John Varley
comments on
UK
Government's statement

Commenting on the UK Government's statement this morning, John Varley, Group Chief Executive, Barclays, said:

"Barclays welcomes the package of measures which the Government has announced this morning. The package addresses the most significant issues in the market, namely confidence in the strength of the banking system and the working of the money markets.

These initiatives, along with the Government's announcements in recent days relating to the protection of retail deposits, and the Bank of England's actions to assist the functioning of the money markets, offer welcome stability to the British banking system and will lead to the increased provision of credit to households and businesses.

Barclays commits to participating in these measures in ways which will protect the interests of our shareholders and customers, and benefit the broader financial system."
