Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure

First Data Corporation (the "Company") today announced that it intends to seek amendments to its senior secured credit facilities to, among other things, (i) convert all or a portion of the Company's existing term loans maturing September 2014 (the "2014 Term Loans") under our senior secured term loan facility into new dollar- and euro-denominated extended tranches of term loans, maturing March 2017 ("2017 Term Loans") (such extension, the "Term Loan Extension"), (ii) provide for certain increases in the Company's ability to incur indebtedness pursuant to the incremental facility option under its senior secured credit facilities and (iii) effect certain other changes as provided for in the definitive documentation for the amendments.

The effectiveness of the amendments is subject to certain conditions, including, among other things, (w) the Company's obtaining consent of (A) the lenders holding a majority of the commitments and loans outstanding under the senior secured credit facilities and (B) each lender holding 2014 Term Loans that agrees to be subject to the Term Loan Extension and (y) within 90 days of the date of the initial effectiveness of the amendment agreement, the Company having issued senior secured notes in an amount to be determined, the net cash proceeds of which shall have been used to prepay a portion of eligible 2017 Term Loans.

The Company expects that these amendments will provide it with more flexibility to address its debt maturities and that the amendments described above are an important step in enhancing its financial flexibility and continued access to long-term funding. Although the Company believes that its plans, intentions and expectations reflected in or suggested by these forward-looking statements are reasonable, the Company cannot assure you that the Company will achieve or realize these plans, intentions or expectations.

Safe Harbor Statement under Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995

This current Report on Form 8-K includes certain disclosures which contain "forward-looking statements." You can identify forward-looking statements because they contain words such as "intends", "believes" and "expects." Forward-looking statements are based on the Company's current expectations and assumptions. Because forward-looking statements relate to the future, they are subject to inherent uncertainties, risks and changes in circumstances that may differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements, which are neither statements of historical fact nor guarantees or assurances of future performance. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include the ability to obtain the consent of the requisite lenders and ability to satisfy the conditions precedent to the amendment becoming effective.

The Company is furnishing the information in this Item 7.01 in this Current Report on Form 8-K to comply with Regulation FD. Such information shall not be deemed to be "filed" for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, and shall not be deemed to be incorporated by reference into any of the Company's filings under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, whether made before or after the date hereof and regardless of any general incorporation language in such filings, except to the extent expressly set forth by specific reference in such a filing.
