Item 5.02. Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On November 12, 2010, the Board of Directors amended and restated the CDW Senior Management Incentive Plan (the Senior Management Plan). The Senior Management Plan is intended to provide incentives to participants in the plan and thereby advance the interests of the Company by attracting and retaining senior officers and managers of the Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates and motivating such persons to act in the best interests of the Company s equityholders. Participants in the Senior Management Plan shall consist of such senior officers and managers of the Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates, as the Compensation Committee may select from time to time. The Compensation Committee will be responsible for interpreting, construing and administering the Senior Management Plan.

The Compensation Committee will have the discretion under the Senior Management Plan to award quarterly incentive awards and annual incentive awards (collectively, the Incentive Awards) to participants. The payment of Incentive Awards will be subject to the satisfaction of certain performance measures for each performance period, and other terms and conditions that may be established by the Compensation Committee. Performance measures may include or be based on one or more of the following: operating income, net income, EBITDA, earnings per share, the price of a share of Common Stock, return to stockholders (including dividends), return on equity, return on assets, revenues, market share, cash flow, cost reduction goals or contribution margin, or any combination of the foregoing.

If the Compensation Committee determines that the performance measure or performance measures applicable to an Incentive Award have been satisfied, the holder of the award will be entitled to a cash payment under the plan. All determinations regarding whether a performance measure has been satisfied, and all other decisions relating to the payment of an Incentive Award, will be within the sole discretion of the Compensation Committee.

The foregoing description of the Senior Management Plan is qualified in its entirety by reference to the plan document, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Form 8-K and incorporated herein.
