Item 5. Other Events

United Life Fixed Annuity Sales Suspended Effective 6/30/03

As of June 30, 2003, we will temporarily suspend the sale of all new fixed annuity business. We made this decision in consideration of the difficulty we have in finding suitable investment vehicles in terms of duration and quality to fit our asset-liability matching needs. We have accumulated significant amounts of cash. While this accumulation has improved our liquidity, it has also resulted in negative spreads on new business. This means that existing business is in fact subsidizing new business. We believed that this was a situation that would begin to improve when the economy recovered and interest rates began to rise, leading to more appropriate opportunities to invest our cash. Unfortunately, this process is taking much longer than we and most experts expected.

We anticipate that this suspension will last at least through July and longer in some of the states. The length of the suspension is dependent upon the approval by individual states of contracts with interest rate guarantees of 1.5 percent. Many states have already amended their rules to permit lower interest rate guarantees; we have applied or will soon apply in those states to take advantage of their revised limits. However, the states of Minnesota, Nebraska, South Dakota, Texas, Utah and Wisconsin have NOT approved any provisions for decreased interest rate guarantees; accordingly, the suspension of sales in these states will likely be for a longer period.

Through March, 2003, the life segment recorded $22,923,000 in annuity deposits. For the whole year of 2002, the life segment recorded $223,452,000 of annuity deposits.
