This Amendment No. 4 to the Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO (this Amendment ), filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on July 21, 2010, amends and supplements the Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO filed on June 25, 2010 (the Schedule TO ) and relates to a tender offer by Covidien DE Corp., a Delaware corporation (the Offeror ) and a wholly owned subsidiary of United States Surgical Corporation, a Delaware corporation ( Parent ), to purchase all of the outstanding Common Shares, par value $0.01 per share (the Shares ), of Somanetics Corporation, a Michigan corporation (the Company ), at a purchase price of $25.00 per Share, net to the seller in cash, without interest thereon, less any applicable withholding taxes, and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offer to Purchase for Cash dated June 25, 2010 (the Offer to Purchase ) and in the related Letter of Transmittal (the Letter of Transmittal which, together with the Offer to Purchase, as each may be amended and supplemented from time to time, constitute the Offer ). This Amendment is being filed on behalf of the Offeror and Parent.

The information set forth in the Offer to Purchase and the Letter of Transmittal, copies of which are filed with the Schedule TO as Exhibits (a)(1)(A) and (a)(1)(B), respectively, is incorporated by reference in answers to Items 1 through 9 and Item 11 of the Schedule TO, and is supplemented by the information specifically provided herein.

ITEM 11. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Item 11 of the Schedule TO is hereby amended and supplemented by replacing the first paragraph added to that Item in Amendment No. 1 and the first paragraph added to that Item in Amendment No. 3 with the following text:

On June 30, 2010, a plaintiff filed a purported shareholder class action complaint in the Sixth Judicial Circuit Court for the State of Michigan, Oakland County (the Michigan Action ). The complaint, captioned Stanley Manne v. Somanetics Corporation, et al., names as defendants the Company and the members of the Company's board of directors, as well as Parent, the Offeror and Covidien plc. The plaintiff claims that the Company's directors breached their fiduciary duties to the Company's shareholders. The plaintiff further claims that Parent, the Offeror and Covidien plc have aided and abetted the purported breach of fiduciary duties. In support of the plaintiff's claims, the complaint alleges that the proposed transaction between the Company, Parent and the Offeror involves inadequate disclosure and inadequate consideration. The complaint seeks injunctive relief, the imposition of a constructive trust in favor of plaintiff and the awarding of attorneys' and experts' fees.

On July 15, 2010, a plaintiff filed a purported shareholder class action complaint in the United States District Court, Eastern District of Michigan (the Federal Action ). The complaint, captioned Maryellen Farrelly v. Bruce Barrett, et al., names as defendants the Company and the members of the Company's board of directors, as well as Parent and the Offeror. The plaintiff claims that the Company's directors breached their fiduciary duties to the Company's shareholders. The plaintiff further claims that Parent, the Offeror and the Company have aided and abetted the purported breach of fiduciary duties. In support of the plaintiff's claims, the complaint alleges that the proposed transaction between the Company, Parent and the Offeror involves inadequate disclosure and inadequate consideration. The complaint seeks injunctive relief and the awarding of attorneys' and experts' fees.

While the defendants believe that both the Michigan Action and the Federal Action (together, the Court Actions ) are entirely without merit and that they have valid defenses to all claims, in an effort to minimize cost and expense of litigation arising in connection with the Court Actions, on July 21, 2010, the parties to the Court Actions reached an agreement in principle to settle all claims asserted therein. In connection with this agreement, the Company agreed to amend the Schedule 14D-9, previously filed with the SEC, to include certain supplemental disclosures, in addition to certain other terms to be agreed upon by the parties. The settlement is subject to, among other things, confirmatory discovery, the execution of one or more stipulations of settlement and court approval. Subject to further definitive documentation and upon court approval, the defendants will be released by the plaintiffs and all members of the relevant class of Company shareholders from all claims arising out of the Offer, the Merger and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. The settlement, including the payment by the Company or any successor thereto of attorneys' fees, is also contingent upon, among other things, the Merger becoming effective under applicable law. In the event that the settlement is not approved and such conditions are not satisfied, the defendants will continue to vigorously defend both the Court Actions.
