MODINE MANUFACTURING COMPANY
NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(In millions, except per share amounts)
(unaudited)

Note 1: General

The accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements were prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”) in the United States applied on a basis consistent with those principles used in the preparation of the annual consolidated financial statements of Modine Manufacturing Company (“Modine” or the “Company”) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, except in regards to the new accounting guidance adopted, as described below. The financial statements include all normal recurring adjustments that are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair statement of results for the interim periods. Results for the first nine months of fiscal 2018 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year. These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and related notes in Modine's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended March 31, 2017.

United States Tax Reform

In December 2017, U.S. tax reform legislation was enacted and included various changes to existing U.S. tax regulations. As a result of these changes, the Company recorded income tax charges totaling $35.7 million during the third quarter of fiscal 2018. See Note 8 for additional information regarding the recently-enacted tax reform legislation.

Acquisition of Luvata HTS

On November 30, 2016, the Company completed the acquisition of 100 percent of the shares of multiple companies held by Luvata Heat Transfer Solutions II AB, a company incorporated in Sweden. Combined, these acquired companies represented the Luvata Heat Transfer Solutions (“Luvata HTS”) business. See Note 2 for additional information.

New Accounting Guidance

Derivatives and Hedging

In August 2017, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued new guidance related to hedge accounting. The main objectives of the new guidance include aligning hedge accounting with companies’ risk management strategies and increasing disclosure transparency regarding both the scope and results of hedging programs. The Company early adopted the new guidance in the third quarter of fiscal 2018. This new guidance did not have a material impact on the Company’s consolidated financial statements.

Pension Costs

In March 2017, the FASB issued new guidance related to the income statement presentation of pension and postretirement costs. This guidance requires companies to continue to present the service cost component of net periodic benefit cost within the same financial statement line item as other employee compensation costs; however, other components of net benefit cost are required to be presented outside of results from operations. The Company adopted this guidance, on a retrospective basis, beginning in its first quarter of fiscal 2018. As a result, the Company recorded $0.6 million and $2.2 million of net periodic benefit cost within other income and expense for the three and nine months ended December 31, 2017, respectively, and reclassified the net periodic benefit cost, exclusive of service cost, to other income and expense for the comparative periods in fiscal 2017. For the three and nine months ended December 31, 2016, the Company reclassified net periodic benefit cost totaling $0.7 million ($0.3 million from cost of sales and $0.4 million from selling, general and administrative (“SG&A”) expenses) and $2.2 million ($0.9 million from cost of sales and $1.3 million from SG&A expenses), respectively, to other income and expense.

Share-based Compensation

In March 2016, the FASB issued new guidance to simplify several aspects of accounting for share-based payment transactions. The Company adopted this guidance beginning in its first quarter of fiscal 2018. The Company elected to account for forfeitures in the period in which they occur and recorded a cumulative-effect adjustment to equity. In addition, the Company prospectively adopted the guidance requiring all excess tax benefits or deficiencies to be recognized as income tax expense or benefit when share-based awards are settled. The provisions of this guidance did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements. As a result of adopting this new guidance, the Company recorded a $0.4 million increase to both deferred tax assets and equity as of April 1, 2017.

Leases

In February 2016, the FASB issued new comprehensive lease accounting guidance that supersedes existing lease accounting guidance. Upon adoption of this new guidance, the Company will be required to recognize most leases on its balance sheet. This guidance is effective for the Company's first quarter of fiscal 2020. The Company is currently evaluating the impact this guidance will have on its consolidated financial statements.

Revenue Recognition

In May 2014, the FASB issued new guidance that outlines a comprehensive model for entities to use in accounting for revenue arising from contracts with customers. The core principle of the new guidance is that companies are to recognize revenue to depict the transfer of goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The new guidance also includes a cohesive set of disclosure requirements intended to provide users of financial statements with comprehensive information about revenue arising from contracts with customers. This new guidance will be effective for the Company's first quarter of fiscal 2019, and the Company plans to adopt it using a modified-retrospective transition method.

The Company is currently in the process of assessing customer contracts and evaluating contractual provisions that may result in a change in the timing of revenue recognized in comparison with current guidance. Under current guidance, the Company generally recognizes revenue when products are shipped and risk of loss has transferred to the customer. The Company is evaluating whether provisions in certain customer contracts may provide an enforceable right to payment for customized products, which may require revenue recognition prior to the product being shipped to the customer. In addition, the Company is evaluating pricing provisions contained in certain of its customer contracts to determine the appropriate timing of revenue recognition based upon the new guidance. The Company continues to evaluate the impact this new guidance will have on its consolidated financial statements and its revenue recognition policies.

Note 2: Acquisition of Luvata HTS

On November 30, 2016, the Company completed its acquisition of a 100 percent ownership interest in the Luvata HTS business for consideration totaling $415.6 million ($388.2 million, net of cash acquired). Operating as Modine's Commercial and Industrial Solutions ("CIS") segment, this business is a leading global supplier of coils, coolers and coatings to the heating, ventilation, air conditioning, and refrigeration industry. For the nine months ended December 31, 2017, the Company included $451.6 million of net sales and operating income of $14.3 million within its consolidated statement of operations attributable to CIS operations. For the nine months ended December 31, 2016, the Company included $34.7 million of net sales and an operating loss of $0.3 million attributable to one month of CIS operations.

The Company has completed the purchase price allocation for its acquisition of Luvata HTS. During the first and second quarters of fiscal 2018, the Company recorded measurement-period adjustments which resulted in an increase in goodwill totaling $1.3 million, primarily due to increases to income tax reserves and changes in liabilities for product warranties.

The Company's allocation of the purchase price for its acquisition of Luvata HTS is as follows:

Cash and cash equivalents	$27.4
Trade accounts receivable	86.1
Inventories	55.0
Property, plant and equipment	120.4
Intangible assets	130.2
Goodwill	151.9
Other assets	39.1
Accounts payable	(73.7)
Accrued compensation and employee benefits	(24.3)
Deferred income taxes	(39.5)
Pensions	(14.3)
Other liabilities	(42.7)
Purchase price	$415.6

The following unaudited supplemental pro forma information presents the Company's consolidated results of operations as though the acquisition of Luvata HTS had occurred at the beginning of fiscal 2016. This pro forma financial information is presented for illustrative purposes only and is not considered to be indicative of the operating results that would have been achieved had the acquisition been completed as of the date indicated.

	Three months ended December 31, 2016	Nine months ended December 31, 2016
Net sales	$ 439.5	$ 1,393.3
Net earnings attributable to Modine	8.5	26.8
Net earnings per share attributable to Modine shareholders:
Basic	$ 0.17	$ 0.54
Diluted	0.17	0.53

The supplemental pro forma financial information includes adjustments for: (i) quarterly amortization and depreciation expense totaling $3.2 million for acquired tangible and intangible assets, (ii) estimated quarterly interest expense of $3.5 million resulting from acquisition-related borrowings, and (iii) the estimated income tax impacts related to the pro forma adjustments, considering the statutory tax rates within the applicable jurisdictions. In addition, the pro forma financial information assumes that both $8.6 million of fiscal 2017 acquisition-related transaction costs and a $2.9 million inventory purchase accounting adjustment recorded in the third quarter of fiscal 2017 were incurred during fiscal 2016. The pro forma financial information does not reflect achieved or expected cost and revenue synergies.

Note 3: Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants. Fair value measurements are classified under the following hierarchy:

- Level 1 – Quoted prices for identical instruments in active markets.
- Level 2 – Quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets; quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active; and model-derived valuations in which all significant inputs are observable in active markets.
- Level 3 – Model-derived valuations in which one or more significant inputs are not observable.

When available, the Company uses quoted market prices to determine fair value and classifies such measurements as Level 1. In some cases, where market prices are not available, the Company uses observable market-based inputs to calculate fair value, in which case the measurements are classified as Level 2. If quoted or observable market prices are not available, the Company determines fair value based upon valuation models that use, where possible, market-based data such as interest rates, yield curves or currency rates. These measurements are classified as Level 3.

The carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments, trade accounts receivable, accounts payable, and short-term debt approximate fair value due to the short-term nature of these instruments. The Company holds trading securities in deferred compensation trusts to fund obligations under certain non-qualified deferred compensation plans. The securities' fair values, which are recorded as other noncurrent assets, are determined based upon quoted prices from active markets and classified within Level 1 of the valuation hierarchy. The Company's deferred compensation obligations, which are recorded as other noncurrent liabilities, are recorded at the fair values of the investments held by the trusts. The fair values of the Company's trading securities and deferred compensation obligations each totaled $5.7 million and $5.0 million at December 31, 2017 and March 31, 2017, respectively. The fair value of the Company's long-term debt is disclosed in Note 14.

Note 4: Pensions

Pension cost included the following components:

	Three months ended		Nine months ended
	December 31,		December 31,
	2017	2016	2017	2016
Service cost	$ 0.1	$ 0.1	$ 0.4	$ 0.4
Interest cost	2.5	2.5	7.4	7.3
Expected return on plan assets	(2.9)	(3.1)	(8.9)	(9.2)
Amortization of unrecognized net loss	1.4	1.4	4.2	4.2
Curtailment gain (a)	(0.3)	-	(0.3)	-
Net periodic benefit cost	$ 0.8	$ 0.9	$ 2.8	$ 2.7

During the third quarter of fiscal 2018, the Company recorded a curtailment gain as a result of the closure of a (a) manufacturing facility in Austria (CIS segment). See Note 6 for additional information regarding the closure of this facility.

Table of ContentsMODINE MANUFACTURING COMPANY

During the nine months ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, the Company contributed $11.1 million and $6.3 million, respectively, to its U.S. pension plans.

Note 5: Stock-Based Compensation

The Company's stock-based incentive programs consist of the following: (1) a long-term incentive compensation program for officers and other executives that consists of stock awards, stock options, and performance-based stock awards granted for retention and performance, (2) a discretionary equity program for other management and key employees, and (3) stock awards for non-employee directors.

The Company calculates compensation expense based upon the fair value of the instruments at the time of grant and subsequently recognizes expense ratably over the respective vesting periods of the stock-based awards. The Company recognized stock-based compensation expense of $2.2 million and $2.6 million for the three months ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively. The Company recognized stock-based compensation expense of $7.6 million and $6.1 million for the nine months ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively. The performance component of awards granted under the Company's long-term incentive plan during the first quarter of fiscal 2018 is based upon both a target three-year average return on average capital employed and a target three-year average revenue growth at the end of the three-year performance period.

The fair value of stock-based compensation awards granted during the nine months ended December 31, 2017 and 2016 were as follows:

	Nine months ended December 31,
	2017		2016
	Shares	Fair Value Per Award	Shares	Fair Value Per Award
Stock options	0.2	$ 7.30	0.3	$ 4.60
Restricted stock awards	0.2	$ 15.90	0.3	$ 10.03
Performance stock awards	0.2	$ 15.90	0.3	$ 10.00
Unrestricted stock awards	0.1	$ 16.95	0.1	$ 9.38

The Company used the following assumptions in determining fair value for stock options:

	Nine months ended December 31,
	2017		2016
Expected life of awards in years	6.4		6.4
Risk-free interest rate	1.9	%	1.4	%
Expected volatility of the Company's stock	44.3	%	45.5	%
Expected dividend yield on the Company's stock	0.0	%	0.0	%

As of December 31, 2017, unrecognized compensation expense related to non-vested stock-based compensation awards, which will be amortized over the remaining service periods, was as follows:

	Unrecognized Compensation Expense	Weighted-Average Remaining Service Period in Years
Stock options	$ 2.6	2.7
Restricted stock awards	6.1	2.7
Performance stock awards	5.2	1.9
Total	$ 13.9	2.4

Note 6: Restructuring Activities

During the third quarter of fiscal 2018, the Company ceased production at its Gailtal, Austria manufacturing facility, primarily to reduce excess capacity and lower manufacturing costs in Europe. As a result of this facility closure, the Company recorded $8.2 million of restructuring expenses, within the CIS segment, during the third quarter of fiscal 2018. These restructuring expenses primarily related to employee severance and related benefits. Also in the third quarter of fiscal 2018, the Company recorded a $1.3 million asset impairment charge to reduce the carrying value of the Austrian facility to its estimated fair value, less costs to sell.

The Company's restructuring actions during the first nine months of fiscal 2018 also included plant consolidation activities in the Americas segment and targeted headcount reductions in the Americas and Europe segments. In addition, the Company transferred production of certain product lines to Hungary from other manufacturing facilities within the Europe segment, primarily to expand its low-cost country footprint in Europe and to ensure continued competitiveness in the region.

The Company's restructuring actions during the first nine months of fiscal 2017 primarily consisted of plant consolidation activities and targeted headcount reductions in the Americas segment.

Restructuring and repositioning expenses were as follows:

	Three months ended December 31,		Nine months ended December 31,
	2017	2016	2017	2016
Employee severance and related benefits	$ 8.6	$ 0.1	$ 9.2	$ 2.2
Other restructuring and repositioning expenses	0.8	1.5	2.3	3.8
Total	$ 9.4	$ 1.6	$ 11.5	$ 6.0

Other restructuring and repositioning expenses primarily consist of equipment transfer and plant consolidation costs.

Note 8: Income Taxes

The Company's effective tax rate for the three months ended December 31, 2017 and 2016 was 482.2 percent and (58.3) percent, respectively. The Company's effective tax rate for the nine months ended December 31, 2017 and 2016 was 86.6 percent and 16.0 percent, respectively. The effective tax rates for the fiscal 2018 periods are higher than in the prior year, primarily due to third quarter charges totaling $35.7 million related to the recently-enacted tax reform legislation in the U.S. Other factors that impacted the Company's effective tax rate for the three and nine months ended December 31, 2017, as compared with the prior-year periods, were income tax benefits resulting from a development tax credit in Hungary, changes in the valuation allowances related to certain foreign jurisdictions, and changes in the mix of foreign and domestic earnings. In addition, the effective tax rate for the nine months ended December 31, 2017 benefitted from a $1.8 million reduction in unrecognized tax benefits during the second quarter of fiscal 2018 that resulted from a lapse in statutes of limitations. The development tax credit in Hungary resulted in a tax benefit of $2.2 million and $7.9 million in the three and nine months ended December 31, 2017, respectively.

On December 22, 2017, the U.S. government enacted comprehensive tax legislation commonly referred to as the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (the "Tax Act"). The Tax Act includes broad and complex changes to the U.S. tax code, including (i) a reduction in the U.S. federal corporate tax rate from 35 percent to 21 percent effective January 1, 2018, and (ii) a transition tax on certain unrepatriated earnings of foreign subsidiaries. For fiscal 2018, the Company will record its income tax provision based on a blended U.S. statutory tax rate of 31.5 percent, which is based on a proration of the applicable tax rates before and after the effective date of the Tax Act. The statutory tax rate of 21 percent will apply for fiscal 2019 and beyond.

The Tax Act also puts in place new tax laws that may impact the Company's taxable income beginning in fiscal 2019, which include, but are not limited to (i) creating a base erosion anti-abuse tax (BEAT), which is a new minimum tax, (ii) generally eliminating U.S. federal income taxes on dividends from foreign subsidiaries, (iii) adding a new provision designed to tax global intangible low taxed income (GILTI), (iv) adding a provision that could limit the amount of deductible interest expense, and (v) limiting the deductibility of certain executive compensation.

Shortly after the Tax Act was enacted, the SEC issued accounting guidance, which provides a one-year measurement period during which a company may complete its accounting for the impacts of the Tax Act. To the extent a company's accounting for certain income tax effects of the Tax Act is incomplete, the company may determine a reasonable estimate for those effects and record a provisional estimate in its financial statements. If a company cannot determine a provisional estimate to be included in the financial statements, it should continue to apply the provisions of the tax laws that were in effect immediately prior to the Tax Act being enacted.

During the third quarter of fiscal 2018, the Company recorded provisional discrete tax charges of $35.7 million related to the Tax Act. The Company adjusted its U.S. deferred tax assets by $20.7 million due to the reduction in the U.S. federal corporate tax rate. This net reduction in deferred tax assets also included the estimated impact on the Company's net state deferred tax assets. In addition, the Company recorded a $15.0 million charge for the transition tax. The Company expects to pay this estimated $15.0 million tax liability over the next eight years, beginning with a payment of approximately $1.0 million in fiscal 2019.

The Company is also analyzing other provisions of the Tax Act to determine if they will impact the Company's effective tax rate in fiscal 2018 or in the future. These provisions include BEAT, as described above, the elimination of U.S. federal income taxes on dividends from foreign subsidiaries, the new limits on the deductibility of interest expense and executive compensation, and the state tax implications of the Tax Act, including the impact of the transition tax and the impact on the realizability of tax attributes and valuation allowances.

The Tax Act includes a provision designed to tax GILTI, as described above, starting in fiscal 2019. The Company has elected to record the tax effects of the GILTI provision as a period expense in the applicable tax year. As a result, the Company does not expect GILTI to impact its fiscal 2018 income tax provision.

For various reasons, the Company has not completed its accounting for the income tax effects of certain elements of the Tax Act. In regards to the reduction in the U.S. corporate tax rate, the Company is continuing to analyze the temporary differences that existed on the date of enactment, and the temporary differences originating in the current fiscal year. In regards to the transition tax, the Company is awaiting further interpretative guidance, continuing to assess available tax methods and elections, and continuing to gather additional information to more precisely compute the amount of this tax. Previously, the Company's practice and intention was to reinvest, with certain insignificant exceptions, the earnings of its non-U.S. subsidiaries outside of the U.S. As a result, the Company did not record U.S. deferred income taxes or foreign withholding taxes for these earnings. The Company is currently analyzing its global working capital requirements and the potential tax liabilities that would be incurred if the non-U.S. subsidiaries distribute cash to the U.S. parent, which include local country withholding tax and potential U.S. state taxes. The Company expects to complete its analysis of the accounting guidance related to the Tax Act and its evaluation of the impacts of the Tax Act in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2018 or in early fiscal 2019.

At December 31, 2017, valuation allowances against deferred tax assets in certain foreign jurisdictions totaled $47.4 million and valuation allowances against certain U.S. deferred tax assets totaled $7.0 million, as it is more likely than not these assets will not be realized based upon historical financial results. The $1.2 million increase in the U.S. valuation allowances during the three months ended December 31, 2017 relates mainly to adjustments made to state tax attributes as a result of tax reform. The Company will continue to provide a valuation allowance against its net deferred tax assets in each of the applicable jurisdictions until the need for a valuation allowance is eliminated. The need for a valuation allowance is eliminated when the Company determines it is more likely than not the deferred tax assets will be realized. The Company may release the valuation allowance (approximately $3.0 million) in a foreign jurisdiction during the fourth quarter of fiscal 2018 or in fiscal 2019.

Accounting policies for interim reporting require the Company to adjust its effective tax rate each quarter to be consistent with its estimated annual effective tax rate. Under this methodology, the Company applies its estimated annual income tax rate to its year-to-date ordinary earnings to derive its income tax provision each quarter. The Company records the tax impacts of certain significant, unusual or infrequently occurring items in the period in which they occur. The Company excluded the impact of its operations in certain foreign locations from the overall effective tax rate methodology and recorded them discretely based upon year-to-date results because the Company anticipates net operating losses for the full fiscal year in these jurisdictions. The Company does not anticipate a significant change in unrecognized tax benefits during the remainder of fiscal 2018.

Note 9: Earnings Per Share

The components of basic and diluted earnings per share were as follows:

	Three months ended		Nine months ended
	December 31,		December 31,
	2017	2016	2017	2016
Net (loss) earnings attributable to Modine	$ (28.3)	$ 1.7	$ 4.6	$ 6.2

Net (loss) earnings per share - diluted	$ (0.57)	$ 0.04	$ 0.09	$ 0.13

For both the three and nine months ended December 31, 2017, the calculation of diluted earnings per share excluded 0.2 million stock options because they were anti-dilutive. For the three and nine months ended December 31, 2016, the calculation of diluted earnings per share excluded 0.9 million and 1.0 million stock options, respectively, because they were anti-dilutive. For the three months ended December 31, 2017, the total number of potentially dilutive securities was 1.1 million. However, these securities were not included in the computation of diluted net loss per share since to do so would have decreased the loss per share.

At December 31, 2017 and March 31, 2017, the Company had $22.7 million and $40.4 million, respectively, of short-term borrowings under its $175.0 million multi-currency revolving credit facility, which expires in November 2021. At December 31, 2017, domestic letters of credit totaled $3.9 million, resulting in available capacity under the Company's revolving credit facility of $148.4 million. The Company also maintains credit agreements for its foreign subsidiaries, with outstanding short-term borrowings at December 31, 2017 and March 31, 2017 of $30.8 million and $33.0 million, respectively. At December 31, 2017, the Company's foreign unused lines of credit totaled $20.4 million. In aggregate, the Company had total available lines of credit of $168.8 million at December 31, 2017.

Provisions in the Company's amended and restated credit agreement, Senior Note agreements, and various foreign credit agreements require the Company to maintain compliance with various covenants and include certain cross-default clauses. Under its primary debt agreements in the U.S., the Company has provided liens on substantially all domestic assets. In addition, the term loans require prepayments, as defined in the credit agreement, in the event the Company's annual excess cash flow exceeds defined levels or in the event of certain asset sales. The Company is also subject to leverage ratio covenants, the most restrictive of which requires the Company to limit its consolidated indebtedness, less a portion of its cash balance, both as defined by the credit agreements, to no more than three and one-quarter times consolidated net earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization, and certain other adjustments ("Adjusted EBITDA"). The Company is also subject to an interest expense coverage ratio covenant, which requires the Company to maintain Adjusted EBITDA of at least three times consolidated interest expense. The Company was in compliance with its debt covenants as of December 31, 2017.

The Company estimates the fair value of long-term debt using discounted future cash flows at rates offered to the Company for similar debt instruments of comparable maturities. At December 31, 2017 and March 31, 2017, the carrying value of the Company's long-term debt approximated fair value, with the exception of the Senior Notes, which had an aggregate fair value of approximately $159.0 million and $170.0 million, respectively. The fair value of the Company's long-term debt is categorized as Level 2 within the fair value hierarchy. Refer to Note 3 for the definition of a Level 2 fair value measurement.

Note 15: Contingencies and Litigation

Environmental

The United States Environmental Protection Agency has designated the Company as a potentially responsible party for remediation of three sites. These sites are: Auburn Incinerator, Inc./Lake Calumet Cluster (Illinois), Cam-Or (Indiana) and a scrap metal site known as Chemetco (Illinois). In addition, Modine is voluntarily participating in the care of an inactive landfill owned by the City of Trenton (Missouri). These sites are not Company-owned; however, they allegedly contain materials attributable to Modine from past operations. The percentage of material allegedly attributable to Modine is relatively low. Remediation of these sites is in various stages of administrative or judicial proceedings and includes recovery of past governmental costs and the costs of future investigations and remedial actions. The Company accrues for costs anticipated for the remedial settlement of the sites listed above if they are probable and can be reasonably determined. Costs anticipated for the remedial settlement of the sites listed above that are not probable or cannot be reasonably determined at this time have not been accrued; however, the Company does not believe any potential costs would be material to the Company's financial position due to its relatively small portion of contributed materials.

The Company has recorded environmental accruals for obligations assumed as a result of its recent acquisition of Luvata HTS, the most significant of which relates to historical soil and groundwater contamination remediation and monitoring for a manufacturing site in the United States. In addition, the Company has recorded environmental investigation and remediation accruals related to subsurface contamination at its former manufacturing facility in the Netherlands, investigative and remedial work related to a previously-owned manufacturing facility in the United States, and groundwater contamination at its manufacturing facility in Brazil, along with accruals for lesser environmental matters at certain other facilities in the United States. These accruals generally relate to facilities where past operations followed practices and procedures that were considered acceptable under then-existing regulations, or where the Company is a successor to the obligations of prior owners, and current laws and regulations require investigative and/or remedial work to ensure sufficient environmental compliance. The accruals for these environmental matters totaled $17.0 million and $16.8 million at December 31, 2017 and March 31, 2017, respectively. As additional information becomes available, the Company will re-assess the liabilities related to these matters and revise the estimated accruals, if necessary. Based upon currently available information, the Company believes the ultimate outcome of these matters, individually and in the aggregate, will not have a material adverse effect on its financial position. However, these matters are subject to inherent uncertainties, and unfavorable outcomes could occur, including significant monetary damages.

Brazil Antitrust Investigation

As of March 31, 2017, the Company accrued $4.7 million related to alleged violations of Brazil's antitrust regulations. During the first quarter of fiscal 2018, the Company paid $4.7 million to Brazil's Administrative Council for Economic Defense to settle this matter.

Other Litigation

In the normal course of business, the Company and its subsidiaries are named as defendants in various other lawsuits and enforcement proceedings by private parties, governmental agencies and/or others in which claims are asserted against Modine. In the opinion of management, the liabilities, if any, which may ultimately result from such lawsuits or proceedings are not expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position.

The Company acquired Luvata HTS on November 30, 2016 and began operating the business as its CIS segment. As the Company has consolidated CIS financial results since the acquisition date, the three and nine months ended December 31, 2016 included one month of financial results from CIS operations. During the three months ended (a) December 31, 2017, the Company recorded restructuring expenses and an impairment charge totaling $9.5 million within the CIS segment associated with the closure of a manufacturing facility in Austria. See Note 6 for additional information.

(b) The decrease in total assets at Corporate was primarily due to a decrease in deferred tax assets resulting from the impact of tax reform in the U.S. See Note 8 for additional information regarding the reduction in the corporate tax rate in the U.S.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

When we use the terms “Modine,” “we,” “us,” the “Company,” or “our” in this report, we are referring to Modine Manufacturing Company. Our fiscal year ends on March 31 and, accordingly, all references to quarters refer to our fiscal quarters. The quarter ended December 31, 2017 was the third quarter of fiscal 2018.

On November 30, 2016, we acquired Luvata Heat Transfer Solutions (“Luvata HTS”) for consideration totaling $415.6 million ($388.2 million, net of cash acquired). Operating as our Commercial and Industrial Solutions (“CIS”) segment, this business is a leading global supplier of coils, coolers and coatings to the heating, ventilation, air conditioning, and refrigeration industry. As we have consolidated CIS financial results since the acquisition date, the third quarter of fiscal 2017 included one month of financial results from CIS operations.

In December 2017, the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (“U.S. tax reform”) was enacted and included numerous changes to existing U.S. tax regulations, including U.S. corporate tax rates, business deductions, and taxes on income in foreign jurisdictions. During the third quarter of fiscal 2018, we recorded provisional charges totaling $35.7 million for certain income tax effects of the U.S. tax reform. See Note 8 of the Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

Third Quarter Highlights

Net sales in the third quarter of fiscal 2018 increased $162.9 million, or 47 percent, from the third quarter of fiscal 2017, primarily due to a $110.2 million increase in sales in our CIS segment, which we owned for one month in the third quarter of the prior year, and higher sales in all of our other operating segments. Gross profit increased $26.4 million, including $14.2 million of additional contribution from our CIS segment. Selling, general and administrative (“SG&A”) expenses increased $10.1 million, primarily due to a $9.0 million increase of SG&A expenses in our CIS segment. Restructuring expenses increased $7.8 million, primarily due to severance expenses related to the recent closure of a manufacturing facility in Austria within the CIS segment. In addition, we recorded a $1.3 million asset impairment charge related to this CIS Austria facility. Operating income during the third quarter of fiscal 2018 increased $7.2 million to $13.9 million. Our net loss of $27.9 million represents a $29.8 million decline compared with the third quarter of the prior year, primarily due to $35.7 million of charges associated with U.S. tax reform, partially offset by the increase in operating income.

Year-to-Date Highlights

Net sales in the first nine months of fiscal 2018 increased $521.8 million, or 51 percent, from the same period last year, primarily due to $416.9 million of additional sales from our CIS segment and higher sales in all of our other operating segments. Gross profit increased $90.7 million, including $62.0 million of additional contribution from our CIS segment. SG&A expenses increased $39.1 million, primarily due to a $37.9 million increase in SG&A expenses in our CIS segment. Operating income during the first nine months of fiscal 2018 increased $43.6 million to $65.0 million. Our net earnings of $5.8 million decreased $1.0 million compared with the same period in the prior year, primarily due to $35.7 million of charges associated with U.S. tax reform and higher interest expense, partially offset by the increase in operating income.

Comparison of Three Months Ended December 31, 2017 and 2016

Third quarter net sales of $512.7 million were $162.9 million, or 47 percent, higher than the third quarter of the prior year, primarily due to $110.2 million of additional sales from our CIS segment, which we owned for one month in the third quarter of the prior year, higher sales in all of our other operating segments, and a $15.9 million favorable impact of foreign currency exchange rate changes.

Third quarter gross profit increased $26.4 million, primarily due to $14.2 million of additional contribution from our CIS segment and higher gross profit in our Building HVAC, Americas, and Asia segments. Third quarter gross profit was favorably impacted by $2.1 million from foreign currency exchange rate changes. Gross margin declined 20 basis points to 16.7 percent, as the benefits from higher sales volume and the absence of a $2.9 million inventory purchase accounting adjustment, which was recorded at Corporate in the prior year, were offset by unfavorable sales mix, higher material costs, and the absence of favorable customer pricing settlements in Europe recorded in the prior year.

SG&A expenses increased $10.1 million from the third quarter of fiscal 2017 to the third quarter of fiscal 2018, primarily due to a $9.0 million increase in SG&A expenses in our CIS segment, a $1.4 million unfavorable impact of foreign currency exchange rate changes, and higher compensation-related expenses, partially offset by lower costs incurred related to the acquisition of Luvata HTS. SG&A expenses, as a percentage of net sales, decreased 260 basis points compared with the third quarter of the prior year.

Restructuring expenses of $9.4 million in the third quarter of fiscal 2018 increased $7.8 million compared with the prior year, primarily due to severance-related expenses in the CIS segment related to the closure of a manufacturing facility in Austria.

During the third quarter of fiscal 2018, we recorded a $1.3 million impairment charge related to the closure of a CIS manufacturing facility in Austria.

Operating income of $13.9 million in the third quarter of fiscal 2018 improved $7.2 million compared with the third quarter of fiscal 2017, primarily due to higher earnings in the Americas, Asia and Building HVAC segments.

Interest expense increased $1.8 million to $6.3 million in the third quarter of fiscal 2018, primarily due to the debt issued in November 2016 to finance a significant portion of our acquisition of Luvata HTS.

Table of Contents

The provision for income taxes was $35.2 million in the third quarter of fiscal 2018, compared with a benefit for income taxes of $0.7 million in the third quarter of fiscal 2017. The $35.9 million change was primarily due to charges totaling $35.7 million in the third quarter of fiscal 2018 related to the recently-enacted U.S. tax reform. In addition, the tax provision in the third quarter of fiscal 2018 included a $2.2 million benefit from a development tax credit in Hungary.

Comparison of Nine Months Ended December 31, 2017 and 2016

Fiscal 2018 year-to-date net sales of $1,536.5 million were $521.8 million, or 51 percent, higher than the same period last year, primarily due to $416.9 million of additional sales from our CIS segment, higher sales in all of our other segments, and an $18.7 million favorable impact of foreign currency exchange rate changes.

Fiscal 2018 year-to-date gross profit of $260.0 million increased $90.7 million from the same period last year, due primarily to $62.0 million of incremental gross profit in our recently-acquired CIS segment and higher gross profit in our Americas, Asia, and Building HVAC segments. Year-to-date gross profit was favorably impacted by $2.4 million from foreign currency exchange rate changes. Gross margin improved 20 basis points to 16.9 percent, primarily due to higher sales volume and improved production efficiencies, partially offset by unfavorable material costs and incremental depreciation and amortization expense resulting from purchase accounting for Luvata HTS.

Fiscal 2018 year-to-date SG&A expenses increased $39.1 million from the same period last year, primarily due to a $37.9 million increase in SG&A expenses in our CIS segment, higher compensation-related expenses, and a $1.5 million unfavorable impact of foreign currency exchange rate changes, partially offset by lower costs incurred related to the acquisition of Luvata HTS. SG&A expenses, as a percentage of net sales, decreased 220 basis points compared with the same period last year.

Restructuring expenses of $11.5 million during the first nine months of fiscal 2018 increased $5.5 million compared with the same period last year, primarily due to severance-related expenses in the CIS segment related to the closure of a manufacturing facility in Austria.

During fiscal 2018, we recorded a $1.3 million impairment charge related to the closure of the CIS manufacturing facility in Austria.

During fiscal 2017, we sold a manufacturing facility within our Europe segment for cash proceeds of $4.3 million and recognized a $1.2 million gain as a result.

Operating income of $65.0 million during the first nine months of fiscal 2018 represents a $43.6 million improvement compared with same period last year, primarily due to $14.6 million of incremental operating income contributed by our CIS segment and higher earnings in the Americas, Asia and Building HVAC segments.

Interest expense increased $9.0 million to $19.5 million in the first nine months of fiscal 2018, primarily due to debt issued to finance a significant portion of our acquisition of Luvata HTS.

The provision for income taxes was $37.4 million and $1.3 million in the first nine months of fiscal 2018 and 2017, respectively. The $36.1 million increase was primarily due to $35.7 million of charges recorded in the third quarter of fiscal 2018 related to U.S. tax reform and increased operating earnings in the current year, partially offset by tax benefits of $7.9 million from a development tax credit in Hungary and a $1.8 million reduction of unrecognized tax benefits resulting from a lapse in statutes of limitations. We expect the full-year fiscal 2018 benefit for the Hungary development tax credit to total approximately $11.0 million. We do not expect the impact of this tax credit to be significant in fiscal 2019. It is possible that we may release the tax valuation allowance (approximately $3.0 million) in a foreign jurisdiction in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2018 or in fiscal 2019. See Note 8 of the Notes to Condensed

Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information regarding U.S. tax reform and income tax valuation allowances.

Table of ContentsSEGMENT RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Since the date we acquired Luvata HTS (November 30, 2016), we have included CIS segment financial results within our consolidated results of operations. As CIS financial results were not included in our consolidated financial statements for the full period during the three and nine months ended December 31, 2016, we have not provided separate discussion of our CIS segment below. The contributions of our CIS segment are included within the discussion of our consolidated financial results above. The following is a discussion of our segment results of operations for the three and nine months ended December 31, 2017 and 2016:

Comparison of Three Months Ended December 31, 2017 and 2016

Americas net sales increased $17.1 million, or 14 percent, from the third quarter of fiscal 2017 to the third quarter of fiscal 2018, primarily due to higher sales volume to commercial vehicle, off-highway, and automotive customers. Gross profit increased $3.3 million and gross margin improved 50 basis points, primarily due to higher sales volume and improved production efficiencies, partially offset by unfavorable material costs. SG&A expenses increased $1.4 million, primarily due to a lower recovery of development costs and higher compensation-related expenses. Restructuring expenses decreased $1.3 million in the third quarter of fiscal 2018, primarily due to lower plant consolidation costs. Operating income increased $3.2 million to $8.9 million, primarily due to higher gross profit.

Comparison of Nine Months Ended December 31, 2017 and 2016

Americas year-to-date net sales increased $41.3 million, or 11 percent, from the same period last year, primarily due to higher sales volume to off-highway and commercial vehicle customers, increased aftermarket sales in Brazil, and a $2.0 million favorable impact of foreign currency exchange rate changes. Gross profit increased $10.2 million and gross margin improved 90 basis points, primarily due to higher sales volume and improved production efficiencies, partially offset by unfavorable material costs. SG&A expenses decreased $0.8 million, primarily due to the absence of a $1.6 million charge recorded in the prior year related to a legal matter in Brazil, which has since been settled and paid, partially offset by legal costs incurred for an environmental matter associated with a previously-owned manufacturing facility. Restructuring expenses decreased $3.6 million, primarily due to lower plant consolidation and severance expenses. Operating income increased $14.6 million to $28.8 million, primarily due to higher gross profit and lower restructuring expenses.

Europe net sales increased $14.8 million, or 12 percent, from the third quarter of fiscal 2017 to the third quarter of fiscal 2018, primarily due to an $11.1 million favorable impact of foreign currency exchange rate changes and higher sales volume to automotive and off-highway customers. Gross profit decreased $0.7 million and gross margin declined 220 basis points to 13.3 percent, primarily due to the absence of favorable customer pricing settlements recorded in the prior year. In addition, gross profit was favorably impacted by $1.4 million from foreign currency exchange rate changes. SG&A expenses increased $0.6 million, primarily due to a $0.9 million unfavorable impact of foreign currency exchange rate changes. Restructuring expenses increased $1.0 million in the third quarter of fiscal 2018, primarily due to higher severance expenses. Operating income of $6.3 million decreased $2.3 million, primarily due to higher restructuring expenses and lower gross profit.

Comparison of Nine Months Ended December 31, 2017 and 2016

Europe year-to-date net sales increased $15.7 million, or 4 percent, from the same period last year, primarily due to a $14.6 million favorable impact of foreign currency exchange rate changes and higher sales volume to off-highway and automotive customers, partially offset by the planned wind-down of certain commercial vehicle programs. Gross profit decreased $3.5 million and gross margin declined 150 basis points to 14.0 percent, primarily due to unfavorable material costs and the absence of the favorable customer pricing settlements recorded in the prior year, partially offset by improved production efficiencies. In addition, gross profit was favorably impacted by $2.0 million from foreign currency exchange rate changes. SG&A expenses increased $1.5 million, primarily due to a $1.1 million unfavorable impact of foreign currency exchange rate changes and higher compensation-related expenses. Restructuring expenses increased $1.9 million, primarily due to higher severance expenses and equipment transfer costs. During fiscal 2017, we sold a manufacturing facility for cash proceeds of $4.3 million and recorded a $1.2 million gain as a result. Operating income of $22.8 million decreased $8.1 million, primarily due to lower gross profit and higher restructuring and SG&A expenses.

Comparison of Three Months Ended December 31, 2017 and 2016

Asia net sales increased $14.2 million, or 50 percent, from the third quarter of fiscal 2017 to the third quarter of fiscal 2018, primarily due to higher sales volume to off-highway customers in all geographic markets and automotive customers in China and India. Foreign currency exchange rate changes favorably impacted third quarter net sales by $1.5 million. Gross profit increased $3.2 million and gross margin improved 140 basis points to 19.0 percent, primarily due to higher sales volume. SG&A expenses increased by $0.7 million compared with the prior year, yet decreased 110 basis points as a percentage of sales. The increase in SG&A expenses was primarily due to higher compensation-related expenses incurred in support of the recent business growth. Operating income of $5.1 million increased $2.5 million, primarily due to higher gross profit.

Comparison of Nine Months Ended December 31, 2017 and 2016

Asia year-to-date net sales increased $39.5 million, or 51 percent, from the same period last year, primarily due to higher sales volume to off-highway customers in all geographic markets and automotive customers in China and India. Gross profit increased $8.8 million and gross margin improved 190 basis points to 18.6 percent, primarily due to higher sales volume. SG&A expenses increased by $1.1 million compared with the prior year, yet decreased 250 basis points as a percentage of sales. The increase in SG&A expenses was primarily due to higher compensation-related expenses. Operating income of $12.6 million increased $7.7 million, primarily due to higher gross profit.

Comparison of Three Months Ended December 31, 2017 and 2016

Building HVAC net sales increased $8.9 million, or 19 percent, from the third quarter of fiscal 2017 to the third quarter of fiscal 2018, primarily due to higher ventilation and heating product sales in North America, higher ventilation product sales in the U.K., and a $1.3 million favorable impact of foreign currency exchange rate changes. Gross profit increased $3.7 million and gross margin improved 140 basis points to 33.8 percent, primarily due to higher sales volume, favorable sales mix, and improved production efficiencies in the U.K. SG&A expenses increased $1.3 million, yet decreased 60 basis points as a percentage of sales, primarily due to higher compensation-related expenses, including commission expenses resulting from the increased sales. Operating income of $9.2 million increased $2.5 million, primarily due to higher gross profit, partially offset by higher SG&A expenses.

Comparison of Nine Months Ended December 31, 2017 and 2016

Building HVAC year-to-date net sales increased $15.1 million, or 11 percent, from the same period last year, primarily due to higher ventilation and heating product sales in North America, partially offset by a $0.9 million unfavorable impact of foreign currency exchange rate changes. Gross profit increased $7.9 million and gross margin improved 240 basis points to 30.4 percent, primarily due to higher sales volume. SG&A expenses increased $0.4 million, yet decreased 180 basis points as a percentage of sales. Restructuring expenses decreased $0.7 million due to the absence of severance expenses incurred in the prior year. Operating income of $18.6 million increased $8.2 million, primarily due to higher gross profit.

Table of Contents

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our primary sources of liquidity are cash flow from operating activities, our cash and cash equivalents at December 31, 2017 of $47.8 million, and an available borrowing capacity of $168.8 million under lines of credit provided by banks in the United States and abroad. Given our extensive international operations, approximately $46.0 million of our cash and cash equivalents are held by our non-U.S. subsidiaries. Amounts held by non-U.S. subsidiaries are available for general corporate use; however, these funds may be subject to foreign withholding taxes if repatriated. We have not encountered, and do not expect to encounter, any difficulty meeting the liquidity requirements of our global operations.

Net cash provided by operating activities for the nine months ended December 31, 2017 was $105.6 million, which was a $70.6 million increase compared with the same period in the prior year. This increase in operating cash flow primarily resulted from an increase in operating earnings, including contributions from our CIS segment, lower payments for restructuring expenses and costs associated with the acquisition and integration of Luvata HTS in the current year, and favorable net changes in working capital. Capital expenditures of $55.0 million during the first nine months of fiscal 2018 increased $9.0 million compared with the same period in the prior year, primarily due to capital expenditures by our recently-acquired CIS segment, equipment purchases to expand our manufacturing capacity in China, and tooling and equipment purchases to support new product launches.

Debt

Our debt agreements require us to maintain compliance with various covenants. The term loans require prepayments, as defined in the credit agreement, in the event our annual excess cash flow exceeds defined levels or in the event of certain asset sales. In addition, under our primary debt agreements in the U.S., we are subject to leverage ratio covenants, the most restrictive of which requires us to limit our consolidated indebtedness, less a portion of our cash balance, both as defined by the credit agreement, to no more than three and one-quarter times consolidated net earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization, and certain other adjustments (“Adjusted EBITDA”). We are also subject to an interest expense coverage ratio covenant, which requires us to maintain Adjusted EBITDA of at least three times consolidated interest expense. At December 31, 2017, our leverage ratio and interest coverage ratio was 2.5 and 7.9, respectively. We were in compliance with our debt covenants as of December 31, 2017 and expect to remain in compliance during the balance of fiscal 2018 and beyond.

Shelf Registration Statement

We filed a shelf registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which was declared effective as of June 26, 2017. The shelf registration statement allows us to offer and sell, from time to time, shares of our common stock and certain other equity or debt securities in one or more offerings in amounts, at prices and on terms that we determine at the time of any such offering, with an aggregate initial offering price of up to $200.0 million.

Contractual Obligations

Other than the transition tax liability recorded as a result of U.S. tax reform, as discussed in Note 8 of the Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements, there have not been any material changes in the Company’s contractual obligations since March 31, 2017, as reported in Item 7. in Part II. of the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Forward-Looking Statements

This report, including, but not limited to, the discussion under Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, contains statements, including information about future financial performance, accompanied by phrases such as "believes," "estimates," "expects," "plans," "anticipates," "intends," and other similar "forward-looking" statements, as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Modine's actual results, performance or achievements may differ materially from those expressed or implied in these statements, because of certain risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, those described under "Risk Factors" in Item 1A. in Part I. of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended March 31, 2017. Other risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the following:

Market Risks:

Economic, social and political conditions, changes, challenges and unrest, particularly in the geographic, product and financial markets where we and our customers operate and compete, including, in particular, foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations, tariffs, inflation, changes in interest rates, recession and recovery therefrom, restrictions and uncertainty associated with cross-border trade, and, in particular, the continuing recovery and/or instability of certain markets in which we operate in China and North America, and the general uncertainties about the impact of regulatory and/or policy changes, including those related to tax and trade, that have been or may be implemented in the United States, as well as continuing uncertainty regarding the longer-term implications of "Brexit";

The impact of potential increases in commodity prices, including our ability to successfully manage our exposure and/or pass increasing prices of aluminum, copper, steel and stainless steel (nickel) on to customers, as well as the inherent lag in timing of such pass-through arrangements; and

The impact of current and future environmental laws and regulations on our business and the businesses of our customers, including our ability to take advantage of opportunities to supply alternative new technologies to meet environmental and/or energy standards and objectives.

Operational Risks:

Our ability to integrate the former Luvata HTS operations into Modine, realize cost and revenue synergies in accordance with our expectations, and effectively manage any unanticipated risks that arise, while also maintaining stability within the acquired business and appropriate focus on the rest of Modine's business;

The overall health and continually increasing price-down focus of our vehicular customers in light of economic and market-specific factors, and the potential impact on us from any deterioration in the stability or performance of any of our major customers;

Our ability to maintain current customer programs and compete effectively for new business, including our ability to offset or otherwise address increasing pricing pressures from competitors and price reduction and overall service pressures from customers, particularly in the face of macro-economic instability;

Unanticipated product or manufacturing difficulties or inefficiencies, including unanticipated program launch and product transfer challenges and warranty claims;

Unanticipated delays or modifications initiated by major customers with respect to product launches, product applications or requirements;

Table of Contents

Unanticipated problems with suppliers meeting our time, quantity, quality and price demands, and the overall health of our suppliers, particularly in light of continuing economic challenges in some areas of the world in which we and our suppliers operate;

Our ability to consistently structure our operations in order to develop and maintain a competitive cost base with appropriately skilled and stable labor, while also positioning ourselves geographically, so that we can continue to support our customers with the technical expertise and market-leading products they demand and expect from Modine;

Costs and other effects of the investigation and remediation of environmental contamination; particularly when related to the actions or inactions of others and/or facilities over which we have no control;

Increasingly complex and restrictive laws and regulations, including those associated with being a U.S. public company and others present in various jurisdictions in which we operate, and the costs associated with compliance therewith;

Work stoppages or interference at our facilities or those of our major customers and/or suppliers;

The constant and increasing pressures associated with healthcare and associated insurance costs; and

Costs and other effects of unanticipated litigation, claims, or other obligations.

Strategic Risks:

Our ability to successfully take advantage of our increased presence in the “industrial” markets, with our Commercial and Industrial Solutions and Building HVAC businesses, while maintaining appropriate focus on the market opportunities presented by our vehicular business; and

Our ability to identify and execute additional growth and diversification opportunities in order to position us for long-term success.

Financial Risks:

Our ability to fund our global liquidity requirements efficiently for Modine’s current operations, particularly those in our Asia business segment, and meet our long-term commitments in the event of an unexpected disruption in or tightening of the credit markets or extended recessionary conditions in the global economy;

The impact of potential increases in interest rates, particularly in LIBOR and EURIBOR in relation to our variable-rate debt obligations;

Our ability to maintain our leverage ratio (net debt divided by Adjusted EBITDA, as defined in our credit agreements) in our target range of 1.5 to 2.5 in an efficient manner;

Costs arising from the integration of Luvata HTS;

The impact of foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations, particularly the value of the euro, Brazilian real, and British pound, relative to the U.S. dollar;

The effects of the recently-enacted U.S. tax reform legislation on our business, some of which are uncertain and may be material; and

·Our ability to effectively realize the benefits of tax assets in various jurisdictions in which we operate.

In addition to the risks set forth above, we are subject to other risks and uncertainties as identified in our public filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. We do not assume any obligation to update any forward-looking statements.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk.

The Company's quantitative and qualitative disclosures about market risk are incorporated by reference from Part II, Item 7A. of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended March 31, 2017. The Company's market risks have not materially changed since the fiscal 2017 Form 10-K was filed.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures.

Evaluation Regarding Disclosure Controls and Procedures

As of the end of the period covered by this quarterly report on Form 10-Q, the Company carried out an evaluation under the supervision of the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer and Vice President, Finance and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures as defined in Securities Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e), with the participation of the Company's management. Based upon that evaluation, the President and Chief Executive Officer and Vice President, Finance and Chief Financial Officer concluded that the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective as of December 31, 2017.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

As part of its post-closing integration activities for the Luvata HTS acquisition, the Company is engaged in assessing, refining and harmonizing the internal controls and processes of the acquired business with those of the Company. This customary integration-related process has resulted in a change in the Company's internal control over financial reporting during the third quarter of fiscal 2018 that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.
