Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On May 21, 2009, Andrew J. Tavi informed the Board of Directors (the Board) of Noble International, Ltd. (the Company) that, effective June 1, 2009, he is resigning as Chief Executive Officer, General Counsel and Secretary of the Company to take another position of employment.

On May 22, 2009, the Board appointed Richard P. McCracken, 61, to serve as Chief Executive Officer upon the effectiveness of Mr. Tavi's resignation. Mr. McCracken is, and will continue to serve as, a director and the Chairman of the Board. He will receive an annual salary of $400,000 but will not receive any additional fees as a member of the Board.

Mr. McCracken has served as a director and the Chairman of the Board since 2008. He has been a private consultant specializing in divestitures, acquisitions and operating efficiencies since 2004. From 2000 until 2004 Mr. McCracken served as Alcoa's vice president of finance in the packaging, consumer and distribution group. He also served as a director of Integris Metals, a business venture between Alcoa's and BHP Billiton's metal distribution companies. During his tenure as vice president of Finance at Alcoa, Mr. McCracken provided financial, IT and strategic leadership and direction to seven business units with an excess of 100 operating locations, average revenues over $4 billion and cash flow in excess of $300 million.
