Announcing Ryanair's new routes in London today, CEO, Michael O'Leary said:

"We are delighted to announce the first Ryanair low fare routes to new destinations in Poland (Wroclaw), Czech Republic (Brno) and Spain (Granada). Our new route from Gatwick to Knock (Ireland) will add an additional 100,000 passengers pa to our existing Stansted-Knock route (on which this year we will carry over 120,000 passengers)."

"Today's announcement of increased frequency on our routes from Stansted to Cork & Shannon (together with our new route from London Gatwick to Knock) will continue to provide even MORE Ryanair low fares, better frequency and unbeatable punctuality for Irish and British consumers. Easyjet can nevermatch Ryanair's low fares, our high frequencies and our punctuality or customer service for consumers travelling between Ireland & UK."

"With the addition of a new popular summer service from Stansted to Nimes (to complement the daily Luton-Nimes route), these new routes and increased frequencies will mean an additional 800,000 passengers will save over GBP 80M on the high fares of other airlines and will benefit from Ryanair's unbeatable punctuality and customer service."

Ends:

Friday, 19th November 2004.
