Item 8.01 Other Events.

Recent Developments

We plan to amend our 2007 Credit Facility with Comerica Bank. In conjunction with this amendment, we plan to repay the outstanding principal balance on the 2007 Credit Facility by using $17,500,000 of our cash balance that is on deposit with Comerica, and any needed amount beyond that from our working capital. After the amendment, our credit facility with Comerica will have a limit of $1 million, subject to our obligation to maintain cash as collateral for any borrowings we incur or any letters of credit issued on our behalf. The amendment will also eliminate the asset-based line of credit from our credit facility. We are currently in discussions with lending institutions regarding a replacement asset-based line of credit facility.

Among other recent events affecting the overall market for solar power systems, there has been a pronounced softening in the price of solar panels, including a decrease in the price at which we are able to obtain solar panels from our suppliers. We will take a non-cash charge of approximately $2.6 million in the fourth quarter of 2008 as the result of a write down to market value of our inventory of solar panels acquired in late 2008.

In late 2008, one of our customers that is a power purchase company lost the project funding it had arranged for a commercial construction project on which we are the solar system installation contractor. Our work on that project is approximately three-quarters completed. Our customer has not made the second scheduled payment to us. Given the current uncertainty regarding this project, we expect to take a non-cash charge of approximately $963,000 in the fourth quarter of 2008 as a reserve against our receivable balance on the project. We continue to pursue our discussions with the counterparties and to take legal recourse to obtain full payment.

We have taken recent cost reduction measures, including a reduction in force and the closure of our Connecticut office. We are eliminating approximately 45 positions, or approximately 25% of our current workforce, and reducing the regular hours and salaries of our remaining workforce by 10%. We believe these measures will adjust our capacity to a level that reflects our current customer demand and improving sales, design and installation efficiency. In 2008, we derived less than 8% of our revenue from the region supported by the Connecticut office. We believe we can address the Northeastern market more cost effectively by distributing our Andalay product to other systems integrators in the region, and without continuing to have an office location that provides installation services in that region. We expect these changes to result in a significant reduction in our monthly operating expenses, as well as a corresponding reduction in the level of revenue we need to become break-even on the basis of our continuing operations. However even after these changes, we anticipate that we will continue to sustain losses in the near term, and we cannot assure investors that we will be successful in reaching break-even.

Fourth Quarter and 2009 Financial Results
