Utility Customer Letter

December 3, 2014

To Our Valued Customers:

As you probably have heard, we recently announced that HEI and NextEra Energy, the nation's leading clean energy company headquartered in Juno Beach, Florida, have agreed to combine, excluding HEI's banking subsidiary. In a separate announcement, HEI also announced a plan to spin off its banking subsidiary, ASB Hawaii, creating an independent publicly traded company. The spinoff is contingent upon the completion of the combination of NextEra Energy with HEI.

We believe that this is a major opportunity for a stronger future for Hawaiian Electric, which includes our subsidiaries, Maui Electric and Hawaii Electric Light, and for customers like you, as well as our communities and state. By joining with NextEra Energy, we're gaining a great partner and bringing together two recognized leaders in clean energy. Our combined expertise coupled with NextEra Energy's ability to provide additional, less expensive capital will help us invest in and significantly accelerate the actions we're taking to strengthen Hawaii's energy infrastructure, meet our clean energy goals, lower customer bills and continue our active support of our local communities.

Overview of NextEra Energy

I'd like to provide a little background about NextEra Energy. NextEra Energy is the nation's clean energy leader. Its principal subsidiaries include Florida Power & Light Company (FPL), one of the largest and most well-respected electric utilities in the United States, and NextEra Energy Resources, LLC, which together with its affiliated entities (NextEra Energy Resources), is North America's largest producer of renewable energy from the wind and sun. FPL's highly efficient generation fleet is one of the cleanest and most modern among utilities nationwide. FPL has developed, built and operates one of the nation's most modern grid networks and offers the highest reliability among Florida's investor-owned utilities, ranking in the top quartile nationally, with more than 99.98 percent reliability.

Importantly, FPL's operational excellence has supported low customer bills, including typical residential customer electric bills that are the lowest in Florida for the fifth consecutive year and approximately 25 percent lower than the national average.

Edgar Filing: HAWAIIAN ELECTRIC INDUSTRIES INC - Form DEFA14A

NextEra Energy enjoys a longstanding reputation as a strong corporate citizen throughout the communities in which it operates. FPL was recognized by Market Strategies International as the nation's most trusted electric utility earlier this year. It has also been recognized for an unprecedented eight consecutive years as No. 1 on the utility industry list of Fortune's Most Admired Companies and was also recently named No. 1 in the sector for innovation, No. 1 for social responsibility and No. 1 for quality of products/services.

What This Combination Means for Our Business

This partnership will align two clean energy leaders that share a common vision and common goals. Both NextEra Energy and Hawaiian Electric are committed to increasing renewable energy, modernizing our grid, reducing Hawaii's dependence on imported oil, integrating more rooftop solar and lowering customer bills. Hawaiian Electric continues to be committed to a clean energy future and has filed plans with the Hawaii Public Utilities Commission (PUC) plans that seek to enhance Hawaii's energy future by lowering electric bills, giving customers more service options and nearly tripling the amount of distributed solar, while achieving among the nation's highest levels of renewable energy by 2030.

NextEra Energy is supportive of our plans to accomplish these goals and will be a great partner along the way.

We're also confident that NextEra Energy's corporate responsibility and clean energy track record, coupled with our history of active support in the local community, will allow Hawaiian Electric to further its commitment to our customers, communities and the environment.

What This Means for Customers

NextEra Energy and Hawaiian Electric are committed to ensuring that the combination delivers significant value and savings to you. The transaction approval application will be filed within the next 60 days with the Hawaii PUC. We look forward to demonstrating the measurable benefits that this transaction will offer Hawaiian Electric's customers and Hawaii.

Until this transaction is completed, which we estimate will occur within approximately 12 months, both companies will continue to operate as independent entities. Upon completion of the transaction, Hawaiian Electric, Maui Electric and Hawaii Electric Light will continue to operate under their current names and remain headquartered in Hawaii. Our utilities will continue to be locally managed from our existing operating locations.

Please know that our relationship with you is very important to us, and we will continue to update you on these plans. If you have any questions, we encourage you to visit the website www.forhawaiiisfuture.com or to call our customer service representatives.

Mahalo for your continued support. We appreciate your business and we look forward to continuing to providing you with excellent service for many years to come.

Sincerely,

/s/ Alan Oshima
