Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On November 25, 2008, Citadel Broadcasting Corporation (the Company) received notice from NYSE Regulation, Inc. (NYSE Regulation) that the Company has fallen below the continued listing criteria of the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE) related to minimum average market capitalization. Section 802.01B of the NYSE's Listed Company Manual (the Listed Company Manual) requires that a company's average global market capitalization be more than $75 million over a consecutive 30 trading-day period.

As previously disclosed by the Company in its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2008, the Company has also fallen below the continued listing standard under Section 802.01C of the Listed Company Manual requiring a listed common stock to maintain a minimum average closing price of $1.00 per share over a consecutive 30 trading-day period.

In accordance with Section 802.02 of the Listed Company Manual, the Company intends to submit a plan within 45 days of receiving notice from NYSE Regulation that demonstrates the Company's ability to regain compliance with the average global market capitalization standard within 18 months from receipt of the notice from NYSE Regulation. The Listings and Compliance Committee of the NYSE will either accept the plan, at which time the Company will be subject to quarterly monitoring for compliance with the plan, or the Listings and Compliance Committee of the NYSE will not accept the plan and the Company will be subject to suspension and delisting procedures. Should the Listings and Compliance Committee of the NYSE accept the plan, during the 18-month period and subject to compliance with the NYSE's other continued listing standards, the Company's common stock will continue to be listed on the NYSE. Although the Company intends to cure its deficiency and to return to compliance with the NYSE continued listing requirements, there can be no assurance that it will be able to do so.

As required by Section 802.02 of the Listed Company Manual, the Company issued a press release related to the matter described herein. The press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
