Any action on the items of business described above may be considered at the meeting at the time and on the date specified above or at any time and date to which the meeting may be properly adjourned or postponed.

The board of directors of i2 has determined that the merger is in the best interests of i2 and its stockholders and recommends that you vote to approve the merger agreement. This item of business to be submitted to a vote of the stockholders at the special meeting is more fully described in the attached proxy statement, which we urge you to read carefully. The board of directors of i2 also recommends that you expressly grant the authority to vote your shares to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger agreement. We are not aware of any other business to come before the special meeting.

Your vote is very important. Even if you do not expect to attend the meeting in person, it is important that your shares be represented. Please use the enclosed proxy card to vote on the matters to be considered at the special meeting by signing and dating the proxy card and mailing it promptly in the enclosed envelope, which requires no postage if mailed in the United States. Returning a signed proxy card will not prevent you from attending the meeting and voting in person if you wish to do so.

All stockholders are cordially invited to attend the special meeting in person. Even if you plan to attend the special meeting in person, we request that you complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card, as instructed in these materials, to ensure that your shares will be represented at the special meeting if you are unable to attend. If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you wish to vote, your shares will be voted in favor of approval of the merger agreement. If you fail to return your proxy card, your shares will not be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the special meeting and will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement. If you do attend the special meeting and wish to vote in person, you may withdraw your proxy and vote in person. If your shares are held in the name of your broker, bank or other nominee, you must obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the holder of record to be able to vote at the special meeting.

Table of Contents

Iceberg Acquisition Corp.

14400 N. 87th Street

Scottsdale, AZ 85260-3649

Iceberg Acquisition Corp., which we refer to as Merger Sub, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of JDA formed solely for the purpose of merging with and into i2 in the merger. Merger Sub has not engaged in any business activity other than in connection with the merger. Merger Sub is incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware.

The Merger

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into i2, with i2 being the surviving corporation. After the merger, JDA will own all of i2's outstanding stock and i2's common stock will no longer be listed on the Nasdaq. Both i2's common stockholders and the holder of the Series B Preferred Stock will receive cash in the merger in exchange for their shares. A copy of the merger agreement is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement. i2 encourages you to read the merger agreement carefully and fully as it is the definitive agreement that governs the merger.

Merger Consideration (See page 47)

If the merger is completed, each common stockholder who does not exercise appraisal rights will receive $14.86 in cash per share, without interest. Each issued and outstanding share of Series B Preferred Stock will be converted into the right to receive $1,095.3679 plus all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon through the closing date of the merger. After the merger is completed, each stockholder will have the right to receive the applicable merger consideration, but will no longer have any rights as an i2 stockholder.

Treatment of Stock Options, Restricted Stock and Restricted Stock Units (See page 48)

Holders of i2 stock options will be entitled to receive, for each option, an amount in cash equal to the excess, if any, of $14.86 over the exercise price of such stock option multiplied by the number of shares subject to such option, without interest. Holders of restricted stock units will be entitled to receive $14.86 for each share of common stock issuable under a particular restricted stock unit, without interest. Prior to the effective time of the merger, i2 will also take all actions necessary to cause any shares of restricted stock held under restricted stock agreements and any stock options and restricted stock awards to fully vest in accordance with the terms of those equity awards.

Market Price (See page 61)

On August 8, 2008, the last full trading day prior to the public announcement of the proposed merger, i2 common stock closed at $14.16 per share. On October 3, 2008, the last trading day prior to the date of this proxy statement, i2 common stock closed at $12.98 per share. i2's stock price can fluctuate widely even over short periods of time. It is impossible to predict the actual price of i2 stock immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Reasons for the Merger (See page 32)

In the course of reaching its decision to approve the merger and the merger agreement and to recommend that i2 stockholders approve the merger agreement, our Board considered a number of factors in its deliberations. Those factors are described below in this proxy statement.

Opinion of i2's Financial Advisor (See page 35)

J.P. Morgan Securities, Inc. (JPMorgan) has rendered its opinion to the i2 Board that, as of August 10, 2008 and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the consideration to be paid to the holders of shares of i2 common stock in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

Table of Contents

The full text of the opinion of JPMorgan dated August 10, 2008, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement. i2's stockholders should read the opinion in its entirety. JPMorgan provided its opinion for the information and assistance of the i2 Board in connection with its consideration of the merger. The opinion of JPMorgan does not reflect any developments that may occur or may have occurred after the date of its opinion and prior to the completion of the merger. The JPMorgan opinion is not a recommendation as to how any holder of shares of i2 common stock should vote with respect to the merger. Pursuant to the terms of its engagement letter with JPMorgan, i2 agreed to pay a customary fee in connection with JPMorgan's opinion, a significant portion of which fee will be payable upon consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Recommendation of the i2 Board (See page 35)

Our Board has determined that the merger is in the best interests of i2 and its stockholders and recommends that i2's stockholders vote FOR the approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

Vote Required (See page 14)

The affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the voting power of the outstanding shares of our common stock and the Series B Preferred Stock, voting on an as converted to common stock basis as a single class with the common stock, is required to approve the merger agreement. The merger is not contingent upon the approval at the special meeting of any other proposal presented to i2's stockholders. The following officers and directors, and R² Top Hat Ltd., the holder of the Series B Preferred Stock (the "Series B Holder"), executed voting agreements dated August 10, 2008, agreeing to vote or cause to be voted all of its or their respective shares FOR the adoption of the merger agreement and the approval of the merger:

Proxies, Voting and Revocation (See page 14)

Shares of i2 common stock represented at the special meeting by properly executed proxies received prior to or at the special meeting, and not revoked, will be voted at the special meeting, and at any adjournments or postponements of that meeting, in accordance with the instructions on the proxies. Shares of Series B Preferred Stock, on an as converted to common stock basis voting as a single class with the common stock, will also be voted at the special meeting. If a proxy is duly executed and submitted without instructions, the shares of i2 common stock represented by that proxy will be voted FOR the approval of the merger agreement and, if necessary, FOR the approval of one or more adjournments of the special meeting to solicit additional proxies.

A stockholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time prior to its exercise by:

delivering a written notice of revocation bearing a later date than the proxy to the secretary of i2 at or before the taking of the vote at the special meeting;

delivering a duly executed proxy relating to the same shares and bearing a later date to the secretary of i2 before the taking of the vote at the special meeting; or attending the special meeting and voting such shares in person. Stockholders should note, however, that merely attending the special meeting in person without casting a vote at the meeting will not alone constitute a revocation of a proxy.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger (See page 39)

In considering the recommendation of our Board in favor of the merger, you should be aware that there are provisions of the merger agreement and other existing agreements that will result in certain benefits to i2's directors and executive officers that are not available to stockholders generally. Our Board was aware of, and considered the interests of, i2's directors and executive officers and the potential conflicts arising from such interests in its deliberations of the merits of the merger and in approving the merger agreement and the merger. Other than the provisions of the merger agreement described below, and the extension of certain employment agreements described below, the arrangements described below were in existence before the discussions about the merger began. Stockholders should take these benefits into account in deciding whether to vote for approval of the merger agreement.

Stock Options and Restricted Stock. Upon the completion of the merger, each i2 outstanding stock option will immediately vest and become exercisable and will be terminated or converted into an amount in cash equal to the excess, if any, of $14.86 over the exercise price of such stock option multiplied by the number of shares subject to such stock option, without interest. All outstanding restricted stock units will vest and be convertible into the right to receive $14.86 in cash, without interest. All shares of restricted stock held under restricted stock agreements will vest upon completion of the merger. For a more complete discussion, see The Merger Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 45.

Stock Ownership. i2's officers and directors also beneficially own shares of i2 common stock. For a further description of these stock holdings, see The Merger Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management on page 59.

Existing Employment and Severance Agreements. In February 2008, i2 entered into executive retention agreements with its executive officers, including Mr. Chatterjee, Mr. Berry, Mr. Varia, Mr. Estrada, Mr. Sinnadurai, Mr. Srivastava, and Mr. Harvey. These agreements generally entitle the executive officers to certain payments in the event their employment is terminated by i2 other than for Cause (as defined in the applicable agreement), or the executive officer terminates for Good Reason (as defined in the applicable agreement and in compliance with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code, or the Code, governing deferred compensation). The agreements also contain non-competition and non-interference covenants, which restrict the executive officers for a term of 12 months after their separation from i2. In addition, i2 and

Mr. Wilson entered into an employment agreement in May 2008 in connection with his appointment as Executive Chairman of the Board. This agreement entitles him to certain awards of common stock options and restricted stock units, all of which will accelerate and immediately vest upon the consummation of the merger. For a more detailed description of these agreements, see Existing Employment and Severance Agreements on page 41.

Indemnification of Directors and Executive Officers and Insurance. The merger agreement provides that JDA will cause i2, as the surviving corporation in the merger, to indemnify i2's directors and officers with respect to actions or omissions by them as such at any time prior to the closing date to the fullest extent permitted by i2's charter documents and any applicable contract, provided that such persons shall not be indemnified for any criminal conduct or fraud. The merger agreement further provides that, after the merger, JDA will, or will cause i2 as the surviving corporation to, provide, for a period of not less than six years, directors' and officers' liability insurance covering those persons who were, as of the date of the merger agreement, covered by i2's directors' and officers' liability insurance policy, on terms no less favorable than those in effect on the date of the merger agreement, subject to certain limitations based on the cost of providing such insurance.

i2 has concluded that i2 stockholders are entitled under Delaware law to appraisal rights in connection with the merger. To exercise appraisal rights, an i2 stockholder must:

before the taking of the vote on the proposal to approve the merger agreement, deliver to i2 a written demand for appraisal;

NOT vote in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement;

continue to hold your i2 common stock or Series B Preferred Stock through the effective date of the merger; and comply with other procedures as is required by Section 262 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the DGCL). A copy of the relevant provisions of DGCL Section 262 is attached to this proxy statement as Annex C.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (See page 45)

The merger will be taxable for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Generally, this means that you will recognize taxable gain or loss equal to the difference between the cash you receive in the merger and your adjusted tax basis in your shares. Tax matters can be complicated and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on the facts of your own situation. You should consult your own tax advisor to understand fully the tax consequences of the merger to you.

Conditions to Closing (See page 53)

Before we can complete the merger, a number of conditions must be satisfied or waived. These include:

the approval of the merger agreement by the requisite vote of i2's stockholders;

the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act of 1976 (HSR);

the absence of any law, injunction, judgment or ruling that enjoins, restrains, prevents or prohibits the completion of the merger or makes the completion of the merger illegal;

the truth and correctness of our representations and warranties (disregarding all qualifications and exceptions contained therein relating to materiality or material adverse effect, subject to certain exceptions) as of the date of the merger agreement and the date of the closing of the merger (or if any representation or warranty expressly speaks as of a specified date, as of such specified date), except where the failure to be so true and correct would not have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on i2;

Termination (See page 55)

JDA and i2 may terminate the merger agreement by mutual consent at any time prior to completion of the merger, even after we receive stockholder approval. The merger agreement may also be terminated at any time prior to the closing of the merger:

by either JDA or i2 if:

any law, injunction, judgment or ruling shall have been enacted and shall have become final and non-appealable that has certain effects specified in the merger agreement;

i2 enters into an agreement relating to a takeover proposal other than the merger agreement, or i2's Board (1) withdraws or modifies, in a manner adverse to JDA, its recommendation that i2's stockholders approve the merger agreement or its approval of the merger; (2) approves or recommends to its stockholders such takeover proposal; or (3) does not reject any bona fide publicly announced offer for such takeover proposal within 10 days of its making;

i2 materially breaches its covenants (1) to prepare the proxy statement and allow JDA to participate in its preparation and any correspondence with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC); (2) to hold a stockholder's meeting in accordance with the provisions of the merger agreement; (3) except as otherwise allowed by the merger agreement, to use all reasonable efforts to solicit or cause to be solicited from its stockholders proxies in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement; or (4) violates any of the non-solicitation provisions set forth in the merger agreement, or i2's Board resolves to do any of the foregoing; or if an event resulting in a material adverse effect affecting i2 has occurred and continues to occur and is not cured by i2 within 20 business days of receipt of written notice of such event from JDA and prior to February 10, 2009.

by i2 if:

JDA or Merger Sub breaches a representation, warranty, covenant or agreement in the merger agreement, or any of its representations or warranties shall have become untrue, subject to specified materiality thresholds and JDA's and Merger Sub's ability to cure such breach; and before i2's stockholders have approved the merger agreement, (1) i2 has not breached its non-solicitation covenant (other than immaterial breaches that have not directly or indirectly resulted in the making of a takeover proposal) and (2) concurrently i2 enters into a definitive agreement providing for a superior proposal and pays the termination fee described below to JDA; or the effective time of the merger shall not have occurred at the time required in the merger agreement due to JDA's or Merger Sub's failure to effect the closing in breach of the merger agreement, provided that at the time of termination, certain conditions to closing have been satisfied or waived.

Fees and Expenses (See page 56)

Except as described below, whether or not the merger is completed, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement, the merger or the transactions related thereto will be paid by the party incurring such fees and expenses. JDA and i2 shall share equally (1) the filing fee of JDA's HSR pre-merger notification report and (2) all fees and expenses, other than accountant's and attorney's fees, incurred with respect to this proxy statement. The merger agreement requires i2 to pay JDA a termination fee in the amount of $15,000,000 and JDA to pay i2 a termination fee in the amount of $20,000,000 if the merger agreement is terminated under certain specified circumstances.

Governmental Regulatory Filings Required in Connection with the Merger (See page 46)

Hart-Scott-Rodino. JDA and i2 each made the required filings of a Notification and Report Form pursuant to HSR with the Federal Trade Commission (the FTC) and the Department of Justice Antitrust Division (the DOJ) with respect to the merger. HSR mandates that before the closing of certain mergers, tender offers or other business combinations, certain companies must file paperwork that will allow regulatory agencies to assess whether a proposed transaction violates federal antitrust laws. On September 16, 2008, the FTC informed JDA and i2 that early termination of the waiting period was granted, effective as of September 15, 2008.

Foreign Jurisdictions. i2 and JDA do not believe any foreign regulatory approvals will be required or advisable in connection with the consummation of the merger.

The special meeting will be held to consider and vote upon the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the proposal to grant the persons named as proxies discretionary authority to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to satisfy the conditions to completing the merger, including for the purpose of soliciting proxies to vote in favor of approval of the merger agreement, at our corporate headquarters at One i2 Place, 11701 Luna Road, Dallas, Texas 75234 on November 6, 2008 at 10:30 a.m. Central Time.

You are entitled to vote at the special meeting if you owned shares of i2 common stock or Series B Preferred Stock at the close of business on October 3, 2008, the record date for the special meeting. You will have one vote at the special meeting for each share of i2 common stock you owned on the record date. Each share of our Series B Preferred Stock is entitled to 43.1965 votes (the number of shares of common stock into which one share of Series B Preferred Stock could have been converted on the record date). Accordingly, the Series B Holder is entitled to 4,662,759 votes in the aggregate, or approximately 17.6% of all votes eligible to be cast at the special meeting.

To vote, you can either (1) complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card or (2) attend the special meeting and vote in person. You may also vote your proxy by telephone or the Internet by following the instructions provided on your proxy card. If your shares are held in street name by your broker, bank or other nominee, you should instruct your broker to vote your shares by following the instructions provided by your broker. Your broker will not vote your shares without instruction from you. Remember, if you fail to instruct your broker to vote your shares, it has the same effect as a vote against the approval of the merger agreement.

The affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the voting power of the outstanding shares of our common stock and the Series B Preferred Stock, voting on an as converted to common stock basis as a single class with the common stock, is required to approve the merger. The proposal to grant the persons named as proxies the discretionary authority to vote to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to satisfy the conditions to completing the merger, including for the purpose of soliciting proxies to vote in favor of approval of the merger agreement, requires the approval of the holders of at least a majority of the voting power of i2 common stock and the Series B Preferred Stock, voting on an as converted to common stock basis as a single class with the common stock, present, in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Surrender of Certificates (See page 47)

Promptly after the effective time of the merger, i2 stockholders will be mailed a letter of transmittal and instructions specifying the procedures to be followed to surrender your shares of i2 common stock, or shares of Series B Preferred Stock, in exchange for the applicable merger consideration. i2 stockholders should not submit their stock certificates for exchange until they receive the letter of transmittal and instructions. When i2 stockholders surrender their stock certificates along with the properly executed letter of transmittal, they will receive the applicable merger consideration.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q: Why am I receiving this proxy statement?

A: We have entered into a merger agreement with JDA. Under the merger agreement, we will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of JDA and our common stock will no longer be listed on Nasdaq. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A. In order to complete the merger, our stockholders must vote to adopt the merger agreement. Our Board is providing this proxy statement to give you information for use in determining how to vote on the proposals submitted to the stockholders at the special meeting of our stockholders. You should read this proxy statement and the annexes carefully. The enclosed proxy card allows you, as our stockholder, to vote your shares without attending the special meeting.

Q: When and where will the special meeting be held?

A: The special meeting will be held on November 6, 2008 at 10:30 a.m. Central Time at our corporate headquarters at One i2 Place, 11701 Luna Road, Dallas, Texas 75234.

Q: What matters will be voted on at the special meeting?

A: You will vote on a proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement and a proposal to adjourn the special meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, if necessary.

Q: What do I need to do now? (See page 14)

A: i2 urges you to read carefully and consider the information contained in this proxy statement. In addition, you should complete, sign and date the attached proxy card and return it to One i2 Place, 11701 Luna Road, Dallas, Texas 75234 in the enclosed postage-prepaid return envelope as soon as possible so that your shares of common stock may be represented at the special meeting. You may also vote your proxy by telephone or the Internet by following the instructions provided on your proxy card.

Q: What happens if I do not return a proxy card? (See page 15)

A: The failure to return your proxy card, an abstention from voting or a broker non-vote will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

Q: May I vote in person? (See page 14)

A: Yes. You may vote in person at the meeting, rather than signing and returning your proxy card, if you own shares in your own name. However, i2 encourages you to return your signed proxy card to ensure that your shares are voted. You may also vote in person at the special meeting if your shares are held in street name through a broker or bank if you bring a legal proxy from your broker or bank and present it at the special meeting. You may also be asked to present photo identification for admittance.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have voted by proxy? (See page 14)

A: Yes. A stockholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time prior to its exercise by:

delivering a written notice of revocation bearing a later date than the proxy to the secretary of i2 at or before the taking of the vote at the special meeting;

delivering a duly executed proxy relating to the same shares and bearing a later date to the secretary of i2 before the taking of the vote at the special meeting; or attending the special meeting and voting such shares in person. Stockholders should note, however, that merely attending the special meeting in person without casting a vote at the meeting will not alone constitute a revocation of a proxy.

Table of Contents

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me? (See page 14)

A: Your broker will not vote your shares without instructions from you. You should instruct your broker how to vote your shares, following the procedure provided by your broker. Without instructions, your shares will not be voted, which will have the same effect as voting against approval of the merger agreement.

Q: What vote of the stockholders is required to approve the merger agreement? (See page 14)

A: To approve the merger agreement, stockholders of record as of October 3, 2008 holding at least a majority of the voting power of our outstanding shares of common stock and the Series B Preferred Stock, voting on an as converted to common stock basis as a single class with the common stock, must vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement. There are 21,813,822 shares of i2 common stock and 107,943 shares of Series B Preferred Stock, having 4,662,759 votes on an as converted to common stock basis, entitled to be voted at the special meeting.

The Series B Holder and certain of our directors and executive officers have executed voting agreements with respect to shares having, in the aggregate, 4,932,066 votes, representing approximately 18.6% of the combined 26,476,581 votes of the outstanding shares of our common stock and Series B Preferred Stock, entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Q: Does i2's Board recommend approval of the merger agreement? (See page 35)

A: Yes. Our Board carefully reviewed and considered the terms and conditions of the merger agreement and proposed merger. Based on this review, our Board determined that the merger is in the best interests of us and our stockholders. In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and to recommend the adoption of the merger agreement by our stockholders, our Board consulted with our management, as well as our legal and financial advisors, and considered the terms of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Our Board also considered each of the items set forth on page 32 under "The Merger - Reasons for the Merger."

Q: Is the merger contingent upon approval at the special meeting of any proposals other than the proposal to approve the merger agreement?

A: No.

Q: What will happen to i2 as a result of the merger? (See page 48)

A: If the merger is completed, i2 will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of JDA and our common stock will no longer be listed on the Nasdaq.

Q: What will happen to my shares of i2 common stock after the merger? (See page 47)

A: Upon completion of the merger, each outstanding share of i2 common stock will automatically be canceled and, other than shares held by stockholders who exercise appraisal rights, will be converted into the right to receive $14.86 in cash, without interest. Each issued and outstanding share of the Series B Preferred Stock will be converted into the right to receive $1,095.3679 plus all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon through the closing date of the merger.

Q: Will I own any shares of i2 common stock after the merger or will I receive any shares of JDA common stock as a result of the merger? (See page 47)

A: No. You will be paid cash for your shares of i2 common stock and shares of Series B Preferred Stock. i2's stockholders will not have the option to receive JDA common stock in exchange for their shares instead of cash.

Q: What happens to i2 stock options and restricted stock in the merger? (See page 48)

A: Holders of i2 stock options will be entitled to receive, for each option, an amount in cash equal to the excess, if any, of $14.86 over the exercise price of such stock option multiplied by the number of shares subject to such option, without interest. Holders of restricted stock units will be entitled to receive $14.86 for each share of common stock issuable under a particular restricted stock unit, without interest. Prior to the effective time of the merger, i2 will also take all actions necessary to cause any shares held under restricted stock agreements and any stock options and restricted stock awards to fully vest in accordance with the terms of those equity awards.

Edgar Filing: I2 TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form DEFM14A

Other than the right to receive such payment, holders of stock options or restricted stock units will have no rights with respect thereto after the merger. JDA will not assume any i2 stock options as a result of the merger.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares before the special meeting?

A: The record date for the special meeting is earlier than the expected completion date of the merger. If you held your shares of i2 common stock on the record date but have transferred those shares after the record date and before the merger, you may retain your right to vote at the special meeting but not the right to receive the merger consideration. This right to receive the merger consideration will pass to the person to whom you transferred your shares of i2 common stock.

Q: Will the merger be taxable to me?

A: Generally, yes. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, generally, you will recognize a taxable gain or loss as a result of the merger measured by the difference, if any, between $14.86 per share of common stock and your adjusted tax basis in each such share. Provided shares are held as capital assets, this gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if you have held your shares of i2 common stock for more than one year prior to the effective time of the merger. You should read The Merger Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 45 for a more complete discussion of the federal income tax consequences of the merger.

Q: Am I entitled to appraisal rights? (See page 42)

A: Yes. i2 has concluded that you are entitled under Delaware law to appraisal rights in connection with the merger. To exercise appraisal rights, you must:

before the taking of the vote on the proposal to approve the merger agreement, deliver to i2 a written demand for appraisal;

NOT vote in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement;

continue to hold your i2 common stock or Series B Preferred Stock through the effective date of the merger; and comply with other procedures as is required by DGCL Section 262.

A copy of the relevant provisions of DGCL Section 262 is attached to this proxy statement as Annex C.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now? (See page 47)

A: No. After the merger is completed, holders of i2 common stock or Series B Preferred Stock will receive written instructions for surrendering their shares for the merger consideration. Merger consideration for i2 common stockholders is $14.86 per share in cash, without interest. Each issued and outstanding share of Series B Preferred Stock will be converted to the right to receive $1,095.3679 per share plus all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon through the closing date of the merger.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: i2 is working toward completing the merger as quickly as possible. In addition to obtaining stockholder approval, i2 must obtain applicable regulatory approvals and satisfy all other closing conditions. However, i2 cannot assure you that all conditions to the merger will be satisfied or, if satisfied, the date by which they will be satisfied.

Q: When will I receive the cash consideration for my shares of i2 common stock? (See page 47)

Edgar Filing: I2 TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form DEFM14A

A: After the merger is completed, you will receive written instructions, including a letter of transmittal, that explain how to surrender your shares for the cash consideration paid in the merger. When you properly return and complete the required documentation described in the written instructions, you will promptly receive from the paying agent a payment of the cash consideration for your shares.

Q: Whom should I contact if I have additional questions?

A: For more information, you should contact Tom Ward, Director, Investor Relations, One i2 Place, 11701 Luna Road, Dallas, Texas 75234, 469-357-1000.

VOTING AND PROXIES

Who May Vote at the Special Meeting

Only stockholders of record as of the close of business on October 3, 2008, which we refer to as the record date, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting and any adjournments thereof. As of the close of business on the record date, the outstanding stock of i2 entitled to vote consisted of 21,813,822 shares of common stock, having one vote per share, and 107,943 shares of Series B Preferred Stock, having 4,662,759 votes on an as converted to common stock basis, voting as a single class with the common stock. The total votes of the common stock and Series B Preferred Stock entitled to vote at the special meeting is 26,476,581.

How to Vote

Stockholders may vote in person or by proxy. Execution of a proxy will not affect a stockholder's right to attend the meeting and vote in person. All shares represented by valid proxies received by the secretary of i2 prior to the meeting will be voted as specified in the proxy. If no specification is made and if discretionary authority is conferred by the stockholder, the shares will be voted FOR each of the proposals. Shares of i2 common stock represented at the special meeting but not voted, including shares of i2 common stock for which proxies have been received but for which stockholders have abstained, will be treated as present at the special meeting for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of all business.

i2's stockholders are requested to complete, date and sign the enclosed proxy card and promptly return it in the accompanying postage-paid envelope. Stockholders may also vote proxies by telephone or the Internet by following the instructions provided on the enclosed proxy card. i2's stockholders may vote in person at the special meeting by delivering the completed proxy card at the meeting or by using written ballots that will be available to any i2 stockholder who desires to vote in person at the special meeting. i2 stockholders who are beneficial owners of shares held in street name by a broker, trustee, bank or other nominee holder on behalf of such stockholder may vote in person at the meeting by obtaining a proxy from the nominee holding the i2 shares. In addition, such i2 stockholders may vote by proxy by completing and signing a voting instruction card provided to them by the nominee holding the i2 shares.

How to Change Your Vote

A stockholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time prior to its exercise by:

delivering a written notice of revocation bearing a later date than the proxy to the secretary of i2 at or before the taking of the vote at the special meeting;

delivering a duly executed proxy relating to the same shares and bearing a later date to the secretary of i2 before the taking of the vote at the special meeting; or attending the special meeting and voting such shares in person. Stockholders should note, however, that merely attending the special meeting in person without casting a vote at the meeting will not alone constitute a revocation of a proxy.

Quorum and Vote Required

The presence, in person or by properly executed proxy, of the holders of at least a majority of the voting power of our outstanding shares of common stock and our Series B Preferred Stock, voting on an as converted to common stock basis as a single class with the common stock, entitled to vote at the special meeting will constitute a quorum. If a quorum is not present, it is expected that the meeting will be adjourned or postponed to enable i2 to solicit additional proxies. If a new record date is set for the adjourned meeting, then a new quorum will have to be established. Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the voting power of the outstanding shares of our common stock and our Series B Preferred

Table of Contents

Stock, voting on an as converted to common stock basis as a single class with the common stock. Votes cast by proxy or in person at the special meeting will be tabulated by the election inspectors appointed for the meeting, who will also determine whether or not a quorum is present.

The proposals to be considered at the special meeting are of great importance to i2. Accordingly, you are urged to read and carefully consider the information presented in this proxy statement and to complete, date, sign and promptly return the enclosed proxy in the enclosed postage-paid envelope.

Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

Only shares affirmatively voted for the approval of the merger agreement, including properly executed proxies that do not contain voting instructions, will be counted as voting for that proposal. If you abstain from voting, it will have the same effect as a vote against the approval of the merger agreement and as a vote against the proposal to grant authority to vote to adjourn the special meeting. If you do not execute a proxy card, it will have the same effect as a vote against the approval of the merger agreement and will have no effect on the proposal to grant authority to vote to adjourn the special meeting. Brokers who hold shares in street name for customers have the authority to vote on routine proposals when they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. However, brokers are precluded from exercising their voting discretion with respect to approval of non-routine matters, such as the approval of the merger agreement and, as a result, absent specific instructions from the beneficial owner of such shares, brokers are not empowered to vote those shares, referred to generally as broker non-votes. Broker non-votes will be treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote at the special meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists and will have the same effect as votes against the approval of the merger agreement. Broker non-votes will have no effect on the proposal to grant the persons named as proxies the authority to vote to adjourn the special meeting.

Other Meeting Matters and Adjournment

Our Board does not know of any matters other than those described in the notice of the special meeting that are to come before the special meeting. If any other matters are properly brought before the special meeting, including, among other things, a motion to adjourn or postpone the special meeting to another time and/or place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement or to permit the dissemination of information regarding material developments relating to the proposal to approve the merger agreement or otherwise germane to the special meeting, one or more persons named in the i2 form of proxy will vote the shares represented by such proxy upon such matter as determined in their discretion. If it is necessary to adjourn the special meeting, no notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting is required to be given to i2's stockholders other than the announcement of such time and place at the special meeting. At any subsequent reconvening of the special meeting, all proxies will be voted in the same manner as such proxies would have been voted at the original convening of the meeting (except for any proxies which theretofore have been effectively revoked or withdrawn). The affirmative vote of at least a majority of the voting power of our common stock and our Series B Preferred Stock, voting on an as converted to common stock basis as a single class with the common stock, present in person or represented by proxy, and entitled to vote at the special meeting although less than a quorum, is required to approve such adjournment.

Solicitation of Proxies

The cost of solicitation of proxies will be paid jointly by i2 and JDA, except for related accounting and legal fees. In addition to soliciting stockholders by mail, certain of i2's directors, officers and employees, without additional remuneration, may solicit proxies in person or by telephone or other means of electronic communication. i2 will not pay these individuals for their solicitation activity but will reimburse them for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. Brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries will be requested to forward proxy-soliciting material to the owners of stock held in their names, and i2 will reimburse such brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket costs. Solicitation by directors, officers and employees of i2 may also be made of some stockholders in person or by mail, telephone or other means of electronic communication following the original solicitation. We have retained Mackenzie Partners to assist with the solicitation of proxies. We will pay the total fees and expenses of Mackenzie Partners, which are estimated to be $12,500.

Appraisal Rights

i2 has concluded that i2 stockholders are entitled under Delaware law to appraisal rights in connection with the merger. To exercise appraisal rights, i2 stockholders must:

before the taking of the vote on the proposal to approve the merger agreement, deliver to i2 written demand for appraisal;

NOT vote in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement;

continue to hold your i2 common stock or Series B Preferred Stock through the effective date of the merger; and comply with other procedures as is required by DGCL Section 262.

A copy of the relevant provisions of DGCL Section 262 is attached to this proxy statement as Annex C. See The Merger Appraisal Rights on page 42 for a more detailed discussion.

THE MERGER

This section describes material aspects of the merger, including the merger agreement. While i2 believes that the description covers the material terms of the merger and the merger agreement, this summary may not contain all of the information that is important to you. You should read carefully this entire document, the merger agreement attached as Annex A, and the other documents referred to in this proxy statement for a more complete understanding of the merger and the merger agreement.

i2's stockholders are being asked to consider and act upon a proposal to approve the merger agreement. The merger agreement provides for the acquisition of all of our outstanding shares of common stock for $14.86 in cash per share, without interest. In addition, the Series B Holder will receive $1,095.3679 per share, plus all accrued and unpaid dividends due thereon through the date of closing. The approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the outstanding shares of common stock and Series B Preferred Stock, voting on an as converted to common stock basis as a single class with the common stock.

Background of the Merger

From time to time, our Board and management team have reviewed i2's strategic plans in light of the industry in which i2 operates, and the long-term interests of the Company and its shareholders. Historically, the strategic process has focused on organic growth opportunities, selective acquisitions, enhancement of the employee base and prioritization of i2's resources to achieve overall Company objectives. Our Board has from time to time considered, and implemented, acquisitions designed to add to the breadth and depth of i2's product offerings and ability to better serve its customers. The competitive pressures within the industry led the i2 Board more recently to consider various strategic alternatives to maximize shareholder value, including the merger or acquisition of i2 by another company.

The merger agreement with JDA is the culmination of a process that started in October 2006 when the Company initially sought to explore the potential for obtaining a premium for its common stock through discussions with a very small, targeted group of potential industry buyers. After interviewing several potential investment banking firms, the Company determined JPMorgan to be the most qualified, based in part on its familiarity with i2 from having been the Company's banker in the past. The Company requested that JPMorgan, on behalf of the Company, solicit the interest of three large potential strategic acquirers (not including JDA). At the time of the October 16, 2006 Board meeting, i2's stock price was $18.85. Over the course of the 22 months following this Board meeting, JPMorgan contacted or was contacted by 75 prospective purchasers, including 42 potential strategic acquirers and 33 financial buyers. These contacts resulted in a number of proposals and indications of interest.

Initially, the Company's management worked with JPMorgan to put together a presentation targeted at the three large potential strategic acquirers. The presentation contained only publicly available information as the strategic acquirers were not being asked to sign a non-disclosure agreement. JPMorgan presented to all three of the identified strategic acquirers during the fourth quarter of 2006 and early 2007.

JPMorgan reported the results of the discussions at the regularly scheduled i2 Board meeting in January 2007. All three of the potential strategic acquirers had reviewed the information and, after internal consideration, all had opted to not pursue any further discussions regarding a transaction with the Company. However, prior to the i2 Board meeting, one financial buyer communicated to Mr. Sidhu an interest in exploring a potential transaction. After a discussion of the options available to the Company, including remaining independent and seeking a strategic business combination or acquisition of i2, the i2 Board determined to continue the process and asked JPMorgan to expand the project to explore the possible interest of large private equity firms as well as other strategic acquirers, both in the U.S. and internationally, in a possible transaction with i2. A written agreement between JPMorgan and the Company was finalized in March 2007 and amended in February 2008 and July 2008 as the process continued.

During the early portion of 2007, JPMorgan contacted a number of private equity firms and potential strategic acquirers as well as parties who might be part of a merger of equals. With the assistance of i2 management, JPMorgan identified certain financial buyers who had a history of making investments in the industry, and prospective strategic acquirers with whom potential synergies appeared to otherwise outweigh the concerns of approaching competitors in the marketplace. JDA was discussed, but not approached at this time as it was viewed primarily as a potential competitor and was presumed to still be engaged in the process of integrating its last acquisition. JPMorgan's contacts resulted in several meetings between i2 management and various potential acquirers. No indications of interest or offers were made by these companies, and many of the discussions were terminated upon the Company's announcement of earnings in May 2007 that were below expectations and the subsequent announcement that its then-current chief executive officer intended to resign. Discussions did continue, however, with a select group of interested parties who had been contacted during the process, and JPMorgan instructed those parties to submit their indications of interest during July 2007. This resulted in three high level indications of interest; however, all were withdrawn in early August 2007 when the Company announced that its earnings were again below expectations, its chief executive officer followed up the announcement of his intended resignation by resigning, and the credit markets became constricted.

One of the three parties that had submitted an indication of interest regarding a transaction with the Company in July 2007 (Party M) was a privately held software company whose products both competed with and complemented those of the Company. Party M continued discussions regarding various scenarios with the Company, including a merger of equals. These discussions continued through June of 2008 when they were terminated as the parties were never able to agree upon the appropriate valuation of each other, among other reasons.

In August 2007, as a result of contacts with Thoma Cressey Bravo, the owner of JDA's preferred equity, a draft non-disclosure agreement was sent to JDA to initiate discussions. This agreement was not executed and no discussions took place between JDA and i2 or JPMorgan at this time.

On September 13 and 20, 2007, the Series B Holder elected Mr. Simmons, an employee of an affiliate of the Series B Holder, and Mr. Pope, respectively, to fill the two i2 Board seats vacant since December 2005 that were designated for selection by the Series B Holder pursuant to the terms of the Series B Preferred Stock.

On October 13, 2007, the i2 Board met to discuss three strategic alternatives available to the Company: a potential acquisition/merger of equals, continuing as a stand-alone entity, and sale of the Company to a strategic buyer or financial sponsor. JPMorgan made a presentation relating to these alternatives. The i2 Board also discussed the creation of a special committee of the i2 Board to review and analyze strategic alternatives. On October 15, 2007, JPMorgan again made a presentation to the i2 Board including an update on the status of its efforts to locate prospective buyers, the valuation of the Company, and a pro forma analysis of a possible acquisition target. JPMorgan advised the i2 Board of the low probability of finding a buyer for the Company in the current environment. At the continuation of the i2 Board meeting on October 16, 2007, Mr. Sidhu made a presentation to the i2 Board expressing his views as to the alternatives available to the Company and suggested that a strategy team be formed to evaluate alternatives such as maximizing the value and utilization of the Company's net operating loss carry forwards, monetizing the Company's intellectual property, making strategic acquisitions, and pursuing strategies to differentiate itself from competitors. The i2 Board discussed the merits of having a special committee study the various alternatives to maximize shareholder value. The i2 Board determined on October 25, 2007 to establish the Strategic Review Committee (SRC) comprised of independent directors and to publicly announce its creation along with a deadline for the completion of its efforts.

On November 1, 2007, i2 publicly announced the formation of the SRC to evaluate the merits of the various strategic options available to i2 to enhance shareholder value. These options included: (1) changes to i2's business model and operations; (2) actions or transactions intended to enhance the value or utilization of i2's existing assets (including i2's intellectual property and net operating loss carryforwards); (3) joint ventures or strategic partnerships; and (4) selective acquisitions, dispositions or other capital transactions as well as a merger, sale or other extraordinary transactions. The i2 Board appointed Mr. Clemmer, Mr. Waterhouse and Mr. Wilson to the SRC, with Mr. Wilson designated as chairman. The i2 Board also announced its expectations that the strategic review process would conclude in January 2008.

Between the formation of the SRC on November 1, 2007 and the signing of the merger agreement with JDA on August 10, 2008, the i2 Board convened on 15 separate occasions. During the same period, the SRC met 43 times. With the SRC's assistance, the i2 Board extensively evaluated the various strategic options available to i2 to enhance shareholder value. i2 retained outside consultants to provide information, reports and presentations for the members of the i2 Board to review and analyze with respect to the utilization of i2's net operating losses as well as ways to monetize its existing intellectual property portfolio. Counsel for the Company regularly briefed the i2 Board and the SRC, respectively, regarding their fiduciary duties during this process and answered questions from the directors. The SRC, with JPMorgan's assistance, also conducted an in-depth exploration of potential partners for a strategic joint venture or a merger of equals. The SRC reviewed i2's acquisition history and ability to successfully integrate the business of the acquisition target to enhance the Company's value, and presented these findings to the i2 Board for its analysis. i2's management also presented their analysis of options to transform the Company's operations to the i2 Board and an operating plan based on management's proposals.

In November 2007, JPMorgan again contacted JDA. However, discussions did not advance at that time based on the inability of i2 and JDA to agree on the terms of a non-disclosure/standstill agreement. Talks recommenced between i2 and JDA in December 2007 and on December 12, 2007, JDA and the Company signed a non-disclosure/standstill agreement. During this period, JDA and i2 prepared and arranged for a management meeting in January 2008.

On December 21, 2007, our Board met at i2's offices. Our Board discussed the status of the litigation brought by i2 against SAP America, Inc. and SAP AG (together, "SAP") alleging SAP's infringement of certain of i2's intellectual property (the "SAP Litigation"), received a presentation from an outside expert with respect to ways to monetize the Company's intellectual property portfolio, and reviewed an analysis of the Company's net operating losses ("NOLs") as well as the impact they would have with respect to the various strategic alternatives being considered. In addition, i2 management presented the preliminary annual operating plan reflecting a continued movement to a services-led strategy. The i2 Board discussed the feasibility of the plan.

The Series B Holder advised Mr. Sidhu, then the chairman of the i2 Board, in early December 2007 of its desire to announce the sale of the Company prior to January 31, 2008 in accordance with the schedule discussed by the i2 Board in connection with the SRC's formation. The Series B Holder also requested that each of Michael E. McGrath, Harvey B. Cash, Mr. Bradley, and Mr. Clemmer be replaced on the i2 Board with four independent nominees. On December 28, 2007, the Series B Holder notified i2 in writing of its intent to nominate Mr. Clark and Mr. Hunter as directors at the 2008 annual meeting of stockholders and thereafter amended its Schedule 13D to disclose its intention to nominate Mr. Clark and Mr. Hunter to the i2 Board, and its opinion that i2 should be sold as soon as practicable.

On January 3, 2008, i2 announced that Mr. Cash and Mr. McGrath would not stand for re-election to the i2 Board at the 2008 annual meeting. i2 also confirmed the receipt of a letter from the Series B Holder regarding its intention to nominate Mr. Clark and Mr. Hunter as directors, and stated that the Nominating and Governance Committee of the i2 Board (the "Nominating Committee") had received Mr. Clark and Mr. Hunter's names for consideration.

On January 8, 2008, the Series B Holder sent a second letter to Mr. Sidhu, as i2 Board chairman, requesting further changes to i2's governance by January 31, 2008, including the addition of Mr. Pope to the Nominating Committee (as required by the Certificate of Designations for the Series B Preferred Stock), the replacement of Mr. Sidhu as chairman, and the recognition of both Mr. Pope and Mr. Simmons as independent directors.

On January 8, 2008, members of JDA management met for four hours with i2 management in Dallas during which i2 management made a presentation about the Company and the parties discussed a potential transaction between the two entities. On January 11, 2008 the JDA board of directors (the JDA Board) met and reviewed a preliminary analysis of a transaction with the Company, which would be subject to extensive due diligence of i2.

The Nominating Committee met on January 18, 2008 to discuss the director candidates, including those nominated by the Series B Holder. After discussions with the search firm retained by the Series B Holder and a review of the candidates proposed, the Nominating Committee concluded that the search firm had conducted an extensive search that had been designed to find quality individuals who would enhance the i2 Board, and was not designed merely to propose individuals with ties to the Series B Holder. The Nominating Committee then evaluated the independence of Mr. Pope and Mr. Simmons pursuant to the Nasdaq's definition of independent director . The Nominating Committee concluded that Mr. Pope met the standards of an independent director, but that Mr. Simmons' employment by an affiliate of the Series B Holder disqualified him from independent director status. The i2 Board subsequently added Mr. Pope to the Nominating Committee.

The Nominating Committee met again on January 22, 2008 to further review candidates for the open director positions. The Nominating Committee members reported that they were in the process of interviewing various individuals, including six candidates proposed by Mr. Sidhu and the candidates proposed by the search firm that the Series B Holder retained. The Nominating Committee continued to interview potential director candidates. At the February 5, 2008 meeting, the Nominating Committee was prepared to recommend Mr. Clark, Mr. Waterhouse and Mr. Hunter as nominees; however, Mr. Sidhu, brought forth additional candidates who the Nominating Committee determined to consider over the next several weeks.

On January 21, 2008, JDA sent JPMorgan an indication of interest to acquire all i2's stock, subject to substantial due diligence. JDA did not specify a price in this indication of interest but suggested that JDA believed it would be in a position to offer an at-market to modest premium to the i2 trading price upon completion of approximately four weeks of due diligence. On January 22, 2008, i2's common stock closed at $12.25 per share. Also in January 2008, JPMorgan received an expression of interest from a financial sponsor consisting of a cash offer at $13.25 to $13.75 per share, a modest premium to the market price. JPMorgan pursued both indications of interest. On January 21 and 22, 2008, our Board met at i2's offices to discuss the Company's annual operating plan and materials provided by JPMorgan which analyzed the two indications of interest. JPMorgan's materials included a valuation analysis of the Company and noted that both potential buyers expressed concerns with i2's performance record. JPMorgan also reported on the status of other discussions.

On January 23, 2008, JPMorgan called Citigroup, which represented JDA as its financial advisor in connection with the potential i2 transaction, to discuss the due diligence process and timing and to request a specific value. On January 24, 2008, Mr. Sidhu spoke with JDA's President and Chief Executive Officer, Hamish Brewer, to discuss i2's value. Mr. Sidhu inquired as to whether JDA could structure a deal such that i2 stockholders would receive $16.00 per share of common stock. Mr. Brewer informed Mr. Sidhu that it was unlikely that the price would be at the $16.00 level. Mr. Sidhu then inquired if JDA would be interested in a transaction involving a price per share of common stock in the range of $14.00 to $16.00 with a 10% premium over the trading price. Mr. Brewer indicated that while the price was possibly in this range, it was contingent on the results of due diligence.

By February 2008, JDA and five other parties had communicated indications of interest to JPMorgan. Two of these other parties, which we refer to as Party A and Party B, were private equity funds that continued to have discussions with the Company and JPMorgan into August 2008, while the other three parties dropped out without making formal offers. Over the next six weeks, all six entities participated in preliminary diligence and management presentations, with each prospective purchaser expressing one or more conditions regarding the treatment of the Series B Preferred Stock, the rollover of Mr. Sidhu's shares into equity of the surviving company, the SAP Litigation, and the ability to obtain financing.

At the February 5, 2008 i2 Board meeting held at the Company's offices, the SRC updated the i2 Board on the strategic process as well as the results of its discussions with selected i2 stockholders representing approximately 30% of the Company's outstanding common stock, all of whom were conceptually in favor of i2's sale. The i2 Board discussed the fact that during January and February 2008, i2 had received letters from additional stockholders encouraging the Company's sale. JPMorgan also presented materials regarding the Company's valuation and an analysis of the two indications of interest, including the oral indication of possible interest from JDA at $14.00 per share. During i2 Board meeting, Mr. Sidhu stated his belief that the public sales process was hurting i2's relationship with its customers and employees, and that despite the negative impact of the public sales process, the restructuring done since the designation of a new chief executive officer was yielding results evidenced by cost cuts and strong bookings in the fourth quarter of 2007. Mr. Sidhu stated that since the i2 Board had explored alternatives for selling the company for over a year with no firm offer, he believed that the public sales process should be terminated and the i2 Board should focus on improving the Company's operations. Upon the recommendation of the SRC, the i2 Board, with Mr. Sidhu abstaining from the vote, authorized the SRC to continue the process. On the date of the meeting, i2's common stock closed at $12.91 per share.

On February 7, 2008, the Company publicly announced that the SRC would continue its analysis beyond the originally contemplated deadline. Also on February 7, 2008, the JDA Board met to review the information to date on a possible transaction with i2, and instructed its management to continue discussions with i2. At this time, JDA communicated its desire to engage i2 in an exclusive process, which was necessary to efficiently complete the due diligence required to form a more definitive view of the price JDA would be willing to offer for i2 common stock. The JDA Board acknowledged that a price of $14.00 per share or higher might be achievable, subject to the outcome of the additional diligence.

On February 12, 2008, the Series B Holder filed with the SEC copies of letters to stockholders encouraging i2's sale and disclosing its nomination of Mr. Clark and Mr. Hunter to fill the vacant i2 Board seats.

On February 21, 2008, the Nominating Committee recommended to the i2 Board, and the i2 Board approved the nomination of, Mr. Waterhouse (an incumbent director), Mr. Clark, and Mr. Hunter as the nominees for the Class II Director positions to be elected at the 2008 annual meeting. Following the announcement of these nominations, the Series B Holder amended its Schedule 13D to state its support for the slate of directors nominated by the i2 Board.

On March 6, 2008, an initial draft of a merger agreement was made available for review and comment from interested parties. Copies of the draft were provided to five potential purchasers, including Party A, Party B and JDA. The other two parties declined to proceed with the process.

Prior to the March 18, 2008 i2 Board meeting, in response to a deadline for submission of interest set by the Company, written indications of interest were delivered to JPMorgan by two prospective purchasers, including Party A and one other party. In addition, Party B was continuing discussions with JPMorgan, and Party M continued to communicate with i2 regarding a potential merger of equals.

On March 18, 2008, our Board met at the Company's offices. Counsel for the Company explained the Board's duties with respect to the process of exploring strategic options and answered questions from the directors. Members of the SRC reported on the various alternatives both the SRC and the i2 Board had considered, including an update on the status of discussions with Party M regarding a potential merger of equals. The SRC also advised the i2 Board that in its review of various strategic alternatives the SRC had developed concerns regarding the aggressive growth rates in operating revenue and earnings per share contained in the plan presented by management at the December 21, 2007 and January 21 and 22, 2008 i2 Board meetings, as well as regarding i2's ability to effect the significant transformation of its business operations that would be required to successfully execute such a plan. The SRC had requested that management prepare a Status Quo Plan, or business as usual plan, that did not contain the transformational aspects of the business for purposes of the i2

Board's analysis. The SRC had also requested that JPMorgan prepare a discounted cash flow analysis of each plan then under consideration by the i2 Board. That analysis was included in the materials provided by JPMorgan to the directors for review prior to the meeting.

Mr. Wilson reported the following conclusions reached by the SRC:

based upon the Company's track record with respect to acquisitions, additional acquisitions were not recommended;

in order to pursue a merger of equals or a joint venture, i2 needed to hire a permanent chief executive officer;

a transformation of i2 would also require a permanent chief executive officer, although certain steps were already being taken to effect various aspects of a transformation; and the pursuit of a sale or merger was still being considered as a viable option for enhancing shareholder value.

The SRC also communicated its consideration of the value of i2's intellectual property portfolio and the SAP Litigation, including the ability to retain their value for its existing stockholders or separately value each item as part of any transaction. An outside firm had previously reviewed the NOL's and provided information to the SRC with respect to their availability and value to the Company as well as their treatment and potential value in an acquisition or other strategic transaction.

JPMorgan then provided materials for the i2 Board's review and answered questions regarding the valuation analysis contained in the materials. JPMorgan reported the status of the indications of interest, noting in particular that: (1) one prospective purchaser had dropped out of the process; (2) Party A submitted a $13.00 per share written indication of interest, requiring a rollover of Mr. Sidhu's shares; (3) Party B orally proposed a $12.00 per share indication of interest, requiring a rollover of Mr. Sidhu's shares, a rollover of 50% of the Series B Preferred Stock, a cancellation of 25% of Series B Preferred Stock, and a payout of 25% of the Series B Preferred Stock; (4) one had no value stated but required the Series B Holder's participation; (5) one had made an initial call, but no follow up or response to JPMorgan's inquiries; and (6) JDA stated it would submit an indication of interest later that week, but did not do so.

At the March 18, 2008 meeting, the i2 Board also authorized the formation of a Transformation Committee (the Transformation Committee) comprised of Mr. Pope, Mr. Sidhu, Mr. Bradley and Mr. Clemmer. Mr. Sidhu was included on this Committee to obtain his direct input and ideas as a result of his opinion that he had expressed that the Company should continue on a stand alone basis with a transformed business plan. The Transformation Committee's goal was to articulate a transformation business plan as a potential alternative for the i2 Board to enhance stockholder value to be compared with the other alternatives being considered by the SRC. The Transformation Committee's subsequent report did not include a transformation business plan for the i2 Board's consideration.

On March 31, 2008, the JDA Board met to discuss the status of negotiations between JDA and i2 and of the potential transaction. After the JDA Board meeting, JDA indicated to i2 that it was unwilling to proceed further without exclusivity, but JDA did not completely drop out of the process. Although its access to the data room was terminated, Mr. Brewer contacted Mr. Sidhu by email on April 7, 2008 explaining that JDA was prepared to re-engage with i2 and that the JDA Board had scheduled a meeting on April 14 to consider a proposal to acquire the Company.

Also during the first week of April 2008, Parties A and B, who were continuing their due diligence, provided separate written indications of interest in a transaction at $11.00 per share in which i2 stockholders would retain the benefits of the SAP Litigation, with a discount and/or rollover to be negotiated with the Series B Holder and a rollover to be negotiated with Mr. Sidhu with respect to his shares. On April 1, 2008, the price of i2's common stock closed at $11.89 per share. The two bidders indicated a desire to discuss the method that would be used to value the SAP Litigation. At the same time, JPMorgan and the SRC continued to negotiate with Party M with respect to a potential merger of equals.

On April 14, 2008 the JDA Board met and weighed the potential benefits and risks of a transaction with i2, and authorized its management to prepare a proposal to submit to i2, including a request for exclusivity. Kristen Magnuson, JDA's Chief Financial Officer, contacted i2's Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Berry, on April 17, 2008 to inquire when i2's quarterly financials would be finalized.

At the April 21 and 22, 2008 i2 Board meetings, Mr. Sidhu advised the i2 Board that he had a telephone call with Mr. Brewer earlier that month in which Mr. Brewer advised him that JDA was not inclined to pursue a transaction with i2 at that time; however, JDA was interested in the results of i2's quarterly earnings, to be announced in May.

On May 5, 2008, Mr. Wilson was named Chairman of the Board and Mr. Sidhu became chairman emeritus and remained as a director. Mr. Clemmer was named Chairman of the SRC. Mr. Wilson resigned as a member of the SRC due to his new role as chairman of the i2 Board, but was reappointed as a committee member on June 5, 2008.

On May 8, 2008, the JDA Board met and discussed the offer to acquire i2 prepared by JDA management, including the purchase price and the structure of the transaction, and authorized a proposal for a purchase of i2's operating assets. On May 12, 2008, JDA submitted a proposal to acquire i2's operating assets for $275,000,000. This price amounted to approximately $9.50 per share, not including any value for the SAP Litigation which would be retained by i2's stockholders. i2 rejected this offer on May 15, 2008. On May 17, 2008, the JDA Board again met to review the status of the SAP Litigation and the potential to revise its proposal as an acquisition of i2.

Discussions continued with JDA and on May 21, 2008, JDA raised its offer to $310,000,000 for i2's assets, including the SAP Litigation, which was equivalent to approximately $10.00 per share. On May 22, 2008, the SRC met and determined to reject JDA's proposal and directed JPMorgan to simultaneously pursue the indications of interest from Party A and Party B with whom negotiations were continuing, as well as the negotiations with Party M regarding a potential merger of equals. On May 25, 2008, the JDA Board met to discuss the status of negotiations with i2 and its desire to enter into an exclusivity arrangement with i2. On May 28, 2008, Mr. Clemmer and a representative from JPMorgan called Mr. Brewer and a representative from Citigroup and informed them that while a transaction with JDA could have merit, the SRC was not inclined to have any further discussions at the current proposed price and structure and were proceeding with other interested parties. The JDA Board met again on May 29, 2008 to review advice from Citigroup and directed Mr. Brewer to communicate JDA's continuing interest in a transaction to i2 management. On June 2, 2008, Mr. Brewer sent an email to Mr. Clemmer stating that JDA was willing to move forward and was confident in its ability to finance a transaction. Mr. Brewer requested exclusivity and a written response regarding the structure and valuation that i2 desired. i2 did not provide the requested response and pursued discussions with other interested parties.

On June 6, 2008, a written indication of interest was received by JPMorgan at $13.00 per common share from a financial sponsor, who shortly thereafter dropped out of the process.

By June 11, 2008, i2 had received three written indications of interest (at $11.00 per share from Party B, $12.00 per share from Party A and $13.00 per share from another financial buyer). On that date, the closing market price of i2's common stock was $11.45 per share. Parties A and B also provided marked up copies of the merger agreement. Each written indication of interest was subject to obtaining financing, contemplated a rollover of shares from Mr. Sidhu into equity of the surviving company, requested exclusivity and indicated that it was also subject to negotiations with the Series B Holder. Counsel for the Company revised the draft merger agreement and returned it to each of Party A and Party B on June 27, 2008, while they were continuing their due diligence. The SRC requested that Mr. Sidhu, as a stockholder, discuss with the various bidders their requirements regarding the rollover of his shares and his continuing role with the Company.

On June 23, 2008, i2 settled its SAP Litigation in return for a payment to be made to i2 of approximately $83,300,000. Negotiations with Party M regarding a potential merger of equals ended as the parties had been unable to come to an agreement on the relative valuation of the two companies.

On June 27, 2008, in order to keep Party A in the process, i2 agreed to pay certain of its expenses not to exceed $500,000, which cap would increase to $750,000 if i2 entered into an agreement with another party to effect a transaction covered by the expense sharing agreement prior to January 31, 2009 (the merger that is the subject of this proxy statement activated the terms of the expense-sharing agreement, and i2 subsequently paid $750,000 of this potential purchaser's expenses).

On July 2, 2008, the JDA Board met to review the status of the negotiations with i2 in light of the settlement of the SAP Litigation, noting that communications had stopped with i2 in early June 2008. After further consideration, the JDA Board authorized JDA management to offer i2 $15.00 per share of the Company's common stock. On July 3, 2008, JDA contacted JPMorgan and requested access to the bidding process and the data room. Further, JDA provided a written indication of interest at $15.00 per share with no financing conditions, payment of a 110% change in control premium to the Series B Holder and no condition of a rollover of Mr. Sidhu's shares. JDA also required voting agreements from various persons, including Mr. Sidhu and the Series B Holder. The closing market price of i2 common stock on this day was $12.76 per share. i2 provided JDA with a draft merger agreement on July 3, 2008, and JDA was given access to the data room on July 5, 2008 to complete its due diligence. On July 9, 2008, the JDA Board met to discuss the status and structure of the transaction and the draft of the merger agreement. From July 3, 2008 through August 10, 2008, legal counsel for each of JDA and i2 negotiated the terms of the merger agreement and a form of voting agreement.

On July 10, 2008, JDA submitted a marked draft of the merger agreement which, based upon ongoing discussions with the Company, provided for the redemption payment to the Series B Holder of 104% of the then current liquidation value of the Series B Preferred Stock at closing of the merger. On July 15, 2008, JDA submitted draft forms of voting agreements to be executed and delivered by all i2 officers and directors and the Series B Holder.

Following receipt of JDA's offer, the SRC instructed JPMorgan to request that both Party A and Party B make their best and final offers on July 16, 2008, after which i2 would proceed with the best proposal among those of Party A, Party B and JDA. Party A's offer was for $13.50 per share and Party B's offer was at $13.25 per share and each, either in writing or orally, contained financing contingencies or uncertainties. Party B required the redemption of the Series B Preferred Stock at 104% prior to closing. Party A required a rollover of Mr. Sidhu's shares as well as equity participation from management and a redemption of the Series B Preferred Stock at a 104% premium prior to closing. Party A stated in writing that it had held discussions with Mr. Sidhu regarding a rollover of all of his equity and that Mr. Sidhu indicated a willingness to make such a rollover. Party A also expressed its confidence that it could arrive at definitive terms with Mr. Sidhu. Mr. Sidhu stated that he had no agreement with any party but that if the i2 Board requested, he would be willing to negotiate a rollover transaction with a private equity firm as long as it was tax-efficient. Noting the requirement from one or more bidders of a rollover of Mr. Sidhu's shares and in order to enhance the bidding process, the SRC had authorized the reimbursement of Mr. Sidhu's legal expenses incurred as a stockholder through July 17, 2007, not to exceed $25,000.

On Wednesday, July 16, 2008, Mr. Brewer, by letter to Mr. Clemmer, reconfirmed JDA's interest at $15.00 a share, required that the Series B Preferred Stock and Notes be retired at closing, indicated that, while not required, JDA would consider the rollover of management or key shareholder common stock as part of the transaction, and detailed outstanding due diligence issues. On the same day, Citigroup gave a presentation to the JDA Board in connection with the i2 transaction, and the JDA Board discussed the timing and the risks of the transaction as well as the financing status. The SRC also met on the evening of July 16, 2008 to review the respective proposals of JDA, Party A and Party B. The SRC reconvened for two separate meetings on Thursday, July 17, 2008. At the first meeting on that day, Mr. Waterhouse communicated the content of his discussions with Mr. Simmons regarding the Series B Holder's position that, as provided in the Certificate of Designations for the Series B Preferred Stock, it should receive a 110% change of control premium in a merger transaction unless the Company exercised its right, as also provided in the Certificate of Designations, to redeem the Series B Preferred Stock at a 104% premium before the merger.

On the evening of Thursday, July 17, 2008, the i2 Board met and Mr. Clemmer, with the assistance of representatives of JPMorgan and Company counsel, summarized and contrasted the terms of the proposals and drafts of merger agreements from JDA, Party A and Party B. The i2 Board also discussed the required 30 day notice period to effect a redemption of the Series B Preferred Stock at a 104% premium as contrasted with the Certificate of Designations' provisions concerning the 110% change of control premium. Mr. Simmons stated that he had been advised that the Series B Holder would not waive the required notice, but would waive the condition of having an effective registration statement for its conversion shares. At this meeting, Mr. Sidhu expressed his concerns and noted that as a shareholder he was not yet supportive of a sale of the Company at the price indicated by JDA. Mr. Sidhu stated his opinion that the Company had experienced improved operational performance and further noted the improved balance sheet with the settlement of the SAP Litigation and requested that the value of the Company as a stand alone entity be considered again by the i2 Board. The i2 Board, with Mr. Sidhu abstaining from the vote, authorized the entering of exclusive negotiations with JDA, subject to receiving the waiver of the Series B Holder to the 30 day notice period for the 104% redemption. The waiver was not obtained and no exclusivity to JDA was granted.

Mr. Sidhu joined the SRC at their meeting following the i2 Board meeting later that evening. Although requested to do so by the SRC members, Mr. Sidhu declined to articulate any proposal for a transaction which he would be willing to support as a stockholder. He requested a meeting with JDA in order to negotiate terms whereby he would support a transaction as a stockholder.

The SRC met the following day, July 18, 2008, at which time Mr. Clemmer reported that the Series B Holder, after being requested to consider the request again, refused to waive or otherwise modify the 30-day notice requirement for redemption of the Series B Preferred Stock at a 104% premium. The SRC evaluated the benefits to the common stockholders of the difference between the 104% redemption price for the Series B Preferred Stock as compared with the 110% change of control premium and noted that each proposal contemplated the 104% redemption. The SRC also noted that upon a redemption of the Series B Preferred Stock, the Note holders could, at their option, force redemption of the Notes at their principal amount of $86,250,000, plus accrued interest. The SRC discussed at length the risk of effecting a redemption of the Series B Preferred Stock at the 104% premium while also having to redeem the Notes, which could result in a total payment of approximately $200,000,000 that, once the redemption notice to the Series B Holder was sent, would be paid irrespective of the completion of the JDA merger. The SRC also discussed the analysis which would be required by the i2 Board in order to make such a determination, including confirmation of the existence of adequate capital and access to financing following such a redemption.

The SRC authorized JPMorgan to inform JDA that i2 would like to proceed with JDA; however, proceeding was contingent on JDA's proposal to pay $15.00 per share of common stock remaining unchanged in the event that the Series B Preferred Stock required a 110% premium. The SRC further authorized JPMorgan to determine if JDA would go forward with a transaction with a voting agreement from only the Series B Holder and not Mr. Sidhu. JPMorgan was also directed to advise Party A and Party B that i2 was going forward with another bidder. Party B asked if it could attempt to jointly create a new proposal with Party A, and the SRC confirmed it would consider it. The Company and Party A and Party B amended their non-disclosure agreements to allow them to communicate. The two prospective purchasers combined their efforts but did not submit a new proposal.

The SRC met for a second time on Friday, July 18, 2008 and again on Monday, July 21, 2008, at which time JPMorgan updated them on the discussions held with JDA, and with Party A and Party B, as well as the discussions with Mr. Sidhu and the Series B Holder. Over the weekend, Mr. Clemmer spoke with Mr. Brewer regarding the payment to be made to the Series B Holder, the lack of support by Mr. Sidhu and the condition in JDA's proposal requiring his voting agreement. Mr. Clemmer encouraged JDA to consider improving its proposal in order to obtain Mr. Sidhu's support. Mr. Clemmer also had a conversation with Mr. Sidhu to tell Mr. Sidhu that JDA would be contacting him. Mr. Sidhu advised Mr. Clemmer that both Party A and Party B were working on improving their proposals.

On Monday, July 21, 2008, the i2 Board met at the offices of the Company and Mr. Clemmer communicated an update to the i2 Board from the SRC regarding: (1) the status of negotiations with JDA, Party A and Party B; (2) the terms of the Certificate of Designations for the Series B Preferred Stock with respect to a 104% redemption premium as compared with a 110% change of control premium; (3) the potential impact upon the Company of effecting the redemption and having a transaction not occur; (4) the position of the Series B Holder regarding the redemption notice and process; and (5) the position of Mr. Sidhu with respect to his continuing role with the Company following a transaction and his delivery of a voting agreement. Mr. Clemmer pointed out that Mr. Sidhu had stated his intention not to execute a voting agreement or to have a continuing role and that Mr. Sidhu's and the Series B Holder's positions had been communicated to JDA and to Party A and Party B. JPMorgan provided materials to the i2 Board detailing JDA's $15.00 per share proposal and which set forth various methods of valuation of the Company, as well as JDA's existing capital and debt structure which would support their ability to finance the transaction. JPMorgan then answered questions from the directors regarding the materials. The i2 Board confirmed that the business plan JPMorgan used as the basis for evaluating i2's valuation was the same plan that had been previously approved by the i2 Board. The materials reviewed by the i2 Board included a discounted cash flow analysis of the continued operation of the Company on a stand alone basis without a transaction. Counsel for the Company then reviewed with the i2 Board the various alternatives they had considered over the past several months, as well as the extensive efforts of the SRC. Company counsel reiterated the directors' fiduciary obligations and fielded questions about the strategic process and the i2 Board's duties. The i2 Board authorized the SRC to enter into exclusive negotiations with one of JDA or either of Party A or Party B if, after consultation with JPMorgan, the SRC determined such an exclusivity agreement to be in the Company's best interest.

On Tuesday, July 22, 2008, Mr. Brewer advised Mr. Clemmer that he and Mr. Sidhu had talked and that Mr. Sidhu was not ready to support a transaction with JDA. Mr. Brewer stated that he did not intend to have two negotiation processes, but that he and James D. Armstrong, Chairman of the JDA Board, would meet with Mr. Sidhu in Phoenix, Arizona, on Friday, July 25, 2008, to discuss the potential role of Mr. Sidhu in the business following closing of the transaction. Mr. Brewer advised that their proposal of $15.00 a share would remain at $15.00 whether the Series B Holder was redeemed at a 104% premium or paid a 110% change of control premium. He also repeated JDA's request for exclusivity.

On Thursday, July 24, 2008, Mr. Clemmer and Mr. Brewer spoke and discussed the status of financing commitments for JDA, the timing for announcement of a transaction if an agreement could be reached and the status of JDA's remaining diligence items. Mr. Brewer again requested exclusivity, and Mr. Clemmer advised him of the need to reach a resolution with Mr. Sidhu at their meeting to be held on Friday. On Thursday, Mr. Brewer and Mr. Sidhu had a phone conversation regarding their meeting the next day which Mr. Brewer described to Mr. Clemmer as encouraging.

On Friday, July 25, 2008, the JDA Board met to discuss the status of the transaction, the proposed meeting with Mr. Sidhu and certain diligence matters. The JDA Board directed JDA management to proceed with the transaction. Later that same day, Mr. Sidhu met with Mr. Armstrong to discuss terms that would allow Mr. Sidhu, as an i2 stockholder, to support the transaction. Subsequently, on July 25, 2008, Mr. Brewer advised Mr. Clemmer that Mr. Sidhu had requested, in the alternative, either (1) a share price for the common stockholders of $18.00 to $20.00 per share or (2) the ability for Mr. Sidhu to acquire $30,000,000 of the same or equivalent preferred stock of JDA as the preferred stock held by Thoma Cressey Bravo at a 20% discount to market, with a one year consulting agreement under which Mr. Sidhu would earn $6,000,000 annually. JDA has informed i2 that the Thoma Cressey Bravo investment was made at market. JDA rejected his proposal because JDA believed it had the superior offer of those submitted on July 16, 2008, and because JDA was not interested in a transaction at $18.00 per share

Mr. Sidhu advised i2 that he believed that the discussion as described in the foregoing paragraph mischaracterizes his position. Mr. Sidhu further advised i2 that the discussion began with Mr. Sidhu stating that the Company was worth much more than $15.00 per share and that he would be willing to support the sale in the $18.00 to $20.00 per share range. The JDA team responded that they believed that JDA had made the best offer the Company had received, the range proposed by Mr. Sidhu was significantly higher than considered by JDA, and JDA was not interested in negotiating a price increase with Mr. Sidhu. Mr. Sidhu explained various advantages that JDA would gain and why JDA should pay a higher price. At this point, according to Mr. Sidhu, the suggestion was made that if Mr. Sidhu believed in the advantages to JDA, Mr. Sidhu might consider continuing as an investor on the same terms as the preferred stock of JDA held by Thoma Cressey Bravo. Mr. Sidhu stated that in his position as a stockholder, he would be willing to invest at a 20% discount to market and with a one year consulting agreement for $6,000,000.

On Saturday, July 26, 2008, Mr. Sidhu again contacted JDA to discuss possible terms pursuant to which he was willing to vote as a stockholder for the sale of i2 to JDA. JDA and Mr. Sidhu did not reach an agreement, and Mr. Sidhu told the SRC that he was not prepared to support the potential JDA transaction.

Also on July 26, 2008, the SRC met to discuss the meeting that Mr. Sidhu had the previous day with JDA and learned that Mr. Sidhu and JDA had failed to reach terms. The SRC determined to have an i2 Board meeting as soon as possible in order to explore the alternatives available, as it appeared at this time that it would not be possible to go forward with a transaction with JDA due to the requirement in its proposal of voting agreements with both Mr. Sidhu and the Series B Holder.

On Sunday, July 27, 2008, Mr. Sidhu had a conversation with Mr. Armstrong in which he advised Mr. Sidhu that JDA did not intend to change its price or enter into negotiations with him.

A telephonic meeting of the i2 Board was held on Sunday evening, July 27, 2008. JPMorgan advised the i2 Board that Party A and Party B, while interested and continuing their efforts, had not been able to arrange financing to support their proposed offers, and that the only actionable written indication of interest was JDA's proposal. The i2 Board pressed Mr. Sidhu for the specific terms under which he would support a potential offer as a stockholder. He responded that as a stockholder he would support a price per share of i2 common stock of $16.50. The i2 Board requested that the SRC continue discussions with JDA, noting that its proposal was contingent on securing voting agreements from Mr. Sidhu, the Series B Holder and others.

On Sunday evening, July 27, 2008, following the i2 Board meeting, the SRC, recognizing the precarious nature of the negotiations at this stage, met separately and requested that JPMorgan contact JDA to determine if it was still interested in continuing discussions without requiring a voting agreement from Mr. Sidhu. JPMorgan was also requested to approach JDA with respect to an increase in price for the shares of i2 common stock in an effort to obtain Mr. Sidhu's voting agreement. Later in the evening on Sunday, Mr. Clemmer received an e-mail from Mr. Brewer stating that it was unlikely that JDA would receive support from Mr. Sidhu for the proposed transaction and JDA was interested in exploring ways to complete the transaction without Mr. Sidhu's support.

On Monday, July 28, 2008, JPMorgan contacted Mr. Brewer and informed him that Mr. Sidhu had stated that as a stockholder, he would support a transaction in which the price per share of i2 common stock was $16.50. Mr. Brewer misheard the price and thought it was $15.50. After further discussions that day, Mr. Brewer advised JPMorgan that JDA had no interest in further negotiations with Mr. Sidhu or increasing JDA's offer of $15.00 per share of common stock.

On Tuesday, July 29, 2008, Mr. Brewer, Mr. Wilson, and Mr. Simmons, together with counsel and other representatives of i2 and JDA, participated in a telephone conference in an effort to assess the likely support from i2's stockholders for a transaction in the event a voting agreement was not obtained from Mr. Sidhu. On the same day, the JDA Board met to review the status and open issues of the transaction, including the discussions with Mr. Sidhu. The JDA Board determined to proceed with the transaction without Mr. Sidhu's voting agreement or any further involvement by Mr. Sidhu in the combined company, and to maintain a price of $15.00 if the 110% change of control premium was paid to the Series B Holder.

On Wednesday, July 30, 2008, Mr. Brewer informed Mr. Clemmer of JDA's willingness to proceed without Mr. Sidhu's voting agreement. The SRC met also on that day, at which meeting Mr. Clemmer updated the SRC with respect to his communications with JDA and JPMorgan. JPMorgan reported to the SRC that JDA had misunderstood Mr. Sidhu's July 28, 2008 request and thought it was for $15.50 per share; nevertheless, its rejection of that proposal suggested that it would not have accepted the higher request for $16.50. Mr. Clemmer advised the SRC that JDA had expressed its interest in pursuing a transaction with i2 without a voting agreement and without the continuing involvement of Mr. Sidhu following the transaction.

The SRC evaluated the risks associated with obtaining the requisite vote of stockholders without a voting agreement from Mr. Sidhu as well as the risks to the business of announcing a transaction which could fail to be approved. The SRC further analyzed the risks and benefits of deciding not to proceed with a transaction and continuing to run the business under its current structure. The SRC requested that JPMorgan seek from JDA for review a written proposal to effect a transaction without a voting agreement from Mr. Sidhu and for the payment of a 110% change of control premium to the Series B Holder with a $15.00 per share price.

On July 30, 2008, Mr. Clemmer and Mr. Brewer spoke by telephone, during which conversation Mr. Brewer expressed JDA's desire to pursue a transaction whether or not Mr. Sidhu provided a voting agreement. On the same day, JPMorgan confirmed that neither Party A nor Party B was in a position to submit a proposal with financing or to increase a proposal meaningfully beyond $13.50 per share of common stock.

On July 30, 2008, the Company terminated its discussions with Party A who had the expense sharing agreement in order to stop the expense sharing.

On Thursday, July 31, 2008, JDA submitted a revised written proposal at $15.00 per share of common stock and that contemplated a 110% change of control premium for the Series B Holder and with voting agreements to be provided by the Series B Holder and the i2 officers and directors, other than Mr. Sidhu; however, the proposal required that over 50% of the Notes be tendered to the Company in an exchange offer and that financial covenants in the Indenture which would have restricted JDA's ability to obtain financing be removed at or prior to the effective time of the merger.

Mr. Brewer, in correspondence with Mr. Clemmer on Thursday, July 31, 2008, requested that i2 contact Highbridge, a private fund managed by Highbridge Capital, as the holder of a majority in principal of the Notes, to determine whether it would agree to effect such actions. On Friday, August 1, 2008, JPMorgan met with representatives of Highbridge Capital and, after Highbridge Capital executed a non-disclosure agreement, it agreed to consider the request to satisfy the conditions imposed by JDA.

On the evening of August 1, 2008, the SRC met and Mr. Clemmer advised the other members that Mr. Brewer suggested to him that JDA would pay up to $1,700,000 of any premium required by Highbridge to be paid pro rata to the holders of the Notes in order to agree to modify the Indenture and otherwise satisfy the conditions imposed by JDA. The SRC requested that JPMorgan determine from Highbridge the amount of the premium, and that Mr. Waterhouse call Mr. Raynor, a representative of the Series B Holder to inquire if the Series B Holder would be willing to contribute to the anticipated premium which would be requested by Highbridge. Mr. Raynor declined. Mr. Clemmer later contacted Mr. Brewer to determine if JDA or its lender would complete the transaction without the new conditions regarding the Notes as the Company was concerned about the premium which would be required to effect an amendment to the Indenture and to satisfy other conditions. Mr. Brewer reiterated that it was necessary that the conditions be satisfied in order for JDA to obtain the financing for the transaction as structured.

On August 3, 2008, the JDA Board met to discuss the open issues on the transaction and the status of negotiations with Highbridge. The JDA Board considered i2's request that JDA share the cost of the premium, and concluded that JDA would agree to bear up to $1,700,000 of the consent premium paid to the holders of the Notes.

The SRC met twice on Monday, August 4, 2008, following the communication by Highbridge of its willingness to amend the Indenture to effect a change in the terms of the Notes and to satisfy the other conditions in exchange for a $10,500,000 premium to the Note holders. In its first meeting on that day, the SRC asked JPMorgan to contact Citigroup, Mr. Sidhu, and Mr. Simmons, and report back at a second SRC meeting that evening. At the second meeting, JPMorgan confirmed that: (1) JDA had no financing plan that would allow for closing without satisfaction of the new conditions regarding the Notes; (2) Mr. Sidhu would listen to proposals but desired to preserve his ability as a shareholder to dissent and seek appraisal rights; and (3) Mr. Simmons confirmed that the Series B Holder was not interested in paying any part of the premium to the holders of the Notes. In order to effect the transaction without the need to pay the full premium required by Highbridge to be paid to the holders of the Notes, Mr. Simmons indicated that the Series B Holder would be willing to provide acquisition financing to JDA in return for the portion of the premium JDA offered to pay to the Note holders.

The SRC engaged in extensive discussions and analysis based on this information, with particular emphasis on the most effective strategy for obtaining value to the common stockholders, and determined to pursue the following: (1) determine if the Series B Holder would provide financing to JDA; (2) continue negotiations with Highbridge to reduce their demands; and (3) seek a voting agreement from Mr. Sidhu to provide to JDA in lieu of a voting agreement from the Series B Holder, and then effect a redemption of the Series B Preferred Stock at 104% premium instead of the 110% premium, with the savings to be used to pay the premium to the Note holders and any excess to inure to the holders of common stock and the holders of the Notes as provided by the conversion provisions of the Indenture.

Later that evening, Mr. Wilson spoke with Mr. Brewer, explained the alternatives and determined that JDA would consider the proposal for financing from the Series B Holder. JDA subsequently stated that since they still required amendments from the note holders, the Series B Holder's financing offer was not required. Also that evening, Highbridge advised that it required that one-third of the premium be paid up front, which would be non-refundable whether or not a transaction occurred.

On Tuesday, August 5, 2008, an agreement was provided to Highbridge to document the terms of the consent, waiver and the premium payment. Between August 5, 2008 and August 10, 2008, several drafts were circulated among counsel for the Company, JDA, JDA's lenders, the trustee, and Highbridge. JPMorgan conducted negotiations with Highbridge which resulted in the reduction of the original requested premium amount of $10,500,000 to $7,500,000. JDA agreed to bear $2,500,000 of this premium. JPMorgan communicated to the Series B Holder the SRC's request that it contribute a like amount of $2,500,000 from its change of control premium.

On Wednesday, August 6, 2008, the SRC met twice. In the first meeting, it reviewed the impact of no contribution from the Series B Holder towards the premium to the Note holders, which would be a price to the common stockholders of approximately $14.72 per share. If the Series B Holder contributed $2,500,000 as requested, the price to the common stockholders would be approximately $14.92 per share. The redemption of the Series B Preferred Stock at the 104% redemption amount instead of the 110% change of control premium would result in a total savings, which if retained by the common stockholders and not JDA, would result in the common stockholders having the potential to receive a total of approximately $15.02 per share instead of the $14.86. There would be costs associated with such event so that the total savings available would likely be reduced.

The SRC requested that Mr. Wilson contact Mr. Sidhu and confirm his position as a stockholder prior to a second SRC meeting later that day, and further directed Mr. Harvey to cancel the i2 Board meeting scheduled for the afternoon of Wednesday, August 6, 2008 which had been scheduled to consider the JDA proposal.

Following the notice of the cancellation of the i2 Board meeting, Mr. Simmons contacted Mr. Wilson on August 6, 2008, and told him that he had been informed that the Series B Holder had reconsidered and would contribute $500,000 of its change of control premium towards the payment of the premium to the Note holders.

The SRC and JPMorgan had engaged in extensive negotiations with Highbridge, JDA and the Series B Holder in an effort to maintain the highest price possible for the common stockholders while reducing the premiums requested by Highbridge and the premium provided upon a change of control to the Series B Holder. Highbridge agreed to execute a consent and conversion agreement in return for a premium of $86.9565 per $1,000 principal amount of Notes, with one-third of such amount to be paid upon execution of the consent and conversion agreement, and an agreement to provide that the same premium (other than the payment of one-third up front) would be available to any other holder that agreed to convert its Notes after the merger, resulting in a total premium of $7,500,000. Of this premium amount, JDA agreed to bear $2,500,000, and the Series B Holder agreed to bear $500,000 through a reduction in the premium due to the Series B Holder on the change of control event, resulting in a per share price for i2 common stock of $14.85 (which later calculations increased to $14.86).

In the second meeting on Wednesday, August 6, 2008, Mr. Clemmer confirmed that JDA would consider the 104% redemption and, if effected, that the savings would go to the common stockholders and to the Note holders under the conversion provisions of the Indenture. Mr. Wilson confirmed that he requested an answer from Mr. Sidhu prior to the 3:00 p.m. meeting, but that Mr. Sidhu had not made a decision. Mr. Wilson confirmed the Series B Holder's offer to contribute $500,000 from the change of control payment to the Note holders' premium.

On the evening of Wednesday, August 6, 2008, Mr. Sidhu called Mr. Wilson to state his position as a stockholder that if the price to the common stockholders was $15.25, he would deliver a voting agreement. Mr. Wilson informed him of the JDA Board meeting scheduled for later that evening and said he would communicate Mr. Sidhu's position to Mr. Brewer.

On Wednesday, August 6, 2008, the JDA Board reviewed the status of the transactions and considered increasing JDA's portion of the consent premium for the Notes from $1,700,000 to $2,500,000. The JDA Board ratified the increase in JDA's share of the consent premium. Following the JDA Board meeting, Mr. Brewer confirmed that JDA had rejected the proposal from Mr. Sidhu, but advised that if Mr. Sidhu signed a voting agreement and i2 effected a redemption with a 104% premium to the Series B Holder, JDA would be willing, subject to JDA's review of technical issues, to having the savings inure to the benefit of the common stockholders and the Note holders under the conversion provisions of the Indenture. Mr. Brewer confirmed that JDA had scheduled a Sunday afternoon i2 Board meeting to consider the transaction as presented.

On August 7, 2008, the SRC met twice, with Mr. Sidhu present in the first meeting. The members of the SRC discussed the status of negotiations and encouraged Mr. Sidhu to articulate his position as a stockholder. Mr. Sidhu stated that he could consider supporting a transaction as a stockholder with 104% redemption price to Series B Holder if the savings went to the common stockholders.

Later that day, the Series B Holder confirmed to counsel for the Company that it would not deliver a voting agreement if the merger agreement provided for possibility of the redemption of the Series B Preferred Stock at a 104% premium. The Series B Holder confirmed that the Company had the right to redeem the Series B Preferred

Stock at 104%, as long as the redemption was made in accordance with the terms of the Certificate of Designations for the Series B Preferred Stock.

The SRC then met a second time on August 7, 2008, and considered the status of negotiations relating to the amendment of the Notes and the merger agreement, as well as the redemption process. The SRC reviewed the steps required for a redemption and the adverse impact of such steps on the certainty and timing of the merger transaction. The SRC further considered JDA's position regarding the redemption, the need to modify the merger agreement to accommodate such redemption, and the risks to a transaction from pursuing the redemption. After discussions and analysis, the SRC decided to recommend that the i2 Board, at a meeting on Sunday, August 10, 2008, and subject to the SRC's review and approval of final documentation, approve a transaction under which the common stockholders would receive approximately $14.85 per share (which later calculations increased to $14.86).

On Saturday evening, August 9, 2008, Mr. Sidhu called Mr. Wilson and expressed his desire to deliver a voting agreement provided that the merger agreement allowed for the 104% redemption of the Series B Preferred Stock at i2's option. Mr. Wilson pursued this request by asking counsel for the Company to determine if JDA would revise the merger agreement to permit a redemption. Counsel for the Company communicated this information to counsel for JDA that evening.

JDA and its counsel reviewed the potential impact of the proposed redemption on the merger transaction, including, but not limited to, the certainty of closing the merger, and in particular considered: (1) the potential requirement of i2 filing a Form S-1 registration statement for all the underlying common stock of the Series B Preferred Stock; (2) the requirement that this registration statement be effective at the time the redemption notice was delivered to the Series B Holder; (3) the minimum 30 day redemption period following the redemption notice; (4) the potential delay in the closing of the merger due to the filing of the S-1 registration statement and the redemption process; (5) the rights of the holders of Notes to force redemption of the Notes if the Series B Preferred Stock was redeemed; (6) whether i2 had sufficient funds to redeem the Series B Preferred Stock and the Notes and comply with Delaware law; (7) the necessity of determining the amount distributable to the holder of i2 common stock, given that a greater amount would be payable to the holders of the Notes in connection with an increase in the common stock purchase price as a result of the conversion feature of the Notes; (8) the additional costs of the redemption, including the costs related to the filing of an S-1 registration statement, the requirement of audited financial statements, and potential liquidated damages that the Series B Holder could assert against i2 if i2 redeemed the Series B Preferred Stock; (9) potential litigation by the Series B Holder, which would lead to additional costs, prevent the redemption and put the closing of the merger at risk; (10) the potential loss of the voting agreement and vote in favor of the merger from the Series B Holder; (11) providing a mechanism to adjust the i2 common stock purchase price in the merger agreement if i2 elected to redeem the Series B Preferred Stock and other related changes to the merger agreement, which would delay the signing; and (12) other factors unknown to JDA, the potential for which JDA had to consider after carefully examining all the pertinent documents.

After considering these factors, counsel for JDA advised counsel for i2 that at the current stage of the process, it would not be possible to determine if JDA was willing to revise the merger agreement. Such counsel indicated that if i2 wished to proceed with such revisions, JDA would not be in a position to hold a board meeting on Sunday to approve the merger agreement as revised, particularly in light of the need of JDA and its counsel to do an in depth analysis of the applicable documents relating to the redemption prior to reaching any agreement relating to a redemption. Counsel to JDA further indicated that if i2 wanted to request JDA's consent to a redemption of the Series B Preferred Stock after the signing of the merger agreement, the merger agreement permitted such request and that JDA would consider such request if made after signing.

On the morning of August 10, 2008, Mr. Sidhu's attorney explained to i2's counsel that it was Mr. Sidhu's position that his voting agreement would only be delivered if the merger agreement clearly provided that the 104% redemption would occur with the difference between the 110% change in control premium and the 104%

redemption premium to be delivered to the common stockholders, noting that merely providing the ability in the merger agreement for the Company to choose the option of the 104% redemption would not be sufficient for delivery of the voting agreement from Mr. Sidhu.

On August 10, 2008, attorneys for each of JDA and i2 finalized the merger agreement and the schedules thereto, which they had been negotiating since July 10, 2008, providing for a merger agreement without reference to the proposed redemption. Counsel for the parties also finalized the documents with Highbridge resulting in definitive agreements being available for the i2 Board's review and approval on the afternoon of August 10, 2008.

At 1:30 p.m. on August 10, 2008, the SRC met, discussed the status of negotiations and alternatives and reviewed the documents for the proposed transaction which provided for a payment of $14.86 per share to the common stockholders. The SRC concluded that it was in the best interests of the stockholders to recommend the transaction to the i2 Board for approval. At 2:00 p.m. on August 10, 2008, the i2 Board met at the Company's offices to discuss the transaction. After considering (1) the alternatives available to the Company, (2) the rationale for and terms of the proposed transaction including both the positives and the countervailing factors, (3) the discussion of their fiduciary duties as provided by counsel, (4) the likelihood of receiving stockholder approval without Mr. Sidhu's voting agreement, and (5) the JPMorgan fairness opinion, the i2 Board approved the transaction, the merger agreement and related agreements and determined the transaction to be in the best interests of i2's stockholders and the Company. All directors voted for the transaction with the exception of Mr. Sidhu, who abstained.

At 6:00 p.m. the same day, the JDA Board met to discuss the transaction. After reviewing the proposed transaction, materials from Citigroup, and the potential implications and reasons of the acquisition, the JDA Board determined that the merger was in the best interest of JDA's stockholders and approved the merger agreement and the transaction with i2.

Following the execution and delivery of the merger agreement, i2, through its counsel, asked JDA if it would revise the merger agreement to permit the redemption of the Series B Shares at 104% with the savings to inure to the benefit of the holders of i2 common stock, as well as to the holders of the Notes under the conversion provisions of the Indenture. On September 2, 2008, Michael Bridge, JDA's General Counsel, advised Mr. Harvey, i2's General Counsel, that JDA would consider effecting such an amendment only if, among other things, there would be no material delays in closing the transaction and the Series B Holder would waive the right to have an effective registration statement in place for the conversion shares. The Company prepared and submitted a written waiver to the Series B Holder for its review. On September 3, 2008, after review of a proposed written waiver of its right to have an effective registration statement in place for its conversion shares, counsel for the Series B Holder advised counsel for i2 that the Series B Holder would not waive its right provided in the Certificate of Designations for the Series B Preferred Stock to have an effective registration statement in place. The Company was unable to satisfy the conditions imposed by JDA to obtain the amendment and therefore, no amendment to the merger agreement to provide for the redemption of the Series B Shares at 104% was entered into.

Reasons for the Merger

The i2 Board has determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are in the best interests of i2 and its stockholders and has approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Our Board recommends that holders of our common stock vote FOR the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby (including the merger).

In the course of reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and the merger and recommending that the holders of i2 stock vote to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby

(including the merger), the Board consulted i2's legal and financial advisors and considered a number of factors that it believed supports its decision, including the following:

that the merger consideration is all cash, which provides certainty of value to i2's stockholders;

that the $14.86 per share of i2 common stock merger consideration represents a premium in comparison to the market price of the stock over recent periods. The common stock merger consideration represents a premium of 4.9% over the closing price of $14.16 on August 8, 2008; a premium of approximately 12.2% over the average trading price of $13.24 for the 30 prior trading days; and a premium of approximately 23.8% over the average trading price of $12.01 for the 90 prior trading days;

the process undertaken by JPMorgan, which began in December 2006 and included contacting or being contacted by 75 potential strategic and financial buyers. Seven of those parties provided indications of interest, and three of those entities submitted written indications of interest, including comments to a draft merger agreement provided by i2 to these parties;

the opinion of JPMorgan that the merger consideration of $14.86 per share of i2 common stock to be paid under the merger agreement was, as of the date of the opinion and based upon and subject to factors and assumptions set forth herein, fair from a financial point of view to i2's stockholders (see "The Merger" Opinion of i2's Financial Advisor below);

the likelihood that the merger will be consummated, in light of JDA's experience, reputation and financial capability; the absence of any financing condition to JDA's obligation to complete the merger; the likelihood of no significant antitrust delays; and JDA's record of successfully completing acquisitions;

the business, financial, market and execution risks associated with remaining independent and the challenges of successfully executing i2's current business strategies;

the availability of appraisal rights;

the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, including:

the scope of the representations, warranties and covenants being made by i2;

the limited conditions to the consummation of the merger, including the requirement that the merger agreement be approved by i2's stockholders and the definition of material adverse effect as defined in the merger agreement;

the ability of the i2 Board, if the failure to do so would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duty, to provide information to and engage in negotiations with another party in connection with an unsolicited, bona fide written proposal that the i2 Board determines in good faith and after consultation with outside legal counsel is reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal and, subject to paying a $15,000,000 termination fee to JDA, which is approximately 3.2% of the total merger consideration, accept a superior proposal;

the i2 Board's belief that the $15,000,000 termination fee payable to JDA in certain circumstances is reasonable in the context of termination fees that were payable in other comparable transactions and would not be likely to preclude another party from making a competing proposal;

the fact that JDA will be obligated to pay i2 a termination fee of $20,000,000, which is approximately 4.5% of the total merger consideration, if JDA fails to close in breach of the merger agreement (including as the result of the failure to obtain financing); and

JDA's willingness to pay the 110% change in control premium for the Series B Preferred Stock, without at the same time decreasing the price it was willing to pay for the i2 common stock, for the purpose of providing increased certainty and a shorter time frame to closing than if i2 itself were to attempt to redeem the Series B Preferred Stock for a 104% premium.

The i2 Board also considered a number of potentially countervailing factors in its deliberations concerning the merger, including the following:

that Mr. Sidhu, an i2 founder, director and significant shareholder, has stated his opinion that i2 should not be sold at this time at this price and has not agreed to vote in favor of the transaction, which, among other things, creates an increased risk of falling short of the required votes for the transaction;

that i2 will no longer exist as an independent company and its stockholders will no longer participate in i2's growth, any future increase in the value of i2, or from any synergies that the merger may create;

that, under the terms of the merger agreement, i2 cannot solicit other acquisition proposals and must pay or cause to be paid to JDA a termination fee of $15,000,000 in cash if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances specified in the merger agreement, including if the i2 Board exercises its right to terminate the merger agreement and enter into an alternative superior transaction, which may deter others from proposing an alternative transaction that may be more advantageous to i2's stockholders;

that gains from this all-cash transaction will be taxable to i2's stockholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

the fact that upon the closing of the merger, stockholders will be required to surrender their shares involuntarily in exchange for a cash price determined by the i2 Board and that stockholders will not have the right to liquidate their shares at a time and price of their choosing;

that if the merger does not close, i2's officers and other employees will have expended extensive efforts attempting to complete the transaction and will have experienced significant distractions from their work during the pendency of the transaction, and i2 will have incurred substantial transaction costs as well as intangible costs in connection with the transaction;

that the restrictions imposed by the merger agreement on the conduct of i2's business prior to completion of the merger, requiring i2 to conduct its business only in the ordinary course and imposing additional specific restrictions, may delay, limit or prevent i2 from undertaking business opportunities that may arise during that period; and that in order to secure its financing for the merger, JDA has required the execution and delivery of the consent and conversion agreement from Highbridge, the holder of at least a majority of the Notes, and that in order to obtain such agreement and the actions contemplated by that agreement, including the execution of a supplement to the Indenture to remove certain financial and debt covenants, Highbridge requested it be paid a premium (which premium would also be paid to any other holders of Notes who execute a similar agreement). This factor was partially offset by JDA's contributing $2,500,000 and the Series B Holder contributing $500,000 towards payment of the $7,500,000 consent premium, and the fact that the Indenture, absent amendment, could have restricted other acquirers of i2 who needed to finance the transaction.

The i2 Board also considered the interests of its directors and executive officers in the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, which are described below under "The Merger - Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger."

The i2 Board concluded that, on balance, the potential benefits to i2 and its stockholders of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement outweighed the potential disadvantages and risks associated with those transactions. The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by our Board is not intended to be exhaustive. In view of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluations, the i2 Board did not find it practicable to, and did not quantify or otherwise assign relative weight to, the specific factors considered in reaching its determination. Instead, our Board conducted an overall analysis of the factors described above, including summaries of discussions of i2's management with i2's legal, financial, accounting, tax, and other advisors. In considering the factors described above, individual directors may have given different weights to different factors.

Recommendation of the i2 Board

Our Board recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement. Our Board has concluded that the merger is in the best interests of i2 and its stockholders.

Opinion of i2's Financial Advisor

Pursuant to an engagement letter dated March 1, 2007, as amended, i2 retained JPMorgan as its financial advisor in connection with i2's analysis and consideration of various strategic alternatives, including the proposed merger, and to render an opinion to the i2 Board as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be paid to i2's common stockholders in connection with the proposed merger. i2 did not place any restrictions on, or give any instructions to, JPMorgan in connection with investigations made or procedures followed by it in rendering its opinion.

At the meeting of the i2 Board on August 10, 2008, JPMorgan rendered its oral opinion, which opinion was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated August 10, 2008, to the i2 Board that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in its opinion, the consideration to be paid to i2's common stockholders in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such stockholders.

The full text of the written opinion of JPMorgan, dated August 10, 2008, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and limits on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement and is incorporated herein by reference. i2's stockholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety. JPMorgan's written opinion is addressed to the i2 Board, is directed only to the consideration to be paid to the common stockholders in the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any i2 stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote at the special meeting. The summary of the opinion of JPMorgan set forth in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion.

In arriving at its opinion, JPMorgan, among other things:

reviewed a draft dated August 10, 2008 of the merger agreement;

reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information concerning i2 and the industries in which it operates;

compared the proposed financial terms of the merger with the publicly available financial terms of certain transactions involving companies JPMorgan deemed relevant and the consideration received for such companies;

compared i2's financial and operating performance with publicly available information concerning certain other companies JPMorgan deemed relevant and reviewed the current and historical market prices of i2 common stock and certain publicly traded securities of such other companies;

reviewed certain internal financial analyses and forecasts prepared by i2's management relating to its business; and performed such other financial studies and analyses and considered such other information as JPMorgan deemed appropriate for the purposes of its opinion.

In addition, JPMorgan held discussions with certain members of i2 management with respect to certain aspects of the proposed merger, i2's past and current business operations, i2's financial condition and future prospects and operations, and certain other matters JPMorgan believed necessary or appropriate to its inquiry.

Table of Contents

In giving its opinion, JPMorgan relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all information that was publicly available or was furnished to or discussed with JPMorgan by i2 or otherwise reviewed by or for JPMorgan, and JPMorgan has not independently verified (nor has JPMorgan assumed responsibility or liability for independently verifying) any such information or its accuracy or completeness. JPMorgan has not conducted or been provided with any valuation or appraisal of any assets or liabilities, nor has JPMorgan evaluated i2's solvency under any state or federal laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. In relying on financial analyses and forecasts provided to it or derived therefrom, JPMorgan has assumed that they have been reasonably prepared based on assumptions reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments by management as to the expected future results of i2's operations and financial condition to which such analyses or forecasts relate. JPMorgan expresses no view as to such analyses or forecasts or the assumptions on which they were based. JPMorgan also has assumed that the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will be consummated as described in the merger agreement and that the definitive merger agreement would not differ in any material respect from the draft thereof provided to JPMorgan. JPMorgan is not a legal, regulatory or tax expert and has relied as to all legal, regulatory and tax matters relevant to the rendering of its opinion upon the assessments made by advisors to i2 with respect to such issues. JPMorgan further has assumed that all material governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the merger will be obtained without any adverse effect on i2 or on the contemplated benefits of the merger.

The projections furnished to JPMorgan for i2 were prepared by i2 management. i2 does not publicly disclose internal management projections of the type provided to JPMorgan in connection with JPMorgan's analysis of the merger, and such projections were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure. These projections were based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain and may be beyond the control of management, including, without limitation, factors related to general economic and competitive conditions and prevailing interest rates. Accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in such projections.

JPMorgan's opinion is necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to JPMorgan as of, the date of such opinion. It should be understood that subsequent developments may affect JPMorgan's opinion, and that JPMorgan does not have any obligation to update, revise, or reaffirm such opinion. JPMorgan's opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be paid to i2's common stockholders in the proposed merger, and JPMorgan expresses no opinion as to the fairness of the merger to, or any consideration received in connection therewith by, the holders of any other class of securities, creditors, or other constituencies of i2 or the underlying decision by i2 to engage in the merger. JPMorgan expresses no opinion with respect to the amount or nature of any compensation to any officers, directors or employees of any party to the merger, or any class of such persons, relative to the consideration to be received by i2's common stockholders in the merger or with respect to the fairness of any such compensation. Furthermore, JPMorgan expresses no opinion as to the price at which i2's common stock will trade at any future time.

In accordance with customary investment banking practice, JPMorgan employed generally accepted valuation methods in reaching its opinion. The following is a summary of the material financial analyses utilized by JPMorgan in connection with providing its opinion.

Public Trading Multiples. Using publicly available information, JPMorgan compared selected financial data of i2 with similar data for selected publicly traded companies engaged in businesses which JPMorgan judged to be similar to i2. The companies selected by JPMorgan included Lawson Software, Inc., Manhattan Associates, Inc., JDA Software, Inc., Epicor Software Corporation and QAD Inc. These companies were selected, among other reasons, because of their operational and overall business similarities with i2's business.

For each comparable company, publicly available estimates of financial performance, including revenue growth and EBITDA margin, through the twelve months ended December 31, 2009 were reviewed. JPMorgan calculated the estimated price to earnings (P/E) ratio for each selected company during the same period.

Table of Contents

JPMorgan then calculated estimated 2008 EBITDA and estimated 2008 P/E multiples for i2 and these comparable companies, yielding the following reference ranges:

	Firm Value/ Estimated 2008 EBITDA	Estimated 2008 P/E
High	9.5x	22.5x
Median (excludes i2)	8.1x	15.9x
Low	5.6x	9.4x

Based on the results of this analysis and other factors that JPMorgan considered appropriate, JPMorgan derived a range of multiples of firm value to estimated 2008 EBITDA of 5.5x to 9.5x. These multiples then were applied to estimates of i2's 2008 EBITDA based on published Wall Street equity research, on the one hand, and projections by i2 management, on the other, yielding implied trading values for i2's common stock of $8.10 to $13.30 and $10.90 to $16.80 per share, respectively. In addition, based on the results of the above analysis and other factors that JPMorgan considered appropriate, JPMorgan derived a range of multiples of price to estimated 2008 earnings per share (EPS) of 12.5x to 22.5x. These multiples then were applied to estimates of i2's 2008 EPS based on published Wall Street equity research, on the one hand, and projections by i2 management, on the other, yielding implied trading values for i2's common stock of $7.90 to $14.20 and $11.20 to $20.10 per share, respectively.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. JPMorgan conducted a discounted cash flow analysis for the purpose of determining the fully diluted equity value per share for i2's common stock. In accordance with customary valuation practices, JPMorgan calculated the unlevered free cash flows that i2 is expected to generate during fiscal years 2008 through 2017 based upon financial projections prepared by i2 management through the years ended 2017. JPMorgan also calculated a range of terminal asset values of i2 at the end of the ten-year period ending 2017 by applying a perpetual growth rate ranging from 2% to 3% of the unlevered free cash flow of i2 during the final year of the ten-year period. The unlevered free cash flows and the range of terminal asset values were then discounted to present values using a range of discount rates from 14.0% to 18.0%, which were chosen by JPMorgan based upon an analysis of i2's weighted average cost of capital. The present value of the unlevered free cash flows and the range of terminal asset values were then adjusted for i2's excess cash (as adjusted for expected fees and expenses relating to the merger), option exercise proceeds and total debt as of June 30, 2008. Based on the management projections, the discounted cash flow analysis, on a fully-diluted basis, indicated a range of equity values of between $11.90 and $15.50 per share of i2's common stock.

Selected Transaction Analysis. Using publicly available information, JPMorgan examined selected transactions within the enterprise resource planning and supply chain management industry segments, which JPMorgan deemed to be relevant in evaluation of the proposed merger. Specifically, JPMorgan reviewed the following transactions:

Date announced	Acquiror	Target
December 17, 2007	Epicor Software Corporation	NSB Retail Systems PLC
August 3, 2006	International Business Machines Corp. (IBM)	MRO Software, Inc.
April 24, 2006	JDA Software, Inc.	Manugistics Group Incorporated
November 7, 2005	Golden Gate Capital	Geac Computer Corporation Limited
July 5, 2005	Concerto Software, Inc.	Aspect Communications Corporation
June 2, 2005	Lawson Software, Inc.	Intenia International AB
January 26, 2005	Infor Global Solutions	MAPICS, Inc.

Table of Contents

For each of the selected transactions, JPMorgan calculated and, to the extent information was publicly available, compared the target's enterprise value divided by the target's one-year forward EBITDA as estimated in published Wall Street equity research. This analysis indicated the following range of implied multiples based on the selected transactions:

	Enterprise Value/ One-Year Forward EBITDA
High	14.8x
Mean	10.0x
Median	9.1x
Low	7.9x

Based on the results of this analysis and other factors that JPMorgan considered appropriate, JPMorgan applied a range of Enterprise Value/One-Year Forward EBITDA multiples from 7.9x to 11.9x to estimates of i2's 2008 EBITDA based on published Wall Street equity research, on the one hand, and projections by i2's management, on the other. JPMorgan arrived at estimated ranges of equity values for i2's common stock of between $11.30 and $15.70 per share and $14.70 to $20.10 per share, respectively.

Historical Stock Price Analysis. JPMorgan reviewed the historical trading prices for i2's common stock for the 52-week period ended August 8, 2008. The high and low trading prices for i2's common stock for such 52-week period were $10.01 and $18.80, respectively. JPMorgan noted that the $14.86 price per share of i2 common stock in the merger represented a 4.9% premium to i2's closing stock price on August 8, 2008, the last trading day prior to the announcement of the merger, a 12.2% premium to the 30-day average trading price of i2's common stock of $13.24 per share and a 23.8% premium to the 90-day average trading price of i2's common stock of $12.01 per share. JPMorgan noted that historical stock trading analysis is not a valuation methodology, but was presented merely for informational purposes.

The foregoing summary of certain material financial analyses does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses or data presented by JPMorgan. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. JPMorgan believes that the foregoing summary and its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the foregoing summary and these analyses, without considering all of its analyses as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying the analyses and its opinion. In arriving at its opinion, JPMorgan did not attribute any particular weight to any analyses or factors considered by it and did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative), considered in isolation, supported or failed to support its opinion. Rather, JPMorgan considered the totality of the factors and analyses performed in determining its opinion.

Analyses based upon forecasts of future results are inherently uncertain, as they are subject to numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties and their advisors. Accordingly, forecasts and analyses used or made by JPMorgan are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by those analyses. Moreover, JPMorgan's analyses are not and do not purport to be appraisals or otherwise reflective of the prices at which businesses actually could be bought or sold. None of the selected companies reviewed as described in the above summary is identical to i2, and none of the selected transactions reviewed was identical to the merger. However, the companies selected were chosen because they are publicly traded companies with operations and businesses that, for purposes of JPMorgan's analysis, may be considered similar to those of i2. The transactions selected were similarly chosen because their participants, size and other factors, for purposes of JPMorgan's analysis, may be considered similar to the merger. The analyses necessarily involve complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operational characteristics of the companies involved and other factors that could affect the companies compared to i2 and the transactions compared to the merger.

The opinion of JPMorgan was one of the many factors taken into consideration by the i2 Board in making its determination to approve the merger. The analyses as summarized above should not be viewed as determinative of the opinion of the i2 Board with respect to i2's value, or of whether the i2 Board would have been willing to agree to different or other forms of consideration.

As a part of its investment banking business, JPMorgan and its affiliates are continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, investments for passive and control purposes, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements, and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. JPMorgan was selected to advise i2 with respect to the merger on the basis of such experience and its familiarity with i2.

For services rendered in connection with the merger and the delivery of its opinion, i2 has agreed to pay JPMorgan customary compensation, a substantial portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the merger. In addition, i2 has agreed to reimburse JPMorgan for its expenses incurred in connection with its services, including the fees and disbursements of counsel, and will indemnify JPMorgan against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Federal securities laws.

During the two years preceding the date upon which JPMorgan delivered its opinion, neither JPMorgan nor any of its affiliates have had any other significant financial advisory or other significant investment banking relationships with i2 or JDA. JPMorgan's commercial banking affiliate is an agent bank and a lender under outstanding credit facilities of i2, for which it receives customary compensation or other financial benefits. In the ordinary course of their businesses, JPMorgan and its affiliates may actively trade the debt and equity securities of i2 or JDA for their own accounts or for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, they may at any time hold long or short positions in such securities. On the date JPMorgan delivered its opinion, Highbridge, a private fund managed by Highbridge Capital, a majority-owned affiliate of JPMorgan, owned $57,646,000 of the Notes, and warrants to acquire 242,444 shares of i2's common stock (the "Warrants"). In connection with the proposed merger, Highbridge has entered into a consent and conversion agreement with i2 pursuant to which Highbridge will surrender the Notes, waive or agree to amend certain covenants of the Indenture and sell its Warrants to i2. In exchange, Highbridge will receive, in cash, (1) amounts to which it is entitled upon conversion of the Notes pursuant to the Indenture, together with any accrued but unpaid interest on the Notes to the date of repurchase and the make-whole premium to be paid pursuant to the Indenture to holders of the Notes in connection with a fundamental change occurring prior to November 15, 2010; (2) amounts to which it is entitled pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Warrants, including a payment in respect of the option value of the Warrants to be paid to holders of the Warrants upon a change of control; and (3) a payment of approximately $5,000,000. This payment of $5,000,000 is the aggregate value of the consent premium of $86.9565 per $1,000 principal amount of Notes to be paid to Highbridge by i2 in consideration of Highbridge's performance of and compliance with the conversion agreement. i2 intends to offer similar arrangements to all holders of the Notes as of the effective time of the merger. The full text of the consent and conversion agreement was filed as Exhibit 99.3 to i2's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on August 12, 2008 and is incorporated herein by reference. This summary of the consent and conversion agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the consent and conversion agreement.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of our Board in favor of the merger, you should be aware that there are provisions of the merger agreement and other existing agreements that will result in certain benefits to i2's directors and executive officers that are not available to stockholders generally. Our Board was aware of, and considered the interests of, its directors and executive officers and the potential conflicts arising from such interests in its deliberations of the merits of the merger and in approving the merger agreement and the merger. Other than the provisions of the merger agreement described below, the arrangements described below were in existence before the merger discussions. Stockholders should take these benefits into account in deciding whether to vote for approval of the merger agreement.

Stock Options, Restricted Stock and Restricted Stock Units. Upon the completion of the merger, each i2 outstanding stock option will immediately vest and become exercisable and will be terminated or converted into an amount in cash equal to the excess, if any, of $14.86 over the exercise price of such stock option multiplied by the number of shares subject to such option, without interest. Holders of restricted stock units will be entitled to receive $14.86 for each share of common stock issuable under a particular restricted stock unit, without interest. The following tables set forth (1) the number of vested options held by i2's executive officers and directors; (2) the number of shares of i2 common stock subject to options held by such persons that will vest as a result of the merger; (3) the number of shares underlying restricted stock units that will be converted as a result of the merger; (4) the number of shares of restricted stock that will vest and be converted as a result of the merger; and (5) the estimated cash payments such persons will receive pursuant to the conversion of their options, restricted stock units or restricted stock.

Stock Ownership. i2's officers and directors also beneficially own shares of i2 common stock. For a more detailed description of these stock holdings, see Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management on page 59.

Existing Employment and Severance Agreements. In February 2008, i2 entered into executive retention agreements with executive officers Mr. Chatterjee, Mr. Berry, Mr. Varia, Mr. Estrada, Mr. Sinnadurai, Mr. Srivastava, and Mr. Harvey. The agreements entitle these individuals to benefits including a lump sum payment of one year base salary plus on-target bonus and one year of COBRA payments in the event the officer is terminated by i2 other than for Cause (as defined in the applicable agreement), or the officer terminates for Good Reason (as defined in the applicable agreement and in compliance with Code Section 409A governing deferred compensation). All unvested equity awards will accelerate and become immediately exercisable in the event of the executive officer's termination without Cause. These payments are limited under Code Section 280G(b)(2) governing parachute payments, to the greater of (1) the amount of those payments which would not constitute such a parachute payment or (2) the amount which yields the officer the greatest after-tax amount of benefits after taking into account any excise tax imposed under Code Section 4999 on the payments and benefits provided. Under the terms of the merger agreement, all unvested equity awards will fully vest at the time of the merger. The agreements also contain non-competition and non-interference covenants, which restrict the executive officers for a term of 12 months after their separation from i2. These agreements supersede all other employment agreements with the executive officers.

In May 2008, i2 and Mr. Berry executed an amendment to his February 2008 executive retention agreement, which provides that he will receive a lump sum payment of one year base salary plus on-target bonus and one year of COBRA payments in the event he is terminated by i2 other than for Cause (as defined in the agreement), or he terminates for Good Reason (as defined in the agreement and in compliance with Code Section 409A governing deferred compensation). In addition, if Mr. Berry terminates his employment other than for Good Reason after November 14, 2008, and he is not otherwise entitled to any payments under the original agreement, i2 will pay him (1) a lump sum in cash equal to his annual base salary unpaid through the date of termination plus any accrued and unpaid vacation pay, and (2) a one-time severance payment in the amount of $300,000.

Table of Contents

Upon his appointment as CEO in May 2008, i2 and Mr. Chatterjee entered into an amended and restated executive retention agreement. This agreement entitles Mr. Chatterjee to certain payments in the event (1) i2 terminates his employment other than for Cause (as defined in the agreement); (2) Mr. Chatterjee terminates his employment for Good Reason (as defined in the agreement and in compliance with Code Section 409A governing deferred compensation); or (3) Mr. Chatterjee terminates his employment for any reason following a change in control (which would include the merger). If any of the preceding occur, i2 will pay Mr. Chatterjee his unpaid base salary through the date of termination, a pro-rated bonus, any accrued vacation pay and one year of COBRA payments. Mr. Chatterjee will also receive a severance payment equal to the sum of his annual base salary and the annual target bonus, if any, for the applicable year, with such payment being due within 60 days of his separation from the company.

Upon his appointment as Executive Chairman of the Board in May 2008, i2 and Mr. Wilson entered into an employment agreement. This agreement entitles him to a base salary of $200,000 and to the grant of (1) options to acquire 80,000 shares of i2 common stock and (2) restricted stock units with respect to 30,000 shares of common stock, subject to certain terms and conditions. All unvested equity awards and restricted stock units will accelerate and become immediately vested in the event of a change of control (which would include the merger). These payments are limited under Code Section 280G(b)(2) governing parachute payments, to the greater of (1) the amount of those payments which would not constitute such a parachute payment or (2) the amount which yields Mr. Wilson the greatest after-tax amount of benefits after taking into account any excise tax imposed under Code Section 4999 on the payments and benefits provided. This agreement supersedes any prior agreements between the parties.

Indemnification of Directors and Executive Officers and Insurance. The merger agreement provides that JDA will cause i2, as the surviving corporation in the merger, to indemnify i2's directors and officers with respect to actions or omissions by them as such at any time prior to the closing date to the fullest extent permitted by i2's charter documents and any applicable contract, provided that such persons shall not be indemnified for any criminal conduct or fraud. The merger agreement further provides that, after the merger, JDA will, or will cause i2 as the surviving corporation to, provide, for a period of not less than six years, directors' and officers' liability insurance covering those persons who, as of the date of the merger agreement, were covered by i2's directors' and officers' liability insurance policy, on terms no less favorable than those in effect on the date of the merger agreement, subject to certain limits based on the cost of providing such insurance.

Appraisal Rights

The following is a summary of the statutory procedures that a stockholder of a Delaware corporation must follow in order to exercise its appraisal rights under Delaware law. This summary is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to DGCL Section 262, the text of which is set forth in full in Annex C.

Under the DGCL, you have the right to dissent from the merger and to receive payment in cash for the fair value of your common stock of i2 as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, as determined by the court, in lieu of the consideration you would otherwise be entitled to pursuant to the merger agreement. These rights are known as appraisal rights. Our stockholders electing to exercise appraisal rights must comply with the provisions of DGCL Section 262 in order to perfect their rights. i2 will require strict compliance with the statutory procedures in connection with the merger.

The following is intended as a brief summary of the material provisions of the Delaware statutory procedures required to be followed by a stockholder in order to dissent from the merger and perfect appraisal rights. This summary, however, is not a complete statement of all applicable requirements and we encourage you to review DGCL Section 262, the full text of which appears in Annex C to this proxy statement. Failure to precisely follow any of the statutory procedures set forth in DGCL Section 262 may result in a termination or waiver of your appraisal rights.

Table of Contents

DGCL Section 262 requires that stockholders be notified that appraisal rights will be available not less than 20 days before the stockholder's meeting to vote on the merger. A copy of DGCL Section 262 must be included with such notice. This proxy statement constitutes our notice to you of the availability of appraisal rights in connection with the merger in compliance with the requirements of DGCL Section 262. If you wish to consider exercising your appraisal rights, you should carefully review the text of DGCL Section 262 contained in Annex C since failure to timely and properly comply with the requirements of DGCL Section 262 will result in the loss of your appraisal rights under Delaware law.

If you elect to demand appraisal of your shares, you must satisfy each of the following conditions:

you must deliver to i2 a written demand for appraisal of your shares before the vote with respect to the merger agreement is taken. This written demand for appraisal must be in addition to and separate from any proxy or vote abstaining from or voting against the approval and adoption of the merger agreement. Voting against or failing to vote for the approval and adoption of the merger agreement by itself does not constitute a demand for appraisal within the meaning of DGCL Section 262;

you must not vote in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement. A vote in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement, by proxy, over the Internet, by telephone or in person, will constitute a waiver of your appraisal rights in respect of the shares so voted and will nullify any previously filed written demands for appraisal;

you must continuously hold your i2 common stock from the date you make your demand for appraisal through the effective date of the merger; and comply with the other procedures required by DGCL Section 262.

If you fail to comply with any of these conditions and the merger is completed, you will be entitled to receive the cash payment for your shares of i2 common stock as provided for in the merger agreement, but you will have no appraisal rights with respect to your shares of i2 common stock.

All demands for appraisal should be addressed to Tom Ward, Director, Investor Relations, i2 Technologies, Inc., One i2 Place, 11701 Luna Road, Dallas, Texas 75234, 469-357-1000, and must be delivered before the vote on the merger agreement is taken at the special meeting, and should be executed by, or on behalf of, the record holder of the shares of i2 common stock. The demand must reasonably inform i2 of the identity of the stockholder and the intention of the stockholder to demand appraisal of his, her or its shares.

To be effective, a demand for appraisal by a holder of i2 common stock must be made by, or in the name of, such registered stockholder, fully and correctly, as the stockholder's name appears on his or her stock certificate(s). Beneficial owners who do not also hold the shares of record may not directly make appraisal demands to i2. The beneficial holder must, in such cases, have the registered owner, such as a broker or other nominee, submit the required demand in respect of those shares. If shares are owned of record in a fiduciary capacity, such as by a trustee, guardian or custodian, execution of a demand for appraisal should be made by or for the fiduciary; and if the shares are owned of record by more than one person, as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the demand should be executed by or for all joint owners. An authorized agent, including an authorized agent for two or more joint owners, may execute the demand for appraisal for a stockholder of record; however, the agent must identify the record owner or owners and expressly disclose the fact that, in executing the demand, he or she is acting as agent for the record owner. A record owner, such as a broker, who holds shares as a nominee for others, may exercise his or her right of appraisal with respect to the shares held for one or more beneficial owners, while not exercising this right for other beneficial owners. In that case, the written demand should state the number of shares as to which appraisal is sought. Where no number of shares is expressly mentioned, the demand will be presumed to cover all shares held in the name of the record owner.

If you hold your shares of i2 common stock in a brokerage account or in other nominee form and you wish to exercise appraisal rights, you should consult with your broker or the other nominee to determine the appropriate procedures for the making of a demand for appraisal by the nominee.

Within 10 days after the effective time of the merger, the surviving corporation must give written notice that the merger has become effective to each i2 stockholder who has properly filed a written demand for appraisal and who did not vote in favor of the merger agreement. At any time within 60 days after the effective time, any stockholder who has demanded an appraisal has the right to withdraw the demand and to accept the cash payment specified by the merger agreement for his or her shares of i2 common stock. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger, the surviving corporation or any stockholder who has complied with DGCL Section 262, upon written request to the surviving corporation, shall be entitled to receive a written statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger agreement and with respect to which demands for appraisal rights have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Within 120 days after the effective time, either the surviving corporation or any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of DGCL Section 262 may file a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the fair value of the shares held by all stockholders entitled to appraisal. Upon the filing of the petition by a stockholder, service of a copy of such petition shall be made upon the surviving corporation. The surviving corporation has no obligation to file such a petition in the event there are dissenting stockholders. Accordingly, the failure of a stockholder to file such a petition within the period specified could nullify the stockholder's previously written demand for appraisal.

If a petition for appraisal is duly filed by a stockholder and a copy of the petition is delivered to the surviving corporation, the surviving corporation will then be obligated, within 20 days after receiving service of a copy of the petition, to provide the Chancery Court with a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded an appraisal of their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving corporation. After notice to dissenting stockholders who demanded appraisal of their shares, the Chancery Court is empowered to conduct a hearing upon the petition, and to determine those stockholders who have complied with DGCL Section 262 and who have become entitled to the appraisal rights provided thereby. The Chancery Court may require the stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares to submit their stock certificates to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with that direction, the Chancery Court may dismiss the proceedings as to that stockholder.

After determination of the stockholders entitled to appraisal of their shares of i2's common stock, the Chancery Court will appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with a fair rate of interest, if any. When the value is determined, the Chancery Court will direct the payment of such value, with interest thereon accrued during the pendency of the proceeding, if the Chancery Court so determines, and to the stockholders entitled to receive the same, upon surrender by such holders of the certificates representing those shares.

In determining fair value, the Chancery Court is required to take into account all relevant factors. You should be aware that the fair value of your shares as determined under DGCL Section 262 could be more, the same, or less than the value that you are entitled to receive under the terms of the merger agreement.

Costs of the appraisal proceeding may be imposed upon the surviving corporation and the stockholders participating in the appraisal proceeding by the Chancery Court as the Chancery Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon the application of a stockholder, the Chancery Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all shares entitled to appraisal. Any stockholder who had demanded appraisal rights will not, after the effective time of the merger, be entitled to vote shares subject to that demand for any purpose or to receive payments of dividends or any other distribution with respect to those shares, other than with respect to payment as of a record date prior to the effective time; however, if no petition for appraisal is filed within 120 days after the effective time of the merger, or if the stockholder delivers a written withdrawal of his or her demand for appraisal and an acceptance of the terms of the merger within 60 days after the effective time of the merger, then the right of that stockholder to appraisal will cease and that stockholder will be entitled to receive the cash payment for shares of his, her or its i2 common stock pursuant to the merger agreement. Any withdrawal of a demand for appraisal made more than 60 days after the effective time of the merger may only be made with the written approval of the surviving corporation and must, to be effective, be made within 120 days after the effective time.

In view of the complexity of DGCL Section 262, if you wish to dissent from the merger and pursue appraisal rights, then you should consult your legal advisor.

Delisting and Deregistration of i2 Common Stock

If the merger is completed, i2 common stock will be delisted from Nasdaq and will be deregistered under the Exchange Act.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following is a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to stockholders of i2 whose shares of i2 common stock are converted into the right to receive cash in the merger. The following summary is based on the Code, Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, judicial decisions and administrative rulings, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. This discussion assumes you hold your shares of i2 common stock as a capital asset for investment. The summary does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular stockholders in light of their individual circumstances or to stockholders who are subject to special rules, including: (1) non-U.S. persons; (2) U.S. expatriates; (3) insurance companies; (4) dealers or brokers in securities or currencies; (5) tax-exempt organizations; (6) financial institutions; (7) mutual funds; (8) cooperatives; (9) pass-through entities and investors in such entities; (10) stockholders who have a functional currency other than the U.S. Dollar; (11) stockholders who hold their shares of i2 common stock as a hedge or as part of a hedging, straddle, conversion, synthetic security, integrated investment or other risk-reduction transaction or who are subject to alternative minimum tax; (12) stockholders who acquired their shares of i2 common stock in a deferred compensation, 401(k) or other retirement plan, upon the exercise of employee stock options or in other compensatory transactions. Further, this discussion does not address any U.S. federal estate and gift or alternative minimum tax consequences or any state, local or foreign tax consequences relating to the merger.

The Merger. The receipt of cash pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and may also be a taxable transaction under applicable state, local or foreign income or other tax laws. Generally, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a stockholder will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received by the stockholder in the merger and the stockholder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of i2 common stock converted into cash in the merger. If shares of i2 common stock are held by a stockholder as capital assets, gain or loss recognized by such stockholder will be capital gain or loss, which will be long-term capital gain or loss if the stockholder's holding period for the shares of i2 common stock exceeds one year at the time of the merger. Capital gain recognized by an individual upon a disposition of a share of i2 stock that has been held for more than one year generally will be subject to a maximum U.S. federal income tax rate of 15%. Any gain recognized with respect to a share that has been held for one year or less will be subject to tax at ordinary income tax rates. The preferential tax rate for long term capital gain does not apply to corporate taxpayers. Deductibility of capital loss may be subject to certain limitations. Generally, capital losses are available to offset capital gains recognized during a tax year. However, in the event that a stockholder has capital losses for a tax year in excess of capital gains for such year, that stockholder's ability to deduct the excess capital losses is limited. For individuals, the excess of capital losses over capital gains may be offset against ordinary income, subject to an annual deduction limitation of $3,000; unused capital losses may be carried forward indefinitely but may not be carried back. For corporate taxpayers, capital losses may be offset only against capital gains, but unused capital losses may be carried back three years (subject to certain limitations) and carried forward five years. The amount and character of gain or loss must be determined separately for each block of i2 common stock (i.e., shares acquired at the same cost in a single transaction) converted into cash in the merger.

Backup Withholding. A stockholder (other than certain exempt stockholders, including, among others, all corporations and certain foreign individuals) whose shares of common stock are converted into the merger consideration may be subject to backup withholding at the then applicable rate (under current law, the backup withholding rate is 28%) unless the stockholder provides the stockholder's taxpayer identification number, or TIN, and certifies under penalties of perjury that (i) such TIN is correct (or properly certifies that it is awaiting a TIN) and (ii) there has been no loss of exemption from backup withholding and otherwise complies with the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. A stockholder that does not furnish a required TIN or that does not otherwise establish a basis for an exemption from backup withholding may be subject to a penalty imposed by the Internal Revenue Service, or the IRS. Each stockholder that is an individual should complete and sign the Substitute Form W-9 included as part of the letter of transmittal that will be sent to stockholders promptly following closing of the merger so as to provide the information and certification necessary to avoid backup withholding. Each foreign individual stockholder must submit a signed statement (such as a Certificate of Foreign Status on Form W-8BEN) attesting to his or her exempt status. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Rather, the amount of the backup withholding can be credited against the U.S. federal income tax liability of the person subject to the backup withholding, provided that the required information is given to the IRS. If backup withholding results in an overpayment of tax, a refund can be obtained by the stockholder by filing a U.S. federal income tax return.

THE SUMMARY OF U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES SET FORTH ABOVE IS FOR GENERAL INFORMATION ONLY AND IS BASED ON THE LAW IN EFFECT ON THE DATE HEREOF. STOCKHOLDERS ARE STRONGLY URGED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS TO DETERMINE THE PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM (INCLUDING THE APPLICATION AND EFFECT OF ANY STATE, LOCAL OR FOREIGN INCOME AND OTHER TAX LAWS) OF THE MERGER.

Governmental Regulatory Filings Required in Connection with the Merger

Hart-Scott-Rodino. JDA and i2 made the required filings of a Notification and Report Form pursuant to HSR with the FTC and the DOJ with respect to the merger on August 22, 2008. The merger may not be consummated until the expiration or termination of certain waiting periods associated with HSR. On September 16, 2008, the FTC informed i2 and JDA that early termination of the waiting period was granted, effective as of September 15, 2008.

Foreign Jurisdictions. i2 and JDA do not believe any foreign regulatory approvals will be required or advisable in connection with the consummation of the merger.

Other. Other than those described above and (1) the requirement that i2 file this proxy statement with the SEC and (2) certain other filings required to be made under the Exchange Act, i2 is not aware of any federal or state regulatory requirements or approvals that must be complied with or obtained in connection with the merger.

Table of Contents

MERGER AGREEMENT AND OTHER RELATED AGREEMENTS

This section of the proxy statement provides a summary of the merger agreement, which is the definitive agreement governing the merger, and certain other agreements relating to the merger. This summary, however, may not contain all of the information that is important to you. i2 urges you to carefully read the merger agreement, which appears as Annex A to this proxy statement.

Merger Consideration

Upon completion of the merger, each outstanding share of i2 common stock will be converted into the right to receive $14.86 in cash, without interest. In addition, each issued and outstanding share of the Series B Preferred Stock will be converted into the right to receive $1,095.3679 in cash per share, plus all accrued and unpaid dividends through the closing date of the merger. Upon completion of the merger, no shares of i2 common stock or Series B Preferred Stock will remain outstanding and all shares will automatically be canceled and will cease to exist.

Conversion of Shares; Procedures for Surrender of Certificates

The right of i2's common stockholders to receive $14.86 per share in cash, without interest, and the right of the Series B Holder to receive $1,095.3679 in cash per share, plus all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon, without interest, will arise automatically upon completion of the merger. Prior to the effective time of the merger, JDA will designate a bank or trust company to act as the paying agent under the merger agreement. JDA will deposit with the paying agent cash amounts sufficient to enable the paying agent to pay the aggregate merger consideration to the holders of shares of i2 common stock and Series B Preferred Stock.

Promptly (but in any event within five business days) after the effective time of the merger, the paying agent will mail to each record holder of shares, a letter of transmittal and instructions for use in surrendering certificates in exchange for the merger consideration. No stockholder should surrender any certificates until the stockholder receives the letter of transmittal and other materials for such surrender. Upon surrender of a stock certificate for cancellation to the paying agent, together with a letter of transmittal, duly executed, the holder of such certificate will be entitled to receive the applicable merger consideration into which the number of shares of common stock, without interest, or Series B Preferred Stock, plus all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon through the date of closing of the merger, previously represented by such stock certificates will have been converted pursuant to the merger agreement. The certificates so surrendered will be canceled.

In the event of a transfer of ownership of shares of common stock that is not registered in i2's transfer records, payment may be made with respect to such shares to the transferee if the stock certificate representing such shares is presented to the paying agent, accompanied by all documents reasonably required by the paying agent to evidence such transfer and to evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes relating to such transfer have been paid.

If your stock certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the paying agent will deliver to you the applicable merger consideration for the shares represented by that certificate:

if you make an affidavit claiming such certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed; and if requested by JDA or the paying agent, you post a bond in a reasonable amount as indemnity against any claim that may be made with respect to that certificate.

Stockholders should not send their certificates now and should send them only pursuant to instructions set forth in the letter of transmittal to be mailed to stockholders promptly after the effective time of the merger. In all cases, the applicable merger consideration will be provided only in accordance with the procedures set forth in this proxy statement and such letter of transmittal.

Table of Contents

270 days after the effective time of the merger, the paying agent will deliver to the surviving corporation on demand any funds made available to the paying agent which have not been disbursed to holders of i2 stock certificates. Any holders of certificates who have not complied with the above-described procedures to receive payment of the merger consideration during such 270-day period may thereafter look only to the surviving corporation for payment of the merger consideration to which they are entitled.

The cash paid to you upon conversion of your shares of i2 common stock or Series B Preferred Stock will be issued in full satisfaction of all rights relating to the shares of i2 common stock or Series B Preferred Stock, as applicable.

Effect on i2 Stock Options, Restricted Stock and Restricted Stock Units

Holders of i2 stock options will be entitled to receive, for each option, an amount in cash equal to the excess, if any, of $14.86 over the exercise price of such stock option multiplied by the number of shares subject to such option, without interest. Holders of restricted stock units will be entitled to receive $14.86 for each share of common stock issuable under a particular restricted stock unit, without interest. Prior to the effective time of the merger, i2 will also take all actions necessary to cause any shares of restricted stock held under restricted stock agreements and stock options and restricted stock units to fully vest in accordance with the terms of those equity awards.

Effective Time of the Merger

The merger will become effective upon the filing of the certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or at such later time as is agreed upon by JDA and i2 and specified in the certificate of merger. The filing of the certificate of merger will occur on the closing date. Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement and in accordance with Delaware law, at the effective time of the merger, Merger Sub will merge with and into i2. i2 will survive the merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of JDA. If the merger agreement is approved by i2's stockholders, the merger will be completed as soon as all of the other conditions to the merger set forth in the merger agreement have been satisfied or waived by JDA or i2, as applicable. These conditions are described below under Merger Agreement and Other Related Agreements Conditions to Closing.

Representations and Warranties

The merger agreement contains representations and warranties of each party to the agreement. These representations and warranties will expire upon completion of the merger.

The merger agreement has been included to provide you with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about i2 or JDA. Such information can be found elsewhere in the proxy statement and in the other public filings each of us makes with the SEC, which are available without charge at www.sec.gov.

The merger agreement contains representations and warranties that i2 and JDA made to one another. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that we have exchanged in connection with signing the merger agreement. While we do not believe that they contain information securities laws require us to publicly disclose other than information already disclosed, the disclosure schedules do contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the attached merger agreement. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts, since they are modified in important part by the underlying disclosure schedules. These disclosure schedules contain information that has been included in i2's general prior public disclosures, as well as potential additional non-public information. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may have changed since the date of the agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the public disclosures of i2 or JDA.

Proxy Statement and Stockholder Meeting i2 agreed to prepare and file this proxy statement as soon as practicable following the execution date of the merger agreement. i2 also agreed to establish a record date for, duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a special meeting of i2's stockholders for the sole purpose of obtaining the votes necessary for the approval of the merger agreement.

Conduct of i2's Business

i2 agreed in the merger agreement that, subject to specified exceptions or unless JDA otherwise consents in writing, i2 will conduct its business in the ordinary course, consistent with past practice and use commercially reasonable efforts, under the circumstances, to maintain and preserve intact i2's business organization and the goodwill of those having significant business relationships with i2.

In addition, i2 has agreed that, subject to specified exceptions, neither i2 nor any of its subsidiaries may, without JDA's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld):

authorize for issuance or issue, sell, grant, dispose of, pledge or otherwise encumber any shares of i2 capital stock, voting securities or equity interests, or any securities or rights convertible into, exchangeable or exercisable for, or evidencing the right to subscribe for any shares of i2 capital stock, voting securities or equity interests, or any rights, warrants, options, calls, commitments or any other agreements of any character to purchase or acquire any shares of its capital stock, voting securities or equity interests or any securities or rights convertible into, exchangeable or exercisable for, or evidencing the right to subscribe for, any shares of i2 capital stock, voting securities or equity interests, subject to certain exceptions;

sell, transfer, lease, license, mortgage, encumber, abandon or otherwise dispose of or voluntarily permit to become subject to any lien (including pursuant to a sale-leaseback transaction or an asset securitization transaction) any of its material properties or assets (including securities of i2 subsidiaries) to any person, except (1) sales and non-exclusive licenses of products and services to customers in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, and (2) dispositions of excess equipment or obsolete or worthless assets or sales of properties or assets (excluding securities of i2 subsidiaries) in an amount not in excess of $100,000 in the aggregate;

make any acquisition (by purchase of securities or assets, merger or consolidation, or otherwise) of any other person, business or division;

make any investment (by contribution to capital, property transfers, purchase of securities or otherwise) in, or loan or advance (other than travel and similar advances to its employees in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice) to, any person other than a direct or indirect wholly owned i2 subsidiary in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice;

enter into any license with respect to i2 intellectual property unless such license is non-exclusive and entered into in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices;

permit any material item of i2 intellectual property to become abandoned, cancelled, invalidated or dedicated to the public;

make capital expenditures in any fiscal quarter in excess of $100,000; or agree, in writing or otherwise, to take any of the foregoing actions or, subject to certain other conditions, take any action or agree, in writing or otherwise, to take any action, which would cause any of the conditions to the merger set forth in merger agreement not to be satisfied.

The covenants in the merger agreement relating to the conduct of i2's business are complicated and not easily summarized. You are urged to read carefully and in its entirety the section of the merger agreement entitled "Conduct of Business of the Company" in Annex A to this proxy statement.

Employee Benefits

JDA has agreed in the merger agreement to provide, or cause its affiliates (including i2 as its wholly-owned subsidiary after the merger) to provide, i2's employees who continue employment with the surviving corporation in the merger, for a period of at least one year following the closing of the merger, with combined aggregate pay and benefits, other than stock options and other equity awards, that provide at least a comparable value in the aggregate to those provided to similarly situated employees of JDA or its affiliates. i2's employees will also be provided credit for prior service under applicable employee benefit, severance, and vacation and sick leave plans.

Other Covenants

The merger agreement contains a number of other covenants, including covenants relating to:

preparation of this proxy statement and holding of the special meeting;

subject to the exceptions provided in the merger agreement, the recommendation by i2's Board that its stockholders approve the merger agreement;

use of reasonable best efforts to consummate the merger as promptly as practicable, including reasonable best efforts to obtain regulatory clearance and, in connection therewith, to vigorously defend any challenge by regulatory authorities to the completion of the merger;

public announcements;

access to information and confidentiality;

notification of communications from governmental authorities, claims relating to the merger or breaches of representations and warranties, breaches of covenants, and certain other matters;

indemnification and insurance;

security holder litigation.

Prior to the effective time of the merger, we have agreed:

to offer to enter into a consent and conversion agreement with each other holder of the Notes in form and content substantially similar to the consent and conversion agreement entered into with Highbridge;

to provide reasonable assistance and cooperation in connection with the arrangement by JDA of the debt financing described under "The Merger Financing" below on page 57;

use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain inventions assignments from the specified employees and consultants; and use commercially reasonable efforts to take such actions as are reasonably requested by JDA in connection with its review of our software.

We have also agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase, at the effective time of the merger and in accordance with the terms of the consent and conversion agreements described above, i2's outstanding Warrants which had been issued to holders of the Notes.

No-Shop Provisions

i2 has agreed, prior to the merger becoming effective, to certain limitations on i2's ability to take action with respect to other potential acquisition transactions. i2 has agreed to terminate any discussions or negotiations with any person. In addition, except as set forth below, i2 has agreed to not directly or indirectly:

solicit, initiate or knowingly facilitate or encourage (including by way of furnishing information or providing assistance) any inquiries or proposals that constitute, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any takeover proposal;

participate in any discussions or negotiations with, or furnish or disclose any non-public information relating to i2 or any of its subsidiaries to or otherwise cooperate with or assist, any third party regarding any takeover proposal;

approve, endorse or recommend any takeover proposal; or enter into any letter of intent or agreement related to any takeover proposal.

Table of Contents

Notwithstanding these limitations:

if after August 10, 2008 i2 receives an unsolicited, bona fide written takeover proposal and the i2 Board (or a committee thereof) determines in good faith after consultation with outside legal counsel (1) that such takeover proposal is, or is reasonably likely to lead to, a superior proposal and (2) that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties to i2's stockholders under applicable law, then i2 may, at any time prior to obtaining i2's stockholder approval (but in no event after obtaining the stockholder's approval):

furnish information with respect to i2 and its subsidiaries to the person making such takeover proposal, but only after such person is a party to or enters into a customary confidentiality agreement with i2;

participate in discussions and negotiations with such person regarding such takeover proposal (including solicitation of a revised takeover proposal); and enter into the confidentiality agreement contemplated above.

Under the merger agreement, takeover proposal means any inquiry, proposal or offer from anyone (other than JDA and its subsidiaries) or any group relating to any:

direct or indirect acquisition (whether in a single transaction or a series of related transactions) of assets of i2 and its subsidiaries (including securities of subsidiaries) equal to 20% or more of i2's consolidated assets or to which 20% or more of i2's consolidated revenues on a consolidated basis for the then preceding four completed and publicly reported calendar quarters are attributable;

direct or indirect acquisition (whether in a single transaction or a series of related transactions) of 20% or more of i2 common stock;

tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in anyone other than JDA and its subsidiaries beneficially owning 20% or more of i2 common stock; or merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving i2 or any of its subsidiaries; in each case, other than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Under the merger agreement, superior proposal means an unsolicited, written takeover proposal made by a third party, which is on terms and conditions which the i2 Board (or committee of the i2 Board) determines in its good faith judgment (after consultation with JPMorgan or another financial advisor of national reputation) to be more favorable to i2's stockholders from a financial point of view (taking into account all terms and conditions of the takeover proposal, including any break-up fees, expense reimbursement provisions and financial terms, and the ability of the person making such proposal to consummate the transactions contemplated by such proposal, based upon, among other things, the availability of financing and the expectation of obtaining required approvals) than the merger, taking into account at the time of determination any changes to the terms of the merger agreement that as of that time had been proposed by JDA in writing (and not withdrawn), except that the reference to 20% in the definition of takeover proposal shall be deemed to be a reference to 50% .

Conditions to Closing

The parties' obligations to complete the merger are subject to the following conditions:

Edgar Filing: I2 TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form DEFM14A

the approval of the merger agreement by the requisite vote of i2 s stockholders;

no law, injunction, judgment or ruling shall have been enacted or shall be in effect that enjoins, restrains, prevents or prohibits the consummation of the merger or makes the consummation of the merger illegal; and

the waiting period applicable to the consummation of the merger under HSR or other foreign antitrust laws must have expired or been terminated and all other approvals or consents required of any other domestic or foreign governmental entity must have been obtained.

JDA's and Merger Sub's obligations to complete the merger are also subject to the following conditions:

i2's representations and warranties (disregarding all qualifications and exceptions contained therein relating to materiality or material adverse effect, subject to certain exceptions) must be true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and the date of the closing of the merger (or if any representation or warranty expressly speaks as of a specified date, as of such specified date), except if the failure of which to be so true and correct would not have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on i2;

i2 must have performed in all material respects all of its obligations under the merger agreement;

JDA must have received a certificate signed by i2's CEO or CFO certifying that i2's representations and warranties are true and correct as of the date of closing of the merger and that i2 has performed in all material respects its obligations under the merger agreement;

there must not be any action, investigation, proceeding or litigation pending or threatened by or before any governmental entity in which a governmental entity is a party, and there must not be any law, injunction, judgment or ruling enacted, promulgated, issued, entered, amended or enforced by any governmental entity in effect, that would or is reasonably likely to (1) restrain, enjoin, prevent, prohibit or make illegal the acquisition of some or all of i2's shares by JDA or Merger Sub or the consummation of the merger; (2) impose limitations on the ability of JDA or its affiliates to effectively exercise full rights of ownership of i2 in a manner that materially and adversely affects the value of i2 and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole; (3) result in the imposition of a burdensome condition (as defined in the merger agreement); or (4) result in a material adverse effect on i2;

a supplemental indenture must have been duly and validly executed by i2 and the trustee of the Notes waiving certain provisions of the Indenture and removing certain covenants therein;

the consent and conversion agreement entered into with Highbridge must remain in full force and effect, be binding on the parties and must not have been modified, rescinded, terminated or superseded; and since the date of the merger agreement, there must not have been any material adverse effect on i2.

The merger agreement provides that a material adverse effect on i2 means any change, event, occurrence or state of facts that (1) has a material adverse effect on the business, properties, assets, liabilities, results of operations or financial condition of i2 and its subsidiaries taken as a whole or (2) prevents, or materially hinders i2 from consummating the merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; provided, however, that none of the following shall be deemed either alone or in combination to constitute, and none of the following shall be taken into account in determining whether there has been, or could reasonably be expected to be, a material adverse effect:

any change, event, occurrence or state of facts relating to the global, U.S. or regional economy, financial markets, political conditions in general, or the industry in which i2 operates, including such changes thereto as are caused by terrorist activities, entry into or material worsening of war or armed hostilities, or other national or international calamity, except to the extent such changes or developments have a disproportionate impact on i2 and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, relative to other industry participants;

any change, event, occurrence or state of facts that directly arises out of or results from the announcement or pendency of the merger agreement or any of the transactions, including shareholder litigation or disruption or loss of customer business or supplier or employee relationships that is directly related to or directly arises out of or results from the announcement or pendency of the merger agreement or any of the transactions;

any changes or effects directly arising out of or resulting from actions taken or the failure to take actions by i2 or its subsidiaries with JDA's express written consent or in accordance with express written instructions of JDA or as otherwise expressly required to be taken by i2 or its subsidiaries pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement;

in and of itself, any change in i2's stock price or trading volume or any failure to meet internal projections or forecasts or published revenue or earnings projections of industry analysts (provided that this clause shall not be construed as providing that the change, event, occurrence or state of facts giving rise to such change or failure does not constitute or contribute to a material adverse effect);

any stockholder class action litigation arising from allegations of breach of fiduciary duty relating to the merger agreement; and any change, event, occurrence or state of facts arising out of any change in GAAP or applicable accounting requirements or principles which occur or become effective after the date of the merger agreement.

i2's obligation to complete the merger is also subject to the following conditions:

JDA's and Merger Sub's representations and warranties (disregarding all qualifications and exceptions contained therein relating to materiality or material adverse effect) must be true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing date (or if any representation or warranty expressly speaks as of a specified date, as of such specified date), except as does not have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on JDA's ability to consummate the merger;

JDA and Merger Sub must have performed in all material respects all of their respective obligations under the merger agreement; and i2 must receive a certificate signed by a duly authorized JDA representative certifying that JDA's and Merger Sub's representations and warranties are true and correct as of the date of closing of the merger and that JDA and Merger Sub have performed in all material respects of its obligations under the merger agreement.

Termination

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the closing of the merger:

by mutual written consent of i2 and JDA;

by either i2 or JDA if:

the merger is not completed by February 10, 2009, if the terminating party's breach is not the primary cause of the failure of the merger to be consummated;

any law, injunction, judgment or ruling shall have been enacted, promulgated, issued, entered, amended or enforced, and shall have become final and non-appealable that enjoins, restrains, prevents or prohibits the consummation of the merger or makes the consummation of the merger illegal, if the terminating party's breach is not the primary cause of such restraint; or the required vote of i2 s stockholders is not obtained to approve the merger agreement at a meeting of its stockholders duly convened therefor or at any adjournment thereof.

by JDA if:

i2 has breached or failed to perform in any material respect any of its material covenants or agreements set forth in the merger agreement, or if any representation or warranty of i2 shall have become untrue, in either case subject to certain specified materiality conditions and i2 s inability to cure such breach;

any law, injunction, judgment or ruling shall have been enacted, promulgated, issued, entered, amended or enforced, and shall have become final and non-appealable that (1) restrains, enjoins, prevents, prohibits or makes illegal the acquisition of some or all of i2's shares by JDA or Merger Sub or the consummation of the merger; (2) imposes limitations on the ability of JDA to effectively exercise full rights of ownership of i2 in a manner that materially and adversely affects the value of i2 and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole; (3) results in a material adverse effect on i2; or (4) results in the imposition of a burdensome condition (as defined in the merger agreement);

i2 enters into an acquisition agreement with another party or the i2 Board or any committee of the i2 Board either shall have made an adverse recommendation change or did not reject any bona fide publicly announced offer for a takeover proposal within ten business days of the making of the offer;

i2 materially breaches its covenants: (1) to prepare the proxy statement and allow JDA to participate in its preparation and any correspondence with the SEC; (2) to hold a stockholder's meeting in accordance with the provisions of the merger agreement; (3) except as otherwise allowed by the merger agreement, to use all reasonable efforts to solicit or cause to be solicited from its stockholders proxies in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement; or (4) violates any of the no-shop provisions set forth in the merger agreement;

a material adverse effect on i2 has occurred and is continuing to occur and is not cured by i2 within 20 business days of receipt of written notice of such event from JDA and prior to February 10, 2009.

by i2 if:

JDA or Merger Sub breaches a representation, warranty, covenant or agreement in the merger agreement, or any of its representations or warranties shall have become untrue, subject to specified materiality thresholds and JDA's and Merger Sub's ability to cure such breach; and before i2's stockholders have approved the merger agreement, i2 concurrently enters into a definitive agreement in accordance with the no-shop provisions of the merger agreement providing for a superior proposal and pays the termination fee described below to JDA; or the effective time of the merger shall not have occurred at the time required in the merger agreement due to JDA's or Merger Sub's failure to effect the closing in breach of the merger agreement, provided that at the time of termination, the conditions described in the first two paragraphs under Conditions to Closing above on page 53, other than the delivery of an i2 officer's certificate, have been satisfied or waived.

Fees and Expenses

Under the terms of the merger agreement, whether or not the merger is consummated, and except as described below, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement, the merger or the transactions related thereto will be paid by the party incurring such fees or expenses; provided, however, that JDA and i2 shall share equally (1) the filing fee of JDA's HSR pre-merger notification report and (2) all fees and expenses, other than accountant's and attorney's fees, incurred with respect to this proxy statement.

i2 must pay to JDA a termination fee equal to $15,000,000 in the following circumstances:

if the merger agreement is terminated by i2 or JDA based on (1) the failure to close prior to February 10, 2009 (and at the time of such termination, a vote to obtain i2 stockholder approval has not been duly held) or (2) the failure to gain i2 stockholder approval at the special meeting or an adjournment thereof, and (a) prior to such termination, any person other than JDA or one of its affiliates has publicly announced an intention to make a takeover proposal, or such takeover proposal has become otherwise publicly known and (b) i2 enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, a transaction contemplated by any takeover proposal within 12 months after the merger agreement is terminated;

JDA terminates the merger agreement because i2 enters into an agreement relating to a takeover proposal, or because the i2 Board (1) withdraws or modifies in a way adverse to JDA its recommendation that i2's stockholders vote in favor of the merger, or (2) fails to reject a publicly announced takeover proposal within 10 days of its making; or i2 terminates the merger agreement before i2's stockholders have approved the merger agreement and i2 concurrently enters into a definitive agreement in accordance with the no-shop provisions of the merger agreement providing for a superior proposal. JDA must pay i2 a $20,000,000 termination fee in the following circumstances:

i2 terminates the merger agreement based on JDA's or Merger Sub's breaches of a representation, warranty, covenant or agreement in the merger agreement, or if any of its representations or warranties shall have become untrue, and such breach may not or is not cured;

the effective time of the merger shall not have occurred at the time required in the merger agreement due to the failure of JDA or Merger Sub to effect the closing in breach of the merger agreement, provided that at the time of such termination the closing conditions described in the first two paragraphs under "Conditions to Closing" above on page 53, other than the delivery of an i2 officer's certificate, have been satisfied or waived; or the merger agreement is terminated by either of i2 or JDA based on the failure to consummate the merger on or before February 10, 2009, if at the time of such termination i2 could have terminated the agreement as described in the preceding bullet point.

Financing

JDA has informed i2 that it estimates that the total amount of funds necessary to complete the proposed merger and the related transactions is approximately $613,400,000, including the acquisition price of the i2 common stock (including outstanding equity awards) and the Series B Preferred Stock, retirement of the Notes, and funds to pay transaction costs. JDA expects to use the net proceeds of a new debt financing, together with approximately $349,500,000 of cash balances of the combined companies (including at least $215,000,000 of i2's cash) to fund these cash obligations, to refinance JDA's existing debt and revolving credit facilities and to provide cash for the combined companies' ongoing working capital and general corporate needs.

Concurrently with the execution and delivery of the merger agreement, JDA received a commitment letter from Credit Suisse, Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, Wachovia Bank, National Association and Wachovia Capital Markets, LLC (collectively, the "Lenders") to provide JDA with up to $450,000,000 of senior secured debt financing, with approximately $425,000,000 designated for a term loan and up to $25,000,000 for a revolving credit facility (together, the "Facilities"), subject to customary conditions

The Facilities are subject to the negotiation of a mutually acceptable credit agreement and other mutually acceptable definitive documentation, which are expected to include customary representations and warranties, affirmative and negative covenants, provisions for security, mandatory prepayments upon the occurrence of certain events, financial covenants (including maximum consolidated debt ratio and minimum interest coverage ratio tests) and provisions for events of default. The Lenders' obligations to provide the financing are subject to the satisfaction of specified conditions, including the consummation of the merger in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, no material adverse effect having occurred with respect to i2, the absence of debt other than certain permitted debt after giving effect to the merger, the accuracy of specified representations and warranties, the filing and effectiveness of the certificate of amendment to JDA's certificate of designations of its preferred stock, the effectiveness of an amendment to the indenture under which the Notes were issued, and other customary conditions. The commitment letter will expire if the merger does not close by November 26, 2008. The full text of the commitment letter was filed as Exhibit 10.2 to JDA's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on August 11, 2008 and is incorporated herein by reference. This summary of the commitment letter is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the commitment letter. On September 29, 2008, JDA and the Lenders entered into an amendment to the commitment letter. The full text of the amendment to the commitment letter was filed as Exhibit 10.1 to JDA's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on September 30, 2008 and is incorporated by reference herein.

Percentage of beneficial ownership of our common stock is based on 21,813,822 shares of our common stock outstanding as of October 1, 2008. In computing the number of shares of our common stock beneficially owned by a person and the percentage ownership of that person, shares of our common stock that may be acquired upon the exercise of options or the conversion of Series B Preferred Stock held by that person that are currently exercisable or convertible or will become exercisable or convertible within 60 days following October 1, 2008 are deemed outstanding. However, these shares are not deemed outstanding for the purpose of computing the percentage ownership of any other person. Stockholder Proposals

If the merger is completed, we will no longer be a publicly-held company and there will be no public participation in any future meetings of our stockholders. However, if the merger is not completed, our stockholders will continue to be entitled to attend and participate in our stockholders meetings.

If the merger is not completed, we will inform our stockholders, by press release or other means determined reasonable, of the date by which stockholder proposals must be received by us for inclusion in the proxy materials relating to our 2009 annual meeting. Pursuant to Exchange Act Rule 14a-8, any stockholder proposals to be considered by us for inclusion in our proxy statement and form of proxy card for our 2009 annual meeting of stockholders, expected to be held in May 2009, must be received by us at our offices at One i2 Place, 11701 Luna Road, Dallas, Texas 75234, addressed to our Secretary, not later than January 28, 2009 (90 days prior to the first anniversary of the date of the proxy statement delivered to stockholders in connection with the 2008 annual meeting). In addition, our amended and restated bylaws establish an advance notice procedure with regard to stockholder proposals, including stockholder proposals not included in our proxy statement, to be brought before an annual meeting of stockholders. In general, notice must be received by our corporate secretary not later than 90 days prior to the first anniversary of the date of the proxy statement delivered to stockholders in connection with the preceding year's annual meeting and must contain specified information concerning the matters to be brought before the meeting and concerning the stockholder making the proposal. Therefore, to be presented at next year's annual meeting, stockholder proposals, whether or not submitted for consideration for inclusion in our proxy statement, must be received no later than January 28, 2009. Stockholder proposals must comply with applicable Delaware law, certain rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC and the procedures set forth in our amended and restated bylaws.

EXPENSES AND SOLICITATION

The cost of solicitation of proxies will be paid jointly by i2 and JDA, except for related accounting and legal fees. In addition to soliciting stockholders by mail, certain of i2's directors, officers and employees, without additional remuneration, may solicit proxies in person or by telephone or other means of electronic communication. i2 will not pay these individuals for their solicitation activity but will reimburse them for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. Solicitation by directors, officers and employees of i2 may also be made of some stockholders in person or by mail, telephone or other means of electronic communication following the original solicitation. No interest will be paid or will accrue on the cash payable upon surrender of any Certificate.

(c) Transfer Books; No Further Ownership Rights in Company Stock. All cash paid upon the surrender of Certificates in accordance with the terms of this Article II shall be deemed to have been paid in full

(e) Termination of Fund. Any portion of the Payment Fund (including the proceeds of any investments thereof) that remains undistributed to the holders of the Certificates for 270 days after the Effective Time shall be delivered by the Paying Agent to the Surviving Corporation upon demand. Any holders of Certificates who have not theretofore complied with this Article II shall thereafter look only to the Surviving Corporation for payment of the Merger Consideration.

(f) No Liability. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, none of Parent, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent shall be liable to any Person for any amount properly paid from the Payment Fund or delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law.

(g) Investment of Payment Fund. The Paying Agent shall invest the Payment Fund in U.S. government or other investment grade securities, in each case, maturing in not more than one year, or other investments of comparable liquidity and credit-worthiness as directed by Parent. Any interest and other income resulting from such investment shall be the property of, and shall be paid promptly to, Parent.

(h) Dissenting Shares. Notwithstanding Section 2.1, any shares of Company Common Stock or, in the event appraisal rights are available under the DGCL, Series B Preferred Stock that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and held by any holder who has not voted in favor of the Merger or consented thereto in writing and who has properly demanded appraisal for such shares pursuant to, and has complied in all respects with, the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL (the Dissenting Shares) shall not be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, unless such holder fails to perfect or withdraws or otherwise loses its rights to appraisal or it is determined that such holder does not have appraisal rights in accordance with the DGCL. If, after the Effective Time, such holder fails to perfect or withdraws or loses its right to appraisal, or if it is determined that such holder does not have appraisal rights, such shares (and, in the case of Company Common Stock, associated Company Rights) shall be treated as if they had been converted as of the Effective Time into the right to receive the Merger Consideration without interest thereon. The Company shall give Parent prompt notice of any demands received by the Company for appraisal of shares, and Parent shall have the right to participate in all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands except as required by applicable Law. The Company shall not, except with the prior written consent of Parent, make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any such demands, unless and to the extent required to do so under applicable Law.

Option) converted into the right to receive a cash amount equal to the Option Consideration for each share of Company Common Stock then subject to the Company Option. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall make any amendments to the terms of the Company Stock Plans and give any notices required under the Company Stock Plans and obtain all consents that, in each case, are necessary to give effect to the transactions contemplated by this Section 2.3 and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary, payment may be withheld in respect of any Option until any necessary consents are obtained. Without limiting the foregoing, the Company shall take all actions necessary to ensure that the Company will not at the Effective Time be bound by any Options, stock appreciation rights, or other agreements which would entitle any Person, other than Parent and its Subsidiaries, to own any capital stock of the Surviving Corporation or to receive any payment in respect thereof (other than the payment of Option Consideration pursuant to this Section 2.3). Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall take all actions necessary to terminate all its Company Stock Plans, such termination to be effective at or before the Effective Time. For purposes of this Agreement, Option Consideration means, with respect to any share of Company Common Stock issuable under a particular Option, an amount equal to the excess, if any, of (i) the Common Stock Merger Consideration per share of Company Common Stock over (ii) the exercise price payable in respect of such share of Company Common Stock issuable under such Option. For purposes of clarity, any Company Option with a per-share exercise price that is greater than or equal to the per-share Common Stock Merger Consideration shall be canceled and terminated as of the Effective Time, and no payment shall be made with respect thereto or in respect thereof.

(b) Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall take all actions necessary to cause the outstanding shares of restricted stock held under restricted stock agreements to vest in accordance with the terms of such agreements.

(c) At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder of any RSU, each RSU outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into the right to receive a cash amount equal to the RSU Consideration for each share of Company Common Stock then subject to the RSU. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall take all actions necessary, including without limitation obtaining all necessary consents, to provide that each RSU outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (whether or not then vested) shall be cancelled and terminated and converted at the Effective Time into the right to receive a cash amount equal to the RSU Consideration for each share of Company Common Stock then subject to the RSU, free of any restriction or risk of forfeiture. Except as otherwise provided below, the RSU Consideration shall be paid as soon after the Closing Date as shall be practicable. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall make any amendments to the terms of the Company Stock Plans, and obtain any consents from holders of RSUs that, in each case, are necessary to give effect to the transactions contemplated by this Section 2.3 and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary, payment may be withheld in respect of any RSU until any necessary consents are obtained. For purposes of this Agreement, RSU Consideration means, with respect to any share of Company Common Stock issuable under a particular RSU, an amount equal to the Common Stock Merger Consideration per share of Company Common Stock.

(d) The Company shall take such steps as may be reasonably requested by any party hereto to cause dispositions of Company equity securities (including derivative securities) pursuant to the Transactions by each individual who is a director or officer of the Company to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act in accordance with that certain No-Action Letter dated January 12, 1999 issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) regarding such matters.

Section 2.4 Withholding Taxes. Parent, the Surviving Corporation and the Paying Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement such amounts as shall be required to be deducted or withheld with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, or under any provision of state, local or foreign tax law. To the extent that amounts are so deducted and withheld, such amounts shall be treated for all purposes under this Agreement as having been paid to the Person in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made.

Section 2.5 Adjustments. If during the period between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, any change in the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock, or securities convertible or exchangeable into or exercisable for shares of Company Common Stock, or Series B Preferred Stock shall occur by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares of Company Common Stock, or any similar transaction, or any stock dividend thereon with a record date during such period, the Merger Consideration shall be appropriately adjusted to reflect such change.

For purposes of this Agreement, the term Company Material Adverse Effect means any change, event, occurrence or state of facts that (A) has a material adverse effect on the business, properties, assets, liabilities, results of operations or financial condition of the Company and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole or (B) prevents, or materially hinders the Company from consummating the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, however, that none of the following shall be deemed either alone or in combination to constitute, and none of the following shall be taken into account in determining whether there has been, or could reasonably be expected to be, a Company Material Adverse Effect: (1) any change, event, occurrence or state of facts relating to the global, U.S. or regional economy, financial markets, political conditions in general, or the industry in which the Company operates, including such changes thereto as are caused by terrorist activities, entry into or material worsening of war or armed hostilities, or other national or international calamity, except to the extent such changes or developments have a disproportionate impact on the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, relative to other industry participants; (2) any change, event, occurrence or state of facts that directly arises out of or results from the announcement or pendency of this Agreement or any of the Transactions, including shareholder litigation or disruption or loss of customer business or supplier or employee relationships that is directly related to or directly arises out of or results from the announcement or pendency of this Agreement or any of the Transactions; (3) any changes or effects directly arising out of or resulting from actions taken or the failure to take actions by the Company or its Subsidiaries with Parent's express written consent or in accordance with express written instructions

Section 5.3 No Solicitation by the Company; Etc.

(a) The Company and its Subsidiaries shall, and the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Company's and its Subsidiaries' respective directors, officers, investment bankers, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, agents and other representatives (collectively, Representatives) to, and shall use reasonable best efforts to cause its and its Subsidiaries' non-officer employees to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated any discussions or negotiations with any Person with respect to a Takeover Proposal. The Company and its Subsidiaries shall not, and the Company shall not knowingly authorize or permit its Representatives to, and shall not knowingly authorize or permit its and its Subsidiaries' non-officer employees to, directly or indirectly (i) solicit, initiate or knowingly facilitate or encourage (including by way of furnishing information or providing assistance) any inquiries or proposals that constitute, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any Takeover Proposal, (ii) participate in any discussions or negotiations with, or furnish or disclose any non-public information relating to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to or otherwise cooperate with or assist, any third party regarding any Takeover Proposal, (iii) approve, endorse or recommend any Takeover Proposal or (iv) enter into any letter of intent or agreement related to any Takeover Proposal; provided, however, that if after the date hereof the Company receives an unsolicited, bona fide written Takeover Proposal made after the date hereof and the Board of Directors (or a committee thereof) of the Company determines in good faith after consultation with outside legal counsel (i) that such Takeover Proposal is, or is reasonably likely to lead to, a Superior Proposal and (ii) that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties to the Company's stockholders under applicable law, then the Company may, at any time prior to obtaining the Company Stockholder Approval (but in no event after obtaining the Company Stockholder Approval), (A) furnish information with respect to the Company and its Subsidiaries to the Person making such Takeover Proposal, but only after such Person is a party to or enters into a customary confidentiality agreement with the Company (which confidentiality agreement must be no less favorable to the Company in any material respect (i.e., no less restrictive with respect to the conduct of such Person) than the then applicable terms of the Confidentiality Agreement) and which shall permit the Company to comply with the terms of this Section 5.3, provided that (1) such confidentiality agreement may not include any provision calling for an exclusive right to negotiate with the Company and (2) the Company advises Parent of all such non-public information delivered to such Person concurrently with its delivery to such Person and concurrently with its delivery to such Person the Company delivers to Parent all such information not previously provided to Parent, (B) participate in discussions and negotiations with such Person regarding such Takeover Proposal (including solicitation of a revised Takeover Proposal) and (C) enter into the confidentiality agreement contemplated by clause (A) of this proviso. The Company shall take all action necessary to enforce, and shall not waive or amend, each confidentiality, standstill or similar agreement to which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which any of them is bound (in each case, other than any such agreement with Parent); provided, however, that the Company may waive any standstill or similar agreement and permit a proposal to be made if the Board (or committee thereof) determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that failure to do so would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duty under applicable law. The Company shall provide Parent with a correct and complete copy of any confidentiality agreement entered into pursuant to this paragraph within 24 hours of the execution thereof.

(b) In addition to the other obligations of the Company set forth in this Section 5.3, the Company shall promptly advise Parent no later than twenty-four hours after receipt by an officer or director of the Company, if any proposal, offer, inquiry or other contact is initially received by, any information is initially requested from, or any discussions or negotiations are sought to be initiated or continued with, the Company in respect of any Takeover Proposal, and shall notify Parent, indicate the identity of the Person making such proposal, offer, inquiry or other contact and the material terms and conditions of any proposals or offers or the nature of any inquiries or contacts (and shall include with such notice copies of any written materials received from or on behalf of such Person relating to such proposal, offer, inquiry or request), and thereafter shall promptly (within twenty four hours) keep Parent informed of all material developments affecting the status and terms of any such proposals, offers, inquiries or requests and of the status of any such discussions or negotiations.

(c) Except as expressly permitted by this Section 5.3(c), neither the Board of Directors of the Company nor any committee thereof shall (i)(A) qualify, withdraw or modify, in a manner adverse to Parent, or propose publicly to qualify, withdraw or modify, in a manner adverse to Parent, the Company Board Recommendation or (B) approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend, any Takeover Proposal (any action described in this clause (i) being referred to as an Adverse Recommendation Change) or (ii) approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend, or cause or authorize the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, memorandum of understanding, merger, acquisition, purchase or joint venture agreement or other agreement related to any Takeover Proposal (other than a confidentiality agreement in accordance with Section 5.3(a)) (each, a Company Acquisition Agreement). Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision of this Agreement, prior to the time that the Company Stockholder Approval has been obtained (but in no event after obtaining the Company Stockholder Approval) (x) the Board of Directors of the Company (or committee thereof) may make an Adverse Recommendation Change if the Board of Directors (or committee thereof) determines in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to make such Adverse Recommendation Change would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties to the Company's stockholders under the applicable law, and, with respect to any recommendation of a Takeover Proposal, the Board (or committee thereof) determines in good faith that such Takeover Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal, and (y) if the Company receives an unsolicited, bona fide written Takeover Proposal that the Board of Directors (or committee thereof) determines in good faith constitutes a Superior Proposal, the Board of Directors (or committee thereof) may, in response to such Superior Proposal after the expiration of the three business day period described below, cause the Company to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to such Superior Proposal but only if the Company shall have concurrently with entering into such definitive agreement terminated this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(d)(ii) and prior thereto or concurrently therewith paid the Termination Fee required pursuant to Section 7.3, but in any event only after the third business day following Parent's receipt of written notice (the Notice) from the Company advising Parent that the Board of Directors of the Company (or any committee thereof) is prepared to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to such Superior Proposal and terminate this Agreement (it being understood that the Company shall be required to deliver a new Notice in respect of any revised Superior Proposal (other than immaterial revisions) from such third party or its Affiliates that the Company proposes to accept, attaching the most current version of such agreement to such Notice and the other information required by Section 5.3(b) (which information shall be updated on a current basis), and only if at the end of such three business day period, after taking into account any revised terms as may have been proposed by Parent in writing (and not withdrawn) since its receipt of such Notice, the Board of Directors of the Company (or committee thereof) has again in good faith made the determination referred to above in this clause (y).

(d) For purposes of this Agreement:

Takeover Proposal means any inquiry, proposal or offer from any Person or group (as defined in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act), other than Parent and its Subsidiaries, relating to any (A) direct or indirect acquisition (whether in a single transaction or a series of related transactions) of assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries (including securities of Subsidiaries) equal to 20% or more of the Company's consolidated assets or to which 20% or more of the Company's consolidated revenues on a consolidated basis for the then preceding four completed and publicly reported calendar quarters are attributable, (B) direct or indirect acquisition (whether in a single transaction or a series of related transactions) of 20% or more of the Company Common Stock, (C) tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any Person or group (as defined in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) beneficially owning 20% or more of the Company Common Stock or (D) merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving the Company or any of its Subsidiaries; in each case, other than the Transactions.

Superior Proposal means an unsolicited, written Takeover Proposal made by a third party, which is on terms and conditions which the Board of Directors of the Company (or committee thereof) determines in its good faith judgment (after consultation with the Financial Advisor or another financial advisor of national reputation) to be more favorable to the Company's stockholders from a financial point of view (taking into account all terms and conditions of the Takeover Proposal, including any break-up fees, expense reimbursement provisions and financial terms, and the ability of the Person making such proposal to consummate the transactions contemplated by such proposal, based upon, among other things, the availability of financing and the expectation of obtaining required approvals) than the Merger and the other Transactions, taking into account at the time of determination any changes to the terms of this Agreement that as of that time had been proposed by Parent in writing (and not withdrawn), except that the reference to 20% in the definition of Takeover Proposal shall be deemed to be a reference to 50% .

(e) Nothing in this Section 5.3 shall prohibit the Board of Directors of the Company from taking and disclosing to the Company's stockholders a position contemplated by Rule 14e-2(a), Rule 14d-9 or Item 1012(a) of Regulation M-A promulgated under the Exchange Act if such Board of Directors determines in good faith, after receiving the advice of outside counsel, that failure to so disclose such position would be inconsistent with applicable Law; provided, however, that if such disclosure has the effect of withdrawing or modifying the Company Board Recommendation in a manner adverse to Parent or the approval of this Agreement by the Board of Directors of the Company, Parent shall have the right to terminate this Agreement to the extent set forth in Section 7.1(c)(iii) of this Agreement.

Section 5.4 Further Action; Reasonable Best Efforts.

(a) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, each of the parties hereto shall, and shall cause their respective Affiliates to, use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary, proper and advisable under applicable Laws to consummate the Transactions as promptly as practicable. In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, each party shall: (i) make an appropriate filing of a Notification and Report Form pursuant to the HSR Act with respect to the Transactions as promptly as practicable and supply as promptly as practicable any additional information and documentary material that may be requested pursuant to the HSR Act; (ii) make any additional filings required by any applicable Competition Law and take all other actions reasonably necessary, proper or advisable to cause the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act or other Competition Laws, and comply with applicable Foreign Antitrust Laws, as promptly as practicable; and (iii) subject to applicable Laws relating to access to and the exchange of information, use its reasonable best efforts to (A) cooperate with each other in connection with any filing or submission and in connection with any investigation or other inquiry under or relating to any Competition Law; (B) keep the other parties informed of any communication received by such party from, or given by such party to, the Federal Trade Commission (the FTC), the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice (the DOJ) or any other Governmental Authority and of any communication received or given in connection with any proceeding by a private party, in each case regarding any of the Transactions; and (C) permit the other parties hereto to review in advance any communication intended to be given by it to, and consult with the other parties in advance of any meeting or conference with, the FTC, the DOJ or any such other Governmental Authority, and to the extent permitted by the FTC, the DOJ or such other applicable Governmental Authority, give the other parties the opportunity to attend and participate in such meetings and conferences. To the extent permitted by Law, Parent shall have the right to direct all matters relating to compliance with Competition Laws in connection with any Transaction.

(b) In furtherance and not in limitation of the covenants of the parties contained in Section 5.4(a), but subject to Section 5.4(c), in the event that any legal, administrative, arbitral or other proceeding, claim, suit or action is instituted (or threatened to be instituted) by a Governmental Authority or private party under any Competition Laws challenging any of the Transactions or in the event that any Governmental Authority shall otherwise object to any of the Transactions, each of Parent, Merger Sub and the Company shall cooperate with each other and use its respective reasonable best efforts: (A) to vigorously defend, contest and resist any such proceeding, claim, suit, action or challenge; (B) to have vacated, lifted, reversed or overturned any decree, judgment, injunction or other order, whether temporary, preliminary or permanent, that is in effect and that prohibits, prevents or restricts consummation of the Transactions; and (C) to resolve objections.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, in no event shall Parent or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates be obligated to, and the Company shall not, without Parent's prior written consent, propose or agree to accept any undertaking or condition, enter into any consent decree, make any divestiture, accept any operational restriction or take or commit to take any action that would reasonably be expected to limit: (i) the freedom of action of Parent or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates with respect to the operation of, or Parent's ability to retain, the Company or any businesses, product lines or assets of the Company, or (ii) Parent's or its Subsidiaries' or Affiliates' ability to retain, own or operate any portion of the businesses, product lines or assets of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates, or alter or restrict in any way the business or commercial practices of Parent or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates or the Company or its Subsidiaries (any such event, a Burdensome Condition).

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision of this Agreement, nothing in this Section 5.4 shall limit a party's right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(b)(i) or (ii) so long as such party has up to then complied in all material respects with its obligations under this Section 5.4.

(e) The Company shall not take any action that would result in any state takeover statute or similar Law becoming applicable to any of the Transactions. If any state takeover statute or similar Law becomes applicable to any of the Transactions, Parent, Merger Sub and the Company shall use reasonable best efforts to take all action necessary to ensure that the Transactions may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated by this Agreement and otherwise minimize the effect of such Law on the Transactions.

(f) For purposes hereof, Competition Laws means the HSR Act, the Clayton Act, as amended, the Federal Trade Commission Act, as amended, and all other applicable Laws issued by a Governmental Authority that are designed or intended to prohibit, restrict or regulate actions having the purpose or effect of monopolization or restraint of trade or lessening of competition through merger or acquisition, including any Foreign Antitrust Laws.

Section 5.5 Public Announcements. The initial press release with respect to the execution of this Agreement shall be a joint press release to be reasonably agreed upon by Parent and the Company. Thereafter and prior to the Effective Time, neither the Company nor Parent shall issue or cause the publication of any press release or other public announcement (to the extent not previously issued or made in accordance with this Agreement) with respect to the Merger, this Agreement or the other Transactions without the prior consent of the other party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), except (i) as may be required by Law (including, without limitation, as permitted by Section 5.3(e)) or by any applicable listing agreement with a national securities exchange as determined in the good faith judgment of the party proposing to make such release (in which case such party shall not issue or cause the publication of such press release or other public announcement without prior consultation with the other party) or (ii) for press releases or announcements to be issued with respect to actions taken by the Company or its Board of Directors as permitted by and in accordance with Section 5.3.

Section 5.6 Access to Information; Confidentiality.

(a) Subject to applicable Laws relating to the exchange of information (including applicable Competition Laws) and the Confidentiality Agreement, the Company shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, afford to Parent and Parent's Representatives reasonable access after providing reasonable prior written notice, during normal business hours to all of the Company's and its Subsidiaries' properties, assets, books, Contracts, commitments, electronic and physical records, correspondence (including electronic correspondence), officers, employees, accountants, counsel, financial advisors and other Representatives and the Company shall furnish (or otherwise make available, including through the SEC EDGAR system) promptly to Parent (i) a copy of each report, schedule and other document (A) filed, furnished or received by it or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to the requirements of Federal or state securities Laws or (B) filed or furnished by it or any of its Subsidiaries with any Governmental Authority with respect to compliance with applicable Laws and (ii) all other information concerning its and its Subsidiaries' business, properties and personnel as Parent may reasonably request; provided, however, that nothing in this Agreement shall require the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to provide access to any item that contains confidential information the Company is obligated to any third party to maintain the confidentiality of.

(b) Except for disclosures permitted by the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement dated as of December 12, 2007 between Parent and the Company (as it may be amended from time to time, the Confidentiality Agreement), Parent and Parent's Representatives shall hold information received from the Company pursuant to this Section 5.6 in confidence in accordance with the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement. The terms of the Confidentiality Agreement shall continue in full force and effect following execution (or termination) of this Agreement.

(c) No investigation by Parent or its representatives or advisors prior to or after the date of this Agreement shall diminish, obviate or cure any breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement or otherwise affect Parent's rights under Articles I, VI and VII of this Agreement.

Section 5.7 Notification of Certain Matters. The Company shall give prompt notice to Parent, and Parent shall give prompt notice to the Company, of (i) any notice or other communication received by such party from any Governmental Authority in connection with the Transactions or from any Person alleging that the consent of such Person is or may be required in connection with the Transactions, if the subject matter of such communication or the failure of such party to obtain such consent could be material to the Company, the Surviving Corporation or Parent, (ii) any actions, suits, claims, investigations or proceedings commenced or, to such party's Knowledge, threatened against, relating to or involving or otherwise affecting such party or any of its Subsidiaries which relate to the Transactions, (iii) the discovery of any fact or circumstance that, or the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event the occurrence or non-occurrence of which, would cause any representation or warranty made by such party contained in this Agreement to be untrue such that the conditions set forth in Section 6.2(a) or 6.3(a) would not be satisfied and (iv) any failure of such party to comply with or satisfy any covenant or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it hereunder such that the conditions set forth in Section 6.2(b) or 6.3(b) would not be satisfied; provided, however, that the delivery of any notice pursuant to this Section 5.7 shall not (x) be considered an admission that any representation or warranty is untrue for purposes of Article VI or Article VII, (y) cure any breach or non-compliance with any other provision of this Agreement or (z) limit the remedies available to the party receiving such notice; provided, further, that the failure to deliver any notice pursuant to this Section 5.7 shall not be considered in determining whether the condition set forth in Section 6.2(b) or 6.3(b) has been satisfied or the related termination right in Article VII is available except to the extent that a party hereto is actually prejudiced by such failure to give notice.

Section 5.8 Indemnification and Insurance.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall (and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to) indemnify the individuals who at or prior to the Effective Time were directors or officers of the Company (collectively, the Indemnitees) with respect to all acts or omissions by them in their capacities as such at any time prior to the Effective Time, to the fullest extent permitted by (A) the Company Charter Documents as in effect on the date of this Agreement, (B) any applicable contract as in effect on the date of this Agreement and (C) applicable Law; provided, however, that the Surviving Corporation shall not be required to indemnify any Indemnitee for such Indemnitee's criminal conduct or fraud.

(b) Parent will provide, or cause the Surviving Corporation to provide, for a period of not less than six years after the Effective Time, the Indemnitees (as defined to mean those persons currently insured under the Company's directors' and officers' insurance and indemnification policy) with an insurance and indemnification policy that provides coverage for events occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (the D&O Insurance) that is no less favorable than the existing policy or, if substantially equivalent insurance coverage is unavailable, the best available coverage; provided, however, that Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall not be required to pay an annual premium for the D&O Insurance in excess of 300% of the annual premium currently paid by the Company for such insurance, provided, further, that if the annual premiums of such insurance coverage exceed such amount, Parent or the Surviving Corporation shall be obligated to obtain a policy with the greatest coverage available for a cost not exceeding such amount. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Surviving Corporation may fulfill its obligation to provide insurance under this Section 5.8(b) by obtaining a prepaid tail policy of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and condition which are, in the aggregate, no less favorable to the insured than the existing policy, and maintaining such tail policy in full force and effect for a period of at least six (6) years.

(c) The Indemnitees to whom this Section 5.8 applies shall be third party beneficiaries of this Section 5.8. The provisions of this Section 5.8 are intended to be for the benefit of each Indemnitee, his or her heirs and his or her representatives.

(d) In the event that Parent or the Surviving Corporation or any of their respective successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers or conveys all or a majority of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Parent or the Surviving Corporation shall succeed to the obligations set forth in this Section 5.8.

Section 5.9 Securityholder Litigation. The Company shall give Parent prompt written notice of, and the opportunity to participate in, the defense or settlement of any securityholder litigation against the Company and/or its directors relating to the Transactions, and no such settlement shall be agreed to without Parent's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

Section 5.10 Fees and Expenses. Whether or not the Merger is consummated, and except as otherwise contemplated under Section 7.3 of the Agreement, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement, the Merger and the Transactions shall be paid by the party incurring such fees or expenses; provided, however, that Company and Parent shall share equally (a) the filing fee of Parent's pre-merger notification report under the HSR Act and all fees and expenses incurred by Parent or Company in seeking approvals under all other applicable Antitrust Laws, and (b) all fees and expenses, other than accountants' and attorneys' fees, incurred with respect to the printing, filing and mailing of the Proxy Statement (including any related preliminary materials) and any amendments or supplements thereto).

Section 5.11 Employee Benefits.

(a) Without limiting the provisions of Section 5.11(d) hereof, for a period of time of at least one year following the Closing Date, Parent shall, or shall cause its Affiliates to, provide each employee who continues employment with the Surviving Corporation (a Continuing Employee) with combined aggregate pay (which shall include rates of base salary or wages and annual bonus opportunities) and employee benefits that are comparable to the pay and benefits provided to similarly situated employees of Parent or its Affiliates, provided that for such purposes of this covenant, stock options and other equity awards shall be disregarded.

Table of Contents

(b) Continuing Employees shall also be provided credit for all service with the Company and its subsidiaries, to the same extent as such service was credited for such purpose by the Company and its Subsidiaries for such Continuing Employees, under (i) all employee benefit plans, programs, policies and fringe benefits (other than stock option and other equity award programs) arrangements to be provided to such employees for purposes of eligibility and vesting, (ii) severance plans, programs and policies to be provided to such employees for purposes of calculating the amount of each such employee's severance benefits and (iii) vacation and sick leave plans, programs and policies for purposes of calculating the amount of each such employee's vacation and sick leave, except, in each case, as would result in a duplication of benefits. With respect to each employee benefit plan, program or policy of Parent or its Subsidiaries that is a welfare benefit plan (as defined in Section 3(1) of ERISA, and without regard to whether ERISA applies thereto) in which Continuing Employees participate following the Effective Time, Parent or its Subsidiaries shall cause there to be waived any pre-existing condition limitations. In addition, to the extent permissible under the terms of such plan, if the effective time at which a Continuing Employee participates in any such plan falls within an annual period of coverage under such plan, each Continuing Employee shall be given credit for covered expenses paid by that Continuing Employee and his or her dependents under comparable Company plans during the applicable coverage period through such effective time toward satisfaction of any annual deductible limitation and out-of-pocket maximum that may apply under that plan of the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries.

(c) Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, assume and either shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, discharge the obligations under each employment, severance or retention agreement (including the establishment and funding of any related rabbi trust) listed in Section 3.11(a) of the Company Disclosure Schedule.

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, nothing in this Section 5.11 shall impede or limit Parent, Merger Sub, the Company, the Surviving Corporation or any of their Affiliates from terminating any of their employees at any time for any reason or no reason, subject to the provisions of applicable Law.

(e) Effective no later than the last day of the payroll period immediately preceding the Closing Date, the Company and its ERISA Affiliates, as applicable, shall each terminate any and all plans intended to include a Code Section 401(k) arrangement (collectively, the 401(k) Plans) unless Parent provides written notice to the Company that any 401(k) Plan shall not be so terminated. Unless Parent provides such written notice to the Company, no later than seven (7) business days prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall provide to Parent (i) copies of duly adopted resolutions by the Company's Board of Directors authorizing the termination of such 401(k) Plans and (ii) with respect to each 401(k) Plan, an executed amendment to the 401(k) Plan sufficient to assure compliance with all applicable requirements of the Code and regulations thereunder so that the tax-qualified status of the 401(k) Plan shall be maintained at the time of termination. The form and substance of such resolutions and amendment shall be subject to the prior review and approval of Parent.

(f) The provisions of this Section 5.11 are solely for the benefit of the parties to this Agreement, and no current or former employee, director or independent contractor or any other individual associated therewith shall be regarded for any purpose as a third party beneficiary of this Section 5.11 and nothing herein shall be construed as an amendment to any Company Plan for any purpose.

Section 5.12 Convertible Notes. Parent acknowledges that the consummation of the Merger will constitute a Fundamental Change, as such term is defined in Indenture dated as of November 23, 2005 (the Indenture) between the Company and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company N.A., as successor in interest to JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, as Trustee (the Trustee).

(a) As soon as possible, after the date of this Agreement, the Company shall enter into a supplemental indenture with the Trustee in form agreed to by Parent (the Supplemental Indenture) to be effective at the Effective Time. The Supplemental Indenture shall, among other things, amend the Indenture to remove the Indenture Covenants (as defined in the Consent and Conversion Agreement).

(b) As soon as reasonably practical after the date hereof, the Company shall provide to each holder of the outstanding Convertible Notes a Consent and Conversion Agreement, in the forms agreed to by Parent and the Company and substantially similar to the Consent and Conversion Agreement dated as of even date herewith between the Company and Highbridge International LLC, (together, the Consent and Conversion Agreements). The Consent and Conversion Agreements shall provide, among other things, (i) for the payment upon conversion of a Note of the sum of the Conversion Obligation, the Consent Premium (both as defined in the Consent and Conversion Agreement), accrued but unpaid interest on such Convertible Notes and the Make Whole Premium (as defined in the Indenture) (together, the Conversion Price) for such Note, (ii) the acknowledgement and agreement of such holders to the removal and deletion of each of the Indenture Covenants from the Indenture effective automatically upon the conversion of such holder's Convertible Notes, and (iii) for the sale of the Warrants held by such holder to the Company effective as of the Effective Time for the price for the Warrants set forth in the applicable Consent and Conversion Agreement. The Company shall ensure that the price paid for any Note shall not exceed the Conversion Price for such Note. The conversion of the Convertible Notes (and any payments in connection with such conversion) shall be conditioned on the occurrence of the Closing. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall take all steps reasonably necessary upon consultation with Parent to obtain the Supplemental Indenture and to complete the conversion of the Convertible Notes surrendered pursuant to the Consent and Conversion Agreements. The Company shall not, without the consent of Parent, waive any condition to the Consent and Conversion Agreements or make any changes to the Consent and Conversion Agreements other than as agreed between Parent and the Company.

(c) Promptly after the date of this Agreement, the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to prepare all other necessary and appropriate documentation required by the Indenture in connection with the transactions contemplated herein (collectively, the Note Documents), and such Note Documents shall comply as to form and substance with applicable legal requirements, including, but not limited to, the requirements under the Indenture. The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, use its and their reasonable commercial efforts to have its and their Representatives to provide such cooperation to Parent as Parent may reasonably request in connection with the Note Documents and the conversion of the Convertible Notes. All Note Documents and mailings to the holders of the Convertible Notes in connection with the transactions contemplated herein shall be subject to the prior review and comment by each of the Company and Parent and shall be reasonably acceptable to each of them.

(d) Following the Closing and to the extent any Convertible Notes remain outstanding, Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Surviving Corporation to assume and discharge the obligations of the Company under the Indenture and the Supplemental Indenture in accordance with the terms thereof, including the giving of any notices and making of any payments that may be required in connection with any repurchases or conversions of Convertible Notes occurring as a result of such Fundamental Change, and the Company shall assist Parent and the Surviving Corporation in assuming such obligations of the Company.

Section 5.13 Warrants. Parent acknowledges that the consummation of the Merger will constitute a Change of Control, as such term is defined in the Warrants. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall take all commercially reasonable actions to provide for the (i) Company's purchase of the Warrants at the Effective Time for the price for the Warrants set forth in the applicable Consent and Conversion Agreement, (ii) the cancellation of all the outstanding Warrants effective upon the Effective Time and (iii) all such other action that Parent may reasonably request, including the giving of any notices, in connection with any purchases of the Warrants in connection with such Change of Control in accordance with the terms thereof.

Section 5.14 Debt Financing.

(a) Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable to arrange and obtain the Debt Financing on the terms and conditions described in the Financing Commitment, including commercially reasonable efforts to (i) maintain in effect the Financing Commitment, (ii) satisfy on a timely basis all conditions applicable to

Table of Contents

Parent and Merger Sub to obtaining the Debt Financing, (iii) enter into definitive agreements with respect thereto on terms and conditions contained in the Financing Commitment or consistent in all material respects with the Financing Commitment, and (iv) consummate the Debt Financing at or prior to the Closing. Parent shall give the Company prompt notice (A) of any material breach by any party of the Financing Commitment of which Parent or Merger Sub becomes aware, (B) if and when Parent or Merger Sub becomes aware that any portion of the financing contemplated by the Financing Commitment will not be available to consummate the Transactions and (C) of any termination of the Financing Commitment. Parent shall keep the Company informed on a reasonably current basis in reasonable detail of the status of their efforts to arrange the Debt Financing or Alternative Financing and provide to the Company copies of executed copies of the definitive documents related to the Debt Financing or Alternative Financing (excluding any fee letters, engagement letters or other agreements that are confidential by their terms). If the Financing Commitment shall expire or terminate for any reason, Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to promptly obtain, and will promptly provide the Company with a copy of, a new financing commitment that provides for an amount of financing sufficient to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and other terms and conditions the aggregate effect of which is not materially adverse to Parent in comparison with those contained in the Financing Commitment as originally issued (an Alternate Financing). Any Alternate Financing may be made by the Lenders or other lenders that are parties to the Financing Commitment as originally issued or another bona fide lender or lenders acceptable to the Parent. Parent shall accept any such commitment letter if the funding conditions and other terms and conditions contained therein are not materially adverse to Parent in comparison with those contained in the Financing Commitment as originally issued.

(b) The Company shall provide, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and use its reasonable best efforts to cause its and their respective Representatives to provide on a timely basis, such reasonable assistance and cooperation in connection with the arrangement of the Debt Financing contemplated by the Financing Commitment (or Alternate Financing, as applicable) as may be reasonably requested by Parent, provided, however, that no such requested cooperation may unreasonably interfere with the ongoing operations of the Company and its Subsidiaries. Such cooperation shall include (i) making senior management of the Company reasonably available for customary lender meetings and roadshow presentations and cooperating with prospective lenders in performing their due diligence, (ii) providing due diligence materials to the parties to the Financing Commitment or other potential financing sources (including pursuant to an Alternate Financing) (iii) furnishing all financial statements and financial and other information that are customarily prepared by the Company and reasonably required in connection with such Debt Financing or Alternate Financing, as applicable, (iv) assisting Parent and its debt financing sources in the preparation of, and executing, if applicable, an offering document and definitive transaction documents for such Debt Financing or Alternate Financing, as applicable, and materials for rating agency presentations, (v) cooperating with the marketing efforts of Parent and its debt financing sources for such Debt Financing or Alternate Financing, as applicable, (vi) providing such other documents as may be reasonably requested by Parent in connection therewith, and (vii) facilitating the pledge of collateral (including the release of any Liens on the assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries) to secure the Debt Financing or Alternate Financing, as applicable, at and after the Closing; provided, that that no obligation of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries under any certificate, document or instrument shall be effective until the Effective Time and none of the Company or any Subsidiary shall be required to pay any commitment or other similar fee or incur any other liability in connection with the Debt Financing or Alternate Financing, as applicable, prior to the Closing.

Section 5.15 Inventions Assignment. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain from each employee and independent contractor listed on Schedule 3.15(f) of the Company Disclosure Schedule a fully executed written agreement in a form acceptable to Parent providing that all Company Intellectual Property developed by such Persons is owned exclusively by the Company and its Subsidiaries; provided that, notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, no failure to have obtained such fully executed agreements from such employees and independent contractors prior to the Effective Time shall be deemed to constitute a failure of the condition to the Merger set forth in Section 6.2(b).

Section 5.16 Product Review. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall respond promptly to Parent's reasonable requests for information concerning the Company's use of Open Source Software (including providing descriptions of whether and how the Open Source Software is or was used, modified and/or distributed) and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to take such actions as reasonably requested by Parent to address issues identified by Parent arising from the results of the scan of the currently-supported release(s) of the Company's Software at the request of Parent; provided that, notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, no failure to have completed the actions requested by Parent pursuant to this Section 5.16 prior to the Effective Time shall be deemed to constitute a failure of the condition to the Merger set forth in Section 6.2(b).

ARTICLE VI.

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

Section 6.1 Conditions to Each Party's Obligation to Effect the Merger. The respective obligations of each party hereto to effect the Merger shall be subject to the satisfaction (or waiver, if permissible under applicable Law) on or prior to the Closing Date of the following conditions:

(a) Stockholder Approval. The Company Stockholder Approval shall have been obtained in accordance with applicable Law and the Company Charter Documents;

(b) No Injunctions or Restraints. No Law, injunction, judgment or ruling enacted, promulgated, issued, entered, amended or enforced by any Governmental Authority (collectively, Restraints) shall be in effect enjoining, restraining, preventing or prohibiting consummation of the Merger or making the consummation of the Merger illegal; and

(c) Regulatory Approvals. The waiting period applicable to the consummation of the Merger under any applicable Competition Laws shall have expired or been terminated and all other approvals or consents required of any other Governmental Authority for the consummation of the Merger shall have been obtained.

Section 6.2 Conditions to Obligations of Parent and Merger Sub. The obligations of Parent and Merger Sub to effect the Merger are further subject to the satisfaction (or waiver, if permissible under applicable Law) on or prior to the Closing Date of the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of the Company contained in Sections 3.2, 3.3(a), 3.3(b) and 3.3(d) shall be true and correct in all respects (except, in the case of Section 3.2 for such inaccuracies as are de minimis in the aggregate), in each case both when made and at and as of the Closing Date, as if made at and as of such time (except to the extent expressly made as of an earlier date, in which case as of such date) and (ii) all other representations and warranties of the Company set forth herein shall be true and correct (without giving effect to any limitation as to materiality or Company Material Adverse Effect set forth therein, when made and at and as of the Closing Date as if made at and as of such time (except to the extent expressly made as of an earlier date, in which case as of such date), except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct would not have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Performance of Obligations of the Company. The Company shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it under this Agreement at or prior to the Closing Date.

(c) Officer's Certificate. Parent shall have received a certificate, signed by the chief executive officer or chief financial officer of the Company, certifying as to the matters set forth in Sections 6.2(a) and 6.2(b).

(d) No Litigation. There shall not be any action, investigation, proceeding or litigation instituted, commenced, pending or threatened by or before any Governmental Authority in which a Governmental Authority is a party, nor shall there be any Restraint in effect, that would (i) restrain, enjoin, prevent, prohibit or make illegal the acquisition of some or all of the shares of Company Common Stock by Parent or Merger Sub or the consummation of the Merger or the other Transactions, (ii) impose limitations on the ability of Parent or its Affiliates effectively to exercise full rights of ownership of all shares of the Surviving Corporation in a manner that materially and adversely affects the value of the Company and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole, (iii) result in the imposition of a Burdensome Condition, or (iv) result in a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(e) Supplemental Indenture. Contemporaneously with the Effective Time, the Supplemental Indenture shall be duly and validly executed by each of the Company and the Trustee, shall be in full force and effect, shall be binding and enforceable against the holder of the outstanding Convertible Notes, and shall not have been modified, rescinded, terminated or superseded.

(f) Consent and Conversion Agreement. The Consent and Conversion Agreement dated as of August 10, 2008 by and between the Company and Highbridge International LLC shall be duly and validly executed by each of the parties thereto, shall be in full force and effect and binding on the parties thereto and shall not have been modified, rescinded, terminated or superseded.

(a) Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Sub contained in this Agreement (without giving effect to any materiality or Parent Material Adverse Effect qualification) shall be true and correct as of the Closing Date as though made on the Closing Date (except to the extent such representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date, in which case as of such earlier date), except as does not have, individually or in the aggregate, a Parent Material Adverse Effect;

(b) Performance of Obligations of Parent and Merger Sub. Parent and Merger Sub shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by them under this Agreement at or prior to the Closing Date; and

(c) Officer's Certificate. The Company shall have received a certificate, signed by a duly authorized representative of Parent, certifying as to the matters set forth in Sections 6.3(a) and 6.3(b).

Section 6.4 Frustration of Closing Conditions. None of the Company, Parent or Merger Sub may rely on the failure of any condition set forth in Section 6.1, 6.2 or 6.3, as the case may be, to be satisfied if such failure was caused by such party's failure to use its reasonable best efforts to consummate the Merger and the other Transactions, as required by and subject to Section 5.4.

ARTICLE VII.

TERMINATION

Section 7.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated and the Transactions abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Time:

(a) by the mutual written consent of the Company and Parent duly authorized by each of their respective Boards of Directors; or

Agreement under this Section 7.1(b)(i) shall not be available to a party if the failure of the Merger to have been consummated on or before the Outside Date was primarily due to such party's breach or failure to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement;

(ii) if any Restraint having the effect set forth in Section 6.1(b) shall be in effect and shall have become final and nonappealable; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 7.1(b)(ii) shall not be available to a party if such Restraint was primarily due to such party's breach or failure to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement; or

(iii) if the Company Stockholder Approval shall not have been obtained at the Company Stockholders Meeting duly convened therefor (including any adjournment or postponement thereof) upon a vote taken on this Agreement; or

(c) by Parent:

(i) if the Company shall have breached or failed to perform in any material respect any of its material covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement, or if any representation or warranty of the Company shall have become untrue, in either case such that the conditions set forth in Section 6.2(a) or (b) would not be satisfied (a Terminating Company Breach); provided, however, that if such Terminating Company Breach is curable by the Company through the exercise of reasonable best efforts prior to the Outside Date and within twenty (20) business days, then Parent shall not be permitted to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(c)(i) until the earlier to occur of (1) the expiration of a twenty (20) business day period after delivery of written notice from Parent to the Company of such breach or inaccuracy, as applicable, or (2) the Company ceasing to exercise reasonable best efforts to cure such breach or inaccuracy, provided that the Company continues to exercise reasonable best efforts to cure such breach or inaccuracy (it being understood that Parent may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(c)(i) if such breach or inaccuracy by the Company is cured within such twenty (20) business day period);

(ii) if any Restraint having the effect of granting or implementing any relief referred to Section 6.2(d) shall be in effect and shall have become final and nonappealable;

(iii) if (x) the Company enters into a Company Acquisition Agreement or (y) the Board of Directors of the Company or any committee thereof (A) shall have made an Adverse Recommendation Change or (B) shall not have rejected any bona fide publicly announced offer for a Takeover Proposal within ten (10) business days of the making thereof (including, for these purposes, by taking no position with respect to the acceptance of a tender offer or exchange offer by its stockholders, which shall constitute a failure to reject such offer for a Takeover Proposal);

(iv) if the Company (i) breaches any material obligations under Section 5.1 or Section 5.3, or the Board of Directors of the Company or any committee thereof shall resolve to do any of the foregoing;

(v) if a Company Material Adverse Effect shall occur and be continuing, provided that if such Company Material Adverse Effect is curable by the Company through the exercise of reasonable best efforts prior to the Outside Date and within twenty (20) business days, then Parent shall not be permitted to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(c)(v) until the earlier to occur of (1) the expiration of a twenty (20) business day period after delivery of written notice from Parent to the Company of such Company Material Adverse Effect, or (2) the Company ceasing to exercise reasonable best efforts to cure such Material Adverse Effect, provided that the Company continues to exercise reasonable best efforts to cure such Company Material Adverse Effect (it being understood that Parent may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(c)(v) if such Company Material Adverse Effect is cured within such twenty (20) calendar day period); or

(d) by the Company:

(i) if Parent or Merger Sub shall have breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement, or if any representation or warranty of Parent or Merger Sub shall have become untrue, in either case such that the conditions set forth in Section 6.3(a) or (b) would not be satisfied (a Terminating Parent Breach); provided, however, that if such Terminating Parent Breach is curable by Parent or Merger Sub through the exercise of reasonable best efforts prior to the Outside Date and within twenty (20) business days, then the Company shall not be permitted to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(d)(i) until the earlier to occur of (1) the expiration of a twenty (20) business day period after delivery of written notice from the Company to Parent of such breach or inaccuracy, as applicable, or (2) Parent ceasing to exercise reasonable best efforts to cure such breach or inaccuracy, provided that Parent continues to exercise reasonable best efforts to cure such breach or inaccuracy (it being understood that the Company may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(d)(i) if such breach or inaccuracy by Parent is cured within such twenty (20) business day period);

(ii) at any time prior to the Company Stockholder Approval, if concurrently with such termination the Company enters into a definitive Company Acquisition Agreement providing for a Superior Proposal in accordance with Section 5.3(c); provided that prior thereto or concurrently therewith the Company shall have paid or caused to be paid the Termination Fee to Parent in accordance with Section 7.3 (and such termination of this Agreement by the Company shall not take effect unless and until the Termination Fee shall have been paid to Parent); or

(iii) if the Effective Time shall not have occurred on or before the date required pursuant to Section 1.2 due to Parent's or Merger Sub's failure to effect the Closing in breach of this Agreement, and at the time of such termination (treating such date of termination as if it were the Closing Date) the conditions set forth in Sections 6.1 and 6.2 (other than the delivery by the Company of the officer's certificate contemplated by Section 6.2(c)) have been satisfied or waived.

Section 7.2 Effect of Termination. In the event of the termination of this Agreement as provided in Section 7.1, written notice thereof shall be given to the other party or parties, specifying the provision hereof pursuant to which such termination is made, and this Agreement shall forthwith become null and void (other than the provisions of Sections 3.18, 5.6(b), 5.10, 7.2 and 7.3, and Article VIII, all of which shall survive termination of this Agreement), and there shall be no liability on the part of Parent, Merger Sub or the Company or their respective directors, officers and Affiliates, except (i) as provided in Section 7.3, and (ii) nothing shall relieve any party from liability for fraud or, subject to the limitations set forth in Section 7.3 and Section 8.8, any breach of this Agreement.

Section 7.3 Termination Fee.

(a) In the event that (A) (x) this Agreement is terminated by the Company or Parent pursuant to Section 7.1(b)(i) (and at the time of such termination a vote to obtain the Company Stockholder Approval has not been held) or Section 7.1(b)(iii), (y) prior to such termination, any Person or group (as defined in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act), other than Parent and its Subsidiaries, Affiliates and Representatives (on behalf of Parent), shall have publicly announced (and shall not have withdrawn) an intention (whether or not conditional or withdrawn) to make a Takeover Proposal or such Takeover Proposal has otherwise become publicly known and (z) the Company enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, a transaction contemplated by any Takeover Proposal within twelve (12) months of the date this Agreement is terminated, (B) this Agreement is terminated by Parent pursuant to Section 7.1(c)(iii) or (C) this Agreement is terminated by the Company pursuant to Section 7.1(d)(ii), then in any such event under clause (A), (B) or (C) of this Section 7.3(a), the Company shall pay to Parent a termination fee of $15,000,000 in cash (the Company Termination Fee). Any payment required to be made pursuant to clause (A) of this Section 7.3(a) shall be made to Parent promptly following the earlier of the execution of a definitive agreement with respect to, or the consummation of, any transaction contemplated by a Takeover

Proposal; any payment required to be made pursuant to clause (B) of this Section 7.3(a) shall be made to Parent promptly following (and in any event not later than two business days after) termination of this Agreement by Parent pursuant to such section; and any payment required to be made pursuant to clause (C) of this Section 7.3(a) shall be made to Parent prior to or simultaneously with (and as a condition to the effectiveness of) termination of this Agreement by the Company pursuant to Section 7.1(d)(ii). All such payments shall be made by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account to be designated by Parent.

(b) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by the Company pursuant to Section 7.1(d)(i) or 7.1(d)(iii), or by Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 7.1(b)(i) at a time when the Agreement could have been terminated by the Company pursuant to Section 7.1(d)(iii) then Parent shall pay to the Company a termination fee of $20,000,000 in cash (the Parent Termination Fee), it being understood that in no event shall Parent be required to pay the Parent Termination Fee on more than one (1) occasion. If the Parent Termination Fee becomes payable pursuant to this Section 7.3(b), it shall be paid no later than three (3) Business Days after the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(d)(i) or Section 7.1(d)(iii).

(c) In the event that the Company shall fail to pay the Termination Fee when due, or Parent shall fail to pay the Parent Termination Fee when due, as the case may be, such payment amount shall accrue interest for the period commencing on the date such payment amount became past due, at a rate equal to the rate of interest publicly announced by Citibank, in the City of New York from time to time during such period, as such bank's Prime Lending Rate. In addition, if either party shall fail to pay such payment amount when due, such party shall also pay to such other party all of such other party's costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) in connection with efforts to collect such payment amount. Each of the Company and Parent acknowledges that the payment amounts and the other provisions of this Section 7.3 are an integral part of the Transactions and that, without these agreements, neither the Company nor Parent would enter into this Agreement.

(d) If this agreement is terminated by the Company pursuant to Section 7.1(d)(i) or Section 7.1(d)(iii), the Company's right to receive payment of the Parent Termination Fee from Parent in respect thereof shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of the Company and its Affiliates against Parent or Merger Sub or any of their respective former, current or future stockholders, directors, officers, employees, representatives or Affiliates (collectively, the Parent Related Parties) for any loss suffered as a result of the failure of the Merger to be consummated or for a breach or failure to perform hereunder or otherwise (Company Damages) and upon payment of such amount none of the Parent Related Parties shall have any further liability or obligation relating to or arising out of this Agreement or the Transactions (except that Parent shall also be obligated with respect to Section 7.3(c)).

(e) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, (i) the maximum aggregate liability of Parent and Merger Sub for all Company Damages (inclusive of the Parent Termination Fee), shall be limited to an amount equal to the Parent Termination Fee plus any amounts that become due under Section 7.3(c) (the Parent Liability Limitation), and in no event shall the Company or any of its Affiliates seek (x) any Company Damage in excess of such amount, (y) any Company Damages in any amount if the Parent Termination Fee has been paid or (z) any other recovery, judgment, or damages of any kind, including equitable relief or consequential, indirect, or punitive damages, against Parent and Merger Sub or any other Parent Related Parties in connection with this Agreement or the Transactions and (ii) the Company acknowledges and agrees that it has no right of recovery against, and no personal liability shall attach to, in each case with respect to Company Damages, any of the Parent Related Parties, through Parent or otherwise, whether by or through attempted piercing of the corporate veil, by or through a claim by or on behalf of Parent against or any other Parent Related Party, by the enforcement of any assessment or by any legal or equitable proceeding, by virtue of any statute, regulation or applicable Law, or otherwise, except for its rights to recover the Parent Termination Fee or Company Damages subject to the Parent Liability Limitation, from Parent (but not any other Parent Related Party), in each case, subject to the Parent Liability Limitation and the other limitations described therein and herein. Subject to the limitations contained herein, recourse against Parent hereunder shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of the Company and its Affiliates against any other Parent Related Party in respect of any liabilities or obligations arising under, or in connection with, this Agreement or the Transactions.

ARTICLE VIII.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 8.1 Nonsurvival of Representations and Warranties. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the representations, warranties and agreements of each party hereto shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of any other party hereto, any Person controlling any such party or any of their officers, directors or Representatives, whether prior to or after the execution of this Agreement, and no information provided or made available shall be deemed to be disclosed in this Agreement or in the Company Disclosure Schedule, except to the extent actually set forth herein or therein. The representations, warranties and agreements in this Agreement shall terminate at the Effective Time or, except as otherwise provided in Section 7.2, upon the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1, as the case may be, except that the agreements set forth in Article II and Sections 5.8, 5.9, 5.10, 5.11 and 5.12 and any other agreement in this Agreement which contemplates performance after the Effective Time shall survive the Effective Time indefinitely and those set forth in Sections 3.18, 5.6(b), 5.10, 7.2 and 7.3 and this Article VIII shall survive termination indefinitely. The Confidentiality Agreement shall (i) survive termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms and (ii) terminate as of the Effective Time.

Section 8.2 Amendment or Supplement. At any time prior to the Effective Time, this Agreement may be amended or supplemented in any and all respects, whether before or after receipt of the Company Stockholder Approval, by written agreement of the parties hereto, by action taken by their respective Boards of Directors; provided, however, that following approval of the Transactions by the stockholders of the Company, there shall be no amendment or change to the provisions hereof which by Law would require further approval by the stockholders of the Company without such approval.

Section 8.3 Extension of Time, Waiver, Etc. At any time prior to the Effective Time, any party may, subject to applicable Law, (a) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of any other party hereto, (b) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or acts of any other party hereto or (c) waive compliance by the other party with any of the agreements contained herein or, except as otherwise provided herein, waive any of such party's conditions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no failure or delay by the Company, Parent or Merger Sub in exercising any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right hereunder. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party.

Section 8.4 Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder shall be assigned, in whole or in part, by operation of Law or otherwise, by any of the parties without the prior written consent of the other parties, except that Parent and/or Merger Sub may assign, in their sole discretion, any of or all their respective rights, interests and obligations under this Agreement to any Affiliate of Parent or to one or more financing sources for collateral purposes without the written consent of the Company, but no such assignment shall relieve Merger Sub of any of its obligations hereunder. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement shall be binding upon, inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Any purported assignment not permitted under this Section shall be null and void.

Section 8.5 Counterparts; Facsimile; Electronic Transmission. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (each of which shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement) and shall become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other parties. The exchange of copies of this Agreement and of signature pages by facsimile or electronic transmission shall constitute effective execution and delivery of this Agreement as to the parties and may be used in lieu of the original Agreement for all purposes. Signatures of the parties transmitted by facsimile or electronic transmission shall be deemed to be their original signatures for all purposes.

Section 8.6 Entire Agreement; No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement, the Company Disclosure Schedule and the Confidentiality Agreement (a) constitute the entire agreement, and supersede all other prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties, or any of them, with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof and (b) except for the provisions of Section 5.8, are not intended to and shall not confer upon any Person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies hereunder.

Section 8.7 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware applicable to contracts executed in and to be performed entirely within that State.

Section 8.8 Specific Enforcement. The parties agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed by the Company in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached and that money damages would not be an adequate remedy. It is accordingly agreed that Parent and Merger Sub shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement by the Company and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement in the Delaware Court of Chancery or, if subject matter jurisdiction in the such court is not available, in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware without bond or other security being required, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity. The parties further acknowledge that the Company shall not be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement by Parent or Merger Sub or to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement and that the Company's sole and exclusive remedy with respect to any such breach shall be the remedy available to the Company set forth in Section 7.3.

Section 8.9 Consent to Jurisdiction. All actions and proceedings arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any of the Transactions shall be heard and determined in the Delaware Court of Chancery or, if subject matter jurisdiction in the such court is not available, in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, and the parties hereto hereby irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts (and, in the case of appeals, appropriate appellate courts therefrom) in any such action or proceeding and irrevocably waive the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of any such action or proceeding. The consent to jurisdiction set forth in this paragraph shall not constitute general consent to service of process in the State of Delaware and shall have no effect for any purpose except as provided in this paragraph and shall not be deemed to confer rights on any Person other than the parties hereto. The parties hereto agree that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by applicable law.

Section 8.10 Notices. All notices, requests and other communications to any party hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed given if delivered personally, facsimiled (which is confirmed) or sent by overnight courier (providing proof of delivery) to the parties at the following addresses:

Section 8.11 Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any rule of law or public policy, all other terms, provisions and conditions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law in an acceptable manner to the end that the Transactions are fulfilled to the extent possible.

Section 8.12 Remedies. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, any and all remedies expressly conferred upon a party to this Agreement will be cumulative with, and not exclusive of, any other remedy contained in this Agreement, at law or in equity. The exercise by a party to this Agreement of any one remedy will not preclude the exercise by it of any other remedy.

FORM OF VOTING AGREEMENT

OFFICER AND DIRECTOR STOCKHOLDERS

THIS STOCKHOLDER VOTING AGREEMENT (this Agreement) is made and entered into as of August 10, 2008, by and among JDA Software Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Parent), i2 Technologies, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company) (only with respect to Section 2(b) hereof), and the undersigned stockholder (Stockholder) of the Company.

RECITALS

A. Concurrently with the execution and delivery hereof, Parent, Igloo Acquisition Corporation, a Delaware corporation and an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), and the Company are entering into an Agreement and Plan of Merger of even date herewith (as it may be amended or supplemented from time to time pursuant to the terms thereof, the Merger Agreement), which provides for the merger (the Merger) of Merger Sub with and into the Company in accordance with its terms (the Merger, Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby referred to collectively as the Proposed Transaction).

B. Stockholder has sole voting power over such number of shares of each class of capital stock of the Company beneficially owned (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act)) by Stockholder as is indicated on the signature page of this Agreement.

C. In consideration of the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement by Parent and Merger Sub, Stockholder desires to agree to vote the Shares (as defined herein) over which Stockholder has sole voting power so as to facilitate the consummation of the Merger.

NOW, THEREFORE, intending to be legally bound, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Certain Definitions.

(a) Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Merger Agreement. For all purposes of and under this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following respective meanings:

Consent shall mean any approval, consent, ratification, permission, waiver or authorization (including any: (a) permit, license, certificate, franchise, permission, variance, clearance, registration, qualification or authorization issued, granted, given or otherwise made available by or under the authority of any Governmental Authority or pursuant to any Legal Requirement; or (b) right under any Contract with any Governmental Authority).

Constructive Sale means with respect to any security, a short sale with respect to such security, entering into or acquiring an offsetting derivative contract with respect to such security, entering into or acquiring a futures or forward contract to deliver such security or entering into any other hedging or other derivative transaction that has the effect of either directly or indirectly materially reducing the economic benefits or risks of ownership.

Legal Requirement shall mean any federal, state, local, municipal, foreign or other law, statute, constitution, principle of common law, resolution, ordinance, code, edict, decree, rule, regulation, ruling or requirement issued, enacted, adopted, promulgated, implemented or otherwise put into effect by or under the authority of any Governmental Authority (or under the authority of The NASDAQ Stock Market).

Shares means (i) all outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company owned, beneficially or of record, by Stockholder as of the date hereof, and (ii) all additional outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company acquired by Stockholder, beneficially or of record, during the period commencing with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and expiring on the Expiration Date (as such term is defined in Section 7 below), in the case of each of clauses (i) and (ii) as to which (and only as to which) Stockholder has sole voting power; but in each case excluding shares of capital stock of the Company that, by virtue of Stockholder's ownership of options or other convertible securities, are deemed to be beneficially owned by Stockholder pursuant to Rules 13d-3(d)(1)(i)(A) or (B) prior to the time at which Stockholder exercises such options or other convertible securities and receives the underlying capital stock of the Company.

Transfer means, with respect to any security, the direct or indirect assignment, sale, transfer, tender, exchange, pledge, hypothecation, or the gift, placement in trust, or the Constructive Sale or other disposition of such security (excluding transfers: (i) by testamentary or intestate succession, (ii) otherwise by operation of law, or (iii) under any written trading plan adopted prior to the date of this Agreement under Rule 10b5-1 of the Exchange Act) or any right, title or interest therein (including, but not limited to, any right or power to vote to which the holder thereof may be entitled, whether such right or power is granted by proxy or otherwise), or the record or beneficial ownership thereof, and each agreement, arrangement or understanding, whether or not in writing, to effect any of the foregoing.

2. Transfer and Voting Restrictions.

(a) At all times during the period commencing with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and expiring on the Expiration Date, Stockholder shall not, except in connection with the Merger, Transfer any of the Shares, or enter into an agreement, commitment or other arrangement with respect thereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, Stockholder may Transfer any or all of the Shares (i) by will, or by operation of law, in which case this Agreement shall bind the transferee, or (ii) in connection with estate and charitable planning purposes, including Transfers to relatives, trusts and charitable organizations, so long as the transferee, prior to such Transfer executes a counterpart of this Agreement (with such modifications as Parent may reasonably request solely to reflect such transfer).

(b) Stockholder understands and agrees that if Stockholder attempts to Transfer, vote or provide any other person with the authority to vote any of the Shares other than in compliance with this Agreement, the Company shall not, and Stockholder hereby unconditionally and irrevocably instructs the Company to not, (i) permit any such Transfer on its books and records, (ii) issue a new certificate representing any of the Shares or (iii) record such vote, in each case, unless and until Stockholder shall have complied with the terms of this Agreement. Each stock certificate evidencing Shares that is issued in the name of Stockholder on or after the date of this Agreement shall bear a legend indicating that such Shares are subject to the terms of this Agreement and any transferee of the Shares evidenced by the stock certificate takes the Shares subject to the terms of this Agreement.

(c) Except as otherwise permitted by this Agreement or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction, each Stockholder will not commit any act that could restrict or affect such Stockholder's legal power, authority and right to vote all of the Shares then owned of record or beneficially by Stockholder or otherwise prevent or disable Stockholder from performing any of his obligations under this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, except for this Agreement and as otherwise permitted by this Agreement, each Stockholder will not enter into any voting agreement with any Person with respect to any of the Shares, grant any Person any proxy (revocable or irrevocable) or power of attorney with respect to any of the Shares, deposit any of the Shares in a voting trust or otherwise enter into any agreement or arrangement with any Person limiting or affecting Stockholder's legal power, authority or right to vote the Shares in favor of the approval of the Proposed Transaction.

3. Agreement to Vote Shares.

(a) Prior to the Expiration Date, at every meeting of the stockholders of the Company called, and at every adjournment or postponement thereof, and on every action or approval by written consent of the stockholders of the Company, Stockholder (in Stockholder's capacity as such) shall appear at the meeting or otherwise cause the Shares to be present thereat for purposes of establishing a quorum and, to the extent not voted by the Persons appointed as proxies pursuant to this Agreement, vote (i) in favor of approval of the Proposed Transaction, (ii) against the approval or adoption of any proposal made in opposition to, or in competition with, the Proposed Transaction, and (iii) against any of the following (to the extent unrelated to the Proposed Transaction): (A) any merger, consolidation or business combination involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries other than the Proposed Transaction; (B) any sale, lease or transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries; (C) any reorganization, recapitalization, dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Company or any of its subsidiaries; or (D) any other action that is intended, or could reasonably be expected, to otherwise impede, interfere with, delay, postpone, discourage or adversely affect the consummation of the Proposed Transaction.

(b) If Stockholder is the beneficial owner, but not the record holder, of the Shares, Stockholder agrees to take all actions necessary to cause the record holder and any nominees to vote all of the Shares in accordance with Section 3(a).

4. Grant of Irrevocable Proxy.

(a) Stockholder hereby irrevocably (to the fullest extent permitted by law) grants to, and appoints, Parent and each of its executive officers and any of them, in their capacities as officers of Parent (the Grantees), as Stockholder's proxy and attorney-in-fact (with full power of substitution and re-substitution), for and in the name, place and stead of Stockholder, to vote the Shares, to instruct nominees or record holders to vote the Shares, or grant a consent or approval or dissent or disapproval in respect of such Shares in accordance with Section 3 hereof and, in the discretion of the Grantees, with respect to any proposed adjournments or postponements of any meeting of stockholders of the Company at which any of the matters described in Section 3 hereof is to be considered.

(b) Stockholder represents that any proxies heretofore given in respect of the Shares that may still be in effect are not irrevocable, and such proxies are hereby revoked.

(c) Stockholder hereby affirms that the irrevocable proxy set forth in this Section 4 is given in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, and that such irrevocable proxy is given to secure the performance of the duties of Stockholder under this Agreement. Stockholder hereby further affirms that the irrevocable proxy is coupled with an interest and may under no circumstances be revoked. Stockholder hereby ratifies and confirms all that such irrevocable proxy may lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue hereof. Such irrevocable proxy is executed and intended to be irrevocable in accordance with the provisions of Section 212 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. Notwithstanding this Section 4(c), the proxy granted by Stockholder shall be revoked upon termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms.

(d) The Grantees may not exercise this irrevocable proxy on any other matter except as provided above. Stockholder shall retain at all times the right to vote the Shares in Stockholder's sole discretion and without any other limitation on all matters other than those set forth in Section 3 that are at any time or from time to time presented for consideration to the Company's stockholders generally.

(e) Parent may terminate this proxy with respect to Stockholder at any time at its sole election by written notice provided to Stockholder.

5. Action in Stockholder Capacity Only. Stockholder makes no agreement or understanding herein as a director or officer of the Company. Stockholder signs solely in Stockholder's capacity as a record holder and beneficial owner, as applicable, of Shares, and nothing in this Agreement shall (or shall require any Stockholder to attempt to) limit or restrict any Stockholder who is a director or officer of the Company from acting in such capacity (it being understood that this Agreement shall apply to Stockholder solely in Stockholder's capacity as a holder of the Shares).

6. Representations and Warranties of Stockholder.

(a) Stockholder hereby represents and warrants to Parent as follows: (i) Stockholder is the beneficial or record owner of the shares of capital stock of the Company indicated on the signature page of this Agreement free and clear of any and all pledges, liens, security interests, mortgage, claims, charges, restrictions, options, title defects or encumbrances, in each case that would impair or adversely affect Stockholder's ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement, other than those encumbrances which are in favor of the Company (provided Parent shall have been provided with copies of the relevant documentation related thereto); (ii) Stockholder does not beneficially own any securities of the Company other than the shares of capital stock and rights to purchase shares of capital stock of the Company set forth on the signature page of this Agreement; (iii) Stockholder has full power and authority to make, enter into and carry out the terms of this Agreement and to grant the irrevocable proxy as set forth in Section 4; and (iv) this Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by Stockholder and constitutes a valid and binding agreement of Stockholder enforceable against Stockholder in accordance with its terms, subject to the effect of (x) applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws now or hereafter in effect relating to rights of creditors generally and (y) rules of law and equity governing specific performance, injunctive relief and other equitable remedies. Stockholder agrees to notify Parent promptly of any additional shares of capital stock of the Company of which Stockholder becomes the beneficial owner after the date of this Agreement.

(b) As of the date hereof and for so long as this Agreement remains in effect (including as of the date of the Company Stockholders' Meeting, which, for purposes of this Agreement, includes any adjournment or postponement thereof), except for this Agreement or as otherwise permitted by this Agreement, Stockholder has full legal power, authority and right to vote all of the Shares then owned of record or beneficially by Stockholder, in favor of the approval and authorization of the Proposed Transaction without the consent or approval of, or any other action on the part of, any other Person (including, without limitation, any governmental entity). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Stockholder has not entered into any voting agreement (other than this Agreement) with any Person with respect to any of the Shares, granted any Person any proxy (revocable or irrevocable) or power of attorney with respect to any of the Shares, deposited any of the Shares in a voting trust or entered into any arrangement or agreement with any Person limiting or affecting Stockholder's legal power, authority or right to vote the Shares on any matter.

(c) The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the performance by Stockholder of Stockholder's agreements and obligations hereunder will not result in any breach or violation of or be in conflict with or constitute a default under any term of any agreement, judgment, injunction, order, decree, law, regulation or arrangement to which Stockholder is a party or by which Stockholder (or any of Stockholder's assets) is bound, except for any such breach, violation, conflict or default which, individually or in the aggregate, would not impair or adversely affect Stockholder's ability to perform Stockholder's obligations under this Agreement or render inaccurate any of the representations made by Stockholder herein.

(d) Stockholder understands and acknowledges that Parent, Merger Sub and the Company are entering into the Merger Agreement in reliance upon Stockholder's execution and delivery of this Agreement and the representations and warranties of Stockholder contained herein.

7. Termination. This Agreement shall terminate (a) upon the earlier of (i) the Effective Time and (ii) the termination of the Merger Agreement, or (b) at any time upon notice by Parent to Stockholder (such date under (a) or (b) hereof constituting the Expiration Date). No party hereto shall be relieved from any liability for breach of this Agreement by reason of any termination of this Agreement.

8. Confidentiality. Stockholder recognizes that successful consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement may be dependent upon confidentiality with respect to the matters referred to herein. In this connection, pending public disclosure thereof, and so that Parent and the Company may rely on the safe harbor provisions of Rule 100(b)(2)(ii) of Regulation FD, Stockholder hereby agrees not to disclose or discuss such matters with anyone not a party to this Agreement (other than its counsel and advisors, if any) without the prior written consent of Parent and the Company, except for disclosures Stockholder's counsel advises are necessary to fulfill any Legal Requirement, in which case Stockholder shall give notice of such disclosure to Parent and the Company as promptly as practicable so as to enable Parent and the Company to seek a protective order from a court of competent jurisdiction with respect thereto. Stockholder's obligations pursuant to this Section 8 shall terminate at the time of the first public announcement by Parent or the Company of the existence of this Agreement.

(e) WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH OF THE PARTIES IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHTS TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING BETWEEN THE PARTIES ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT.

(f) Assignment and Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and shall be enforceable by and inure solely to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns, including, without limitation, Stockholder's estate and heirs upon the death of Stockholder; provided, however, that neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations of the parties hereto may be assigned by any of the parties hereto without prior written consent of the other parties hereto except that Parent, without obtaining the consent of any other party hereto, shall be entitled to assign this Agreement or all or any of its rights or obligations hereunder to any one or more of its Affiliates. No assignment by Parent under this Section 9(f) shall relieve Parent of its obligations under this Agreement. Any attempted assignment of this Agreement in violation of the foregoing shall be void and of no effect.

Any provision of this Agreement held invalid or unenforceable only in part or degree will remain in full force and effect to the extent not held invalid or unenforceable.

(j) Specific Performance; Injunctive Relief. The parties hereto acknowledge that Parent and the Company will be irreparably damaged if any of the provisions of this Agreement are not performed in accordance with their specific terms and that any breach of this Agreement by Stockholder could not be adequately compensated in all cases by monetary damages alone. EXHIBIT A (CONTINUED)

FORM OF VOTING AGREEMENT

HOLDER OF SERIES B 2.5% CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK

THIS STOCKHOLDER VOTING AGREEMENT (this Agreement) is made and entered into as of August 10, 2008, by and among JDA Software Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Parent), i2 Technologies, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company) (only with respect to Section 2(b) hereof), and the undersigned stockholder (Stockholder) of the Company.

RECITALS

A. Concurrently with the execution and delivery hereof, Parent, Igloo Acquisition Corporation, a Delaware corporation and an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), and the Company are entering into an Agreement and Plan of Merger of even date herewith (as it may be amended or supplemented from time to time pursuant to the terms thereof, the Merger Agreement), which provides for the merger (the Merger) of Merger Sub with and into the Company in accordance with its terms (the Merger, Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby referred to collectively as the Proposed Transaction).

B. Stockholder has sole voting power over such number of shares of each class of capital stock of the Company beneficially owned (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act)) by Stockholder as is indicated on the signature page of this Agreement.

C. In consideration of the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement by Parent and Merger Sub, Stockholder desires to agree to vote the Shares (as defined herein) over which Stockholder has sole voting power so as to facilitate the consummation of the Merger.

Now, THEREFORE, intending to be legally bound, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Certain Definitions.

(a) Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Merger Agreement. For all purposes of and under this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following respective meanings:

Consent shall mean any approval, consent, ratification, permission, waiver or authorization (including any: (a) permit, license, certificate, franchise, permission, variance, clearance, registration, qualification or authorization issued, granted, given or otherwise made available by or under the authority of any Governmental Authority or pursuant to any Legal Requirement; or (b) right under any Contract with any Governmental Authority).

Legal Requirement shall mean any federal, state, local, municipal, foreign or other law, statute, constitution, principle of common law, resolution, ordinance, code, edict, decree, rule, regulation, ruling or requirement issued, enacted, adopted, promulgated, implemented or otherwise put into effect by or under the authority of any Governmental Authority (or under the authority of The NASDAQ Stock Market).

Person means any individual, corporation, limited or general partnership, limited liability company, limited liability partnership, trust, association, joint venture, governmental entity and other entity and group (which term will include a group as such term is defined in Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act).

Shares means (i) all outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company owned, beneficially or of record, by Stockholder as of the date hereof, and (ii) all additional outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company acquired by Stockholder, beneficially or of record, during the period commencing with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and expiring on the Expiration Date (as such term is defined in Section 7 below), in the case of each of clauses (i) and (ii) as to which (and only as to which) Stockholder has sole voting power; but in each case excluding shares of capital stock of the Company that, by virtue of Stockholder's ownership of options or other convertible securities, are deemed to be beneficially owned by Stockholder pursuant to Rules 13d-3(d)(1)(i)(A) or (B) prior to the time at which Stockholder exercises such options or other convertible securities and receives the underlying capital stock of the Company.

Transfer means, with respect to any security, the direct or indirect assignment, sale, transfer, tender, exchange, pledge, hypothecation, or the gift, placement in trust, or other disposition of such security (excluding transfers: (i) by testamentary or intestate succession, (ii) otherwise by operation of law, or (iii) under any written trading plan adopted prior to the date of this Agreement under Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) or any right, title or interest therein (including, but not limited to, any right or power to vote to which the holder thereof may be entitled, whether such right or power is granted by proxy or otherwise), or the record or beneficial ownership thereof, and each agreement, arrangement or understanding, whether or not in writing, to effect any of the foregoing.

2. Transfer and Voting Restrictions.

(a) At all times during the period commencing with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and expiring on the Expiration Date, Stockholder shall not, except in connection with the Merger, Transfer any of the Shares, or enter into an agreement, commitment or other arrangement with respect thereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, Stockholder may Transfer any or all of the Shares (i) by will, or by operation of law, in which case this Agreement shall bind the transferee, or (ii) in connection with estate and charitable planning purposes, including Transfers to relatives, trusts and charitable organizations, or (iii) to any other Person, so long as, in the case of the foregoing clauses (ii) and (iii), the transferee, prior to such Transfer executes a counterpart of this Agreement (with such modifications as Parent may reasonably request solely to reflect such transfer).

(b) Stockholder understands and agrees that if Stockholder attempts to Transfer, vote or provide any other person with the authority to vote any of the Shares other than in compliance with this Agreement, the Company shall not, and Stockholder hereby unconditionally and irrevocably instructs the Company to not, (i) permit any such Transfer on its books and records, (ii) issue a new certificate representing any of the Shares or (iii) record such vote, in each case, unless and until Stockholder shall have complied with the terms of this Agreement. Each stock certificate evidencing Shares that is issued in the name of Stockholder on or after the date of this Agreement shall bear a legend indicating that such Shares are subject to the terms of this Agreement and any transferee of the Shares evidenced by the stock certificate takes the Shares subject to the terms of this Agreement.

(c) Except as otherwise permitted by this Agreement or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction, each Stockholder will not commit any act that could restrict or affect such Stockholder's legal power, authority and right to vote all of the Shares then owned of record or beneficially by Stockholder or otherwise prevent or disable Stockholder from performing any of his obligations under this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, except for this Agreement and as otherwise permitted by this Agreement, each Stockholder will not enter into any voting agreement with any Person with respect to any of the Shares, grant any Person any proxy (revocable or irrevocable) or power of attorney with respect to any of the Shares, deposit any of the Shares in a voting trust or otherwise enter into any agreement or arrangement with any Person limiting or affecting Stockholder's legal power, authority or right to vote the Shares in favor of the approval of the Proposed Transaction.

3. Agreement to Vote Shares.

(a) Prior to the Expiration Date, at every meeting of the stockholders of the Company called, and at every adjournment or postponement thereof, and on every action or approval by written consent of the stockholders of the Company, Stockholder (in Stockholder's capacity as such) shall appear at the meeting or otherwise cause the Shares to be present thereat for purposes of establishing a quorum and, to the extent not voted by the Persons appointed as proxies pursuant to this Agreement, vote (i) in favor of approval of the

Proposed Transaction, (ii) against the approval or adoption of any proposal made in opposition to, or in competition with, the Proposed Transaction, and (iii) against any of the following (to the extent unrelated to the Proposed Transaction): (A) any merger, consolidation or business combination involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries other than the Proposed Transaction; (B) any sale, lease or transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries; (C) any reorganization, recapitalization, dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Company or any of its subsidiaries; or (D) any other action that is intended, or could reasonably be expected, to otherwise impede, interfere with, delay, postpone, discourage or adversely affect the consummation of the Proposed Transaction.

(b) If Stockholder is the beneficial owner, but not the record holder, of the Shares, Stockholder agrees to take all actions necessary to cause the record holder and any nominees to vote all of the Shares in accordance with Section 3(a).

4. Grant of Irrevocable Proxy.

(a) Stockholder hereby irrevocably (to the fullest extent permitted by law) grants to, and appoints, Parent and each of its executive officers and any of them, in their capacities as officers of Parent (the Grantees), as Stockholder's proxy and attorney-in-fact (with full power of substitution and re-substitution), for and in the name, place and stead of Stockholder, to vote the Shares, to instruct nominees or record holders to vote the Shares, or grant a consent or approval or dissent or disapproval in respect of such Shares in accordance with Section 3 hereof and, in the discretion of the Grantees, with respect to any proposed adjournments or postponements of any meeting of stockholders of the Company at which any of the matters described in Section 3 hereof is to be considered.

(b) Stockholder represents that any proxies heretofore given in respect of the Shares that may still be in effect are not irrevocable, and such proxies are hereby revoked.

(c) Stockholder hereby affirms that the irrevocable proxy set forth in this Section 4 is given in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, and that such irrevocable proxy is given to secure the performance of the duties of Stockholder under this Agreement. Stockholder hereby further affirms that the irrevocable proxy is coupled with an interest and may under no circumstances be revoked. Stockholder hereby ratifies and confirms all that such irrevocable proxy may lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue hereof. Such irrevocable proxy is executed and intended to be irrevocable in accordance with the provisions of Section 212 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. Notwithstanding this Section 4(c), the proxy granted by Stockholder shall be revoked upon termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms.

(d) The Grantees may not exercise this irrevocable proxy on any other matter except as provided above. Stockholder shall retain at all times the right to vote the Shares in Stockholder's sole discretion and without any other limitation on all matters other than those set forth in Section 3 that are at any time or from time to time presented for consideration to the Company's stockholders generally.

(e) Parent may terminate this proxy with respect to Stockholder at any time at its sole election by written notice provided to Stockholder.

5. Action in Stockholder Capacity Only. Stockholder makes no agreement or understanding herein as a director or officer of the Company. Stockholder signs solely in Stockholder's capacity as a record holder and beneficial owner, as applicable, of Shares, and nothing in this Agreement shall (or shall require any Stockholder to attempt to) limit or restrict any Stockholder who is a director or officer of the Company from acting in such capacity (it being understood that this Agreement shall apply to Stockholder solely in Stockholder's capacity as a holder of the Shares).

6. Representations and Warranties of Stockholder.

(a) Stockholder hereby represents and warrants to Parent as follows: (i) Stockholder is the beneficial or record owner of the shares of capital stock of the Company indicated on the signature page of this Agreement free and clear of any and all pledges, liens, security interests, mortgage, claims, charges, restrictions, options, title defects or encumbrances, in each case that would impair or adversely affect

Stockholder's ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement, other than those encumbrances which are in favor of the Company (provided Parent shall have been provided with copies of the relevant documentation related thereto); (ii) Stockholder does not beneficially own any securities of the Company other than the shares of capital stock and rights to purchase shares of capital stock of the Company set forth on the signature page of this Agreement; (iii) Stockholder has full power and authority to make, enter into and carry out the terms of this Agreement and to grant the irrevocable proxy as set forth in Section 4; and (iv) this Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by Stockholder and constitutes a valid and binding agreement of Stockholder enforceable against Stockholder in accordance with its terms, subject to the effect of (x) applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws now or hereafter in effect relating to rights of creditors generally and (y) rules of law and equity governing specific performance, injunctive relief and other equitable remedies. Stockholder agrees to notify Parent promptly of any additional shares of capital stock of the Company of which Stockholder becomes the beneficial owner after the date of this Agreement.

(b) As of the date hereof and for so long as this Agreement remains in effect (including as of the date of the Company Stockholders' Meeting, which, for purposes of this Agreement, includes any adjournment or postponement thereof), except for this Agreement or as otherwise permitted by this Agreement, Stockholder has full legal power, authority and right to vote all of the Shares then owned of record or beneficially by Stockholder, in favor of the approval and authorization of the Proposed Transaction without the consent or approval of, or any other action on the part of, any other Person (including, without limitation, any governmental entity). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Stockholder has not entered into any voting agreement (other than this Agreement) with any Person with respect to any of the Shares, granted any Person any proxy (revocable or irrevocable) or power of attorney with respect to any of the Shares, deposited any of the Shares in a voting trust or entered into any arrangement or agreement with any Person limiting or affecting Stockholder's legal power, authority or right to vote the Shares on any matter.

(c) The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the performance by Stockholder of Stockholder's agreements and obligations hereunder will not result in any breach or violation of or be in conflict with or constitute a default under any term of any agreement, judgment, injunction, order, decree, law, regulation or arrangement to which Stockholder is a party or by which Stockholder (or any of Stockholder's assets) is bound, except for any such breach, violation, conflict or default which, individually or in the aggregate, would not impair or adversely affect Stockholder's ability to perform Stockholder's obligations under this Agreement or render inaccurate any of the representations made by Stockholder herein.

(d) Stockholder understands and acknowledges that Parent, Merger Sub and the Company are entering into the Merger Agreement in reliance upon Stockholder's execution and delivery of this Agreement and the representations and warranties of Stockholder contained herein.

7. Termination. This Agreement shall terminate (a) upon the earlier of (i) the Effective Time and (ii) the termination of the Merger Agreement, (b) at any time upon notice by Parent to Stockholder or (iii) upon the amendment of the Merger Agreement without Stockholder's prior written consent (such date under (a), (b) or (c) hereof constituting the Expiration Date.) No party hereto shall be relieved from any liability for breach of this Agreement by reason of any termination of this Agreement.

8. Confidentiality. Stockholder recognizes that successful consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement may be dependent upon confidentiality with respect to the matters referred to herein. In this connection, pending public disclosure thereof, and so that Parent and the Company may rely on the safe harbor provisions of Rule 100(b)(2)(ii) of Regulation FD, Stockholder hereby agrees not to disclose or discuss such matters with anyone not a party to this Agreement (other than its counsel and advisors, if any) without the prior written consent of Parent and the Company, except for disclosures Stockholder's counsel advises are necessary to fulfill any Legal Requirement, in which case Stockholder shall give notice of such disclosure to Parent and the Company as promptly as practicable so as to enable Parent and the Company to seek a protective order from a court of competent jurisdiction with respect thereto. Stockholder's obligations pursuant to this Section 8 shall terminate at the time of the first public announcement by Parent or the Company of the existence of this Agreement.

Annex B

August 10, 2008

The Board of Directors

i2 Technologies, Inc.

11701 Luna Road

Dallas, TX 75234

Members of the Board of Directors:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of common stock, par value $0.00025 per share (the Company Common Stock), of i2 Technologies, Inc. (the Company) of the consideration to be paid to such holders in the proposed merger (the Transaction) of the Company with JDA Software Group, Inc., (the Acquiror). Pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of August 10, 2008 (the Agreement), among the Company and the Acquiror and its subsidiary, Iceberg Acquisition Corp. (the Merger Sub), the Company will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Acquiror, and each outstanding share of Company Common Stock, other than shares of Company Common Stock held in treasury or owned by the Acquiror and its affiliates, will be converted into the right to receive $14.86 per share in cash (the Consideration).

In arriving at our opinion, we have (i) reviewed a draft dated August 10, 2008 of the Agreement; (ii) reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information concerning the Company and the industries in which it operates; (iii) compared the proposed financial terms of the Transaction with the publicly available financial terms of certain transactions involving companies we deemed relevant and the consideration received for such companies; (iv) compared the financial and operating performance of the Company with publicly available information concerning certain other companies we deemed relevant and reviewed the current and historical market prices of the Company Common Stock and certain publicly traded securities of such other companies; (v) reviewed certain internal financial analyses and forecasts prepared by the management of the Company relating to its business; and (vi) performed such other financial studies and analyses and considered such other information as we deemed appropriate for the purposes of this opinion.

In addition, we have held discussions with certain members of the management of the Company with respect to certain aspects of the Transaction, and the past and current business operations of the Company, the financial condition and future prospects and operations of the Company, and certain other matters we believed necessary or appropriate to our inquiry.

In giving our opinion, we have relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all information that was publicly available or was furnished to or discussed with us by the Company or otherwise reviewed by or for us, and we have not independently verified (nor have we assumed responsibility or liability for independently verifying) any such information or its accuracy or completeness. We have not conducted or been provided with any valuation or appraisal of any assets or liabilities, nor have we evaluated the solvency of the Company or the Acquiror under any state or federal laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. In relying on financial analyses and forecasts provided to us or derived therefrom, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared based on assumptions reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments by management as to the expected future results of operations and financial condition of the Company to which such analyses or forecasts relate. We express no view as to such analyses or forecasts or the assumptions on which they were based. We have also assumed that the Transaction and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement will be consummated as described in the Agreement and that the definitive Agreement will not differ in any material respects from the draft thereof furnished to us. We have also assumed that the representations and warranties made by the Company, the Acquiror and the Merger Sub in the Agreement and the related agreements are and will be true and correct in all respects material to our analysis and that the Company will have no exposure under any indemnification obligations contained within the Agreement or the related agreements in any amount material to our analysis. We are not legal, regulatory or tax experts and have relied on the assessments made by advisors to the Company with respect to such issues. We have further assumed that all material governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Transaction will be obtained without any adverse effect on the Company or on the contemplated benefits of the Transaction.

Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. It should be understood that subsequent developments may affect this opinion and that we do not have any obligation to update, revise, or reaffirm this opinion. Our opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Consideration to be paid to the holders of the Company Common Stock in the proposed Transaction and we express no opinion as to the fairness of the Transaction to, or any consideration received in connection therewith by, the holders of any other class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of the Company or as to the underlying decision by the Company to engage in the Transaction. Furthermore, we express no opinion with respect to the amount or nature of any compensation to any officers, directors, or employees of any party to the Transaction, or any class of such persons relative to the Consideration to be received by the holders of the Company Common Stock in the Transaction or with respect to the fairness of any such compensation.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Company with respect to the proposed Transaction and will receive a fee from the Company for our services, a substantial portion of which will become payable if the proposed Transaction is consummated. In addition, the Company has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. During the two years preceding the date of this letter, neither we nor our affiliates have had any other significant financial advisory or other significant investment banking relationships with Company or the Acquiror. Our commercial banking affiliate is an agent bank and a lender under outstanding credit facilities of the Company, for which it receives customary compensation or other financial benefits. In addition, Highbridge International LLC (Highbridge), a private fund managed by Highbridge Capital Management, LLC, a majority-owned affiliate of J.P. Morgan Securities Inc., holds approximately $57,646,000 aggregate principal amount of the Company's $86,250,000 outstanding 5% Senior Convertible Notes due 2015 (the Notes) and warrants to acquire 242,444 shares of Company Common Stock (the Warrants). In connection with the proposed Transaction, Highbridge has entered into an agreement with the Company pursuant to which Highbridge will surrender the Notes, waive or agree to amend certain covenants of the indenture under which the Notes were issued (the Indenture) and sell its Warrants to the Company. In exchange, Highbridge will receive, in cash, amounts to which it is entitled pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Indenture and the Warrants and a fee of approximately $5 million. In the ordinary course of our businesses, we and our affiliates may actively trade the debt and equity securities of the Company or the Acquiror for our own account or for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, we may at any time hold long or short positions in such securities.

DELAWARE GENERAL CORPORATION LAW

SECTION 262. Appraisal rights.

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to § 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a stock corporation and also a member of record of a nonstock corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words and also membership or membership interest of a member of a nonstock corporation; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in one or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to § 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to § 251(g) of this title), § 252, § 254, § 257, § 258, § 263 or § 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in subsection (f) of § 251 of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§ 251, 252, 254, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

- a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;
- b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;
- c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a. and b. of this paragraph; or
- d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a., b. and c. of this paragraph.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under § 253 of this title is not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

Table of Contents

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for such meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) hereof that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228 or § 253 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) of this section hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may commence an appraisal proceeding by filing a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) of this section hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) of this section hereof, whichever is later. Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section, a person who is the beneficial owner of shares of such stock held either in a voting trust or by a nominee on behalf of such person may, in such person's own name, file a petition or request from the corporation the statement described in this subsection.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After the Court determines the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the appraisal proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the Court of Chancery, including any rules specifically governing appraisal proceedings. Through such proceeding the Court shall determine the fair value of the shares exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. Unless the Court in its discretion determines otherwise for good cause shown, interest from the effective date of the merger through the date of payment of the judgment shall be compounded quarterly and shall accrue at 5% over the Federal Reserve discount rate (including any surcharge) as established from time to time during the period between the effective date of the merger and the date of payment of the judgment. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholders entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and in the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just; provided, however that this provision shall not affect the right of any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, as set forth in subsection (e) of this section.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.
