Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On June 26, 2008, Sanmina-SCI Corporation (the Company ) and its directly or indirectly wholly-owned foreign subsidiaries listed below (the Subsidiaries ) entered into a Revolving Trade Receivables Purchase Agreement (the Receivables Purchase Agreement ) with Deutsche Bank AG New York, as administrative agent, pursuant to which certain of the Subsidiaries may sell specified accounts receivable generated by them to the purchasers (the Purchasers ) listed in the Receivables Purchase Agreement from time to time during the term of the Receivables Purchase Agreement, subject to satisfaction of the conditions set forth in the Receivables Purchase Agreement. The maximum face amount of accounts receivables of the Subsidiaries that may be outstanding at any time under the Receivables Purchase Agreement is $250 million. The Receivables Purchase Agreement permits the Subsidiaries to designate additional originators of accounts receivable eligible for sale thereunder and for the Purchasers to add or remove purchasers and to change individual purchase limits upon notice and subject to certain other conditions.

The Subsidiaries party to the Receivables Purchase Agreement are: (1) Sanmina-SCI Magyarország Elektronikai Gyártó Kft, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the Republic of Hungary, (2) Sanmina Magyarország Elektrotechnikai Részegységgyártó Kft, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the Republic of Hungary, (3) Sanmina-SCI EMS Haulupudas OY, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the Republic of Finland, (4) Sanmina-SCI Enclosure Systems OY, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the Republic of Finland, (5) Sanmina-SCI Systems Singapore Pte. Ltd, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Singapore, (6) Sanmina-SCI Israel Medical Systems Ltd., a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Israel, (7) Sanmina-SCI Systems Canada, Inc., a corporation incorporated under the laws of the Province of Nova Scotia, Canada, (8) Sanmina-SCI Systems (Thailand) Ltd., a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of the Kingdom of Thailand and (9) Sanmina-SCI UK Ltd., a company organized and existing with limited liability under the laws of England and Wales.

Purchase Price; Fees. The purchase price for receivables sold under the Receivables Purchase Agreement is equal to 100% of their invoice/face amount. The Subsidiaries shall pay the Purchasers interest during the period from the date receivables are sold until their collection date. The Subsidiaries also are obligated to pay a commitment fee based on the unused portion of the facility.

Subsidiary Indemnification Obligations. The Subsidiaries have agreed to indemnify the Purchasers for damages resulting from certain claims, including the failure to grant the Purchasers a first priority interest in the receivables being sold, disputes involving the validity of the receivables being sold and the failure of the Subsidiaries to perform all of their obligations under the Receivables Purchase Agreement. However, the Purchasers are not indemnified against the risk of non-collection of receivables caused by the insolvency or bankruptcy of the customer generating the receivables. The Company has guaranteed the obligations of the Subsidiaries under the Receivables purchase Agreement.

Term and Termination. The Receivables Purchase Agreement has a term of two years. However, upon the occurrence of a termination event, the Purchasers have the option to terminate their participation in the Receivables Purchase Agreement. This termination is automatic in the case of certain bankruptcy events. The termination events also include defaults by the Company or the Subsidiaries with respect to certain indebtedness, the entry of certain judgments against the Company or the Subsidiaries, the occurrence of a change in control involving the Company and the failure by the Company or the Subsidiaries to observe or perform the covenants contained in the Receivables Purchase Agreement.

This description of the Receivables Purchase Agreement is qualified by the actual terms of such agreement. The Company will include the Receivables Purchase Agreement as an exhibit to its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ending June 28, 2008, which it expects to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission on or before August 7, 2008.
