Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 31, 2005, Nationwide Health Properties, Inc., a Maryland corporation (the Company), entered into a first amendment to its employment agreement with Douglas M. Pasquale, its President and Chief Executive Officer. The amendment (a) allows the employment period to extend beyond the date when Mr. Pasquale attains age 65, (b) changes the range for Mr. Pasquale's annual bonus as a percentage of his annual base salary, (c) modifies the obligations of the Company to pay Mr. Pasquale a bonus amount if, prior to Mr. Pasquale being employed by the Company for at least three full fiscal years, either the Company terminates Mr. Pasquale's employment other than for Cause or Disability or Mr. Pasquale terminates his employment for Good Reason and (d) provides for the payment of an award earned under the three year long term incentive portion of the Company's compensation plan if Mr. Pasquale is either terminated by the Company other than for Cause or Disability or if Mr. Pasquale terminates his employment for Good Reason. The terms Disability, Cause, and Good Reason are defined in Mr. Pasquale's employment agreement.

On January 31, 2005, the Company entered into a third amendment to its employment agreement with Mark L. Desmond, its Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. The amendment (a) allows the employment period to extend beyond the date when Mr. Desmond attains age 65, (b) changes the range for Mr. Desmond's annual bonus as a percentage of his annual base salary, and (c) clarifies the vesting of any restricted stock and stock options and the payment of performance-based dividend equivalents upon termination of employment of Mr. Desmond by the Company other than for Cause or Disability. The terms Disability and Cause are defined in Mr. Desmond's employment agreement.

The foregoing summaries are qualified in their entirety by reference to the First Amendment to Employment Agreement of Douglas M. Pasquale and to the Third Amendment to Employment Agreement of Mark L. Desmond, copies of which are included as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2, respectively, to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
