State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

General Motors Company (the Company) is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009 (the 2009 Form 10-K) by March 31, 2010, as the Company is still finalizing its fresh-start adjustments required by generally accepted accounting principles relating to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed from General Motors Corporation (Old GM) in connection with Old GM's sale of assets under Section 363 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (the 363 Sale) prior to such date. Due to the size of the Company, the global application of fresh-start reporting and the associated determination of the fair value of its assets and liabilities is a significant undertaking, which requires extra time. Accordingly, the Company is unable to file the 2009 Form 10-K on March 31, 2010.

If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes No

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company was originally formed by the United States Department of the Treasury in 2009 and the 2009 Form 10-K will include financial statements for the Company at and for the period from July 10, 2009 (the date of completion of the 363 Sale) through December 31, 2009, and for no other periods for the Company. Pursuant to an agreement with the SEC Staff, as described in a no-action letter issued to Old GM by the SEC Staff on July 9, 2009 regarding the Company's filing requirements and those of Old GM, the 2009 Form 10-K will include financial statements for Old GM (which operated the business of the Company and is the Company's predecessor entity solely for accounting and financial reporting purposes) at December 31, 2008 and for the period from January 1, 2009 through July 9, 2009 and for the years ended December 31, 2008 and 2007. Because the Company is a new reporting entity, our financial statements will not be comparable to the financial statements of Old GM.
