Item 8.01. Other Events

On September 5, 2006, UNIPRO Financial Service, Inc.'s ("Company"), board of directors unanimously approved a combination of the Company's authorized and issued capital stock. Pursuant to the combination, the Company's stock will undertake a 1:5 reverse stock split. Each holder of the Company's capital stock will exchange 5 shares in return for 1 share. The Company's authorized but unissued shares shall also be subject to the combination. The exchange will take place via the Company's transfer agent without any additional action being required by the Company's stockholders. No fractional shares shall be issued. In the event a holder would be entitled to receive a fractional share, the number of shares to be received will be rounded up to the next full share. The board of directors has chosen September 14, 2006, or as soon as practical thereafter, as the effective day of the split.

Pursuant to Florida Business Corporation Act Section 607.10025, the combination does not require shareholder approval.

SIGNATURES
