Universal Security Instruments Announces
Move To American Stock Exchange

OWINGS MILLS, MD, July 24, 2003: Universal Security Instruments, Inc. (OTC-BB: USEC) today announced its common stock has been approved for listing on the American Stock Exchange (AMEX). This approval is contingent upon the Company being in compliance with all applicable listing standards on the date it begins trading on the Exchange, and may be rescinded if the Company is not in compliance with such standards.

The Company expects its stock to begin trading on Monday, July 28, 2003, under the new ticker symbol UUU.

"We have met a major milestone for our Company and its shareholders. We believe the American Stock Exchange will provide our shareholders with an excellent trading environment on a national exchange, a platform with greater liquidity, marginability and greater transparency," said Steve Knepper, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Universal Security Instruments, Inc.

Edgar Filing: UNIVERSAL SECURITY INSTRUMENTS INC - Form 8-K

"Our new listing is the culmination of the hard work by the men and women of Universal Security Instruments. While remaining an efficient, service-oriented and quality-driven company, our new management team has aggressively pursued the growth plan we adopted in October 2001. We will continue to utilize all opportunities and resources to maximize return for our shareholders," Knepper added.

UNIVERSAL SECURITY INSTRUMENTS, INC. (www.universalsecurity.com), founded in 1969, is a Maryland-based manufacturer and worldwide marketer of safety and security products directly and through its 50%-owned Hong Kong joint venture.

Statements contained in this press release that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements as that term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Although UNIVERSAL SECURITY INSTRUMENTS, INC. believes that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable; the forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projections.
