Appeals Court Judge repeals order of arrest against Petrobras Directors

(Rio de Janeiro , March 3, 2004). - PETRÓLEO BRASILEIRO S/A - PETROBRAS, [Bovespa: PETR3/PETR4, NYSE: PBR/PBRA, Latibex: XPBR/XPBRA], a Brazilian international energy company, informs that the Honorable Appeals Court Judge Azeredo da Silveira, of the Rio de Janeiro Courts, granted a Habeas Corpus injunction revoking the arrest warrant of the company directors and also determined that the arrest warrant be withdrawn.

The arrest warrant of the Petrobras directors had been made based on a complaint by Marítima Petróleo e Engenharia Ltda. alleging a possible failure to comply with a court order by Petrobras.

In the opinion of Petrobras, no failure to comply with a judicial ruling occurred since Marítima based its complaint on a decision by the Court of Appeals (STJ), the ruling of which had not yet been made available or even published in the Federal Government Gazette .

The STJ court ruling would only imply a suspension of the tenders related with activities stated in Marítima's articles of association, amongst which the construction of platforms is not included, which was the object of the action filed by the company .

The complaint is specifically related with a tender whose object is to construct the platform PRA1 - Autonomous Repumping Platform. Therefore, since the construction of platforms is not stated as part of the activities in that company's articles of association, Petrobras considers that the tender should not be affected by the STJ's ruling.
