On November 8, 2010, Barnes & Noble, Inc. sent the following letter to shareholders:

November 8, 2010

Dear Shareholder:

Barnes & Noble's Special Meeting will be held in less than two weeks, and your continued support for the Company's Shareholder Rights Plan is extremely important. The Rights Plan protects your investment by preventing one or more individuals from gaining control of your company without offering you full value for your shares.

LEADING PROXY ADVISORY FIRMS ALL RECOMMEND RATIFICATION OF RIGHTS PLAN

All three of the nation's leading proxy advisory firms—ISS, Glass Lewis and Proxy Governance—have recommended that Barnes & Noble shareholders vote FOR ratification of the Rights Plan. These firms considered the Board's reasons for adopting the Rights Plan, the protections offered by the Rights Plan, and the potential threat the Company could face without it, and concluded that the Rights Plan is a benefit that will serve the best interests of shareholders.

In making its recommendations in support of the Company's Rights Plan, ISS concluded the following:

The pill has a reasonable threshold and term, does not limit the ability of a future board to redeem the pill, and was implemented in response to a specific threat. (ISS Report, November 4, 2010, p. 5)

Glass Lewis also supported the Board's adoption of the Rights Plan, stating:

The board appears to have acted with good faith with the adoption of a Rights Agreement and to have demonstrated a proper process in reaching its decision. (Glass Lewis Report, November 1, 2010, p. 7)

In its report, Proxy Governance said:

we believe it is in shareholders' interest to maintain the pill at this time given the ongoing strategic review process; the pill supports a well-structured sale process, safeguarding shareholders from opportunistic offers. (Proxy Governance Report, November 5, 2010, page 5)

PROTECT YOUR INVESTMENT BY VOTING FOR RATIFICATION OF THE RIGHTS PLAN ON THE WHITE PROXY CARD TODAY

Your vote is important—no matter how many shares you own. The Board recommends that you use the enclosed WHITE proxy card to vote FOR ratification of the Rights Plan by telephone or Internet, or by signing, dating and returning the WHITE proxy card today in the postage-paid envelope provided.

A Special Committee of your Board of Directors is currently conducting a review of strategic alternatives, and that makes your support for the Rights Plan more important than ever. As part of this review, the Special Committee is looking at ways to enhance shareholder value, including soliciting offers for a potential sale of the Company. The Rights Plan protects the strategic review process by encouraging potential acquirors to work within the Special Committee's process and negotiate a transaction that is in the best interests of the Company and all of its shareholders.

We appreciate your continued support,

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF BARNES & NOBLE
