Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 20, 2014, Edwards Lifesciences Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Edwards), announced that it has entered into an agreement (the Agreement) with Medtronic, Inc. and its affiliates (Medtronic) to, among other things, settle all outstanding patent litigation between the parties, including all cases related to transcatheter heart valves. Pursuant to the agreement, all pending cases or appeals in courts and patent offices world wide will be dismissed, and the parties will not litigate patent disputes with each other in the field of transcatheter heart valves for the eight-year term of the Agreement.

Under the terms of a patent cross-license that is part of the Agreement, Medtronic will make a one-time, upfront payment to Edwards in the amount of $750 million. In addition, Medtronic will pay Edwards quarterly license royalty payments through April 2022. For sales in the United States, the royalty payments will be based on a percentage of Medtronic sales of transcatheter aortic valves, subject to a minimum annual payment of $40 million and a maximum annual payment of $60 million. A separate, modest royalty payment will be calculated based on sales of Medtronic transcatheter aortic valves manufactured in the United States but sold elsewhere.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

In connection with the Agreement described in Item 1.01, Edwards expects to earn approximately $25-28 million in royalties in 2014 which, along with the one-time payment, is subject to an estimated 36 percent tax rate. Edwards intends to utilize the upfront payment, after taxes, to repay outstanding bank debt under Edwards' credit facility, and for other investments consistent with the company's long-term strategy.

On May 20, 2014, Edwards issued a press release announcing the Agreement described above. A copy of the press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1.

This report includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, expectations of royalty payment amounts, anticipated tax rates, and intended utilization of the upfront payment. Forward-looking statements are based on estimates and assumptions made by management of the company and are believed to be reasonable, though they are inherently uncertain and difficult to predict. Our forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made and we do not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after the date of the statement. If the company does update or correct one or more of these statements, investors and others should not conclude that the company will make additional updates or corrections.

Forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results or experience to differ materially from that expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results or experience to differ materially from that expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements include uncertainties associated with Medtronic Corevalve sales, and other risks detailed in the company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013 and subsequent reports on Forms 10-Q and 8-K.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.

(d) Exhibits
