Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 28, 2019, Tronox Holdings plc, a public limited company incorporated under the laws of England and Wales (the “Company”), Tronox Limited, an Australian public limited company incorporated in the Commonwealth of Australia and a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (“Tronox Limited”), The National Titanium Dioxide Company Ltd., a limited company organized under the laws of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia (“Cristal”), and Cristal Inorganic Chemicals Netherlands Coöperatief W.A., a cooperative organized under the laws of the Netherlands and a wholly owned subsidiary of Cristal (“Seller”), entered into Amendment No. 2 to Transaction Agreement (the “Second Amendment”), which amends the Transaction Agreement, dated as of February 21, 2017, by and among Tronox Limited, Cristal and Seller (the “Original Transaction Agreement”), as previously amended by the Amendment No. 1 to Transaction Agreement, dated as of March 1, 2018, by and among Tronox Limited, Cristal and Seller (the “First Amendment” and, together with the Original Transaction Agreement, the “First Amended Transaction Agreement” and, as further amended by the Second Amendment, the “Second Amended Transaction Agreement”).

The Second Amendment modifies the First Amended Transaction Agreement to reflect the completion of Tronox Limited’s re-domicile transaction on March 27, 2019 (the “Re-Domicile Transaction”), which effectively changed the jurisdiction of incorporation of the publicly traded parent company of the Tronox group of companies from Australia to the United Kingdom.

In order to account for the completion of the Re-Domicile Transaction, the Second Amendment provides for the Company to issue 37,580,000 ordinary shares, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the “New Consideration Shares”) to GTU Ops Inc., in its capacity as custodian and nominee of Seller, in lieu of Tronox Limited issuing 37,580,000 Class A ordinary shares of Tronox Limited to Seller at the closing of the Transaction, as contemplated by the First Amended Transaction Agreement. The Second Amendment further provides for Seller to receive depository receipts issued by Computershare Trust Company, N.A., as depository, in respect of the New Consideration Shares, and includes certain new and revised representations and warranties made by Tronox Limited in the First Amended Transaction Agreement to reflect the completion of the Re-Domicile Transaction. The Second Amendment gives effect to these changes by attaching a modified version of the Original Transaction Agreement as an annex to the Second Amendment reflecting the foregoing changes.

In addition, the Company, Tronox Limited, Cristal and Seller agreed to modify the form of shareholders agreement that the parties agreed to execute at the closing of the Transaction pursuant to the First Amended Transaction Agreement to reflect that the rights of Seller as a holder of the New Consideration Shares will be the rights of Seller as a shareholder of the Company, rather than Tronox Limited, following the Re-Domicile Transaction.

Completion of the transactions contemplated by the Second Amended Transaction Agreement (the “Transaction”) remains subject to various customary closing conditions as set forth in the Second Amended Transaction Agreement, including receipt of regulatory clearance from the U.S. Federal Trade Commission.

Other than as expressly modified pursuant to the Second Amendment, the First Amended Transaction Agreement remains in full force and effect. The foregoing description of the Second Amendment does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Second Amendment, which is filed herewith as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
