This press release may contain statements that express management’s expectations about future events or results rather than historical facts. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in forward-looking statements, and Vale cannot give assurance that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors: relating to the Brazilian and Canadian economy and securities markets, which exhibit volatility and can be adversely affected by developments in other countries; relating to the iron ore and nickel business and its dependence on the global steel industry, which is cyclical in nature; and relating to the highly competitive industries in which Vale operates. For additional information on factors that could cause Vale’s actual results to differ from expectations reflected in forward-looking statements, please see Vale’s reports filed with the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

DISCLOSURE POLICY OF VALE S.A.

1. PRINCIPLES AND SCOPE

1.1. The Disclosure Policy regulates the disclosure of material information of Vale S.A. (Vale) and its subsidiaries and is based upon the following basic principles:

(a) Transparency, information symmetry, uniformity of treatment and respect for investors' rights.

(b) Adherence to best global practices of investor relations; and

(c) Compliance with the specific laws and regulations of Brazil, the United States of America, France and Hong Kong, the regulations of the Comissão de Valores Mobiliários (CVM), of Brazil, the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), of the United States of America, the Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF), of France, and Securities and Futures Commission (SFC), of Hong Kong, henceforth referred as regulatory agencies, and the regulations of the stock exchanges in which Vale's securities are listed and traded.

1.2. Vale shall make public strategic, administrative, technical, business, financial or economic information capable of affecting the prices of its securities and/or influencing investors' decisions to hold, buy or sell its securities or to exercise any shareholder rights (Material Information), in accordance with the applicable rules enacted by the regulatory agencies and the Stock Exchange Commissions above mentioned.

1.3. The Disclosure Policy establishes mandatory guidelines that shall be observed by Vale's controlling shareholder, members of the Board of Directors, Fiscal Council and Advisory Committees, Executive Officers, management of Vale, management of its subsidiaries and by any other person who, due to his or her job, function or title at Vale and/or its subsidiaries, has knowledge of Material Information about Vale.

1.4. The persons identified in item 1.3 above shall be hereinafter referred to, collectively or individually, as Affected Persons.

Table of Contents

1.5. The Affected Persons shall execute the respective Term of Acceptance, that will be kept in file in Vale's headquarters insofar its signatory maintains its relationship with Vale, and, for five years, at least, after the discharge of his or her professional duty.

1.6. Publicly traded companies that are controlled by Vale shall adopt this Policy, with such adjustments as may be required to reflect local law and regulations applicable to such companies and the markets in which their securities trade.

2. INTERNAL PROCEDURES FOR THE DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

2.1. Vale's Chief Financial and Investor Relations Officer (CFO) has the primary responsibility for the disclosure of Material Information. Vale's controlling shareholders, members of the board of directors, fiscal council and advisory committees, and executive officers shall report any material act or fact they become aware of to the CFO, who will provide for its prompt disclosure.

2.2. Without prejudice to item 2.1, Vale has created a Disclosure Committee in order to assure compliance with the Disclosure Policy, as well as with the laws and regulations applicable to Vale. The duties of the Disclosure Committee include:

- (a) Verifying the existence of any Material Information to be publicly disclosed and assuring its full, prompt and simultaneous global dissemination, particularly in all markets where Vale's securities are traded;
- (b) Overseeing and approving any notices to global capital markets of any Material Information, as well as checking the need for potential corrections and revisions;
- (c) Discussing any potential postponement of disclosure of Material Information in cases where prompt disclosure would adversely affect the interests of Vale;
- (d) Monitoring developments or changes in the businesses of Vale or its subsidiaries in order to determine the need for disclosure of Material Information; and
- (e) Assessing market rumors and/or speculations about Vale and reviewing the necessity of issuing a response or other communication to global capital markets.

Edgar Filing: Vale S.A. - Form 6-K

2.3. The Disclosure Committee is presided over by Vale's Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and is comprised of the following members: the CFO, the General Counsel, the Officer of the Department of Investor Relations and Global Controller's Officer.

2.4. Any Affected Person aware of any Material Information shall report such information immediately to the CFO and/or the Officer of the Department of Investor Relations. Only the members of the Disclosure Committee, the individuals expressly authorized by the Disclosure Committee in a specific case and the members of the Department of Investor Relations shall be authorized to disclose Material Information.

2.5. The Department of Investor Relations has primary responsibility for the preparation of communications to the capital markets, which shall be necessarily reviewed and approved by at least 2 (two) members of the Disclosure Committee, by the business area involved and, if necessary, by the Global Controller Department and/or the General Counsel. In particular, whenever such disclosure involves: a) shareholders' agreement; (b) listing and delisting of securities issued by Vale; (c) acquisition, merger, consolidation, spin-off or split of entities; (d) stock option plans or matching program; (e) amendment of Vale's By-Laws or appointment/dismissal of senior management; (f) buy back of securities; (g) law suit or administrative proceeding; (h) public offering of securities issued by Vale; (i) exceptional circumstances related to commercial agreements; the draft of the related Material Information shall be presented for the revision and approval of the General Counsel prior to its disclosure.

2.6. All public communications to be made by Vale's subsidiaries, including press releases and financial reports, shall be reviewed and approved by the Investor Relations Officer prior to its disclosure.

2.7. Any authorization for the use of the name of Vale and/or any of its subsidiaries in public communications by any person that is a party to a transaction and/or partner with Vale and/or its subsidiaries shall be given to such person by the Disclosure Committee, through the Department of Investor Relations.

2.8. At meetings or audio/video conferences with capital markets participants, Vale may be represented by its CEO, CFO, any other Executive Officer, a member of the Department of Investor Relations, and any other person authorized by the CEO or the CFO.

2.9. Material information shall be disclosed to the capital markets simultaneously according to item 2.10. All relevant non-public information that is disclosed, whether intentionally or unintentionally to analysts, investors, journalists or to any other person who is not (i) a member of Vale's Board of Directors, Fiscal Council or Advisory Committees; (ii) an Executive Officer or (ii) an employee of Vale or its subsidiaries with direct involvement in the matter in question, shall be immediately disclosed to the general public in accordance with the applicable rules and regulations.

2.10. Disclosure of Material Information shall be made before the opening or after the closing of the trading sessions of the stock exchanges in which the securities of Vale are traded. In the event such disclosure must be carried out during the trading session, the CFO shall seek authorization from the stock exchanges or other appropriate regulatory body prior to the disclosure of such information or, where necessary, apply for a suspension of trading in the securities of Vale on any relevant stock exchange pending disclosure.

2.11. Until the applicable time of public disclosure, access to Material Information shall be limited to professionals at Vale who are directly involved with the matter in question. These professionals must properly safeguard and keep confidential such information until its public disclosure and ensure that employees and other parties that provide services to Vale pursuant to confidentiality agreements undertake the same measures. Such professionals shall share responsibility in the event of noncompliance by such associates and other persons. Also, such professionals are subject to confidentiality agreement entered into with Vale.

2.12. In exceptional circumstances, disclosure of Material Information may be delayed when Vale's controlling shareholder, Directors or Executive Officers believe that disclosure would adversely affect Vale's legitimate interests. In such event, access to the information not disclosed must be limited to the persons who have a reasonable need to be aware of such information.

2.13. In exceptional circumstances, Vale may report to its primary regulator, CVM, its decision to maintain certain Material Information confidential due to the adverse impact disclosure would have on Vale's legitimate interests.

2.14. Market rumors and/or speculation about potentially Material Information about Vale and/or its subsidiaries shall be reported to the Disclosure Committee. Should Material Information leak or an atypical oscillation of the securities' quotation, price or traded quantity occurs, the CFO shall immediately disclose such information to the public.

3. PERFORMANCE GUIDANCE

3.1. Neither Vale nor its subsidiaries shall disclose any quantitative estimates and/or forecasts of its future financial performance.

3.2. Vale, by decision of the Disclosure Committee, may disclose forecasts relating to the condition of any market in which it operates, clearly presenting the premises supporting such forecasts, and accompanied by the following disclaimer:

This press release may include statements that present Vale's expectations about future events or results. All statements, when based upon expectations about the future and not on historical facts, involve various risks and uncertainties. Vale cannot guarantee that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors related to the following: (a) the countries where we operate, especially Brazil and Canada; (b) the global economy; (c) the capital markets; (d) the mining and metals prices and their dependence on global industrial production, which is cyclical by nature; and (e) global competition in the markets in which Vale operates. To obtain further information on factors that may lead to results different from those forecast by Vale, please consult the reports Vale files with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários (CVM), the French Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF), and The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, and in particular the factors discussed under "Forward-Looking Statements" and "Risk Factors" in Vale's annual report on Form 20-F.
