1.3.

Investment Portfolio

As of December 31, 2016, Bancolombia's net investment portfolio totaled COP 13,060 billion, decreasing 0.5% compared to the figure reported in 3Q16 and 8.5% compared to 4Q15. The investment portfolio consists primarily of debt securities, which represent 65.4% of Bancolombia's total investments and 4.4% of assets at the end of 4Q16.

At the end of 4Q16, the debt securities portfolio had a duration of 17.3 months and a yield to maturity of 6.51%.

1.4. Goodwill and intangibles

As of 4Q16, Bancolombia's goodwill and intangibles totaled COP 6,694 billion, increasing 3.9% compared to 3Q16. This variation is explained by the depreciation of the COP against the USD during the quarter.

1.5. Funding

As of December 31, 2016, Bancolombia's liabilities totaled COP 173,784 billion, increasing 2.2% with respect to 3Q16 and 0.7% compared to 4Q15.

Deposits by customers totaled COP 124,624 billion (or 71.7% of liabilities) at the end of 4Q16, increasing 5.5% during the quarter and 2.3% over the last 12 months. The net loans to deposits ratio (including borrowings from domestic development banks) was 111% at the end of 4Q16, which marks a decrease in comparison to the 115% reported in 3Q16.

Bancolombia's funding strategy during the last months has been to extend the average life of time deposits and promote saving accounts in the consumer segment in order to keep the funding cost at a minimum. The objective is to build and maintain ample liquidity and increase the sensitivity of the balance sheet to changes in the interest rates, which has been reflected in the stability of the loans net interest margin. This strategy, added to the Central Bank's rate hikes, increased the cost of deposits during the year.

The tangible capital ratio, defined as shareholders' equity minus goodwill and intangible assets divided by tangible assets, was 7.54% at the end of 4Q16.

2. INCOME STATEMENT

Net income totaled COP 1.13 trillion in 4Q16, or COP 1,175.87 per share - USD 1.57 per ADR (excluding discontinued operations). This net income represents an increase of 87.3% compared to 3Q16 and 72.3% compared to 4Q15. This increase in net income, in the quarter, is explained by a good performance in fees and income from Interest-rate derivatives, a valuation of the TUYA S.A investment and a decrease in the tax income provision. Bancolombia's annualized ROE for 4Q16 was 22.1% and 14.5% for 2016.

2.1. Net Interest Income

Net interest income totaled COP 2,463 billion in 4Q16, 1.5% less than that reported in 3Q16, and 28.1% higher than the figure for 4Q15. Higher volumes in peso-denominated loans and increases in loan margin drove the positive annual and quarterly performance of this line. Of this annual increase in revenue, BAM contributes 6.4% (23% of marginal variation).

During 4Q16, the investment, interest rate derivatives and repos portfolio generated COP 139 billion.

Net Interest Margin

The annualized net interest margin decreased to 6.0% in 4Q16. The annualized net interest margin for investments was -0.5%, and the annualized net interest margin of the loan portfolio was 6.5%.

The re-pricing of existing loans, the origination of new loans at higher rates and higher volumes in the peso-denominated loan portfolio were the factors that drove the net interest margin expansion of 90 basis points during the year.

Annualized Interest Margin	4Q15	3Q16	4Q16
Loans' Interest margin	5.6 %	6.4 %	6.5 %
Debt investments' margin	-0.5 %	3.2 %	-0.5 %

Fees and Income from Services

During 4Q16, net fees and income from services totaled COP 591 billion, which was the same when compared to 3Q16, and increasing 16.9% with respect to 4Q15. The positive performance in fees is due to higher volumes of transactions and the good performance of banking services, trust and trade products and bancassurance.

Fees from credit and debit cards decreased 1.7% compared to 3Q16 and increased 1.5% compared to 4Q15. Fees from asset management and trust services increased 5.8% compared to 3Q16 and 15.7% compared to 4Q15. Fees from our bancassurance business increased 30.0% compared to 3Q16 and 26.0% with respect to 4Q15, thanks to the successful cross-selling initiatives led by our sales teams.

Additionally, there was a reversion for the compensation of fiscal credits. Also, the tax reform approved in December 2016, had an impact on deferred taxes due to the fact that statutory tax rates were lower than those previously estimated.
