Item 2.04 Triggering Events That Accelerate or Increase a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement.

On October 10, 2005, Prolong Super Lubricants, Inc. (the Company), a Nevada corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Prolong International Corporation (PIC), received notice from the holders (the Investors) of promissory notes (the Notes) issued by the Company pursuant to that certain Securities Purchase Agreement, dated November 23, 2004, as amended, between the Company, PIC and the Investors that an event of default had occurred under the terms of the Notes. In the notice, the Investors stated that the Company had failed to make principal and interest payments to the Investors within five (5) business days of the due date set forth in the Notes and that, as a result, all outstanding principal and accrued interest owed to the Investors by the Company had become immediately due and payable. The outstanding principal and accrued interest under the Notes is approximately $2.75 million.

The Company is presently attempting to resolve this matter with the Investors.
