NOTES TO FINANCIAL ST	ATEMENTS	(UNAUDITED)
-----------------------	----------	-------------

1. Significant Accounting Policies

The Adams Express Company (the Company) is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 as a diversified investment company. The Company investment objectives as well as the nature and risk of its investment transactions are set forth in the Company is registration statement.

Security Valuation Investments in securities traded on a national security exchange are valued at the last reported sale price on the day of valuation. Over-the-counter and listed securities for which a sale price is not available are valued at the last quoted bid price. Short-term investments (excluding purchased options) are valued at amortized cost. Purchased and written options are valued at the last quoted asked price.

Affiliated Companies Investments in companies 5% or more of whose outstanding voting securities are held by the Company are defined as Affiliated Companies in Section 2(a)(3) of the Investment Company Act of 1940.

Security Transactions and Investment Income Investment transactions are accounted for on the trade date. Gain or loss on sales of securities and options is determined on the basis of identified cost. Dividend income and distributions to shareholders are recognized on the ex-dividend date, and interest income is recognized on the accrual basis.

2. Federal Income Taxes

The Company s policy is to distribute all of its taxable income to its shareholders in compliance with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to regulated investment companies. Therefore, no federal income tax provision is required. For federal income tax purposes, the identified cost of securities, including options, at September 30, 2003 was $1,053,860,745 and net unrealized appreciation aggregated $167,214,282, of which the related gross unrealized appreciation and depreciation were $333,931,403 and $166,717,121, respectively.

Distributions are determined in accordance with income tax regulations which may differ from generally accepted accounting principles. Accordingly, annual reclassifications are made within the Company s capital accounts to reflect income and gains available for distribution under income tax regulations.

3. Investment Transactions

Purchases and sales of portfolio securities, other than options and short-term investments, during the nine months ended September 30, 2003 were $135,926,492 and $104,173,148, respectively. Options may be written (sold) or purchased by the Company. The Company, as writer of an option, bears the market risk of an unfavorable change in the price of the security underlying the written option. The risk associated with purchasing an option is limited to the premium originally paid. A schedule of outstanding option contracts as of September 30, 2003 can be found on page 11.

Transactions in written covered call and collateralized put options during the nine months ended September 30, 2003 were as follows:

	Covered Calls		Collater	alized Puts
	Contracts	Premiums	Contracts	Premiums
Options outstanding,
December 31, 2002	6,047	$ 564,056	6,195	$ 663,944

Options outstanding,
September 30, 2003	2,245	$ 288,307	5,100	$ 639,621

All investment decisions are made by a committee, and no one person is primarily responsible for making recommendations to that committee.

4. Capital Stock

The Company has 10,000,000 authorized and unissued preferred shares without par value.

On December 27, 2002, the Company issued 2,426,788 shares of its Common Stock at a price of $10.715 per share (the average market price on December 9, 2002) to stockholders of record on November 25, 2002 who elected to take stock in payment of the distribution from 2002 capital gain and investment income.

The Company may purchase shares of its Common Stock from time to time at such prices and amounts as the Board of Directors may deem advisable.

Transactions in Common Stock for 2003 and 2002 were as follows:

Net change (1,940,200) (697,012) $ (21,474,910) $ (11,341,142)

Notes to Financial Statements (continued)

On September 30, 2003, the Company held a total of 2,637,212 shares of its Common Stock at a cost of $29,029,336. The Company held 697,012 shares of its Common Stock at a cost of $7,554,426 on December 31, 2002.

The Company has an employee incentive stock option and stock appreciation rights plan which provides for the issuance of options and stock appreciation rights for the purchase of up to 2,610,146 shares of the Company s Common Stock at 100% of the fair market value at date of grant. Options are exercisable beginning not less than one year after the date of grant and extend and vest over ten years from the date of grant. Stock appreciation rights are exercisable beginning not less than two years after the date of grant and extend over the period during which the option is exercisable. The stock appreciation rights allow the holders to surrender their rights to exercise their options and receive cash or shares in an amount equal to the difference between the option price and the fair market value of the Common Stock at the date of surrender.

Under the plan, the exercise price of the options and related stock appreciation rights is reduced by the per share amount of capital gain paid by the Company during subsequent years. At the beginning of 2003, 259,023 options were outstanding, with a weighted average exercise price of $11.19 per share. During the nine months ended September 30, 2003, the Company granted options including stock appreciation rights for 57,398 shares of Common Stock with a weighted average exercise price of $10.98. During the nine months ended September 30, 2003, stock appreciation rights relating to 43,438 stock option shares were exercised at a weighted average market price of $11.75 per share and the stock options relating to these rights with a weighted average exercise price of $3.02 per share were cancelled. Stock options and stock appreciation rights relating to 43,619 shares, and with a weighted average exercise price of $11.16, were cancelled. At September 30, 2003, there were outstanding exercisable options to purchase 77,111 common shares at $10.83-$19.01 per share (weighted average price of $14.98), and unexercisable options to purchase 152,253 common shares at $4.39-$19.01 per share (weighted average price of $11.47). The weighted average remaining contractual life of outstanding exercisable and unexercisable options is 7.10 years and 6.72 years, respectively. Total compensation expense recognized for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 related to the stock options and stock appreciation rights plan was $(62,005). At September 30, 2003, there were 1,242,752 shares available for future option grants.

5. Retirement Plans

The Company provides retirement benefits for its employees under a non-contributory qualified defined benefit pension plan. The benefits are based on years of service and compensation during the last 5 years of employment. The Company s current funding policy is to contribute annually to the plan only those amounts that can be deducted for federal income tax purposes. As of September 30, 2003, the plan assets, consisting of investments in individual stocks, bonds and mutual funds were $9,483,341. In determining the actuarial present value of the projected benefit obligation, the interest rate used for the weighted average discount rate was 6.75%, the expected rate of annual salary increases was 7.0%, and the long-term expected rate of return on plan assets was 8.0%. The projected benefit obligation as of September 30, 2003 was $6,093,259. Prepaid pension cost included in other assets at September 30, 2003 was $5,824,758.

In addition, the Company has a nonqualified benefit plan which provides employees with defined retirement benefits to supplement the qualified plan. The Company does not provide postretirement medical benefits.

6. Expenses

The cumulative amount of accrued expenses at September 30, 2003 for employees and former employees of the Company was $2,432,910. Aggregate remuneration paid or accrued during the nine months ended September 30, 2003 to key employees and directors amounted to $1,172,488.

7. Portfolio Securities Loaned

The Company makes loans of securities to brokers, secured by cash deposits, U.S. Government securities, or bank letters of credit. The Company accounts for securities lending transactions as secured financing and receives compensation in the form of fees or retains a portion of interest on the investment of any cash received as collateral. The Company also continues to receive interest or dividends on the securities loaned. The loans are secured at all times by collateral of at least 102% of the fair value of the securities loaned plus accrued interest. Gain or loss in the fair value of the securities loaned that may occur during the term of the loan will be for the account of the Company. At September 30, 2003, the Company had securities on loan of $111,001,781 and held collateral of $116,317,433, consisting of repurchase agreements and a certificate of deposit.

SHAREHOLDER INFORMATION AND SERVICES

DIVIDEND PAYMENT SCHEDULE

The Company presently pays dividends four times a year, as follows: (a) three interim distributions on or about March 1, June 1, and September 1, and (b) a year-end distribution, payable in late December, consisting of the estimated balance of the net investment income for the year and the net realized capital gain earned through October 31. Stockholders may elect to receive the year-end distribution in stock or cash. In connection with this distribution, all stockholders of record are sent a dividend announcement notice and an election card in mid-November.

Stockholders holding shares in street or brokerage accounts may make their election by notifying their brokerage house representative.
