MANUGISTICS GROUP, INC.

9715 Key West Avenue
Rockville, Maryland 20850

June 1, 2006

Dear Fellow Stockholders:

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of stockholders of Manugistics Group, Inc. ("Manugistics" or the "Company"), to be held at the Company's principal executive offices located at 9715 Key West Avenue, Rockville, Maryland on Wednesday, June 28, 2006 at 11:00 a.m., E.D.T. At the special meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of April 24, 2006 (the "Merger Agreement"), by and between Manugistics, JDA Software Group, Inc. (the "Buyer") and Stanley Acquisition Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of the Buyer ("Merger Sub").

The Merger Agreement contemplates the merger of Merger Sub with and into Manugistics, with Manugistics continuing after the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of the Buyer (the "Merger"). Upon completion of the Merger, each share of Manugistics' common stock not held by the Buyer, Merger Sub, Manugistics or any subsidiary of Manugistics or a stockholder who perfects appraisal rights in accordance with Delaware law, will be converted into the right to receive $2.50 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding tax.

Under Delaware law, the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Manugistics common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting is necessary to adopt the Merger proposal.

On April 23, 2006, based on the unanimous recommendation of a special committee composed of three independent directors, our board of directors unanimously (1) approved and declared advisable the Merger Agreement, the Merger, and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, (2) declared that it is advisable and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders that the Company enter into the Merger Agreement and consummate the Merger on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, (3) declared that the Merger Agreement is fair to the Company and its stockholders, (4) directed that the Merger Agreement be submitted to a vote for adoption at a meeting of the Company's stockholders, and (5) recommended that the Company's stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement. Therefore, our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the adoption of the Merger Agreement.

The accompanying Notice of Special Meeting and proxy statement explain the proposed Merger and provide specific information concerning the special meeting. Please read those materials carefully.

Our board of directors has fixed the close of business on May 25, 2006, as the record date for the purpose of determining stockholders entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting or any adjournment, postponement or continuation thereof.

Our board of directors knows of no other matters that will be presented for consideration at the special meeting. If any other matter properly comes before the special meeting, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy or their substitutes will vote in accordance with their best judgment on such matter.

The enclosed proxy statement provides you with a summary of the Merger Agreement and the proposed Merger and provides additional information about the parties involved. The closing of the Merger will occur as promptly as practicable following the adoption of the Merger Agreement at the special meeting by Manugistics stockholders, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions to the closing of the Merger, as described in the enclosed proxy statement.

YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting in person, please sign and return the enclosed proxy in the envelope provided. If you attend the special meeting and desire to vote in person, you may do so even though you have previously sent a proxy. Because adoption of the Merger Agreement requires, under Delaware law, the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Manugistics common stock, the failure to vote will have exactly the same effect as voting against the Merger proposal.

If your shares are held in street name by your broker, your broker will be unable to vote your shares without instructions from you. You should instruct your broker to vote your shares, following the procedures provided by your broker. Failure to instruct your broker to vote your shares will have exactly the same effect as voting against adoption of the Merger proposal.

Sincerely,

Joseph L. Cowan
Chief Executive Officer

This proxy statement is dated June 1, 2006, and is first being mailed to stockholders on or about June 2, 2006.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
To be held June 28, 2006

To Our Stockholders:

Notice is hereby given that a special meeting of stockholders of Manugistics Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Manugistics" or the "Company"), will be held on Wednesday, June 28, 2006 at the Company's principal executive offices located at 9715 Key West Avenue, Rockville, Maryland at 11:00 a.m., E.D.T. for the following purposes:

1. To consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of April 24, 2006 (the "Merger Agreement"), by and between Manugistics, JDA Software Group, Inc. ("JDA" or the "Buyer") and Stanley Acquisition Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of the Buyer ("Merger Sub"). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will be merged with and into Manugistics, with Manugistics as the resulting corporation (the "Merger"). Upon completion of the Merger, each share of Manugistics common stock not held by the Buyer, Merger Sub, Manugistics, or any subsidiary of Manugistics or a stockholder who perfects appraisal rights in accordance with Delaware law, will be converted into the right to receive $2.50 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding tax. A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached as Annex A to the accompanying proxy statement;
2. To approve the adjournment, postponement or continuation of the special meeting for, among other reasons, the solicitation of additional proxies in the event that there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement; and
3. To transact any other business that may properly come before the special meeting.

Under Delaware law, the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Manugistics common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting is necessary to adopt the Merger proposal.

On April 23, 2006, based on the unanimous recommendation of a special committee composed of three independent directors (the "special committee"), our board of directors unanimously (1) approved and declared advisable the Merger Agreement, the Merger, and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, (2) declared that it is advisable and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders that the Company enter into the Merger Agreement and consummate the Merger on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, (3) declared that the Merger Agreement is fair to the Company and its stockholders, (4) directed that the Merger Agreement be submitted to a vote for adoption at a meeting of the Company's stockholders, and (5) recommended that the Company's stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement. Therefore, our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the adoption of the Merger Agreement.

Our board of directors has fixed the close of business on May 25, 2006, as the record date for the purpose of determining stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the special meeting or any adjournment, postponement or continuation thereof.

The enclosed proxy statement provides you with a summary of the Merger Agreement and the Merger, and provides additional information about the parties involved. The closing of the Merger will occur as promptly as practicable following the adoption of the Merger Agreement at the special meeting by

Edgar Filing: MANUGISTICS GROUP INC - Form DEFM14A

Manugistics stockholders, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions to the closing of the Merger, as described in the enclosed proxy statement.

Under Delaware law, stockholders of Manugistics can exercise appraisal rights in connection with the Merger. A stockholder that does not vote in favor of the Merger proposal and complies with all of the other necessary procedural requirements will have the right to dissent from the Merger and to seek appraisal of the fair value of his or her Manugistics shares, exclusive of any element of value arising from the expectation or accomplishment of the Merger. For a description of appraisal rights and the procedures to be followed to assert them, stockholders should review the provisions of Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, a copy of which is included as Annex B to the accompanying proxy statement.

YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting in person, please sign and return the enclosed proxy in the envelope provided. If you attend the special meeting and desire to vote in person, you may do so even though you have previously sent a proxy. Because adoption of the Merger Agreement requires, under Delaware law, the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Manugistics common stock, the failure to vote will have exactly the same effect as voting against the Merger proposal.

MANUGISTICS GROUP, INC.

A more detailed description of the ownership of Manugistics common stock by certain beneficial owners and Manugistics directors and executive officers is set forth on page 55 of this proxy statement.

- Interests of Our Officers and Directors. In considering the recommendation of our board of directors, with respect to the Merger, you should be aware that our executive officers and directors may have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Manugistics stockholders in general. You should read The Merger Interests of Manugistics Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger beginning on page 33.

(Lehman Brothers), financial advisor to our board of directors, rendered a preliminary oral opinion to our board of directors on April 23, 2006 and rendered its final oral opinion to our board of directors on April 24, 2006, which opinion was subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated April 24, 2006, that, as of April 24, 2006 and based upon and subject to the matters stated in its opinion, the $2.50 per share in cash consideration to be offered to the holders of Manugistics common stock in the Merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such stockholders. Lehman Brothers provided its opinion for the information and assistance of our board of directors in connection with its consideration of the Merger. The opinion of Lehman Brothers is not a recommendation as to how any stockholder should vote or act with respect to any aspect of the Merger. We urge you to read the opinion carefully and in its entirety. You should read The Merger Opinion of Lehman Brothers Inc. beginning on page 25 and Annex C to this proxy statement.

- Conditions to the Completion of the Merger. The obligations of the Buyer and Merger Sub to complete the Merger are subject to a variety of closing conditions, including the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the requisite stockholder vote at the special meeting. You should read Proposal No. 1 The Merger Agreement Conditions to Closing beginning on page 48.
- Termination. The Merger Agreement may be terminated, prior to the completion of the Merger, under certain circumstances. Some of those circumstances would require Manugistics to make a payment to the Buyer of a termination fee of $9.75 million or $4.875 million, depending on the situation. You should read Proposal No. 1 The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement and Proposal No. 1 The Merger Agreement Termination Fee and Expenses beginning on pages 49 and 50, respectively.

- Statutory Appraisal Rights. Holders of Manugistics common stock who do not vote in favor of the Merger will have the right to demand appraisal of their shares under Delaware law, if they take certain actions necessary to perfect their rights. You should read The Merger Appraisal Rights beginning on page 35.
- Antitrust Matters. The Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, or the HSR Act, prohibits us from completing the Merger until we have complied with the HSR Act by furnishing certain information and materials to the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission and the required waiting period has expired or been terminated. You should read The Merger Regulatory Matters beginning on page 40.
- The Special Meeting of Manugistics Stockholders. The special meeting will be held at the Company's principal executive offices located at 9715 Key West Avenue, Rockville, Maryland on Wednesday, June 28, 2006 at 11:00 a.m., E.D.T., and at any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. PROXY STATEMENT
FOR THE SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

To be held on June 28, 2006

General Information

The enclosed proxy is solicited on behalf of the board of directors of Manugistics Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation, for use at the special meeting of stockholders, or the special meeting, to be held at the Company's principal executive offices located at 9715 Key West Avenue, Rockville, Maryland, on Wednesday, June 28, 2006 at 11:00 a.m., E.D.T. and at any adjournment, postponement or continuation of the special meeting. These proxy solicitation materials were first mailed on or about June 2, 2006 to all stockholders entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Except as otherwise specifically noted in this proxy statement, we, our, us and similar words in this proxy statement refer to Manugistics Group, Inc. and its subsidiaries. In addition, we sometimes refer to Manugistics Group, Inc. as Manugistics or the Company and to JDA Software Group, Inc. as JDA or the Buyer.

Purpose of Meeting

The specific proposals to be considered and acted upon at the special meeting are summarized in the accompanying notice of special meeting of stockholders. Each proposal is described in more detail in this proxy statement.

VOTING RIGHTS AND SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

The Company's common stock is the only type of security entitled to vote at the special meeting. On May 25, 2006, the record date for determination of stockholders entitled to vote at the special meeting, there were 84,116,164 shares of common stock outstanding. Each stockholder of record as of the close of business on May 25, 2006 is entitled to one vote for each share of common stock held by such stockholder on such date. All votes will be tabulated by the inspector of elections appointed for the meeting, who will separately tabulate affirmative and negative votes, withheld votes, abstentions and broker non-votes.

Quorum Required

The Company's Third Amended and Restated Bylaws provide that the holders of a majority of the Company's common stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the special meeting. Abstentions, broker non-votes and votes withheld in a proxy otherwise signed and returned will be counted as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

Votes Required

Proposal No. 1. The adoption of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of April 24, 2006 (the Merger Agreement), by and among Manugistics, the Buyer and Stanley Acquisition Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of the Buyer (Merger Sub), requires the affirmative vote of holders of our common stock holding at least a majority of the shares of Manugistics common stock outstanding at the close of business on the record date. Abstentions are not affirmative votes and, therefore, will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal.

Proposal No. 2. The approval of the adjournment, postponement or continuation of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of a majority of those shares present, in person or represented by proxy, and entitled to vote on this proposal. Abstentions are not affirmative votes and, therefore, will have the same effect as a vote against this proposal.

Broker Non-Votes. Broker non-votes are not affirmative votes and, therefore, will have the same effect as a vote against the above proposals. Under applicable rules, brokers and other nominees who hold Company shares of record for their customers cannot vote on their customers' behalf on Proposal No. 1 or No. 2 unless the brokers or other nominees have timely received voting instructions from their customers. Therefore, a beneficial owner of our shares who wishes to vote on Proposal No. 1 and No. 2 should timely return voting instructions to the broker or other nominee, described further below under "Voting Rights and Solicitation of Proxies" Voting Instructions for Beneficial Owners.

Proxies for Stockholders of Record

If your shares are registered directly in your name with the Company's transfer agent, you are a stockholder of record with respect to those shares, and a proxy card accompanies this proxy statement sent to you. You may vote your shares by mailing a completed and signed proxy card in the envelope provided with the proxy card.

Whether or not you are able to attend the special meeting, you are urged to vote your shares by completing and returning the enclosed proxy card. Your shares will be voted as you direct on your proxy card when properly completed. In the event no directions are specified, such proxies will be voted FOR (i) the adoption of the Merger Agreement (as set forth in Proposal No. 1); (ii) any proposal to adjourn, postpone or continue the meeting to solicit additional proxies (as set forth in Proposal No. 2); and (iii) any recommendation of the board of directors on any matters properly brought before the special meeting for a vote.

The holders of record of shares of the Company's common stock at the close of business on May 25, 2006 are entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting. Each such share of the Company's common stock is entitled to one vote on each matter to come before the special meeting. As of May 25, 2006, the Company had issued and outstanding 84,116,164 shares of common stock held by 477 holders of record.

Revocability of Proxies

You may also revoke or change your proxy at any time before the special meeting. To do this, send a written notice of revocation or another signed proxy card with a later date to the Secretary of the Company at the Company's principal executive offices before the beginning of the special meeting. You may also automatically revoke your proxy by attending the special meeting and voting in person. All shares represented by a valid proxy received prior to the special meeting will be voted.

Voting Instructions for Beneficial Owners

If your Company shares are held by a stockbroker, bank, or other nominee rather than directly in your own name, you are considered a beneficial owner and not a stockholder of record. If you are a beneficial owner, your broker or other nominee has enclosed a voting instruction form which you may complete and return by mail to direct the nominee how to vote your shares. Most nominees also make Internet or by telephone voting procedures available to their beneficial owners. Please consult your voting instruction form for the specific procedures available.

Proxy Solicitation

The Company shall bear and pay the costs of printing and mailing this proxy statement and any supplement thereto. Additionally, the Company shall bear the cost of soliciting proxies. The Company has retained the services of The Altman Group, Inc., a proxy solicitation firm, to solicit proxies in connection with the special meeting, who will be paid approximately $8,000, plus expenses. In addition, the Company may reimburse brokerage houses and other persons representing beneficial owners of shares for their expenses in forwarding solicitation materials to such beneficial owners. The Company will furnish copies of solicitation material to such brokerage houses and other representatives. Proxies may also be solicited by certain of the Company's directors, officers, and employees, without additional compensation, personally or by telephone, facsimile or email. The Company does not presently intend to solicit proxies other than as described above.

Householding of Special Meeting Materials

Some banks, brokers and other nominee record holders may be participating in the practice of householding proxy statements and annual reports. This means that only one copy of our proxy statement may have been sent to multiple stockholders in each household. We will promptly deliver a separate copy of either document to any stockholder upon written or oral request to Nate Wallace, Vice President, Investor Relations, at 9715 Key West Avenue, Rockville, Maryland 20850, or at telephone number (301) 255-5059.

Stockholder List

A list of our stockholders entitled to vote at the special meeting will be available for examination by any Manugistics stockholder at the special meeting. For 10 days prior to the special meeting, this stockholder list will be available for inspection during ordinary business hours at our corporate offices located at 9715 Key West Avenue, Rockville, Maryland 20850.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING AND THE MERGER

The following discussion is intended to address briefly some commonly asked questions regarding the special meeting and the proposed Merger. These questions and answers may not address all questions that may be important to you as a Manugistics stockholder. Please refer to the more detailed information contained elsewhere in this proxy statement, the annexes to this proxy statement, and the documents referred to in this proxy statement.

Q: What matters am I being asked to vote on at the special meeting?

A: You are being asked to vote on the following proposals:

- To adopt the Merger Agreement; and
- To approve the adjournment, postponement or continuation of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement.

Finally, you may be asked to vote on such other business as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Q: How does the Company's board of directors recommend that you vote on the proposals?

A: Our board of directors recommends that you vote:

- FOR the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement; and
- FOR the proposal to adjourn, postpone or continue the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies.

Q: What vote of stockholders is required for each proposal at the special meeting?

A: For us to complete the proposed Merger, stockholders holding at least a majority of the shares of Manugistics common stock outstanding at the close of business on the record date must vote FOR the adoption of the Merger Agreement. The proposal to adjourn, postpone or continue the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies, would require the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares present, in person or by proxy, at the special meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter thereof. See Voting Rights and Solicitation of Proxies Required Vote.

Q: Who is entitled to vote at the special meeting?

A: Only stockholders of record as of the close of business on May 25, 2006, the record date for the special meeting, are entitled to receive Notice of the special meeting and to vote the shares of our common stock that they held at that time at the special meeting, or at any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting. On the record date, approximately 84,116,164 shares of Manugistics common stock, held by approximately 477 stockholders of record, were outstanding and entitled to vote. You may vote all shares you owned as of the record date. You are entitled to one vote per share.

Q: What should I do if I receive more than one set of voting materials?

A: You may receive more than one set of voting materials, including multiple copies of this proxy statement and multiple proxy cards or voting instruction cards. For example, if you hold your shares in more than one brokerage account, you will receive a separate voting instruction card for each brokerage account in which you hold shares. If you are a stockholder of record and your shares are registered in more than one name, you will receive more than one proxy card. Please complete, sign, date, and return each proxy card and voting instruction card that you receive. Please follow the directions for voting on each of the proxy cards that you receive to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Q: How do I cast a vote?

A: If your shares are registered in your name, you may vote by returning a signed proxy card or voting in person at the special meeting. Proxies submitted by mail must be received by 11:59 p.m., E.D.T on June 27, 2006. To vote by mail, mark, sign and date the proxy card and return it in the postage-paid envelope provided.

If your shares are held in street name through a broker or bank, you may vote by completing and returning the voting form provided by your broker or bank, or by the Internet or by telephone through your broker or bank if such a service is provided. To vote via the Internet or by telephone through your broker or bank, you should follow the instructions on the voting form provided by your broker or bank.

Q: May I vote in person?

A: Yes. If your shares are not held in street name through a broker or bank you may attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person at the special meeting by giving us a signed proxy card or ballot before voting is closed, rather than signing and returning your proxy card via mail. If you choose to vote in person, please bring proof of identification with you to the special meeting. Even if you plan to attend the special meeting, we recommend that you vote your shares in advance as described above, so that your vote will be counted even if you later decide not to attend. If your shares are held in street name, you must get a proxy from your broker or bank in order to attend the special meeting and vote. In order to do this, you should contact your broker or bank.

Q: What happens if I do not return my proxy card or attend the special meeting and vote in person?

A: The adoption of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of our common stock outstanding at the close of business on the record date. Therefore, if you do not return your proxy card or attend the special meeting and vote in person, it will have the same effect as if you voted against adoption of the Merger Agreement. See Voting Rights and Solicitation of Proxies Votes Required above for a description of the vote required for each proposal included in this proxy statement.

Q: If my broker holds my shares in street name, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: Your broker will not be able to vote your shares without instructions from you. You should instruct your broker to vote your shares following the procedure provided by your broker. Without instructions, your shares will not be voted on the Merger proposal, which will have the same effect as if you voted against adoption of the Merger Agreement. See Voting Rights and Solicitation of Proxies Votes Required above for a description of the effect of broker non-votes on the other proposals included in this proxy statement.

Q: May I change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy card?

A: Yes. You may change your vote at any time before your proxy card is voted at the special meeting. You can do this in one of three ways:

- First, you can deliver to the Secretary of Manugistics a written notice bearing a date later than the proxy stating that you would like to revoke your proxy.
- Second, you can complete, execute and deliver to the Secretary of Manugistics a new, later-dated proxy card for the same shares, provided the new proxy is received by 11:59 p.m., E.D.T. on June 27, 2006.
- Third, you can attend the special meeting and vote in person. Your attendance alone will not revoke your proxy. Any written notice of revocation or subsequent proxy should be delivered to Manugistics Group, Inc. at 9715 Key West Avenue, Rockville, Maryland 20850, Attention: Secretary, or hand-delivered to our Secretary at or before the taking of the vote at the special meeting.

If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow directions received from your broker to change those instructions. Your last vote before voting is closed at the special meeting is the vote that will be counted.

Q: What is a quorum?

A: A quorum of the holders of the outstanding shares of Manugistics common stock must be present for the special meeting to be held. A quorum is present if the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Manugistics common stock entitled to vote are present at the special meeting, either in person or represented by proxy. Abstentions, broker non-votes, and votes withheld in a proxy otherwise signed and returned will be counted as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

Q: How are votes counted?

A: For the proposal relating to the adoption of the Merger Agreement, you may vote FOR, AGAINST or ABSTAIN. If you ABSTAIN, it has the same effect as if you vote AGAINST the adoption of the Merger Agreement. Approval of this proposal requires the affirmative vote of holders of our common stock holding at least a majority of the shares of Manugistics common stock outstanding at the close of business on the record date.

For the proposal to adjourn, postpone or continue the meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies, you may vote FOR, AGAINST, or ABSTAIN. If you ABSTAIN, it has the same effect as if you vote AGAINST adjournment, postponement or continuation of the meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies. Approval of this proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of those shares present, in person or represented by proxy, and entitled to vote on this proposal.

If you sign your proxy card without indicating your vote, your shares will be voted FOR the adoption of the Merger Agreement, FOR any proposal to adjourn, postpone or continue the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies, and in accordance with the recommendations of the Company's board of directors on any other matters properly brought before the special meeting for a vote.

A broker non-vote generally occurs when a broker, bank or other nominee holding shares on your behalf returns a signed proxy card voting on one or more matters but does not vote on a proposal because the nominee has not received your voting instructions and lacks discretionary power to vote the shares. Generally, nominees have the discretion to vote for directors or other routine matters, unless you instruct otherwise. Broker non-votes will count for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present. Broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the adoption of the Merger Agreement. Broker non-votes will not directly affect the outcome of the vote on any of the other proposals listed in this proxy statement.

Q: Who will bear the cost of this solicitation?

A: The Company shall bear and pay the cost of printing and mailing this proxy statement and any supplement thereto. Additionally, the Company shall bear the cost of soliciting proxies. The Company has retained The Altman Group, Inc., a proxy solicitation firm, to solicit proxies in connection with the special meeting, who will be paid approximately $8,000, plus expenses. In addition, the Company may reimburse brokerage houses and other persons representing beneficial owners of shares for their expenses in forwarding solicitation materials to such beneficial owners. The Company will furnish copies of solicitation material to such brokerage houses and other representatives. Proxies may also be solicited by certain of the Company's directors, officers, and employees, without additional compensation, personally or by telephone, telecopy, or telegram. The Company does not presently intend to solicit proxies other than as described above.

The Merger

Q: What is the proposed transaction?

A: The proposed transaction is the acquisition of Manugistics by the Buyer. The proposed acquisition would be accomplished through a merger of Stanley Acquisition Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of the Buyer (which we sometimes refer to as merger sub), with and into Manugistics (the Merger). As a result of the Merger, Stanley Acquisition Corp. will cease to exist as a separate entity and Manugistics will continue after the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of the Buyer. Manugistics common stock will cease to be quoted on The NASDAQ National Market, will not be publicly traded and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or the Exchange Act.

Q: What will Manugistics stockholders receive in the Merger?

A: As a result of the Merger, our stockholders will receive $2.50 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding tax, for each share of Manugistics common stock they own. For example, if you own 100 shares of Manugistics common stock, you will receive $250.00 in cash less any applicable withholding tax in exchange for these shares.

Q: What will holders of Manugistics stock options and restricted stock receive in the Merger?

A: Each outstanding Manugistics stock option will become fully vested and exercisable immediately before the effective time of the Merger. If the Merger is completed, each outstanding Manugistics stock option that has an exercise price less than $2.50 per share and is not exercised before the effective time of the Merger will be converted at the effective time of the Merger into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to $2.50, less the exercise price of such stock option, and less any applicable withholding tax. Each outstanding Manugistics stock option that has an exercise price of $2.50 per share or more and is not exercised before the effective time of the Merger will be cancelled at the effective time of the Merger.

If an option holder exercises an outstanding Manugistics stock option before the effective time of the Merger, the holder will receive a share of Manugistics common stock that will be cashed out at the effective time of the Merger for $2.50, without interest and less any applicable withholding tax (on the same terms that apply to Manugistics common stockholders generally).

At the effective time of the Merger, the restrictions on any share of Manugistics restricted stock will lapse at the effective time of the Merger, and such share will become fully vested and converted into the right to receive $2.50 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding tax.

A holder of Manugistics stock options or restricted stock may be required to provide an approved written election or release of claims prior to receiving any payment, if any, for such stock options or restricted stock, as described above. You should read The Merger Treatment of Manugistics Stock Options and Restricted Stock, beginning on page 38.

Q: How will the Merger affect Manugistics employee stock purchase plan and 401(k) plan?

A: If the Merger is completed, all outstanding rights to purchase shares under the Company's employee stock purchase plan will terminate as of June 1, 2006 in accordance with the terms of this plan, and this plan will be terminated as of June 1, 2006. In addition, the Buyer currently intends for the Company's 401(k) plan to be merged with the Buyer's 401(k) plan on the closing date of the Merger, unless the Buyer consents otherwise in writing. You should read The Merger Treatment of Employee Stock Purchase Plan and 401(k) Plan, beginning on page 38.

Q: Am I entitled to appraisal rights?

A: Yes. As a holder of our common stock, you are entitled to appraisal rights under the Delaware General Corporation Law in connection with the Merger if you meet certain conditions, which conditions are described in this proxy statement under the caption The Merger Appraisal Rights.

Q: How does Manugistics Board of Directors recommend I vote?

A: At a meeting held on April 23, 2006, Manugistics board of directors unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and declared the Merger Agreement and the Merger advisable and in the best interests of Manugistics stockholders. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR adoption of the Merger Agreement and FOR the proposal to adjourn, postpone or continue the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies.

Q: What factors did our Board of Directors consider in making its recommendation?

A: In making its recommendation, the special committee and our board of directors took into account, among other things: the cash consideration to be received by holders of our common stock in the Merger and the current and historical market prices of Manugistics common stock; the current and future competitive landscape in our industry; concerns about the financial viability of the Company on a standalone basis; the timing of the proposed Merger; the status and history of discussions with other potential bidders; the written opinion dated April 24, 2006 of our financial advisor, Lehman Brothers Inc.; and the terms of the Merger Agreement, including our ability to furnish information to, and conduct negotiations with, a third party should we receive a superior proposal.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares of Manugistics common stock before the special meeting?

A: The record date for the special meeting is earlier than the date of the special meeting and the date that the Merger is expected to be completed. If you transfer your shares of Manugistics common stock after the record date, but before the special meeting, you will retain your right to vote at the special meeting, but will transfer the right to receive the Merger consideration.

Q: Will the Merger be taxable to me?

A: Yes. The receipt of cash pursuant to the Merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and may also be a taxable transaction under applicable state, local, or foreign income or other tax laws. Generally, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a stockholder will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received by the stockholder in the Merger and the stockholder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of Manugistics common stock converted into cash in the Merger. If the shares of Manugistics common stock are held by a stockholder as capital assets, gain or loss recognized by such stockholder will be capital gain or loss, which will be long-term capital gain or loss if the stockholder's holding period for the shares of Manugistics common stock exceeds one year. Capital gains recognized by an individual upon a disposition of a share of Manugistics that has been held for more than one year generally will be subject to a maximum U.S. federal income tax rate of 15% or, in the case of a share that has been held for one year or less, will be subject to tax at ordinary income tax rates. In addition, there are limits on the deductibility of capital losses. Because individual circumstances may differ, you should consult your own tax advisor to determine the particular tax effects to you. See The Merger Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger.

Q: When do you expect the Merger to be completed?

A: We are working toward completing the Merger as quickly as possible and expect to consummate the Merger in the third quarter of calendar year 2006. In addition to obtaining stockholder approval, we must satisfy all other closing conditions, including the receipt of regulatory approvals. See Proposal No. 1 The Merger Agreement Conditions to Closing.

Q: Should I send in my Manugistics stock certificates now?

A: No. After the Merger is completed, you will receive written instructions for exchanging your shares of our common stock for the Merger consideration of $2.50 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding tax, for each share of our common stock you hold.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: We urge you to read this proxy statement carefully and to consider how the Merger affects you. Then mail your completed, dated and signed proxy card in the enclosed return envelope as soon as possible so that your shares can be voted at the special meeting of our stockholders. Please do not send in your stock certificates with your proxy.

Recommendation of Manugistics' Board to Stockholders and Reasons for the Merger

Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the adoption of the Merger Agreement and FOR the proposal to adjourn, postpone or continue the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies. After careful consideration and following the unanimous recommendation of the special committee, our board of directors unanimously (1) approved and declared advisable the Merger Agreement, the Merger, and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, (2) declared that it is advisable and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders that the Company enter into the Merger Agreement and consummate the Merger on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, (3) declared that the Merger Agreement is fair to the Company and its stockholders, (4) directed that the Merger Agreement be submitted to a vote for adoption at a meeting of the Company's stockholders, and (5) recommended that the Company's stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement. In making this determination and recommendation, the special committee and our board of directors considered a number of factors, including the following:

- the business, competitive position, strategy and prospects of the Company, the risk that we will not be successful in implementing our strategy and achieving our goals, the competitive position of current and likely competitors in the industry in which we compete, and current industry, economic, and market conditions;
- the anticipated financial viability of the Company as a standalone enterprise, and the risk associated therewith;
- the fact that our discussions with other potential acquirers of the Company did not result in a superior offer to acquire us;
- the fact that the $2.50 per share in cash to be paid as Merger consideration represents approximately a (a) 22.5% premium to the average trading price during the 90 days prior to April 24, 2006 of $2.04 per share, and (b) 5.9% premium to the closing price on April 24, 2006, of $2.36 per share for our common stock on The NASDAQ National Market;
- the financial analyses reviewed with our board of directors by representatives of Lehman Brothers on April 23, 2006, the preliminary oral opinion of Lehman Brothers rendered to our board of directors on April 23, 2006, and the final oral opinion of Lehman Brothers rendered to our board of directors on April 24, 2006, which opinion was subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated April 24, 2006, that, as of April 24, 2006 and based upon and subject to the matters stated in its opinion, the $2.50 per share in cash consideration to be offered to the holders of Manugistics common stock in the Merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such stockholders; a copy of the full text of the Lehman Brothers opinion is attached to this proxy statement as Annex C; you are urged to read the opinion carefully and in its entirety for a description of, among other things, the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Lehman Brothers in rendering its opinion;
- the value of the consideration to be received by our stockholders and the fact that the consideration would be paid in cash, which provides certainty and immediate value to our stockholders;
- the possible alternatives to the Merger (including the possibility of continuing to operate the Company as an independent entity and the perceived risks of that alternative), the range of potential benefits to our stockholders of the possible alternatives and the timing and the likelihood of accomplishing the goals of such alternatives, and our board of directors' assessment that none of these alternatives was reasonably likely to present superior opportunities for the Company or to create greater value for our stockholders, taking into account risks of execution as well as business, competitive, industry and market risks, as compared to the Merger; and
- the environment and trends in our industry, including industry consolidation and pricing trends.

In the course of its deliberations, the special committee and our board of directors also considered a variety of risks and other potentially negative factors, including the following:

- the fact that we will no longer exist as an independent public company and our stockholders will forego any future increase in our value that might result from our possible growth;

- the risks and contingencies related to the announcement and pendency of the Merger, including the impact of the Merger on our customers, employees, suppliers, and our relationships with other third parties, including the potential negative reaction of these parties to the fact that we would be merging with the Buyer;
- the conditions to the Buyer's obligation to complete the Merger and the right of the Buyer to terminate the Merger Agreement in certain circumstances, including for breaches by us of our representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in the Merger Agreement;
- the risk that the Merger might not receive necessary regulatory approvals and clearances to complete the Merger or that governmental authorities could attempt to condition the Merger on one or more of the parties' compliance with certain burdensome terms or conditions;
- the fact that under the terms of the Merger Agreement, we cannot solicit other acquisition proposals and must pay to the Buyer a termination fee of $9.75 million or $4.875 million, depending on the situation, if the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, which, in addition to being costly, might have the effect of discouraging other parties from proposing an alternative transaction that might be more advantageous to our stockholders than the Merger;
- the fact that the income realized by stockholders as a result of the Merger generally will be taxable to our stockholders;
- the interests that certain directors and executive officers of the Company may have with respect to the Merger, in addition to their interests as stockholders of the Company generally, as described in "The Merger" "Interests of Manugistics' Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger"; and
- the fact that, pursuant to the Merger Agreement, we must generally conduct our business in the ordinary course and we are subject to a variety of other restrictions on the conduct of our business prior to closing of the Merger or termination of the Merger Agreement, which may delay or prevent us from pursuing business opportunities that may arise or preclude actions that would be advisable if we were to remain an independent company.

The special committee and our board of directors did not assign any particular weight or rank to any of the positive or potentially negative factors or risks discussed in this section, and the special committee and our board of directors carefully considered all of these factors as a whole in reaching their determination and recommendation.

See "The Merger" "Recommendation of Manugistics' Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger."

Opinion of Lehman Brothers Inc.

Lehman Brothers rendered a preliminary oral opinion to our board of directors on April 23, 2006, and rendered its final oral opinion to our board of directors on April 24, 2006, which opinion was subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated April 24, 2006, that, as of April 24, 2006 and based upon and subject to the matters stated in its opinion, the $2.50 per share in cash consideration to be offered to the holders of Manugistics common stock in the Merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such stockholders. See "The Merger" "Opinion of Lehman Brothers Inc."

The full text of the written opinion of Lehman Brothers, dated April 24, 2006, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Lehman Brothers in rendering its opinion, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement. You are urged to, and should, read the opinion carefully and in its entirety. Lehman Brothers provided its opinion for the information and assistance of our board of directors in connection with its consideration of the Merger. The Lehman Brothers opinion addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Manugistics common stock of the cash consideration to be offered to such holders of Manugistics common stock as of the date of the Lehman Brothers opinion. The Lehman Brothers opinion does not address any other aspect or implication of the Merger or any other agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into in connection with the Merger or otherwise and does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of our common stock should vote or act with respect to the Merger or any other matter.

The Special Meeting of Manugistics Stockholders

Date, Time and Place. A special meeting of our stockholders will be held at the Company's principal executive offices located at 9715 Key West Avenue, Rockville, Maryland on Wednesday, June 28, 2006 at 11:00 a.m., E.D.T., to:

- consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement;
- consider and vote on any proposal to adjourn, postpone or continue the special meeting to a later date, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the foregoing merger proposal; and
- in addition, you may be asked to vote on such other business as may properly come before the meeting or any adjournment, postponement or continuation thereof.

Record Date and Voting Power. You are entitled to vote at the special meeting if you owned shares of our common stock at the close of business on May 25, 2006, the record date for the special meeting. You will have one vote at the special meeting for each share of our common stock you owned at the close of business on the record date. There are 84,116,164 shares of our common stock entitled to be voted at the special meeting. Our directors and executive officers and their affiliates own approximately 23.8% of the shares entitled to vote at the special meeting and may have interests that are different from yours. See The Merger Interests of Manugistics Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger.

Required Vote. The adoption of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of our common stock outstanding at the close of business on the record date. Approval of any proposal to adjourn, postpone or continue the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies requires the affirmative vote of a majority of those shares present, in person or represented by proxy, and entitled to vote on this proposal. See Voting Rights and Solicitation of Proxies Votes Required.

Interests of Manugistics Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of our board of directors, with respect to the Merger, stockholders should be aware that our executive officers and directors may have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Manugistics stockholders in generally.

Jeffrey Kissling, Ronald Kubera and Lori Mitchell-Keller, executive officers of Manugistics, have entered into offer letters with the Buyer. These offer letters, which are contingent upon the closing of the Merger, provide that Jeffrey Kissling, Ronald Kubera and Lori Mitchell-Keller will be entitled to receive lump sum cash payments upon the closing of the Merger, in exchange for their release of Manugistics from its obligations under their September 23, 2005 agreements with Manugistics.

In addition, certain executive officers and directors of Manugistics hold Manugistics stock options and restricted stock that, as a result of the Merger, will vest in full in connection with the closing of the Merger.

Under the Merger Agreement, the Buyer has agreed to generally indemnify the officers and directors of Manugistics to the fullest extent permitted by law and to honor Manugistics' obligations under indemnification provisions of Manugistics' certificate of incorporation and bylaws. In addition, the Buyer has agreed to maintain director's and officer's liability insurance covering persons covered by Manugistics' directors' and officers' insurance for six years following the Merger through its purchase of a tail policy, provided that the Buyer is not required to pay more than 180% of the current premium for Manugistics' insurance. The members of the board of directors were aware of such interests when deciding to approve the Merger.

See The Merger Interests of Manugistics' Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger beginning on page 33.

Conditions to the Closing of the Merger

Each party's obligation to effect the Merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of various conditions, which include the following:

- the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement is approved by the requisite stockholder vote at the special meeting; and
- the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, or the HSR Act, and any other approval or waiting period under any other applicable competition, merger control, antitrust or similar law or regulation that is required to complete the Merger has been obtained or terminated or has expired.

In addition to the foregoing conditions, the Buyer will not be obligated to effect the Merger unless the following conditions are satisfied or waived:

- our representations and warranties made pursuant to the Merger Agreement are true and correct in all material respects, in each case as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the closing date of the Merger, except that the accuracy of representations and warranties that by their terms speak as of a specified date will be determined as of such date, and the circumstances giving rise to all inaccuracies in our representations and warranties, collectively, do not constitute a material adverse effect on us;
- we have performed in all material respects the covenants and obligations required to be performed by us under the Merger Agreement at or prior to the closing of the Merger;
- we have provided a certificate of our chief executive officer and our acting principal financial officer certifying as to our compliance with the two preceding conditions;
- we have obtained all authorizations, qualifications and orders of all governmental entities required to consummate the Merger;
- we have maintained our cash reserves in accordance with the requirements of the Merger Agreement and we have provided a certificate of our acting principal financial officer certifying to this condition;
- we have delivered to the Buyer our audited financial statements for our fiscal year ended February 28, 2006 and those audited financial statements are not inconsistent in any material respect from our unaudited financial statements for our fiscal year ended February 28, 2006, which were attached to the Merger Agreement;
- there is no pending claim, suit, action, or proceeding brought or threatened by any governmental entity that:

- challenges or seeks to restrain, prohibit or otherwise interfere with the ownership or operation by the Buyer or any of the Buyer's subsidiaries of all or any portion of the business or assets of Manugistics or its subsidiaries, or to require the Buyer or any of its subsidiaries to dispose of or hold separate any portion of the business or assets of Manugistics or its subsidiaries or of the Buyer or its subsidiaries; or
- seeks to impose limitations on the ability of the Buyer or any of its subsidiaries to exercise full rights of ownership of any shares of Manugistics stock or stock of the resulting corporation in the Merger, including full voting rights; or
- seeks to require the Buyer or any of its subsidiaries to divest themselves of any such stock of Manugistics or the resulting corporation; or
- challenges or seeks to restrain or prohibit or otherwise prevent or interfere with the Merger; or
- seeks to obtain from the Buyer or Merger Sub any damages or other relief that are material or significant to Buyer and Merger Sub, taken as a whole.
- we have not suffered a material adverse effect since the date of the Merger Agreement; and
- the Buyer shall have obtained financing of at least $275 million pursuant to debt financing from a group of banks and a private placement of its securities to a private equity firm and its affiliates.

Our obligation to effect the Merger is further conditioned on the satisfaction or waiver of the following:

- the Buyer's and Merger Sub's representations and warranties made pursuant to the Merger Agreement are true and correct in all material respects, in each case as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the closing date of the Merger, except that the accuracy of representations and warranties that by their terms speak as of a specified date will be determined as of such date and the circumstances giving rise to all inaccuracies in these representations and warranties, collectively, do not constitute a material adverse effect on the Buyer and Merger Sub;
- each of the Buyer and Merger Sub has performed in all material respects all covenants and obligations required to be performed by it under the Merger Agreement at or prior to the closing date of the Merger;
- the Buyer has provided a certificate of an authorized signatory of the Buyer certifying as to its compliance with the two preceding conditions;
- the Buyer has obtained all authorizations, qualifications and orders of all governmental entities and other third parties required to consummate the Merger; and
- there is no pending claim, suit, action or proceeding brought or threatened by any governmental entity that (i) challenges or seeks to restrain, prohibit, or otherwise interfere with the consummation of the Merger or (ii) seeks to obtain from Manugistics or its subsidiaries any damages or other relief that are material to Manugistics or its subsidiaries, as a whole.

We and the Buyer have agreed to use our respective commercially reasonable efforts to take all actions that are necessary, proper or advisable to cause the closing to occur. See Proposal No. 1 The Merger Agreement Conditions to Closing.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The Buyer and we can terminate the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, including:

- by mutual written consent of the Buyer and us;

- by either the Buyer or us if the Merger has not been completed by October 15, 2006, subject to certain conditions;
- by either the Buyer or us if any permanent injunction, restraint, prohibition, or other judgment, order, or decree issued by any court of competent jurisdiction or other governmental entity having the effect of preventing the closing of or prohibiting the Merger is in effect and has become final and nonappealable;
- by either the Buyer or us if our stockholders do not adopt the Merger Agreement at a duly held stockholders meeting, subject to certain conditions;
- by the Buyer if (1) our board of directors withdraws its recommendation that our stockholders approve the Merger at the special meeting, (2) our board of directors approves a proposal for a merger or similar transaction with a third party (or fails to object to an unsolicited tender offer from a third party), (3) a tender or exchange offer related to our stock has started and we do not send our stockholders a statement that our board of directors reject such offer, or (4) the Company violates the non-solicitation provision in the Merger Agreement;
- by the Buyer if (1) any of our representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement becomes inaccurate such as would give rise to the failure of a condition to closing and we have not cured such inaccuracy within 10 business days following written notice thereof from the Buyer, or (2) we fail to perform any covenant required to be performed by us in the Merger Agreement and such failure would give rise to the failure of a condition to closing;
- by us if (1) any of the Buyer's representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement becomes inaccurate such as would give rise to the failure of a condition to closing and the Buyer has not cured such inaccuracy within 10 business days following written notice thereof from us, or (2) the Buyer fails to perform any covenant required to be performed by the Buyer in the Merger Agreement and such failure would give rise to the failure of a condition to closing; or
- by us if, prior to the special meeting of our stockholders, our board of directors determines that the Company should pursue a merger or similar transaction with a third party, the Company follows the required procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement and the Company pays to the Buyer the $9.75 million fee required under the Merger Agreement.

See Proposal No. 1 The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement.

Limitation on Considering Other Acquisition Proposals

No Solicitation. We have agreed that we will not, and will not permit any of our subsidiaries to, nor will we authorize any person or permit any of our or our subsidiaries' directors, officers, or employees or any of our or their investment bankers, attorneys, accountants, or other advisors or representatives to, directly or indirectly:

- solicit, initiate, encourage, or take any other action to facilitate, any takeover proposal or the making of any inquiry or proposal that is reasonably likely to lead to a takeover proposal; or
- enter into, continue, or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any person any information with respect to, assist or participate in any effort or attempt by any person with respect to, or otherwise cooperate in any way with, any takeover proposal.

At any time prior to obtaining the stockholder approval, our board of directors may, in response to a bona fide written takeover proposal that is unsolicited following the date of the Merger Agreement and is not otherwise obtained in violation of the restrictions set forth in the immediately preceding bullet points and that our board of directors determines in good faith constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal, (1) furnish to the person making the takeover proposal information with respect to us and our subsidiaries pursuant to a confidentiality agreement which contains terms that are substantially equivalent to the terms of the confidentiality agreement that we and the Buyer have executed in connection with the Merger (provided that we have also furnished that information to the Buyer or we furnish it to the Buyer on a concurrent basis) and (2) participate in discussions or negotiations with the person (and its representatives) making the takeover proposal regarding the takeover proposal. See Proposal No. 1 The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Third Parties by Manugistics for definitions of takeover proposal and superior proposal as well as a more detailed description of the no solicitation provisions in the Merger Agreement.

Termination Fee and Expenses

The Merger Agreement provides that, in general, regardless of whether the Merger is consummated, all fees and expenses incurred by the parties in connection with the Merger Agreement and the Merger will be borne by the party incurring such fees and expenses.

The Merger Agreement may be terminated, prior to the completion of the Merger, under certain circumstances. Some of those circumstances also require Manugistics to make a payment to the Buyer of a termination fee of $9.75 million or $4.875 million, depending on the situation. You should read Proposal No. 1 The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement and Proposal No. 1 The Merger Agreement Termination Fee and Expenses beginning on pages 49 and 50, respectively.

Regulatory Approvals

The HSR Act prohibits us from completing the Merger until we have furnished certain information and materials to the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission and the required waiting period has ended. The Merger may be subject to review by the governmental authorities of various other jurisdictions under the antitrust laws of those jurisdictions. We will file, if required, the appropriate notifications and pursue the approval of the transaction. See The Merger Regulatory Matters.

Appraisal Rights

Our stockholders have the right under Delaware law to dissent from the approval of the Merger and to exercise appraisal rights and to receive payment in cash for the fair value of their shares of our common stock determined in accordance with Delaware law. The fair value of shares of our common stock, as determined in accordance with Delaware law, may be more or less than the Merger consideration to be paid to non-dissenting Manugistics stockholders in the Merger. To preserve their rights, stockholders who wish to exercise appraisal rights must not vote in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement and must follow specific procedures. Dissenting Manugistics stockholders must precisely follow these specific procedures to exercise appraisal rights, or their appraisal rights may be lost. These procedures are described in this proxy statement, and the provisions of Delaware law that grant appraisal rights and govern such procedures are attached as Annex B to this proxy statement. You are encouraged to read these provisions carefully and in their entirety. See The Merger Appraisal Rights.

THE MERGER

The following discussion summarizes certain terms of the Merger. Stockholders should read the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement, in its entirety.

Background to the Merger

Our board of directors and our management, in their ongoing effort to maximize stockholder value, have periodically reviewed and assessed our business strategy, a variety of strategic alternatives, and the various trends and conditions impacting our businesses generally. These industry trends include (1) the consolidation of providers in the markets in which we sell our products, (2) our major competitors increasingly being able to use their size as leverage for a competitive advantage in the market and (3) other competitive pressures, such as increased pricing pressure as a result of more competitors.

On October 10, 2005, our board of directors authorized the engagement of Lehman Brothers as our financial advisor in connection with a possible strategic transaction involving our business. During this meeting, our board of directors also established a special committee consisting of three independent directors (Messrs. Melia, Jacovini and Janeway) to review and evaluate potential strategic alternatives for the Company and to assist our board with the strategic alternatives process, particularly with respect to a possible sale of our company.

Our management, the special committee and Lehman Brothers collectively identified twenty-three possible candidates as merger partners or acquirers. The special committee and certain members of our management team had telephone conversations, initiated by Lehman Brothers, with certain of these interested parties and their representatives, over the course of several weeks. On November 1, 2005, Mr. Janeway was replaced on the special committee by Mr. Skelton because of a relationship between Mr. Janeway and a potential acquirer of the Company disclosed by Mr. Janeway to our board. On November 14, 2005, upon the request of the special committee transmitted by Lehman Brothers, eight parties submitted preliminary indications of interest in acquiring Manugistics. Over the next month, Lehman Brothers arranged follow-up, in-person management presentations and more detailed due diligence sessions with the interested parties and discussions with members of the special committee. Of the eight potential acquirers who submitted initial indications of interest, three parties emerged as potential acquirers, including JDA Software Group, Inc. (JDA). For the purposes of this description, these parties will be referred to as A, B, and JDA, respectively.

In November 2005, JDA submitted a tentative proposal to the Board and to the special committee under which each outstanding share of our common stock would be converted into the right to receive a certain number of shares of JDA common stock (valued at between $2.50 and $3.00 at then-prevailing prices for JDA stock), with several conditions, including that our board would then commit to a transaction with JDA. Given (i) our board's unwillingness to commit to JDA before entertaining proposals from parties A and B, and (ii) our board's preference for a proposal that would give cash to our stockholders in order to minimize uncertainty and maximize liquidity, JDA withdrew from the process.

During the period from November 28, 2005 through December 16, 2005, we granted parties A and B access to a data room containing information about Manugistics and, at the initiation of the special committee and Lehman Brothers, certain members of our management presented information about the Company to parties A and B in person.

On December 9, 2005, Lehman Brothers transmitted a draft merger agreement, prepared by our counsel and approved by the special committee, to parties A and B.

On December 16, 2005, parties A and B submitted tentative proposals to the special committee along with their comments to a draft merger agreement.

Party A, a financial sponsor, proposed an acquisition of Manugistics in which each outstanding share of our common stock would be converted into the right to receive $3.00 in cash, subject to various contingencies, including further due diligence. We allowed party A further access to our data room, and following further due diligence during the period from December 23, 2005 through mid-January 2006, party A revised its proposal to $2.50 per share, and conditioned its proposal on our willingness to agree to certain terms in the Merger Agreement that we viewed as unusual and not in the best interests of our stockholders, including an unusually burdensome expense-reimbursement provision. We were not able to reach an agreement with party A, and based on the relative weakness of their final offer, discussions with party A were terminated on January 23, 2006.

Party B, a private company backed by a financial sponsor, tentatively proposed multiple transaction structures, including making an equity investment in Manugistics, acquiring less than all of our outstanding voting stock for a mix of private party B stock and cash, and a merger in which each outstanding share of our common stock would be converted into the right to receive $3.00 in cash. In response to our board's stated preference (transmitted to party B by Lehman Brothers) for an all-cash transaction so as to minimize the uncertainty to our stockholders and maximize their liquidity, on December 22, 2005, party B revised its proposal to a merger in which each of our common stockholders would receive $2.70 per share. Party B was allowed further access to our data room, and conducted further due diligence during the period from December 23, 2005 through mid-January 2006. On January 25, 2006, party B revised its proposal to a hybrid structure in which each share of our common stock would be converted into the right to receive $1.00 in cash and a certain amount of stock in party B. The special committee and our board rejected this offer due to the substantially lower cash component and the uncertainty in valuing the stock of party B, a private company. Party B again revised its proposal so that each share of our common stock would be converted into the right to receive $2.35 in cash. Following further negotiations with the special committee in connection with this proposal and further due diligence, party B withdrew from the process on March 13, 2006, citing its conclusion that it could not integrate Manugistics' business into its existing business within party B's desired timeframe.

On February 15, 2006, following discussions initiated by JDA, including an in-person presentation by certain members of our management to JDA regarding the Company held on January 18 and 19, JDA reentered the process. The special committee then granted JDA access to our data room. Following a due diligence investigation and through negotiations with the special committee, on March 20, 2006, JDA submitted a proposal whereby each outstanding share of our common stock would be converted into the right to receive $2.50 in cash. On April 8, 2006, JDA and its representatives submitted a draft merger agreement to the special committee. Following negotiations of the terms of this agreement, on April 23, 2006, the special committee and our board of directors unanimously approved this agreement, and, on April 24, 2006, Manugistics and JDA entered into the Merger Agreement attached to this Proxy Statement as Annex A.

Recommendation of Manugistics' Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger

In the course of evaluating the direction of our business, our management and board of directors have periodically considered various strategic alternatives to enhance our markets and customer opportunities, including possible acquisitions of complementary businesses, commercial partnering arrangements, strategic combinations with other companies, and a sale of the Company.

Our board of directors established a special committee, comprised of three independent directors, to review and evaluate potential strategic alternatives for the Company and to assist our board with the strategic alternatives process, particularly with respect to a possible sale of our Company.

The special committee unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the Merger were advisable and in the best interests of our stockholders, and recommended that our board adopt the Merger Agreement and approve the Merger. Following the unanimous recommendation of the special committee, our board of directors unanimously (1) approved and declared advisable the Merger Agreement, the Merger, and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, (2) declared that it is advisable and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders that the Company enter into the Merger Agreement and consummate the Merger on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, (3) declared that the Merger Agreement is fair to the Company and its stockholders, (4) directed that the Merger Agreement be submitted to a vote for adoption at a meeting of the Company's stockholders, and (5) recommended that the Company's stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement. In connection with the foregoing, the special committee and our board each considered the opinion of Lehman Brothers, our Company's financial advisor, in making their respective recommendations. For more information on the opinion of Lehman Brothers see the section entitled "The Merger" Opinion of Lehman Brothers Inc." beginning on page 25 of this proxy statement. Our board unanimously recommends that our stockholders vote "FOR" approval of the merger agreement.

Manugistics faces intense competition in our markets. As we enter new markets, we encounter additional, market-specific competitors. Increased competition is likely to result in price reductions and may result in reduced gross margins and loss of market share. Our current and potential competitors may increase their share of the markets in which we compete by strategic alliances and/or the acquisition of competing companies.

At a meeting of our board of directors on April 23, 2006, upon the unanimous recommendation of the special committee, and after careful consideration, including consultation with financial and legal advisors, our board of directors unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the Merger are advisable.

and in the best interests of Manugistics stockholders. On April 24, 2006, Manugistics and JDA entered into the Merger Agreement. Our board of directors unanimously approved the Merger Agreement. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR adoption of the Merger Agreement and FOR the proposal to adjourn, postpone or continue the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies.

In the course of reaching its decision to approve the Merger Agreement and to recommend that Manugistics stockholders vote to adopt the Merger Agreement, the special committee and our board of directors consulted with our senior management, financial advisor, and legal counsel, reviewed a significant amount of information and considered a number of factors, including, among others, the following:

- the business, competitive position, strategy and prospects of the Company, the risk that we will be unsuccessful in implementing our strategy and achieving our goals, the competitive position of current and likely competitors in the industry in which we compete, and current industry, economic, and market conditions;
- the anticipated financial viability of the Company as a standalone enterprise, and the risk associated therewith;
- the fact that our discussions with other potential acquirers of the Company did not result in a superior offer to acquire us;
- the fact that the $2.50 per share in cash to be paid as merger consideration represents approximately a (a) 22.5% premium to the average trading price during the 90 days prior to April 24, 2006 of $2.04 per share, and (b) 5.9% premium to the closing price on April 24, 2006, of $2.36 per share for our common stock on The NASDAQ National Market;
- the financial analyses reviewed with our board of directors by representatives of Lehman Brothers on April 23, 2006 the preliminary oral opinion of Lehman Brothers rendered to our board of directors on April 23, 2006, the final oral opinion of Lehman Brothers rendered to our board of directors on April 24, 2006, which opinion was subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated April 24, 2006, that, as of April 24, 2006 and based upon and subject to the matters stated in its opinion, the $2.50 per share in cash consideration to be offered to the holders of Manugistics common stock in the Merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such stockholders; a copy of the full text of the Lehman Brothers opinion is attached to this proxy statement as Annex C; you are urged to read the opinion carefully and in its entirety for a description of, among other things, the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Lehman Brothers in rendering its opinion;
- the value of the consideration to be received by our stockholders and the fact that the consideration would be paid in cash, which provides certainty and immediate value to our stockholders;
- the possible alternatives to the Merger (including the possibility of continuing to operate the Company as an independent entity and the perceived risks of that alternative), the range of potential benefits to our stockholders of the possible alternatives and the timing and the likelihood of accomplishing the goals of such alternatives, and our board of directors' assessment that none of these alternatives was reasonably likely to present superior opportunities for the Company or to create greater value for our stockholders, taking into account risks of execution as well as business, competitive, industry and market risks, than the Merger; and
- the environment and trends in our industry, including industry consolidation and pricing trends.

In the course of its deliberations, the special committee and our board of directors also considered a variety of risks and other potentially negative factors, including the following:

- the fact that we will no longer exist as an independent public company and our stockholders will forego any future increase in our value that might result from our possible growth;
- the risks and contingencies related to the announcement and pendency of the Merger, including the impact of the Merger on our customers, employees, suppliers, and our relationships with other third parties, including the potential negative reaction of these parties to the fact that we would be merging with the Buyer;
- the conditions to the Buyer's obligation to complete the Merger and the right of the Buyer to terminate the Merger Agreement in certain circumstances, including for breaches by us of our representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in the Merger Agreement;
- the risk that the Merger might not receive necessary regulatory approvals and clearances to complete the Merger or that governmental authorities could attempt to condition the Merger on one or more of the parties' compliance with certain burdensome terms or conditions;
- the fact that under the terms of the Merger Agreement, we cannot solicit other acquisition proposals and must pay to the Buyer a termination fee of $9.75 million or $4.875 million, depending on the situation, if the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, which, in addition to being costly, might have the effect of discouraging other parties from proposing an alternative transaction that might be more advantageous to our stockholders than the Merger;
- the fact that the income realized by stockholders as a result of the Merger generally will be taxable to our stockholders;
- the interests that certain directors and executive officers of the Company may have with respect to the Merger, in addition to their interests as stockholders of the Company generally, as described in "The Merger" "Interests of Manugistics" "Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger"; and
- the fact that, pursuant to the Merger Agreement, we must generally conduct our business in the ordinary course and we are subject to a variety of other restrictions on the conduct of our business prior to closing of the Merger or termination of the Merger Agreement, which may delay or prevent us from pursuing business opportunities that may arise or preclude actions that would be advisable if we were to remain an independent company.

The special committee and our board of directors did not assign any particular weight or rank to any of the positive or potentially negative factors or risks discussed in this section, and the special committee and our board of directors carefully considered all of these factors as a whole in reaching their determination and recommendation.

Opinion of Lehman Brothers Inc.

On April 23, 2006, Lehman Brothers rendered its preliminary oral opinion (subsequently made final on April 24, 2006 and confirmed in writing as of such date) to Manugistics' board of directors that as of such date and, based upon and subject to matters stated in its written opinion, from a financial point of view, the consideration to be offered to Manugistics' stockholders in the Merger is fair to such stockholders.

The full text of Lehman Brothers' opinion, dated April 24, 2006, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement. Stockholders are urged to read such opinion carefully and in its entirety for a discussion of the assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered and limitations upon the review undertaken by Lehman Brothers in rendering its opinion. The following summary of Lehman Brothers' opinion and the methodology that Lehman Brothers used to render its fairness opinion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion.

Lehman Brothers' advisory services and opinion were provided for the information and assistance of Manugistics' board of directors in connection with its consideration of the Merger. Lehman Brothers' opinion is not intended to be and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of Manugistics as to how such stockholder should vote in connection with the Merger. Lehman Brothers was not requested to opine as to, and Lehman Brothers' opinion does not in any manner address, Manugistics' underlying business decision to proceed with or effect the Merger.

In arriving at its opinion, Lehman Brothers reviewed and analyzed:

- the Merger Agreement and the specific terms of the Merger;
- publicly available information concerning Manugistics that Lehman Brothers believed to be relevant to its analyses, including Manugistics' Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended February 28, 2005 and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended May 31, 2005, August 31, 2005 and November 30, 2005;
- financial and operating information with respect to the business, operations and prospects of Manugistics furnished to Lehman Brothers by Manugistics, including financial projections of Manugistics through fiscal year 2011 prepared by the management of Manugistics (the "Manugistics Projections");
- a trading history of Manugistics' common stock from the closing price as of April 22, 2003 to an intraday trading price as of noon E.D.T., April 24, 2006 and a comparison of that trading history with those of other companies that Lehman Brothers deemed relevant;
- a comparison of the historical financial results and present financial condition of Manugistics with those of other companies that Lehman Brothers deemed relevant;
- a comparison of the financial terms of the Merger with the financial terms of certain other transactions that Lehman Brothers deemed relevant;
- published estimates of independent research analysts with respect to the future price targets of Manugistics' common stock and the future financial performance of Manugistics through fiscal year 2007 and an extension of such research estimates prepared by the management of Manugistics through fiscal year 2011 (such estimates, including the extension, the "Manugistics Street Projections");
- the current and future capital requirements of Manugistics in light of its current cash balance and expected cashflows and the level of its indebtedness;
- the cash flows of the combined company relative to its capital structure, on a pro forma basis, and
- the standalone value of the tax savings expected to result from the historical net operating losses at Manugistics ("NOL Tax Savings").

In addition, Lehman Brothers had discussions with the management of Manugistics concerning its business, operations, assets, liabilities, NOL Tax Savings, financial condition and prospects and undertook such other studies, analyses and investigations as Lehman Brothers deemed appropriate.

In arriving at its opinion, Lehman Brothers assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information used by it without assuming any responsibility for independent verification of such information and have further relied upon the assurances of management of Manugistics that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make such information inaccurate or misleading. With respect to the Manugistics Projections, upon advice of Manugistics, Lehman Brothers assumed that such projections were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of Manugistics' management as to the future financial performance of Manugistics. However, for the purpose of its analyses, Lehman Brothers also considered the Manugistics Street Projections which reflect somewhat more conservative assumptions regarding Manugistics' future financial performance and Manugistics agreed with the appropriateness of the use of the Manugistics Projections and the Manugistics Street Projections in performing Lehman Brothers' analyses. Upon advice of Manugistics, Lehman Brothers assumed that the expected NOL Tax Savings were reasonable. In arriving at its opinion, Lehman Brothers conducted only a limited physical inspection of the properties and facilities of Manugistics and did not make or obtain any evaluations or appraisals of the assets or liabilities of Manugistics. Lehman Brothers' opinion necessarily was based upon market, economic and other conditions as they existed on, and could be evaluated as of, the date of such letter.

Lehman Brothers' opinion should not be viewed as providing any assurance that the consideration to be offered to the stockholders of Manugistics will be in excess of the market value of the shares of Manugistics common stock owned by such stockholders at any time prior to the announcement or the completion of the Merger. Although Lehman Brothers evaluated the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be offered to the stockholders of Manugistics in the Merger, Lehman Brothers was not requested to, and Lehman Brothers did not, recommend the specific consideration to be offered to the Manugistics stockholders in the Merger, which was determined through negotiations between Manugistics and JDA, nor should the Lehman Brothers' opinion be seen to constitute a recommendation to any Manugistics stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote with respect to the Merger.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Lehman Brothers performed certain financial, comparative and other analyses as summarized below. In arriving at its opinion, Lehman Brothers did not ascribe a specific range of value to JDA or Manugistics, but rather made its determination as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Manugistics stockholders of the consideration offered to such stockholders in the Merger on the basis of financial and comparative analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial and comparative analyses and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Therefore, such an opinion is not readily susceptible to summary description. Furthermore, in arriving at its opinion, Lehman Brothers did not attribute any particular weight to any analyses or factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analyses and factor. Accordingly, Lehman Brothers believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that considering any portion of such analyses and factors, without considering all analyses and factors as a whole, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying its opinion. In its analyses, Lehman Brothers made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Manugistics and JDA. None of Manugistics, JDA, Lehman Brothers or any other person assumes responsibility if future results are materially different from those discussed. Any estimates contained in these analyses were not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than as set forth therein. In addition, analyses relating to the value of businesses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which businesses actually may be sold.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses used by Lehman Brothers in connection with providing its opinion to the board of directors of Manugistics. Certain of the summaries of financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses used by Lehman Brothers, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. Accordingly, the analyses listed in the tables and described below must be considered as a whole. Considering any portion of such analyses and of the factors considered, without considering all analyses and factors, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying Lehman Brothers' opinion.

Liquidity Analysis

In order to evaluate the financial viability of Manugistics, Lehman Brothers reviewed the cash needs of Manugistics on a standalone basis taking into account its cash balance and outstanding debt as of February 28, 2006, including Manugistics' outstanding convertible notes which mature in November 2007. Based on Manugistics' cash and debt balances as of February 28, 2006, management estimates of Manugistics' cash needed for operations and projected cashflows through November 2007 derived from Manugistics Street Projections and Manugistics Projections, Lehman Brothers estimated that Manugistics' cash requirements through November 2007 would exceed its available cash and cashflows by approximately $14.5 to $24.5 million using Manugistics Street Projections of cashflows and $4.0 to $14.0 million using Manugistics Projections of cashflows. Lehman Brothers believes these estimates illustrated Manugistics' need to raise additional cash funding in order to fulfill its cash requirements as a standalone going concern, including the repayment of its convertible notes.

Stock Trading History

Lehman Brothers considered historical data with respect to the trading price of Manugistics shares for the period from the closing price as of April 22, 2005 to an intraday price as of noon E.D.T., April 24, 2006 and the relative stock price performances during the same period of the NASDAQ Composite Index, an index of Supply Chain Management comparative companies, or the SCM Composite, and an index of Software comparable companies, or the Software Composite, each as listed below.

The SCM Composite consisted of:

- Agile Software Corp.
- Ariba Inc.
- Aspen Technology Inc.
- Chordiant Software Inc.
- DesCartes Systems Group Inc.
- i2 Technologies Inc.
- JDA Software Group Inc.
- Manhattan Associates Inc.
- Retalix Ltd.
- SSA Global Technologies, Inc.

The Software Composite consisted of:

- Autodesk Inc.
- BMC Software Inc.
- CA, Inc.
- Cognos Inc.
- Intuit Inc.
- Mercury Interactive Corp.

- Microsoft Corp.

28

- Symantec Corp.

Lehman Brothers noted that during this time period, the share price of Manugistics common stock increased 52.0%, versus the NASDAQ Composite Index, which increased 20.5%, the SCM Composite, which increased 41.1% and the Software Composite, which increased 13.0%. Lehman Brothers also considered the period from the closing price as of April 22, 2003 to an intraday price as of noon E.D.T., April 24, 2006 and noted that during this period, the share price of Manugistics common stock decreased 19.0%, versus the NASDAQ Composite Index, which increased 60.4%, the SCM Composite, which decreased 5.6% and the Software Composite, which increased 21.7%. Lehman Brothers also noted that the Merger consideration per share of $2.50 was an 8.7% premium to Manugistics intraday price as of noon E.D.T., April 24, 2006 of $2.30 and an 11.4% premium to an average of 30 prior trading day closing share prices of Manugistics common stock.

Equity Research Analysts

Lehman Brothers considered publicly available price targets published by various firms that publish independent research on Manugistics (including JMP Securities, CIBC World Markets, RBC Capital Markets, Southwest Securities, ThinkEquity and ICAP) in order to determine that the consideration offered to Manugistics stockholders in the Merger of $2.50 per share was within the range of the published price targets by various brokerage firms ($1.50 to $3.00 per share).

Comparable Company Analysis

In order to assess how the public market values shares of publicly traded companies similar to Manugistics, Lehman Brothers reviewed and compared specific financial and operating data relating to Manugistics and 8 other companies in the supply chain management space that Lehman Brothers deemed most comparable to Manugistics in terms of operating performance as follows:

- Agile Software Corp.
- Chordiant Software Inc.
- Epicor Software Corp.
- i2 Technologies Inc.
- Lawson Software Americas, Inc.
- Manhattan Associates Inc.
- QAD Inc.
- SSA Global Technologies, Inc.

Using the Manugistics Projections and Manugistics Street Projections for Manugistics and publicly available information for the other companies, Lehman Brothers calculated and analyzed the ratios of each company's April 24, 2006 stock price as of noon E.D.T. to its projected calendar year, or CY, 2006 cash earnings per share (commonly referred to as a price earnings ratio, or P/E), and the ratios of each company's enterprise value, as described below, to certain financial criteria, including each company's projected CY 2006 revenues. The enterprise value of each company was obtained by adding its short and long-term debt to the sum of the market value of its fully diluted common stock, the value of any preferred stock (at liquidation value), the book value of any minority interest in other equity and the value of any material debt-equivalent liabilities. The results of these analyses are summarized below:

	Projected CY2006 Enterprise Value/ Revenue	Projected CY2006 P/E
Supply Chain Management
Low	0.93x	9.2x
Median	1.58x	19.6x
High	2.49x	67.2x
Manugistics
Current Street	1.37x	31.1x
Current Mgmt	1.40x	18.9x
Implied Transaction Street	1.48x	34.1x
Implied Transaction Mgmt	1.50x	20.7x

Given the inherent differences in the businesses, operations and prospects of Manugistics and the selected comparable companies, Lehman Brothers believed that it was inappropriate to, and therefore did not, rely solely on the quantitative results of the comparable company analyses, but also made qualitative judgments concerning differences in the financial and operating characteristics and prospects of Manugistics and the selected comparable companies that could affect the public trading values of each. These qualitative judgments related primarily to the differing sizes, growth prospects, profitability levels and degree of operational risk between Manugistics and the selected comparable companies. Based upon these judgments, Lehman Brothers selected 1.30x to 1.60x revenue multiples and calculated the implied prices per share of Manugistics common stock of $2.15 to $2.80 and $2.10 to $2.75 using Manugistics Street Projections and Manugistics Projections, respectively, and selected 13.0x to 15.0x cash P/E multiples and calculated the implied prices per share of Manugistics of $1.15 to $1.30 and $1.70 to $1.90 using Manugistics Street Projections and Manugistics Projections, respectively. The implied price ranges derived from cash P/E multiples included the present value of NOL Tax Savings on a per share basis. Lehman Brothers noted that the consideration of $2.50 per share offered in the Merger was within the range of implied prices based on projected CY 2006 revenues and above the range based on projected CY 2006 cash P/Es.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Lehman Brothers performed a discounted cash flow analysis of Manugistics to calculate the estimated present value of Manugistics common stock. A discounted cash flow analysis is a traditional valuation methodology used to derive a valuation of an asset by calculating the present value of estimated future cash flows of the asset. Present value refers to the current value of future cash flows or amounts and is obtained by discounting those future cash flows or amounts by a discount rate that takes into account macro-economic assumptions and estimates of risk, the opportunity cost of capital, expected returns and other appropriate factors applicable to a particular asset. The estimated present value of Manugistics common stock was calculated by adding the estimated free cash flow projections for the twelve month periods ending February 28, 2007 through February 28, 2011 using the Manugistics Projections and Manugistics Street Projections and the present value of the terminal value per share of Manugistics common stock at the end of 2011.

To estimate the residual value of Manugistics at the end of the forecast period, or terminal value, Lehman Brothers applied a range of terminal value multiples based on 2011 unlevered net income of 13.0x to 15.0x. Lehman Brothers discounted the unlevered free cash flows and estimated terminal value to a present value at a range of after-tax discount rates ranging from 14.0% to 18.0%. This range of discount rates was based on an analysis of Manugistics' weighted average cost of capital and those of other comparable companies.

Based on these discount rates and selected range of terminal values, the analyses resulted in a range of implied prices per share of approximately $2.25 to $2.65 using the Manugistics Projections and a range of implied prices per share of approximately $1.55 to $1.80 using the Manugistics Street Projections. The implied price ranges included the present value of NOL Tax Savings on a per share basis. Lehman Brothers noted that the consideration of $2.50 per share offered in the Merger was above the range of implied prices based on the Manugistics Street Projections and within the range based on the Manugistics Projections.

Premiums Paid Analysis

Lehman Brothers reviewed the one-day and thirty-day prior premiums for selected transactions with all-cash consideration valued between $100 million and $500 million since January 1, 2003. Lehman Brothers reviewed the premiums for all transactions and summarized the results as set forth below:

		Premiums
All Transactions 1 Day	1st Quartile	10.5 %
	Mean	19.0 %
	Median	17.5 %
	3rd Quartile	25.4 %
Implied Premium in Proposed Transaction		8.7 %
All Transactions 30 Day	1st Quartile	22.7 %
	Mean	42.7 %
	Median	36.1 %
	3rd Quartile	46.9 %
Implied Premium in Proposed Transaction		11.4 %

Lehman Brothers selected a relevant range of premiums from 11% to 20% which were applied to Manugistics' stock price as of 1-day prior to announcement on April 24, 2006 and 1-day prior to January 6, 2006, and a range of premiums from 20% to 35% which were applied to Manugistics' 30-day average stock price prior to announcement on April 24, 2006 and 30-day average stock price prior to January 6, 2006. January 6, 2006 is the date when several Wall Street research reports citing Manugistics as a takeover candidate were published. These relevant ranges were selected based on premiums observed in precedent transactions. Based on the selected range of premiums paid in such transactions, Lehman Brothers calculated implied prices for Manugistics of $2.55 to $2.75 and $2.70 to $3.00 based on 1-day and 30-day average prices prior to announcement on April 24, 2006, respectively, and $2.00 to $2.15 and $2.15 to $2.40 based on 1-day and 30-day average prices prior to January 6, 2006, respectively. Lehman Brothers noted that the consideration of $2.50 per share offered in the Merger was above the stock price of Manugistics based on the premiums on 1-day and 30-day average prices prior to January 6, 2006.

Precedent Transactions Analysis

Lehman Brothers reviewed and compared the purchase prices and financial multiples paid in ten acquisitions of companies that Lehman Brothers, based on its experience with merger and acquisition transactions, deemed relevant to arriving at its opinion. Lehman Brothers chose the transactions used in the comparable transaction analyses based on the similarity of the target companies in the transactions to Manugistics in the size, mix, margins and other characteristics of their businesses. Lehman Brothers reviewed the following transactions:

Acquiror	Target
Dassault Systems	MatrixOne, Inc.
Hewlett-Packard Co.	Peregrine Systems, Inc.
Oracle Corp.	Siebel Systems, Inc.
SSA Global Technologies, Inc.	E.piphany Inc.
Concerto Software Inc.	Aspect Communications Corp.
Lawson Software, Inc.	Intentia International
Oracle Corp.	Retek Inc.
Infor Global Solutions	MAPICS, Inc.
Oracle Corp.	PeopleSoft, Inc.
PeopleSoft, Inc.	JD. Edwards & Co.

Based on publicly available information, Lehman Brothers considered, among other things, the comparable companies' enterprise value implied in the respective transaction as multiples of the last twelve months and forward twelve months revenues. The results of such precedent transaction analyses are summarized below:

	Mean	Median	High	Low
Enterprise Value as a multiple of:
LTM Revenue	2.11x	1.99x	3.28x	1.12x
1 Year Forward Revenue	2.04x	1.76x	3.11x	1.08x

The reasons for and the circumstances surrounding each of the transactions analyzed were diverse and there are inherent differences in the business, operations, financial conditions and prospects of Manugistics, and the businesses, operations, financial conditions and prospects of the companies included in the precedent transaction analyses. Accordingly, Lehman Brothers believed that a purely quantitative comparable transaction analyses would not be particularly meaningful in the context of the Merger. Lehman Brothers believed that the appropriate use of the precedent transaction analyses required qualitative judgments concerning the differences between the characteristics of these transactions and the Merger which would affect the acquisition values of the acquired companies and Manugistics.

Based upon these judgments, Lehman Brothers selected a range of enterprise value multiples for the precedent transactions of 1.10x to 1.75x and calculated a range of implied prices for Manugistics of $1.75 to $3.10 using the Manugistics Street Projections, and $1.70 to $3.00 using the Manugistics Projections. Lehman Brothers noted that the consideration of $2.50 per share offered in the Merger was within the range of these implied price ranges.

Because Manugistics has a lower growth profile than most of its peers, Lehman Brothers also selected a range of enterprise value multiples for relevant precedent transactions of lower growth targets of 1.10x to 1.30x, and calculated a range of implied prices for Manugistics of $1.75 to $2.20 using the Manugistics Street Projections, and $1.70 to $2.15 using the Manugistics Projections. Lehman Brothers noted that the consideration of $2.50 per share offered in the Merger was above these implied price ranges.

Pro Forma Combination Analysis

Lehman Brothers analyzed the pro forma impact of the Merger on the cash earnings per share of JDA. For the purpose of this analysis, Lehman Brothers assumed representative amounts of cash and debt used in the transaction, and the rates associated as indicated by JDA. Lehman Brothers estimated that, based on the assumptions described above, the pro forma impact of the Merger on the cash earnings per share of JDA would be dilutive in calendar year 2006 assuming no synergies, and accretive in calendar year 2006 over a range of synergies the Company and JDA deemed reasonable based on the cost structures for both companies for the purpose of this analysis.

Miscellaneous

Lehman Brothers is an internationally recognized investment banking firm and, as part of its investment banking activities, is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive bids, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for corporate and other purposes. Manugistics' board of directors selected Lehman Brothers because of its expertise, reputation and familiarity with Manugistics and the software industry generally, and because its investment banking professionals have substantial experience in transactions comparable to the Merger.

As compensation for its services in connection with the Merger, Manugistics has agreed to pay Lehman Brothers customary fees, a portion of which is payable upon the delivery of Lehman Brothers' opinion and a substantial portion of which is contingent upon the completion of the Merger. In addition, Manugistics has agreed to reimburse Lehman Brothers for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the Merger and to indemnify Lehman Brothers for certain liabilities that may arise out of its engagement by Manugistics and the rendering of the Lehman Brothers opinion.

In addition, in the ordinary course of its business, Lehman Brothers may trade in the equity securities of Manugistics and JDA for its own account and for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Interests of Manugistics' Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of our board of directors, with respect to the Merger, stockholders should be aware that our executive officers and directors may have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Manugistics' stockholders in general. The members of the board of directors were aware of such interests when deciding to approve the Merger.

Board of Directors and Special Committee

In addition to annual cash retainers and per meeting fees, each non-employee director, including the Chairman of the Board, has received initial grants of stock options upon his appointment to the Board and annual grants of stock options thereafter. In April 2005, Mr. Melia also received a discretionary grant of an option to purchase 100,000 shares of Common Stock in connection with his appointment as Chairman of the Board. If the Merger is consummated, each unexercised Manugistics stock option held by such directors will become fully vested, and, if the exercise price is less than $2.50 per share, converted into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to $2.50 less than exercise price of such stock option, and less any applicable withholding tax.

On October 10, 2005, the Board of Directors established a Special Committee, initially composed of Kevin Melia (Chairman of the Special Committee), Joseph Jacovini and William Janeway to provide an efficient process for the evaluation of various strategic alternatives for the assets or businesses of the Company. On November 1, 2005, Mr. Janeway resigned from the Special Committee and was replaced by Thomas Skelton. On April 23, 2006, the Corporate Governance Committee approved meeting fees for the Special Committee. The fees for meetings actually attended are $750 per meeting for the Chairman of the Special Committee and $500 per meeting for the other members of the Special Committee.

Executive Officers

During fiscal 2006, we entered into letter agreements amending the terms of employment of each of our executive officers with respect to a change in control of Manugistics. Under the terms of these letter agreements, if, within one year of a change in control of Manugistics, we terminate an executive's employment other than for cause or the executive officer terminates his or her employment for good reason, we will make severance payments to such executive in the amount of his or her base salary and benefits during the twelve-month period in the case of Jeffrey Kissling, Edward Daihl, Ronald Kubera, Timothy Smith, Lori Mitchell-Keller and Kelly Davis-Stoudt, and during the twenty-four-month period in the case of our Chief Executive Officer, Joseph L. Cowan, commencing on such executive's termination date.

In November 2005, we established a supplemental retention program, pursuant to which a total of $130,000 in cash will be paid to certain executive officers and a total of 300,000 shares of restricted stock and stock options for 915,000 shares were granted to certain of our executive officers and employees. Of the 300,000 shares of restricted stock awarded under the program, 165,000 shares were awarded to our executive officers. Of the 915,000 stock options, 400,000 options were awarded to our executive officers. The equity awards will fully vest, and the cash awards will become payable, upon the earliest to occur of: (i) such employee's resignation for good reason or our termination of employment of such employee without cause; (ii) a change in control of Manugistics; and (iii) November 1, 2006.

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, the parties thereto agreed that for all benefit plans (including all severance agreements, employment-related agreements, stock option plans, restricted stock plans and any and all award or other agreements associated with any benefit plan), the Merger would be deemed a change in control, would result in the full vesting of any outstanding stock option and restricted stock awards, and would also establish for certain specified individuals, including the following executive officers of Manugistics: Joseph L. Cowan, Edward Daihl, Kelly Davis-Stoudt and Timothy T. Smith a termination without cause or a resignation for good reason, unless such person waived such treatment in writing before the closing of the Merger. Further, such person would have the right to continue, at no cost to the person, any medical insurance coverage that was in effect, for such person and his or her dependents (if any), immediately before the closing of the Merger until the earlier of the expiration of such person's continuation coverage under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, as amended, and the date on which replacement coverage begins for such employee with another employer.

During our first quarter of fiscal 2007, our compensation committee approved, and our board of directors ratified, (1) a bonus of $350,000 for Joseph L. Cowan in connection with and contingent upon his continued service with Manugistics through the closing of the Merger, and (2) a bonus pool of $900,000 pursuant to which bonuses, also contingent upon continued service through the closing of the Merger and the consummation of the Merger were granted to Jeffrey Kissling, Edward Daihl, Ronald Kubera, Timothy Smith, Lori Mitchell-Keller and Kelly Davis-Stoudt in the amounts of $195,000, $104,500, $55,000, $155,000, $45,000 and $73,000, respectively, with the remainder of this bonus pool allocated to non-executive officers of Manugistics.

The Merger Agreement provides that our directors and officers will be indemnified in respect of their past service and that the Buyer will maintain our current directors' and officers' liability insurance, subject to certain conditions. See The Merger Agreement Indemnification and Insurance beginning on page 51.

Offer Letters to Certain Executive Officers

Jeffrey Kissling, Ronald Kubera and Lori Mitchell-Keller, executive officers of Manugistics, have each executed offer letters with the Buyer which are contingent on the closing of the Merger and which provide that each of them will receive $225,000 upon the closing of the Merger. These payments are in lieu of any amount to which they would have been entitled under their September 23, 2005 agreements with Manugistics and are in exchange for their release of Manugistics from its obligations under their September 23, 2005 agreements with Manugistics. In addition, the offer letters provide for employment positions for each of them with the Buyer following the closing of the Merger, a retention incentive payment if they remain employed with the Buyer for a period of time following the closing of the Merger, standard employee benefits of the Buyer, eligibility for equity compensation and other terms and conditions related to their employment with the Buyer after the Merger is consummated.

Voting by Manugistics Directors and Executive Officers; Voting Agreement

On May 25, 2006, the record date for the Manugistics special meeting, directors and executive officers of Manugistics and their affiliates beneficially owned 20,644,179 shares of Manugistics common stock, or approximately 23.8% of the shares of Manugistics common stock outstanding on that date. A more detailed description of the ownership of Manugistics common stock by certain beneficial owners and Manugistics directors and executive officers is set forth on page 55 of this proxy statement.

Manugistics directors and officers and certain of their affiliates have entered into a voting agreement with the Buyer that commit them not to sell any of their shares of Manugistics common stock prior to the earlier of the consummation of the Merger or the termination of the Merger Agreement, and to vote all of their shares of Manugistics common stock in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and against certain other actions. The form of voting agreement entered into by Manugistics officers and directors and certain of their affiliates is included as Annex D to this proxy statement. For a summary of material provisions of the voting agreement, see Proposal No. 1 the Merger Agreement Voting Agreement beginning on page 52.

Appraisal Rights

The discussion of the provisions set forth below is not a complete summary regarding your appraisal rights under Delaware law and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the relevant provisions of Delaware law, which are attached to this proxy statement as Annex B. Stockholders intending to exercise appraisal rights should carefully review Annex B. Failure to follow precisely any of the statutory procedures set forth in Annex B may result in a termination or waiver of these rights.

If the Merger is consummated, dissenting holders of our common stock who follow the procedures specified in Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law within the appropriate time periods will be entitled to have their shares of our common stock appraised by a court and to receive the fair value of such shares in cash as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery in lieu of the consideration that such stockholder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

The following is a brief summary of Section 262, which sets forth the procedures for dissenting from the Merger and demanding statutory appraisal rights. Failure to follow the procedures set forth in Section 262 precisely could result in the loss of appraisal rights. This proxy statement constitutes notice to holders of our common stock concerning the availability of appraisal rights under Section 262. A stockholder of record wishing to assert appraisal rights must hold the shares of stock on the date of making a demand for appraisal rights with respect to such shares and must continuously hold such shares through the effective time of the Merger.

Stockholders who desire to exercise their appraisal rights must satisfy all of the conditions of Section 262. A written demand for appraisal of shares must be filed with us before the special meeting on June 28, 2006. This written demand for appraisal of shares must be in addition to and separate from a vote against, or an abstention from voting on, the Merger. Stockholders electing to exercise their appraisal rights must not vote for the Merger. Any proxy or vote against the Merger will not constitute a demand for appraisal (or waiver thereof) within the meaning of Section 262, nor will it be deemed to satisfy any notice requirements under Delaware law.

A demand for appraisal must be executed by or for the stockholder of record, fully and correctly, as such stockholder's name appears on the share certificate. If the shares are owned of record in a fiduciary capacity, such as by a trustee, guardian or custodian, this demand must be executed by or for the fiduciary. If the shares are owned by or for more than one person, as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, such demand must be executed by or for all joint owners. An authorized agent, including an agent for two or more joint owners, may execute the demand for appraisal for a stockholder of record; however, the agent must identify the record owner and expressly disclose the fact that, in exercising the demand, he is acting as agent for the record owner. A person having a beneficial interest in our common stock held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker or nominee, must act promptly to cause the record holder to follow the steps summarized below and in a timely manner to perfect whatever appraisal rights the beneficial owner may have.

A Manugistics stockholder who elects to exercise appraisal rights should mail, or deliver his her or its written demand to us at our address at 9715 Key West Avenue, Rockville, Maryland 20850, Attention: Secretary. The written demand for appraisal should specify the stockholder's name and mailing address, and that the stockholder is thereby demanding appraisal of his, her or its Manugistics common stock. Within 10 days after the effective time of the Merger, we must provide notice of the effective time of the Merger to all of our stockholders who have complied with Section 262 and have not voted for the Merger.

Within 120 days after the effective time of the Merger (but not thereafter), any stockholder who has satisfied the requirements of Section 262 may deliver to us a written demand for a statement listing the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the Merger and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. We, as the resulting corporation in the Merger, must mail such written statement to the stockholder no later than the later of 10 days after the stockholders' request is received by us or 10 days after the latest date for delivery of a demand for appraisal under Section 262, whichever is later.

Within 120 days after the effective time of the Merger (but not thereafter), either we or any stockholder who has complied with the required conditions of Section 262 and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights may file a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the fair value of the Manugistics shares of stockholders entitled to appraisal rights. We have no present intention to file such a petition if demand for appraisal is made.

If a petition for appraisal is duly filed by a stockholder in accordance with Section 262 and a copy of the petition is delivered to us, we will be obligated, within 20 days after receiving service of a copy of the petition, to provide the Chancery Court with a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded an appraisal of their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by us. If we file a petition, the petition must be accompanied by the verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the court, will give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to us and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated, and notice will also be given by publishing a notice at least one week before the day of the hearing in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware, or such publication as the court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication must be approved by the court, and we will bear the costs thereof. The Delaware Court of Chancery may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares (and who hold stock represented by certificates) to submit their stock certificates to the Register in Chancery for notation of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings and the Delaware Court of Chancery may dismiss the proceedings as to any stockholder that fails to comply with such direction.

If a petition for an appraisal is filed in a timely fashion, after a hearing on the petition, the court will determine which stockholders are entitled to appraisal rights and will appraise the shares owned by these stockholders, determining the fair value of such shares, exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the Merger, together with a fair rate of interest to be paid, if any, upon the amount determined to be the fair value.

Manugistics stockholders considering seeking appraisal of their shares should note that the fair value of their shares determined under Section 262 could be more, the same or less than the consideration they would receive pursuant to the Merger Agreement if they did not seek appraisal of their shares. The costs of the appraisal proceeding may be determined by the court and taxed against the parties as the court deems equitable under the circumstances. Upon application of a dissenting stockholder, the court may order that all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any dissenting stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts, be charged pro rata against the value of all shares entitled to appraisal. In the absence of a determination or assessment, each party bears his, her, or its own expenses. The exchange of shares for cash pursuant to the exercise of appraisal rights will be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes and possibly state, local, and foreign income tax purposes as well. See The Merger Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger.

Any stockholder who has duly demanded appraisal in compliance with Section 262 will not, after the effective time of the Merger, be entitled to vote for any purpose the shares subject to demand or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on such shares, except for dividends or distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date prior to the effective time of the Merger.

At any time within 60 days after the effective time of the Merger, any stockholder will have the right to withdraw his, her or its demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered in the Merger Agreement. After this period, a stockholder may withdraw his, her, or its demand for appraisal and receive payment for his, her, or its shares as provided in the Merger Agreement only with our consent. If no petition for appraisal is filed with the court within 120 days after the effective time of the Merger, stockholders' rights to appraisal (if available) will cease. Inasmuch as we have no obligation to file such a petition, any stockholder who desires a petition to be filed is advised to file it on a timely basis. No petition timely filed in the court demanding appraisal may be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the court, which approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the court deems just.

Failure by any Manugistics stockholder to comply fully with the procedures described above and set forth in Annex B to this proxy statement may result in termination of such stockholder's appraisal rights.

Form of the Merger

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and in accordance with Delaware law, at the effective time of the Merger, Stanley Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Buyer and a party to the Merger Agreement, will merge with and into us. We will continue after the Merger as a wholly owned Delaware subsidiary of the Buyer.

Merger Consideration

At the effective time of the Merger, each outstanding share of our common stock, other than treasury shares, shares held by the Buyer or Merger Sub, and shares held by stockholders who perfect their appraisal rights (as described in The Merger Appraisal Rights), will be converted into the right to receive $2.50 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding tax. Treasury shares and shares held by the Buyer or Merger Sub will be automatically canceled at the effective time of the Merger.

As of the effective time of the Merger, all shares of our common stock will no longer be outstanding and will automatically be canceled and will cease to exist, and each holder of a certificate representing any shares of our common stock (other than stockholders who have perfected their appraisal rights) will cease to have any rights as a stockholder, except the right to receive $2.50 per share in cash, without interest and less applicable withholding tax. The price of $2.50 per share was determined through arm's-length negotiations between the Buyer and us.

Treatment of Manugistics Stock Options and Restricted Stock

Each outstanding Manugistics stock option will become fully vested and exercisable immediately before the effective time of the Merger. If the Merger is completed, each outstanding Manugistics stock option that you own that has an exercise price less than $2.50 per share and is not exercised before the effective time of the Merger will be converted at the effective time of the Merger into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to $2.50, less the exercise price of such stock option, and less any applicable withholding tax. Each outstanding Manugistics stock option that has an exercise price of $2.50 per share or more and is not exercised before the effective time of the Merger will be cancelled at the effective time of the Merger.

If an option holder exercises an outstanding Manugistics stock option before the effective time of the Merger, the holder will receive a share of Manugistics common stock that will be cashed out at the effective time of the Merger for $2.50, without interest and less any applicable withholding tax (on the same terms that apply to Manugistics' common stockholders generally).

At the effective time of the Merger, the restrictions on any share of Manugistics restricted stock you own will lapse, and such share will become fully vested and converted into the right to receive $2.50 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding tax.

A holder of Manugistics stock options or restricted stock may be required to provide an approved written election or release of claims prior to receiving any payment, if any, for such stock options or restricted stock, as described above.

Treatment of Employee Stock Purchase Plan and 401(k) Plan

If the Merger is completed, all outstanding rights to purchase shares under the Company's employee stock purchase plan will terminate as of June 1, 2006 in accordance with the terms of this plan. The employee stock purchase plan will be terminated as of June 1, 2006, and no further purchase rights will be granted or exercised under this plan after that date. All participants in the employee stock purchase plan will receive a refund of any unused contributions to this plan as soon as reasonably practicable after the Merger is completed. In addition, the Buyer currently intends for the Company's 401(k) plan to be merged with the Buyer's 401(k) plan on the closing date of the Merger, unless the Buyer consents otherwise in writing.

Effective Time of the Merger

The Merger will become effective upon the filing of a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or at such later time as is agreed upon by the Buyer and us and specified in the certificate of merger. The filing of the certificate of merger will occur as soon as practicable on or after the closing date, which will not be later than the first business day after satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the closing of the Merger described in the Merger Agreement. We currently anticipate that the Merger will be completed in the third quarter of calendar year 2006; however, because the Merger is subject to regulatory approvals and other closing conditions, we cannot predict the exact timing.

Delisting and Deregistration of Manugistics Common Stock

If the Merger is completed, all outstanding shares of our common stock will be exchanged for the cash consideration described in Proposal No. 1 and the Company will become a wholly owned subsidiary of the Buyer. As a result, our common stock will be delisted from and will no longer be traded on The NASDAQ National Market and will be deregistered under the Exchange Act.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following is a summary of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to stockholders of Manugistics whose shares of Manugistics common stock are converted into the right to receive cash in the Merger. The following summary is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the Code, Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, judicial decisions, and administrative rulings, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. The summary does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular stockholders in light of their individual circumstances or to stockholders who are subject to special rules, including: non-U.S. persons, U.S. expatriates, insurance companies, dealers or brokers in securities or currencies, tax-exempt organizations, financial institutions, mutual funds, pass-through entities and investors in such entities, stockholders who hold their shares of Manugistics common stock as a hedge or as part of a hedging, straddle, conversion, synthetic security, integrated investment, or other risk-reduction transaction or who are subject to alternative minimum tax or stockholders who acquired their shares of Manugistics common stock upon the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation. Further, this discussion does not address any U.S. federal estate and gift or alternative minimum tax consequences or any state, local, or foreign tax consequences relating to the Merger.

The Merger. The receipt of cash pursuant to the Merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and may also be a taxable transaction under applicable state, local, or foreign income or other tax laws. Generally, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a stockholder will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received by the stockholder in the Merger and the stockholder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of Manugistics common stock converted into cash in the Merger. If shares of Manugistics common stock are held by a stockholder as capital assets, gain, or loss recognized by such stockholder will be capital gain or loss, which will be long-term capital gain or loss if the stockholder's holding period for the shares of Manugistics common stock exceeds one year. Capital gains recognized by an individual upon a disposition of a share of Manugistics that has been held for more than one year generally will be subject to a maximum U.S. federal income tax rate of 15% or, in the case of a share that has been held for one year or less, will be subject to tax at ordinary income tax rates. In addition, there are limits on the deductibility of capital losses. The amount and character of gain or loss must be determined separately for each block of Manugistics common stock (i.e., shares acquired at the same cost in a single transaction) converted into cash in the Merger.

Backup Withholding. A stockholder (other than certain exempt stockholders, including, among others, all corporations and certain foreign individuals) whose shares of Manugistics common stock are converted into the Merger consideration may be subject to backup withholding at the then applicable rate (under current law, the backup withholding rate is 28%) unless the stockholder provides the stockholder's taxpayer identification number, or TIN, and certifies under penalties of perjury that such TIN is correct (or properly certifies that it is awaiting a TIN), and certifies as to no loss of exemption from backup withholding and otherwise complies with the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. A stockholder that does not furnish a required TIN or that does not otherwise establish a basis for an exemption from backup withholding may be subject to a penalty imposed by the Internal Revenue Service, or the IRS. Each stockholder should complete and sign the Substitute Form W-9 included as part of the letter of transmittal that will be sent to stockholders promptly following closing of the Merger so as to provide the information and certification necessary to avoid backup withholding. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Rather, the amount of the backup withholding can be credited against the U.S. federal income tax liability of the person subject to the backup withholding, provided that the required information is given to the IRS. If backup withholding results in an overpayment of tax, a refund can be obtained by the stockholder by filing a U.S. federal income tax return.

THE SUMMARY OF U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES SET FORTH ABOVE IS FOR GENERAL INFORMATION ONLY AND IS BASED ON THE LAW IN EFFECT ON THE DATE HEREOF. STOCKHOLDERS ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS TO DETERMINE THE PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM (INCLUDING THE APPLICATION AND EFFECT OF ANY STATE, LOCAL OR FOREIGN INCOME AND OTHER TAX LAWS) OF THE MERGER.

As required by U.S. Treasury Regulations governing tax practice, you are hereby advised that any written tax advice contained herein was not written or intended to be used (and cannot be used) by any taxpayer for the purpose of avoiding penalties that may be imposed under the U.S. Internal Revenue Code.

Regulatory Matters

Under the HSR Act and the rules thereunder, certain transactions, including the Merger, may not be completed unless certain waiting period requirements have been satisfied. The Buyer and we each have filed a notification and report form pursuant to the HSR Act with the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission. Even if the waiting period is terminated, the Antitrust Division, the Federal Trade Commission, or others could take action under the antitrust laws with respect to the Merger, including seeking to enjoin the closing of the Merger, to rescind the Merger or to conditionally approve the Merger. In addition, we may be required to make filings in several foreign jurisdictions with anti-competition authorities with respect to the Merger, and in certain circumstances, receive their approval prior to consummation of the Merger. There can be no assurance that a challenge to the Merger on antitrust grounds will not be made or, if such a challenge is made, that it would not be successful.

Financing

The Buyer estimates that the total amount of funds necessary to complete the proposed Merger and the related transactions is approximately $275 million, which includes approximately $211 million to be paid to our stockholders and holders of options to acquire our common stock, the retirement of certain Company debt, with the remaining to be applied to pay related fees and expenses in connection with the proposed Merger, the financing arrangements and the related transactions.

The Buyer has delivered to us a commitment letter for $225 million to be made available to it, subject to certain terms and conditions under senior secured financing provided by a consortium of lenders and their affiliates, including Citicorp North America, Inc., Citigroup Global Markets Inc. and UBS Loan Finance LLC and a stock purchase agreement providing for a private equity financing of Buyer of $50 million from affiliates of Thoma Cressey Equity Partners, Inc., subject to certain terms and conditions. The Buyer has represented to us that it will have sufficient funds to consummate the Merger if it is able to obtain the funds pursuant to the commitment letter and stock purchase agreement. The Buyer's ability to receive the funds pursuant to the commitment letter and stock purchase agreement is conditioned, among other things, upon the closing of the Merger. The commitment under the letter from the Buyer's lenders expires on October 15, 2006.

The Buyer has agreed pursuant to the Merger Agreement to use its commercially reasonable efforts to arrange the senior secured financing and private equity financing on the terms and conditions consistent with those described in the commitment letter and the preferred stock purchase agreement.

The following documents filed by the Buyer with the Securities and Exchange Commission are hereby incorporated by reference into this proxy statement to the extent not modified or superseded by documents subsequently filed (the Incorporated Documents):

- Annual Report on Form 10-K filed by the Buyer for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005;
- Proxy Statement for the Buyer's 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders filed by the Buyer on March 29, 2006; and
- Form 10-Q filed by the Buyer for the quarter ended March 31, 2006.

Any statement contained in an Incorporated Document shall be deemed to be modified or superseded for the purpose of this proxy statement to the extent that a statement contained herein modifies or supersedes such statement. Any such statement so modified or superseded shall not be deemed, except as so modified or superseded, to constitute a part of this proxy statement. All information appearing in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by the information and financial statements (including notes thereto) appearing in the Incorporated Documents, except to the extent set forth in the immediately preceding sentence.

PROPOSAL NO. 1 THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following description summarizes the material provisions of the Merger Agreement. Stockholders should read carefully the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement.

Effective Time

The Merger will become effective upon the filing of a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or at such later time as is agreed upon by the Buyer and us and specified in the certificate of merger. The filing of the certificate of merger will occur as soon as practicable on or after the closing date, which will not be later than the first business day after satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the closing of the Merger described in the Merger Agreement.

Manugistics Certificate of Incorporation. As of the effective time of the Merger, Manugistics Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, will be amended and restated so as to be identical to the certificate of incorporation of Merger Sub in effect immediately prior to the Merger.

Manugistics Amended and Restated Bylaws. As of the effective time of the Merger, Manugistics Third Amended and Restated Bylaws, as amended, will be amended and restated so as to be identical to the bylaws of Merger Sub in effect immediately prior to the Merger.

Conversion of Shares; Procedures for Exchange of Certificates

The conversion of our common stock into the right to receive $2.50 per share in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding tax, will occur automatically at the effective time of the Merger. As soon as reasonably practicable after the effective time of the Merger, the paying agent designated by the Buyer and reasonably agreed to by us will send a letter of transmittal to each former Manugistics stockholder. The letter of transmittal will contain instructions for obtaining cash in exchange for shares of our common stock.

Upon surrender of a stock certificate representing shares of our common stock, together with a duly completed and validly executed letter of transmittal, and any other documents that may be reasonably required by the paying agent, the holder of the certificate will be entitled to receive from the paying agent, on behalf of the Buyer, $2.50 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding tax, for each share represented by the stock certificate, and that stock certificate will be canceled.

In the event of a transfer of ownership of our common stock that is not registered in our stock transfer books, the Merger consideration for shares of our common stock may be paid to a person other than the person in whose name the surrendered certificate is registered if:

- the certificate is properly endorsed or otherwise is in proper form for transfer, and
- the person requesting such payment:
- pays any transfer or other taxes resulting from the payment to a person other than the registered holder of the certificate; or
- establishes to the resulting corporation in the Merger that the tax has been paid or is not applicable.

No interest will be paid or accrue on any cash payable upon the surrender of stock certificates representing shares of our common stock. The cash paid upon conversion of shares of our common stock will be issued in full satisfaction of all rights relating to the shares of our common stock.

Treatment of Manugistics Stock Options and Restricted Stock

Each outstanding Manugistics stock option will become fully vested and exercisable immediately before the effective time of the Merger. If the Merger is completed, each outstanding Manugistics stock option that you own that has an exercise price less than $2.50 per share and is not exercised before the effective time of the Merger will be converted at the effective time of the Merger into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to $2.50, less the exercise price of such stock option, and less any applicable withholding tax. Each outstanding Manugistics stock option that has an exercise price of $2.50 per share or more and is not exercised before the effective time of the Merger will be cancelled at the effective time of the Merger.

If an option holder exercises an outstanding Manugistics stock option before the effective time of the Merger, the holder will receive a share of Manugistics common stock that will be cashed out at the effective time of the Merger for $2.50, without interest and less any applicable withholding tax (on the same terms that apply to Manugistics' common stockholders generally).

At the effective time of the Merger, the restrictions on any share of Manugistics restricted stock you own will lapse, and such share will become fully vested and converted into the right to receive $2.50 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding tax.

A holder of Manugistics stock options or restricted stock may be required to provide an approved written election or release of claims prior to receiving any payment, if any, for such stock options or restricted stock, as described above.

Treatment of Employee Stock Purchase Plan and 401(k) Plan

If the Merger is completed, all outstanding rights to purchase shares under the Company's employee stock purchase plan will terminate as of June 1, 2006 in accordance with the terms of this plan. The employee stock purchase plan will be terminated as of June 1, 2006, and no further purchase rights will be granted or exercised under this plan after that date. All participants in the employee stock purchase plan will receive a refund of any unused contributions to this plan as soon as reasonably practicable after the Merger is completed. In addition, the Buyer currently intends for the Company's 401(k) plan to be merged with the Buyer's 401(k) plan on the closing date of the Merger, unless the Buyer consents otherwise in writing.

No Solicitation of Third Parties by Manugistics

We have agreed that we will not, and will not permit any of our subsidiaries to, nor will we authorize any person or permit any of our or our subsidiaries directors, officers, or employees or any of our or their investment bankers, attorneys, accountants, or other advisors or representatives to, directly or indirectly:

- solicit, initiate, encourage, or take any other action to facilitate, any takeover proposal or the making of any inquiry or proposal that is reasonably likely to lead to a takeover proposal; or
- enter into, continue, or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any person any information with respect to, assist or participate in any effort or attempt by any person with respect to, or otherwise cooperate in any with, any takeover proposal.

At any time prior to obtaining the stockholder approval, our board of directors may, in response to a bona fide written takeover proposal that is unsolicited following the date of the Merger Agreement, and is not otherwise obtained in violation of the restrictions set forth in the immediately preceding bullet points, and that our board of directors determines in good faith constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal, (1) furnish to the person making the takeover proposal information with respect to us and our subsidiaries, pursuant to a confidentiality agreement which contains terms that are substantially equivalent to the terms of the confidentiality agreement that we and the Buyer have executed in connection with the Merger (provided that we have also furnished that information to the Buyer or we furnish it to the Buyer on a concurrent basis), and (2) participate in discussions or negotiations with the person (and its representatives) making the takeover proposal regarding the takeover proposal.

The Merger Agreement provides that a takeover proposal means any inquiries, proposal or offer from any person (other than the Buyer or Merger Sub) relating to, or that is reasonably likely to lead to, any direct or indirect acquisition, in one transaction or a series of transactions, including by way of any merger, consolidation, tender offer, exchange offer, stock acquisition, asset acquisition, binding share exchange, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution, joint venture, or similar transaction, of (1) all or any part of the material assets, properties or business of us or our subsidiaries, or (2) all or any part of the outstanding shares of capital stock of us or our subsidiaries.

The Merger Agreement provides that the term superior proposal means any unsolicited, bona fide written proposal made by a third party (excluding the Buyer and Merger Sub) to acquire substantially all our equity securities or assets pursuant to a tender or exchange offer, a merger, a consolidation or a sale of our assets, on terms which our board determines in its good faith judgment to be materially more favorable from a financial point of view to our stockholders than the transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement (after consulting with a nationally recognized independent financial advisor and taking into account all the terms and conditions of the proposal, the Merger Agreement and any changes to the terms of the Merger Agreement proposed by the Buyer in response to such offer or otherwise).

We have agreed to promptly advise the Buyer of any request for information that contemplates a possible takeover proposal or of any takeover proposal, or of any inquiry that is reasonably likely to lead to a takeover proposal, the terms and conditions of such request, takeover proposal, or inquiry and the identity of the person making any such request, takeover proposal, or inquiry. We have also agreed not to provide any information to or participate in any discussions or negotiations with any person regarding a superior proposal until after we have first notified the Buyer of such takeover proposal. We further agree to (a) notify the Buyer of any material change in the terms of any takeover proposal or inquiry, (b) provide the Buyer as soon as practicable after receipt or delivery, copies of all correspondence and other written material sent or provided to us from any person in connection with any takeover proposal, and (c), if the Buyer makes a counterproposal consider and cause our financial and legal advisors to consider in good faith the terms of the counterproposal.

The Merger Agreement provides that neither our board of directors nor any committee of our board will:

- withdraw or modify, or propose to withdraw or modify in a manner adverse to the Buyer or Merger Sub, the approval or recommendation by our board of directors or any committee of our board of the Merger Agreement or the Merger or adopt, approve or recommend, or propose to adopt, approve or recommend, any takeover proposal, unless our board of directors or a committee of our board determines in its good faith judgment that its fiduciary obligations require our board to take such action; provided, however, that (a) such action is prior to the stockholder meeting to approve the Merger Agreement, (b) we have complied in all material respects with our no solicitation obligations in the Merger Agreement, and (c) such action is after the second business day following the Buyer's receipt of the notice from our board requesting the withdrawal or modification of our board's recommendation for the Merger due to the existence of a superior proposal or to terminate the Merger Agreement and identifying the person making the proposal; or
- cause or permit us to enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement, Merger Agreement, or similar agreement constituting or related to any takeover proposal.

Conditions to Closing

Each party's obligation to effect the Merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of various conditions, which include the following:

- the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement is approved by the requisite stockholder vote at the special meeting; and
- the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, or the HSR Act, and any other approval or waiting period under any other applicable competition, merger control, antitrust or similar law or regulation that is required to complete the Merger has been obtained or terminated or has expired.

In addition to the foregoing conditions, the Buyer will not be obligated to effect the Merger unless the following conditions are satisfied or waived:

- our representations and warranties made pursuant to the Merger Agreement are true and correct in all material respects, in each case as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the closing date of the Merger, except that the accuracy of representations and warranties that by their terms speak as of a specified date will be determined as of such date, and the circumstances giving rise to all inaccuracies in our representations and warranties, collectively, do not constitute a material adverse effect on us;
- we have performed in all material respects the covenants and obligations required to be performed by us under the Merger Agreement at or prior to the closing of the Merger;
- we have provided a certificate of our chief executive officer and our acting principal financial officer certifying as to our compliance with the two preceding conditions;
- we have obtained all authorizations, qualifications and orders of all governmental entities required to consummate the Merger;
- we have maintained our cash reserves in accordance with the requirements of the Merger Agreement and we have provided a certificate of our acting principal financial officer certifying to this condition;

- we have delivered to the Buyer our audited financial statements for our fiscal year ended February 28, 2006 and those audited financial statements are not inconsistent in any material respect from our unaudited financial statements for our fiscal year ended February 28, 2006, which were attached to the Merger Agreement;
- there is no pending claim, suit, action, or proceeding brought or threatened by any governmental entity that:
- challenges or seeks to restrain, prohibit or otherwise interfere with the ownership or operation by the Buyer or any of the Buyer's subsidiaries of all or any portion of the business or assets of Manugistics or its subsidiaries, or to require the Buyer or any of its subsidiaries to dispose of or hold separate any portion of the business or assets of Manugistics or its subsidiaries or of the Buyer or its subsidiaries;
- seeks to impose limitations on the ability of the Buyer or any of its subsidiaries to exercise full rights of ownership of any shares of Manugistics stock or stock of the resulting corporation in the Merger, including full voting rights, or seeks to require the Buyer or any of its subsidiaries to divest them of any such stock of Manugistics or the resulting corporation;
- challenges or seeks to restrain or prohibit or otherwise prevent or interfere with the Merger; or
- seeks to obtain from the Buyer or Merger Sub any damages or other relief that are material or significant to Buyer and Merger Sub, taken as a whole.
- we have not suffered a material adverse effect since the date of the Merger Agreement; and
- the Buyer shall have obtained financing of at least $275 million pursuant to a term loan from a group of banks and a private placement from a private equity firm.

We and the Buyer have agreed to use our respective commercially reasonable efforts to take all actions that are necessary, proper or advisable to cause the closing to occur.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The Buyer and we can terminate the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, including:

- by mutual written consent of the Buyer and us;
- by either the Buyer or us if the Merger has not been completed by October 15, 2006 subject to certain conditions;
- by either the Buyer or us if any permanent injunction, restraint, prohibition, or other judgment, order, or decree issued by any court of competent jurisdiction or other governmental entity having the effect of preventing the closing of or prohibiting the Merger is in effect and has become final and nonappealable;
- by either the Buyer or us if our stockholders do not adopt the Merger Agreement at a duly held stockholders meeting subject to certain conditions;
- by the Buyer if (1) our board of directors withdraws its recommendation that our stockholders approve the Merger at the special meeting, (2) our board of directors approves a proposal for a merger or similar transaction with a third party (or fails to object to an unsolicited tender offer from a third party) or (3) a tender or exchange offer related to our stock has started and we do not send our stockholders a statement that our board of directors reject such offer, or (4) the Company violates the non-solicitation provision in the Merger Agreement;

- by the Buyer if (1) any of our representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement becomes inaccurate such as would give rise to the failure of a condition to closing and we have not cured such inaccuracy within 10 business days following written notice thereof from the Buyer, or (2) we fail to perform any covenant required to be performed by us in the Merger Agreement and such failure would give rise to the failure of a condition to closing;
- by us if (1) any the Buyer's representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement becomes inaccurate such as would give rise to the failure of a condition to closing and the Buyer has not cured such inaccuracy within 10 business days following written notice thereof from us, or (2) the Buyer fails to perform any covenant required to be performed by the Buyer in the Merger Agreement and such failure would give rise to the failure of a condition to closing; or
- by us if, prior to the special meeting of our stockholders, our board of directors determines that the Company should pursue a merger or similar transaction with a third party, the Company follows the required procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement and the Company pays to the Buyer the $9.75 million fee required under the Merger Agreement.

Termination Fee and Expenses

The Merger Agreement provides that, in general, regardless of whether the Merger is consummated, all fees and expenses incurred by the parties in connection with the Merger Agreement and the Merger will be borne by the party incurring such fees and expenses.

The Merger Agreement requires, however, that we pay the Buyer a termination fee of $9.75 million if:

- the Merger Agreement is terminated by the Buyer following (1) our board of directors' withdrawal or modifications of its recommendation that our stockholders approve the Merger at the special meeting in a manner adverse to the Buyer, (2) our board of directors' approval of a takeover proposal from a third party (or failure to object to an unsolicited tender offer from a third party) or (3) the Company's violation of the non-solicitation provision in the Merger Agreement;
- the Merger Agreement is terminated by us if, prior to the special meeting of our stockholders, our board of directors determines that the Company should pursue a merger or similar transaction with a third party and the Company follows the required procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement; or
- the Merger Agreement is terminated by either the Buyer or us following our stockholders' failure to adopt the Merger Agreement at a duly held stockholders meeting if, at or prior to the time of such failure, there shall have been publicly disclosed or announced a takeover proposal relating to the Company and, within twelve months following such termination, a takeover of the Company shall have occurred by the person who made the disclosed or announced takeover proposal or any of its affiliates (other than the Buyer or its affiliates); or
- the Merger Agreement is terminated by either the Buyer or us following our stockholders' failure to adopt the Merger Agreement at a duly held stockholders meeting if, at or prior to the time of such failure, there shall have been publicly disclosed or announced a takeover proposal relating to the Company and, within six months following such termination, a takeover of the Company shall have occurred by any person (other than the Buyer or its affiliates or the person who made the disclosed or announced takeover proposal or any of its affiliates).

The Merger Agreement further provides, that we are required to pay to the Buyer a reduced termination fee of $4.875 million if the Merger Agreement is terminated by either the Buyer or us following our stockholders' failure to adopt the Merger Agreement at a duly held stockholders meeting if, at or prior to the time of such failure, there shall have been publicly disclosed or announced a takeover proposal relating to the Company and, during the period beginning six months following such termination and ending twelve months after such termination, a takeover of the Company shall have occurred by any person (other than the Buyer of its affiliates or the person who made the disclosed or announced takeover proposal or any of its affiliates).

Indemnification and Insurance

The Buyer will cause the resulting corporation to assume all rights to indemnification, advancement of litigation expenses and limitations of personal liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time of the Merger (and rights for advancement of expenses) now existing in favor of the current or former directors or officers of Manugistics and its subsidiaries as provided in our certificate of incorporation or bylaws as in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement.

For six years after the effective time of the Merger, the Buyer will maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance for acts or omissions occurring prior to the effective time of the Merger covering those persons who were, as of the date of the Merger Agreement, covered by our directors' and officers' liability insurance policies, on terms with respect to coverage and amounts no less favorable than those in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement. The Buyer's obligation to provide this insurance coverage is subject to a cap of 180% of the current annual premium paid by us for our existing insurance coverage. If the Buyer cannot maintain the existing or equivalent insurance coverage without exceeding the 180% cap, the Buyer is required to maintain as much insurance coverage as can be obtained by paying annual premiums that in the aggregate do not exceed the 180% cap.

Material Adverse Effect

Several of our representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement are qualified by reference to whether the item in question is reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on us, and the Buyer's obligation to close the Merger is conditioned on no Material Adverse Effect occurring prior to the closing of the Merger. The Merger Agreement provides that an event, violation, inaccuracy, circumstance or other matter will be deemed to have a material adverse effect on us if such event, violation, inaccuracy, circumstance or other matter had or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on (1) the business, condition, capitalization, assets, liabilities, operations or financial performance of the Company and its subsidiaries taken as a whole, (2) the ability of the Company to consummate the Merger or to perform any of its obligations under the Merger Agreement, or (3) the Buyer's ability to vote, receive dividends with respect to or otherwise exercise ownership rights with respect to the stock of the resulting corporation. However, none of the following, alone or in combination (except as noted), will be deemed to constitute a material adverse effect on us:

- changes after the date of the Merger Agreement in the U.S. or global economy or capital markets in general that do not have a materially disproportionate effect on us and our subsidiaries, taken as a whole;
- changes after the date of the Merger Agreement that affect generally the software industry but that do not have a materially disproportionate effect on us and our subsidiaries, taken as a whole;
- changes after the date of the Merger Agreement in applicable law or in generally accepted accounting principles in the U.S.;
- any decline in customer orders, or any resignation of any employees, in each case to the extent attributable to the public announcement or pendency of the Merger;
- changes in the market price or trading volume of our common stock (in and of themselves);

- failure(s) by us to meet internal operating projections or forecasts, or published revenue or earnings predictions (in and of themselves);
- any act or threat of terrorism or war, any armed hostilities or terrorist activities, any threat or escalation of armed hostilities or terrorist activities or any governmental or other response or reaction to any of the foregoing; and
- any effects resulting from any legal proceeding against us by our stockholders challenging or seeking to restrain or prohibit the consummation of the Merger.

Financing

The Buyer estimates that the total amount of funds necessary to complete the proposed Merger and the related transactions is approximately $275 million, which includes approximately $211 million to be paid to our stockholders and holders of options to acquire our common stock the retirement of certain Company debt, with the remaining to be applied to pay related fees and expenses in connection with the proposed Merger, the financing arrangements and the related transactions.

The Buyer has delivered to us a commitment letter for $225 million to be made available to it, subject to certain terms and conditions, under a senior secured financing provided by a consortium of lenders and their affiliates, including Citicorp North America, Inc., Citigroup Global Markets Inc. and UBS Loan Finance LLC and a stock purchase agreement providing for a private equity financing of Buyer of $50 million from affiliates of Thoma Cressey Equity Partners, Inc., subject to certain terms and conditions. The Buyer has represented to us that it will have sufficient funds to consummate the Merger if it is able to obtain the funds pursuant to the commitment letter and stock purchase agreement. The Buyer's ability to receive the funds pursuant to the commitment letter and stock purchase agreement is conditioned, among other things, upon the closing of the Merger.

The Buyer has agreed pursuant to the Merger Agreement to use its commercially reasonable efforts to arrange the senior secured financing and private equity financing on the terms and conditions consistent with those described in the commitment letter from its proposed lenders and the preferred stock purchase agreement from the private equity firm and its affiliates.

Subject to applicable law, we have agreed pursuant to the Merger Agreement to provide all reasonable cooperation in connection with the arrangement of any financing to be completed in order to fund the Merger consideration.

The commitment under the letter from the Buyer's lenders expires on October 15, 2006.

The following is a description of the material terms of the voting agreement. The complete form of voting agreement is attached as Annex D to this proxy statement and is incorporated into this proxy statement by reference. All Manugistics stockholders are urged to read the voting agreement carefully and in its entirety.

- sell, assign, transfer (including by Merger, testamentary disposition, interspousal disposition pursuant to a domestic relations proceeding or otherwise by operation of law), pledge, encumber or otherwise dispose of any or all of the securities of Manugistics held by such stockholder;
- deposit any or all of the securities of Manugistics held by such stockholder into a voting trust or enter into a voting agreement or arrangement with respect to such securities or grant any proxy or power of attorney with respect to such securities that is inconsistent with the voting agreement; or

The voting agreement will terminate on the earlier to occur of the effective time of the Merger, the date on which the Merger Agreement is terminated, and the date on which the Merger Agreement is amended to reduce the total consideration to be paid to any stockholder party to the voting agreement on the consummation of the Merger or change the nature of the consideration in any way, other than an amendment that does not change the amount of the cash consideration to be received by such stockholder.

Extension, Waiver, and Amendment of the Merger Agreement

Manugistics and the Buyer may amend the Merger Agreement at any time. However, after stockholder approval adopting the Merger Agreement has been obtained, no amendment can be made that by law requires further approval by our stockholders or approval by the Buyer's stockholders without such stockholders' approval.

Either Manugistics or the Buyer may extend the time for performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party under the Merger Agreement, waive any inaccuracies in the other party's representations and warranties, and waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in the Merger Agreement. However, after stockholder approval has been obtained, no waiver may be made by the parties that by law requires further approval by our stockholders or the Buyer's stockholders without such stockholders' approval.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

This AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER (this Agreement), dated as of April 24, 2006, is entered into by and between JDA Software Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Parent), Stanley Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), and Manugistics Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company).

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement and in accordance with the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL), Parent, Merger Sub and the Company will enter into a business combination transaction pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company (the Merger); and

WHEREAS, each of the Boards of Directors of Parent, Merger Sub and the Company (i) has determined that the Merger is fair to, and in the best interests of, the corporation and its stockholders and (ii) has approved this Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, Parent, Merger Sub and the Company desire to make certain representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in connection with the Merger and also to prescribe various conditions to the Merger; and

WHEREAS, concurrently with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and as a condition and inducement to Parent's willingness to enter into this Agreement, the stockholders of the Company listed on Schedule A are executing and delivering one or more Voting Agreements, dated as of the date of this Agreement, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the Voting Agreements) pursuant to which such stockholders are, among other things, agreeing to vote in favor of the adoption of and otherwise to support this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby; and

WHEREAS, Parent shall obtain certain debt and equity financing, as more fully described in Section 3.2(f) below (together, the Financing), in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, Section 8.3 of this Agreement contains certain definitions and a list of references to defined terms.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual covenants and agreements herein contained, and intending to be legally bound hereby, Parent, Merger Sub and the Company hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1

THE MERGER

1.1 The Merger. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, and in accordance with the DGCL, Merger Sub shall be merged with and into the Company at the Effective Time. Following the Effective Time, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub shall cease, and the Company shall continue as the surviving corporation (sometimes referred to herein as the Surviving Corporation) and shall succeed to and assume all the rights and obligations of Merger Sub in accordance with the DGCL.

1.2 Closing. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, the closing of the Merger (the Closing) shall take place at the offices of DLA Piper Rudnick Gray Cary US LLP, located at 1221 South Mopac Expressway, Suite 400, Austin, Texas at noon, Central time, on a date to be specified by the Parties to this Agreement, which shall be no later than two Business Days after satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in ARTICLE 6 (other than delivery of items to be delivered at the Closing and other than satisfaction of those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing, it being understood that the occurrence of the Closing shall remain subject to the delivery of such items and the satisfaction or waiver of such conditions at the Closing) or such other date and time as mutually agreed to by the Parties (the Closing Date).

1.3 Effective Time. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, as soon as practicable after the Closing and on the Closing Date, the Parties shall file with the Delaware Secretary of State the certificate of merger (the Certificate of Merger) and such other documents as may be required by the DGCL in order for the Merger to become effective, duly prepared, executed and acknowledged by the Parties, as applicable. The Merger shall become effective upon the filing of the Certificate of Merger with the Delaware Secretary of State unless Parent and the Company agree to a subsequent date or time and specify such date and time in the Certificate of Merger (the time the Merger becomes effective being hereinafter referred to as the Effective Time).

1.4 Effects of the Merger. The Merger shall have the effects specified in the DGCL. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and subject thereto, at the Effective Time all the property, rights, privileges, powers and franchises of the Company and Merger Sub shall be vested in the Surviving Corporation, and all debts, liabilities and duties of the Company and Merger Sub shall become the debts, liabilities and duties of the Surviving Corporation.

1.5 Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws.

(a) At the Effective Time, the Certificate of Incorporation of the Company as the Surviving Corporation shall be amended and restated to read the same as the Certificate of Incorporation of Merger Sub as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, except that Article I thereof shall be amended to read in its entirety as follows: The name of the Corporation is Manugistics Group, Inc. As so amended and restated, the Certificate of Incorporation of the Company shall be the Certificate of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter changed or amended as provided therein or by applicable Law.

(b) At the Effective Time, the Bylaws of the Company shall be amended and restated to read the same as the Bylaws of Merger Sub as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time (except that all references to Merger Sub in the Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation shall be amended to refer to Manugistics Group, Inc.) until thereafter changed or amended as provided therein or by applicable Law.

1.6 Directors and Officers.

(a) The directors of Merger Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the initial directors of the Surviving Corporation, each to hold office in accordance with the Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation.

(b) The officers of Merger Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the initial officers of the Surviving Corporation, each to hold office in accordance with the Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation.

ARTICLE 2

EFFECT OF THE MERGER ON THE CAPITAL STOCK OF THE COMPANY AND MERGER SUB; EXCHANGE OF CERTIFICATES

2.1 Effect on Capital Stock. As of the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any further action on the part of the holder of any shares of capital stock of the Company, Parent or Merger Sub:

(a) Cancellation of Treasury Stock. Each share of common stock, par value $0.002 per share, of the Company (Company Common Stock) that is directly owned by the Company (as treasury stock), any wholly-owned Subsidiary of the Company, Parent or Merger Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time shall automatically be cancelled and shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

(b) Conversion of Merger Sub Common Stock. Each issued and outstanding share of common stock of Merger Sub shall be converted into one fully paid and non-assessable share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation.

(c) Conversion of Company Common Stock. Subject to Section 2.1(d), each issued and outstanding share of Company Common Stock (other than shares to be cancelled in accordance with Section 2.1(a)) shall be converted, as of the Effective Time, into the right to receive $2.50 per share, in cash (the Merger Consideration). The phrase Total Merger Consideration as used in this Agreement shall be equal to the product obtained by multiplying (i) 84,142,830 outstanding shares of Company Common Stock (which number shall be increased as a result of the exercise of Options outstanding as of the date of this Agreement, if any, between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time and the issuance of shares of Company Common Stock pursuant to the ESPP between the date of this Agreement and May 31, 2006), by (ii) the Merger Consideration. At the Effective Time, all such shares of Company Common Stock shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and shall cease to exist, and each holder of a certificate representing any such shares shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive such holder's Merger Consideration for each share of Company Common Stock evidenced by the certificate held by such holder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Merger Consideration shall be adjusted to reflect fully the effect of any stock split, reverse split, reclassification, reorganization, recapitalization or other like change with respect to Company Common Stock occurring (or having a record date) after the date of this Agreement and prior to the Effective Time.

(d) Appraisal Rights. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, shares of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time that are held by any holder who (i) has not voted such shares of Company Common Stock in favor of the Merger at the Stockholders Meeting, (ii) is entitled to demand and properly demands appraisal of such shares pursuant to Section 262 of the DGCL (Section 262) and complies in all respects with the provisions of Section 262 and (iii) has not effectively withdrawn or lost the right to demand relief as a dissenting stockholder under the DGCL as of the Effective Time (the Appraisal Shares), shall not be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration as provided in Section 2.1(c), but instead such holder of Appraisal Shares shall only be entitled to payment of the fair value of such shares in accordance with the provisions of Section 262. At the Effective Time, all Appraisal Shares shall automatically be cancelled and shall cease to exist or be outstanding, and each holder of Appraisal Shares shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except such rights as are granted under Section 262. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any such holder shall fail to perfect or otherwise shall waive, withdraw or lose the right to appraisal under Section 262 or a court of competent jurisdiction shall determine that such holder is not entitled to the relief provided by Section 262, then the rights of such holder under Section 262 shall cease to exist and such Appraisal Shares shall be deemed to have been converted at the Effective Time into, and shall have become, the right to receive such holder's Merger Consideration as provided in Section 2.1(c). The Company shall serve prompt notice to Parent of any demands for appraisal of any shares of Company Common Stock, and Parent shall have the right to participate in and, subject to applicable Law, direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands. The Company shall not, without the prior written consent of Parent, make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any such demands, or agree to do any of the foregoing.

(e) Options, Purchase Rights and Warrants.

(i) The holder of each Option outstanding as of the date of this Agreement that has not been exercised prior to the Effective Time shall be entitled to receive an amount of cash equal to the product of the following: (i) the excess, if any, of (A) the per share Merger Consideration over (B) the exercise price per share of the Company Common Stock subject to such Option, multiplied by (ii) the number of shares of Company Common Stock issuable pursuant to the portion of such Option that is vested and unexercised immediately prior to the Effective Time. No amount greater than the amount provided under the first sentence of this subparagraph may be paid to any option holder in respect of any Option. The Company shall take all necessary actions including, without limitation, issuing or obtaining all notices or consents that the Company may, in its sole discretion consider necessary or desirable to effect the provisions of this Section 2.1(e)(i). The Surviving Corporation shall abide by the terms of the warrants to acquire Company Common Stock outstanding as of the date of this Agreement and listed on Schedule 2.1(e)(i).

(ii) All amounts payable pursuant to Section 2.1(e)(i) shall be subject to any required withholding of Taxes and shall be paid at or as soon as reasonably practicable following the Effective Time, without interest.

(iii) Outstanding rights to purchase shares of Company Common Stock under the ESPP shall terminate, all in accordance with the terms of the ESPP and Section 4.3.

2.2 Exchange of Certificates.

(a) Paying Agent. Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall designate a bank or trust company reasonably satisfactory to the Company to act as paying agent for payment of the Merger Consideration (the Paying Agent). At the Effective Time, Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, deposit with the Paying Agent cash in the amount of the Total Merger Consideration. Subject to Section 2.2(d), pending distribution pursuant to Section 2.2(b) of the cash deposited with the Paying Agent, such cash shall be held in trust for the benefit of the holders of shares of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding prior to the Effective Time that are to be cancelled in the Merger and such cash shall not be used for any other purposes. Any cash deposited with the Paying Agent which has not been distributed pursuant to Section 2.2(b) on or prior to the date which is one year after the Effective Time shall be turned over to Parent, subject to applicable law; provided, however, that any and all interest earned at any time on the cash deposited with the Paying Agent shall inure to the benefit of, and belong to, Parent.

(b) Exchange Procedure. As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall cause the Paying Agent to mail to each holder of record of a certificate or certificates which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding shares of Company Common Stock whose shares were converted into the right to receive such holder's ratable portion of the Total Merger Consideration (the Certificates), (i) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates held by such Person shall pass, only upon the proper delivery of the Certificates to the Paying Agent and shall be in a form and have such other provisions as Parent may reasonably specify) and (ii) instructions as specified by the Paying Agent or Parent for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for the Merger Consideration. Upon surrender of a Certificate for cancellation to the Paying Agent or to such other agent or agents as may be appointed by Parent, together with such letter of transmittal, duly completed and executed, and such other instructions, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor, and the Paying Agent shall promptly distribute to such holder, the amount of cash into which the shares of Company Common Stock theretofore represented by such Certificate shall have been converted pursuant to Section 2.1(c), and the Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled. In the event of a transfer of ownership of shares of Company Common Stock that is not registered in the transfer records of the Company, payment may be made to a Person other than the Person in whose name the Certificate so surrendered is registered, if such Certificate shall be properly endorsed or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and the Person requesting such payment shall pay any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the payment to a Person other than the registered holder of such Certificate or establish to the satisfaction of Parent that such tax has been paid or is not applicable. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 2.2(b), each Certificate shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender, with respect to each share of Company the Merger Consideration, without interest, into which the shares of Company Common Stock theretofore represented by such Certificate shall have been converted pursuant to Section 2.1(c). No interest will be paid or will accrue on the cash payable upon the surrender of any Certificate.

(c) No Further Ownership Rights in Company Common Stock. All cash paid upon the surrender of Certificates in accordance with the terms of this ARTICLE 2 shall be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the shares of Company Common Stock theretofore represented by such Certificates. At the close of business on the day on which the Effective Time occurs, the stock transfer books of the Company shall be closed, and there shall be no further registration of transfers on the stock transfer books of the Surviving Corporation of the shares of Company Common Stock that were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates are presented to the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent for any reason, they shall be cancelled and exchanged as provided in this ARTICLE 2.

(d) No Liability. None of Parent, Merger Sub, the Company or the Paying Agent shall be liable to any Person in respect of any cash delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law. If any Certificate shall not have been surrendered prior to seven years after the Effective Time (or immediately prior to such earlier date on which any Merger Consideration would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any Governmental Entity), the Merger Consideration shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, become the property of the Surviving Corporation, free and clear of all claims or interest of any Person previously entitled thereto.

(e) Lost Certificates. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Parent, the posting by such Person of a bond in such reasonable amount as Parent may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Paying Agent will pay to the holder of such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate, such holder's Merger Consideration with respect to each share of Company Common Stock formerly represented by such Certificate.

(f) Withholding Rights. Parent, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold any applicable taxes from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of shares of Company Common Stock. To the extent that amounts are so deducted and withheld and paid over to the appropriate taxing authority by Parent, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent, such deducted and withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the stockholder in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by Parent, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

3.1 Representations and Warranties of the Company. The Company represents and warrants to Parent and Merger Sub that, except as expressly set forth in the written disclosure schedule prepared by the Company which is dated as of the date of this Agreement and arranged in sections corresponding to the numbered and lettered sections contained in this ARTICLE 3 and was previously delivered to Parent in connection herewith (the Disclosure Schedule), as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date, except where another date is specified:

(a) Organization, Standing and Corporate Power. Each of the Company and its Subsidiaries is a corporation or other legal entity duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the jurisdiction in which it is organized and has the requisite corporate or other power, as the case may be, and authority necessary to enable it to own, lease or otherwise hold its properties and assets and to conduct its businesses as currently conducted. Each of the Company and its Subsidiaries is duly qualified or licensed to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the nature of its business or the ownership or leasing of its properties or operations makes such qualification or licensing necessary, other than (i) in any jurisdiction that does not recognize the concept of good standing, and (ii) in such jurisdictions where the failure to be so qualified or licensed or to be in good standing could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company. The Company has delivered or Made Available to Parent, prior to the execution of this Agreement, complete and correct copies of its Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, in each case as amended to the date of this Agreement. Except as set forth in Section 3.1(a) of the Disclosure Schedule, the Company has Made Available to Parent true and complete copies of the minute books of the Company as of the date of this Agreement (except for minutes and consents of the Company's Board of Directors or any committee thereof relating to the evaluation of the transactions contemplated hereby and the consideration of strategic alternatives relating to the Company).

(b) Subsidiaries; Equity Interests. Section 3.1(b) of the Disclosure Schedule sets forth (i) a list of the Subsidiaries of the Company, (ii) the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of, or other equity or voting interests in, each such Subsidiary and (iii) the registered and beneficial holders of such shares or other equity or voting interests in each such Subsidiary. All the outstanding shares of capital stock of, or other equity or voting interests in, each such Subsidiary have been validly issued and are fully paid and nonassessable and are owned by the Company or a direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (other than directors or nominees qualifying shares in the case of the Company's foreign Subsidiaries), free and clear of all mortgages, pledges, assessments, claims, liens, charges, security interests and other encumbrances of any kind or nature whatsoever (collectively, Liens). Except for the capital stock of, or other equity or voting interests in, the Subsidiaries listed in Section 3.1(b) of the Disclosure Schedule, the Company does not own, directly or indirectly, any capital stock of, or other equity or voting interests in, any Person. The Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws (or other organizational documents) of each Subsidiary of the Company have been delivered or Made Available to Parent.

(c) Capital Structure.

(i) The authorized capital stock of the Company consists of 300,000,000 shares of Company Common Stock and 4,620,253 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share (Company Preferred Stock). The Company has delivered or Made Available to Parent a complete and correct copy of all agreements between the Company and Lehman Brothers pursuant to which such firm could be entitled to any payment relating to the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby.

(u) Rights Agreement. The Rights Agreement has been amended so that the entering into of this Agreement and the Voting Agreements, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, do not and will not, (A) result in any Person being deemed to have become an Acquiring Person (as defined in the Rights Agreement), (B) result in the ability of any Person to exercise any Rights (as defined in the Rights Agreement) under the Rights Agreement, (C) enable or require the Rights to separate from the Company Common Stock to which they are attached or to be triggered or become exercisable or (D) enable the Company to exchange any Rights for shares of the Company's capital stock, pursuant to the Rights Agreement. No Distribution Date, Stock Acquisition Date, Triggering Event (as such terms are defined in the Rights Agreement) or similar event has occurred or will occur by reason of (x) the adoption, approval, execution or delivery of this Agreement and the Voting Agreements, (y) the public announcement of such adoption, approval, execution or delivery or (z) the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby.

3.2 Representations and Warranties of Parent and Merger Sub. Parent and Merger Sub represent and warrant to the Company as follows as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date, except where another date is specified:

Assuming the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the Company set forth in Section 3.1(d)(i), the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Parent and Merger Sub, and the consummation by Parent and Merger Sub of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of Parent and Merger Sub (except for the approval by the sole stockholder of Merger Sub, which approval Parent shall cause to be obtained promptly following the execution and delivery of this Agreement) and no other corporate proceedings on the part of Parent or Merger Sub are necessary to approve this Agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Parent and Merger Sub and each constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of Parent and Merger Sub, as applicable, enforceable against Parent and Merger Sub, as applicable, in accordance with its terms subject to (A) applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer and conveyance, moratorium, reorganization, receivership and similar Laws relating to or affecting the enforcement of the rights and remedies of creditors generally and (B) principles of equity (regardless of whether considered and applied in a proceeding in equity or at law).

(ii) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by Parent and Merger Sub and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and compliance by Parent and Merger Sub with the provisions of this Agreement, do not and will not conflict with, or result in any violation or breach of, or default (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both) under, or give rise to a right of, or result in, termination, cancellation or acceleration of any obligation or to a loss of a material benefit under, or result in the creation of any Lien in or upon any of the properties or assets of Parent or Merger Sub under, (A) any provision of the Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws of the Parent or the Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws of Merger Sub, (B) subject to the governmental filings and other matters referred to in the following paragraph, any Law or Order, in each case, applicable to Parent or Merger Sub or their respective properties or assets; other than, in the case of clause (B), any such conflicts, violations, breaches, defaults, rights, results, losses, Liens or entitlements that could reasonably be expected to prevent or materially impede or delay the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(iii) No consent, approval, Order or authorization of, or registration, declaration or filing with, or notice to, any Governmental Entity is required by or with respect to Parent or Merger Sub in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Parent and Merger Sub or the consummation by Parent and Merger Sub of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the compliance with the provisions by this Agreement, except for (A) the filing of a premerger notification and report form by Parent and Merger Sub under the HSR Act, and any applicable filings and approvals under other Antitrust Laws, (B) the filing of the Certificate of Merger with the Delaware Secretary of State and appropriate documents with the relevant authorities of other states in which the Company is qualified to do business and (C) such other consents, approvals, Orders, authorizations, registrations, declarations, filings or notices the failure of which to be obtained or made could not reasonably be expected to prevent or materially impede or delay the consummation of the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(c) Litigation. There is no suit, claim, action, investigation or proceeding pending or, to the Knowledge of Parent or Merger Sub, threatened against or affecting Parent or Merger Sub or any of their respective assets or properties before or by any Governmental Entity that, individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to prevent or materially impede or delay the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, nor is there any Order of any Governmental Entity or arbitrator outstanding against Parent or Merger Sub that, individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to prevent or materially impede or delay the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(d) Brokers. No broker, investment banker, financial advisor or other Person has been retained by, or is authorized to act on behalf of, Parent or any of its Subsidiaries and is entitled to any broker's, finder's, financial advisor's or other similar fee or commission in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (other than Citigroup Inc., whose fees shall be paid by Parent).

(e) Interim Operations of Merger Sub. Merger Sub has not engaged in any business activities and has conducted its operations only as contemplated hereby. Merger Sub has not incurred, directly or indirectly, any material liabilities or obligations except those in connection with its organization or with the negotiation and execution of this Agreement and the performance of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(f) Financing and Financing Commitments. On or prior to the date of this Agreement, Parent has delivered to the Company a true and complete copy of (i) the commitment letter dated as of the date of this Agreement and issued by Citicorp North America, Inc., Citigroup Global Markets, Inc., UBS Loan Finance LLC and UBS Securities (the Commitment Letter) to provide Parent, in accordance with the terms thereof, with proceeds of not less than $225,000,000, and (ii) the stock purchase agreement, dated the date hereof, by and between Parent and Funds Affiliated with Thoma Cressey Equity Partners, Inc. (the Stock Purchase Agreement) to provide Parent, in accordance with the terms thereof, with proceeds not less than $50,000,000, in each case, in connection with the Merger and the transactions contemplated hereby. The Commitment Letter and the Stock Purchase Agreement are in full force and effect. As of the Closing, assuming satisfaction of the condition set forth in Section 6.2(h), Parent will have available to it sufficient funds to consummate the Merger (including payment in full for all shares of Company Common Stock outstanding at the Effective Time) and the other transactions contemplated hereby (including, but not limited to, those contemplated by Section 5.8 hereof).

(g) Full Disclosure. None of the information supplied or to be supplied by Parent or Merger Sub for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the Proxy Statement will, at the date it is first mailed to the Company's stockholders or at the time of the Stockholders Meeting, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

4.2 No Solicitation by the Company.

- (a) No Solicitation or Negotiation. The Company shall not, nor shall it authorize or permit any of its Subsidiaries or any of its or their directors, officers, employees, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants or other advisors or representatives (such directors, officers, employees, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants, other advisors and representatives, collectively, Representatives) to directly or indirectly:
 - (i) solicit, initiate, encourage or take any other action to facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, any Takeover Proposal, including amending or granting any waiver or release under any standstill or similar agreement with respect to any Company Common Stock; or
 - (ii) enter into, continue or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, furnish to any Person any information with respect to, assist or participate in any effort or attempt by any Person with respect to, or otherwise cooperate in any way with, any Takeover Proposal.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement at the Stockholders Meeting (the Specified Time), the Company may, to the extent required by the fiduciary obligations of its Board of Directors, as determined in good faith by the Company's Board of Directors after consultation with outside counsel, in response to a bona fide written Takeover Proposal made or received after the date of this Agreement that the Company's Board of Directors determines in good faith after consultation with outside counsel and a nationally recognized independent financial advisor is reasonably likely to lead to a Superior Proposal, in each case that did not result from a material breach by the Company of this Section 4.2, and subject to compliance with Section 4.2(c),

(X) furnish information with respect to the Company and its Subsidiaries to the Person making such Takeover Proposal (and its representatives) pursuant to a customary confidentiality agreement not less restrictive of the other party than the Confidentiality Agreement, provided that copies of all such information are provided to Parent on a prior or substantially concurrent basis; and

(Y) participate in discussions or negotiations with the Person making such Takeover Proposal (and its representatives) regarding such Takeover Proposal.

Without limiting the foregoing, it is agreed that any material violation of the restrictions set forth in this Section 4.2(a) by any Representative of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, whether or not such Person is purporting to act on behalf of the Company or otherwise, shall be deemed to be a breach of this Section 4.2(a) by the Company. The term Takeover Proposal means any inquiry, proposal or offer from any Person relating to, or that is reasonably likely to lead to, any direct or indirect acquisition, in one transaction or a series of transactions, including any merger, consolidation, tender offer, exchange offer, stock acquisition, asset acquisition, binding share exchange, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution, joint venture or similar transaction, of (i) all or any part of the material assets, properties or business of the Company or its Subsidiaries or (ii) all or any part of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock or capital stock of, or other equity or voting interests in, the Company or any of its Subsidiaries. The term Superior Proposal means any unsolicited, bona fide written proposal made by a third party to acquire substantially all the equity securities or assets of the Company, pursuant to a tender or exchange offer, a merger, a consolidation or a sale of its assets, on terms which the Board of Directors of the Company determines in its good faith judgment to be materially more favorable from a financial point of view to the holders of Company Common Stock than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement following consultation with a nationally recognized independent financial advisor, taking into account all the terms and conditions of such proposal and this Agreement (including any proposal by Parent to amend the terms of this Agreement).

(b) No Change in Recommendation or Alternative Acquisition Agreement. Neither the Company Board nor any committee thereof shall:

(i) except as set forth in this Section 4.2, withdraw or modify, or propose to withdraw or modify, in a manner adverse to Parent or Merger Sub, the approval or recommendation by the Company's Board of Directors or any such committee of this Agreement or the Merger;

(ii) cause or permit the Company to enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement, merger agreement or similar agreement (an Alternative Acquisition Agreement) constituting or relating to any Takeover Proposal (other than a confidentiality agreement referred to in Section 4.2(a) entered into in the circumstances referred to in Section 4.2(a) and Section 4.2(c)); or

(iii) adopt, approve or recommend, or propose to adopt, approve or recommend, any Takeover Proposal.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company's Board of Directors may, in response to a Superior Proposal that did not result from a material breach by the Company of this Section 4.2, take any action specified in Section 4.2(b)(i) and Section 4.2(b)(iii) above, if its Board of Directors determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that its fiduciary obligations require it to do so, but only at a time that is prior to the Specified Time and is after the second business day following Parent's receipt of written notice advising Parent that the Company's Board of Directors desires to withdraw or modify the recommendation due to the existence of a Superior Proposal (or any material change in the terms of such Superior Proposal) (which notification shall contain a copy of the Superior Proposal) or to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(h), and identifying the Person making such Superior Proposal. Such two business day period shall be required for each and every Superior Proposal or modification thereto, as applicable, and only after complying in all material respects with the Company's obligations under Section 4.2(c) (provided however, the Company shall be required to deliver only one such notice to Parent hereunder in the event that the Company's notice discloses the Company's intent to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(h) hereof). Nothing in this Section 4.2 shall be deemed to (A) permit the Company to take any action described in clauses (ii) of the first sentence of this Section 4.2(b), or (B) affect any obligation of the Company under this Agreement or (C) except upon a termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(h), limit the Company's obligation to call, give notice of, convene and hold the Stockholders Meeting, regardless of whether the Company's Board of Directors has withdrawn or modified its recommendation of this Agreement and the Merger.

(c) Notices to Parent; Additional Negotiations. In addition to the obligations of the Company set forth in Section 4.2(a) and Section 4.2(b), the Company shall promptly, but in no event later than 24 hours, advise Parent orally or in writing of any written request for non-public information concerning the Company that the Company reasonably believes could lead to or contemplates a Takeover Proposal or of any Takeover Proposal, including any inquiry for nonpublic information relating to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, the terms and conditions of such request, Takeover Proposal or inquiry (including any subsequent material amendment or modification to such terms and conditions) and the identity of the Person making any such request, Takeover Proposal or inquiry. The Company shall not provide any information to or participate in discussions or negotiations with the Person or entity making any Superior Proposal until after the Company has first notified Parent of such Takeover Proposal as required by the preceding sentence. The Company shall (i) promptly notify Parent if it has begun to furnish information to, or to participate in discussions or negotiations with, a Person making any such Takeover Proposal or inquiry and shall immediately advise Parent orally, with written confirmation to follow promptly (and in any event within 24 hours), of any material change in the terms of any such Takeover Proposal or inquiry, (ii) provide to Parent as soon as practicable after receipt or delivery thereof copies of all correspondence and other written material sent or provided to the Company from any third party in connection with any Takeover Proposal, and (iii) if Parent shall make a counterproposal (including without limitation following delivery of a written notice to Parent pursuant to Section 4.2(b) or this Section 4.2(c)), consider and cause its financial and legal advisors to consider in good faith the terms of such counterproposal.

(d) Cessation of Ongoing Discussions. The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and its and their Representatives to, cease immediately all discussions and negotiations regarding any proposal that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, a Takeover Proposal. The Company shall immediately cease existing discussions or negotiations with any Persons conducted heretofore with respect to a Takeover Proposal.

(e) Certain Permitted Disclosure. Nothing in this Section 4.2 or elsewhere in this Agreement shall prevent the Company from complying with Rule 14d-9 and Rule 14e-2 under the Exchange Act.

4.3 ESPP. All outstanding purchase rights under the ESPP shall terminate, as of June 1, 2006, in accordance with the terms of the ESPP, and participants in the ESPP shall receive a refund of unused contributions, if any, as soon as reasonably practicable following the Closing. The Company shall cause the ESPP to terminate with such purchase, and no further purchase rights shall be granted or exercised under the ESPP.

4.4 Rights Agreement. Following the date of this Agreement, the Company shall not amend, terminate, redeem or grant any waiver under the Rights Agreement.

4.5 Employee Benefit Matters. Unless Parent consents otherwise in writing, the Company shall take all action necessary to terminate, or cause to be terminated, effective as of the date immediately prior to the Closing Date, any Benefit Plan that is a 401(k) plan or other defined contribution retirement plan. Parent shall receive evidence that the Board of Directors of the Company has adopted resolutions to terminate the 401(k) plan or such other defined contribution retirement plan (the form and substance of which resolutions shall be subject to review and approval of Parent), effective as of the date immediately prior to the Closing Date.

4.6 Confidentiality. The parties acknowledge that Parent and the Company (on behalf of the Company and all of its Subsidiaries) have previously executed the Confidentiality Agreement, which Confidentiality Agreement shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with its terms, except as expressly modified herein.

ARTICLE 5

ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

5.1 Preparation of the Proxy Statement; Stockholders Meeting; Other Board Actions.

(a) As soon as reasonably practicable following the date of this Agreement, the Company shall prepare and file with the SEC the Proxy Statement. The Company shall promptly notify Parent of any comments from the SEC or its staff or any request from the SEC or its staff for amendments or supplements to the Proxy Statement and shall promptly provide to Parent copies of all correspondence between it and its representatives, on the one hand, and the SEC and its staff, on the other hand. Each of the Company and Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to respond as promptly as practicable to any comments of the SEC with respect to the Proxy Statement and to cause the Proxy Statement to be mailed to the Company's stockholders as promptly as practicable after all such SEC comments have been resolved. Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to filing or mailing the Proxy Statement (or any amendment or supplement thereto) or responding to any comments of the SEC with respect thereto, the Company (i) shall provide Parent with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on such document or response and (ii) shall not file or mail such document or respond to the SEC prior to receiving Parent's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned.

(b) The Company shall, as promptly as reasonably practicable following the date of receipt of notification of clearance of the Proxy Statement, or notification of no review of the Proxy Statement, by the SEC, establish a record date for, duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders (the Stockholders Meeting) for the purpose of obtaining Stockholder Approval, regardless of whether the Board of Directors of the Company determines at any time that this Agreement or the Merger is no longer advisable or recommends that the stockholders of the Company reject this Agreement or the Merger, in all cases subject to its rights and obligations under Section 4.2, Section 5.1(e) and Section 7.1. The Company shall cause the Stockholders Meeting to be held as promptly as practicable following the date of receipt of notification of clearance of the Proxy Statement, or notification of no review of the Proxy Statement, by the SEC. The Company shall, through its Board of Directors, recommend to its stockholders that they adopt and approve this Agreement and the Merger, and shall include such recommendation in the Proxy Statement, in each case subject to its rights and obligations under Section 4.2 and Section 5.1(e) (such recommendation, the Company Board Recommendation).

(c) The Company agrees that none of the information included or incorporated by reference in the Proxy Statement will (except to the extent revised or superseded by amendments or supplements contemplated hereby), at the date the Proxy Statement is filed with the SEC or mailed to the Company's stockholders or at the time of the Stockholders Meeting, or at the time of any amendment or supplement thereof, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading. The Proxy Statement will comply as to form in all material respects with the requirements of the Exchange Act.

(d) The Board of Directors of the Company, or a committee thereof consisting of non-employee directors (as such term is defined for purposes of Rule 16b-3(d) under the Exchange Act), shall adopt a resolution in advance of the Effective Time authorizing the disposition by the Company Insiders of their shares of Company Common Stock for cash and the disposition of their outstanding Options, in each case pursuant to the transactions contemplated hereby, for purposes of qualifying those dispositions for the exemption provided pursuant to Rule 16b-3(e) under the Exchange Act. For purposes of this Agreement, Company Insiders means those officers and directors of the Company who are subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 5.1(b) or any other provision of this Agreement, at any time prior to the adoption of this Agreement by the Required Stockholder Vote, the Company Board Recommendation may be withdrawn or modified in a manner adverse to Parent if (i) a Takeover Proposal is made to the Company and is not withdrawn; (ii) the Company provides Parent with at least two Business Days prior notice of any meeting of the Company Board at which the Board of Directors of the Company will consider and determine whether such Takeover Proposal is a Superior Proposal; (iii) the Board of Directors of the Company determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisor, that such Takeover Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal; and (iv) the Board of Directors determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that in light of such Superior Proposal, failing to withdraw or modify the Company Board Recommendation is required in order for the Company's board of directors to comply with its fiduciary obligations to the Company's stockholders under applicable law; and (v) the Company shall not have violated in any material respect any of the restrictions set forth in Section 4.2.

5.2 Access to Information; Confidentiality; Cooperation with Financing.

(a) During the Interim Period, the Company shall provide, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to provide, to Parent and to the Representatives of Parent, reasonable access during normal business hours without undue disruption of their respective businesses, to all their respective properties, books, contracts, commitments, personnel and records and, during such period, the Company shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, furnish promptly to Parent (i) a copy of each report, schedule, form, statement and other document filed by it or received by it during such period pursuant to the requirements of federal or state securities Laws, (ii) to the extent available, for the period beginning after the date of this Agreement and ending at the Effective Time, as soon as practicable after the end of each month (if available), a copy of the monthly consolidated financial statements of the Company, including statement of financial condition, result of operations, and statements of cash flow, and (iii) all other information concerning its business, properties and personnel as Parent may reasonably request. Parent will hold, and will cause its Representatives to hold, any nonpublic information in accordance with the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement dated September 7, 2005 (the Confidentiality Agreement). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the Confidentiality Agreement, each of the Parties hereto (and each employee, representative, or other agent of such parties) may disclose to any Person, without limitation of any kind, the Tax treatment and Tax structure of the Merger and all materials (including opinions or other Tax analyses) that are provided to such party relating to such Tax treatment and Tax structure.

(b) During the Interim Period, the Company shall provide, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and its and their Representatives to provide, to Parent and to the Representatives of Parent, all cooperation that may be reasonably requested by Parent in connection with Parent's financing of the consideration payable pursuant to Section 2.1(c).

5.3 Regulatory Approvals; Further Actions.

(a) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, each of the Parties agrees to use all commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with the other Parties in doing, all things that are necessary or advisable to consummate and make effective the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including (i) the taking of all commercially reasonable acts necessary to cause the conditions in ARTICLE 6 to be satisfied, (ii) the obtaining of all necessary actions or nonactions, waivers, consents and approvals from Governmental Entities and the making of all necessary registrations, filings and notices and the taking of all reasonable steps as may be necessary to obtain an approval or waiver from, or to avoid an action or proceeding by, any Governmental Entity, (iii) the obtaining of all necessary consents, approvals or waivers from third parties and (iv) the execution and delivery of any additional instruments necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by, and to fully carry out the purposes of, this Agreement. Nothing set forth in this Section 5.3 will limit or affect actions permitted to be taken pursuant to Section 4.2.

(b) Without limiting the generality of Section 5.3(a), the Company and Parent shall, promptly after the date of this Agreement, prepare and file the notifications required under the HSR Act and any other Antitrust Laws in connection with the Merger. The Company and Parent will request early termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act. The Company and Parent shall respond as promptly as practicable to any inquiries or requests received from any Governmental Entity in connection with antitrust or related matters. Each of the Company and Parent shall (1) give the other party prompt notice of the commencement or threat of commencement of any suit, claim, action, investigation or proceeding by or before any Governmental Entity with respect to the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (2) keep the other party informed as to the status of any such suit, claim, action, investigation, proceeding or threat, (3) promptly inform the other party of any material communication concerning Antitrust Laws to or from any Governmental Entity regarding the Merger and (4) furnish to the other party such information and assistance as the other may reasonably request in connection with any filing or other act undertaken in compliance with the HSR Act and any other Antitrust Laws. Except as may be prohibited by any Governmental Entity, the Company and Parent will consult and cooperate with one another, and will consider in good faith the views of one another, in connection with any analysis, appearance, presentation, memorandum, brief, argument, opinion or proposal made or submitted in connection with any suit, claim, action, investigation or proceeding under or relating to the HSR Act or any other Antitrust Law. Subject to the foregoing, Parent shall be principally responsible for and in control of the process of dealing with any Governmental Entity concerning the effect of applicable Antitrust Laws on the transaction contemplated by this Agreement; provided, however, that Parent agrees, to the extent permitted by applicable Law and as practicable, to provide prior notice to, and consult with, the Company with respect to any actions contemplated by Parent in connection with this Section 5.3. In addition, except as may be prohibited by any Governmental Entity or by any Law, in connection with any Legal Proceeding under or relating to the HSR Act or any other foreign, federal or state antitrust or fair trade Law or any other similar Legal Proceeding, each of the Company and Parent will permit authorized Representatives of the other party to be present at each meeting or conference relating to any such Legal Proceeding and to have access to and be consulted in connection with any document, opinion or proposal made or submitted to any Governmental Entity in connection with any such Legal Proceeding.

5.4 Takeover Statutes. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in no event shall the approval of the Merger and this Agreement by the Board of Directors of the Company under Section 203 of the DGCL be withdrawn, revoked or modified by the Board of Directors of the Company. If any Takeover Statute is or may become applicable to the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, the Company and the Company's Board of Directors shall promptly grant such approvals and take such lawful actions as are necessary so that such transactions may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated by this Agreement or the Merger, as the case may be, and otherwise take such lawful actions to eliminate or minimize the effects of such statute, and any regulations promulgated thereunder, on such transactions.

5.5 Public Announcements. Unless otherwise required by applicable Law, Parent and Merger Sub, on the one hand, and the Company, on the other hand, shall, to the extent reasonably practicable, consult with each other before issuing, and give each other a reasonable opportunity to review and comment upon, any press release or other public statements with respect to this Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby. The Parties agree that the initial press release to be issued with respect to the entering into of this Agreement shall be in a form mutually agreeable to the Parties.

5.6 Directors and Officers Insurance and Indemnification.

(a) All rights to indemnification, advancement of litigation expenses and limitation of personal liability existing in favor of the directors, officers and employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries under the provisions existing on the date of this Agreement in the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws shall, with respect to any matter existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (including the transactions contemplated by this Agreement), survive the Effective Time, and, as of the Effective Time, Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall assume all obligations of the Company in respect thereof as to any claim or claims asserted prior to or within a six-year period immediately after the Effective Time.

(b) For a period of six years after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall cause to be maintained in effect the current policies of directors and officers and fiduciary liability insurance maintained by the Company (provided that the Surviving Corporation may substitute therefor policies of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are no less advantageous to former officers and directors of the Company) only with respect to claims arising from facts or events which occurred at or before the Effective Time; provided, however, that in no event shall the Surviving Corporation be required to expend pursuant to this Section 5.6(b) more than an aggregate amount equal to 180% of the current aggregate annual premiums paid by the Company for such insurance, and if the amount of the aggregate annual premiums necessary to maintain or procure such insurance coverage exceeds such maximum amount, the Surviving Corporation during such six-year period shall maintain or procure as much coverage as possible for aggregate annual premiums not to exceed such maximum amount.

(c) The provisions of this Section 5.6 are intended to be for the benefit of, and will be enforceable by, each indemnified party, his or her heirs and his or her representatives, and are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights to indemnification or contribution that any such Person may have by contract or otherwise.

5.7 Company Stock Plans. The administrator(s) of the Company Stock Plans shall take such action as is necessary or advisable (in the administrator(s) sole discretion) such that the holders of Options immediately prior to the Effective Time shall automatically, without any required action of the Company or any Subsidiary or any required consent or approval of any Option holder, become fully vested and entitled, upon exercise of such Option in accordance with its terms, to receive the Merger Consideration, if any.

5.8 Debt Tender Offer.

(a) As soon as reasonably practicable after the necessary Offer Documents are prepared (as contemplated in Section 5.8(b) below) and subject to the compliance by Parent of its obligation in the first sentence of Section 5.8(b) below, the Company shall launch a cash tender offer (the Debt Tender Offer) at least twenty days prior to the Closing Date for all of the outstanding 5% Convertible Subordinated

Notes due November 1, 2007 of the Company (the Notes), on the terms and conditions acceptable to Parent and consistent with the terms of the Financing, and Parent and Merger Sub shall assist the Company in connection therewith.

(b) Promptly after the date of this Agreement, Parent shall prepare all necessary and appropriate documentation in connection with the Debt Tender Offer, including the offer to purchase, letters of transmittal and other related documents (collectively, the Offer Documents), and such Offer Documents shall comply as to form and substance with applicable legal requirements, including but not limited to, the requirements under the Exchange Act. Parent and the Company shall cooperate with each other in the preparation of the Offer Documents such that the Debt Tender Offer can commence at least twenty days prior to the Closing Date. All mailings to the holders of the Notes in connection with the Debt Tender Offer shall be subject to the prior review and comment by each of the Company and Parent and shall be reasonably acceptable to each of them.

(c) The closing of the Debt Tender Offer (and any purchase of the Tendered Notes) shall be conditioned on the occurrence of the Closing. Upon the closing of the Debt Tender Offer, at Closing and in accordance with the terms of the Debt Tender Offer, Parent may cause the Surviving Corporation to accept for purchase the Notes tendered in the Debt Tender Offer (the Tendered Notes) and purchase all of the Tendered Notes, including payment of any applicable premium, and all related fees and expenses (the Tender Amount).

(d) If requested by Parent, the Company shall enter into one or more reasonable dealer manager agreements with such Persons as Parent shall reasonably request. Parent shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of any dealer manager, information agent, depository or other agent retained in connection with the Debt Tender Offer.

5.9 Financing. Parent shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to consummate, concurrently with the Closing, the Financing pursuant to and consistent with the Commitment Letter and the Stock Purchase Agreement.

5.10 Employee Matters. Each employee of the Company or its Subsidiaries who continues employment with Parent, the Surviving Corporation or any Subsidiary of Parent after the Effective Time (a Continuing Employee) shall be eligible to continue to participate in the Surviving Corporation's health, vacation and other non-equity based employee benefit plans; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 5.10 or elsewhere in this Agreement shall limit the right of Parent or the Surviving Corporation to amend or terminate any such health, vacation or other employee benefit plan at any time. For purposes of eligibility to participate and vesting in all benefits provided by Parent to such employees, the employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries will be credited with their years of service with the Company and its Subsidiaries and prior employers to the extent service with Parent and its Subsidiaries and prior employers is taken into account under the plans of Parent and its Subsidiaries. The eligibility of any employee of the Company and its Subsidiaries to participate in any welfare benefit plan or program of Parent shall not be subject to any exclusions for any pre-existing conditions if such individual has met the participation requirements of similar benefit plans and programs of the Company and its Subsidiaries.

5.11 Change of Control and Related Matters. For purposes of all Benefit Plans (including all severance agreements, employment related agreements, stock option plans, restricted stock plans and any and all award or other agreements associated with any Benefit Plan), the transactions associated with this Agreement shall, on the Closing, conclusively and irrefutably, and without the need for further action by any Person or Persons unless otherwise provided for herein, (i) establish a change of (or in) control, (ii) result in full vesting for outstanding stock option and restricted stock awards, and (iii) establish, solely with respect to the Persons set forth in Schedule 5.11 (other than those Persons, if any, who have voluntarily waived such treatment hereunder in writing before the Closing Date), a termination without cause or a resignation with or for good reason, with the consequences, including, but not limited to, the right of each such Person to continue, at no cost to the Person, any medical insurance coverage that was in effect, for the Person and the Person's dependents (if any), immediately before the Closing Date until the earlier of the expiration of such Person's continuation coverage under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, as amended, and the date on which the replacement coverage begins with another employer. All payments due and owing to any Person under Benefit Plans as a result of the foregoing shall be made by the Company, Parent or the Surviving Corporation at Closing (and each such entity shall be jointly and severally liable for making such payments).

5.12 Audited Financial Statements. The Company shall deliver to Parent the Audited Financial Statements no later than May 26, 2006.

5.13 Letters of Credit. The Company agrees to cooperate reasonably with Parent in Parent's efforts to replace, at Closing, all of the existing letters of credit (the Existing Letters of Credit) issued by Silicon Valley Bank (SVB) under the Existing Loan Agreement with newly issued letters of credit (the Replacement Letters of Credit) issued under the debt portion of the Financing on the Closing Date (which assistance shall include, without limitation, contacting the beneficiaries of the Existing Letters of Credit and reasonably assisting Parent in efforts to have such beneficiaries accept such replacement letters of credit) and terminating the Existing Loan Agreement and all other loan and security documents in connection therewith and terminating, as of the Closing, all liens and security interests of the Company and its affiliates in favor of SVB. In the event that the beneficiaries of the Existing Letters of Credit do not accept the Replacement Letters of Credit, then Parent agrees to either cash collateralize the Existing Letters of Credit or to cause a new letter of credit to be issued under the debt portion of the Financing in favor of SVB to support the Existing Letters of Credit such that the Existing Loan Agreement, and all other loan and security documents in connection therewith, shall be terminated and all liens and security interests in favor of SVB terminated, in each case, as of the Closing.

(a) by mutual written consent of Parent and the Company;

(b) by either Parent or the Company if the Merger shall not have been consummated by October 15, 2006 (unless the failure to consummate the Merger is attributable to a failure on the part of the party seeking to terminate this Agreement to perform any material obligation required to be performed by such party at or prior to the Effective Time);

(c) by either Parent or the Company if a court of competent jurisdiction or other Governmental Entity shall have issued a final and nonappealable Order, or shall have taken any other action, having the effect of permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the Merger;

(e) by Parent (at any time prior to the receipt of the Stockholder Approval) if a Company Triggering Event shall have occurred;

(f) by Parent (i) if any of the Company's representations and warranties shall have been inaccurate as of the date of this Agreement, such that the condition set forth in Section 6.2(a) would not be satisfied, or (ii) if (A) any of the Company's representations and warranties become inaccurate as of a date subsequent to the date of this Agreement (as if made on such subsequent date), such that the condition set forth in Section 6.2(a) would not be satisfied and (B) such inaccuracy has not been cured by the Company within ten Business Days after its receipt of written notice thereof and remains uncured at the time notice

(iv) by Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 7.1(d) if, at or prior to the time of such failure, there shall have been publicly disclosed or announced a Takeover Proposal relating to the Company and within six months after such termination there shall have been consummated any Tail Transaction with any Person other than the Original Bidder;

Any fee due under Section 7.3(b)(i) shall be paid to Parent by wire transfer of the same-day funds within two Business Days after such termination. Any fee due under Section 7.3(b)(ii) shall be paid to Parent by wire transfer of same-day funds prior to or on the date of termination of this Agreement. Any fee due under Section 7.3(b)(iii) and Section 7.3(b)(iv) shall be paid to Parent by wire transfer of the same-day funds within one Business Day after the consummation of the Tail Transaction.

(c) The Company shall pay Parent a nonrefundable termination fee of $4,875,000 in the event of the termination of this Agreement by Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 7.1(d) if, at or prior to the time of such failure, there shall have been publicly disclosed or announced a Takeover Proposal relating to the Company and during the period six months after such termination and ending twelve months after such termination, there shall have been consummated any Tail Transaction with any Person other than the Original Bidder. 7.4 Amendment. This Agreement may be amended by the Parties at any time before or after Stockholder Approval and whether before or after adoption of this Agreement by the stockholder of Merger Sub; provided, however, that after the Stockholder Approval is obtained, there shall not be made any amendment that by Law requires further approval by the stockholders without the further approval of such stockholders. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the Parties.

7.5 Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, a Party may (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other Parties, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other Parties contained in this Agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to this Agreement or (iii) subject to the proviso of Section 7.4, waive compliance by the other Party with any of the agreements or conditions set forth in this Agreement. Any agreement on the part of a Party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such Party. Any waiver or failure to insist upon strict compliance with any obligation, covenant, agreement, provision, term or condition of this Agreement shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure to comply. The failure or delay of any Party to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of such rights.

8.4 Interpretation. When a reference is made in this Agreement to an Article or Section or the Disclosure Schedule, such reference shall be to an Article or Section of, or the Disclosure Schedule to, this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. The table of contents and headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. Whenever the words include, includes or including are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words without limitation. The term or has, except where otherwise indicated, the inclusive meaning represented by the phrase and/or. The words hereof, herein and hereunder and words of similar import when used in this Agreement shall refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. All terms defined in this Agreement shall have the defined meanings when used in any certificate or other document made or delivered pursuant hereto unless otherwise defined therein. The definitions contained in this Agreement are applicable to the singular as well as the plural forms of such terms and to the masculine as well as to the feminine and neuter genders of such term. Any agreement, instrument or statute defined or referred to herein or in any agreement or instrument that is referred to herein means such agreement, instrument or statute as from time to time amended, modified or supplemented, including (in the case of agreements or instruments) by waiver or consent and (in the case of statutes) by succession of comparable successor statutes and references to all attachments thereto and instruments incorporated therein. References to a Person are also to its permitted successors and assigns.

8.5 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed by facsimile signature and in one or more counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the Parties and delivered to the other Parties.

8.6 Entire Agreement; No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement (including the documents and instruments referred to herein) and the Confidentiality Agreement between the Company and Parent (i) constitute the entire agreement, and supersede all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and (ii) except for the provisions of ARTICLE 2, and Section 5.6, are not intended to confer upon any Person other than the Parties any rights or remedies.

8.7 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the Laws of the State of Delaware, regardless of the Laws that might otherwise govern under applicable principles of conflict of laws thereof.

8.8 Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations under this Agreement shall be assigned, in whole or in part, by operation of law or otherwise by any Party without the prior written consent of the other Parties. Any assignment in violation of the preceding sentence shall be void. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, the Parties and their respective successors and assigns.

8.9 Consent to Jurisdiction. Each of the Parties hereto irrevocably and unconditionally submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of either (a) the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware or (b) any Federal court of the United States of America sitting in the State of Delaware, for the purposes of any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of this Agreement or any transaction contemplated hereby (and each agrees that no such action, suit or proceeding relating to this Agreement shall be brought by it or any of its Affiliates except in such courts). Each of the Parties further agrees that, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, service of any process, summons, notice or document by U.S. registered mail to such Party's respective address set forth above shall be effective service of process for any action, suit or proceeding in Delaware with respect to any matters to which it has submitted to jurisdiction as set forth above in the immediately preceding sentence. Each of the Parties irrevocably and unconditionally waives (and agrees not to plead or claim) any objection to the laying of venue of any action, suit or proceeding arising out of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby in (a) any Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware or (b) any Federal court of the United States of America sitting in the State of Delaware, or that any such action, suit or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

8.10 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. Each Party hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any suit, action or other proceeding directly or indirectly arising out of, under or in connection with this Agreement. Each Party (i) certifies that no representative, agent or attorney of any other Party has represented, expressly or otherwise, that such Party would not, in the event of any action, suit or proceeding, seek to enforce the foregoing waiver and (ii) acknowledges that it and the other Parties have been induced to enter into this Agreement, by, among other things, the mutual waiver and certifications in this Section 8.10.

8.11 Enforcement. The Parties agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the Parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement, this being in addition to any other remedy in any Delaware State court or any Federal court of the United States of America sitting in the State of Delaware to which they are entitled at law or in equity.

8.12 Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any rule of law or public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner materially adverse to either Party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the Parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated hereby be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

ANNEX B

GENERAL CORPORATION LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE

§ 262. Appraisal rights.

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to § 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a stock corporation and also a member of record of a nonstock corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words and also membership or membership interest of a member of a nonstock corporation; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in one or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to § 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to § 251(g) of this title), § 252, § 254, § 257, § 258, § 263 or § 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in subsection (f) of § 251 of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§ 251, 252, 254, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

- a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;
- b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;
- c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a. and b. of this paragraph; or

d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a., b. and c. of this paragraph.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under § 253 of this title is not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for such meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) hereof that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228 or § 253 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may file a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) hereof, whichever is later.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After determining the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the Court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. In determining the fair rate of interest, the Court may consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the surviving or resulting corporation would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, permit discovery or other pretrial proceedings and may proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholder entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Interest may be simple or compound, as the Court may direct. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation. Members of the Board:

We understand that Manugistics Group, Inc. (the Company), JDA Software Group, Inc. (JDA) and Stanley Acquisition Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of JDA (Merger Sub), intend to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of April 24, 2006 (the Agreement) pursuant to which Merger Sub would be merged with and into the Company with the Company surviving the merger (the Proposed Transaction). We further understand that, upon the effectiveness of the merger, each share of common stock of the Company issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (other than shares of Common Stock owned by the Company, any of its wholly-owned subsidiaries, JDA and Merger Sub) will be converted into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to $2.50. The terms and conditions of the Proposed Transaction are set forth in more detail in the Agreement.

We have been requested by the Board of Directors of the Company to render our opinion with respect to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the Company's stockholders of the consideration to be offered to such stockholders in the Proposed Transaction. We have not been requested to opine as to, and our opinion does not in any manner address, the Company's underlying business decision to proceed with or effect the Proposed Transaction.

In arriving at our opinion, we have reviewed and analyzed: (1) the Agreement and the specific terms of the Proposed Transaction, (2) publicly available information concerning the Company that we believe to be relevant to our analysis, including the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended February 28, 2005 and the Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended May 31, 2005, August 31, 2005 and November 30, 2005, (3) financial and operating information with respect to the business, operations and prospects of the Company furnished to us by the Company, including financial projections of the Company through fiscal year 2011 prepared by the management of the Company (the Manugistics Projections), (4) a trading history of the Company's common stock from the closing price as of April 22, 2003 to an intraday trading price as of noon April 24, 2006 and a comparison of that trading history with those of other companies that we deemed relevant, (5) a comparison of the historical financial results and present financial condition of the Company with those of other companies that we deemed relevant, (6) a comparison of the financial terms of the Proposed Transaction with the financial terms of certain other transactions that we deemed relevant, (7) published estimates of independent research analysts with respect to the future price targets of the Company's common stock and the future financial performance of the Company through fiscal year 2007 and an extension of such research estimates prepared by the management of the Company through fiscal year 2011 (such estimates, including the extension, the Manugistics Street Projections), (8) the current and future capital requirements of the Company in light of its current cash balance and expected cashflows and the level of its indebtedness, (9) the cash flows of the combined company relative to its capital structure, on a pro forma basis, and (10) the standalone value of the tax savings expected to result from the historical net operating losses at the Company (NOL Tax Savings). In addition, we have had discussions with the management of the Company concerning its business, operations, assets, liabilities, NOL Tax Savings, financial condition and prospects and have undertaken such other studies, analyses and investigations as we deemed appropriate.

C-1

In arriving at our opinion, we have assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information used by us without assuming any responsibility for independent verification of such information and have further relied upon the assurances of management of the Company that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make such information inaccurate or misleading. With respect to the Manugistics Projections, upon advice of the Company we have assumed that such projections have been reasonably prepared on the basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgment of the management of the Company as to the future financial performance of the Company. However, for the purpose of our analysis, we also have considered the Manugistics Street Projections which reflect somewhat more conservative assumptions regarding the Company's future financial performance and the Company has agreed with the appropriateness of the use of the Manugistics Projections and the Manugistics Street Projections in performing our analysis. Upon advice of the Company, we have assumed that the expected NOL Tax Savings are reasonable. In arriving at our opinion, we have conducted only a limited physical inspection of the properties and facilities of the Company and have not made or obtained any evaluations or appraisals of the assets or liabilities of the Company. Our opinion necessarily is based upon market, economic and other conditions as they exist on, and can be evaluated as of, the date of this letter.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion as of the date hereof that, from a financial point of view, the consideration to be offered to the stockholders of the Company in the Proposed Transaction is fair to such stockholders.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Company in connection with the Proposed Transaction and will receive a fee for our services, a substantial portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Proposed Transaction. In addition, the Company has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities that may arise out of the rendering of this opinion. In the ordinary course of our business, we trade in the equity securities of the Company and JDA for our own account and for the accounts of our customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

This opinion is for the use and benefit of the Board of Directors of the Company and is rendered to the Board of Directors in connection with its consideration of the Proposed Transaction. This opinion is not intended to be and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of the Company as to how such stockholder should vote with respect to the Proposed Transaction. This opinion may be reproduced in full in any proxy or information statement mailed to stockholders of the Company but may not otherwise be disclosed publicly in any manner without our prior written approval.

Very truly yours,
/s/ LEHMAN BROTHERS

VOTING AGREEMENT

VOTING AGREEMENT, dated as of April 24, 2006 (this Agreement), among the stockholders listed on the signature page(s) hereto (collectively, the Stockholders and each individually, a Stockholder), Manugistics Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company) and JDA Software Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Parent). Capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings assigned to them in the Merger Agreement referred to below.

WHEREAS, as of the date hereof, the Stockholders own of record and beneficially (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 of the Exchange Act) the shares of capital stock of the Company set forth on Schedule A hereto (the Shares);.

WHEREAS, concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, Parent and the Company are entering into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of the date hereof (the Merger Agreement), pursuant to which, upon the terms and subject to the conditions thereof, a subsidiary of Parent will be merged with and into the Company, and the Company will be the surviving corporation (the Merger); and

WHEREAS, as a condition to the willingness of Parent to enter into the Merger Agreement, Parent has required that the Stockholders agree, and in order to induce Parent to enter into the Merger Agreement the Stockholders are willing, to enter into this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual covenants and agreements contained herein, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties hereby agree, severally and not jointly, as follows:

Section 1. Agreement to Vote Shares.

(a) Each Stockholder covenants and agrees that until the termination of this Agreement in accordance with the terms hereof, such Stockholder shall (a) when a meeting of the Company's stockholders is held, appear at such meeting (in person or by proxy) or otherwise cause all Shares and any New Shares (as defined below) to be counted as present thereat for the purpose of establishing a quorum and (b) vote (or cause to be voted) the Shares and any New Shares (i) in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement and approval of the transactions contemplated thereby; (ii) against the approval of any proposal made in opposition to or in competition with the consummation of the Merger and the Merger Agreement, (iii) against any proposal that would reasonably lead to or result in the conditions of Parent's or Merger Sub's obligations under the Merger Agreement not being fulfilled; (iv) against any Takeover Proposal from any party other than Parent or an affiliate of Parent; and (v) against the election of a group of individuals to replace a majority or more of the individuals presently on the Board of Directors of the Company (each item set forth in the foregoing clauses (i) through (v), a Proposed Matter) at every meeting of stockholders of Company called with respect to any Proposed Matter (and at every postponement or adjournment thereof). Prior to the termination of this Agreement, each Stockholder covenants and agrees not to enter into any agreement or understanding with any person to vote or give instructions in any manner inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement. The provisions of this Section 1 shall apply to all Shares and New Shares owned by each Stockholder as of the record date for the vote on any Proposed Matter.

(b) Each Stockholder further agrees that, until the termination of this Agreement, (Y) such Stockholder will not, and will not permit any entity under such Stockholder's control to, (A) solicit proxies or become a participant in a solicitation (as such terms are defined in Rule 14A under the Exchange Act) with respect to an Opposing Proposal (as defined below), (B) initiate a stockholders' vote with respect to an Opposing Proposal or (C) become a member of a group (as such term is used in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) with respect to any voting securities of the Company with respect to an Opposing Proposal. For the purposes of this Agreement, an Opposing Proposal means any action or proposal described in clauses (ii) through (iv) of Section 1.

(c) New Shares shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement to the same extent as if they constituted Shares. New Shares means:

(i) any shares of capital stock or voting securities of the Company that Stockholder purchases or with respect to which Stockholder otherwise acquires beneficial ownership (whether through the exercise of any options, warrants or other rights to purchase shares of Company Common Stock or otherwise) after the date of this Agreement and prior to the termination of this Agreement; and

(ii) any shares of capital stock or voting securities of the Company that Stockholder becomes the beneficial owner of as a result of any change in Company Common Stock by reason of a stock dividend, stock split, split-up, recapitalization, reorganization, business combination, consolidation, exchange of shares, or any similar transaction or other change in the capital structure of the Company affecting Company Common Stock.

Section 2. Irrevocable Proxy. Each Stockholder has delivered to Parent a duly executed proxy in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the Proxy), such Proxy covering the issued and outstanding Shares and all issued and outstanding New Shares in respect of which such Stockholder is the record holder and is entitled to vote at each meeting of the stockholders of the Company (including, without limitation, each written consent in lieu of a meeting) prior to the termination of this Agreement. Upon the execution of this Agreement by such Stockholder, such Stockholder hereby revokes any and all prior proxies or powers of attorney given by such Stockholder with respect to voting of the Shares on the matters referred to in Section 1 and agrees not to grant any subsequent proxies or powers of attorney with respect to the voting of the Shares on the matters referred to in Section 1 until after the Expiration Date. Each Stockholder understands and acknowledges that Parent is entering into the Merger Agreement in reliance upon the Stockholder's execution and delivery of this Agreement and the Proxy. Each Stockholder hereby affirms that the Proxy is given in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, and that such Proxy is given to secure the performance of the duties of such Stockholder under this Agreement. Except as otherwise provided for herein, each Stockholder hereby (i) affirms that the Proxy is coupled with an interest and may under no circumstances be revoked prior to the Expiration Date, (ii) ratifies and confirms all that the Proxies appointed hereunder may lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue hereof, and (iii) affirms that such Proxy is executed and intended to be irrevocable to the extent permitted by the provisions of Section 212 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. The power of attorney granted by each Stockholder herein is a durable power of attorney and shall survive the dissolution, bankruptcy, death or incapacity of such Stockholder. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, the Proxy granted hereunder shall automatically terminate upon the termination of this Agreement.

Section 3. Transfer of Shares.

(a) Until this Agreement is terminated, each Stockholder covenants and agrees that such Stockholder will not directly or indirectly (i) sell, assign, transfer (including by merger, testamentary disposition, interspousal disposition pursuant to a domestic relations proceeding or otherwise by operation of law), pledge, encumber or otherwise dispose of any of the Shares or New Shares, (ii) deposit any of the Shares or New Shares into a voting trust or enter into a voting agreement or arrangement with respect to the Shares or New Shares or grant any proxy or power of attorney with respect thereto that is inconsistent with this Agreement or (iii) enter into any contract, option, agreement, commitment, understanding or other arrangement or undertaking with respect to the direct or indirect sale, assignment, transfer, pledge, encumbrance or other disposition of any Shares or New Shares (each, a Transfer). Any Transfer or purported Transfer of share of Company Common Stock in violation of the foregoing restricts shall be null and void.

D-2

(b) Each Stockholder agrees to submit to the Company contemporaneously with or promptly following execution of this Agreement all certificates representing the Shares and upon delivery of such certificates representing the New Shares, as soon as possible thereafter, so that the Company may place thereon a legend referring to the transfer restrictions set forth in this Agreement.

(c) Permitted Transfers. Section 3(a) shall not prohibit a transfer of Shares or New Shares by a Stockholder (i) upon the death of such Stockholder, interspousal disposition, (ii) for tax or estate planning or charitable gift or if such Stockholder is a partnership or limited liability company, to one or more partners or members of such Stockholder to an affiliated corporation under common control with such Stockholder; provided, however, that a transfer referred to in this Section 3(c) shall be permitted only if, as a precondition to such transfer, the transferee agrees in a writing, reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to Parent, to be bound by the terms of this Agreement and delivers a Proxy to Parent in substantially the form of the Proxy attached hereto.

Section 4. Representations and Warranties of the Stockholders. Each Stockholder on his or her own behalf hereby severally represents and warrants to Parent with respect to such Stockholder and such Stockholder's ownership of the Shares as follows:

(a) Ownership of Shares. The Stockholder beneficially owns all of the Shares and rights to Shares as set forth on Schedule A hereto and has good and marketable title to such Shares, free and clear of any claims, liens, options, charges, proxies, voting trusts, agreements, rights, understandings, arrangements, encumbrances or security interests. The Stockholder owns no shares of Company Common Stock other than the Shares as set forth on Schedule A hereto. The Stockholder and/or its affiliates have sole voting power, without restrictions, with respect to all of the Shares. The Stockholder's principal residence or place of business is accurately set forth on the Stockholder's signature page hereto.

(b) Power, Binding Agreement. The Stockholder has the legal capacity and all requisite power and authority to enter into and perform all of his or her obligations under this Agreement. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by the Stockholder and constitutes a valid and binding obligation of the Stockholder, enforceable against the Stockholder in accordance with its terms.

(c) No Conflicts. The execution and delivery of this Agreement do not, conflict with or result in any violation of, or default (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both) under, or give rise to a right of termination, cancellation or acceleration of any obligation or to loss of a material benefit under, any provision of any loan or credit agreement, note, bond, mortgage, indenture, lease or other agreement, instrument, permit, concession, franchise, license, judgment, order, decree, statute, law, ordinance, rule or regulation applicable to the Stockholder, the Shares, the New Shares or any of the Stockholder's properties or assets. Except as expressly contemplated hereby, the Stockholder is not a party to, and the Shares are not (and the New Shares will not be) subject to or bound in any manner by, any contract or agreement relating to the Shares or the New Shares, including without limitation, any voting agreement, option agreement, purchase agreement, stockholders' agreement, partnership agreement or voting trust. Except for the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act and informational filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, no consent, approval, order or authorization of, or registration, declaration or filing with, any court, administrative agency or commission or other governmental authority or instrumentality, domestic, foreign or supranational, is required by or with respect to the Stockholder in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the consummation by the Stockholder of the transactions contemplated hereby.

Section 5. Termination. This Agreement shall terminate upon the earlier to occur of (a) such date and time as the Merger Agreement shall have been terminated in accordance with its terms (b) an amendment to the Merger Agreement in a manner that reduces the aggregate consideration to be paid to any Stockholder upon consummation of the Merger or changes the nature of the consideration in any way other than a change that does not change the amount of the cash consideration, and (c) the Effective Time.

Section 6. Fiduciary Duties. Each Stockholder is signing this Agreement solely in such Stockholder's capacity as an owner of such Stockholder's respective Shares, and nothing herein shall prohibit, prevent or preclude such Stockholder from taking or not taking any action in such Stockholder's capacity as an officer or director of the Company to the extent permitted by the Merger Agreement, or as an officer or a director of any third party.

Section 7. Specific Performance. The parties agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement or the Proxy were not performed in accordance with its specific terms or were otherwise breached. Each Stockholder agrees that, in the event of any breach or threatened breach by such Stockholder of any covenant or obligation contained in this Agreement or in the Proxy, Parent shall be entitled (in addition to any other remedy that may be available to it, including monetary damages) to seek and obtain (a) a decree or order of specific performance to enforce the observance and performance of such covenant or obligation, and (b) an injunction restraining such breach or threatened breach. Each Stockholder further agrees that neither Parent nor any other Person shall be required to obtain, furnish or post any bond or similar instrument in connection with or as a condition to obtaining any remedy referred to in this Section 7, and each Stockholder irrevocably waives any right such Stockholder may have to require the obtaining, furnishing or posting of any such bond or similar instrument.

Section 8. Miscellaneous.

(a) Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the Merger Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, between the parties with respect thereto. This Agreement may not be amended, modified or rescinded except by an instrument in writing signed by each of the parties hereto.

(b) Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any rule of law, or public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect, provided that, upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto shall modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the terms of this Agreement remain as originally contemplated to the fullest extent possible.

(c) Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to the principles of conflicts of law thereof.

(d) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed by facsimile signature and in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

(e) Notices. All notices and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed duly delivered (i) three business days after being sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, or (ii) one business day after being sent for next business day delivery, fees prepaid, via a reputable nationwide overnight courier service, in each case to the intended recipient as set forth below:

(g) Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations under this Agreement may be assigned or delegated, in whole or in part, by operation of law or otherwise by any of the parties hereto without the prior written consent of the other parties, and any such assignment without such prior written consent shall be null and void, except that Parent may assign this Agreement to any direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Parent without the consent of the Company or the Stockholders. Each of the parties hereto waives any defense of inconvenient forum to the maintenance of any action or proceeding so brought and waives any bond, surety or other security that might be required of any other party with respect thereto.
