Attachment A

As preparation of the Company's financial statements are not yet complete, as described in Part III, all amounts and percentages described below are estimates as of the date of the filing of the attached Form 12b-25.

THIRTEEN WEEKS ENDED NOVEMBER 25, 2006 COMPARED TO THE THIRTEEN WEEKS ENDED NOVEMBER 26, 2005

GENERAL

The brand portfolio has grown through acquisition of well-recognized brands from a larger consumer products company, which at the time of acquisition were considered non-core by their previous owner and did not benefit from the focus of senior level management or strong marketing and sales support. After acquiring a brand, the focus is to increase its sales, market share and distribution in both existing and new channels. This growth will be driven by new marketing and sales strategies, improved packaging and formulations, innovative new products and line extensions.

REVENUES

Consolidated net revenues for the thirteen weeks ended November 25, 2006 increased $6.2 million (33.6%) when compared to net revenues for the thirteen weeks ended November 26, 2005. This quarter's revenue was favorably impacted by the Company's acquisition of the former Playtex Brands, which contributed $9.3 million in net revenue during the current quarter, as compared to $1.3 million in the prior year quarter.

U.S. revenues from the core Lander branded products decreased during the quarter by $1.4 million, primarily related to the strategic shift to premium value higher margin products and the planned decline of extreme value products. Sales of Lander Premium Value products, which include Lander Kids 1.5 liter bubble bath and Lander Essential Bath Products, increased by $0.8 million. Net revenues of extreme value products (i.e. those retailing for $1.00) and private label products decreased by $2.2 million versus the same period in the prior year.

Net sales derived from Lander Canada decreased by $0.4 million (10.6%) this quarter versus the same period last year. There was a decrease in extreme value products of $0.6 million, consistent with the trends previously discussed for the U.S. market. This decrease was partially offset by a positive impact from exchange rate gains of $0.2 million.

Net sales for the WAD division are not material for the thirteen weeks ended November 25, 2006 and November 26, 2005.

GROSS PROFIT

Consolidated gross profit increased to $3.8 million for the thirteen weeks ended November 25, 2006 compared to $1.6 million for the thirteen weeks ended November 26, 2005. As percentage of net sales, consolidated gross profit was 15.4% and 8.9%, respectively for the thirteen weeks ended November 25, 2006 and November 26, 2005. The current quarter gross margin percentage and gross margin were favorably impacted by the Company's acquisition of the former Playtex brands which contributed an incremental $3.1 million to gross profit ($3.3 million in the current quarter compared to $0.2 million in prior year quarter). The current quarter was impacted by an additional $0.2 million inventory obsolescence reserve established primarily against the acquired Playtex products. The strategic shift to higher margin products partially offset increased material costs and decreased factory utilization compared to prior year.

Gross profit for the Company's WAD division was not material for the thirteen weeks ended November 25, 2006 and November 26, 2005.

SELLING, GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

Selling, general and administrative expenses were $5.4 million for the thirteen weeks ended November 25, 2006 compared to $4.2 million for the thirteen weeks ended November 26, 2005. The increase of $1.2 million is mainly attributable to factors associated with company's acquisition of the Playtex brands in November 2005. The Playtex asset acquisition accounts for the increase specifically, $0.7 million relating to the amortization of intangibles assets and $0.5 million in increased sales and marketing expenses.

OTHER INCOME (EXPENSE)

Interest expense on funded debt was $2.3 million for the thirteen weeks ended November 25, 2006 compared to $0.4 million for the thirteen weeks ended November 26, 2005. The increase of $1.9 million over the thirteen weeks ended November 26, 2005 is primarily due to both the $80 million Bridge Loan used to fund the Playtex asset acquisition and the convertible notes totaling $91.0 million issued on August 2, 2006.

The issuance of the Convertible Notes on August 2, 2006, triggered the establishment of warrant derivatives, a compound derivative liability, a debt discount and deferred finance fees. This produced an overall result of other income of $12.5 million. No similar amounts relate to the thirteen weeks ended November 26, 2005.

Other income (expense) consists of the following:

	($000, $)
	Thirteen weeks ended November 25, 2006
Interest on debt	$ (2,323)
Amortization of debt discount and finance fees	(1,232)
Gain on revaluation of compound derivative liability	16,203
Other expense	(163)
Total other income	$ 12,485

THIRTY-NINE WEEKS ENDED NOVEMBER 25, 2006 COMPARED TO THE THIRTY-NINE WEEKS ENDED NOVEMBER 26, 2005

GENERAL

The brand portfolio has grown through acquisition of well-recognized brands from a larger consumer products company, which at the time of acquisition were considered non-core by their previous owner and did not benefit from the focus of senior level management or strong marketing and sales support. After acquiring a brand, the focus is to increase its sales, market share and distribution in both existing and new channels. This growth will be driven by new marketing and sales strategies, improved packaging and formulations, innovative new products and line extensions.

REVENUES

Consolidated net revenues for the thirty-nine weeks ended November 25, 2006 increased $21.3 million (40.5%) when compared to net revenues for the thirty-nine weeks ended November 26, 2005. This volume was favorably impacted by the Company's acquisition of the former Playtex Brands, which contributed $28.2 million in net revenue during the current thirty-nine week period, as compared to $1.3 million in the prior year.

U.S. revenues from the core Lander branded products decreased during the thirty-nine week period by $4.4 million, primarily related to the strategic shift to premium value higher margin products and the planned decline of extreme value products. Sales of Lander Premium Value products, which include Lander Kids 1.5 liter bubble bath and Lander Essential Bath Products, increased by $2.6 million, partially offset by a decrease of $1.8 million in Lander 64 ounce Adult Bubble Bath attributable to a prior year promotion at a major retailer. Net revenues of extreme value products (i.e. those retailing for $1.00) and private label products decreased by $7.0 million versus prior year.

Edgar Filing: ASCENDIA BRANDS, INC. - Form NT 10-Q

Net sales derived from Lander Canada decreased by $1.2 million (10.5%) in the thirty-nine week period versus the same period last year. There was a decrease in extreme value products of $2.0 million, consistent with the trends previously discussed for the U.S. market. This decrease was partially offset by a positive impact from exchange rate gains of $0.8 million.

Net sales for WAD division are not material for the thirty-nine weeks ended November 25, 2006 and November 26, 2005.

GROSS PROFIT

Consolidated gross profit increased to $13.0 million for the thirty-nine weeks ended November 25, 2006 compared to $4.0 million for the thirty-nine weeks ended November 26, 2005. As percentage of net sales, consolidated gross profit was 17.6% and 7.5%, respectively for the thirty-nine weeks ended November 25, 2006 and November 26, 2005. The current year gross margin percentage and the total gross margin were favorably impacted by the Company's acquisition of the former Playtex brands which contributed an incremental $10.3 million to gross profit ($10.5 million in the current thirty-nine weeks compared to $0.2 million in prior year thirty-nine weeks). The current year was impacted by the additional $0.9 million inventory obsolescence reserve primarily established against acquired Playtex products. The strategic shift to higher margin products partially offset increased material costs and decreased factory utilization compared to prior year.

Gross profit for the Company's WAD division was not material for the thirty-nine weeks ended November 25, 2006 and November 26, 2005.

SELLING, GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

Selling, general and administrative expenses were $16.0 million for the thirty-nine weeks ended November 25, 2006 compared to $10.5 million for the thirty-nine weeks ended November 26, 2005. The increase of $5.5 is mainly attributable to factors associated with company's acquisition of the Playtex brands in November 2005 and the May 2005 merger with Cenuco. The Playtex asset acquisition accounts for $4.0 million of the increase specifically, $2.2 million relating to the amortization of intangibles assets, $1.5 million in increased sales and marketing expenses and $0.3 million for additional patent and registration costs. An increase of $0.7 million primarily for incremental salary, benefits and professional fees associated with being a public entity. The balance of the increase of $0.8 million relates to the Company's WAD division in which $0.3 million is attributed to the amortization of intangibles assets and remaining $0.5 million for increased general operating expenses as compared to prior year.

OTHER INCOME (EXPENSE)

Interest expense on funded debt was $7.9 million for the thirty-nine weeks ended November 25, 2006 compared to $1.0 million for the thirty-nine weeks ended November 26, 2005. The increase of $6.9 million over the thirty-nine weeks ended November 26, 2005 is primarily due to both the $80 million Bridge Loan used to fund the Playtex asset acquisition and the convertible notes totaling $91.0 million issued on August 2, 2006. $84.1 million of gross proceeds from the convertible notes was used to pay down the Bridge Loan plus accrued interest.

The issuance of the Convertible Notes on August 2, 2006, triggered the establishment of warrant derivatives, a compound derivative liability, a debt discount and deferred finance fees. This produced an overall result of other income of $9.8 million. No similar amounts relate to the thirty-nine weeks ended November 26, 2005.

Other income (expense) consists of the following:

		($000 s)
		Thirty-nine weeks ended November 25, 2006
