Explanation of Responses:

* If the form is filed by more than one reporting person, see Instruction 4(b)(v).

 Intentional misstatements or omissions of facts constitute Federal Criminal Violations. See 18 U.S.C. 1001 and 15 U.S.C. 78ff(a).

(1) On March 28, 2008, the reporting person surrendered to the issuer vested options to purchase an aggregate of 217,697 shares of common stock, of which this surrendered option is a part. The reporting person surrendered the options pursuant to a remediation plan by the issuer in connection with the issuer's review of its stock option practices and related accounting. When the reporting person agreed to surrender the options, the options surrendered had a value, based on a Black-Scholes-Merton calculation and using the same assumptions the issuer uses when preparing its financial statements, equal to approximately $69,897. The reporting person entered into an Option Surrender Agreement with the issuer on March 28, 2008.

(2) The option is fully vested and immediately exercisable.

(3) The two reported transactions involved an amendment of an outstanding option to adjust the exercise price of the option, resulting in the deemed cancellation of the old option and the grant of the replacement option. The issuer amended certain outstanding options pursuant to a remediation plan by the issuer in connection with the issuer's review of its stock option practices and related accounting.

(4) The reporting person surrendered a portion of vested shares that were subject to a restricted stock purchase agreement as payment of withholding taxes due as a result of vesting of restricted stock.

(5) On December 29, 2006, the reporting person inadvertently filed a Form 4 reporting the surrender of 595 shares of common stock. Such surrender of shares had previously been reported on December 11, 2006, the initial vesting date of the restricted stock award, and was properly reported on a Form 4 filed on December 13, 2006. As a result, the reporting person's ownership was understated by 595 shares. This filing reflects the corrected number of shares of common stock.

Note: File three copies of this Form, one of which must be manually signed. If space is insufficient, see Instruction 6 for procedure.

Potential persons who are to respond to the collection of information contained in this form are not required to respond unless the form displays a currently valid OMB number.
