The Company's operating results for the three and six month periods ended April 2, 2006 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full year ended September 30, 2006, due to business seasonality.

2 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation: These condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared by the Company, without audit, pursuant to the rules and regulations of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) and, in the opinion of the Company, include all adjustments (which are normal and recurring in nature) necessary to present fairly the financial position of the Company at April 2, 2006, and the results of operations and cash flows for the three and six month periods ended April 2, 2006 and April 3, 2005. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America have been condensed or omitted pursuant to such SEC rules and regulations. These condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2005. Certain prior period amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current period presentation.

Significant Accounting Policies and Practices: The condensed consolidated financial statements include the condensed consolidated financial statements of Spectrum Brands, Inc. and its subsidiaries and are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America. All intercompany transactions have been eliminated. The Company's fiscal year ends September 30. References herein to 2006 and 2005 refer to the fiscal years ended September 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

The preparation of condensed consolidated financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The Company's Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (unaudited) presented herein include the results of operations for Jungle Laboratories Corporation (Jungle Labs) subsequent to the September 1, 2005 date of acquisition, the results of operations for Tetra Holding GmbH (Tetra) subsequent to the April 29, 2005 date of acquisition and the results of operations for United Industries Corporation (United) subsequent to the February 7, 2005 date of acquisition. (See footnote 10, Acquisitions, for additional information on the Jungle Labs, Tetra and United acquisitions).

Discontinued Operations: On November 22, 2005, the Company announced the sale of its fertilizer technology and Canadian professional fertilizer products businesses to Agrium Inc., a leading agricultural retailer and wholesale producer and marketer of agricultural nutrients and industrial products. The sale, which was completed on January 25, 2006, included two divisions of Spectrum Brands Nu-Gro subsidiary, representing fiscal 2005 revenue of approximately $80,000 from sales of high-end specialty controlled-release nitrogen fertilizer and other products to professional turf markets and specialty wholesale fertilizer customers. Proceeds from the sale, currently $84,432, are expected to total approximately $83,000 after finalization of selling expenses and contractual working capital adjustments.

The Company has reflected the fertilizer technology and Canadian professional fertilizer products operations of Nu-Gro as discontinued operations. The Company discontinued these operations effective September 30, 2005 as part of the United integration initiatives. See footnote 11, Restructuring and Related Charges, for additional discussion of United integration initiatives. The following amounts have been segregated from continuing operations and are reflected as discontinued operations for the three and six month periods ended April 2, 2006 and April 3, 2005, respectively:

	Three Months		Six Months
	2006 ^(A)	2005 ^(B)	2006 ^(A)	2005 ^(B)
Net sales	$ 4,242	$ 13,546	$ 16,314	$ 13,546

Provision for income taxes	58	(980)	826	(980)
(Loss) income from discontinued operations (including estimated loss on disposal of $1,340 and $3,788, respectively, in 2006), net of tax	$ (1,528)	$ 1,669	$ (5,280)	$ 1,669

^(A) The three month period ended April 2, 2006 represents results for the discontinued operations for January 2006. The six month period ended April 2, 2006 represents results for the discontinued operations for October 2005 through January 2006.

^(B) The three and six month periods ended April 3, 2005 represent results for the discontinued operations for February and March 2005. The remaining balance in Assets held for sale consists primarily of a distribution facility in the Dominican Republic and a manufacturing facility in France.

Shipping and Handling Costs: The Company incurred shipping and handling costs of $55,804 and $98,132 for the three and six month periods ended April 2, 2006, respectively, and $39,828 and $61,540 the three and six month periods ended April 3, 2005, respectively. These costs are included in Selling expenses. Shipping and handling costs include costs incurred with third-party carriers to transport products to customers as well as salaries and overhead costs related to activities to prepare the Company's products for shipment from its distribution facilities.

Concentrations of Credit Risk: Trade receivables subject the Company to credit risk. The Company extends credit to its customers based upon an evaluation of the customer's financial condition and credit history, but generally does not require collateral. The Company monitors its customers' credit and financial condition based on changing economic conditions and will make adjustments to credit policies as required. Provisions for losses on uncollectible trade receivables are determined principally on the basis of past collection experience applied to ongoing evaluations of the Company's receivables and evaluations of the risks of nonpayment for a given customer.

(Amounts in thousands, except per share figures)

The Company has a broad range of customers including many large retail outlet chains, one of which accounts for a significant percentage of its sales volume. This customer represented approximately 15% and 19% of the Company's Net sales during the three and six month periods ended April 2, 2006, respectively, and 14% and 17% of its Net sales during the three and six month periods ended April 2, 2005, respectively. This major customer also represented approximately 10% and 12% of the Company's trade accounts receivable, net as of April 2, 2006 and September 30, 2005, respectively.

Approximately 44% of the Company's sales during the six month period ended April 2, 2006 occurred outside the United States. These sales and related receivables are subject to varying degrees of credit, currency, political and economic risk. The Company monitors these risks and makes appropriate provisions for collectibility based on an assessment of the risks present.

Stock-Based Compensation: On October 1, 2005 the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 123 (Revised 2004), Share-Based Payment (SFAS 123(R)) requiring the Company to recognize expense related to the fair value of its employee stock option awards. The Company recognizes the cost of all share-based awards on a straight-line basis over the vesting period of the award. Total stock compensation expense associated with both stock options and restricted stock awards recognized by the Company during the three and six month periods ended April 2, 2006 was $4,384 and $8,124, respectively, or $2,850 and $5,281, net of taxes, respectively. These amounts are included in General and administrative expenses in the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations (unaudited). The Company expects that total stock compensation expense for 2006 will be approximately $17,000 before the effect of income taxes. As of April 2, 2006 there was $44,450 of unrecognized compensation cost related to restricted stock that is expected to be recognized over a weighted average period of approximately 3 years.

The Company uses or has used two forms of stock based compensation. Shares of restricted stock have been awarded to certain employees and members of management since fiscal 2001. Restricted stock is now the only form of stock based compensation used by the Company. Prior to the fourth quarter of fiscal 2004, the Company also issued stock options to employees, some of which remained unvested at the adoption date of SFAS 123(R).

Stock options previously awarded generally vest under a combination of time-based and performance-based vesting criteria. Under the time-based vesting, the stock options become exercisable primarily in equal increments over a three year period, while under the performance-based vesting such options become exercisable over the same time period or one year after, if certain performance criteria are not met. The exercise period for all stock options does not exceed ten years from the date of grant.

Restricted stock shares granted prior to the third quarter of fiscal 2006 generally have vesting periods of three to five years. Approximately 50% of the restricted stock shares vest on a pro rata basis over either a three or four year vesting period and the remaining 50% vest over the same time period or one year after, if certain performance criteria are not met.

(Amounts in thousands, except per share figures)

Effective the third quarter of fiscal 2006, the only stock-based compensation to be awarded will be performance-based restricted stock or stock options. In this regard, vesting of such restricted stock will occur only upon achievement of certain performance goals established by the Board of Directors of the Company.

The Company currently has two active incentive plans under which additional shares may be issued. In 1997, the Board adopted the 1997 Rayovac Incentive Plan (1997 Plan). Up to 5,000 shares of Common stock may be issued under the 1997 Plan, which expires in August 2007. As of April 2, 2006, there were options with respect to 1,555 shares of common stock outstanding under the 1997 Plan. In 2004, the Board adopted the 2004 Rayovac Incentive Plan (2004 Plan). The 2004 Plan supplements the 1997 Plan. Up to 3,500 shares of common stock may be issued under the 2004 Plan, which expires in July 2014. As of April 2, 2006, 2,194 restricted shares had been granted under the 2004 Plan. No options have been granted under the 2004 Plan. The 2004 Plan expires on July 31, 2014.

The fair value of restricted stock is determined based on the market price of the Company's shares on the grant date. A summary of the status of the Company's nonvested restricted stock as of September 30, 2005, and changes during the six month period ended April 2, 2006, is as follows:

Restricted Stock	Shares	Weighted Average Grant Date Fair Value	Fair Value
Restricted stock at September 30, 2005	1,783	$ 26.87	$ 47,910
Granted	953	19.59	18,666
Vested	(503)	16.53	(8,315)
Forfeited	(39)	28.90	(1,127)
Restricted stock at April 2, 2006	2,194	$ 26.04	$ 57,134

Prior to October 1, 2005, the Company accounted for its stock option plans under the recognition and measurement provisions of Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees (APB 25) and related Interpretations, as permitted by SFAS 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation (SFAS 123). No stock option-based employee compensation cost was recognized in the income statement prior to that date, as all stock options granted under those plans had an exercise price equal to the market value of the underlying common stock on the date of grant. Effective October 1, 2005, the Company adopted the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS 123(R), using the modified-prospective transition method. Under that transition method, compensation cost recognized in fiscal 2006 includes: (a) compensation cost for all share-based payments granted prior to, but not yet vested as of October 1, 2005, based on the grant date fair value estimated in accordance with the original provisions of SFAS 123, and (b) compensation cost for all share-based payments granted subsequent to October 1, 2005, based on the grant-date fair value estimated in accordance with the provisions of SFAS 123(R). Results for prior periods have not been restated. As a result of adopting SFAS 123(R) on October 1, 2005, the Company's income from continuing operations before income taxes and net income for the three month period ended April 2, 2006, was $178 and $116 lower, respectively, and for the six month period ended April 2, 2006, was $381 and $248 lower, respectively, than if the Company had continued to account for share-based compensation under APB 25.

Prior to the adoption of SFAS 123(R), the Company presented all tax benefits of deductions resulting from the exercise of stock options as operating cash flows in the statement of cash flows. Beginning on October 1, 2005, the Company changed its cash flow presentation in accordance with SFAS 123(R) and FASB Staff Position (FSP) FAS 123(R)-3, Transition Election Related to Accounting for Tax Effects of Share-Based Payment Awards (FSP FAS 123(R)-3) which require the cash flows resulting from the tax benefits for these options to be classified as financing cash flows. The Company also elected to calculate its initial pool of excess tax benefits under the alternative transition method described in FSP FAS 123(R)-3.

The Company estimated the fair value of its previously granted option awards using the Black-Scholes option-pricing formula. The Black-Scholes option pricing model was used with the following weighted-average assumptions for grants made in the following years:

Black-Scholes Option Valuation Assumptions	2005	2004	2003
Fair value of options granted during the period	$	$ 7.79	$ 5.99
Expected term (in years)		6	8
Expected volatility		41.4%	40.3%
Expected dividend yield
Risk free rate		3.79%	3.36%

The following table illustrates the effect on net income and earnings per share if the Company had applied the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS 123(R) to options granted under the Company's stock option plans during the six month period ended April 3, 2005. For purposes of this pro forma disclosure, the value of the options is amortized to expense on a straight-line basis over a three year vesting period and forfeitures are recognized as they occur. The Company's pro forma information follows for the six month period ended April 3, 2005:

Derivative Financial Instruments: Derivative financial instruments are used by the Company principally in the management of its interest rate, foreign currency and raw material price exposures. The Company does not hold or issue derivative financial instruments for trading purposes.

The Company uses interest rate swaps to manage its interest rate risk. The swaps are designated as cash flow hedges with the changes in fair value recorded in Accumulated other comprehensive income (AOCI) and as a derivative hedge asset or liability, as applicable. The swaps settle periodically in arrears with the related amounts for the current settlement period payable to, or receivable from, the counter-parties included in accrued liabilities or receivables and recognized in earnings as an adjustment to interest expense from the underlying debt to which the swap is designated. Pretax derivative losses from such hedges recorded as an adjustment to Interest expense were $78 and $165 during the three and six month periods ended April 2, 2006, respectively, and $600 and $1,426 during the three and six month periods ended April 3, 2005, respectively. The pretax adjustment to Interest expense for ineffectiveness from such hedges included in the amounts above, was a gain of $0 and $431 during the three and six month periods ended April 2, 2006, respectively, and losses of $11 and $109 during the three and six month periods ended April 3, 2005, respectively. At April 2, 2006, the Company had a portfolio of USD-denominated interest rate swaps outstanding which effectively fixes the interest rates on floating rate debt at rates as follows: 4.81% for a notional principal amount of $100,000 through April 2007, 4.15% for a notional principal amount of $175,000 through September 2007 and 4.46% for a notional principal amount of $170,000 through October 2008. In addition, the Company had a portfolio of EUR-denominated interest rate swaps outstanding which effectively fixes the principal amount of 60,000 through September 2007 and 2.68% for a notional principal amount of 220,000 through September 2008. At April 2, 2006 and September 30, 2005, $785,564 and $445,000, respectively, of such swap contracts were outstanding. The derivative net gain on these contracts recorded in AOCI at April 2, 2006 was $7,273, net of tax expense of $4,457. At April 2, 2006, the portion of derivative net gains estimated to be reclassified from AOCI into earnings over the next 12 months is $2,240, net of tax.

The Company periodically enters into forward foreign exchange contracts to hedge the risk from forecasted foreign denominated third party and intercompany payments. These obligations generally require the Company to exchange foreign currencies for U.S. Dollars, Euros, Pounds Sterling, Australian Dollars, Brazilian Reals or Canadian Dollars. These foreign exchange contracts are cash flow hedges of fluctuating foreign exchange rates related to product or raw material purchases. Until the purchase is recognized, the fair value of the related hedges is recorded in AOCI and as a derivative hedge asset or liability, as applicable. At the time the purchase is recognized, the fair value of the related hedge is reclassified as an adjustment to purchase price variance in Cost of goods sold. Pretax derivative gains from such hedges recorded as an adjustment to Cost of good sold were $120 and $163 during the three and six month periods ended April 2, 2006, respectively, and pretax derivative losses were $69 during both the three and six month periods ended April 3, 2005, respectively. Following the purchase, subsequent changes in the fair value of the derivative hedge contracts are recorded as a gain or loss in earnings as an offset to the change in value of the related liability recorded in the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet (unaudited). Pretax derivative gains from such hedges recorded as an adjustment to earnings in Other income, net were $34 and $74 during the three and six month periods ended April 2, 2006, respectively, and pretax derivative losses were $89 during both the three and six month periods ended April 3, 2005, respectively. The pretax derivative adjustment to earnings for ineffectiveness from these contracts was $0 for the three and six month periods ended April 2, 2006 and April 3, 2005, respectively. At April 2, 2006 and September 30, 2005, respectively, the Company had $28,300 and $0 of such foreign exchange derivative contracts outstanding. The derivative net gain on these contracts recorded in AOCI at April 2, 2006 was $189, net of tax expense of $80. At April 2, 2006, the portion of derivative net gains estimated to be reclassified from AOCI into earnings over the next 12 months is $189, net of tax.

The Company periodically enters into forward and swap foreign exchange contracts to hedge the risk from third party and intercompany payments resulting from existing obligations. These obligations generally require the Company to exchange foreign currencies for U.S. Dollars, Euros, Pounds Sterling, Brazilian Reals or Canadian Dollars. These foreign exchange contracts are fair value hedges of a related liability or asset recorded in the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet (unaudited). The gain or loss on the derivative hedge contracts is recorded in earnings as an offset to the change in value of the related liability or asset. Pretax derivative losses from such hedges recorded as an adjustment to earnings in Other income, net were $353 and $611 during the three and six month periods ended April 2, 2006, respectively, and $466 and $528 during the three and six month periods ended April 3, 2005, respectively. The pretax derivative adjustment to earnings for ineffectiveness from these contracts was $0 for the three and six month periods ended April 2, 2006 and April 3, 2005, respectively. At April 2, 2006 and September 30, 2005, $89,112 and $0, respectively, of such foreign exchange derivative contracts were outstanding.

The Company is exposed to risk from fluctuating prices for raw materials, including zinc, urea and di-ammonium phosphates used in its manufacturing processes. The Company hedges a portion of the risk associated with these materials through the use of commodity call options and swaps. The hedge contracts are designated as cash flow hedges with the fair value changes recorded in AOCI and as a hedge asset or liability, as applicable. The unrecognized changes in fair value of the swaps are reclassified from AOCI into earnings when the hedged purchase of raw materials also affects earnings. The call options effectively cap the floating price on a specified quantity of raw materials through a specified date. The swaps effectively fix the floating price on a specified quantity of raw materials through a specified date. Pretax derivative losses and gains recorded as an adjustment to Cost of goods sold for swap contracts settled at maturity were losses of $393 and gains of $79 during the three and six month periods ended April 2, 2006, respectively, and gains of $1,173 and $1,379 during the three and six month periods ended April 3, 2005, respectively. The hedges are generally highly effective, however, pretax derivative losses recorded as an adjustment to Cost of goods sold for ineffectiveness were $0 and $24 during the three and six month periods ended April 2, 2006, respectively, and $75 during both the three and six month periods ended April 3, 2005, respectively. At April 2, 2006 and September 30, 2005, $39,253 and $5,591, respectively, of such commodity contracts were outstanding. The derivative net gain on these contracts recorded in AOCI at April 2, 2006 was $736, net of tax expense of $422. At April 2, 2006, the portion of derivative net gains estimated to be reclassified from AOCI into earnings over the next 12 months is $736, net of tax.

8 EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

The Company has various defined benefit pension plans covering some of its employees in the United States and certain employees in other countries, primarily the United Kingdom and Germany. Plans generally provide benefits of stated amounts for each year of service. The Company funds its U.S. pension plans at a level to maintain, within established guidelines, the IRS-defined 90 percent current liability funded status. At January 1, 2005, the date of the most recent calculation, all U.S. funded defined benefit pension plans reflected a current liability funded status equal to or greater than 90 percent. Additionally, in compliance with the Company's funding policy, annual contributions to non-U.S. defined benefit plans are equal to the actuarial recommendations or statutory requirements in other countries.

The Company also has various nonqualified deferred compensation agreements with certain of its employees. Under certain of these agreements, the Company has agreed to pay certain amounts annually for the first 15 years subsequent to retirement or to a designated beneficiary upon death. It is management's intent that life insurance contracts owned by the Company will fund these agreements. Under the remaining agreements, the Company has agreed to pay such deferred amounts in up to 15 annual installments beginning on a date specified by the employee, subsequent to retirement or disability, or to a designated beneficiary upon death. The Company established a rabbi trust to fund these agreements.

The Company incurred $204 of pretax restructuring and related charges during the six month period ended April 2, 2006 in connection with this closure. Approximately $500 is expected to be incurred during the remainder of fiscal 2006.

12 COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company has provided for the estimated costs associated with environmental remediation activities at some of its current and former manufacturing sites. The Company believes that any additional liability in excess of the amounts provided of approximately $3,145, which may result from resolution of these matters, will not have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, results of operations, or cash flow of the Company.

In November 2005, the Company received a request for information from the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Northern District of Georgia. On December 12, 2005, the Company received a request for the same information from the Atlanta District Office of the SEC. The U.S. Attorney's Office and the SEC are investigating the Company's July 28, 2005 disclosure regarding its results for the third quarter ended July 3, 2005 and the Company's revised guidance issued September 7, 2005 as to earnings for the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2005 and fiscal year 2006. The U.S. Attorney's Office and the SEC are also investigating the extent to which the Company's senior management sold shares in the thirty-day period preceding the July 28, 2005 and September 7, 2005 disclosures. The Company is cooperating fully with the investigations. The Company is unable to predict the outcome of the investigations or the timing of their resolution at this time.

The Company, along with certain Executive Officers, are defendants in a purported class action lawsuit, filed in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia. The lawsuit generally alleges that the Company and the individually named defendants made materially false and misleading public statements concerning the Company's operational and financial condition, thereby allegedly causing plaintiff to purchase Company securities at artificially inflated prices. The plaintiff seeks unspecified damages, as well as interest, costs and attorneys' fees. The Company believes that this action is without merit and intends to contest it vigorously.

On November 28, 2005, a motion was filed in the Georgia Action to appoint lead plaintiffs and approve selection of co-lead counsel. On December 30, 2005, the Court entered an Order granting plaintiffs' motion. Pursuant to the scheduling order entered on November 18, 2005, on February 2, 2006, lead plaintiffs filed a consolidated amended complaint. On March 6, 2006, Defendants filed a motion to dismiss the consolidated amended complaint. Briefing of Defendants' motion to dismiss was completed on April 28, 2006. Oral argument has not yet been set. The Company believes that these actions are without merit and intend to contest them vigorously. At this stage of the litigation, the Company cannot make any estimate of a potential loss or range of loss. See Item 1., Legal Proceedings, included in Part II Other Information for further information regarding this action.

The Company is a defendant in various other matters of litigation generally arising out of the normal course of business. Such litigation includes legal proceedings with Philips in Europe with respect to trademark or other intellectual property rights and patent infringement claims by the Gillette Company and its subsidiary Braun GmbH. With respect to the Braun suit, the Company reached a settlement under which it entered into a licensing agreement for the period from November 15, 2005 through January 27, 2015. Under the terms of the agreement, the Company paid Gillette $4,000 for the right to use certain patented technology through January 2015 and will pay royalties of five dollars per unit containing the patented technology and sold in the United States during the term of the licensing agreement. With respect to the remaining items, in the opinion of management, it is either not likely or premature to determine whether such matters will have a material adverse effect on the results of operations, financial condition, liquidity or cash flow of the Company.

13 NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In November 2005, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued FSP FAS 115-1 and FAS 124-1, The Meaning of Other-Than-Temporary Impairment and Its Application to Certain Investments (FSP FAS 115-1 and FAS 124-1). FSP FAS 115-1 and FAS 124-1 address the determination as to when an impairment in equity securities (including cost method investments) and debt securities that can contractually be prepaid or otherwise settled in such a way that the investor would not recover substantially all of its cost should be deemed other-than-temporary. FSP FAS 115-1 and FAS 124-1 nullifies certain requirements under EITF Issue No. 03-01, The Meaning of Other-Than-Temporary Impairment and Its Application to Certain Investments, that required the investor to make an evidence-based judgment as to whether it has the ability and intent to hold an investment for a reasonable period of time sufficient for a forecasted recovery of fair value up to (or beyond) the cost of the investment in determining whether the impairment was other than temporary, and the measurement of the impairment loss. The guidance in FSP FAS 115-1 and FAS 124-1 is effective for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2005. The Company does not believe the adoption of FSP FAS 115-1 and FAS 124-1 will have a material impact on its financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

In December 2004, the FASB issued FSP FAS 109-2, Accounting and Disclosure Guidance for the Foreign Earnings Repatriation Provision within the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 (FSP FAS 109-2). The American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 provides for a special one-time deduction of 85% of certain foreign earnings that are repatriated to a U.S. taxpayer. The Company is currently evaluating FSP FAS 109-2 and does not expect it to have a material impact on its financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

In November 2004, the FASB issued FAS 151, Inventory Costs, an amendment of ARB No. 43 Chapter 4 (FAS 151) to clarify the accounting for abnormal amounts of idle facility expense, freight, handling costs, and wasted material (spoilage) and requires that those items be recognized as current-period charges. In addition, this statement requires that allocation of fixed production overheads to the costs of conversion be based on the normal capacity of the production facilities. This statement is effective for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2005. The Company adopted this statement as of the beginning of fiscal 2006, and it has not had a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

14 CONDENSED CONSOLIDATING FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

In connection with the acquisitions of Remington, United, Tetra and Jungle Labs, the Company completed debt offerings of Senior Subordinated Notes. Payment obligations of the Senior Subordinated Notes are fully and unconditionally guaranteed on a joint and several basis by all of the Company's domestic subsidiaries.

The following condensed consolidating financial data illustrates the components of the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (unaudited). Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for using the equity method for purposes of illustrating the consolidating presentation. Earnings of subsidiaries are therefore reflected in the Company's and Guarantor Subsidiaries' investment accounts and earnings. The elimination entries presented herein eliminate investments in subsidiaries and intercompany balances and transactions. Separate condensed consolidated financial statements of the Guarantor Subsidiaries are not presented because management has determined that such financial statements would not be material to investors.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Introduction

We are a global branded consumer products company with leading market positions in seven major product categories: consumer batteries; lawn and garden; pet supplies; electric shaving and grooming; household insect control; electric personal care products; and portable lighting. We are a leading worldwide manufacturer and marketer of alkaline, zinc carbon and hearing aid batteries, as well as aquariums and aquatic health supplies and a leading worldwide designer and marketer of rechargeable batteries, battery-powered lighting products, electric shavers and accessories, grooming products and hair care appliances. We are also a leading North American manufacturer and marketer of lawn fertilizers, herbicides, pet supplies and specialty food products and insecticides and repellents.

We sell our products in approximately 120 countries through a variety of trade channels, including retailers, wholesalers and distributors, hearing aid professionals, industrial distributors and OEMs. We enjoy strong name recognition in our markets under the Rayovac, VARTA and Remington brands, each of which has been in existence for more than 80 years, and under the Spectracide, Cutter, Tetra, 8-in-1 and various other brands. We have manufacturing and product development facilities located in the United States, Europe, China and Latin America. We manufacture alkaline and zinc carbon batteries, zinc air hearing aid batteries, lawn fertilizers, herbicides, pet supplies and specialty food products and insecticides and repellents in our company operated manufacturing facilities. Substantially all of our rechargeable batteries and chargers, electric shaving and grooming products, electric personal care products and portable lighting products are manufactured by third party suppliers, primarily located in Asia.

On November 22, 2005, we entered into an agreement with Agrium Inc. to sell our fertilizer technology and Canadian professional fertilizer products businesses of Nu-Gro (Nu-Gro Pro and Tech) to Agrium. The transaction closed on January 25, 2006. Proceeds from the sale are expected to total approximately $83 million after finalization of selling expenses and contractual working capital adjustments. This divestiture allows us to focus on our primary growth strategy of marketing branded consumer products to retailers. Proceeds from the sale were used to reduce our outstanding debt. As part of the transaction, we have signed strategic multi-year reciprocal supply agreements with Agrium. (See footnote 2 to our Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (unaudited) filed with this report, Significant Accounting Policies Discontinued Operations, for additional information regarding this divestiture).

Our financial performance is influenced by a number of factors including: general economic conditions, foreign exchange fluctuations, and trends in consumer markets; our overall product line mix, including sales prices and gross margins which vary by product line and geographic market; pricing of certain raw materials and commodities; fuel prices and our general competitive position, especially as impacted by our competitors promotional activities and pricing strategies.

Fiscal Quarter and Fiscal Six Months Ended April 2, 2006 Compared to Fiscal Quarter and Fiscal Six Months Ended April 3, 2005

Year over year historical comparisons are influenced by our acquisitions of United and Tetra, acquired on February 7, 2005 and April 29, 2005, respectively. See footnote 10 to our Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (unaudited) filed with this report, Acquisitions, for additional information regarding these acquisitions.

During the six months ended April 2, 2006 (the Fiscal 2006 Six Months), Nu-Gro Pro and Tech was presented as discontinued operations consistent with our decision to sell these businesses. Consequently, the results of these discontinued operations for the three months ended April 2, 2006 (the Fiscal 2006 Quarter) and the Fiscal 2006 Six Months are reflected in our Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations (unaudited) as discontinued operations. The results of Nu-Gro Pro and Tech in Fiscal 2005 have been reclassified to conform to the Fiscal 2006 classification. As a result, and unless specifically stated, all discussions regarding our Fiscal 2006 Quarter and Fiscal 2006 Six Months reflect results from our continuing operations.

Index to Financial Statements

Net Sales. On a reported basis, net sales for the Fiscal 2006 Quarter increased to $625 million from $521 million during the three months ended April 3, 2005 (the Fiscal 2005 Quarter), reflecting a 20% increase. Net sales for the Fiscal 2006 Six Months increased to $1,245 million from $1,012 million during the six months ended April 3, 2005 (the Fiscal 2005 Six Months), reflecting a 23% increase. Our 2005 results reflect sales of lawn and garden, household insect control and United pet products for only February and March. No Tetra results are included in the Fiscal 2005 Quarter or Fiscal 2005 Six Months. After adjusting net sales to assume all acquisitions completed by us during Fiscal 2005 were completed as of October 1, 2004, our net sales for the Fiscal 2006 Quarter and Fiscal 2006 Six Months declined 4 percent and 7 percent, respectively. This decline is primarily a result of under-performance in our battery business.

Reported net sales by product line for the Fiscal 2006 Quarter, Fiscal 2005 Quarter, Fiscal 2006 Six Months and Fiscal 2005 Six Months, respectively, are as follows (in millions):

	Fiscal Quarter		Fiscal Six Months
	2006	2005	2006	2005
Product line net sales
Batteries	$ 184	$ 223	$ 443	$ 523
Lights	18	21	43	47
Shaving and grooming	45	38	147	150
Personal care	29	25	77	78
Lawn and garden	181	139	221	139
Household insect control	30	29	43	29
Pet products	138	46	271	46
Total net sales to external customers	$ 625	$ 521	$ 1,245	$ 1,012

The decline in our battery sales for the Fiscal 2006 Quarter and Fiscal 2006 Six Months was driven by a number of factors, primarily a reduction of inventory levels at certain retailers in North America, and the finalization of our transition to a new alkaline marketing strategy in North America, centered around an improved value position, which has taken longer than anticipated. Battery sales in Europe declined as well, as we exited some low margin private label alkaline business and as we continued to experience a shift in European distribution channels from electronic specialty stores and photo stores, where we enjoy strong market shares, to deep discount and food retail channels where we do not have as strong a presence. Lastly, unfavorable foreign exchange translation accounted for approximately $7 million and $16 million of the decline in consolidated legacy product line net sales for the Fiscal 2006 Quarter and Fiscal 2006 Six Months, respectively.

Gross Profit. Our gross profit margin for the Fiscal 2006 Quarter increased to 37.4% from 35.6% in the Fiscal 2005 Quarter and increased to 38.3% in the Fiscal 2006 Six Months from 37.9% in the Fiscal 2005 Six Months. The increase in gross margin is attributable to the charge recognized in the Fiscal 2005 Quarter related to inventory acquired as part of the United acquisition. In accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America, this inventory was revalued as part of the purchase price allocation. This accounting treatment resulted in an increase in acquired inventory of $29 million. During the Fiscal 2005 Quarter and the Fiscal 2005 Six Months, approximately $28 million of the inventory write-up was recognized in cost of goods sold. Excluding this charge and restructuring and related charges for the periods presented, our gross profit margin in the Fiscal 2005 Quarter and Fiscal 2005 Six Months was 40.9% and 40.7%, respectively, as compared to gross margins in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter and Fiscal 2006 Six Months of 37.5% and 38.4%, respectively. The Fiscal 2006 Quarter and Fiscal 2006 Six Months included the benefit of higher margin Tetra pet product sales. However, this benefit was more than offset by declines in our legacy battery, shaving and grooming and personal care margins. The decline in battery gross margins was driven by the previously mentioned shift in European distribution channels and higher raw material costs, especially zinc, as prices have continued to increase. Shaving and grooming and personal care margins declined primarily as a result of a product mix shift to lower margin products.

Operating Income. Our operating income for the Fiscal 2006 Quarter increased to $39 million from $33 million in the Fiscal 2005 Quarter. Excluding the impact of restructuring and related charges incurred during the Fiscal 2006 Quarter and the previously discussed $28 million inventory purchase accounting charge to cost of goods sold in the Fiscal 2005 Quarter, our operating income would have been $45 million and $61 million in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter and the Fiscal 2005 Quarter, respectively. After excluding these items, operating income as a percentage of net sales decreased to 7.2% in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter from 11.7% in the Fiscal 2005 Quarter. The majority of this decline was the result of the previously discussed declines in gross margin. In addition, after excluding these items, operating expenses as a percentage of net sales increased from 29.2% of sales in the Fiscal 2005 Quarter to 30.2% of net sales in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter. See the Restructuring and Related Charges section of Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations included below as well as footnote 11 to our Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (unaudited) filed with this report, Restructuring and Related Charges for additional information regarding our restructuring and related charges.

Our operating income for the Fiscal 2006 Six Months decreased to $91 million from $94 million in the Fiscal 2005 Six Months. Excluding the impact of $13 million of restructuring and related charges incurred during the Fiscal 2006 Six Months and the previously discussed $28 million inventory purchase accounting charge to cost of goods sold in the Fiscal 2005 Six Months, our operating income would have been $104 million and $122 million in the Fiscal 2006 Six Months and the Fiscal 2005 Six Months, respectively. After excluding these items, operating income as a percentage of net sales decreased to 8.3% in the Fiscal 2006 Six Months from 12.1% in the Fiscal 2005 Six Months. The majority of this decline was the result of the previously discussed declines in gross margin. See the Restructuring and Related Charges section of Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations included below as well as footnote 11 to our Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (unaudited) filed with this report, Restructuring and Related Charges for additional information regarding our restructuring and related charges.

Other Income. Other income for the Fiscal 2006 Quarter and Fiscal 2006 Six Months includes the benefit of two asset sales which occurred during the Fiscal 2006 Quarter. We recognized a net gain of approximately $8 million on the sale of our Bridgeport, CT manufacturing facility, acquired as part of the Remington acquisition and subsequently closed in Fiscal 2004, and the sale of our Madison, WI packaging facility, closed in Fiscal 2003. Prior to these sales, these assets were included in assets held for sale in our Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets (unaudited) filed with this report.

Discontinued Operations. Our loss from discontinued operations of $1.5 million, net of tax, and $5.3 million, net of tax, for the Fiscal 2006 Quarter and Fiscal 2006 Six Months, respectively, reflects the operating results of Nu-Gro Pro and Tech, as well as the estimated loss on the sale of these businesses. The transaction closed in January 2006. The total estimated loss on the sale of these businesses of approximately $3.8 million, net of tax, is included in the total loss for the Fiscal 2006 Six Months. Of this total estimated loss, approximately $1.3 million was recognized in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter. Finalization of the loss on the sale is pending completion of legal and accounting procedures associated with a working capital settlement. See footnote 2 to our Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (unaudited) filed with this report, Significant Accounting Policies Discontinued Operations for additional information regarding these discontinued operations.

Segment Results. Effective October 1, 2005, we began managing operations in four reportable segments: (i) North America, which consists of the legacy businesses (battery, shaving and grooming, personal care and portable lighting) in the United States and Canada and the acquired United lawn and garden and household insect control business; (ii) Latin America, which consists of the legacy businesses in Mexico, Central America, South America and the Caribbean; (iii) Europe/ROW, which consists of the legacy businesses in the United Kingdom, continental Europe, China, Australia and all other countries in which we conduct legacy businesses; and (iv) Global Pet, which consists of the acquired United Pet Group, global Tetra and Jungle Labs businesses.

Global and geographic strategic initiatives and financial objectives are determined at the corporate level. Each reportable segment is responsible for implementing defined strategic initiatives and achieving certain financial objectives. Each reportable segment has a general manager responsible for all the sales and marketing initiatives for all product lines within that segment plus the financial results of that segment. Financial information pertaining to our geographic regions is contained in footnote 9 to our Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (unaudited) filed with this report, Segment Results.

We evaluate segment profitability based on income from operations before corporate expense and restructuring and related charges. Corporate expense includes expense associated with purchasing, corporate general and administrative areas and research and development.

Assets as of April 2, 2006 and September 30, 2005	$ 2,220	$ 2,246	$ 2,220	$ 2,246

Our reported net sales to external customers in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter increased to $316 million from $281 million during the Fiscal 2005 Quarter. This 12% increase was primarily due to the inclusion of the acquired United lawn and garden and household insect control business for the entire Fiscal 2006 Quarter as compared to only February and March of the Fiscal 2005 Quarter. Net sales contributed by the acquired United business in January 2006 totaled $33 million. After adjusting net sales to assume all acquisitions completed by us during Fiscal 2005 were completed as of October 1, 2004, our net sales for the Fiscal 2006 Quarter declined 3 percent. Our battery sales in North America declined by $13 million, driven by the reduction of inventory levels at certain retailers in North America. Sales of our Remington shaving and grooming and personal care products increased approximately $8 million during the Fiscal 2006 Quarter while sales of our lawn and garden products were down approximately $2 million.

Our net sales to external customers in the Fiscal 2006 Six Months increased to $560 million from $496 million during the Fiscal 2005 Six Months. This 13% increase was primarily due to the inclusion of the acquired United lawn and garden and household insect control business for the entire Fiscal 2006 Six Months as compared to only February and March of the Fiscal 2005 Six Months. Net sales contributed by the acquired United business from October 2005 through January 2006 totaled $86 million. After adjusting net sales to assume all acquisitions completed by us during Fiscal 2005 were completed as of October 1, 2004, our net sales for the Fiscal 2006 Six Months declined 7 percent. Our battery sales in North America declined by $36 million, driven by the reduction of inventory levels at certain retailers in North America and the finalization of our transition to a new alkaline marketing strategy, which has taken longer than anticipated. This decline in our battery sales was tempered by an approximately $5 million increase in sales of our Remington shaving and grooming and personal care products during the Fiscal 2006 Six Months.

Our profitability in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter increased to $39 million from $34 million in the Fiscal 2005 Quarter. Excluding the impact of the previously discussed inventory purchase accounting charge in the Fiscal 2005 Quarter, $22 million of which related to the North America segment, profitability in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter declined by approximately 30%. This decrease was primarily due to the impact of lower battery sales and product mix shifts in our acquired lawn and garden and household insect control business. Operating expenses as a percentage of net sales increased to approximately 23.7% of net sales in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter from approximately 22.5% of net sales in the Fiscal 2005 Quarter. This increase was driven primarily by the impact of decreased battery sales combined with increased distribution expenses. Distribution expenses increased to 11.3% of net sales in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter as compared to 9.5% of net sales in the Fiscal 2005 Quarter. Distribution costs for the acquired United lawn and garden business are higher than the costs associated with our legacy businesses. In addition, increased fuel costs added approximately $4 million to distribution costs in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter.

Our profitability in the Fiscal 2006 Six Months decreased to $64 million from $75 million in the Fiscal 2005 Six Months. This 15% decrease was primarily due to the impact of lower battery sales and increased raw material costs, including zinc and urea. Excluding the inventory purchase accounting charge of approximately $22 million, profitability in the Fiscal 2006 Six Months declined by approximately 34%. This decrease was primarily due to the impact of lower battery sales and lower margins on those sales, which resulted in a reduction in gross profit of approximately $20 million. The remaining decrease is driven by higher distribution costs in the Fiscal 2006 Six Months.

Our assets as of April 2, 2006 decreased to $2,220 million from $2,246 million at September 30, 2005. Intangible assets at April 2, 2006 are approximately $1,509 million and primarily relate to the United and Remington acquisitions.

Our net sales to external customers in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter decreased to $117 million from $144 million during the Fiscal 2005 Quarter, representing a 19% decrease. Unfavorable foreign exchange translation accounted for $10 million of the decline. Battery revenue across Europe declined by approximately 17% excluding the impact of currency. This decline was the result of a continued stagnant economy in Europe, our decision to exit some low margin private label alkaline business and a shift in European distribution channels from electronic specialty stores and photo stores where we enjoy strong market shares, to deep discount and food retail channels where we do not have as strong a presence. We also saw declines in our higher margin photo and lithium battery sales driven by a shift in the photo market, as analog cameras are replaced by digital cameras, which predominantly use rechargeable batteries. Sales of our Remington branded products increased by 13% during the Fiscal 2006 Quarter excluding the impact of currency as we continue to gain distribution across continental Europe, driven by our investments in brand development.

Our net sales to external customers in the Fiscal 2006 Six Months decreased to $300 million from $367 million during the Fiscal 2005 Six Months, representing an 18% decrease. Unfavorable foreign exchange translation accounted for $24 million of the decline. Battery revenue across Europe declined by approximately 13% excluding the impact of currency. The battery business in continental Europe has been negatively impacted by a stagnant economy and the aforementioned shift in distribution channels, coupled with our decision to exit certain low margin private label alkaline business. Sales of our Remington branded shaving, grooming and personal care products declined by approximately 6 percent excluding the impact of currency as we were unable to anniversary the strong Fiscal 2005 Six Months sales resulting from the successful launch of a personal care product in the United Kingdom. Excluding Remington branded sales in the United Kingdom, net sales of Remington branded products in the remainder of the Europe/ROW segment increased 23% excluding the impact of currency in the Fiscal 2006 Six Months as compared to the Fiscal 2005 Six Months.

Our operating profitability in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter decreased to $7 million from $19 million in the Fiscal 2005 Quarter. The profitability decrease was primarily driven by lost gross profit as a result of the sales decline in batteries, along with the impact of increased zinc costs and lower production capacity utilization. Segment profitability as a percentage of sales declined to 6.0% in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter as compared with 13.2% in the comparable period last year. Operating expenses as a percentage of net sales increased to approximately 32.0% of net sales in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter from approximately 29.4% of net sales in the Fiscal 2005 Quarter. Nearly all of this increase was attributable to continued investments in marketing to build brand awareness.

Our operating profitability in the Fiscal 2006 Six Months decreased to $37 million from $55 million in the Fiscal 2005 Six Months. Segment profitability as a percentage of sales declined to 12.3% in the Fiscal 2006 Six Months as compared with 15.0% in the comparable period last year. The profitability decrease was primarily driven by lost gross profit as a result of the sales decline. Operating expenses as a percentage of net sales decreased slightly to approximately 26.8% of net sales in the Fiscal 2006 Six Months from approximately 27.1% of net sales in the Fiscal 2005 Six Months.

Our assets as of April 2, 2006 decreased to $509 million from $557 million at September 30, 2005. The decrease is primarily attributable to the impact of foreign currency translation.

Assets as of April 2, 2006 and September 30, 2005	$ 376	$ 368	$ 376	$ 368

Our net sales to external customers in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter increased to $54 million from $50 million in the Fiscal 2005 Quarter reflecting an 8% increase. Favorable currency translation accounted for $3 million of the increase. Additionally, the introduction of Remington branded products throughout the region is reflected in the sales increase for the Fiscal 2006 Quarter. Sales of Remington products are expected to continue to grow in fiscal 2006, the result of geographic expansion.

Our net sales to external customers in the Fiscal 2006 Six Months increased to $114 million from $102 million in the Fiscal 2005 Six Months reflecting a 12% increase. Favorable currency translation accounted for $7 million of the increase. Additionally, the introduction of Remington branded products throughout the region, as well as modest growth in our general battery business, are reflected in the sales increase for the Fiscal 2006 Six Months.

Our profitability in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter decreased to $3 million from $4 million in the Fiscal 2005 Quarter. Our profitability margins in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter decreased to 5.6% from 8.0% in the same period last year, mainly as a result of higher zinc prices. Our profitability in the Fiscal 2006 Six Months increased to $10 million from $9 million in the Fiscal 2005 Six Months. Our profitability margins in the Fiscal 2006 Six Months remained at 8.8% as compared to the same period last year. On an as reported basis, operating expenses as a percentage of net sales were essentially flat at approximately 31% of net sales in the Fiscal 2006 Six Months and the Fiscal 2005 Six Months. Excluding the benefit of a $1.6 million gain on the sale of a building in Mexico in the Fiscal 2005 Six Months, operating expenses as a percentage of net sales declined from approximately 32% of net sales in the Fiscal 2005 Six Months. These favorable trends in operating expenses offset the unfavorability experienced in raw material pricing.

Our assets as of April 2, 2006 were $376 million compared to $368 million at September 30, 2005. The increase in assets is primarily attributable to the impact of foreign currency translation. Intangible assets total approximately $229 million and primarily relate to the ROV Ltd. acquisition completed in fiscal 1999 and the fiscal 2004 Microlite acquisition.

Our net sales to external customers in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter were $138 million. Our net sales to external customers in the Fiscal 2005 Quarter were $46 million. Tetra, acquired in April 2005, accounted for $61 million of the increase in sales in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter. United Pet Group sales in January 2006 accounted for $22 million of the increase. After adjusting net sales to assume all acquisitions completed by us during Fiscal 2005 were completed as of October 1, 2004, our Global Pet sales for the Fiscal 2006 Quarter increased 4 percent, with specialty pet sales up approximately 10 percent and aquatics up 2 percent. In addition, excluding the impact of currency, Global Pet sales in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter increased 6 percent as compared to the Fiscal 2005 Quarter, with specialty pet sales up approximately 10 percent and aquatics up 5 percent.

Our net sales to external customers in the Fiscal 2006 Six Months were $271 million. Our net sales to external customers in the Fiscal 2005 Six Months were $46 million. United Pet Group and Tetra sales in the first quarter of fiscal 2006 accounted for $133 million of the increase. After adjusting net sales to assume all acquisitions completed by us during Fiscal 2005 were completed as of October 1, 2004, our Global Pet sales for the Fiscal 2006 Six Months increased 1 percent, with specialty pet sales up approximately 9 percent and aquatics down 2 percent. In addition, excluding the impact of currency, Global Pet sales in the Fiscal 2006 Six Months increased 3 percent as compared to the Fiscal 2005 Six Months, with specialty pet sales up approximately 9 percent and aquatics up 1 percent.

Our profitability in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter was $22 million, or 15.9% of net sales. Our profitability in the Fiscal 2005 Quarter and Fiscal 2005 Six Months was a slight loss. Excluding the impact of the previously discussed inventory purchase accounting charge in the Fiscal 2005 Quarter and Fiscal 2005 Six Months, $6 million of which related to the Global Pet segment, operating profitability would have approximated $6 million, or 13.0% of net sales. The remaining increase in segment profitability is driven by the inclusion of higher margin Tetra sales in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter and Fiscal 2006 Six Months.

Our assets as of April 2, 2006 increased to $826 million from $791 million at September 30, 2005. The increase in assets is primarily attributable to changes in goodwill as purchase price allocations were adjusted, as well as the impact of foreign currency. Intangible assets total approximately $590 million and relate to the acquisitions of Tetra and United Pet Group.

Corporate Expense. Our corporate expenses in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter increased to $26 million from $24 million in the same period last year. The increase in expense is primarily due to increased costs of global operations of approximately $2 million, primarily the result of the acquisitions of United and Tetra. Our corporate expense as a percentage of net sales in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter decreased to 4.2% from 4.6% in the previous year.

Our corporate expenses in the Fiscal 2006 Six Months increased to $49 million from $45 million in the same period last year. The increase in expense is primarily due to increased costs of global operations of approximately $4 million and increased research and development costs of $2 million, primarily attributable to the acquisitions of United and Tetra. These amounts were offset by a decrease of approximately $2 million in corporate general and administrative expenses primarily as a result of lower compensation related expenses. Our corporate expense as a percentage of net sales in the Fiscal 2006 Six Months decreased to 4.0% from 4.4% in the previous year.

See footnote 11 to our Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (unaudited) filed with this report, Restructuring and Related Charges for additional information regarding our restructuring and related charges.

Our integration activities related to the United and Tetra acquisitions are ongoing and are expected to continue through at least fiscal 2007, resulting in expected cost savings estimated at over $100 million per year when fully realized, $35 million of which are expected to be realized in fiscal 2006. Total costs associated with our integration efforts are expected to total approximately $85 million, of which approximately $60 million will be cash costs and $25 million will be non-cash. In fiscal 2006, we expect to incur approximately $40 million to $45 million of costs associated with the integration, which includes approximately $30 million to $35 million of cash costs.

As a result of our continued concern regarding the European economy and the continued shift from branded alkaline batteries to private label, we announced a series of initiatives in Europe to reduce operating costs and rationalize our operating structure (European initiatives). These initiatives include the closure of the Ellwangen, Germany packaging center and the relocation of operations to the Dischingen, Germany battery plant, the transfer of private label battery production at our Dischingen, Germany battery plant to our manufacturing facility in China, and the previously announced resizing and restructuring of sales, marketing and support functions. As a result of these measures, headcount in Europe will be reduced by approximately 350, or 24%. We incurred approximately $3 million and $4 million of pretax restructuring and related charges during the Fiscal 2006 Quarter and Fiscal 2006 Six Months, respectively, in connection with these actions. Upon completion of all actions, which are expected to be completed by June 2007, total annualized savings are projected at $33 million. Total costs associated with these initiatives, expected to be incurred through June 2007, relate primarily to severance and are projected to total approximately $27 million, which primarily represents cash costs.

There were no significant restructuring and related charges incurred during the Fiscal 2005 Quarter or Fiscal 2005 Six Months.

Interest Expense. Interest expense in the Fiscal 2006 Quarter increased to $43 million from $39 million in the Fiscal 2005 Quarter. Interest expense in the Fiscal 2006 Six Months increased to $84 million from $56 million in the Fiscal 2005 Six Months. These increases were due to increased debt levels associated with the United and Tetra acquisitions and higher interest rates. Interest expense for the Fiscal 2005 Quarter and Fiscal 2005 Six Months included $12 million of debt issue costs written off in connection with our acquisitions and related debt financings.

Income Tax Expense. As a result of the implementation of tax reduction strategies resulting from our recent acquisitions, we were able to reduce our effective tax rate from continuing operations to approximately 35% for the Fiscal 2006 Quarter and Fiscal 2006 Six Months from 37% for the Fiscal 2005 Quarter and Fiscal 2005 Six Months. We expect a continued benefit from these strategies going forward.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Operating Activities

For the Fiscal 2006 Six Months, operating activities used $44 million in net cash as compared to $4 million provided during the same period last year. This change is due primarily to a $23 million decline in net income, or a $50 million decline in net income when adjusted for non-cash items. Such items include a $28 million inventory valuation purchase accounting charge and a $12 million debt issue costs write-off, offset by a $9 million increase in amortization expense along with a $4 million increase in restricted stock compensation.

Investing Activities

Net cash provided by investing activities was $63 million for the Fiscal 2006 Six Months as compared to $1,064 million used for the Fiscal 2005 Six Months. The change was primarily due to significant acquisition payments included last year as well as proceeds from the sale of assets and the sale of discontinued operations during the Fiscal 2006 Six Months. We generated approximately $100 million of cash flow from the sale of Nu-Gro Pro and Tech and other surplus assets during the Fiscal 2006 Six Months. Capital expenditures during the Fiscal 2006 Six Months were approximately $30 million versus $20 million in the Fiscal 2005 Six Months. Capital expenditures for fiscal 2006 are expected to be approximately $60 million.

Debt Financing Activities

We believe our cash flow from operating activities and periodic borrowings under our credit facilities will be adequate to meet the short-term and long-term liquidity requirements of our existing business prior to the expiration of those credit facilities, although no assurance can be given in this regard.

Our Senior Credit Facilities include aggregate facilities of $1,422 million consisting of, approximately, a $605 million U.S. Dollar Term Loan, a $114 million Term Loan (USD $129 million at April 2, 2006), a Tranche B $281 million Term Loan (USD $318 million at April 2, 2006), a Canadian Dollar 87 million Term Loan (USD $70 million at April 2, 2006), and a Revolving Credit Facility of $300 million. There was $53 million outstanding under the Revolving Credit Facility at April 2, 2006. The Revolving Credit Facility includes foreign currency sublimits equal to the U.S. Dollar equivalent of $25 million for borrowings in Euros and the U.S. Dollar equivalent of £10 million for borrowings in Pounds Sterling, and the equivalent of borrowings in Chinese Yuan of $35 million.

Approximately $213 million remains available under the Revolving Credit Facility as of April 2, 2006, net of approximately $34 million of outstanding letters of credit.

In addition to principal payments, we have annual interest payment obligations of approximately $30 million under our debt offering of $350 million 8 1/2% Senior Subordinated Notes due in 2013 and annual interest payment obligations of approximately $52 million associated with our debt offering of $700 million 7 3/8% Senior Subordinated Notes due in 2015 (together, the Senior Subordinated Notes). We also incur interest on our borrowings associated with the Senior Credit Facilities, and such interest would increase borrowings under the Revolving Credit Facility if cash were not otherwise available for such payments. Based on amounts currently outstanding under the Senior Credit Facilities, using interest rate spreads in effect as of the May 9, 2006 amendment, and using market interest rates and foreign exchange rates in effect as of April 2, 2006, we estimate annual interest payments of approximately $80 million would be required assuming no further principal payments were to occur and excluding any payments associated with outstanding interest rate swaps. In addition, we are required to pay a quarterly commitment fee of 0.50% on the unused portion of the Revolving Credit Facility.

The Senior Credit Facilities contain financial covenants with respect to borrowings, which include maintaining minimum interest coverage and maximum leverage ratios. In accordance with the Senior Credit Facilities, the limits imposed by such ratios become more restrictive over time. In addition, the Senior Credit Facilities restrict our ability to incur additional indebtedness, create liens, make investments or specified payments, give guarantees, pay dividends, make capital expenditures, and enter into a merger or acquisition or sell assets. Indebtedness under these facilities (i) is secured by substantially all of our assets, and (ii) is guaranteed by certain of our subsidiaries.

The terms of both the $350 million 8 1/2% and $700 million 7 3/8% Senior Subordinated Notes permit the holders to require us to repurchase all or a portion of the notes in the event of a change of control. In addition, the terms of the notes restrict or limit our ability to, among other things: (i) pay dividends or make other restricted payments, (ii) incur additional indebtedness and issue preferred stock, (iii) create liens, (iv) enter into mergers, consolidations, or sales of all or substantially all of our assets, (v) make asset sales, (vi) enter into transactions with affiliates, and (vii) issue or sell capital stock of our wholly owned subsidiaries. Payment obligations of the notes are fully and unconditionally guaranteed on a joint and several basis by all of our domestic subsidiaries.

Based on anticipated results for the Fiscal 2006 Quarter and concern as to our compliance with certain debt covenants required under our Senior Credit Facilities, we entered into discussions with our senior lenders, and reached agreement on May 9, 2006, to amend the consolidated leverage ratio and consolidated interest coverage ratio covenants effective for the period ended April 2, 2006 and subsequent periods. Under the amendment, the limits imposed by such ratios become more restrictive over time. As a result of this amendment, interest costs on our existing Euro term loan increased by 25 basis points as the spread between the market rate and our rate increased from 2.75% to 3.00%. Interest costs on our existing U.S. Dollar, Canadian Dollar and Euro Tranche B term loans increased by 50 basis points as the spread between the market rate and our rate increased from 2.50% to 3.00%. Interest costs on our existing Revolver increased by 75 basis points as the spread between the market rate and our rate increased from 2.25% to 3.00%. In connection with the amendment, we incurred $3.5 million of fees which are being amortized over the remaining term of the Senior Credit Facilities. As a result of the amendment, we are in compliance with our various covenants, as amended, under our debt agreements.

Under the terms of our previous credit agreement, interest costs under our U.S. Dollar, Canadian Dollar and Euro Term loans would decrease based on improvements in our credit rating from Moody's and Standard & Poors. Under the terms of our amended credit agreement, interest costs on indebtedness under our Revolver, U.S. Dollar, Canadian Dollar and Euro Term loans would decrease if our leverage ratio improves to certain levels in future periods.

Equity Financing Activities

During the Fiscal 2006 Six Months we granted approximately 1.0 million shares of restricted stock. Of these grants, approximately 0.4 million shares will vest over a four-year period and 0.4 million shares will vest over a five-year period if certain performance-based targets are not met. The remaining 0.2 million shares vest at specific dates throughout 2008 and 2009. All vesting dates are subject to the recipients' continued employment with us. The total market value of the restricted shares on the date of grant was approximately $18.6 million which is being amortized to expense over the appropriate vesting period.

Effective the third quarter of fiscal 2006, the only stock-based compensation to be awarded will be performance-based restricted stock or stock options. In this regard, vesting of such restricted stock will occur only upon achievement of certain performance goals established by our Board of Directors.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We do not have any off-balance sheet arrangements that have or are reasonably likely to have a current or future effect on our financial condition, changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures, or capital resources that are material to investors.

Contractual Obligations and Commercial Commitments

There have been no material changes to our contractual obligations and commercial commitments as discussed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for our fiscal year ended September 30, 2005.

Critical Accounting Policies and Critical Accounting Estimates

Our condensed consolidated financial statements (unaudited) have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America and fairly present our financial position and results of operations. There have been no material changes to our critical accounting policies or critical accounting estimates as discussed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for our fiscal year ended September 30, 2005.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

In November 2005, the FASB issued FSP FAS 115-1 and FAS 124-1, The Meaning of Other-Than-Temporary Impairment and Its Application to Certain Investments (FSP FAS 115-1 and FAS 124-1). FSP FAS 115-1 and FAS 124-1 address the determination as to when an impairment in equity securities (including cost method investments) and debt securities that can contractually be prepaid or otherwise settled in such a way that the investor would not recover substantially all of its cost should be deemed other-than-temporary. FSP FAS 115-1 and FAS 124-1 nullifies certain requirements under EITF Issue No. 03-01, The Meaning of Other-Than-Temporary Impairment and Its Application to Certain Investments, that required the investor to make an evidence-based judgment as to whether it has the ability and intent to hold an investment for a reasonable period of time sufficient for a forecasted recovery of fair value up to (or beyond) the cost of the investment in determining whether the impairment was other than temporary, and the measurement of the impairment loss. The guidance in FSP FAS 115-1 and FAS 124-1 is effective for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2005. We do not believe the adoption of FSP FAS 115-1 and FAS 124-1 will have a material impact on our financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

In December 2004, the FASB issued FSP FAS 109-2, Accounting and Disclosure Guidance for the Foreign Earnings Repatriation Provision within the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 (FSP FAS 109-2). The American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 provides for a special one-time deduction of 85% of certain foreign earnings that are repatriated to a U.S. taxpayer. We are currently evaluating FSP FAS 109-2 and do not expect it to have a material impact on our financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

In November 2004, the FASB issued FAS 151, Inventory Costs, an amendment of ARB No. 43 Chapter 4 (FAS 151) to clarify the accounting for abnormal amounts of idle facility expense, freight, handling costs, and wasted material (spoilage) and requires that those items be recognized as current-period charges. In addition, this statement requires that allocation of fixed production overheads to the costs of conversion be based on the normal capacity of the production facilities. This statement is effective for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2005. We adopted this statement as of the beginning of fiscal 2006, and it has not had a material impact on our financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

Market Risk Factors

We have market risk exposure from changes in interest rates, foreign currency exchange rates and commodity prices. We use derivative financial instruments for purposes other than trading to mitigate the risk from such exposures.

A discussion of our accounting policies for derivative financial instruments is included in footnote 2 to our Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (unaudited) filed with this report, Significant Accounting Policies Derivative Financial Instruments.

Interest Rate Risk

We have bank lines of credit at variable interest rates. The general level of U.S. interest rates, LIBOR, Euro LIBOR and Canadian LIBOR affects interest expense. We use interest rate swaps to manage such risk. The net amounts to be paid or received under interest rate swap agreements are accrued as interest rates change, and are recognized over the life of the swap agreements, as an adjustment to interest expense from the underlying debt to which the swap is designated. The related amounts payable to, or receivable from, the contract counter-parties are included in accrued liabilities or accounts receivable.

Foreign Exchange Risk

We are subject to risk from sales and loans to and from our subsidiaries as well as sales to, purchases from and bank lines of credit with, third-party customers, suppliers and creditors, respectively, denominated in foreign currencies. Foreign currency sales and purchases are made primarily in Euro, Pounds Sterling, Canadian Dollars and Brazilian Reals. We manage our foreign exchange exposure from anticipated sales, accounts receivable, intercompany loans, firm purchase commitments, accounts payable and credit obligations through the use of naturally occurring offsetting positions (borrowing in local currency), forward foreign exchange contracts, foreign exchange rate swaps and foreign exchange options. The related amounts payable to, or receivable from, the contract counter-parties are included in accounts payable or accounts receivable.

Commodity Price Risk

We are exposed to fluctuations in market prices for purchases of zinc, urea and di-ammonium phosphates used in the manufacturing process. We use commodity swaps, calls and puts to manage such risk. The maturity of, and the quantities covered by, the contracts are closely correlated to our anticipated purchases of the commodities. The cost of calls, and the premiums received from the puts, are amortized over the life of the contracts and are recorded in cost of goods sold, along with the effects of the swap, put and call contracts. The related amounts payable to, or receivable from, the counter-parties are included in accounts payable or accounts receivable.

Sensitivity Analysis

The analysis below is hypothetical and should not be considered a projection of future risks. Earnings projections are before tax.

As of April 2, 2006, the potential change in fair value of outstanding interest rate derivative instruments, assuming a 1 percentage point unfavorable shift in the underlying interest rates would be a loss of $16.9 million. The net impact on reported earnings, after also including the reduction in one year's interest expense on the related debt due to the same shift in interest rates, would be a net loss of $6.4 million.

As of April 2, 2006, the potential change in fair value of outstanding foreign exchange derivative instruments, assuming a 10% unfavorable change in the underlying exchange rates would be a loss of $11.5

million. The net impact on reported earnings, after also including the effect of the change in the underlying foreign currency-denominated exposures, would be immaterial.

As of April 2, 2006, the potential change in fair value of outstanding commodity price derivative instruments, assuming a 10% unfavorable change in the underlying commodity prices would be a loss of $2.9 million. The net impact on reported earnings, after also including the reduction in cost of one year's purchases of the related commodities due to the same change in commodity prices, would be a net gain of $4.9 million.

Forward Looking Statements

We have made or implied certain forward-looking statements in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. All statements, other than statements of historical facts included in this Quarterly Report, including the statements under Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations regarding our business strategy, future operations, financial position, estimated revenues, projected costs, projected synergies, prospects, plans and objectives of management, as well as information concerning expected actions of third parties, are forward-looking statements. When used in this Quarterly Report, the words anticipate, intend, plan, estimate, believe, expect, project, will, should, may and similar expressions are also intended to identify forward-looking statements, although not all forward-looking statements contain such identifying words.

Since these forward-looking statements are based upon current expectations of future events and projections and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond our control, actual results or outcomes may differ materially from those expressed or implied herein, and you should not place undue reliance on these statements. Important factors that could cause our actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied herein include, without limitation:

competitive promotional activity or spending by competitors or price reductions by competitors;

the loss of, or a significant reduction in, sales to a significant retail customer;

the impact of fluctuations in the cost of raw materials;

difficulties or delays in the integration of operations of acquired businesses and our ability to achieve anticipated synergies and efficiencies with respect to those acquisitions;

interest rate and exchange rate fluctuations;

the introduction of new product features or technological developments by competitors and/or the development of new competitors or competitive brands;

the effects of general economic conditions, including inflation, labor costs and stock market volatility or changes in trade, monetary or fiscal policies in the countries where we do business;

our ability to develop and successfully introduce new products, protect our intellectual property and avoid infringing the intellectual property of third parties;

Edgar Filing: Spectrum Brands, Inc. - Form 10-Q

our ability to successfully implement, achieve and sustain manufacturing and distribution cost efficiencies and improvements, and fully realize anticipated cost savings;

the impact of unusual items resulting from the implementation of new business strategies, acquisitions and divestitures or current and proposed restructuring activities;

the cost and effect of unanticipated legal, tax or regulatory proceedings or new laws or regulations (including environmental, public health and consumer protection regulations);

public perception regarding the safety of our products, including the potential for environmental liabilities, product liability claims, litigation and other claims;

changes in accounting policies applicable to our business;

Index to Financial Statements

government regulations;

the seasonal nature of sales of our products;

weather conditions, primarily during the peak lawn and garden season; and the effects of political or economic conditions, terrorist attacks, acts of war or other unrest in international markets.

Some of the above-mentioned factors are described in further detail in the section entitled "Risk Factors" set forth below. You should assume the information appearing in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q is accurate only as of April 2, 2006 or as otherwise specified, as our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may have changed since that date. Except as required by applicable law, including the securities laws of the United States and the rules and regulations of the SEC, we undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise to reflect actual results or changes in factors or assumptions affecting such forward-looking statement.

RISK FACTORS

Any of the following factors could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations and the risks described below are not the only risks that we may face. Additional risks and uncertainties not currently known to us or that we currently view as immaterial may also materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition or results of operations.

We participate in very competitive markets and we may not be able to compete successfully.

The markets in which we participate are very competitive. In the consumer battery market, our primary competitors are Duracell (a brand of Procter & Gamble and its Gillette subsidiary), Energizer and Panasonic (a brand of Matsushita). In the lawn and garden and household insect control markets, our principal national competitors are The Scotts Company, Central Garden & Pet Company and S.C. Johnson. In the electric shaving and grooming and electric personal care product markets, our primary competitors are Braun (a brand of Procter & Gamble), Norelco (a brand of Philips), Vidal Sassoon, Revlon and Helen of Troy. In the pet supplies market, our primary competitors are The Hartz Mountain Corporation and Central Garden & Pet Company. In each of our markets, we also compete with numerous other competitors.

We and our competitors compete for consumer acceptance and limited shelf space based upon brand name recognition, perceived quality, price, performance, product packaging and design innovation, as well as creative marketing, promotion and distribution strategies. Our ability to compete in these consumer product markets may be adversely affected by a number of factors, including, but not limited to, the following:

We compete against many well established companies that may have substantially greater financial and other resources, including personnel and research and development resources, greater overall market share and fewer regulatory burdens than we do.

In some key product lines, our competitors may have lower production costs and higher profit margins than we do, which may enable them to compete more aggressively in offering retail discounts and other promotional incentives.

Product improvements or effective advertising campaigns by competitors may weaken consumer demand for our products.

Consumer preferences may change to products other than those we market.

Index to Financial Statements

Consolidation of retailers and our dependence on a small number of key customers for a significant percentage of our sales may negatively affect our profits.

During the past decade, retail sales of the consumer products we market have been increasingly consolidated into a small number of regional and national mass merchandisers and warehouse clubs. This trend towards consolidation is occurring on a worldwide basis. As a result of this consolidation, a significant percentage of our sales are attributable to a very limited group of retailer customers, including Wal-Mart, The Home Depot, Carrefour, Target, Lowes, PetSmart, Canadian Tire, PetCo and Gigante. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., our largest retailer customer, accounted for approximately 19% of our net consolidated sales in the first six months of fiscal 2006. Our sales generally are made through the use of individual purchase orders, consistent with industry practice. Because of the importance of these key customers, demands for price reductions or promotions by such customers, reductions in their purchases, changes in their financial condition or loss of their accounts could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, as a result of the desire of retailers to more closely manage inventory levels, there is a growing trend among them to purchase our products on a just-in-time basis. This requires us to shorten our lead-time for production in certain cases and more closely anticipate demand, which could in the future require us to carry additional inventories and increase our working capital and related financing requirements. Furthermore, we primarily sell branded products and a move by one of our customers to sell significant quantities of private label products which directly compete with our products could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our substantial indebtedness could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations and prevent us from fulfilling our obligations under the terms of our indebtedness.

We have, and we will continue to have, a significant amount of indebtedness. As of April 2, 2006, we had total indebtedness of approximately $2.3 billion.

Our substantial indebtedness could have material adverse consequences for our business, including:

make it more difficult for us to satisfy our obligations with respect to the terms of our indebtedness;

require us to dedicate a large portion of our cash flow to pay principal and interest on our indebtedness, which will reduce the availability of our cash flow to fund working capital, capital expenditures, research and development expenditures and other business activities;

increase our vulnerability to general adverse economic and industry conditions;

limit our flexibility in planning for, or reacting to, changes in our business and the industry in which we operate;

restrict us from making strategic acquisitions or exploiting business opportunities; place us at a competitive disadvantage compared to our competitors that have less debt; and limit our ability to borrow additional funds (even when necessary to maintain adequate liquidity) or dispose of assets.

In addition, a portion of our debt bears interest at variable rates. If market interest rates increase, variable-rate debt will create higher debt service requirements, which would adversely affect our cash flow. While we may enter into agreements limiting our exposure to higher debt service requirements, any such agreements may not offer complete protection from this risk.

The terms of our indebtedness impose restrictions on us that may affect our ability to successfully operate our business.

Edgar Filing: Spectrum Brands, Inc. - Form 10-Q

The agreement governing our Senior Credit Facilities and the indentures governing our outstanding Senior Subordinated Notes each contain covenants that, among other things, limit our ability to:

borrow money or sell preferred stock;

create liens;

pay dividends on or redeem or repurchase stock;

make certain types of investments;

sell stock in our restricted subsidiaries;

restrict dividends or other payments from restricted subsidiaries;

enter into transactions with affiliates;

issue guarantees of debt; and sell assets or merge with other companies.

These covenants could materially and adversely affect our ability to finance our future operations or capital needs and to engage in other business activities that may be in our best interest. These covenants may also restrict our ability to expand or pursue our business strategies. Our ability to generate cash flow to make payments on and to refinance our debt, and to comply with these covenants may be affected by events beyond our control, such as prevailing economic, financial and competitive conditions and changes in regulations, and if such events occur, we cannot be sure that we will be able to comply. A breach of these covenants could result in a default under the indentures governing our Senior Subordinated Notes and/or the agreement governing our Senior Credit Facilities. If there were an event of default under the indentures for the notes and/or the agreement governing our Senior Credit Facilities, holders of such defaulted debt could cause all amounts borrowed under these instruments to be due and payable immediately. Additionally, if we fail to repay the debt under the Senior Credit Facilities when it becomes due, the lenders under the Senior Credit Facilities could proceed against certain of our assets and capital stock which we have pledged to them as security. If the senior lenders caused all amounts borrowed under these instruments to be due and payable immediately, amounts outstanding under both our 8 1/2% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2013 and 7 3/8% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2015 would be subject to acceleration by action of the trustee under the respective indentures governing those notes or the respective holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the respective notes outstanding. We cannot assure you that our assets or cash flow will be sufficient to repay borrowings under the outstanding debt instruments in the event of a default thereunder.

We cannot assure you that we will be able to comply with our financial covenants and other provisions of our debt instruments in future periods.

Based on anticipated results for the quarter ended April 2, 2006 and concern as to our compliance with certain debt covenants required under our Senior Credit Facilities, we entered into discussions with our senior lenders, and reached agreement on May 9, 2006, to amend the consolidated leverage ratio and consolidated interest coverage ratio covenants effective for the period ended April 2, 2006 and subsequent periods. Under the amendment, the limits imposed by such ratios become more restrictive over time. As a result of this amendment, interest costs on our existing Euro term loan increased by 25 basis points as the spread between the market rate and our rate increased from 2.75% to 3.00%. Interest costs on our existing U.S. Dollar, Canadian Dollar and Euro Tranche B term loans increased by 50 basis points as the spread between the market rate and our rate increased from 2.50% to 3.00%. Interest costs on our existing Revolver increased by 75 basis points as the spread between the market rate and our rate increased from 2.25% to 3.00%. In connection with the amendment, we incurred $3.5 million of fees which are being amortized over the remaining term of the Senior Credit Facilities.

The more restrictive financial covenants and other provisions of our amended Senior Credit Facilities increase the possibility that we could be unable to comply with such covenants and provisions in the future. Failure to comply with the financial covenants and other provisions could materially and adversely affect our ability to finance our future operations or capital needs and could create a default under such instrument and cause all amounts borrowed to become due and payable immediately. In the event of default under the Senior Credit Facilities, the amounts outstanding under our Senior Subordinated Notes would also be subject to acceleration.

Index to Financial Statements

We cannot assure you that we will not violate the consolidated leverage ratio and consolidated interest coverage ratio covenants or other covenants under our Senior Credit Facilities in the future. Failure to comply with the terms of the agreement governing our Senior Credit Facilities could also require us to renegotiate or amend our Senior Credit Facilities on even less favorable terms.

Our dependence on, and the price of, raw materials may adversely affect our profits.

The principal raw materials used to produce our products including granular urea, zinc powder, electrolytic manganese dioxide powder and steel are sourced on a global or regional basis, and the prices of those raw materials are susceptible to price fluctuations due to supply/demand trends, energy costs, transportation costs, government regulations and tariffs, changes in currency exchange rates, price controls, the economic climate and other unforeseen circumstances. We regularly engage in forward purchase and hedging transactions in an attempt to effectively manage our raw materials costs for the next six to twelve months. These efforts may not be effective and, if we are unable to pass on raw materials price increases to our customers, our future profitability may be materially adversely affected. Specifically with respect to transportation costs, certain modes of delivery are subject to fuel surcharges which are determined based upon the current cost of diesel fuel in relation to pre-established agreed upon costs. There is no guarantee that we will be able to pass these fuel surcharges on to our customers.

In addition, we have exclusivity arrangements and minimum purchase requirements with certain of our suppliers for our lawn and garden business, which increases our dependence upon and exposure to those suppliers. Also, certain agreements we have with our suppliers for our lawn and garden business expired in 2005 or are scheduled to expire in 2006. Some of those agreements include caps on the price we pay for our supplies from the relevant supplier. In certain instances, these caps have allowed us to purchase materials at below market prices. Any renewal of those contracts may not include or reduce the effect of those caps and could even impose above market prices in an attempt by the applicable supplier to make up for any below market prices it had received from us prior to the renewal of the agreement. Any failure to timely obtain suitable supplies at competitive prices could materially adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We cannot assure you that United and Tetra will be successfully integrated.

If we cannot successfully integrate the operations of United, including the operations of United Pet Group and Nu-Gro, and Tetra, we may experience material adverse consequences to our business, financial condition and results of operations. The integration of separately-managed companies operating in distinctly different markets involves a number of risks, including, but not limited to, the following:

the risks of entering markets in which we have no prior experience; the diversion of management's attention from the management of daily operations to the integration of operations;

demands on management related to the significant increase in our size after the acquisitions of United and Tetra;

difficulties in the assimilation and retention of employees;

difficulties in the assimilation of different corporate cultures and practices, and of broad and geographically dispersed personnel and operations;

difficulties in the integration of departments, information technology systems, accounting systems, technologies, books and records and procedures, as well as in maintaining uniform standards and controls, including internal accounting controls, procedures and policies; and expenses of any undisclosed or potential legal liabilities.

Edgar Filing: Spectrum Brands, Inc. - Form 10-Q

Prior to the acquisitions of United and Tetra, Spectrum, United and Tetra operated as separate entities. In addition, United Pet Group and Nu-Gro operated as separate entities until acquired by United in 2004. We may not be able to maintain the levels of revenue, earnings or operating efficiency that any one of these entities had achieved or might achieve separately. The financial statements included in this report cover periods during which United and Tetra were not under the same management and, therefore, may not be indicative of our future financial condition or operating results. Successful integration of each company's operations will depend on our ability to manage those operations, realize opportunities for revenue growth presented by strengthened product offerings and expanded geographic market coverage and, to some degree, eliminate redundant and excess costs. The anticipated savings opportunities are based on projections and assumptions, all of which are subject to change. We may not realize anticipated benefits or savings to the extent or in the time frame anticipated, if at all, or such benefits and savings may require higher costs than anticipated.

We may face a number of risks related to foreign currencies.

Our foreign sales and certain of our expenses are transacted in foreign currencies. In the first six months of fiscal 2006 approximately 44% of our net sales and 41% of our operating expenses were denominated in currencies other than U.S. dollars. Significant changes in the value of the U.S. dollar in relation to foreign currencies could have a material effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. Changes in currency exchange rates may also affect our sales to, purchases from and loans to our subsidiaries as well as sales to, purchases from and bank lines of credit with our customers, suppliers and creditors that are denominated in foreign currencies. We expect that the amount of our revenues and expenses transacted in foreign currencies will increase as our Latin American, European and Asian operations grow and our exposure to risks associated with foreign currencies could increase accordingly.

If we are unable to improve existing products and develop new, innovative products, or if our competitors introduce new or enhanced products, our sales and market share may suffer.

Our future success will depend, in part, upon our ability to improve our existing products and to develop, manufacture and market new innovative products. If we fail to successfully introduce, market and manufacture new products or product innovations, our ability to maintain or grow our market share may be adversely affected, which in turn could materially adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Both we and our competitors make significant investments in research and development. If our competitors successfully introduce new or enhanced products that eliminate technological advantages our products may have in a certain market segment or otherwise outperform our products, or are perceived by consumers as doing so, we may be unable to compete successfully in market segments affected by these changes. In addition, we may be unable to compete if our competitors develop or apply technology which permits them to manufacture products at a lower relative cost. The fact that many of our principal competitors have substantially greater resources than us increases this risk. The patent rights or other intellectual property rights of third parties, restrictions on our ability to expand or modify manufacturing capacity or constraints on our research and development activity may also limit our ability to introduce products that are competitive on a performance basis.

Our foreign operations may expose us to a number of risks related to conducting business in foreign countries.

Our international operations and exports and imports to and from foreign markets are subject to a number of special risks. These risks include, but are not limited to:

economic and political destabilization, governmental corruption and civil unrest;

restrictive actions by foreign governments (e.g., duties, quotas and restrictions on transfer of funds);

changes in foreign labor laws and regulations affecting our ability to hire and retain employees;

changes in U.S. and foreign laws regarding trade and investment;

Index to Financial Statements

changes in the economic conditions in these markets; and difficulty in obtaining distribution and support.

In many of the developing countries in which we operate, there has not been significant governmental regulation relating to the environment, occupational safety, employment practices or other business matters routinely regulated in the United States. As such economies develop, it is possible that new regulations may increase the expense of doing business in such countries. In addition, social legislation in many countries in which we operate may result in significantly higher expenses associated with labor costs, terminating employees or distributors and with closing manufacturing facilities.

There are two particular EU Directives, RoHS and WEEE, that may have a material impact on our business. RoHS, effective July 1, 2006, requires us to eliminate and/or reduce the level of specified hazardous materials from our products. WEEE, which became effective in August 2005 (but in most European markets postponed), requires us to collect and treat, dispose, or recycle all products we manufacture or import into the EU at our own expense. Complying or failing to comply with the EU directives may harm our business. For example:

Although contractually assured with our suppliers, we may be unable to procure appropriate RoHS compliant material in sufficient quantity and quality and/or be able to incorporate it into our product procurement processes without compromising quality and/or harming our cost structure.

We may face excess and obsolete inventory risk related to non-compliant inventory that we may continue to hold in 2006 for which there is reduced demand and we may need to write down.

We may fail to identify suitable acquisition candidates, our acquisition strategy may divert the attention of management and our acquisitions may not be successfully integrated into our existing business.

We intend to pursue increased market penetration and expansion of our current product offerings through additional strategic acquisitions. We may fail to identify suitable acquisition candidates, and even if we do, acquisitions may not be completed on acceptable terms or successfully integrated into our existing business. Any acquisition we make could be of significant size and involve either domestic or international parties. The acquisition and integration of a separate organization could divert management attention from other business activities. Such a diversion, together with other difficulties we may encounter in integrating an acquired business, could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, we may borrow money or issue additional stock to finance acquisitions. Such funds might not be available on terms as favorable to us as our current borrowing terms and could increase our leveraged position.

Sales of our products are seasonal and may cause our quarterly operating results and working capital requirements to fluctuate; adverse business or economic conditions could adversely affect our business.

Sales of our battery, electric shaving and grooming, lawn and garden and household insect control products are seasonal. A large percentage of net sales for our battery and electric personal care products occur during the fiscal quarter ending on or about December 31, due to the impact of the December holiday season, and a large percentage of our net sales for our lawn and garden and household insect control products occur during the spring and summer. As a result of this seasonality, our inventory and working capital needs relating to these businesses fluctuate significantly during the year. In addition, orders from retailers are often made late in the period preceding the applicable peak season, making forecasting of production schedules and inventory purchases difficult. Furthermore, adverse business or economic conditions during those applicable periods could materially adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We may not be able to adequately establish and protect our intellectual property rights.

To establish and protect our intellectual property rights, we rely upon a combination of patent, trademark and trade secret laws, together with licenses, confidentiality agreements and other contractual covenants. The measures we take to protect our intellectual property rights may prove inadequate to prevent misappropriation of our technology or other intellectual property. We may need to resort to litigation to enforce or defend our intellectual property rights. If a competitor or collaborator files a patent application claiming technology also invented by us, or a trademark application claiming a trademark, service mark, or trade dress also used by us, in order to protect our rights, we may have to participate in an expensive and time consuming interference proceeding before the United States Patent and Trademark Office or any similar foreign agency. In addition, our intellectual property rights may be challenged by third parties. Even if our intellectual property rights are not directly challenged, disputes among third parties could lead to the weakening or invalidation of our intellectual property rights. Furthermore, competitors may independently develop technologies that are substantially equivalent or superior to our technology. Obtaining, protecting and defending intellectual property rights can be time consuming and expensive, and may require us to incur substantial costs, including the diversion of management and technical personnel. Moreover, the laws of certain foreign countries in which we operate or may operate in the future do not protect intellectual property rights to the same extent as do the laws of the U.S. which may negate our competitive or technological advantages in such markets. Also, some of the technology underlying our products is the subject of nonexclusive licenses from third parties. As a result, this technology could be made available to our competitors at any time. If this technology were licensed to a competitor, it could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Third-party intellectual property infringement claims against us could adversely affect our business.

From time to time we have been subject to claims that we are infringing upon the intellectual property of others and it is possible that third parties will assert infringement claims against us in the future. For example, we are a defendant in a patent infringement lawsuit in which Braun, a subsidiary of Gillette/Procter & Gamble, has alleged our Smart System shaving system infringes two of Braun's U.S. patents and we are also involved in a number of legal proceedings with Philips with respect to trademarks owned by Philips relating to the shape of the head portion of Philips three-head rotary shaver. An adverse finding against us in these or similar trademark or other intellectual property litigations may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. Any such claims, with or without merit, could be time consuming and expensive, and may require us to incur substantial costs, including the diversion of management and technical personnel, cause product delays, or require us to enter into licensing or other agreements in order to secure continued access to necessary or desirable intellectual property. Our business will be harmed if we cannot obtain a necessary or desirable license, can obtain such a license only on terms we consider to be unattractive or unacceptable, or if we are unable to redesign or re-brand our products or redesign our processes to avoid actual or potential intellectual property infringement. In addition, an unfavorable ruling in an intellectual property litigation could subject us to significant liability, as well as require us to cease developing, manufacturing or selling the affected products or using the affected processes or trademarks. There can be no assurance that we would prevail in any intellectual property infringement action, will be able to obtain a license to any third party intellectual property on commercially reasonable terms, successfully develop non-infringing alternative technology, trademarks, or trade dress on a timely basis, or license non-infringing alternatives, if any exist, on commercially reasonable terms. Any significant intellectual property impediment to our ability to develop and commercialize our products could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our dependence on a few suppliers located in Asia and one of our U.S. facilities for many of our electric shaving and grooming and electric personal care products makes us vulnerable to a disruption in the supply of our products.

Substantially all of our electric shaving and grooming and electric personal care products are manufactured by suppliers located in Asia. Although we have long-standing relationships with many of these suppliers, we do not have long-term contracts with them. Any adverse change in any of the following could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations:

relationships with our suppliers;

the financial condition of our suppliers;

Index to Financial Statements

the ability to import outsourced products; or our suppliers' ability to manufacture and deliver outsourced products on a timely basis.

If our relationship with one of our key suppliers is adversely affected, we may not be able to quickly or effectively replace such supplier and may not be able to retrieve tooling and molds possessed by such supplier.

In addition, we manufacture the majority of our foil cutting systems for our shaving product lines, using specially designed machines and proprietary cutting technology, at one of our facilities. Damage to this facility, or prolonged interruption in the operations of this facility for repairs or other reasons, would have a material adverse effect on our ability to manufacture and sell our shaving products.

Adverse weather conditions during our peak selling season for our lawn and garden and household insecticide and repellent products could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Weather conditions in North America have a significant impact on the timing of sales of certain of our lawn and garden and household insecticide and repellent products. Periods of dry, hot weather can decrease insecticide sales, while periods of cold and wet weather can slow sales of herbicides and fertilizers. In addition, an abnormally cold spring throughout North America could adversely affect both fertilizer and insecticide sales and therefore have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We depend on key personnel and may not be able to retain those employees or recruit additional qualified personnel.

We are highly dependent on the continuing efforts of our current executive officers and we will likely depend on the senior management of any business we acquire in the future. Our business, financial condition and results of operations could be materially adversely affected by the loss of any of these persons or if we are unable to attract and retain qualified replacements.

Class action lawsuits and other investigations, regardless of their merits, could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Spectrum and certain of its officers and directors have been named in the past, are currently named and may be named in the future, as defendants of class action lawsuits. Spectrum has received requests for information from the U.S. Attorney's Office and the SEC. Regardless of their subject matter or the merits, class action lawsuits and other investigations may result in significant cost to us, which may not be covered by insurance, divert the attention of management or otherwise have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We may be exposed to significant product liability claims which our insurance may not cover and which could harm our reputation.

In the ordinary course of our business, we may be named defendants in lawsuits involving product liability claims. In some of these proceedings, plaintiffs may seek to recover large and sometimes unspecified amounts of damages and the matters may remain unresolved for several years. These matters could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition if we are unable to successfully defend against or settle these matters or if our insurance coverage is insufficient to satisfy any judgments against us or settlements relating to these matters. Although we have product liability insurance coverage and an excess umbrella policy, we cannot assure you that our insurance policies will provide coverage for any claim against us or will be sufficient to cover all possible liabilities. Moreover, any adverse publicity arising from claims made against us, even if the claims were not successful, could adversely affect the reputation and sales of our products.

We may incur material capital and other costs due to environmental liabilities.

Because of the nature of our operations, our facilities are subject to a broad range of federal, state, local and foreign laws and regulations relating to the environment. These include laws and regulations that govern:

discharges to the air, water and land;

the handling and disposal of solid and hazardous substances and wastes; and remediation of contamination associated with release of hazardous substances at our facilities and at off-site disposal locations.

Risk of environmental liability is inherent in our business. As a result, material environmental costs may arise in the future. In particular, we may incur capital and other costs to comply with increasingly stringent environmental laws and enforcement policies. Although we believe that we are substantially in compliance with applicable environmental regulations at our facilities, we may not be in compliance with such regulations in the future, which could have a material adverse effect upon our business, financial condition and results of operations.

From time to time, we have been required to address the effect of historic activities on the environmental condition of our properties. We have not conducted invasive testing at all our facilities to identify all potential environmental liability risks. Given the age of our facilities and the nature of our operations, there can be no assurance that material liabilities will not arise in the future in connection with our current or former facilities. If previously unknown contamination of property underlying or in the vicinity of our manufacturing facilities is discovered, we could be required to incur material unforeseen expenses. If this occurs, it may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. We are currently engaged in investigative or remedial projects at a few of our facilities. There can be no assurance that our liabilities in respect of investigative or remedial projects at our facilities will not be material.

We are also subject to proceedings related to our disposal of industrial and hazardous material at off-site disposal locations or similar disposals made by other parties for which we are responsible as a result of our relationship with such other parties. These proceedings are under CERCLA or similar state laws that hold persons who arranged for the disposal or treatment of such substances strictly liable for costs incurred in responding to the release or threatened release of hazardous substances from such sites, regardless of fault or the lawfulness of the original disposal. Liability under CERCLA is typically joint and several, meaning that a liable party may be responsible for all of the costs incurred in investigating and remediating contamination at a site. As a practical matter, liability at CERCLA sites is shared by all of the viable responsible parties. We occasionally are identified by federal or state governmental agencies as being a potentially responsible party for response actions contemplated at an off-site facility. At the existing sites where we have been notified of our status as a potentially responsible party, we do not believe that our liability, if any, will be material. We may be named as a potentially responsible party under CERCLA or similar state matters in the future for other sites not currently known to us, and the costs and liabilities associated with these sites may be material.

Compliance with various public health, consumer protection and other regulations applicable to our products and facilities could increase our cost of doing business and expose us to additional requirements with which we may be unable to comply.

Certain of our products and facilities are regulated by the EPA, the FDA or other federal consumer protection and product safety regulations, as well as similar registration, approval and other requirements under state and foreign laws and regulations. For example, in the United States, all products containing pesticides must be registered with the EPA and, in many cases, similar state and foreign agencies before they can be manufactured or sold. The inability to obtain or the cancellation of any registration could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. The severity of the effect would depend on which products were involved, whether another product could be substituted and whether our competitors were similarly affected. We attempt to anticipate regulatory developments and maintain registrations of, and access to, substitute chemicals and other ingredients. We may not always be able to avoid or minimize these risks.

The Food Quality Protection Act established a standard for food-use pesticides, which is that a reasonable certainty of no harm will result from the cumulative effect of pesticide exposures. Under this Act, the EPA is evaluating the cumulative effects from dietary and non-dietary exposures to pesticides. The pesticides in certain of our products continue to be evaluated by the EPA as part of this exposure. It is possible that the EPA or a third party active ingredient registrant may decide that a pesticide we use in our products will be limited or made unavailable to us. For example, in 2000, Dow AgroSciences L.L.C., an active ingredient registrant, voluntarily agreed to a withdrawal of virtually all residential uses of chlorpyrifos, an active ingredient that, until January 2001, United used in its lawn and garden products under the name Dursban. This had a material adverse effect on United's operations resulting in a charge of $8.0 million in 2001. We cannot predict the outcome or the severity of the effect of the EPA's continuing evaluations of active ingredients used in our products.

In addition, the use of certain pesticide and fertilizer products may be regulated by various local, state, federal and foreign environmental and public health agencies. These regulations may require that only certified or professional users apply the product or that certain products be used only on certain types of locations (such as not for use on sod farms or golf courses), or that users post notices on properties to which products have been or will be applied, notification to individuals in the vicinity that products will be applied in the future, may provide that the product cannot be applied for aesthetic purposes, or may ban the use of certain ingredients. Compliance with public health regulations could increase our cost of doing business and expose us to additional requirements with which we may be unable to comply.

Public perceptions that some of the products we produce and market are not safe could adversely affect us.

We manufacture and market a number of complex chemical products bearing our brands relating to our lawn and garden and household insecticide and repellent products, such as fertilizers, growing media, herbicides and pesticides. On occasion, customers and some current or former employees have alleged that some products failed to perform up to expectations or have caused damage or injury to individuals or property. Public perception that our products are not safe, whether justified or not, could impair our reputation, damage our brand names and have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures. Our management, with the participation of our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, has evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures (as such term is defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act)) pursuant to Rule 13a-15(b) under the Exchange Act as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. Based on this evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that, as of such date, our disclosure controls and procedures are effective to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed by us in reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in applicable SEC rules and forms.

Index to Financial Statements

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting. There was no change in our internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act) that occurred during the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Limitations on the Effectiveness of Controls. The Company's management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, does not expect that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures or the Company's internal controls over financial reporting will prevent all errors and all fraud. A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints, and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Because of the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within the Company have been detected.

Part II. Other InformationItem 1. Legal Proceedings

There have been no material developments in the status of our legal proceedings since the filing of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2005, other than as set forth below.

On September 26, 2005, the Company, along with Chairman and Chief Executive Officer David A. Jones, and Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer Randall J. Steward, were named as defendants in a purported class action lawsuit captioned Jain v. Spectrum Brands Inc., David A. Jones and Randall J. Steward, Civil Action No. 05-2494-WSD, filed in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia. The complaint alleges violations of Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder. The action is purportedly brought on behalf of all purchasers of our publicly-traded securities between January 4, 2005 and September 6, 2005. The plaintiff generally alleges that the Company and the individually named defendants made materially false and misleading public statements concerning the Company's operational and financial condition, thereby allegedly causing plaintiff to purchase Company securities at artificially inflated prices. The plaintiff seeks unspecified damages, as well as interest, costs and attorneys' fees. Substantially similar actions, captioned Dague v. Spectrum Brands Inc., David A. Jones and Randall J. Steward, Civil Action No. 05-0580-C (filed October 3, 2005 in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Wisconsin) (the "Wisconsin Action") and Davies v. Spectrum Brands Inc., David A. Jones and Randall J. Steward, Civil Action No. 05-2814 (filed October 31, 2005 in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia) were filed by other purported class representatives. In addition, a further action captioned Hunkapiller v. Spectrum Brands Inc., David A. Jones and Randall J. Steward, Civil Action No. 05-2911-WSD was filed November 14, 2005 in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia and purportedly brought on behalf of all purchasers of our publicly-traded securities between January 4, 2005 and November 11, 2005. By Order dated November 18, 2005, all cases pending in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia were consolidated (the "Georgia Action"), and the Court entered a scheduling order providing for the filing of a consolidated amended complaint and briefing schedule for defendants' motion to dismiss. On December 22, 2005, plaintiff in the Wisconsin Action dismissed the complaint.

On November 28, 2005, a motion was filed in the Georgia Action to appoint lead plaintiffs and approve selection of co-lead counsel. On December 30, 2005, the Court entered an Order granting plaintiffs' motion. Pursuant to the scheduling order entered on November 18, 2005, on February 2, 2006, lead plaintiffs filed a consolidated amended complaint. On March 6, 2006, Defendants filed a motion to dismiss the consolidated amended complaint. Briefing of Defendants' motion to dismiss was completed on April 28, 2006. Oral argument has not yet been set. We believe that these actions are without merit and intend to contest them vigorously. At this stage of the litigation, we cannot make any estimate of a potential loss or range of loss.

In addition, The Gillette Company and its subsidiary, Braun GmbH, filed a complaint against us in the federal district court in Massachusetts on December 2, 2003 alleging that Remington's Smart Cleaner automatic cleaning device on Remington's Titanium Smart System shaving product infringes United States patent numbers 5,711,328 and 5,649,556 allegedly held by Braun (The Gillette Company and Braun GmbH v. Remington Consumer Products Company, LLC., Case No. 03 CV 12428 WGY). The complaint, which seeks injunctive relief and monetary damages, was served on Remington in March 2004. We reached a settlement in this matter effective November 15, 2005 under which we entered into a licensing agreement with Gillette providing for a one time payment in December 2005 and specified royalties per unit containing the patented technology and sold in the United States through 2015. Further information as to the terms of the settlement are identified in the notes to the condensed consolidated financial statements included herein.
