PROXY STATEMENT

FOR 2004 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy card are furnished on or about March 18, 2004, by The Colonial BancGroup, Inc. (BancGroup) to the holders of record of common stock, par value $2.50 per share, of BancGroup (the Common Stock) in connection with BancGroup s annual meeting of stockholders (the Annual Meeting), and any adjournments thereof, to be held on Wednesday, April 21, 2004, at 10:00 a.m., central time, at the Colonial Financial Center, One Commerce Street, Montgomery, Alabama. The matters to be considered and acted upon, including the election of directors, are described herein.

BancGroup s Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and the Board of Directors of BancGroup (the Board) recommend the election of each of the seven director-nominees named in this Proxy Statement for a term of three years.

Your proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board and is revocable at any time prior to the voting of such proxy by giving written notice of revocation to the Secretary of BancGroup, by submitting a later-dated proxy, or by voting in person at the Annual Meeting. Mere attendance at the Annual Meeting without voting in person will not be sufficient to revoke a previously submitted proxy. All properly submitted proxies delivered pursuant to this solicitation will be voted at the Annual Meeting in accordance with instructions, if any. If no instructions are given, the proxies will be voted FOR election of the director-nominees named herein, and in accordance with the instructions of management as to any other matters that may come before the Annual Meeting.

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by BancGroup. In addition to the use of the mail, proxies may be solicited by personal interview, telephone, facsimile, e-mail or other electronic means. Banks, brokers, nominees or fiduciaries should forward the soliciting material to the principals to obtain authorization for the execution of proxies, as required by law. BancGroup also will allow proxies to be delivered by telephone or via the Internet. BancGroup may, upon request, reimburse banks, brokers and other institutions, nominees and fiduciaries for their expenses in forwarding proxy material to the principals. BancGroup has retained the firm of Georgeson & Co. to solicit proxies and will pay such firm a fee of $6,500 plus out of pocket expenses.

STOCKHOLDERS ELIGIBLE TO VOTE

Proxies marked as abstentions and shares held in street names which have been designated by brokers on proxy cards as not voted will not be counted as votes cast. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board recommends that the stockholders elect the seven persons named below to hold office for terms of three years, or until their successors are elected and qualified. BancGroup's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation provides that the number of directors which shall constitute the entire Board shall be fixed from time to time by resolutions adopted by the Board, but shall not be less than three persons. If the stockholders elect directors as recommended by the Board, then the Board shall consist of 19 members. By resolution, the Board has currently fixed the maximum number of directors at 23.

BancGroup's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation provides for the election of directors by classes to terms of three years, with one class of approximately one-third of the total number of directors to be elected each year. Seven nominees are proposed for election to the class of directors whose terms expire in 2007. At the Annual Meeting, proxies cannot be voted for more than seven directors or for a person who has not been properly nominated.

The nominees listed below were selected by BancGroup's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is comprised solely of independent directors and is responsible for identifying individuals qualified to become Board members and recommending to the Board director nominees. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will periodically review the size and composition of the Board and determine whether it is necessary to add or replace directors.

Nominees for director are selected on the basis of outstanding achievement in their careers; broad business experience; independence; financial expertise; integrity; financial integrity; ability to make independent, analytical inquiries; understanding of the business environment; and willingness and ability to devote adequate time to Board duties. The Board believes that each director should have, and nominees are expected to have the capacity to obtain, a basic understanding of (i) the principal operational and financial objectives and plans and strategies of BancGroup, (ii) the results of operations and financial condition of BancGroup and of any significant subsidiaries or business segments, and (iii) the relative standing of BancGroup and its business segments in relation to its competitors. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee also considers it essential that the Audit Committee have at least one member who qualifies as an audit committee financial expert.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and the Board consider a variety of sources when selecting individuals as potential Board members. BancGroup does not typically retain a search firm to assist in the selection of directors. Historically, most of BancGroup's director nominees have served on one of Colonial Bank's regional boards or the board of a company acquired by BancGroup, and have had a leadership position with an entity that is located in a community served by Colonial Bank. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and the Board consider Colonial Bank regional board members to be an excellent source for nominees because service on a regional Colonial Bank board gives an individual an opportunity to better understand Colonial Bank and BancGroup and the individual's prior service enables the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee to evaluate the level of contribution that individual can make to BancGroup and its constituents. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and Board also take into consideration the diversity of the Board when selecting nominees. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will review this process from time to time and may alter the process in its discretion.

If, prior to the voting at the Annual Meeting, any person proposed for election as a director is unavailable to serve or for good cause cannot serve, the shares represented by all valid proxies may be voted for the election of such substitute as the members of the Board may recommend. The management of BancGroup knows of no reason why any nominated person would be unavailable to serve as a director.

Assuming a quorum is present at the Annual Meeting, a plurality of the votes cast will be sufficient to elect the directors. Voting for directors is Proposal 1 on the proxy card.

The bylaws of BancGroup contain certain limitations on stockholder nominations of candidates for election as directors. See Bylaw Provisions Regarding Conduct of Stockholders Meetings for a description of such limitations.

The following table provides certain biographical information about each nominee to be proposed on behalf of the Board and the directors whose terms will expire in 2005 and 2006. Unless otherwise indicated, each person has been engaged in the principal occupation shown for the last five years.

BANCGROUP COMMITTEES, MEETINGS AND ATTENDANCE

BancGroup's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation provides that there shall be an Audit Committee of the Board composed of not less than three directors appointed by the Board at least annually, none of whom shall be active officers of BancGroup. The Audit Committee shall make an examination at least once each year into the financial affairs of BancGroup and report the results of its examination in writing to the Board at its next regular meeting. The Audit Committee may make recommendations to the Board and, with the approval of the Board, may employ an independent firm of certified public accountants. The Audit Committee of the Board presently consists of Lewis E. Beville, Chairman, William Britton, Jerry J. Chesser, William E. Powell, Frances E. Roper, and Simuel Sippial. Each member of the Audit Committee satisfies the experience and financial literacy requirements and Mr. Beville qualifies as an audit committee financial expert as such terms and requirements are defined by the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE) and the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). The Audit Committee met four times in 2003 (See Audit Committee Report). The Board has determined that all members of the Audit Committee are independent. Throughout this Proxy Statement, a reference to being independent, means independent as that term is defined by Section 303.01(B)(2)(a) and (b) of the listing standards of the NYSE. The Audit Committee Charter, as amended, has been attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix A.

BancGroup has a Personnel and Compensation Committee (the Compensation Committee) presently consisting of Simuel Sippial, Chairman, Milton E. McGregor, and Joe D. Mussafer. The principal functions of the Compensation Committee are to discharge the Board's responsibilities in matters relating to executive compensation and administration of BancGroup's incentive compensation and equity-based plans, and to produce annually a report on executive compensation for inclusion in BancGroup's proxy statement. Prior to January 15, 2003, a subcommittee of the Compensation Committee (the Subcommittee) was responsible for determining all cash compensation for executive officers of BancGroup and making decisions regarding stock-based awards, including awards to executive officers. The Subcommittee was dissolved on January 15, 2003, and the Compensation Committee assumed the responsibilities of the Subcommittee. The Compensation Committee met three times in 2003 and the Subcommittee did not meet in 2003 (See the Personnel and Compensation Committee Report). All current members of the Compensation Committee have been determined by the Board to be independent. The Personnel and Compensation Committee Charter is attached hereto as Appendix B.

BancGroup's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee nominates individuals to stand for election as directors of BancGroup and evaluates BancGroup's standards of corporate governance. This committee presently consists of Robert S. Craft, Chairman, Lewis E. Beville, Harold D. King, and Simuel Sippial. After a full discussion of qualifications of the nominees hereinafter listed, this committee recommended the nomination of the individuals listed on page 4, who stand for election at the 2004 annual meeting of stockholders. The nomination of Mr. Harris was recommended in part because this committee determined that he met the requirements of an audit committee financial expert (as required by applicable SEC guidelines). The committee met one time in 2003. The Board has determined that all members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee are independent. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider nominees recommended by BancGroup stockholders, but only if such nominees are submitted in accordance with BancGroup's bylaws. See Bylaw Provisions Regarding Conduct of Stockholders Meetings for a description of the procedures that must be followed to nominate a director. This committee has other duties that are more specifically set out in the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee Charter, attached hereto as Appendix C.

BancGroup has an Executive Committee presently consisting of Robert E. Lowder, Chairman, Augustus K. Clements, III, Robert S. Craft, Harold D. King, and John C.H. Miller, Jr. The principal functions of this committee are to perform certain actions in lieu of the Board at times when a meeting of the full Board is not feasible or practicable. This committee met two times in 2003.

BancGroup has an Asset/Liability Committee (ALCO) presently consisting of Harold D. King, Chairman, Patrick F. Dye, Joe D. Mussafer, James W. Rane, and Edward V. Welch. The principal function of this committee is to establish a framework of procedures, responsibilities and policies regarding the management of BancGroup's assets and liabilities in order to optimize the net interest margin and net income under a range of interest rate scenarios while assuming reasonable business risks. Management provides to this committee detailed reports on the company's interest rate risk and liquidity position along with current strategies. This committee met four times in 2003.

During 2003, the Board met four times. All incumbent BancGroup directors attended 75% or more of the Board meetings and their respective committee meetings, in which he or she served.

STOCKHOLDER COMMUNICATIONS WITH DIRECTORS

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANCGROUP INC - Form DEF 14A

The Company has a process to facilitate written communications by stockholders or other interested parties to the Board. Persons wishing to write to the Board of Directors of BancGroup or a specified director or committee of the Board should send correspondence to Lewis E. Beville, Audit Committee Chairman, P.O. Box 1108, Montgomery, Alabama 36101-1108.

All communications so received from stockholders or other interested parties will be forwarded to the members of the Board of Directors, or to a specific Board member or committee if so designated by such person. Anyone who wishes to communicate with a specific Board member or committee should send instructions asking that the material be forwarded to the director or to the appropriate committee chairman.

BancGroup encourages its directors to attend its annual meeting of stockholders. Last year, 14 directors attended the annual meeting.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Board of Directors has determined that the majority of BancGroup's directors are independent. In determining director independence, the Board broadly considers relevant facts and circumstances, including the rules of the New York Stock Exchange. The Board considers each director's personal independence and the manner in which each director's affiliations, both corporate and personal, might impair his or her independence. An independent director must be free of any relationship with BancGroup or its management that may impair the director's ability to make independent judgments. Particular attention is paid to whether a director is independent from management and of any credit relationships that may exist between Colonial Bank and a director or a related interest. Generally, credit relationships with directors and their affiliates will not impair independence so long as the terms of the credit relationship are similar to terms extended to other comparable borrowers. A director who is an executive officer or principal stockholder of a company that makes payments to or receives payments from BancGroup for property or services in an amount which, in any fiscal year, is greater than 2% of the consolidated gross revenues of either BancGroup or such director's company will not be considered independent.

The Board of Directors conducts a self-assessment annually, which is lead by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. In addition, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, Compensation Committee and the Audit Committee each also undergo an annual assessment of their performance. The non-employee directors of the Board meet in executive session at each regularly scheduled meeting and such meetings are presided over by Mr. King, the Vice Chairman of the Board. Once per year, an executive session comprised solely of independent directors is held in place of the meeting of non-employee directors described above.

Colonial BancGroup has adopted a Code of Ethics for Principal Financial Officers that applies to BancGroup's chief executive officer, chief financial officer and chief accounting officer. This code of ethics was attached as Exhibit 14 to BancGroup's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003. Each year, the Board of Directors also reviews, amends, if necessary, and readopts a code of ethics that applies to all employees, officers and directors of BancGroup and its subsidiaries. This more general code of ethics is posted on BancGroup's website at www.colonialbank.com. In addition, copies of the codes of ethics and the committee charters referenced above are available in print to any stockholder who requests them by contacting William A. McCrary, Secretary, at 334-240-5315. The Board intends that non-employee directors make decisions on matters of corporate governance. As additional corporate governance standards are adopted, they will be disclosed on an ongoing basis on either BancGroup's website or in its public filings, as appropriate.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires BancGroup's directors, certain officers and 10% stockholders, if any, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership of BancGroup Common Stock with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). Such officers, directors and 10% stockholders, if any, are required by SEC regulations to furnish BancGroup with copies of all Section 16(a) reports they file, including reports on Form 5, which are filed with the SEC annually.

Based solely on its review of the copies of such forms received by it, or written representations from certain reporting persons that no reports on Form 5 were required for those persons, BancGroup believes that during 2003, all filings applicable to its officers, directors and 10% stockholders were made timely.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS

AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

For the majority of 2003, the Personnel and Compensation Committee of BancGroup consisted of Simuel Sippial, Chairman, Robert S. Craft, Milton E. McGregor, Joe D. Mussafer, and Frances E. Roper. Until January 15, 2003, the Committee also included John Ed Mathison and John C.H. Miller, Jr. Mr. Mathison received $18,000 in employment-related compensation from BancGroup in 2003. On January 21, 2004, Mr. Craft and Ms. Roper ceased to serve on this committee. The law firm of Miller, Hamilton, Snider & Odom, L.L.C., of which Mr. Miller is a member, performed legal services for BancGroup, its subsidiary bank, Colonial Bank, and other BancGroup subsidiaries in 2003 for which it received approximately $2,647,660 in fees as compensation therefore. In addition, as described below at Executive Compensation Director Compensation, during 2003, Mr. Miller received employment-related compensation of $41,845, the use of a company provided vehicle for personal use valued at $4,204 and the personal use of the company aircraft valued at $2,215. He also received a year-end cash bonus in the amount of $100,000 which was paid in 2004. This bonus was for services provided to BancGroup. See Other Transactions. Finally, Mr. Robert S. Craft received a year-end cash bonus in the amount of $25,000, paid in 2004, for his service as Chairman of Colonial's Gulf Coast Regional Board of Directors. See Other Transactions.

Robert E. Lowder is the Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer, and a principal stockholder of BancGroup. For part of 2003, BancGroup and its subsidiaries leased office space in the Colonial Financial Center in Montgomery, Alabama, from GC Associates I, Joint Venture, a company in which Mr. Lowder had a 16.7% ownership interest. The lease payments for this period (January 1 to June 17, 2003), totaled $614,288. The Colonial Financial Center was sold to an unaffiliated purchaser effective June 17, 2003 who now leases the facility to BancGroup and its subsidiaries. Colonial Bank currently leases real estate which is partially owned by Mr. Lowder and on which one of its Montgomery, Alabama branches is located. BancGroup currently pays an annual rental of $6,761 pursuant to this lease. This lease expires in August, 2004.

With respect to the preceding transactions, management of BancGroup believes that such arrangements are at least as favorable to BancGroup as those which might be negotiated with unaffiliated parties for similar transactions.

Other Transactions

BancGroup has retained in the past and proposes to retain in the future on behalf of BancGroup or its subsidiaries the law firm of Miller, Hamilton, Snider & Odom, L.L.C., Mobile, Alabama, of which a director of BancGroup, John C.H. Miller, Jr., is a member. Legal fees paid to this firm by BancGroup and its subsidiaries were approximately $2,647,660 in 2003.

Management of BancGroup believes that such arrangements and related transactions are at least as favorable to BancGroup as that which might be negotiated with unaffiliated parties for similar arrangements and transactions.

Loans

Certain directors, officers and the principal stockholder of BancGroup and their affiliated interests were customers of and had transactions with Colonial Bank in the ordinary course of its business during the past year. Additional transactions may be expected to take place in the ordinary course of business. Included in such transactions were outstanding loans and commitments from Colonial Bank, all of which were made in the ordinary course of business on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons and did not involve more than the normal risk of collectability or present other unfavorable features.

Defined Benefit Plan

BancGroup maintains a Retirement Plan for all of the employees of BancGroup and its subsidiaries. An employee becomes eligible on January 1 or July 1 commencing at age 21 and after the completion of 1,000 hours of service during a year of employment by BancGroup or one of its subsidiaries.

The following table reflects the estimated annual benefits payable upon retirement under the Retirement Plan as a single life annuity commencing at age 65. These benefits ignore the lower benefit rate applicable to earnings below the Social Security Covered Compensation level.

Average Annual Remuneration	Years of Service
	Five	Ten	Fifteen	Twenty	Twenty-Five
$100,000	$ 7,600	$15,200	$22,800	$30,400	$38,000
125,000	9,500	19,000	28,500	38,000	47,500
160,000	12,160	24,320	36,480	48,640	60,800
200,000	15,200	30,400	45,600	60,800	76,000

A person's benefits are not increased to the extent his average annual compensation exceeds $200,000.

Benefits are based upon the number of years of service (maximum 25 years), the participant's final average earnings, and the amount of Social Security Covered Compensation. A participant receives credit for a year of service for every year in which 1,000 hours are completed in the employment of BancGroup or one of its subsidiaries.

The benefits shown are limited by the current statutory limitations, which restrict the amount of benefits that can be paid from a qualified retirement plan. The statutory limit on compensation that may be recognized in calculating benefits is $200,000. This limitation is scheduled to increase periodically with the cost of living increase.

All compensation except compensation which relates to director fees, if any, shown for executive officers in the cash compensation table above is covered by the Retirement Plan. Robert E. Lowder has 37 years of eligibility, W. Flake Oakley has 16 years, Sarah H. Moore has 7 years, Caryn Cope has 18 years, and Tanya A. Mayne has one year.

Compensation Plans

Directors' Plan. BancGroup's Restricted Stock Plan for Directors (the Directors' Plan) provides a means whereby directors of BancGroup and its subsidiaries, as well as its regional and local advisory boards, may receive shares of BancGroup Common Stock in lieu of cash fees for service as directors. Directors of subsidiaries who are also employees are not currently eligible to participate in the Directors' Plan.

Upon election as a director, each director may receive, at the option of the director, in lieu of cash fees, that number of whole shares of Common Stock of BancGroup, rounded to the nearest whole number, determined by dividing the Regular Fees the director would have received during the director's current term of office by the average of the closing prices of the Common Stock as reported by the NYSE for the period of 30 trading days prior to such election. Regular Fees means that amount of fees payable to a director in cash, and without regard to attendance at meetings, for a full term of office as a director. Under the terms of the Directors' Plan, a BancGroup director's term of office begins upon the day of BancGroup's annual meeting of stockholders and ends the day before the next year's annual meeting.

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANCGROUP INC - Form DEF 14A

A director may also elect to receive Common Stock at the end of the term, based upon the amount of Supplemental Fees such director would have been entitled to receive during such term and subject to certain restrictions and risks of forfeiture, provided such director has waived the receipt of Supplemental Fees at the commencement of such director's term. Supplemental Fees means fees paid to a director for attendance at the committee meetings, special meetings of the Board, or otherwise, and which are paid only on an ad hoc basis. The number of shares to which the director is entitled shall be calculated at the end of the director's term and shall be equal to that number of whole shares of Common Stock, rounded to the nearest whole number, determined by dividing the Supplemental Fees the director would have received during the current term by the average of the closing prices of the Common Stock for the period of 30 trading days prior to the election as a director to such term.

Each director of BancGroup who participates in the Directors' Plan must enter into a written agreement with BancGroup. Directors of BancGroup may elect on an annual basis whether to participate in the Directors' Plan for the following year commencing with the annual meeting of stockholders, in which case the 30-day period used to determine price expires prior to the annual meeting which commences the period of annual participation. No director may receive more than 4,800 shares of Common Stock during any one year, except for shares which may be received through stock splits, stock dividends, or certain other events specified in the Directors' Plan.

Directors to whom shares of Common Stock have been awarded in lieu of Regular Fees under the Directors' Plan have all rights of stockholders with respect to shares of Common Stock so awarded, subject to certain provisions regarding forfeiture, which means, among other things, that directors may receive dividends upon and vote the shares of Common Stock awarded in lieu of Regular Fees.

Stock Option Plans. Effective July 1, 2001, BancGroup adopted The Colonial BancGroup, Inc. 2001 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the LTIP) pursuant to which equity based incentives, including but not limited to options for Common Stock and grants of Common Stock, may be issued to officers, directors (including regional and advisory directors) and employees. BancGroup may issue a total of 10,000,000 shares of Common Stock under the LTIP. BancGroup's former stock option and stock bonus plans expired on June 30, 2001, but options issued pursuant to those plans remain outstanding.

Management Incentive Plan. In 2000, BancGroup adopted a management incentive plan pursuant to which the Subcommittee was authorized to award certain executive officers of BancGroup cash compensation, the receipt of which is dependant on BancGroup achieving one or more pre-selected performance goals. No Common Stock is issued in connection with the Management Incentive Plan.

Director Compensation. Directors of BancGroup receive fees of $2,500 per quarter, plus $1,000 for each Board meeting attended. Members of BancGroup committees receive fees of $500 for each BancGroup committee meeting attended. The Chairmen of the Audit Committee, the Personnel and Compensation Committee, and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee each receive $1,000 for each meeting attended and Chairmen of other Committees each receive $750 for each committee meeting attended. From time to time, BancGroup may form one or more special litigation committees. Members of such committees receive $500 per meeting attended unless such meeting extends beyond four hours in length, in which such case the member receives an additional $500 for each four hour period or any portion thereof. Certain directors of BancGroup also serve as directors of Colonial Bank or its regional boards and receive fees that are comparable to those paid by BancGroup. Fees paid to BancGroup directors in cash for 2003 totaled $269,395. In 2003, a total of approximately 14,384 shares of Common Stock were earned for service in 2003 and approximately 12,207 shares were issued in 2003 for service in 2002 under the Directors' Plan to BancGroup directors for service as directors of BancGroup and its subsidiaries.

John C.H. Miller, Jr., Clinton O. Holdbrooks, Patrick F. Dye and John Ed Mathison received employment-related or other compensation during 2003 of $41,845, $1,100, $39,001 and $18,000, respectively. Mr. Miller also received use of a company vehicle for personal use valued at $4,204, the personal use of the company aircraft valued at $2,215 and received a $100,000 year-end cash bonus paid in 2004 for services provided to BancGroup. Mr. Miller provides advice to BancGroup management and to Colonial Bank's Gulf Coast Region that extends beyond the legal work for which Mr. Miller's law firm receives legal fees. Mr. Holdbrooks, Mr. Dye and Dr. Mathison perform consulting, public relations, speaking engagements, and/or customer development services for either BancGroup, Colonial Bank or both. Mr. King received the personal use of the company aircraft valued at $976. Finally, Mr. Robert S. Craft received a year-end bonus in the amount of $25,000 for his service as Chairman of the Gulf Coast Regional Board of Directors which was paid in 2004.

PERSONNEL AND COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

From January 1, 2003 to January 15, 2003, the Personnel and Compensation Committee of BancGroup (the Committee) consisted of John C.H. Miller, Jr., Chairman, Milton E. McGregor, Joe D. Mussafer, John Ed Mathison, Frances E. Roper, and Simuel Sippial. As with previous years, the Board utilized a subcommittee (the Subcommittee) of the Committee during that period, which consisted of Joe D. Mussafer, Frances E. Roper, and Simuel Sippial to determine all cash compensation for executive officers of BancGroup. The Subcommittee also made decisions regarding stock-based awards under BancGroup's Long-Term Incentive Plan (the LTIP), including awards made to executive officers. References to actions of the Committee prior to January 15, 2003, were actually made by the Subcommittee.

In 2003, John C.H. Miller, Jr. and John Ed Mathison received employment-related compensation from BancGroup, and the law firm of which Mr. Miller is a partner received legal fees from BancGroup. See Executive Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation and Executive Compensation Director Compensation.

In response to proposed changes in listing standards by the NYSE which require independence (as that term is defined by the NYSE) of compensation committee members, John C.H. Miller, Jr. and John Ed Mathison resigned from the Committee. Simuel Sippial was named Chairman of the Committee and Director Robert S. Craft was appointed to the Committee on January 15, 2003. Further, on January 15, 2003, the Subcommittee, which had existed during previous years was dissolved. Mr. Craft and Ms. Roper ceased to serve on this committee on January 21, 2004. The Committee retains responsibility for the functions previously performed by the Subcommittee.

Compensation Principles

Executive compensation in 2003 was determined in accordance with five principles: (1) BancGroup's financial performance, both in terms of the attainment of short-term and long-term goals; (2) the competitiveness of executive compensation with BancGroup's peers; (3) the encouragement of stock ownership by executive officers; (4) the individual performance of each executive officer; and (5) recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer regarding all executive officers other than himself. No disproportionate weight was assigned to any individual principle.

Total Cash Compensation

Cash compensation consists of an annual salary established at the beginning of the fiscal year and a year-end bonus described further below. In setting compensation for the 2003 fiscal year, the Committee reviewed the compensation paid by a peer group of 56 bank holding companies which, as of June 30, 2002, had total assets greater than $10.0 billion each, which is a category designated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System as Peer Group 1. A total of 64 bank holding companies were in this category, but compensation information on eight companies was not available. BancGroup had total assets of $16.3 billion at year-end 2003.

The Committee approved the salary of each executive officer who reports directly to the Chief Executive Officer of BancGroup for 2003 in early-February 2003. The salaries paid to such executive officers in the peer group companies were analyzed in terms of (1) return on average assets, (2) return on average equity, (3) nonperforming assets, and (4) stock performance within ranges comparable to the same performance criteria for BancGroup. These criteria reflect how well such executive officers perform for the benefit of stockholders.

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANCGROUP INC - Form DEF 14A

The Committee accorded equal weight to the performance criteria in assessing the performance of BancGroup and in making the comparisons with the peer group. The Committee did not recommend compensation levels based upon a formula, but, rather, after reviewing the factors outlined above and receiving recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer for each person reviewed, other than the Chief Executive Officer, the Committee established salaries for 2003 that, in its subjective judgment, were fair in terms of BancGroup's performance in comparison with the peer group, the responsibilities performed by the executive within BancGroup and the level of compensation paid to comparable executives in the peer group companies.

Compensation for Chief Executive Officer

The Committee evaluated the salary of the Chief Executive Officer on the basis of the same criteria used to evaluate salaries of other executive officers. The Committee's determination of an appropriate level of compensation for the Chief Executive Officer was thus based on a comparison of BancGroup's performance with the performance of the peer group, the Chief Executive Officer's responsibilities within BancGroup, and the compensation paid to chief executive officers within the peer group. In light of this evaluation, the Committee did not increase the Chief Executive Officer's salary for 2003.

Cash Bonuses

At the end of 2003, the Committee approved cash bonuses to BancGroup's executive officers that report directly to the Chief Executive Officer as follows: $100,000 to W. Flake Oakley, $100,000 to Sarah H. Moore and $100,000 to Caryn Cope. The Committee based these awards upon the recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer. The Committee also approved a cash bonus of $30,000 to Tanya A. Mayne based upon the recommendation of the President.

In January 2000, the Board approved the Management Incentive Plan of The Colonial BancGroup, Inc. (the "MIP") for the purpose of providing short-term, performance-based cash bonus opportunities to BancGroup's executive officers. In December 2002, the Subcommittee selected the Chief Executive Officer to participate in the MIP in 2003 and subsequently, the Committee developed a payout matrix upon which the Chief Executive Officer's bonus under the MIP would be based. Under the payout matrix established by the Committee, the Chief Executive Officer was eligible to receive a bonus ranging from zero to 100% of his base salary depending upon BancGroup's performance with respect to four business criteria: return on average assets, return on average equity, earnings per share, and nonperforming assets. At a meeting held on February 13, 2004, the Committee reviewed BancGroup's 2003 performance with respect to these measures and certified that the Chief Executive Officer was entitled to receive a cash bonus for 2003 in an amount equal to $613,181.

Stock Bonuses and Stock Options

In March 2000, the Subcommittee awarded the Chief Executive Officer 125,000 shares of restricted stock under BancGroup's Stock Bonus and Retention Plan. The vesting of 62,500 of these shares was made contingent upon BancGroup's Common Stock price reaching a certain level within five years of the date the shares were granted, while the vesting of the remaining 62,500 shares of restricted stock was made contingent upon the level of BancGroup's return on average assets, return on average equity, earnings per share, and nonperforming assets. At its meeting held on February 13, 2004, the Committee certified the vesting of the 62,500 shares with price-based vesting in December 2003, and certified that 1,466 shares of restricted stock vested as a result of BancGroup's performance in 2003 with respect to the four financial measures.

At its March 2000 meeting, the Committee also awarded to the Chief Executive Officer 200,000 nonqualified stock options, half of which vest over a five year period and the other half vest if BancGroup's Common Stock price reach a certain level within five years of the date the options were granted. At its meeting held on February 13, 2004, the Committee certified that the price-contingent options vested in December 2003.

In addition, in March 2001, the Committee awarded the Chief Executive Officer 75,000 shares of restricted stock under BancGroup's Stock Bonus and Retention Plan. The vesting of 37,500 of these shares was made contingent upon BancGroup's Common Stock price reaching a certain level within five years of the date the shares were granted, while the vesting of the remaining 37,500 shares of restricted stock was made contingent upon the level of BancGroup's return on average assets, return on average equity, earnings per share, and nonperforming assets. At its meeting held on February 13, 2004, the Committee certified that 866 shares of restricted stock vested as a result of BancGroup's performance in 2003 with respect to these four financial measures.

In March 2003, the Committee approved an award to Ms. Mayne of 15,000 non-qualified stock options. In December 2003, the Committee approved awards of a combination of non-qualified and incentive stock options under the LTIP to Mr. Oakley, Ms. Moore, and Ms. Cope for 10,000 shares each. The Committee based these awards upon recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer. In December of 2003, the Committee also awarded 5,000 incentive stock options to Ms. Mayne based upon the recommendation of the President.

This foregoing report is submitted by the Committee.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee of BancGroup consists of Lewis E. Beville, Chairman, William Britton, Jerry J. Chesser, William E. Powell, Frances E. Roper and Simuel Sippial. The members of the Audit Committee satisfy the independence (as defined by Section 303.01(B)(2)(a) and (b) of the NYSE's listing standards) and experience requirements of the NYSE and the applicable rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC pursuant to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. Mr. Beville has been determined to qualify as an audit committee financial expert as that term has been defined by SEC rules and regulations.

The Audit Committee has adopted a charter. The Audit Committee reviews its charter for adequacy on an annual basis. In accordance with its charter, the Audit Committee met four times in 2003. The Audit Committee has reviewed BancGroup's audited financial statements with management to determine whether such statements were consistent with BancGroup's audit policy and whether BancGroup's internal controls were adequate for the preparation of the financial statements.

The Audit Committee also reviewed with management and BancGroup's independent auditor the quarterly financial statements of BancGroup prior to the filing of BancGroup's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q in 2003.

One of the Audit Committee's responsibilities is to recommend to the BancGroup's Board of Directors an independent auditor. The Audit Committee has recommended PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as BancGroup's independent auditor for 2004 (See Relationship with Independent Public Accountant).

In making its recommendation for 2004, the Audit Committee considered the fees paid to PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP in relation to the services PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP provided and the compatibility of any non-audit services that PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP provided to BancGroup with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP's status as its independent auditor. See Relationship with Independent Public Accountant Audit Fees for more information regarding fees paid to PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP during 2003.

The Audit Committee reviews allowable non-audit services that are proposed to be provided by Pricewaterhouse Coopers LLP and approves such if it determines that such services are not incompatible with maintaining PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP's independence.

This foregoing report is submitted by the Committee.

Principal Accountant Fees and Services

Aggregate fees for professional services rendered for the Company by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, were:

	2003	Percentage	2002	Percentage

No fees were received by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for items which would have been classified as All Other fees as of the year ended December 31, 2003. Fees received as of the year ended December 31, 2002, were for services rendered in connection with the outsourcing of internal audit activities.

Compatibility of Fees

BancGroup's Audit Committee has considered the provision of non-audit services by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP and the fees paid to PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for such services, and believes that the provision of such services and their fees are compatible with maintaining PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP's independence (See Audit Committee Report).

BYLAW PROVISIONS REGARDING CONDUCT OF STOCKHOLDERS MEETINGS

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANCGROUP INC - Form DEF 14A

BancGroup's bylaws contain two provisions relating to the conduct of stockholders' meetings. The first provision requires that certain procedures be followed by a stockholder of record who wishes to present business at the annual meeting of stockholders, including the nomination of candidates for election as directors. In order to nominate a person for election as a director or to present other business at a meeting, a stockholder must provide written notice thereof to the Secretary of BancGroup not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, provided that, if the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than 30 days or delayed by more than 60 days from such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be delivered not earlier than the 90th day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 60th day prior to such annual meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made.

As it relates to director nominations, the written notice must state all information as to each nominee required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors under SEC regulations, including the written consent of each such nominee. As for any other business that the stockholder proposes to bring before the meeting, the written notice must contain a brief description of the business, the reasons for conducting the business at the meeting and any material interest in such business of such stockholder. The notice must also contain the name and address of such stockholder and the class and number of shares of BancGroup owned beneficially and of record, as well as the same information for each beneficial owner who may be nominated for election as a director.

The Board is not required to nominate a person designated by a stockholder or to take up such other business as may be contained in a written notice from a stockholder; however, compliance with this procedure would permit a stockholder to nominate the individual at the stockholders meeting, and any stockholder may vote shares in person or by proxy for any individual such stockholder desires. The procedures relating to nominating directors and presenting other business at a stockholders meeting may only be used by a stockholder who is a stockholder of record at the time of the giving of the notice by the stockholder to the secretary of BancGroup. The procedures do not prohibit or apply to stockholder proposals under SEC Rule 14a-8 as described at Proposals of Stockholders.

The second provision of BancGroup's bylaws relates to the conduct of the business at a stockholders meeting. Under that provision, the Board has the authority to adopt rules for the conduct of meetings, and, unless inconsistent with any such rules, the Chairman of the meeting may prescribe such rules, regulations and procedures as, in his judgment, are appropriate for the proper conduct of the meeting.

PROPOSALS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Subject to certain rules of the SEC, proposals by stockholders intended to be presented at BancGroup's 2005 annual meeting of stockholders must be received at BancGroup's principal executive offices not less than 120 calendar days in advance of March 18, 2005 (November 18, 2004), for inclusion in the proxy or information statement relating to the 2004 annual meeting.

OTHER MATTERS

BancGroup does not know of any matters to be presented for action at the meeting other than those listed in the notice of the meeting and referred to herein.

BancGroup will furnish stockholders, upon written request and payment of a reasonable fee for copying charges, copies of the exhibits to its annual report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC for the year ended December 31, 2003. Requests should be made to:
