Item 8.01 Other Events.

On December 27, 2012, our company's board of directors formed an audit committee and adopted an Audit Committee Charter. According to its charter, the Audit Committee shall consist of at least one member, and a majority of members shall meet the independence requirements of Rule 10A-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "1934 Act"). Also, one of the members shall qualify as an "audit committee financial expert" as defined by Rule 309 of the 1934 Act. The Audit Committee Charter describes the primary functions of the Audit Committee, including the following:

- the appointment, remuneration and termination of our auditors;
- reviewing and discussing with management our audited financial statements and reviewing with management and our auditors our financial statements;
 - reviewing the performance of and fees paid to the auditors; and
 - meeting separately and periodically, with our auditors.

The board of directors appointed Etti Hanochi, Guy Yashin and Vered Caplan to act as members on our audit committee.

The Audit Committee member who is a "financial expert" is Etti Hanochi. Ms. Hanochi has been a member of our board of directors since April 2012, and is a Partner at Nextage Ltd. (Israel) a privately held global financial services organization. Previously she worked as a Senior Manager for Ernst & Young for nearly 11 years, focused mainly on hi-tech companies, both public and private. She has gained vast experience in M&A transactions, accounting and tax consultation which include broad experience in implementing internal procedures and controls with a specialty in US GAAP. She holds a B.A. in Accounting and a Management degree from the Management College and an MBA from Tel-Aviv University, a Master's degree in Law from Bar-Ilan University and is a Certificated Public Accountant.

Also on December 27, 2012, our company adopted a Compensation Committee Charter and appointed Etti Hanochi and Vered Caplan to act as members on our Compensation Committee.
