Note 1 - Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(A) Description of the Business

Propell Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“Propell” or the “Company”) is an e-commerce and fulfillment provider of image-based personalized products and services.

(B) Basis of Presentation & Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying unaudited financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and the rules and regulations of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all the information and footnotes necessary for a comprehensive presentation of financial position, results of operations, or cash flows. It is management's opinion, however, that all material adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments) have been made which are necessary for a fair financial statement presentation. The results for the interim period are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

The unaudited interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010, which contains the audited financial statements and notes thereto, together with the Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operation, for the period ended December 31, 2010. The interim results for the period ended September 30, 2011 are not necessarily indicative of results for the full fiscal year.

All significant inter-company accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

(C) Use of Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. Such estimates and assumptions impact, among others, the following: the amount allocated to goodwill and other intangible assets, the estimated useful lives for amortizable intangible assets and property, plant and equipment, the fair value of warrants and stock options granted for services or compensation, respectively, estimates of the probability and potential magnitude of contingent liabilities and the valuation allowance for deferred tax assets due to continuing operating losses.

Making estimates requires management to exercise significant judgment. It is at least reasonably possible that the estimate of the effect of a condition, situation or set of circumstances that existed at the date of the consolidated financial statements, which management considered in formulating its estimate could change in the near term due to one or more future confirming events. Accordingly, the actual results could differ significantly from our estimates.

(D) Accounts Receivable and Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

Accounts receivable are reported at realizable value, net of allowances for doubtful accounts, which is estimated and recorded in the period the related revenue is recorded. The Company has a standardized approach to estimate and review the collectability of its receivables based on a number of factors, including the period they have been outstanding. Historical collection and payer reimbursement experience is an integral part of the estimation process related to allowances for doubtful accounts. In addition, the Company regularly assesses the state of its billing operations in order to identify issues, which may impact the collectability of these receivables or reserve estimates. Revisions to the allowances for doubtful accounts estimates are recorded as an adjustment to bad debt expense. Receivables deemed uncollectible are charged against the allowance for doubtful accounts at the time such receivables are written-off. Recoveries of receivables previously written-off are recorded as credits to the allowance for doubtful accounts. There were no recoveries during the three or nine months ended September 30, 2011.

(E) Revenue Recognition

The Company records revenue when all of the following have occurred: (1) persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, (2) the service is completed without further obligation, (3) the sales price to the customer is fixed or determinable, and (4) collectability is reasonably assured.

The Company primarily recognizes revenue for services rendered upon completion of the order.

(F) Risks and Uncertainties

The Company's operations will be subject to significant risk and uncertainties including financial, operational, regulatory and other risks associated, including the potential risk of business failure. The recent global economic crisis has caused a general tightening in the credit markets, lower levels of liquidity, increases in the rates of default and bankruptcy, and extreme volatility in credit, equity and fixed income markets. These conditions not only limit our access to capital, but also make it difficult for our customers, our vendors and us to accurately forecast and plan future business activities.

(G) Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents. At September 30, 2011 and December 31, 2010, respectively, the Company had no cash equivalents.

The Company minimizes credit risk associated with cash by periodically evaluating the credit quality of its primary financial institution. The balance at times may exceed federally insured limits. At September 30, 2011 and December 31, 2010, the balance exceeded the federally insured limit by $0 and $0, respectively.

(H) Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred. Items of property and equipment with costs greater than $1,000 are capitalized and depreciated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives, as follows:

Description	Estimated Useful Life
Office equipment and furniture	2 to 5 years
Leasehold improvements and fixtures	Lesser of estimated useful life or life of lease

(I) Inventory

Inventory is stated at cost using the FIFO (first in, first out) method.

(J) Long Lived Assets

Long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to future undiscounted net cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If such assets are considered impaired, the impairment to be recognized is measured by the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the fair value of the assets.

(K) Net Loss per Share

Basic earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing the net income (loss) less preferred dividends for the period by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. Diluted earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing net income (loss) less preferred dividends by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding including the effect of share equivalents. The Company's share equivalents consist of 5,029,000 stock options and 4,800,434 warrants. Since the Company reported a net loss for the nine months ended September 30, 2011 and the year ended December 31, 2010, all common stock equivalents would be anti-dilutive; as such there is no separate computation for diluted earnings per share.

(L) Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying amounts of the Company's short-term financial instruments, (including accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities) approximate fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity for these instruments.

(M) Share-Based Payment Arrangements

Generally, all forms of share-based payments, including stock option grants, restricted stock grants and stock appreciation rights are measured at their fair value on the awards' grant date, based on the estimated number of awards that are ultimately expected to vest. Share-based compensation awards issued to non-employees for services rendered are recorded at either the fair value of the services rendered or the fair value of the share-based payment, whichever is more readily determinable. The expense resulting from share-based payments are recorded in cost of goods sold or operating expenses in the consolidated statement of operations, depending on the nature of the services provided.

(N) Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2009, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued guidance now codified as FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 105, "Generally Accepted Accounting Principles," as the single source of authoritative non-governmental U.S. GAAP. FASB ASC Topic 105 does not change current U.S. GAAP, but is intended to simplify user access to all authoritative U.S. GAAP by providing all authoritative literature related to a particular topic in one place. All existing accounting standard documents will be superseded and all other accounting literature not included in the FASB Codification will be considered non-authoritative.

These provisions of FASB ASC Topic 105 were effective for interim and annual periods ending after September 15, 2009 and, accordingly, were effective for the current fiscal reporting period. The adoption of this pronouncement did not have an impact on our business, financial condition or results of operations, but will impact our financial reporting process by eliminating all references to pre-codification standards. On the effective date of FASB ASC Topic 105, the Codification superseded all then-existing non-SEC accounting and reporting standards, and all other non-grandfathered non-SEC accounting literature not included in the Codification became non-authoritative.

In January 2010, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued updated guidance to amend the disclosure requirements related to recurring and nonrecurring fair value measurements. This update requires new disclosures on significant transfers of assets and liabilities between Level 1 and Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy (including the reasons for these transfers) and the reasons for any transfers in or out of Level 3. This update also requires a reconciliation of recurring Level 3 measurements about purchases, sales, issuances and settlements on a gross basis. In addition to these new disclosure requirements, this update clarifies certain existing disclosure requirements. For example, this update clarifies that reporting entities are required to provide fair value measurement disclosures for each class of assets and liabilities rather than each major category of assets and liabilities. This update also clarifies the requirement for entities to disclose information about both the valuation techniques and inputs used in estimating Level 2 and Level 3 fair value measurements. This update became effective for the interim and annual reporting period beginning January 1, 2010, except for the requirement to provide the Level 3 activity of purchases, sales, issuances, and settlements on a gross basis, which will become effective for the interim and annual reporting period beginning January 1, 2011. We will not be required to provide the amended disclosures for any previous periods presented for comparative purposes. Other than requiring additional disclosures, adoption of this update does not have a material effect on our consolidated financial statements.

In June 2011, the FASB updated the accounting guidance on Topic 220, entitled "Comprehensive Income", relating to presentation of comprehensive income. This guidance requires companies to present total comprehensive income, the components of net income and the components of other comprehensive income, or OCI, either in a single continuous statement of comprehensive income or in two but consecutive statements. Additionally, companies are required to present on the face of the financial statements the reclassification adjustments that are reclassified from OCI to net income, where the components of net income and the components of OCI are presented. This guidance is effective beginning 2012. The adoption of this guidance is not expected to have a material impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

In June 2011, the FASB updated the accounting guidance on alignment of disclosures for GAAP and the International Financial Reporting Standards, or IFRS, by updating Topic 820 entitled "Amendments to Achieve Common Fair Value Measurement and Disclosure Requirements in U.S. GAAP and IFRS”, relating to presentation of fair value measurements reported in financial statements. The updated guidance requires companies to align fair value measurement and disclosure requirements between GAAP and IFRS. The updated guidance is effective beginning in 2012 year and earlier adoption is not permitted. The adoption of this guidance is not expected to have a material impact on the Company’s financial position or results of operations.

In September 2011, the FASB issued guidance in regard to goodwill impairment. The new guidance is intended to reduce the cost and complexity of the annual goodwill impairment test by providing entities with the option of performing a "qualitative" assessment to determine whether further impairment testing is necessary. An entity can choose to perform the qualitative assessment on none, some, or all of its reporting units. Moreover, an entity can bypass the qualitative assessment for any reporting unit in any period and proceed directly to step one of the impairment test, and then perform the qualitative assessment in any subsequent period. The new guidance is effective for annual and interim goodwill impairment tests performed for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2011, with early adoption permitted. The adoption of this guidance is not expected to have a material impact on the Company’s financial position or results of operations.

In 2009 and 2010 the Company borrowed $1,067,500 under the terms of a convertible note payable with Remington Partners. During the nine months ended September 30, 2011 the Company borrowed an additional $100,000 under the same note. Initially this note was convertible into shares of the Company's common stock at the lenders option at the lower of $0.27 per share or a twenty-five percent (25%) discount from the next issuance of common stock by the Company. The original note was due on February 28, 2010. In March 2010, the note was amended to change the due date to June 30, 2010 and the maximum amount of the Note was increased to $1 Million. In July, 2010, the Note holder notified the Company of its intention to convert the Note, upon the Company completing a financing of at least $1.5 million. In February 2011, the Note was amended to increase the maximum amount to $2.0 million, to change the due date to August 31, 2011 and to allow the Company the option to convert the Note once it has raised $500,000 in new equity. In October 2011, the note was again amended to change the due date to August 31, 2012. All other terms remained the same.

In June 2011, a lender sold $50,000 of a $100,000 unsecured note to Tripod Group, LLC (see notes payable, below). The Company subsequently renegotiated the terms of this note by reducing the interest rate to 6% per annum payable in Company stock; extending the due date to June 23, 2012; and adding a conversion feature whereby the holder may convert the note to shares in the Company at a price equal to 65% of the lowest closing bid price for any of the five trading days before the date of conversion. Through September 30, 2011, the Holder had exercised his right to convert $28,046 of the Note for 447,528 shares. The Company took a charge for imputed interest due to the debt conversion feature of $16,000 in the nine months ended September 30, 2011.

In June 2011, the Company borrowed $40,000 under a one year unsecured note with Prolific Group, LLC. Interest accrues on the note at the rate of 6% per annum payable in common stock of the Company. This note is convertible by the holder into common stock of the Company any time after December 7, 2011 at a price equal to 65% of the lowest closing bid price for any of the five trading days before the date of conversion. The note has no financial covenants.

In August and September 2011, the Company borrowed $53,000 and $32,500, respectively, from Asher Enterprises, Inc. Both notes accrue interest at the rate of 8% per annum. They are due on May 12, 2012 and June 12, 2012, respectively. Both notes are convertible by the holder after 180 days at 65% of the average of the lowest five closing bid prices in the ten trading day period before the conversion. The note has no financial covenants.

In June 2010, the Company borrowed $100,000 under a one year unsecured note from a shareholder. Interest accrued on the note at the rate of 8% per annum. In June 2011, the shareholder sold his interest in $50,000 of this note to Tripod Group LLC.

On August 8, 2011, Mr. Abrams agreed to convert the remaining $50,000 on the June 2010 Note and the accrued interest of $8,279.45 into 728,493 shares of the Company's common stock ($0.08 per share). The Company took a charge of $43,710 as debt conversion expense.

In December 2010, Mr. Abrams loaned the Company an additional $100,000 under similar terms, except that the interest rate on this note is 12% per annum, with a due date of December 15, 2011. On February 10, 2011, the shareholder loaned us an additional $100,000 which is due February 10, 2012. This loan accrues interest at the rate of 12% per annum and has no financial covenants.

During the period May 2011 through August 2011, Mr. Abrams loaned the Company an additional $150,000 in a series of unsecured one year notes all with the same terms. In addition to terms described in the table above, these notes have no financial covenants.

Note 7 Notes Payable – Discontinued Operations

The Company's Crystal Magic subsidiary has four (4) notes all of which are either guaranteed or funded by the United States Small Business Administration (SBA). At June 30, 2011, the notes total an aggregate of approximately $838,542. Crystal Magic is in default on all of these notes. In September 2010, the bank managing the loans for the SBA seized substantially all of the assets of CMI and subsequently sold these assets.

Note 8 - Stockholders' Deficit

(A) Common Stock Issuances of Issuer

For the nine months ended September 30, 2011

On May 1, 2011, the Company issued 500,000 shares of common stock to Undiscovered Equities pursuant to an investor relations consulting agreement dated May 1, 2011. The Investor Relations Agreement is for a term of six months commencing May 4, 2011 (unless earlier terminated), and provides for the Company's issuance of 500,000 shares of restricted common stock and 100,000 warrants with an exercise price of $0.25 per share which expire on May 4, 2014. The Company recorded $50,000 in compensation expense for the nine months ended September 30, 2011.

In June through August 2011, the Company issued 447,528 shares of common stock in conjunction with the conversion of $28,046 from a convertible note (see above). It also issued an additional 177,472 shares in anticipation of additional conversions, which occurred in October 2011.

The Company issued 500,000 shares of common stock to Blue Wave Advisors pursuant to an investor relations consulting agreement dated July 25, 2011. The Investor Relations Agreement is for a term of six months commencing July 25, 2011 (unless earlier terminated), and provides for the Company's issuance of 500,000 shares of restricted common stock. The Company recorded $24,194 in compensation expense for the nine months ended September 30, 2011.

The Company issued 500,000 shares of common stock to Strategic IR pursuant to an investor relations consulting agreement dated August 23, 2011. The Investor Relations Agreement is for a term of twelve months commencing August 23, 2011 (unless earlier terminated), and provides for the Company's issuance of 500,000 shares of restricted common stock and 100,000 warrants with an exercise price of $0.25 per share which expire on August 23, 2014. The Company recorded $12,667 in compensation expense for the nine months ended September 30, 2011.

On August 8, 2011, the Company issued 728,493 shares of the Company's common stock in connection with the conversion of $58,279 of debt and accrued interest. The Company took a charge of $43,710 as debt conversion expense.

(B) Stock Option Plan

In 2008 the Company's Board of Directors approved the Company's 2008 Stock Option Plan (the "Stock Plan") for the issuance of up to five (5) million shares of common stock to be granted through incentive stock options, nonqualified stock options, stock appreciation rights, dividend equivalent rights, restricted stock, restricted stock units and other stock-based awards to officers, other employees, directors and consultants of the Company and its subsidiaries. The exercise price of stock options under the Stock Plan is determined by the Board of Directors, and may be equal to or greater than the fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date the option is granted. Options become exercisable over various periods from the date of grant, and generally expire ten years after the grant date. At September 30, 2011 and December 31, 2010, there were 5,029,000 and 1,974,000 options issued and outstanding, respectively, under the Stock Plan.

The Company has applied fair value accounting for all share based payment awards since inception. The fair value of each option or warrant granted is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model. There is no deferred compensation recorded upon initial grant date, instead, for employees, the fair value of the share-based payment is recognized ratably over the stated vesting period. For consultants, the fair value is recognized as expense immediately. The Company has recorded a stock option expense of $63,948 in nine months ended September 30, 2011, in operating expenses.

The vesting provisions for these agreements have various terms as follows:

- Annually, over one, two or three years
- Monthly, over six months to one year
- Annually, with monthly vesting, after one year over a total of three or four years
 - Immediately, upon grant

Edgar Filing: Propell Corporation. - Form 10-Q

During 2010, the Company granted 675,000 options to employees and consultants having a fair value of $80,265 based upon the Black-Scholes option pricing model. During the nine months ended September 30, 2011, the Company granted 3,555,000 options to employees and consultants having a fair value of $193,401, based upon the Black-Scholes option pricing model.

Note 9 Subsequent Event

The Company has evaluated for subsequent events between the balance sheet date of September 30, 2011 and November 14, 2011, the date the financial statements were issued.

In October 2011, Mr. Abrams loaned the Company an additional $50,000 in two unsecured one year notes with the identical terms as the previous one year notes.

On October 23, 2011, the “Company, issued to Tripod Group, LLC (“Tripod”) convertible redeemable promissory notes in the principal amounts of: (i) $150,000 (the “$150,000 Note”) and (ii) $50,000 (the “$50,000 Note”); the $150,000 Note and the $50,000 Note being collectively referred to as the “Notes”. The $150,000 Note and the $50,000 Note, together with all accrued interest, are due and payable on October 23, 2013 and October 23, 2012, respectively, and bear interest at a rate of 6% per annum, payable in shares of the Company’s common stock. The principal amount of the Notes is convertible at any time after April 23, 2012, at the option of Tripod, at a conversion price), subject to adjustment as set forth in the Notes, equal to 65% of the lowest closing bid price of the Company’s common stock on the five trading days preceding the notice of conversion (including the day upon which a notice of conversion is received by the Company. The conversion price may also be adjusted downward if, within three business days of receipt of a notice of conversion, the common stock has a closing bid price which is five percent (5%) or lower than the price set forth in the notice of conversion. The Company shall have the right, at any time, to redeem the Notes in whole and pay to Tripod 125% of the then unpaid principal amount of the Notes.

In connection with the issuance of the $150,000 Note, Tripod issued to the Company a note in the principal amount of $150,000 (the “Tripod Note”) that bears interest at a rate of 6% per annum and matures: (i) $50,000 on the earlier of: (x) August 23, 2012 or (y) the date that the first $50,000 is converted under the $150,000 Note, unless we do not meet the current information requirements under Rule 144 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in which case the $50,000 shall be due on October 23, 2012 instead; (ii) $50,000 on the earlier of: (x) September 23, 2012 or (y) the date that the second $50,000 is converted under the $150,000 Note, unless we do not meet the current information requirements under Rule 144 in which case the $50,000 shall be due on October 23, 2012 instead; and $50,000 on the earlier of: (x) October 23, 2012 or (y) the date that the second $50,000 is converted under the $150,000 Note. The note is secured by four promissory notes of a third party issued to Tripod with a value of $10,000 left unconverted and promissory notes of such third party issued to Tripod in the aggregate principal amounts of $190,000.

On October 23, 2011, the Company entered into a Share Issuance Agreement with Tripod (the “Share Issuance Agreement”) pursuant to which the Company issued 100,000 shares of common stock (the “Shares”) to Tripod to be held in escrow and released as follows: (i) 33,333 of the Shares will be released to Tripod if the Company elects to disallow the conversion of $50,000 in principal of the $150,000 Note; (ii) 33,333 of the Shares will be released to Tripod if the Company elects to disallow the conversion of the second $50,000 in principal of the $150,000 Note; and (iii) the final 33,334 of the Shares will be released to Tripod if the Company elects to disallow the conversion of the final $50,000 of the $150,000 Note, in each case such $50,000 in principal of the $150,000 Note to be cancelled along with an offsetting $50,000 of the Tripod Note.

On October 14, 2011, the Board of Directors voted to increase the size of the 2008 Stock Options Plan to 7.5 million shares.

Note 10 - Going Concern

The Company has negative working capital, has incurred operating losses since inception, and its operating activities to date have required financing from outside institutions and related parties. The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. The Company will continue to need outside financing to support its internal growth. Management continues to seek funding to pursue its business plans.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Plan of Operations

The following discussion of our financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the notes hereto and our audited financial statements and notes thereto for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010. In addition to historical information, the following discussion contains forward-looking statements that involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Where possible, we have tried to identify these forward looking statements by using words such as “anticipate,” “believe,” “intends,” or similar expressions. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated by the forward-looking statements due to important factors and risks including, but not limited to, those set forth under “Risk Factors” in Part I, Item 1A of our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010.

The following Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (“MD&A”) is intended to help the reader understand our results of operations and financial condition.

Our discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of operations are based upon our consolidated financial statements as of September 30, 2011 and September 30, 2010, which have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of any contingent liabilities at the financial statement date and reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. On an on-going basis we review our estimates and assumptions. Our estimates are based on our historical experience and other assumptions that we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results are likely to differ from those estimates under different assumptions or conditions. Our critical accounting policies, the policies we believe are most important to the presentation of our financial statements and require the most difficult, subjective and complex judgments are outlined below in “Critical Accounting Policies.”

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements made in this report may constitute “forward-looking statements on our current expectations and projections about future events.” These forward-looking statements involve known or unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause our actual results, performance, or achievements to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. In some cases you can identify forward-looking statements by terminology such as “may,” “should,” “potential,” “continue,” “expect,” “anticipates,” “intends,” “plans,” “believes,” “estimates,” and similar expressions. These statements are based on our current beliefs, expectations, and assumptions and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. Although we believe that the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, we cannot guarantee future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements. These forward-looking statements are made as of the date of this report, and we assume no obligation to update these forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise, other than as required by law. In light of these assumptions, risks, and uncertainties, the forward-looking events discussed in this report might not occur and actual results and events may vary significantly from those discussed in the forward- looking statements.

Company Overview

Propell Corporation is a Delaware corporation originally formed on January 29, 2008 as CA Photo Acquisition Corp. On April 10, 2008 Crystal Magic, Inc. (“CMI”), a Florida corporation, merged with an acquisition subsidiary of Propell's, which was formed solely for the purpose of the merger of CMI with and into Propell. As part of this transaction, the Company issued an aggregate of 5,400,000 shares to the former shareholders of CMI.

On May 6, 2008, the Company acquired both Mountain Capital, LLC (d/b/a Arrow Media Solutions) (“AMS”) and Auleron 2005, LLC (d/b/a Auleron Technologies) (“AUL”) and made each a wholly owned subsidiary. A total of 2,094,864 shares of the Company’s common stock were issued to the members of AMS and a total of 136,088 shares of the Company’s common stock were issued to the members of AUL.

The mergers were completed in order to form a consolidated enterprise with subsidiaries that each have experience in complementary parts of the imaging and personalized products industries, and to expand their capabilities both online and at retail.

In mid-2009, Management decided to concentrate its efforts and assets on its e-commerce business. Shortly thereafter, AUL and AMS began to wind down operations. In January 2010, AUL was dissolved. In late 2009, AMS assigned its warranty responsibilities and its inventory to a third party and ceased operations. We dissolved AMS in late 2010. In furthering this decision to concentrate on e-commerce, we closed CMI’s operations in July 2010. In September 2010, CMI’s assets were foreclosed upon by its largest creditor and these assets were liquidated.

OUR PLAN OF OPERATIONS

Our Company

We are a Delaware corporation providing e-commerce and fulfillment for image-based personalized products and services via custom websites for schools, nonprofits, media companies and other organizations. Through our proprietary online system, we allow partners to create “instant” e-commerce web sites (marketed as PropellShops®). This system provides a special web site at which a customer — whether a business, group, or individual — can design and set up a web store featuring their own logos, photos or other artwork. That web store can then be embedded into, or linked from, the customer’s own web site. We then operate that store for the customer, taking orders, manufacturing and shipping product and paying a share of our revenue to the customer.

All of our current operations are conducted through Propell. We ceased operations of CMI in 2010 due to poor performance and insufficient capital. In 2009 we also ceased doing business through our AMS subsidiary. We assigned inventory and our warranty responsibilities and interaction with customers to a third party. We dissolved AMS in late 2010. Our third subsidiary, Auleron 2005, LLC, discontinued its operations in 2008; in November 2009, the decision was made to liquidate Auleron since it had no operations and management determined its resources were better focused on its Internet business. Auleron was formally liquidated in January 2010. Prior to our formation in January 2008, each subsidiary was independently owned.

Our current customers include eChalk, the Los Angeles Times, the Army Air Force Exchange Service, the Navy Exchange Services and numerous K-12 schools and universities, through e-commerce web sites. In addition, our management has a long track record of delivering a variety of consumer and photo products, services and logistics to partners, including Wal-Mart, Walgreens, CVS and Rite-Aid.

Our principal offices are located at 305 San Anselmo Avenue, Suite 300, San Anselmo, CA 94960. Our telephone number is (415) 747-8775. Our fiscal year end is December 31.

Critical Accounting Policies

Management believes that the critical accounting policies and estimates discussed below involve the most complex management judgments due to the sensitivity of the methods and assumptions necessary in determining the related asset, liability, revenue and expense amounts. Specific risks associated with these critical accounting policies are discussed throughout this MD&A, where such policies have a material effect on reported and expected financial results. For a detailed discussion of the application of these and other accounting policies, refer to the individual Notes to the Financial Statements for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenues when products are shipped or services are delivered to customers, pricing is fixed or determinable, and collection is reasonably assured. Net revenues include product sales net of returns and allowances.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements. Estimates are based on historical experience, management expectations for future performance, and other assumptions as appropriate. Key areas affected by estimates include the assessment of the recoverability of long-lived assets, which is based on such factors as estimated future cash flows. We re-evaluate estimates on an ongoing basis; therefore, actual results may vary from those estimates.

Fair Values of Financial Instruments

The carrying values of cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued expenses approximate the fair values of these instruments due to their short-term nature. The carrying amount for borrowings under the financing agreement approximates fair value because of the variable market interest rates charged for these borrowings. We adopted FASB ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements & Disclosures, for financial assets and financial liabilities in the first quarter of fiscal 2009, which did not have an impact on our financial statements.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments, which potentially subject us to concentrations of credit risk, consist of cash and cash equivalents and accounts receivable. We place our cash with high quality financial institutions and at times may exceed the FDIC insurance limit. We extend credit based on an evaluation of the customer's financial condition, generally without collateral. Exposure to losses on receivables is principally dependent on each customer's financial condition. We monitor our exposure for credit losses and maintain allowances for anticipated losses, as required.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

For a discussion of the adoption and potential impacts of recently issued accounting standards, refer to the “Recent Accounting Pronouncements” section of Note 1, “Reorganization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies,” in the Notes to Financial Statements.

Consolidated Results of Operations for the three months ended September 30, 2011 and September 30, 2010

For the three months ended September 30, 2011 as compared to the three months ended September 30, 2010, net revenues increased approximately $63,000 or approximately 415%. This increase is the result of adding web sites to sell school uniforms and increasing our bulk sales business. For the three months ended September 30, 2011, as compared to the three months ended June 30, 2011, revenue increased approximately $42,000 or approximately 116% due to growth in both our core business and the school uniform program.

For the three months ended September 30, 2011 as compared to the three months ended September 30, 2010 cost of goods increased approximately 461%. This increase was the result of the increased revenue. On a percentage basis, cost of goods increased faster than revenue growth, as we did not pass along manufacturing cost increases to our customers. For the three months ended September 30, 2011 as compared to the three months ended June 30, 2011, cost of sales increased approximately 141% also faster than revenue growth, with gross margins for the relevant quarters decreasing from 29% to 23% for the same reasons.

Operating expenses during the three months ended September 30, 2011 as compared to the same period last year, increased approximately $104,000 or 28%. This increase was the result of the loss on debt conversion of approximately $44,000, increased stock compensation of approximately $86,000 and increased interest expense of approximately $34,000 as a result of our increased debt load. The loss on debt conversion was due to converting a note and interest totaling approximately $58,000 to equity. These costs were partially offset by decreased sales and marketing expenses of approximately $27,000, decreased general and administrative costs of approximately $9,000 and decreased amortization of approximately $25,000. We wrote-off of our website asset in the fourth quarter of 2010, so that there was no amortization in the third quarter of 2011 as compared to approximately $25,000 of amortization in the third quarter of 2010.

Propell’s primary use of cash for the three months ended September 30, 2011, was to fund our losses from continuing operations, offset by an influx of approximately $170,000 in cash from notes payable and convertible notes payable. Net cash used in operating activities from continuing operations was approximately $167,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2011 down from approximately $198,000 for the quarter ended June 30, 2011.

Consolidated Results of Operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2011 and September 30, 2010

For the nine months ended September 30, 2011 as compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2010, net revenues increased approximately $75,000 or approximately 121% as a result of continued growth in our customer base as a result of our engaging new sales consulting which is bringing in new customers. In mid-2010 we completed an agreement with the Army Air Force Exchange (AAFES) whereby we offer ecommerce websites, that are integrated into AAFES’s retail web site at www.aafes.com or www.shopmyexchange.com. These ecommerce sites target service members and their friends and families, and offer a wide range of apparel and other gift items that are printed or embroidered with insignia or other artwork representing military units or other subjects of interest to military members and their families or friends, that can then be further customized with the shopper’s artwork or text, such as the service member’s name. In addition, we have introduced a school uniform order program.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2011 as compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2010, cost of goods also increased approximately $55,000 or 117% and our gross profit increased approximately $20,000 or approximately 135%. Gross margin increased from approximately 24% to approximately 26%. This increased gross margin amount and higher gross margin percent result from getting better economies of scale.

Operating expenses during the nine months ended September 30, 2011 as compared to September 30, 2010 increased approximately $3,000 or less than 1%. This net increase was comprised of increases in stock compensation costs (approximately $109,000), loss on debt conversion described above (approximately 44,000) offset by decreases in sales and marketing (approximately $81,000) and general and administrative (approximately $80,000). Sales and marketing decreased principally by less use of consultants and web site designers which was required last year to complete the design and implementation of the web services and customized web sites for new customers. General and administrative included reduced payroll and related costs of approximately $49,000 while the write-off of our website asset in the fourth quarter of 2010 accounted for another $75,000 of decreased expenses in the first nine months of 2011. These reductions were partially offset by interest expense increasing approximately $76,000 as a result of our increased debt load. Our higher sales led to increased commissions of approximately $6,000, and SEC filing costs also increased approximately $8,000 as we amended our 2010 quarterly filings principally due to the write-off of web site development costs.

Propell's primary use of cash for the nine months ended September 30, 2011, was to fund our losses from continuing operations, offset by an influx of approximately $475,000 in cash from notes payable and convertible notes payable. Net cash used in operating activities from continuing operations was approximately $525,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2011 down from $696,000 for the comparable quarter last year.

Our ability to continue to execute on our plan of operations is contingent on our ability to raise additional capital to further develop our Internet initiatives and expand our marketing of our existing product line.

Liquidity and Capital Resources.

To date, our primary sources of cash have been funds raised from the sale of our securities, issuance of convertible and non-convertible debt.

We have incurred an accumulated deficit of approximately $5,566,000 through September 30, 2011. We have incurred negative cash flow from operations since we started our business. We have spent, and expect to continue to spend, substantial amounts in connection with implementing our business strategy, including our planned product development effort. Based on our current plans, we believe that our cash will not be sufficient to enable us to meet our planned operating needs in the next 12 months.

The Company has a series of notes and accrued interest totaling approximately $1,947,000 due at various dates during the coming twelve months, of which $100,000 is due 15 December 2011 and the balance of which is due at dates ranging from February 2012 to August 2012. The Company has been seeking, and continues to seek, additional working capital to fund its operations and to pay down a substantial portion of this debt. Approximately $1,594,000 of the debt and interest is convertible into common stock and the Company expects to convert this debt and interest if it is successful in raising the additional equity. There is no assurance that the Company will be successful in obtaining this new working capital.

Off Balance Sheet Arrangements

There are no off balance sheet arrangements.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

(a) Evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures

Pursuant to Rule 13a-15(b) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act"), the Company carried out an evaluation, with the participation of the Company's management, including the Company's Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"), who also serves as our principal financial and accounting officer, of the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined under Rule 13a-15(e) under the Exchange Act) as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based upon that evaluation, the Company's CEO concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures as of September 30, 2011 were effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports that the Company files or submits under the Exchange Act, was recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including the Company's CEO, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

(b) Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There has been no change in our internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) of the Exchange Act) that occurred during our fiscal quarter ended September 30, 2011 that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds

In June 2011, the Company entered into an Agreement whereby an investor purchased $50,000 of the debt due by the Company to a shareholder. The Company subsequently renegotiated the terms of this note by reducing the interest rate to 6% per annum payable in Company stock; extending the due date to June 23, 2012; and adding a conversion feature whereby the holder may convert the note to shares in Propell at a price equal to 65% of the lowest closing bid price for any of the five trading days before the date of conversion. Through October 31, 2011, the Holder exercised his right to convert approximately $28,046 of the Note for 447,528 shares. The shares were exchanged with existing security holders and no remuneration or commission was paid in reliance on Section 3(a)(9) of the Securities Act of 1933.

The Company issued 500,000 shares of common stock to Blue Wave Advisors pursuant to an investor relations consulting agreement dated July 25, 2011. The Investor Relations Agreement is for a term of six months commencing July 25, 2011 (unless earlier terminated), and provides for the Company's issuance of 500,000 shares of restricted common stock. The shares of Company common stock are restricted securities, and may not be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed without registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), or an exemption thereunder. The securities were offered and sold in reliance on the exemption from registration under Section 4(2) of the Act. The offering was not conducted in connection with a public offering, and no public solicitation or advertisement was made or relied upon by the individual in connection with the offering.

The Company issued 500,000 shares of common stock to Strategic IR pursuant to an investor relations consulting agreement dated August 23, 2011. The Investor Relations Agreement is for a term of twelve months commencing August 23, 2011 (unless earlier terminated), and provides for the Company's issuance of 500,000 shares of restricted common stock and 100,000 warrants with an exercise price of $0.25 per share which expire on August 23, 2014. The shares of Company common stock are restricted securities, and may not be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed without registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), or an exemption thereunder. The securities were offered and sold in reliance on the exemption from registration under Section 4(2) of the Act. The offering was not conducted in connection with a public offering, and no public solicitation or advertisement was made or relied upon by the individual in connection with the offering.

On August 8, 2011, the Company issued 728,493 shares of the Company's common stock in connection with the conversion of $58,279 of debt and accrued interest. The shares were exchanged with existing security holders and no remuneration or commission was paid in reliance on Section 3(a)(9) of the Securities Act of 1933.

On August 6, 2011, the Company entered into a convertible promissory note with a third party to borrow $53,000. Interest accrues on the note at the rate of 8% per annum, is due in nine months and has no financial covenants. The note is convertible by the holder into common stock of the Company any time after six months until maturity. The conversion price would be 65 percent of the average of the lowest three trading prices of the Company's common stock during the ten trading days immediately preceding the conversion. The notes are restricted securities, and may not be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed without registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), or an exemption thereunder. The securities were offered and sold in reliance on the exemption from registration under Section 4(2) of the Act and Regulation D promulgated under the Act. The offering was not conducted in connection with a public offering, and no public solicitation or advertisement was made or relied upon by the individual in connection with the offering.

On September 12, 2011, the Company entered into a convertible promissory note with a third party to borrow $32,500. Interest accrues on the note at the rate of 8% per annum, is due in nine months and has no financial covenants. The note is convertible by the holder into common stock of the Company any time after six months until maturity. The conversion price would be 65 percent of the average of the lowest three trading prices of the Company's common stock during the ten trading days immediately preceding the conversion. The notes are restricted securities, and may not be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed without registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), or an exemption thereunder. The securities were offered and sold in reliance on the exemption from registration under Section 4(2) of the Act. The offering was not conducted in connection with a public offering, and no public solicitation or advertisement was made or relied upon by the individual in connection with the offering.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2011, the Company granted 3,555,000 options to employees and consultants having a fair value of $193,401, based upon the Black-Scholes option pricing model. The securities were offered and sold in reliance on the exemption from registration under Section 4(2) of the Act. The offering was not conducted in connection with a public offering, and no public solicitation or advertisement was made or relied upon by the individual in connection with the offering.

On October 23, 2011, the Company entered into a redeemable convertible promissory note with a third party to borrow $150,000, and in connection therewith, placed 100,000 shares in escrow. Interest accrued at the rate of 6% per annum and is due on October 23, 2013. The note is convertible by the holder at any time after April 23, 2012, at a conversion price equal to 65% of the lowest closing bid price of the Company's common stock on the five trading days preceding the notice of conversion. The securities were issued in reliance upon the exemption from registration contained in Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Regulation D promulgated thereunder. No underwriter was involved in the offer or sale of the securities. The issuance of the securities did not involve a public offering. This issuance was done with no general solicitation or advertising by the Company. In addition, the holder had the necessary investment intent as required by Section 4(2) since it agreed to, and received, a note bearing a legend stating that the securities are restricted and if the shares of common stock held in escrow bear such a legend. This restriction ensures that the securities will not be immediately redistributed into the market and therefore not part of a public offering.
