Executive Changes.

On February 8, 2011, Prudential Financial, Inc. (the Company) announced that Bernard B. Winograd will retire as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer with primary responsibility for the Company's U.S. Businesses effective February 11, 2011. It is expected that Mr. Winograd will leave the Company during the second quarter of 2011.

On February 8, 2011, the Company appointed Charles F. Lowrey, 53, as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer with primary responsibility for the Company's U.S. Businesses, to succeed Mr. Winograd.

Mr. Lowrey was elected a Senior Vice President of the Company and became President and Chief Executive Officer of Prudential Investment Management (PIM), the Company's investment management business, in January, 2008. Previously, Mr. Lowrey was Chief Executive Officer of Prudential Real Estate Investors, the Company's real estate investment management and advisory business. He joined the Company in March 2001. Before joining the Company, he was a Managing Director and Head of the Americas for J.P. Morgan's Real Estate and Lodging Investment Banking group. Prior to joining J.P. Morgan, Mr. Lowrey was a managing partner of an architecture and development firm he founded in New York City. During that time, he became a registered New York architect. Lowrey received an MBA degree from Harvard University, an MA degree in architecture from Yale University, and an AB degree in architecture from Princeton University.

Mr. Lowrey will receive an annual salary of $550,000. Mr. Lowrey will also continue to participate in the compensation plans and arrangements applicable to senior officers of the Company, including the 2011 Mid-Term Incentive Program and 2011 Long-Term Incentive Program.

A copy of the Company's news release, dated February 8, 2011, announcing the retirement of Mr. Winograd and the appointment of Mr. Lowrey is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
