BUHRMANN ANNOUNCES NEW EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS FOR CORPORATE EXPRESS NORTH AMERICA

Amsterdam, the Netherlands, 28 June 2006 Today Buhrmann's North American subsidiary Corporate Express is announcing several new executive appointments, including the creation of a Chief Operating Officer (COO) function. This follows the previously announced organisation restructuring designed to enhance customer segment and product line performance. The new streamlined structure is effective 1 July 2006.

The newly formed leadership team is structured around product lines and customer segments across the U.S. organisation replacing the geographical set-up. The team will be led by Jay Mutschler, who is appointed COO of Corporate Express North America, a new position within the Company. Mr. Mutschler will report to Mark Hoffman, member of Buhrmann's Executive Board and President of the Office Products North America Division.

Frans Koffrie, Chairman of Buhrmann's Executive Board and CEO, commented: The new approach provides the opportunity to move the business to a heightened level of performance in terms of customer service and cost effectiveness. The new appointments will help facilitate greater focus on our broad product line offering and key customer segments.
