that they intend to use reasonable business judgment in evaluating corporate opportunities and, subject to their fiduciary duties to White Mountains, will consider all relevant facts and circumstances, including the content of any material describing the opportunity, OneBeacon's ability to finance any such opportunity and whether the opportunity is complementary to OneBeacon's business and will enhance OneBeacon's and White Mountains' shareholder value.

The bye-laws also provide that no contract, agreement, arrangement or transaction between OneBeacon and White Mountains will be void or voidable solely for the reason that White Mountains is a party to such agreement and White Mountains:

will have fully satisfied and fulfilled its fiduciary duties to OneBeacon and its shareholders with respect to the contract, agreement, arrangement or transaction, will not be liable to OneBeacon or its shareholders for breach of fiduciary duty by reason of entering into, performance or consummation of any such contract, agreement, arrangement or transaction, will be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner it reasonably believed to be in, and not opposed to, the best interests of OneBeacon for purposes of the bye-laws, and will be deemed not to have breached its duties of loyalty to OneBeacon and its shareholders and not to have derived an improper personal benefit therefrom for purposes of the bye-laws, the material facts as to the contract, agreement, arrangement or transaction are disclosed or are known to OneBeacon's board of directors or the committee of its board that authorizes the contract, agreement, arrangement or transaction and OneBeacon's board of directors or that committee in good faith authorizes the contract, agreement, arrangement or transaction by the affirmative vote of a majority of the disinterested directors;

the material facts as to the contract, agreement, arrangement or transaction are disclosed or are known to the holders of OneBeacon's shares entitled to vote on such contract, agreement, arrangement or transaction and the contract, agreement, arrangement or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the holders of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of the common shares then outstanding not owned by White Mountains or a related entity; or the transaction, judged according to the circumstances at the time of the commitment, is established to have been fair to OneBeacon.

Any person purchasing or otherwise acquiring any interest in any shares of OneBeacon's share capital will be deemed to have consented to these provisions of the bye-laws.

So long as White Mountains' economic equity ownership in us is at least 20%, the affirmative vote of a majority of the board of directors and the holders of at least 80% of the votes entitled to be cast is required to alter, amend or repeal, or adopt any provision inconsistent with the corporate opportunity and interested director provisions described above; however, after White Mountains no longer owns at least 20% of the total outstanding common equity, any such alteration, adoption, amendment or repeal would be approved if a quorum is present and the votes favoring the action exceed the votes opposing it. Accordingly, until such time, so long as White Mountains owns at least 20% of the total outstanding common equity, it can prevent any such alteration, adoption, amendment or repeal.

Certain Other Provisions of OneBeacon's Bye-laws

Indemnification of Directors and Officers

OneBeacon's bye-laws provide that each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that such person, or a person of whom such person is the legal representative, is or was a director or officer of OneBeacon or, while a director or officer of OneBeacon, is or was serving at its request as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust, enterprise or nonprofit entity, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, whether the basis of such proceeding is the alleged action of such person in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, employee or agent, will be indemnified and held harmless by us to the fullest extent authorized by the Companies Act against all expense, liability and loss reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection therewith. OneBeacon's bye-laws also provide that OneBeacon will pay the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition, subject to the provisions of the Companies Act. These rights are not exclusive of any other right that any person may have or acquire under any statute, provision of OneBeacon's memorandum of association, bye-laws, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise. No repeal or modification of these provisions will in any way diminish or adversely affect the rights of any director, officer, employee or agent of OneBeacon under its memorandum of association in respect of any occurrence or matter arising prior to any such repeal or modification. OneBeacon's bye-laws also specifically authorize it to maintain insurance and to grant similar indemnification rights to its employees or agents.

Appraisal Rights and Shareholder Suits

Under Bermuda law, in the event of an amalgamation of a Bermuda company with another company, a shareholder of the Bermuda company who is not satisfied that fair value has been offered for his or her shares in the Bermuda company may apply to the Bermuda Court to appraise the fair value of his or her shares. Under Bermuda law and OneBeacon's bye-laws, an amalgamation by OneBeacon with another company would require the amalgamation agreement be approved by OneBeacon's board of directors and by resolution of its shareholders.

Class actions and derivative actions are generally not available to shareholders under Bermuda law. The Bermuda Court, however, would ordinarily be expected to permit a shareholder to commence an action in the name of a company to remedy a wrong done to the company where the act complained of is alleged to be beyond the corporate power of the company or is illegal or would result in violation of the company's memorandum of association or bye-laws. Furthermore, consideration would be given by the Bermuda Court to acts that are alleged to constitute a fraud against the minority shareholders or, for instance, where an act requires the approval of a greater percentage of the company's shareholders than that which actually approved it.

When the affairs of a company are being conducted in a manner oppressive or prejudicial to the interests of some part of the shareholders, one or more shareholders may apply to the Bermuda Court, which may make an order as it sees fit, including an order regulating the conduct of the company's affairs in the future or ordering the purchase of the shares of any shareholder, by other shareholders or by the company.

Foreign Exchange Controls

OneBeacon has been designated as a non-resident of Bermuda for the purposes of the Exchange Control Act, 1972 and, as such, is free to acquire, hold and sell foreign currency and securities without restriction.

Board of Director Actions

Under Bermuda law, the directors of a Bermuda company owe their fiduciary duty principally to the company rather than the shareholders. OneBeacon's bye-laws provide that some actions are required to be approved by OneBeacon's board of directors. Actions must be approved by a majority of the votes present and entitled to be cast at a properly convened meeting of OneBeacon's board of directors.

OneBeacon's bye-laws contain a provision by virtue of which its shareholders waive any claim or right of action that they have, both individually and on its behalf, against any director or officer in relation to any action or failure to take action by such director or officer, except in respect of any fraud or dishonesty of such director or officer. OneBeacon's bye-laws also indemnify its directors and officers in respect of their actions and omissions, except in respect of their fraud or dishonesty. The indemnification provided in OneBeacon's bye-laws is not exclusive of other indemnification rights to which a director or officer may be entitled, provided these rights do not extend to his or her fraud or dishonesty.

OneBeacon's bye-laws provide that its business is to be managed and conducted by its board of directors. Bermuda law requires that OneBeacon's directors be individuals, but there is no requirement in OneBeacon's bye-laws or Bermuda law that directors hold any shares of OneBeacon. There is also no requirement in OneBeacon's bye-laws or Bermuda law that its directors must retire at a certain age.

The remuneration of OneBeacon's directors is determined by the board of directors. OneBeacon's directors may also be paid all travel, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with OneBeacon's business or their duties as directors.

Table of Contents

Provided a director discloses a direct or indirect interest in any contract or arrangement with OneBeacon as required by Bermuda law, such director is entitled to vote in respect of any such contract or arrangement in which he or she is interested unless he or she is disqualified from voting by the chairman of the relevant board meeting.

DESCRIPTION OF DEPOSITARY SHARES

The following description, together with the additional information we may include in any applicable prospectus supplements, summarizes the material terms and provisions of the depositary shares that OneBeacon may offer under this prospectus. While the terms summarized below will apply generally to any depositary shares that OneBeacon may offer, we will describe the particular terms of any series of depositary shares in more detail in the applicable prospectus supplement. If we indicate in the prospectus supplement, the terms of any depositary shares offered under that prospectus supplement may differ from the terms described below. Forms of deposit agreements and depositary receipts will contain additional important terms and provisions and will be incorporated by reference as an exhibit to the registration statement, of which this prospectus forms a part.

OneBeacon may, at its option, elect to offer depositary shares, each representing a fraction (to be set forth in the prospectus supplement relating to our common shares or a particular series of preference shares) of a common share or a fraction of a share of a particular class or series of preference shares as described below. In the event OneBeacon elects to do so, depositary receipts evidencing depositary shares will be issued to the public.

The common shares or the shares of the class or series of preference shares represented by depositary shares will be deposited under a deposit agreement among OneBeacon, a depositary selected by OneBeacon and the holders of the depositary receipts. The depositary will be a bank or trust company having its principal office in the United States and having a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000. Subject to the terms of the deposit agreement, each owner of a depositary share will be entitled, in proportion to the applicable fraction of a common share or preference share represented by such depositary share, to all the rights and preferences of the common shares or preference shares represented thereby (including dividend, voting, redemption and liquidation rights). The depositary shares will be evidenced by depositary receipts issued pursuant to the deposit agreement. Depositary receipts will be distributed to those persons purchasing the fractional common shares or fractional shares of the applicable class or series of preference shares in accordance with the terms of the offering described in the related prospectus supplement.

Pending the preparation of definitive depositary receipts, the depositary may, upon our written order, issue temporary depositary receipts substantially identical to (and entitling the holders thereof to all the rights pertaining to) the definitive depositary receipts but not in definitive form. Definitive depositary receipts will be prepared thereafter without unreasonable delay, and temporary depositary receipts will be exchangeable for definitive depositary receipts without charge to the holder thereof.

Dividends and Other Distributions

The depositary will distribute all cash dividends or other distributions received in respect of the related common shares or preference shares to the record holders of depositary shares relating to such common shares or preference shares in proportion to the number of such depositary shares owned by such holders.

In the event of a distribution other than in cash, the depositary will distribute property received by it to the record holders of depositary shares entitled thereto, unless the depositary determines that it is not feasible to make such distribution, in which case the depositary may, with OneBeacon's approval, sell such property and distribute the net proceeds from the sale to such holders.

Withdrawal of Shares

Upon surrender of the depositary receipts at the corporate trust office of the depositary (unless the related depositary shares have previously been called for redemption), the holder of the depositary shares evidenced thereby is entitled to delivery of the number of whole shares of the related common shares or class or series of preference shares and any money or other property represented by such depositary shares. Holders of depositary shares will be entitled to receive whole shares of the related common shares or class or series of preference shares on the basis set forth in the prospectus supplement for such common shares or class or series of preference shares, but holders of such whole common shares or preference shares will not thereafter be entitled to exchange them for depositary shares. If the depositary receipts delivered by the holder evidence a number of depositary shares in excess of the number of depositary shares representing the number of whole common shares or preference shares to be withdrawn, the depositary will deliver to such holder at the same time a new depositary receipt evidencing such excess number of depositary shares. In no event will fractional common shares or preference shares be delivered upon surrender of depositary receipts to the depositary.

Redemption of Depositary Shares

Whenever OneBeacon redeems common shares or preference shares held by the depositary, the depositary will redeem as of the same redemption date the number of depositary shares representing common shares or shares of the related class or series of preference shares so redeemed. The redemption price per depositary share will be equal to the applicable fraction of the redemption price per share payable with respect to such common shares or class or series of preference shares. If less than all the depositary shares are to be redeemed, the depositary shares to be redeemed will be selected by lot or pro rata as may be determined by the depositary.

Voting the Common Shares or Preference Shares

Upon receipt of notice of any meeting at which the holders of common shares or preference shares are entitled to vote, the depositary will mail the information contained in such notice of meeting to the record holders of the depositary shares relating to such common shares or preference shares. Each record holder of such depositary shares on the record date (which will be the same date as the record date for common shares or preference shares, as applicable) will be entitled to instruct the depositary as to the exercise of the voting rights pertaining to the amount of common shares or preference shares represented by such holder's depositary shares. The depositary will endeavor, insofar as practicable, to vote the number of the common shares or preference shares represented by such depositary shares in accordance with such instructions, and we will agree to take all action which the depositary deems necessary in order to enable the depositary to do so. The depositary will vote all common shares or preference shares held by it proportionately with instructions received if it does not receive specific instructions from the holders of depositary shares representing such common shares or preference shares.

Amendment and Termination of the Deposit Agreement

The form of depositary receipt evidencing the depositary shares and any provision of the deposit agreement may at any time be amended by agreement between us and the depositary. However, any amendment which materially and adversely alters the rights of the holders of depositary receipts will not be effective unless such amendment has been approved by the holders of depositary receipts representing at least a majority (or, in the case of amendments relating to or affecting rights to receive dividends or distributions or voting or redemption rights, 66<sup>2</sup>/<sub>3</sub>%, unless otherwise provided in the related prospectus supplement) of the depositary shares then outstanding. The deposit agreement may be terminated by OneBeacon or the depositary only if (1) all outstanding depositary shares have been redeemed, (2) there has been a final distribution in respect of the common shares or the preference shares in connection with our liquidation, dissolution or winding up and such distribution has been distributed to the holders of depositary receipts or (3) upon the consent of holders of depositary receipts representing not less than 66<sup>2</sup>/<sub>3</sub>% of the depositary shares outstanding, unless otherwise provided in the related prospectus supplement.

Charges of Depositary

OneBeacon will pay all transfer and other taxes and governmental charges arising solely from the existence of the depositary arrangements. OneBeacon will also pay charges of the depositary in connection with the initial deposit of the related common shares or preference shares and any redemption of such common shares or preference shares. Holders of depositary receipts will pay all other transfer and other taxes and governmental charges and such other charges as are expressly provided in the deposit agreement to be for their accounts.

The depositary may refuse to effect any transfer of a depositary receipt or any withdrawal of common shares or preference shares evidenced thereby until all such taxes and charges with respect to such depositary receipt or such common shares or preference shares are paid by the holders thereof.

Miscellaneous

The depositary will forward to the holders of depositary receipts all reports and communications from OneBeacon that are delivered to the depositary and which OneBeacon is required to furnish to the holders of common shares or preference shares.

Neither OneBeacon nor the depositary will be liable if either OneBeacon or the depositary is prevented or delayed by law or any circumstance beyond its control in performing its obligations under the deposit agreement. OneBeacon's obligations and the obligations of the depositary under the deposit agreement will be limited to performance in good faith of their duties thereunder and neither OneBeacon nor the depositary will be obligated to prosecute or defend any legal proceeding in respect of any depositary shares or class or series of preference shares unless satisfactory indemnity is furnished. OneBeacon and the depositary may rely on written advice of counsel or accountants, or information provided by persons presenting preference shares for deposit, holders of depositary shares or other persons believed to be competent and on documents believed to be genuine.

Resignation and Removal of Depositary

The depositary may resign at any time by delivering to OneBeacon notice of its election to do so, and OneBeacon may at any time remove the depositary. Any such resignation or removal of the depositary will take effect upon the appointment of a successor depositary, which successor depositary must be appointed within 60 days after delivery of the notice of resignation or removal and must be a bank or trust company having its principal office in the United States and having a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000.

DESCRIPTION OF SENIOR DEBT SECURITIES AND SUBORDINATED DEBT SECURITIES

OneBeacon and OB Holdings, each of which we refer to in this section as an issuer or the issuer, may offer, from time to time, unsecured general obligations, which may be senior or subordinated. We refer to the senior unsecured general obligations as senior debt securities, the subordinated unsecured general obligations as the subordinated debt securities and the senior debt securities and the subordinated debt securities collectively as the debt securities. The following description summarizes the general terms and provisions of the debt securities to which any prospectus supplement may relate. We will describe the specific terms of the debt securities and the extent, if any, to which the general provisions summarized below may apply to any series of the debt securities in the prospectus supplement relating to the series.

The issuer may issue senior debt securities from time to time, in one or more series under a senior indenture between the issuer and a senior trustee named in a prospectus supplement, which we refer to as the senior trustee. The form of senior indenture is incorporated by reference as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part. The issuer may issue subordinated debt securities from time to time, in one or more series under a subordinated indenture, between the issuer and a subordinated trustee named in a prospectus supplement, which we refer to as the subordinated trustee. The form of subordinated indenture is incorporated by reference as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part. If OneBeacon guarantees senior debt securities or subordinated debt securities issued by OB Holdings, OneBeacon may also become a party to OB Holdings' senior indenture or subordinated indenture, as applicable. Together, the senior indenture and the subordinated indenture are referred to as the indentures and, together, the senior trustee and the subordinated trustee are referred to as the debt trustees. The indentures allow the issuer not only to issue debt securities with terms different from those previously issued, but also to "reopen" a previous issue of a series of debt securities and issue additional debt securities of that series. This prospectus briefly outlines some of the provisions of the indentures. The following summary of the material provisions of the indentures is qualified in its entirety by the provisions of the indentures, including definitions of certain terms used in the indentures. Wherever we refer to particular sections or defined terms of the indentures, those sections or defined terms are incorporated by reference in this prospectus or the applicable prospectus supplement. You should review the indentures that are incorporated by reference as exhibits to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part for additional information.

None of the indentures will limit the amount of debt securities that may be issued. The applicable indenture will provide that debt securities may be issued up to an aggregate principal amount authorized by the issuer and may be payable in any currency or currency unit designated by the issuer or in amounts determined by reference to an index.

The senior debt securities will be unsecured and will rank equally in right of payment with the issuer's other unsecured and unsubordinated debt, if any, unless the issuer is required to secure the senior debt securities as described below under "Senior Debt Securities". The issuer's obligations under any subordinated debt securities will be subordinate in right of payment to all of its senior indebtedness and will be described in an accompanying prospectus supplement. The issuer may issue debt securities from time to time and offer the debt securities on terms determined by market conditions at the time of sale.

As of March 31, 2011, (1) OB Holdings (excluding any indebtedness issued by its subsidiaries) had $469.2 million face value of indebtedness outstanding, which as of April 30, 2011 had been reduced to $319.2 million face value ($49.3 million of which is held by OneBeacon Insurance Company, a subsidiary of OB Holdings) following OB Holding's retirement of $150.0 million aggregate principal amount of its Senior Notes due 2013 pursuant to a tender offer commenced on March 24, 2011, and (2) OneBeacon (excluding any indebtedness issued by its subsidiaries) had no indebtedness outstanding.

Any senior debt securities issued by OB Holdings (1) will rank equally in right of payment with the existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated debt of OB Holdings; (2) will be effectively subordinated to future secured indebtedness of OB Holdings to the extent of the value of the assets securing such indebtedness; and (3) will be effectively subordinated to all the existing and future liabilities of OB Holdings' subsidiaries. Any subordinated debt securities issued by OB Holdings (1) will be subordinated to the existing and future unsubordinated debt of OB Holdings and (2) will be effectively subordinated to all the existing and future liabilities of OB Holdings' subsidiaries. As of March 31, 2011, the most recent date for which such information is available, the total liabilities, including indebtedness, of OB Holdings' subsidiaries were approximately $4.5 billion.

Any senior debt securities issued by OneBeacon (and any senior guarantees by OneBeacon of debt securities issued by OB Holdings) (1) will rank equally in right of payment with any future unsecured and unsubordinated debt of OneBeacon; (2) will be effectively subordinated to future secured debt of OneBeacon to the extent of the value of the assets securing such indebtedness; and (3) will be effectively subordinated to all the existing and future liabilities of OneBeacon's subsidiaries. Any subordinated debt securities issued by OneBeacon (and any subordinated guarantees by OneBeacon of subordinated debt securities issued by OB Holdings) (1) will be subordinated to any future senior indebtedness of OneBeacon and (2) will be effectively subordinated to all the existing and future liabilities of OneBeacon's subsidiaries. As of March 31, 2011, the most recent date for which such information is available, the total liabilities, including indebtedness, of OneBeacon's subsidiaries were approximately $4.7 billion.

The issuer may issue the debt securities in one or more series with the same or various maturities, at par, at a premium, or at a discount. Any debt securities bearing no interest or interest at a rate which at the time of issuance is below market rates will be sold at a discount, which may be substantial, from their stated principal amount. We will describe the Federal income tax consequences and other special considerations applicable to any substantially discounted debt securities in the related prospectus supplement.

The applicable prospectus supplement will describe the following terms of any series of debt securities offered hereby:

the designation, aggregate principal amount and authorized denominations of the debt securities; the percentage of the principal amount at which the issuer will issue the debt securities; the date or dates on which the debt securities will mature;

the interest rate or rates at which the debt securities will bear interest, if any, or the method of determining the rate or rates (including, if applicable, any remarketing option or similar method);

the date or dates on which any interest will be payable, the date or dates on which payment of any interest will commence and the regular record dates for the interest payment dates;

the terms of any mandatory or optional redemption, including any provisions for any sinking, purchase or other similar funds, or repayment options;

the currency, currencies or currency units for which the debt securities may be purchased and in which the principal, any premium and any interest may be payable;

if the currency, currencies or currency units for which the debt securities may be purchased or in which the principal, any premium and any interest may be payable is at the issuer's election or the purchaser's election, the manner in which the election may be made;

any deletions from, change in or additions to the events of default or the covenants specified in the applicable indenture, or to the rights of the trustee or requisite holders of such securities to declare the principal amount of such debt securities due and payable;

if the amount of payments on the debt securities is determined by an index based on one or more currencies or currency units, or changes in the price of one or more securities or commodities, the manner in which the amounts may be determined;

whether the series of debt securities will be guaranteed as to payment or performance;

the extent to which any of the debt securities will be issuable in temporary or permanent global form, and the manner in which any interest payable on a temporary or permanent global security will be paid;

the applicability of the legal defeasance and covenant defeasance provisions of the applicable indenture;

the terms and conditions upon which the debt securities may be convertible into or exchanged for common shares, preference shares, or indebtedness or other securities of the issuer or other issuers;

in the case of subordinated debt securities, provisions specifying the relative degree, if any, to which such subordinated debt securities of the series will be senior to, equal to or subordinated in right of payment to other series of subordinated debt securities or other indebtedness of the issuer, whether such other series of subordinated debt securities or other indebtedness is outstanding or not;

information with respect to book-entry procedures, if any;

whether the debt securities will be issued as original issue discount securities for Federal income tax purposes;

a discussion of the Federal income tax, accounting and other special considerations, procedures and limitations with respect to the debt securities; and any other specific terms, covenants, preferences, rights or limitations of, or restrictions on, the debt securities.

Unless specified otherwise in a prospectus supplement, the principal of, premium on, and interest on the debt securities will be payable, and the debt securities will be transferable, at the corporate trust office of the applicable debt trustee in New York, New York. However, the issuer may make payment of interest at its option by check mailed on or before the payment date to the address of the person entitled to the interest payment as it appears on the registry books of the issuer or its agents.

Unless specified otherwise in a prospectus supplement, the issuer will issue the debt securities only in fully registered form and in denominations of $2,000 and any integral multiple of $1,000 in excess thereof. No service charge will be made for any transfer or exchange of any debt securities, but the issuer may, except in specific cases not involving any transfer, require payment of a sufficient amount to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection with the transfer or exchange. Unless we specify otherwise in the prospectus supplement, the issuer will pay interest on outstanding debt securities to holders of record on the date 15 days immediately prior to the date the interest is to be paid.

Table of Contents

The issuer's rights and the rights of its creditors, including holders of debt securities, to participate in any distribution of assets of any of the issuer's subsidiaries upon its liquidation or reorganization or otherwise is subject to the prior claims of creditors of the subsidiary, except to the extent that the issuer's claims as a creditor of the subsidiary may be recognized. Because both OneBeacon's and OB Holdings' operations are conducted primarily through subsidiaries and their only significant assets are the capital stock of their respective subsidiaries, both OneBeacon and OB Holdings are dependent upon the earnings and cash flow and dividend paying ability of their respective subsidiaries to meet their obligations, including obligations under the debt securities. The debt securities will be effectively subordinated to all existing and future indebtedness, preferred stock and other liabilities of the issuer's subsidiaries.

OneBeacon Guarantee

OneBeacon may guarantee to each holder of debt securities issued by OB Holdings the due and punctual payment of the principal of, and any premium and any interest on, those debt securities, when and as the same becomes due and payable, whether at maturity, upon acceleration or otherwise. The related prospectus supplement will describe whether OneBeacon will provide such a guarantee, and if so, the terms under which such guarantee will be provided.

Global Securities

The issuer may issue debt securities of a series in whole or in part in the form of one or more global securities and will deposit them with or on behalf of a depository identified in the prospectus supplement relating to that series. The issuer may issue global securities only in fully registered form and in either temporary or permanent form. Unless and until it is exchanged in whole or in part for the individual debt securities represented thereby, a global security may not be transferred except as a whole by the depository for the global security to a nominee of the depository, by a nominee of the depository to the depository or another nominee of the depository or by the depository or any nominee of the depository to a successor or any nominee of such successor.

Unless the prospectus supplement specifies otherwise, debt securities, when issued, will be represented by a permanent global security or securities, and each permanent global security will be deposited with, or on behalf of, The Depository Trust Company, which we refer to as the depository, and registered in the name of a nominee of the depository. Investors may elect to hold interests in the global notes through either the depository (in the United States), or Clearstream or Euroclear (outside of the United States), if they are participants of those systems, or indirectly through organizations that are participants in those systems. Clearstream and Euroclear will hold interests on behalf of their participants through customers' securities accounts in Clearstream's and Euroclear's names on the books of their respective depositories, which in turn will hold the interests in customers' securities accounts in the depositories' names on the books of the depository. The depositories for Clearstream and Euroclear in the United States for a specific series of debt securities will be specified in the prospectus supplement relating to that series.

Upon the issuance of a global security, the depository for the global security or its nominee will credit on its book entry registration and transfer system the principal amounts of the individual debt securities represented by the global security to the accounts of persons that have accounts with the depository. The accounts will be designated by the dealers, underwriters or agents with respect to the debt securities or by the issuer if the debt securities are offered and sold directly by it. Ownership of beneficial interests in a global security will be limited to persons that have accounts with the applicable depository participants or persons that hold interests through participants. Ownership of beneficial interests in the global security will be shown on, and the transfer of that ownership will be effected only through, records maintained by:

the applicable depository or its nominee, with respect to interests of participants, and the records of participants, with respect to interests of persons other than participants.

The laws of some states require that purchasers of securities take physical delivery of the securities in definitive form. These limits and laws may impair the ability to transfer beneficial interests in a global security.

So long as the depository for a global security or its nominee is the registered owner of the global security, the depository or the nominee will be considered the sole owner or holder of the debt securities represented by the global security for all purposes under the applicable indenture. Except as provided below, owners of beneficial interests in a global security will:

not be entitled to have any of the individual debt securities of the series represented by the global security registered in their names;

not receive or be entitled to receive physical delivery of any debt security of that series in definitive form; and not be considered the owners or holders thereof under the applicable indenture governing the debt securities.

Payments of principal of, any premium on and any interest on individual debt securities represented by a global security registered in the name of a depository or its nominee will be made to the depository or its nominee as the registered owner of the global security representing the debt securities. Neither the issuer, the applicable debt trustee for the debt securities, any paying agent, nor the security registrar for the debt securities will have any responsibility or liability for the records relating to or payments made on account of beneficial ownership interests of the global security for the debt securities or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to the beneficial ownership interests.

The issuer expects that the depository for a series of debt securities or its nominee, upon receipt of any payment of principal, premium or interest in respect of a permanent global security representing any of the debt securities, will immediately credit participants' accounts with payments in amounts proportionate to their beneficial interests in the principal amount of the global security for the debt securities as shown on the records of the depository or its nominee. The issuer also expects that payments by participants to owners of beneficial interests in the global security held through the participants will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is now the case with securities held for the accounts of customers in bearer form or registered in "street name". The payments will be the responsibility of those participants.

If the depository for a series of debt securities is at any time unwilling, unable or ineligible to continue as depository and a successor depository is not appointed by the issuer within 90 days, the issuer will issue individual debt securities of that series in exchange for the global security representing that series of debt securities. In addition, the issuer may at any time and in its sole discretion, subject to any limitations described in the prospectus supplement relating to the debt securities, determine not to have any debt securities of a series represented by one or more global securities. In that event, the issuer will issue individual debt securities of that series in exchange for the global security or securities representing that series of debt securities. Further, if the issuer so specifies with respect to the debt securities of a series, an owner of a beneficial interest in a global security representing debt securities of that series may, on terms acceptable to the issuer, the applicable debt trustee and the depository for such global security, receive individual debt securities of that series in exchange for the beneficial interests, subject to any limitations described in the prospectus supplement relating to the debt securities. In any such instance, an owner of a beneficial interest in a global security will be entitled to physical delivery of individual debt securities of the series represented by the global security equal in principal amount to the beneficial interest and to have the debt securities registered in its name. Individual debt securities of the series so issued will be issued in denominations, unless otherwise specified by the issuer, of $2,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof.

The Depository Trust Company. The depository has advised us that it is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the laws of the State of New York, a "banking organization" within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a "clearing corporation" within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code, and a "clearing agency" registered under the Exchange Act. The depository was created to hold securities of its participants and to facilitate the settlement of securities transactions among its participants in securities through electronic book-entry changes in accounts of the participants. By doing so, the depository eliminates the need for physical movement of securities certificates. The depository's participants include securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations, and certain other organizations. Access to the depository's book-entry system is also available to others, such as banks, brokers, dealers, and trust companies that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a participant, either directly or indirectly. The rules applicable to the depository and its participants are on file with the SEC.

We believe that the sources from which the information in this section concerning the depository and the depository's system has been obtained are reliable, but we take no responsibility for the accuracy of the information.

Clearstream. Clearstream advises that it is incorporated under the laws of Luxembourg as a professional depository. Clearstream holds securities for its participating organizations, which we refer to as Clearstream Participants, and facilitates the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between Clearstream Participants through electronic book-entry changes in accounts of Clearstream Participants, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of certificates. Clearstream provides to Clearstream Participants, among other things, services for safekeeping, administration, clearance, and settlement of internationally traded securities and securities lending and borrowing. Clearstream interfaces with domestic markets in several countries. As a professional depository, Clearstream is subject to regulation by the Luxembourg Monetary Institute. Clearstream Participants are recognized financial institutions around the world, including agents, securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations, and certain other organizations and may include the agents. Indirect access to Clearstream is also available to others, such as banks, brokers, dealers, and trust companies that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Clearstream Participant either directly or indirectly.

Distributions with respect to debt securities held beneficially through Clearstream will be credited to cash accounts of Clearstream Participants in accordance with its rules and procedures, to the extent received by the United States depository for Clearstream.

Euroclear. Euroclear advises that it was created in 1968 to hold securities for participants of Euroclear, which we refer to as Euroclear Participants, and to clear and settle transactions between Euroclear Participants through simultaneous electronic book-entry delivery against payment, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of certificates and any risk from lack of simultaneous transfers of securities and cash. Euroclear provides various other services, including securities lending and borrowing and interfaces with domestic markets in several countries. Euroclear is operated by the Euroclear S.A./N.V., which we refer to as the Euroclear Operator, under contract with Euroclear Clearance Systems S.C., a Belgian cooperative corporation referred to as the Cooperative. All operations are conducted by the Euroclear Operator, and all Euroclear securities clearance accounts and Euroclear cash accounts are accounts with the Euroclear Operator, not the Cooperative. The Cooperative establishes policy for Euroclear on behalf of Euroclear Participants. Euroclear Participants include banks (including central banks), securities brokers and dealers, and other professional financial intermediaries and may include the agents. Indirect access to Euroclear is also available to other firms that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Euroclear Participant, either directly or indirectly.

Securities clearance accounts and cash accounts with the Euroclear Operator are governed by the Terms and Conditions Governing Use of Euroclear, the related Operating Procedures of the Euroclear System, and applicable Belgian law, collectively referred to as the Terms and Conditions. The Terms and Conditions govern transfers of securities and cash within Euroclear, withdrawals of securities and cash within Euroclear, withdrawals of securities and cash from Euroclear, and receipts of payments with respect to securities in Euroclear. All securities in Euroclear are held on a fungible basis without attribution of specific certificates to specific securities clearance accounts. The Euroclear Operator acts under the Terms and Conditions only on behalf of Euroclear Participants and has no record of or relationship with persons holding through Euroclear Participants.

Distributions with respect to debt securities held beneficially through Euroclear will be credited to the cash accounts of Euroclear Participants in accordance with the Terms and Conditions, to the extent received by the United States depository for Euroclear.

Global Clearance and Settlement Procedures

Initial settlement for the securities will be made in immediately available funds. Secondary market trading between participants in the depository will occur in the ordinary way in accordance with the depository's rules and will be settled in immediately available funds using the depository's Same-Day Funds Settlement System. Secondary market trading between Clearstream Participants and/or Euroclear Participants will occur in the ordinary way in accordance with the applicable rules and operating procedures of Clearstream and Euroclear and will be settled using the procedures applicable to conventional eurobonds in immediately available funds.

Cross-market transfers between persons holding directly or indirectly through the depository on the one hand, and directly or indirectly through Clearstream or Euroclear Participants, on the other, will be effected in the depository in accordance with the depository rules on behalf of the relevant European international clearing system by its United States depository. However, these cross-market transactions will require delivery of instructions to the relevant European international clearing system by the counterparty in that system in accordance with its rules and procedures and within its established deadlines (European time). If the transaction meets the settlement requirements, the relevant European international clearing system will deliver instructions to its United States depository to take action to effect final settlement on its behalf by delivering or receiving securities in the depository and making or receiving payment in accordance with normal procedures for same-day funds settlement applicable to the depository. Clearstream Participants and Euroclear Participants may not deliver instructions directly to their respective United States depositories.

Because of time-zone differences, credits of securities received in Clearstream or Euroclear as a result of a transaction with a participant in the depository will be made during subsequent securities settlement processing and dated the business day following the depository settlement date. Credits or any transactions in securities settled during this processing will be reported to the relevant Euroclear or Clearstream Participants on that following business day. Cash received in Clearstream or Euroclear as a result of sales of notes by or through a Clearstream Participant or a Euroclear Participant to a participant in the depository will be received with value on the depository settlement date but will be available in the relevant Clearstream or Euroclear cash account only as of the business day following settlement in the depository.

Table of Contents

Although the depository, Clearstream and Euroclear have agreed to the foregoing procedures in order to facilitate transfers of securities among participants of the depository, Clearstream and Euroclear, they are under no obligation to perform or continue to perform these procedures and these procedures may be discontinued at any time.

Amalgamation, Consolidation, Merger and Sale of Assets

The applicable indentures will prohibit the issuer's amalgamation, consolidation with or merger into any other entity or the transfer of issuer's properties and assets substantially as an entirety to any other entity, unless:

the successor entity is organized and existing under the laws of the United States, any State thereof, the District of Columbia or Bermuda, and expressly assumes by a supplemental indenture the punctual payment of the principal of, premium on and interest on all the outstanding debt securities and the performance of every covenant in the applicable indenture to be performed or observed on the issuer's part;

immediately after giving effect to the transaction, no event of default has occurred and is continuing; and the issuer or the successor entity has delivered to the applicable debt trustee an officers' certificate stating that the amalgamation, consolidation, merger, conveyance or transfer and the supplemental indenture comply with the foregoing provisions relating to the transaction.

In case of any amalgamation, consolidation, merger, conveyance or transfer of the issuer, the successor corporation will succeed to and be substituted for the issuer as obligor on the debt securities, with the same effect as if it had been named as the issuer in the applicable indenture. If OneBeacon is the guarantor of debt securities issued by OB Holdings, OneBeacon will also be subject to the same conditions relating to amalgamation, consolidation, merger, conveyance or transfer stated above (as applied to OneBeacon rather than OB Holdings). Unless otherwise specified in a prospectus supplement, the indentures and the debt securities do not contain any covenants or other provisions designed to protect holders of debt securities in the event of a highly leveraged transaction involving the issuer, the guarantor or any of their respective subsidiaries.

Events of Default; Waiver and Notice of Default; Debt Securities in Foreign Currencies

An event of default when used in an indenture will mean any of the following as to any series of debt securities:

failure to pay interest on debt securities of that series for 30 days past the applicable due date, or, in the case of the subordinated indenture, for a period of 90 days;

failure to pay principal of, or any premium on debt securities of that series when due (whether at maturity, upon acceleration or otherwise);

failure to deposit any sinking fund payment or similar obligation on debt securities of that series when due;

failure to perform, or breach of, any other covenant or warranty contained in the applicable indenture for the benefit of that series which has not been remedied for a period of 90 days after written notice from the debt trustee or holders of at least 25% of the outstanding principal amount of the debt securities of that series is given; or specified events of the issuer's bankruptcy, insolvency and reorganization.

A default under the issuer's other indebtedness will not be a default under the indentures and a default under one series of debt securities will not necessarily be a default under another series.

Table of Contents

Each indenture will provide that if an event of default described in the first four bullet points above has occurred and is continuing with respect to any series (and with respect to an event of default under the fourth bullet point, it is with respect to less than all series of debt securities then outstanding), either the applicable debt trustee or the holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of the debt securities of the series then outstanding, each series acting as a separate class, may declare the principal or, in the case of original issue discount securities, the portion specified in the terms thereof, of all outstanding debt securities of the series and the accrued interest to be due and payable immediately. Each indenture will further provide that if an event of default described in the fourth bullet point above has occurred and is continuing with respect to all series of debt outstanding, either the applicable debt trustee or the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of all debt securities then outstanding, treated as one class, may declare the principal or, in the case of original issue discount securities, the portion specified in the terms thereof, of all debt securities then outstanding and the accrued interest to be due and payable immediately. However, upon certain conditions the declarations may be annulled and past defaults, except for uncured defaults in the payment of principal of, premium on, or interest on, the debt securities or in the deposit of any sinking fund payment or analogous obligations with respect to the debt securities of such series and in compliance with certain covenants, may be waived by the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the debt securities of the series then outstanding. In the case of specified events of the issuer's bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization, all principal or, in the case of original issue discount securities, the portion specified in the terms thereof, of all debt securities then outstanding and the accrued interest will automatically become immediately due and payable.

Under each indenture the applicable debt trustee will be required to give notice to the holders of each series of debt securities of all uncured defaults known to it with respect to that series within 90 days after a default occurs or, if later, after the debt trustee obtains knowledge of such default. The term "default" includes the events specified above without notice or grace periods. However, in the case of any default of the type described in the fourth bullet point above, no notice may be given until at least 90 days after the occurrence of the event. The debt trustee will be protected in withholding notice if it in good faith determines that the withholding of notice is in the interests of the holders of the debt securities, except in the case of default in the payment of principal of, premium on, or interest on any of the debt securities, or default in the payment of any sinking or purchase fund installment or analogous obligations.

No holder of any debt securities of any series may institute any action under the related indenture unless:

the holder has given the debt trustee written notice of a continuing event of default with respect to that series;

the holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of the debt securities of the series then outstanding have requested the debt trustee to institute proceedings in respect of the event of default;

the holder or holders have offered the debt trustee reasonable indemnity as the debt trustee may require;

the debt trustee has failed to institute an action for 60 days; and no inconsistent direction has been given to the debt trustee during the 60-day period by the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of debt securities of the series then outstanding.

The holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the debt securities of any series affected and then outstanding will have the right, subject to limitations, to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the applicable debt trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on the debt trustee with respect to a series of debt securities. Each indenture will provide that if an event of default occurs and is continuing, the debt trustee will be required to use the degree of care of a prudent person in the conduct of that person's own affairs in exercising its rights and powers under the indenture. Each indenture will further provide that the debt trustee will not be required to expend or risk its own funds in the performance of any of its duties under the indenture unless it has reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of the funds or adequate indemnity against the risk or liability is reasonably assured to it.

The issuer will be required to furnish to the debt trustees within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year a statement signed by one of its officers to the effect that a review of its activities during the year and of its performance under the applicable indenture and the terms of the debt securities has been made under his supervision, and, to the knowledge of the signatories based on the review, the issuer has complied with all conditions and covenants of the indenture through the year or, if the issuer is in default, specifying the default.

To determine whether the holders of the requisite principal amount of debt securities have taken action as described above when the debt securities are denominated in a foreign currency, the principal amount of the debt securities will be deemed to be that amount of United States dollars that could be obtained for the principal amount based on the applicable spot rate of exchange as of the date the action is taken as evidenced to the debt trustee as provided in the indenture.

To determine whether the holders of the requisite principal amount of debt securities have taken action as described above when the debt securities are original issue discount securities, the principal amount of the debt securities will be deemed to be the portion of the principal amount that would be due and payable at the time the action is taken upon a declaration of acceleration of maturity.

Modification of the Indentures

Each indenture will provide that the issuer and the applicable debt trustee may, without the consent of any holder of debt securities, enter into supplemental indentures for the purposes, among other things, of:

adding to the issuer's covenants;

adding additional events of default;

establishing the form or terms of any series of debt securities; or curing ambiguities or inconsistencies in the indenture or making other provisions.

With specific exceptions, the applicable indenture or the rights of the holders of the debt securities may be modified by the issuer and the applicable debt trustee with the consent of the holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the debt securities of each series affected by the modification then outstanding, but no modification may be made without the consent of the holder of each outstanding debt security affected which would:

reduce the principal amount of or the interest or any premium on any debt security;

change the method of computing the amount of principal of or interest on any date;

change any place of payment where, or the currency in which, any debt security or any premium or interest is payable;

impair the right to sue for the enforcement of any payment on or after the maturity thereof, or, in the case of redemption or repayment, on or after the redemption date or the repayment date; or reduce the percentage in principal amount of the outstanding debt securities of any series, the consent of the holders of which is required for any modification of, or waiver of compliance with provisions of, the applicable indenture or specific defaults and their consequences provided for in the indenture.

Satisfaction and Discharge of the Indentures; Defeasance

The indentures will generally cease to be of any further effect with respect to a series of debt securities if the issuer delivers all debt securities of that series, with limited exceptions, for cancellation to the applicable debt trustee or all debt securities of that series not previously delivered for cancellation to the applicable debt trustee have become due and payable or will become due and payable or called for redemption within one year, and the issuer has deposited with the applicable debt trustee as trust funds the entire amount sufficient to pay at maturity or upon redemption all the debt securities, no default with respect to the debt securities has occurred and is continuing on the date of the deposit, and the deposit does not result in a breach or violation of, or default under, the applicable indenture or any other agreement or instrument to which the issuer is a party.

The issuer has a "legal defeasance option" under which it may terminate, with respect to the debt securities of a particular series, all of its obligations under the debt securities and the applicable indenture. In addition, the issuer has a "covenant defeasance option" under which it may terminate, with respect to the debt securities of a particular series, the issuer's obligations with respect to the debt securities under specified covenants contained in the applicable indenture. If the issuer exercises its legal defeasance option with respect to a series of debt securities, payment of the debt securities may not be accelerated because of an event of default. If the issuer exercises its covenant defeasance option with respect to a series of debt securities, payment of the debt securities may not be accelerated because of an event of default related to the specified covenants.

The issuer may exercise its legal defeasance option or its covenant defeasance option with respect to the debt securities of a series only if:

the issuer irrevocably deposits in trust with the applicable debt trustee cash or debt obligations of the United States of America or its agencies or instrumentalities for the payment of principal, premium and interest with respect to the debt securities to maturity or redemption;

the issuer delivers to the applicable debt trustee a certificate from a nationally recognized firm of independent public accountants expressing their opinion that the cash or debt obligations described above on deposit with the applicable debt trustee will provide cash sufficient to pay the principal, premium, and interest when due with respect to all the debt securities of that series to maturity or redemption;

91 days pass after the deposit is made and during the 91-day period no default described in the fifth bullet point under " Events of Default, Waiver and Notice Of Default; Debt Securities in Foreign Currencies" above with respect to the issuer occurs that is continuing at the end of the period;

no default has occurred and is continuing on the date of the deposit;

the deposit does not constitute a default under any other agreement binding on the issuer;

the issuer has delivered to the applicable debt trustee an opinion of counsel addressing specific Federal income tax matters relating to the defeasance; and

the issuer delivers to the applicable debt trustee an officers' certificate and an opinion of counsel stating that all conditions to the defeasance and discharge of the debt securities of that series have been complied with.

The applicable debt trustee will hold in trust cash or debt obligations of the United States of America or its agencies or instrumentalities deposited with it as described above and will apply the deposited cash and the proceeds from deposited debt obligations of the United States of America or its agencies or instrumentalities to the payment of principal, premium, and interest with respect to the debt securities of the defeased series.

Concerning the Debt Trustees

The issuer will identify the debt trustee for the senior debt securities and for the subordinated debt securities in the relevant prospectus supplement. The issuer or the holders of a majority of the then outstanding principal amount of the debt securities issued under an indenture and, in specific instances, the issuer and any owner who has been the bona fide holder of a security of such series for at least six months, may remove the debt trustee and appoint a successor debt trustee. The debt trustee may become the owner or pledgee of any of the debt securities with the same rights, subject to conflict of interest and certain other restrictions, it would have if it were not the debt trustee. The debt trustee and any successor trustee must be a corporation organized and doing business under the laws of the United States or of any state thereof, authorized under those laws to exercise corporate trust powers, having a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000 and subject to examination by Federal or state authority. Subject to applicable law relating to conflicts of interest, the debt trustee may also serve as trustee under other indentures relating to debt securities issued by the issuer or its affiliated companies and may engage in commercial transactions with the issuer and its affiliated companies.

Senior Debt Securities

In addition to the provisions previously described in this prospectus and applicable to all debt securities, the following description of the senior debt securities summarizes the general terms and provisions of the senior debt securities to which any prospectus supplement may relate. The issuer will describe the specific terms of the senior debt securities offered by any prospectus supplement and the extent, if any, to which the general provisions summarized below may apply to any series of its senior debt securities in the prospectus supplement relating to that series.

Ranking of Senior Debt Securities

Unless we specify otherwise in a prospectus supplement for a particular series of debt securities, all series of senior debt securities will be the issuer's senior indebtedness and will be direct, unsecured obligations of the issuer ranking equally with all of the issuer's other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness. Because both OneBeacon's and OB Holdings' operations are conducted primarily through subsidiaries and their only significant assets are the capital stock of their respective subsidiaries, both OneBeacon and OB Holdings are dependent upon the earnings and cash flow and dividend paying ability of their respective subsidiaries to meet their obligations, including obligations under the debt securities. The debt securities will be effectively subordinated to all existing and future indebtedness, preferred stock and other liabilities of the issuer's subsidiaries.

Covenants

The prospectus supplement for a particular series of senior debt securities will describe covenants, if any, contained in the senior indenture that will apply to the issuer and, in the case of issuances of senior debt securities by OB Holdings that are guaranteed by OneBeacon, those covenants, if any, that will also apply to OneBeacon as guarantor of OB Holdings' obligations. The covenants, if any, will be applicable, unless waived or amended, so long as any of the senior debt securities are outstanding, unless stated otherwise in the prospectus supplement.

Subordinated Debt Securities

In addition to the provisions previously described in this prospectus and applicable to all debt securities, the following description of the subordinated debt securities summarizes the general terms and provisions of its subordinated debt securities to which any prospectus supplement may relate. We will describe the specific terms of the subordinated debt securities offered by any prospectus supplement and the extent, if any, to which the general provisions summarized below may apply to any series of subordinated debt securities in the prospectus supplement relating to that series.

Ranking of Subordinated Debt Securities

The subordinated debt securities will be subordinated in right of payment to the issuer's senior indebtedness to the extent set forth in the applicable prospectus supplement. If the issuer of subordinated debt securities is OB Holdings and OneBeacon has guaranteed OB Holdings' obligations thereunder, such guarantee by OneBeacon will be subordinated in right of payment to the holders of senior indebtedness of OneBeacon to the same extent as OB Holdings' obligations under the subordinated debt securities are subordinated to the holders of senior indebtedness of OB Holdings.

For purposes of the description of the subordinated debt securities, the term "senior indebtedness" means all indebtedness of the issuer, whether outstanding on the date of execution of the subordinated indenture or incurred or created after the execution, except:

the issuer's subordinated debt securities or junior subordinated debt securities;

indebtedness as to which, by the terms of the instrument creating or evidencing the same, it is provided that such indebtedness ranks equally in right of payment to, is subordinated to, ranks equally with or ranks junior to the issuer's subordinated debt securities;

indebtedness of the issuer to an affiliate of the issuer;

trade accounts payable;

indebtedness issued in violation of the instrument creating it; and

any guarantee by the issuer of indebtedness of another person that would not constitute "senior indebtedness" of such person under this definition.

Covenants

The prospectus supplement for a particular series of subordinated debt securities will describe covenants, if any, contained in the subordinated indenture that will apply to the issuer and, in the case of issuances of subordinated debt securities by OB Holdings that are guaranteed by OneBeacon, those covenants, if any, that will also apply to OneBeacon as guarantor of OB Holdings' obligations. The covenants, if any, will be applicable, unless waived or amended, so long as any of the subordinated debt securities are outstanding, unless stated otherwise in the prospectus supplement.

DESCRIPTION OF JUNIOR SUBORDINATED DEBT SECURITIES OF OB HOLDINGS

OB Holdings may offer, from time to time, junior subordinated debt securities. The following description summarizes the general terms and provisions of the junior subordinated debt securities to which any prospectus supplement may relate. OB Holdings will describe the specific terms of the junior subordinated debt securities and the extent, if any, to which the general provisions summarized below may apply to any series of its junior subordinated debt securities in the prospectus supplement relating to that series.

OB Holdings may issue its junior subordinated debt securities from time to time in one or more series under a junior subordinated indenture, between OB Holdings and a junior subordinated trustee named in a prospectus supplement. If OneBeacon guarantees the junior subordinated debt securities issued by OB Holdings, OneBeacon may also become a party to OB Holdings' junior subordinated indenture. The form of junior subordinated indenture is incorporated by reference as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part. This prospectus briefly outlines some of the provisions of the junior subordinated indenture. The following summary of the material provisions of the junior subordinated indenture is qualified in its entirety by the provisions of the junior subordinated indenture, including definitions of certain terms used in the junior subordinated indenture. Wherever we refer to particular sections or defined terms of the junior subordinated indenture, those sections or defined terms are incorporated by reference in this prospectus or the applicable prospectus supplement. You should review the junior subordinated indenture that is incorporated by reference as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part for additional information.

The junior subordinated debt securities will be unsecured, junior subordinated obligations of OB Holdings. The junior subordinated indenture does not limit the amount of additional indebtedness OB Holdings or any of its subsidiaries may incur. Since OB Holdings is a holding company, OB Holdings' rights and the rights of its creditors, including the holders of junior subordinated debt securities, to participate in the assets of any subsidiary upon the latter's liquidation or recapitalization will be subject to the prior claims of the subsidiary's creditors, except to the extent that OB Holdings may itself be a creditor with recognized claims against the subsidiary. The junior subordinated debt securities will be subordinated and junior in right of payment to OB Holdings' other indebtedness to the extent set forth in the applicable prospectus supplement. Any junior subordinated debt securities issued by OB Holdings (1) will be subordinated to the existing and future senior debt of OB Holdings and (2) will be effectively subordinated to all the existing and future liabilities of OB Holdings' subsidiaries.

The junior subordinated indenture will not limit the aggregate principal amount of indebtedness which may be issued thereunder and will provide that junior subordinated debt securities may be issued thereunder from time to time in one or more series. The junior subordinated debt securities will be issuable in one or more series authorized by OB Holdings. OB Holdings may issue junior subordinated debt securities from time to time and offer its junior subordinated debt securities on terms determined by market conditions at the time of sale.

The applicable indenture will provide that debt securities may be issued up to an aggregate principal amount authorized by the issuer and may be payable in any currency or currency unit designated by the issuer or in amounts determined by reference to an index.

In the event junior subordinated debt securities are issued to any OB Holdings Trust or a trustee of the applicable OB Holdings Trust in connection with the issuance of preferred securities by the applicable OB Holdings Trust, the junior subordinated debt securities held by the applicable OB Holdings Trust subsequently may be distributed pro rata to the holders of the applicable preferred securities in connection with the dissolution of the applicable OB Holdings Trust upon the occurrence of the events described in the applicable prospectus supplement. Only one series of junior subordinated debt securities will be issued to each OB Holdings Trust or a trustee of such OB Holdings Trust in connection with the issuance of preferred securities by such OB Holdings Trust.

The applicable prospectus supplement will describe the following terms of any series of junior subordinated debt securities offered hereby:

the designation, aggregate principal amount and authorized denominations of the junior subordinated debt securities; the percentage of the principal amount at which OB Holdings will issue the junior subordinated debt securities; the date or dates on which the junior subordinated debt securities will mature;

the interest rate or rates at which the junior subordinated debt securities will bear interest, if any, or the method of determining the rate or rates (including, if applicable, any remarketing option or similar method);

the date or dates on which any interest will be payable, the date or dates on which payment of any interest will commence and the regular record dates for the interest payment dates;

the terms of any mandatory or optional redemption, including any provisions for any sinking, purchase or other similar funds or repayment options;

the currency, currencies or currency units for which the junior subordinated debt securities may be purchased and in which the principal, any premium and any interest may be payable;

if the currency, currencies or currency units for which the junior subordinated debt securities may be purchased or in which the principal, any premium and any interest may be payable is at OB Holdings' election or the purchaser's election, the manner in which the election may be made;

any deletions from, change in or additions to the events of default or the covenants specified in the junior subordinated indenture, or to the rights of the trustee or requisite holders of such securities to declare the principal amount of junior subordinated debt securities due and payable;

if the amount of payments on the junior subordinated debt securities is determined by an index based on one or more currencies or currency units, or changes in the price of one or more securities or commodities, the manner in which the amounts may be determined; whether the series of junior subordinated debt securities will be guaranteed as to payment or performance;

the extent to which any of the junior subordinated debt securities will be issuable in temporary or permanent global form, or the manner in which any interest payable on a temporary or permanent global security will be paid;

the applicability of the legal defeasance and covenant defeasance provisions of the junior subordinated indenture;

the terms and conditions upon which the junior subordinated debt securities may be convertible into or exchanged for common shares, preference shares, or indebtedness or other securities of OB Holdings or any other issuer;

provisions specifying the relative degree, if any, to which such junior subordinated debt securities of the series will be senior to, equal to or subordinated in right of payment to other series of junior subordinated debt securities or other indebtedness of the issuer, whether such other series of junior subordinated debt securities or other indebtedness is outstanding or not;

information with respect to book-entry procedures, if any;

whether the junior subordinated debt securities will be issued as original issue discount securities for Federal income tax purposes;

a discussion of the Federal income tax, accounting and other special considerations, procedures and limitations with respect to the junior subordinated debt securities; and any other specific terms of the junior subordinated debt securities not inconsistent with the junior subordinated indenture.

Unless specified otherwise in the prospectus supplement, the principal of, premium on, and interest on the junior subordinated debt securities will be payable, and the junior subordinated debt securities will be transferable, at the corporate trust office of the junior subordinated trustee in New York, New York. However, OB Holdings may make payment of interest at its option by check mailed on or before the payment date to the address of the person entitled to the interest payment as it appears on the registry books of OB Holdings or its agents.

Unless specified otherwise in the prospectus supplement, OB Holdings will issue the junior subordinated debt securities only in fully registered form and in denominations of $2,000 and any integral multiple of $1,000 in excess thereof. No service charge will be made for any transfer or exchange of any junior subordinated debt securities, but OB Holdings may, except in specific cases not involving any transfer, require payment of a sufficient amount to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection with the transfer or exchange. Unless specified otherwise in the prospectus supplement, OB Holdings will pay interest on outstanding junior subordinated debt securities to holders of record on the date 15 days immediately prior to the date the interest is to be paid.

OB Holdings rights and the rights of its creditors, including holders of junior subordinated debt securities, to participate in any distribution of assets of any of its subsidiaries upon its liquidation or reorganization or otherwise is subject to the prior claims of creditors of the subsidiary, except to the extent that OB Holdings' claims as a creditor of the subsidiary may be recognized. Because OB Holdings' operations are conducted primarily through subsidiaries and its only significant assets are the capital stock of its subsidiaries, OB Holdings is dependent upon the earnings and cash flow of its subsidiaries to meet its obligations, including obligations under the junior subordinated debt securities. The junior subordinated debt securities will be effectively subordinated to all indebtedness of OB Holdings' subsidiaries.

OneBeacon may guarantee to each holder of junior subordinated debt securities issued by OB Holdings the due and punctual payment of the principal of, and any premium on and any interest on, those junior subordinated debt securities, when and as the same becomes due and payable, whether at maturity, upon acceleration or otherwise. The related prospectus supplement will describe whether OneBeacon will provide such a guarantee and if so, the terms under which such guarantee will be provided.

OB Holdings may issue junior subordinated debt securities of a series in whole or in part in the form of one or more global securities that will be deposited with or on behalf of a depositary identified in the prospectus supplement relating to that series. OB Holdings may issue global securities only in fully registered form and in either temporary or permanent form. Unless and until it is exchanged in whole or in part for the individual junior subordinated debt securities represented thereby, a global security may not be transferred except as a whole by the depositary for the global security to a nominee of the depositary or by a nominee of the depositary to the depositary or another nominee of the depositary or by the depositary or any nominee of the depositary to a successor or any nominee.

The specific terms of the depositary arrangement relating to a series of junior subordinated debt securities will be described in the prospectus supplement relating to that series.

Amalgamation, Consolidation, Merger, Conveyance or Transfer

The junior subordinated indenture prohibits OB Holdings' amalgamation or consolidation with or merger into any other entity or the transfer of its properties and assets substantially as an entirety to any entity, unless:

the successor entity is organized and existing under the laws of the United States, any State thereof, the District of Columbia or Bermuda, and expressly assumes by a supplemental indenture the punctual payment of the principal of, premium on and interest on, all the outstanding junior subordinated debt securities and the performance of every covenant in the junior subordinated indenture to be performed or observed on OB Holdings' part;

immediately after giving effect to the transaction, no event of default has occurred and is continuing; and

OB Holdings or the successor entity has delivered to the junior subordinated trustee an officers' certificate stating that the amalgamation, consolidation, merger, conveyance or transfer and the supplemental indenture comply with the foregoing provisions relating to the transaction.

In case of any amalgamation, consolidation, merger, conveyance or transfer with respect to OB Holdings or OneBeacon (if OneBeacon is a guarantor of junior subordinated debt securities), the successor entity will succeed to and be substituted for OB Holdings or OneBeacon, as applicable, as obligor or guarantor, as applicable, on the junior subordinated debt securities, with the same effect as if it had been named as the obligor or the guarantor, as applicable, in the junior subordinated indenture. If OneBeacon is the guarantor of junior subordinated debt securities, OneBeacon will be subject to the conditions relating to amalgamation, consolidation, merger, conveyance or transfer stated above (as applied to OneBeacon rather than OB Holdings). Unless the prospectus supplement states otherwise, the junior subordinated indenture and the junior subordinated debt securities do not contain any covenants or other provisions designed to protect holders of junior subordinated debt securities in the event of a highly leveraged transaction involving OneBeacon, OB Holdings or any of their subsidiaries.

Events of Default; Waiver and Notice of Default; Junior Subordinated Debt Securities in Foreign Currencies

An event of default when used in the junior subordinated indenture will mean any of the following as to any series of junior subordinated debt securities:

failure to pay interest on the junior subordinated debt securities for 90 days past the due date;

failure to pay principal of, or any premium on junior subordinated debt securities when due (whether at maturity, upon acceleration or otherwise);

failure to deposit any sinking fund payment or similar obligation on junior subordinated debt securities of that series when due;

failure to perform, or breach of, any other covenant or warranty contained in the junior subordinated indenture for the benefit of that series which has not been remedied for a period of 90 days after written notice from the junior subordinated debt trustee or holders of at least 25% of the outstanding principal amount of the junior subordinated debt securities of that series is given; or specified events of OB Holdings' bankruptcy, insolvency and reorganization.

A default under OB Holdings' other indebtedness will not be a default under the junior subordinated indenture and a default under one series of junior subordinated debt securities will not necessarily be a default under another series.

The junior subordinated indenture will provide that if an event of default described in the first four bullet points above has occurred and is continuing with respect to any series (and with respect to an event of default under the fourth bullet point, it is with respect to less than all series of junior subordinated debt securities then outstanding), either the junior subordinated trustee or the holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of the junior subordinated debt securities of the series then outstanding, each series acting as a separate class, may declare the principal or, in the case of original issue discount securities, the portion specified in the terms thereof, of all outstanding junior subordinated debt securities of that series and the accrued interest to be due and payable immediately. The junior subordinated indenture will further provide that if an event of default described in the fourth bullet point above has occurred and is continuing with respect to all series of junior subordinated debt securities outstanding, either the junior subordinated debt trustee or the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of all junior subordinated debt securities then outstanding, treated as one class, may declare the principal or, in the case of original issue discount securities, the portion specified in the terms thereof, of all junior subordinated debt securities then outstanding and the accrued interest to be due and payable immediately. However, upon certain conditions the declarations may be annulled and past defaults, except for uncured defaults in the payment of principal of, premium on, or interest on, the junior subordinated debt securities and in compliance with certain covenants, may be waived by the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the junior subordinated debt securities of that series then outstanding, subject to the consent of the holders of the preferred securities and the common securities of any OB Holdings Trust as required by its declaration of trust in the event that the junior subordinated debt securities are held as assets of the applicable OB Holdings Trust prior to a security exchange as defined below. In the case of specified events of OB Holdings' bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization, all principal or, in the case of original issue discount securities, the portion specified in the terms thereof, of all junior subordinated debt securities then outstanding and the accrued interest will automatically become immediately due and payable.

When used with respect to the junior subordinated debt securities that are held as trust assets of any OB Holdings Trust pursuant to the declaration of trust of such OB Holdings Trust, the term "security exchange" means the distribution of the junior subordinated debt securities held by such OB Holdings Trust in exchange for the preferred securities and the common securities of such OB Holdings Trust in dissolution of such OB Holdings Trust pursuant to the declaration of trust of such OB Holdings Trust.

Under the junior subordinated indenture, the junior subordinated trustee will be required to give notice to the holders of each series of junior subordinated debt securities of all uncured defaults known to it with respect to that series within 90 days after a default occurs or, if later, after the junior subordinated debt trustee obtains knowledge of such default. The term "default" includes the events specified above without notice or grace periods. However, in the case of any default of the type described in the fourth bullet point above, no notice may be given until at least 90 days after the occurrence of the event. The junior subordinated debt trustee will be protected in withholding notice if it in good faith determines that the withholding of notice is in the interests of the holders of the junior subordinated debt securities, except in the case of default in the payment of principal of, premium on, or interest on, any of the junior subordinated debt securities, or default in the payment of any sinking or purchase fund installment or analogous obligations.

No holder of any junior subordinated debt securities of any series may institute any action under the indenture unless:

the holder has given the junior subordinated trustee written notice of a continuing event of default with respect to that series;

the holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of the junior subordinated debt securities of that series then outstanding have requested the junior subordinated trustee to institute proceedings in respect of the event of default;

the holder or holders have offered the junior subordinated trustee reasonable indemnity as the junior subordinated trustee may require;

the junior subordinated trustee has failed to institute an action for 60 days after the notice, request and indemnity have been made as described above; and no inconsistent direction has been given to the junior subordinated trustee during the 60-day period by the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of junior subordinated debt securities of the series then outstanding, subject to the consent of the holders of the preferred securities and the common securities of any OB Holdings Trust as required by its declaration of trust in the event that the junior subordinated debt securities are held as assets of the applicable OB Holdings Trust prior to a security exchange.

The junior subordinated indenture will provide that if an event of default occurs and is continuing, the junior subordinated trustee will be required to use the degree of care of a prudent person in the conduct of the person's own affairs in exercising its rights and powers under the indenture. The junior subordinated indenture will further provide that the junior subordinated trustee will not be required to expend or risk its own funds in the performance of any of its duties under the indenture unless it has reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of the funds or adequate indemnity against the risk or liability is reasonably assured to it.

OB Holdings will be required to furnish to the junior subordinated trustee within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year a statement signed by one of its officers to the effect that a review of its activities during the year and of its performance under the junior subordinated indenture and the terms of the junior subordinated debt securities has been made, and, to the knowledge of the signatories based on the review, OB Holdings has complied with all conditions and covenants of the indenture through the year or, if OB Holdings is in default, specifying the default.

If any junior subordinated debt securities are denominated in a currency other than that of the United States, then for the purposes of determining whether the holders of the requisite principal amount of junior subordinated debt securities have taken any action as described in this prospectus, the principal amount of the junior subordinated debt securities will be deemed to be that amount of United States dollars that could be obtained for the principal amount on the basis of the spot rate of exchange into United States dollars for the currency in which the junior subordinated debt securities are denominated as of the date the taking of the action by the holders of the requisite principal amount is evidenced to the junior subordinated trustee as provided in the junior subordinated indenture.

If any junior subordinated debt securities are original issue discount securities, then for the purposes of determining whether the holders of the requisite principal amount of junior subordinated debt securities have taken any action described in this prospectus, the principal amount of the junior subordinated debt securities will be deemed to be the portion of the principal amount that would be due and payable at the time of the taking of the action upon a declaration of acceleration of maturity thereof.

Modification of the Junior Subordinated Indenture

The junior subordinated indenture provides that OB Holdings and the junior subordinated trustee may, without the consent of any holder of junior subordinated debt securities, enter into supplemental indentures for the purposes, among other things, of:

adding to OB Holdings' covenants;

adding additional events of default;

establishing the form or terms of any series of junior subordinated debt securities; or curing ambiguities or inconsistencies in the indenture or making other provisions.

With specific exceptions, the junior subordinated indenture or the rights of the holders of the junior subordinated debt securities may be modified by OB Holdings and the junior subordinated trustee with the consent of the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the junior subordinated debt securities of each series affected by the modification then outstanding, subject to the consent of the holders of the preferred securities and the common securities of the OB Holdings Trust as required by its declaration of trust in the event that the junior subordinated debt securities are held as assets of the OB Holdings Trust prior to a security exchange, but no modification may be made without the consent of the holder of each outstanding junior subordinated debt security affected, subject to the consent of the holders of the preferred securities and the common securities of any OB Holdings Trust as required by its declaration of trust in the event that the junior subordinated debt securities are held as assets of the applicable OB Holdings Trust prior to a security exchange, which would:

reduce the principal amount of or the interest or any premium on any junior subordinated debt security;

change the method of computing the amount of principal of or interest on any date;

change any place of payment where, or the currency in which, any junior subordinated debt security or any premium or interest is payable;

impair the right to sue for the enforcement of any payment on or after the maturity thereof or, in the case of redemption or repayment, on or after the redemption date or the repayment date; or reduce the percentage in principal amount of the outstanding junior subordinated debt securities of any series, the consent of the holders of which is required for any modification of, or waiver of compliance with the provisions of, the junior subordinated indenture or specific defaults and their consequences provided for in the indenture.

Satisfaction and Discharge of the Junior Subordinated Indenture; Defeasance

The junior subordinated indenture will generally cease to be of any further effect with respect to a series of junior subordinated debt securities if OB Holdings delivers all junior subordinated debt securities of that series, with limited exceptions, for cancellation to the junior subordinated trustee or all junior subordinated debt securities of that series not previously delivered for cancellation to the junior subordinated trustee have become due and payable or will become due and payable or called for redemption within one year, and OB Holdings has deposited with the junior subordinated trustee as trust funds the entire amount sufficient to pay at maturity or upon redemption all the junior subordinated debt securities, no default with respect to the junior subordinated debt securities has occurred and is continuing on the date of the deposit, and the deposit does not result in a breach or violation of, or default under, the junior subordinated indenture or any other agreement or instrument to which OB Holdings is a party.

OB Holdings has a "legal defeasance option" under which it may terminate, with respect to the junior subordinated debt securities of a particular series, all of its obligations under the junior subordinated debt securities and the junior subordinated indenture. In addition, OB Holdings has a "covenant defeasance option" under which it may terminate, with respect to the junior subordinated debt securities of a particular series, its obligations with respect to the junior subordinated debt securities under specified covenants contained in the junior subordinated indenture. If OB Holdings exercises its legal defeasance option with respect to a series of junior subordinated debt securities, payment of the junior subordinated debt securities may not be accelerated because of an event of default. If OB Holdings exercises its covenant defeasance option with respect to a series of junior subordinated debt securities, payment of the junior subordinated debt securities may not be accelerated because of an event of default related to the specified covenants.

OB Holdings may exercise its legal defeasance option or its covenant defeasance option with respect to the junior subordinated debt securities of a series only if:

OB Holdings deposits in trust with the junior subordinated trustee cash or debt obligations of the United States of America or its agencies or instrumentalities for the payment of principal, premium and interest with respect to the junior subordinated debt securities to maturity or redemption;

OB Holdings delivers to the junior subordinated trustee a certificate from a nationally recognized firm of independent public accountants expressing their opinion that the cash or debt obligations described above on deposit with the junior subordinated trustee will provide cash sufficient to pay the principal, premium, and interest when due with respect to all the junior subordinated debt securities of that series to maturity or redemption;

91 days pass after the deposit is made and during the 91-day period no default described in the fifth bullet point under " Events of Default, Waiver and Notice of Default; Junior Subordinated Debt Securities in Foreign Currencies" above with respect to OB Holdings occurs that is continuing at the end of the period;

no default has occurred and is continuing on the date of the deposit;

the deposit does not constitute a default under any other agreement binding on OB Holdings;

OB Holdings has delivered to the junior subordinated trustee an opinion of counsel addressing specific Federal income tax matters relating to the defeasance; and

OB Holdings delivers to the junior subordinated trustee an officers' certificate and an opinion of counsel stating that all conditions to the defeasance and discharge of the junior subordinated debt securities of that series have been complied with.

The junior subordinated trustee will hold in trust cash or debt obligations of the United States of America or its agencies or instrumentalities deposited with it as described above and will apply the deposited cash and the proceeds from deposited debt obligations of the United States of America or its agencies or instrumentalities to the payment of principal, premium, and interest with respect to the junior subordinated debt securities of the defeased series.

Concerning the Junior Subordinated Trustee

The junior subordinated trustee for the junior subordinated debt securities will be identified in the relevant prospectus supplement. In specific instances, OB Holdings or the holders of a majority of the then outstanding principal amount of the junior subordinated debt securities issued under an indenture may remove the junior subordinated trustee and appoint a successor junior subordinated trustee. The junior subordinated trustee may become the owner or pledgee of any of the junior subordinated debt securities with the same rights, subject to conflict of interest restrictions, it would have if it were not the junior subordinated trustee. The junior subordinated trustee and any successor trustee must be a corporation organized and doing business as a commercial bank or trust company under the laws of the United States or of any state thereof, authorized under those laws to exercise corporate trust powers, having a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000 and subject to examination by Federal or state authority. Subject to applicable law relating to conflicts of interest, the junior subordinated trustee may also serve as trustee under other indentures relating to debt securities or junior subordinated debt securities issued by OneBeacon or its affiliated companies and may engage in commercial transactions with OneBeacon and its affiliated companies.

Covenants of OneBeacon and OB Holdings Applicable to the Junior Subordinated Debt Securities

The prospectus supplement for a particular series of junior subordinated debt securities will describe covenants, if any, contained in the junior subordinated indenture that will apply to the issuer and, in the case of issuances of junior subordinated debt securities by OB Holdings that are guaranteed by OneBeacon, those covenants, if any, that will also apply to OneBeacon as guarantor of OB Holdings' obligations. The covenants, if any, will be applicable, unless waived or amended, so long as any of the junior subordinated debt securities are outstanding, unless stated otherwise in the prospectus supplement.

Subordination of the Junior Subordinated Debt Securities

The junior subordinated debt securities will be subordinated and junior in right of payment to OB Holdings' other indebtedness to the extent set forth in the applicable prospectus supplement.

The payment of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the junior subordinated debt securities will be subordinated in right of payment to the prior payment in full of all of OB Holdings' senior indebtedness and will rank equally with its trade creditors. No payment on account of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the junior subordinated debt securities and no acquisition of, or payment on account of any sinking fund for, the junior subordinated debt securities may be made unless full payment of amounts then due for principal, premium, if any, and interest then due on all senior indebtedness by reason of the maturity thereof, by lapse of time, acceleration or otherwise, has been made or duly provided for in cash or in a manner satisfactory to the holders of the senior indebtedness. In addition, the junior subordinated indenture provides that if a default has occurred giving the holders of the senior indebtedness the right to accelerate the maturity thereof, or an event has occurred which, with the giving of notice, or lapse of time, or both, would constitute an event of default, then unless and until that event has been cured or waived or has ceased to exist, no payment on account of principal, premium, if any, or interest on the junior subordinated debt securities and no acquisition of, or payment on account of a sinking fund for, the junior subordinated debt securities may be made. OB Holdings will give prompt written notice to the junior subordinated trustee of any default under any senior indebtedness or under any agreement pursuant to which senior indebtedness may have been issued. Upon any distribution of OB Holdings' assets in connection with its dissolution, liquidation or reorganization, all senior indebtedness must be paid in full before the holders of the junior subordinated debt securities are entitled to any payments whatsoever. As a result of these subordination provisions, in the event of OB Holdings' insolvency, holders of the junior subordinated debt securities may recover ratably less than OB Holdings' senior creditors.

Table of Contents

If OneBeacon guarantees the junior subordinated debt securities, such guarantee will be subordinated and junior in right of payment to OneBeacon's other indebtedness to the extent set forth in the applicable prospectus supplement.

If OneBeacon guarantees the junior subordinated debt securities, the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the junior subordinated debt securities will be subordinated in right of payment to the prior payment in full of all of OneBeacon's senior indebtedness and will rank equally with its trade creditors. No payment on account of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the junior subordinated debt securities and no acquisition of, or payment on account of any sinking fund for, the junior subordinated debt securities may be made unless full payment of amounts then due for principal, premium, if any, and interest then due on all senior indebtedness by reason of the maturity thereof, by lapse of time, acceleration or otherwise, has been made or duly provided for in cash or in a manner satisfactory to the holders of the senior indebtedness. In addition, the junior subordinated indenture provides that if a default has occurred giving the holders of the senior indebtedness the right to accelerate the maturity thereof, or an event has occurred which, with the giving of notice, or lapse of time, or both, would constitute an event of default, then unless and until that event has been cured or waived or has ceased to exist, no payment on account of principal, premium, if any, or interest on the junior subordinated debt securities and no acquisition of, or payment on account of a sinking fund for, the junior subordinated debt securities may be made. If OneBeacon guarantees the junior subordinated debt securities, it will give prompt written notice to the junior subordinated trustee of any default under any senior indebtedness or under any agreement pursuant to which senior indebtedness may have been issued. Upon any distribution of OneBeacon's assets in connection with its dissolution, liquidation or reorganization, all senior indebtedness must be paid in full before the holders of the junior subordinated debt securities are entitled to any payments whatsoever. As a result of these subordination provisions, in the event of OneBeacon's insolvency, holders of the junior subordinated debt securities may recover ratably less than OneBeacon's senior creditors.

For purposes of the description of the junior subordinated debt securities, the term "senior indebtedness" with respect to OB Holdings or OneBeacon (where OneBeacon is a guarantor of junior subordinated debt securities), as applicable, means all indebtedness of OB Holdings or OneBeacon, as the case may be, whether outstanding on the date of execution of the junior subordinated indenture or incurred or created after the execution, except:

the junior subordinated debt securities;

indebtedness as to which, by the terms of the instrument creating or evidencing the same, it is provided that such indebtedness ranks equally in right of payment to, is subordinated to, ranks equally with or ranks junior to the issuer's junior subordinated debt securities;

indebtedness of the issuer to an affiliate of the issuer;

trade accounts payable;

indebtedness issued in violation of the instrument creating it; and

any guarantee by the issuer of indebtedness of another person that would not constitute "senior indebtedness" of such person under this definition.

DESCRIPTION OF TRUST PREFERRED SECURITIES

Each OB Holdings Trust may issue, from time to time, only one series of preferred securities having terms described in the prospectus supplement relating thereto. The declaration of trust under which each OB Holdings Trust is formed will be replaced by an amended and restated declaration of trust, which will authorize the regular trustees of the OB Holdings Trust to issue on behalf of the OB Holdings Trust one series of preferred securities. The preferred securities will have terms, including distributions, redemption, voting, liquidation rights and other preferred, deferred or other special rights or restrictions as will be set forth in the related amended and restated declaration of trust. Reference is made to any prospectus supplement relating to the preferred securities of any OB Holdings Trust for specific terms, including:

the specific designation of the preferred securities; the number of preferred securities issued by the OB Holdings Trust;

the annual distribution rate, or method of calculation of the rate, for preferred securities issued by the OB Holdings Trust, the date or dates upon which the distributions will be payable and the record date or dates for the payment of the distributions;

the voting rights, if any, of preferred securities issued by the OB Holdings Trust in addition to those required by law, including the number of votes per preferred security and any requirement for the approval by the holders of preferred securities, or of preferred securities issued by one or more OB Holdings Trusts, or of both, as a condition to specified actions or amendments to the declaration of the OB Holdings Trust;

the terms and conditions upon which the preferred securities may be convertible into or exchanged for common shares, preference shares, debt securities, junior subordinated debt securities, or indebtedness or other securities of any kind of OneBeacon or OB Holdings; and any other relevant rights, preferences, privileges, limitations or restrictions of preferred securities issued by the OB Holdings Trust consistent with the declaration of the OB Holdings Trust or with applicable law.

OneBeacon may guarantee the preferred securities offered by each OB Holdings Trust. If OneBeacon does guarantee preferred securities, this will be disclosed in the related prospectus supplement and the terms of such guarantee will generally be on the terms set forth below under "Description of Trust Preferred Securities Guarantees". Federal income tax considerations applicable to any offering of preferred securities will be described in the applicable prospectus supplement.

Trust will authorize the regular trustees of the OB Holdings Trust to issue one series of common securities having terms including distributions, redemption, voting, liquidation rights or restrictions as set forth in the amended and restated declaration. The terms of the common securities issued by the OB Holdings Trust will be substantially identical to the terms of the preferred securities issued by the OB Holdings Trust. The common securities will rank equally with the preferred securities and payments on the common securities will be made on a pro rata basis with the preferred securities. However, if an event of default under the applicable amended and restated declaration of trust occurs and is continuing, the rights of the holders of the common securities to payment in respect of distributions and payments upon liquidation, redemption and maturity will be subordinated to the rights of the holders of the preferred securities. Generally, the common securities issued by a OB Holdings Trust will also carry the right to vote and to appoint, remove or replace any of the trustees of the OB Holdings Trust. All the common securities of a OB Holdings Trust will be owned by OB Holdings or its subsidiary.

As long as payments of interest and other payments are made when due on the junior subordinated debt securities, the payments will be sufficient to cover distributions and other payments due on the preferred securities primarily because the aggregate principal amount of junior subordinated debt securities held as trust assets will be equal to the sum of the aggregate stated liquidation amount of the preferred securities, and the interest rate and interest and other payment dates on the junior subordinated debt securities will match the distribution rate and distribution and other payment dates for the preferred securities.

If an event of default with respect to the amended and restated declaration of any OB Holdings Trust occurs and is continuing, then the holders of preferred securities of the OB Holdings Trust would rely on the enforcement by the property trustee of its rights as a holder of the junior subordinated debt securities deposited in the OB Holdings Trust against OB Holdings. In addition, the holders of a majority in liquidation amount of the preferred securities will have the right to direct the time, method, and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the property trustee or to direct the exercise of any power conferred upon the property trustee under the amended and restated declaration of trust, including the right to direct the property trustee to exercise the remedies available to it as a holder of the junior subordinated debt securities. If the property trustee fails to enforce its rights under the junior subordinated debt securities deposited in the OB Holdings Trust, any holder of the preferred securities may, to the extent permitted by applicable law, after a period of 60 days has elapsed from the holder's written request, institute a legal proceeding against OB Holdings and OneBeacon to enforce the property trustee's rights under the junior subordinated debt securities without first instituting any legal proceeding against the property trustee or any other person or entity. If an event of default with respect to the amended and restated declaration of the OB Holdings Trust occurs and is continuing and the event is attributable to the failure of OB Holdings to pay interest or principal on the junior subordinated debt securities on the date the interest or principal is otherwise payable, or in the case of redemption, on the redemption date, then a holder of preferred securities of the OB Holdings Trust may also directly institute a proceeding for enforcement of payment to the holder of the principal of or interest on the junior subordinated debt securities having a principal amount equal to the aggregate liquidation amount of the preferred securities held by the holder on or after the respective due date specified in the junior subordinated debt securities without first directing the property trustee to enforce the terms of the junior subordinated debt securities or instituting a legal proceeding against OB Holdings and OneBeacon to enforce the property trustee's rights under the junior subordinated debt securities. In connection with a direct action, the rights of OB Holdings or OneBeacon, as applicable, will be substituted for the rights of the holder of the preferred securities under the amended and restated declaration of trust to the extent of any payment made by OB Holdings or OneBeacon, as applicable, to the holder of the preferred securities in a direct action. The holders of preferred securities of the OB Holdings Trust will not be able to exercise directly any other
