Item 1.03 Bankruptcy or Receivership

As previously disclosed, on September 6, 2014, Lenco Mobile, Inc. (the “Company”) and its wholly owned subsidiary, Archer USA, Inc. (“Archer USA” and, together with the Company, the “Debtors”), each filed a voluntary petition for relief (the “Bankruptcy Filing”) under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Washington, case numbers 14-16660-KAO and 14-16659-KAO, respectively. The Court has subsequently entered an order for joint administration of the cases under case number 14-16659-KAO under the caption “In re: Archer USA, Inc.; Lenco Mobile, Inc.” All documents filed with the Bankruptcy Court are available for inspection at the Office of the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court or online at <https://ecf.wawb.uscourts.gov/cgi-bin/login.pl>.

On September 26, 2014, the Court entered an order authorizing Archer USA to modify its iLoop Platform and Services Reseller Agreement with Experian Marketing Solutions, Inc. wherein Experian would extend credit to Archer in the form of prepayments for approximately three months of services. The amended agreement provides for an aggregate of $600,000 in pre-payments to Archer USA consisting of three scheduled pre-payments of $200,000 each with the payments to be made by Experian on or before September 26, 2014, October 9, 2014 and October 23, 2014. The pre-payments are intended to help Archer USA fund its ongoing operations.

Risk Related the Company’s Equity Securities

The Company cannot predict what the ultimate value of its equity securities may be or whether the holders of its equity securities will receive any distribution in the bankruptcy proceedings; however, it is likely that the Company’s common stock and preferred stock will have very little or no value given the amount of the Company’s liabilities compared to its assets. The Company’s shareholders are cautioned that trading in shares of the Company’s equity securities during the pendency of the Bankruptcy Filings under Chapter 11 is highly speculative and poses substantial risks. Trading prices for the Company’s equity securities may bear little or no relationship to the actual recovery, if any, by holders in the Chapter 11 Case. Accordingly, the Company urges extreme caution with respect to existing and future investments in its equity securities.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains certain forward-looking statements. Additional written and oral forward-looking statements may be made by the Company from time to time in Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) filings and otherwise. The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 provides a safe harbor for forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include statements that are predictive in nature and depend upon or refer to future events or conditions. In this context, forward-looking statements may address our expected future business and financial performance, and often contain words such as “expects”, “anticipates”, “intends”, “plans”, “goals”, “believes”, “will” and other words of similar meaning. Forward-looking statements by their nature address matters that are, to different degrees, uncertain. In addition, any statements concerning future financial performance, ongoing business strategies or prospects, and possible future actions, are also forward-looking statements. Lenco and Archer cautions readers that results predicted by forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, those relating to our future business prospects, revenues, working capital, liquidity, capital needs, interest costs and income are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated in the forward-looking statements.

For Lenco and Archer, particular risks and uncertainties that could cause actual future results to differ materially from those expressed in our forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, the impact of and risks related to Lenco's and Archer's filing under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, including risks related to obtaining approval and confirmation of Lenco's and Archer's plan of reorganization, the impact of any delay or inability in obtaining such confirmation, and the impact of our restructuring on the holders of our securities; risks related to the ongoing transition of our business; the risk of management or key employees departing the company; the impact of uncertainty regarding our ability to continue as a going concern on our liquidity and prospects; uncertainty concerning the ultimate success of our efforts to secure working capital; the impact of our restructuring on our ability to execute potential divestitures of certain assets and/or subsidiaries; and other risks and uncertainties discussed in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including our Annual Report on Form 10-K and quarterly reports on Form 10-Q. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date the statements are made. Except as required under the federal securities laws and rules and regulations of the SEC, we undertake no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
