Dear Shareholder:

We are pleased to present to you the 2006 annual report for Lehman Brothers First Trust Income Opportunity Fund, covering the twelve months ended December 31, 2006. The report includes portfolio commentary, a listing of the Fund's investments, and its audited financial statements for the reporting period.

High yield bonds posted positive returns for the year. Factors contributing to results were strong fundamentals, including solid corporate earnings growth, declining default rates, the normalization of monetary policy, and steady demand for higher yielding bonds. Looking out over the next nine to twelve months, we are reasonably positive on the high yield market. Our outlook is for a stable economy, as we anticipate economic growth in the range of 2.5% to 3.0%. In addition, we expect a generally even balance between supply and demand for high yield issuance. We continue to keep a watchful eye out for developments that could negatively affect the market. We are especially focused on default rates, the housing market, and inflation. Overall, we continue to anticipate that 2007 will prove to be a good year for high yield securities and we are optimistic for attractive full-year returns.

The Fund's investment objective is to seek high total return through income plus capital appreciation. The Fund pursues this investment objective by investing primarily in high yield debt securities.* Its performance is dependent on several factors, including the rate of interest received on securities held by the Fund, the cost of distributions payable on Money Market Cumulative Preferred Shares issued by the Fund, and the results of interest rate hedges used by the Fund in seeking to manage short-term interest rate costs.

Portfolio Co-Managers Ann H. Benjamin and Thomas P. O'Reilly and their team of seasoned investment professionals at Lehman Brothers Asset Management LLC manage the Fund. The team takes a proactive approach to high yield asset management, integrating detailed security and industry analysis within the context of a global economic outlook. The portfolio management team and research analysts are industry specialists who carry out independent primary research on companies and industries. In addition to seeking value from specific issue selections, they implement strategies seeking to take advantage of valuation opportunities across industry sectors and credit quality tiers.

We thank you for the trust you have placed in us by investing in Lehman Brothers First Trust Income Opportunity Fund. We will continue to do our best to earn it.

Sincerely,

Peter Sundman

portfolio managers' report

Market Review

The high yield corporate market generated an attractive return in 2006. Factors contributing to the favorable results were strong fundamentals, including solid earnings growth, declining default rates, the normalization of monetary policy and steady demand for higher yielding bonds. The market started the year on a positive note, delivering solid results during the first four months of the year. The market subsequently witnessed a re-pricing in the May/June period as a result of concerns about inflation and other macroeconomic conditions, uncertainty about the direction of the Federal Reserve and equity market volatility. The mid-year correction reversed itself during the back half of the year, and the market finished strongly as earlier concerns were alleviated.

Credit spreads tightened for the entire year and lower quality bonds outperformed higher quality issues. As measured by the Merrill Lynch U.S. High Yield Master II Index, CCC rated bonds provided a return of more than 18% for the year compared to 11% and 10% for issues rated B and BB, respectively.* High yield returns were not significantly affected by the upward movement of interest rates.

Portfolio Highlights

Lehman Brothers First Trust Income Opportunity Fund's portfolio is structured in accordance with our outlook across industry sectors and credit quality tiers. To summarize, it is primarily tilted toward industries that exhibit a high level of cash flow stability and away from more cyclical industries. The portfolio is generally neutrally weighted with respect to BB rated and B rated securities and underweighted in issues rated below CCC-, the riskiest part of the high yield market. At the end of the year, the portfolio held overweight positions in the following sectors: Healthcare, Automotive & Auto Parts, Media-Cable, and Printing & Publishing. The portfolio was underweighted in the Real Estate & Homebuilders, Paper & Packing, Capital Goods, and Chemicals sectors.

Market Outlook

Looking out over the next nine to twelve months, we are reasonably positive on the high yield market. High yield bonds continue to offer an attractive yield relative to other fixed income investments. While valuations are somewhat on the high side, there are good reasons to believe that the market will remain strong and bond prices firm. Our outlook is for a stable U.S. economy, as we anticipate economic growth in the range of 2.5% to 3.0%. This should translate into low default rates, in the 2-3% range and only modestly higher than current levels.

In addition, we expect a generally even balance between supply and demand for high yield issuance, as maturities and coupon income will generate cash flow for reinvestment into the market. Taken together, these favorable factors should mean stable prices for high yield securities.

We will keep a watchful eye out for developments that could negatively affect the market. We are especially focused on the strength of the economy and any meaningful uptick in default rates. Developments with respect to the housing market and inflationary pressures bear watching. While spreads are narrow by historical standards, particularly for the lower rated tiers, we envision no compelling reasons to anticipate substantial widening at this time, barring an "event" creating flight-to-quality conditions, significant Fed tightening in response to inflation surprises, or a material deterioration in economic activity. Issue selection decisions will be an important contributor to returns for high yield looking out nine to twelve months.

Sincerely,

Ann H. Benjamin and Thomas P. O'Reilly

Note 2 Significant Accounting Policies

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires the Adviser to make estimates and assumptions at the date of the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

a) Valuation: Debt securities are valued using an independent pricing service approved by the Board of Trustees, which utilizes closing market prices, market quotations and transactions, quotations from dealers and various relationships among securities in determining value. Securities for which closing market prices or market quotations are not available or are not considered by the Adviser to be reflective of a security's market value, are valued at fair value as determined in good faith by methods established by and under the supervision of the Board of Trustees. Criteria considered in making this determination may include, but are not limited to, a review of other securities by the same issuer for which market quotations are available, recent bid and ask prices for the security, the issuer's position in and economic outlook of the industry and, if necessary, a review of similar securities in similar industries. Securities with remaining maturities of 60 days or less are valued at amortized cost. This method involves valuing a portfolio security initially at its cost and thereafter assumes a constant amortization to maturity of any discount or premium.

b) Security Transactions and Related Investment Income: Security transactions are recorded on trade date for financial reporting purposes. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date. Interest income, including amortization of premium and accretion of discount on securities, is recorded on an accrual basis. Realized gains and losses on investments are recorded on the basis of identified cost.

c) Federal Income Taxes: It is the policy of the Fund to continue to qualify as a regulated investment company by complying with the requirements of Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to regulated investment companies and to distribute substantially all of its earnings to its shareholders. Therefore, no federal income or excise tax provision is required.

Income distributions and capital gain distributions are determined in accordance with income tax regulations, which may differ from U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. These differences are primarily due to differing treatments of income and gains on various investment securities held by the Fund, timing differences and differing characterization of distributions made by the Fund as a whole.

As determined on December 31, 2006, permanent differences resulting primarily from different book and tax accounting due to the tax treatment for paydown gains and losses on mortgage backed securities, the tax treatment for swaps and amortization of bond premium were reclassified at fiscal year-end by increasing undistributed net investment income by $1,136,360, decreasing undistributed realized gain by $1,137,648 and increasing paid in capital by $1,288. These reclassifications had no effect on net income, net asset value applicable to common shareholders or net asset value per common share of the Fund.

The tax character of distributions paid during the years ended December 31, 2006 and December 31, 2005 was as follows:

	2006	2005
Ordinary Income	$ 21,054,192	$ 21,925,912
Long-Term Capital Gain		568,757
Return of Capital		49,045

lehman brothers first trust income opportunity fund annual report 2006

As of December 31, 2006, the components of distributable earnings (accumulated losses) on a U.S. federal income tax basis were as follows:

Undistributed Ordinary Income	$ 248,326
Undistributed Long-Term Gain	739,125
Unrealized Appreciation (Depreciation)	9,504,492
Total Accumulated Earnings	$ 10,491,943

The difference between book basis and tax basis distributable earnings is attributable primarily to the timing differences of wash sales.

d) Repurchase Agreements: The Fund may enter into repurchase agreements with institutions that LBAM LLC has determined are creditworthy. Each repurchase agreement is recorded at cost. The Fund requires that the securities purchased in a repurchase agreement be transferred to the custodian in a manner sufficient to enable the Fund to assert a perfected security interest in those securities in the event of a default under the repurchase agreement. The Fund monitors, on a daily basis, the value of the securities transferred to ensure that their value, including accrued interest, is greater than amounts owed to the Fund under each such repurchase agreement.

e) Reverse Repurchase Agreements: The Fund may enter into reverse repurchase agreements with institutions deemed creditworthy by the Adviser. A reverse repurchase agreement involves the sale of a security by the Fund, with an agreement to repurchase the same or substantially similar security at an agreed upon price and date. Securities purchased subject to repurchase agreements must have an aggregate market value greater than or equal to the repurchase price plus accrued interest at all times. Reverse repurchase agreements involve the risk that the market value of the securities purchased with the proceeds from the sale of securities received by the Fund may decline below the price of the securities that the Fund is obligated to repurchase. There were no reverse repurchase agreements outstanding at December 31, 2006.

f) Interest Rate Swap Contracts: The Fund may enter into interest rate swap transactions, with institutions that the Adviser has determined are creditworthy, to reduce the risk that an increase in short-term interest rates could reduce common share net earnings as a result of leverage. Under the terms of the interest rate swap contracts, the Fund agrees to pay the swap counter party a fixed-rate payment in exchange for the counter party's paying the Fund a variable-rate payment that is intended to approximate all or a portion of the Fund's variable-rate payment obligation on the Fund's Money Market Cumulative Preferred Shares ("MMP"). The fixed-rate and variable-rate payment flows are netted against each other, with the difference being paid by one party to the other on a monthly basis. The Fund segregates cash or liquid securities having a value at least equal to the Fund's net payment obligations under any swap transaction, marked to market daily.

Risks may arise if the counter party to a swap contract fails to comply with the terms of its contract. The loss incurred by failure of a counter party is generally limited to the net interest payment to be received by the Fund and/or the termination value at the end of the contract. Additionally, risks may arise if there is no liquid market for these agreements or from movements in interest rates unanticipated by the Adviser. Periodic expected interim net interest payments or receipts on the swaps are recorded as an adjustment to unrealized gains/losses, along with the fair value of the future periodic payment streams on the swaps.

The unrealized gains/losses associated with the periodic interim net interest payment are reclassified to realized gains/losses in conjunction with the actual net receipt or payment of such amounts. The reclassifications do not impact the Fund's total net assets applicable to common shareholders or its total net increase (decrease) in net assets applicable to common shareholders.

At December 31, 2006, the Fund had the following open swap agreements:

Notional Amount	Expiration Date	Description	Net Unrealized Appreciation
$ 22,500,000	3/15/07	Agreement with Citibank N.A. dated 3/11/04 to pay the notional amount multiplied by 2.27% and to receive the notional amount multiplied by the 1 month U.S. Dollars London Interbank Offered Rate British Bankers Association (USD LIBOR BBA).	$ 171,460
$ 22,500,000	9/28/07	Agreement with Citibank N.A. dated 9/24/04 to pay the notional amount multiplied by 3.22% and to receive the notional amount multiplied by the 1 month U.S. Dollars London Interbank Offered Rate British Bankers Association (USD LIBOR BBA).	$ 342,997

Periodically, the Fund receives from or deposits with, the counter party, a specific amount of cash equal to market value of the interest rate swap contracts. At December 31, 2006, the Fund had $546,842 payable for collateral on interest rate swap contracts under this arrangement.

Note 3 Fees and Transactions with Related Parties

The Fund pays all expenses incurred in connection with the operations of the Fund. These expenses, among others, include custodian and fund accounting and administrative fees, legal and audit fees, fees and expenses of the Trustees who are not "interested persons" within the meaning of the 1940 Act ("Independent Fund Trustees"), and printing expenses.

The Fund pays the Adviser a monthly fee computed at an annual rate of 0.60% of the Fund's average daily "Managed Assets" (net assets, including assets attributable to any outstanding preferred shares, plus the aggregate principal amount of any borrowings). The Adviser is responsible for developing, implementing and supervising the Fund's investment program and providing certain administrative services to the Fund. The Adviser has retained LBAM LLC to serve as the sub-adviser of the Fund and to manage the Fund's investment portfolio. The Adviser compensates LBAM LLC for its services as sub-adviser. The Adviser pays LBAM LLC a monthly sub-advisory fee calculated at the following annual percentage rates of the Fund's average daily Managed Assets: 0.55% on the Fund's first $25 million of Managed Assets, 0.45% on the next $25 million of Managed Assets, 0.35% on the next $50 million of Managed Assets, and 0.30% on Managed Assets that are in excess of $100 million. The Adviser and LBAM LLC are wholly owned subsidiaries of Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc., a publicly traded corporation.

First Trust Portfolios L.P. ("First Trust") serves as the Fund's distribution and marketing agent, and investor servicing agent. As the Fund's distribution and marketing agent, First Trust provides certain distribution and marketing services for the Fund's common shares including preparing marketing materials and presentations, developing contacts with brokers whose clients may have an interest in acquiring Fund shares and replying to information requests from prospective investors. In consideration for these services, First Trust receives a fee paid by the Adviser.

First Trust, as the investor servicing agent, developed and maintains a website for the Fund, assists in the review of shareholder materials, assists in the dissemination of the Fund's net asset value and market price, provides ongoing shareholder and account maintenance services, replies to information requests from shareholders and aids in secondary market support. In consideration for these services, the Fund pays First Trust a monthly fee computed at the annual rate 0.05% of the Fund's average daily Managed Assets. For the year ended December 31, 2006, the Fund paid First Trust, as the investor servicing agent, a fee equal to $134,314.

The Fund pays no compensation to its officers or to its Trustees who are interested Trustees of the Adviser or its affiliates.

In order to satisfy rating agencies' requirements, the Fund is required to provide each rating agency a report on a monthly basis verifying that the Fund is maintaining eligible assets having a discounted value equal to or greater than the MMP Basic Maintenance Amount, which is the minimum level set by each rating agency as one of the conditions to maintain the AAA/Aaa rating on the MMP. "Discounted value" refers to the fact that the rating agencies require the Fund, in performing this calculation, to discount portfolio securities below their face value, at rates determined by the rating agencies. The Fund pays Investors Bank & Trust Company ("Investors Bank") for the preparation of this report.

Investors Bank serves as the Fund's custodian and administrator and as transfer agent, registrar and dividend paying agent for the common shares. For the year ended December 31, 2006, the Fund paid Investors Bank $308,333 for these services, which is reflected in the Statement of Operations under the caption "Custodian fee and other service fees."

Note 4 Investment in Securities

For the year ended December 31, 2006, purchases and sales of investments, other than short-term securities, aggregated $288,502,115 and $287,474,423, respectively.

Note 5 Money Market Cumulative Preferred Shares

The Fund is authorized to issue 3,750 MMP, each without par value. On October 22, 2003, the Fund issued 3,600 MMP with proceeds of $90,000,000 in a public offering. The underwriting commissions and offering costs of $1,236,545 were incurred in connection with the offering and were charged directly to paid-in capital of the common shares. Distributions to preferred shareholders are cumulative at a rate which is generally reset every twenty-eight days based on the results of an auction. The Fund pays commissions to certain broker-dealers at the end of each auction at an annual rate of 0.25% for a regular distribution period and at a rate agreed to by the Fund and the broker-dealers for a special distribution period. For the year ended December 31, 2006, Lehman Government Securities, Inc., an affiliate of the Adviser, earned $225,000 in commissions.

The MMP are redeemable at the option of the Fund at a redemption price equal to $25,000 per share, plus accumulated and unpaid distributions, on any distribution payment date. The MMP are also subject to mandatory redemption at a redemption price equal to $25,000 per share, plus accumulated and unpaid distributions, if the Fund defaults on its asset maintenance requirements with respect to the MMP and fails to cure such a default within the time permitted. If the distributions on the MMP shall remain unpaid in an amount equal to two full years' distributions, the holders of the MMP, as a class, have the right to elect a majority of the Board of Trustees. In general, the holders of the MMP and the common shares have one vote for each dollar, and a proportionate fraction of a vote for each fraction of a dollar, of the net asset value per share, and vote together as a single class, except that the holders of the MMP, as a separate class, have the right to elect at least two members of the Board of Trustees and to vote under certain other circumstances specified in the Fund's Amended By-Laws. The Fund is required to maintain certain asset coverage with respect to the MMP as defined in the Fund's Amended By-Laws and the 1940 Act.

Note 6 Distributions to Shareholders

The Fund earns income, net of expenses, daily on its investments. The Fund intends to make monthly distributions of net investment income to common shareholders, after payments of any distributions on outstanding MMP. There is no assurance that the Fund will always be able to pay distributions of a particular size, or that distributions will consist solely of net investment income and realized capital gains. The composition of the Fund's distributions for the year ended December 31, 2006 will be reported to Fund shareholders on IRS Form 1099DIV. The Fund may pay additional distributions to avoid excise tax or to satisfy the requirements of Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code. Distributions to common shareholders are recorded on the ex-date. Net realized capital gains, if any, will be offset to the extent of any available capital loss carryforwards. On January 12, 2007, the Fund declared three monthly distributions to common shareholders in the amount of $0.11 per share per month, payable after the close of the reporting period, on January 31, 2007, February 28, 2007 and March 30, 2007, respectively, to shareholders of record on January 24, 2007, February 21, 2007 and March 23, 2007, respectively.

Distributions to preferred shareholders are recorded daily and are payable at the end of each distribution period. Each distribution payment period for the MMP is generally twenty-eight days. For the year ended December 31, 2006, the distribution rates for MMP ranged from 4.35% to 5.35%. The distribution rate for MMP on December 31, 2006 was 5.27%. In addition, at least annually, the Fund intends to distribute net capital gains, if any.

Note 7 Shares of Beneficial Interest

The Fund's Declaration of Trust authorizes the Trustees to issue an unlimited number of common shares for the Fund, each without par value. Transactions in common shares were as follows:

	Year Ended December 31, 2006
	Shares	Amount
Shares issued pursuant to the Fund's dividend reinvestment plan	4,904	$ 72,014
Increase derived from capital share transactions	4,904	$ 72,014
	Year Ended December 31, 2005
	Shares	Amount
Shares issued pursuant to the Fund's dividend reinvestment plan	8,148	$ 120,786
Increase derived from capital share transactions	8,148	$ 120,786

Note 8 Concentration of Credit Risk

The Fund will normally invest at least 80% of its Managed Assets in investments offering high current income, which generally will be in the lower rating categories of recognized rating agencies. These investments are regarded as predominantly speculative with respect to the issuer's capacity to pay interest and repay principal in accordance with the terms of the obligations and will generally involve more credit risk than securities in the higher rating categories. In addition, the trading market for high yield investments may be relatively less liquid than the market for higher-rated investments.

Due to the inherent volatility and illiquidity of the high yield securities in which the Fund invests and the real or perceived difficulty of issuers of those high yield securities to meet their payment obligations during economic downturns or because of negative business developments relating to the issuer or its industry in general, the value and/or price of the Fund's shares may fluctuate more than would be the case if the Fund did not concentrate in high yield securities.

Note 9 Risk Associated with the Use of Leverage

The Fund's use of leverage through the issuance of preferred shares and borrowings, as well as the economic leverage inherent in certain derivatives, including credit default swaps, creates risks for holders of common shares. There is no assurance that the Fund's leveraging strategies will be successful. If the Fund issues preferred shares or borrows money to make additional investments and the income and capital appreciation from those investments exceed the distributions payable on the preferred shares or the costs of borrowing, the Fund's investment return will be greater than if leverage had not been used. However, if the distributions payable on the preferred shares or the costs of borrowing exceed the income and capital appreciation from the additional investments, the Fund would lose money and its investment return will be lower than if leverage had not been used. Leverage creates risk which may adversely affect the return for holders of common shares, including:

- (a) the likelihood of greater volatility of net asset value and market price of the Fund's common shares;
- (b) the possibility either that common share income will fall if the preferred share distribution rate rises or the Fund's borrowing costs increase, or that common share income will fluctuate because of changes in the preferred share distribution rates or borrowing costs.

Note 10 Indemnifications

Like many other companies, the Fund's organizational documents provide that its officers and trustees are indemnified against certain liabilities arising out of the performance of their duties to the Fund. In addition, both in some of its principal service contracts and in the normal course of its business, the Fund enters into contracts that provide indemnifications to other parties for certain types of losses or liabilities. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown as this could involve future claims against the Fund.

Note 11 Expense Allocation

Certain expenses are applicable to multiple funds. Expenses directly attributable to the Fund are charged to the Fund. Expenses borne by the complex of related investment companies, which includes open-end and closed-end investment companies

lehman brothers first trust income opportunity fund annual report 2006

for which the Adviser or its affiliates serve as investment manager, that are not directly attributed to the Fund are allocated among the Fund and the other investment companies in the complex or series thereof on the basis of relative net assets, except where a more appropriate allocation of expenses to each investment company in the complex or series thereof can otherwise be made fairly.

Note 12 Recent Accounting Pronouncements

On July 13, 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") released FASB Interpretation No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes" ("FIN 48"). FIN 48 provides guidance for how uncertain tax positions should be recognized, measured, presented and disclosed in the financial statements. FIN 48 clarifies the accounting for income taxes, by prescribing a minimum recognition threshold a tax position is required to meet before being recognized in the financial statements. FIN 48 requires that a "more-likely-than-not" threshold be met before the benefit of a tax position may be recognized in the financial statements and prescribes how such benefit should be measured. Adoption of FIN 48 is required for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006 and is to be applied to all open tax years as of the effective date. The Securities and Exchange Commission will permit investment companies with fiscal year-ends of December 31 to delay implementation of FIN 48 until June 29, 2007. At this time, Management is evaluating the implications of FIN 48 and its impact in the financial statements has not yet been determined.

In September 2006, FASB issued FASB Statement No. 157, "Fair Value Measurement" ("SFAS 157"), which defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. SFAS 157 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, and interim periods within those fiscal years. Management believes the adoption of SFAS 157 will not have a material impact on the Fund's financial position or results of operations.

To the Shareholders and Board of Trustees
Lehman Brothers First Trust Income Opportunity Fund

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities of Lehman Brothers First Trust Income Opportunity Fund (the "Fund"), including the schedule of investments, as of December 31, 2006, and the related statement of operations for the year then ended, the statement of changes in net assets for each of the two years in the period then ended, and the financial highlights for each of the periods indicated therein. These financial statements and financial highlights are the responsibility of the Fund's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial highlights based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial highlights are free of material misstatement. We were not engaged to perform an audit of the Fund's internal control over financial reporting. Our audits included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and financial highlights, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. Our procedures included confirmation of securities owned as of December 31, 2006, by correspondence with the custodian and brokers or by other appropriate auditing procedures where replies from brokers were not received. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial highlights referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Lehman Brothers First Trust Income Opportunity Fund, at December 31, 2006, the results of its operations for the year then ended, the changes in its net assets for each of the two years in the period then ended, and the financial highlights for each of the periods indicated therein, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

dividend reinvestment plan

The Fund has a Dividend Reinvestment Plan (the "Plan") commonly referred to as an "opt-out" plan. Each common shareholder will have all distributions of dividends and capital gains automatically reinvested in additional common shares by Investors Bank & Trust Company, as agent for shareholders pursuant to the Plan (the "Plan Agent"), unless the shareholder elects to receive cash or unless the shares are registered in the name of a broker-dealer or other nominee (that is, in "street name") and the respective nominee does not participate in the Plan. For Plan participants, the Plan Agent will either (i) effect purchases of common shares under the Plan in the open market or (ii) distribute newly issued common shares of the Fund. Shareholders who elect not to participate in the Plan will receive all distributions in cash paid by check mailed directly to the shareholder of record (or if the shares are held in street or other nominee name, then to the nominee) by the Plan Agent, as dividend disbursing agent. Certain broker-dealers and nominees do not permit their clients to participate in dividend reinvestment plans. Shareholders whose common shares are held in the name of a broker or nominee should contact the broker or nominee to determine whether and how they may participate in the Plan.

The Plan Agent serves as agent for the shareholders in administering the Plan. After the Fund declares a dividend or makes a capital gain distribution, the Plan Agent will, as agent for the participants, either (i) receive the cash payment and use it to buy common shares in the open market, on the New York Stock Exchange or elsewhere, for the participants' accounts or (ii) distribute newly issued common shares of the Fund on behalf of the participants. The Plan Agent will receive cash from the Fund with which to buy common shares in the open market if, on the determination date, the net asset value per share exceeds the market price per share plus estimated brokerage commissions on that date. The Plan Agent will receive the dividend or distribution in newly issued common shares of the Fund if, on the determination date, the market price per share plus estimated brokerage commissions equals or exceeds the net asset value per share of the Fund on that date. The number of shares to be issued will be computed at a per share rate equal to the greater of (i) the net asset value or (ii) 95% of the closing market price per share on the payment date.

Participants in the Plan may withdraw from the Plan upon written notice to the Plan Agent. Such withdrawal will be effective immediately if received not less than ten days prior to a distribution record date; otherwise, it will be effective for all subsequent dividend record dates. When a participant withdraws from the Plan or upon termination of the Plan as provided below, certificates for whole common shares credited to his or her account under the Plan will be issued and a cash payment will be made for any fraction of a common share credited to such account. In the alternative, upon receipt of the participant's instructions, common shares will be sold and the proceeds sent to the participant less brokerage commissions and any applicable taxes.

The Plan Agent maintains each shareholder's account in the Plan and furnishes confirmations of all acquisitions made for the participant. Common shares in the account of each Plan participant will be held by the Plan Agent on behalf of the participant. Proxy material relating to shareholders' meetings of the Fund will include those shares purchased as well as shares held pursuant to the Plan.

In the case of shareholders, such as banks, brokers or nominees, which hold common shares for others who are the beneficial owners, the Plan Agent will administer the Plan on the basis of the number of common shares certified from time to time by the record shareholders as representing the total amount registered in the record shareholder's name and held for the account of beneficial owners who are participants in the Plan.

The Plan Agent's fees for the handling of reinvestment of dividends and other distributions will be paid by the Fund. Each participant will pay a pro rata share of brokerage commissions incurred with respect to the Plan Agent's open market purchases in connection with the reinvestment of distributions. There are no other charges to participants for reinvesting dividends or capital gain distributions; however, the Fund reserves the right to amend the Plan to include a service charge payable by the participants.

The automatic reinvestment of dividends and other distributions will not relieve participants of any income tax that may be payable or required to be withheld on such dividends or distributions.

The Fund and the Plan Agent reserve the right to amend or terminate the Plan. All correspondence concerning the Plan should be directed to: Investors Bank & Trust Company, 200 Clarendon Street, Mail Stop OPS22, Boston, MA 02116 (Telephone) 800-988-5196.

Ann H. Benjamin and Thomas P. O'Reilly have served as portfolio managers for the Fund. Ms. Benjamin is the managing director and chief investment officer of high yield for Lehman Brothers Asset Management LLC (LBAM LLC). She serves as the lead portfolio manager for all of LBAM LLC's high yield strategy accounts. She has been with LBAM LLC since March 1, 1997.

Mr. O Reilly has served as portfolio and credit analyst for the Fund. He is a senior vice president and portfolio manager for LBAM LLC. He serves as portfolio and credit analyst for all of LBAM LLC's high yield strategy accounts. He has been with LBAM LLC since July 1, 1997.

The table below contains information about other accounts managed by the Fund's primary portfolio managers.

The Fund's portfolio managers may manage other accounts with investment strategies similar to those of the Fund, which may suggest the potential for conflicts of interest. LBAM LLC may charge varying fees to different accounts managed by the portfolio managers. The Fund's portfolio managers may participate personally in some pooled accounts, including the Fund. LBAM LLC may manage accounts with variable fees based on performance. Theoretically, these features could create an incentive for a portfolio manager to favor the higher or variable fee accounts, or accounts in which he or she participates, which may not include the Fund. However, the Fund does not anticipate that management by a Fund portfolio manager of other accounts with a similar investment strategy would conflict with the management of the Fund. LBAM LLC has a fundamental policy to bundle trades for all accounts managed, which LBAM LLC believes promotes best execution. LBAM LLC dedicates high yield trading personnel to focus on purchasing bonds within the levels established by the portfolio managers. LBAM LLC observes the following practices and policies as part of its trading strategies: 1) adherence to the requirement that best execution is the sole criterion for evaluating trades; 2) policies and procedures requiring fair treatment of all clients; 3) professional conduct requirements mandating the primacy of the best interests of clients; 4) a policy against directing soft dollar credits to individual brokers on behalf of individual clients; 5) trading positions for all portfolios or accounts together; 6) seeking competitive bids for purchases and sales, to the extent possible; and 7) close attention to the orderly handling of cash flows. LBAM LLC manages its various portfolios and accounts without regard to management fees.

Portfolio Manager Compensation

Portfolio Managers are typically compensated on the basis of a salary and an annual discretionary, performance-based bonus, which is in the form of cash and conditional equity awards (restricted stock units and/or stock options). Elements of consideration for the discretionary bonuses are overall portfolio performance in relation to their peers, ability to attract and retain clients, revenue generation, assets under management, the current market conditions and overall contribution to the Firm. Managers are also evaluated on their collaboration with their client relationship and sales staff, their franchise building activities, teamwork, people and product development and their corporate citizenship.

The percentage of compensation varies by position, experience/level and performance. In general, the more senior the investment professional, variable compensation becomes a greater portion of total compensation. As previously mentioned, all employees participate in the Lehman Brothers Equity Award program. The portion of compensation paid in equity increases as total compensation rises.

Additionally, certain key members of the investment professional staff of LBAM LLC who were previously covered by employment contracts with Lehman Brothers will receive annual payouts from an Incentive Payment Pool (IPP) valued at a fixed multiple of earnings for the fixed income business. Payouts begin in 2007 and extend through 2009, and have specific non-compete and non-solicitation provision restrictions.

Some accounts the Portfolio Managers manage tie compensation to performance. However, no substantial portion of the manager s compensation is tied directly to performance, so we believe that there are no significant incentives for them to take undue risks.
