In respect of the description of the shareholder litigation contained in the Offer Document as well as the description of the treatment of Deutsche Börse shares as components of the DAX and the STOXX indices contained in the Offer Document the following is published:

Settlement of Shareholder Litigation / Index membership of Deutsche Börse shares

Settlement of Shareholder Litigation

Following the announcement of the business combination agreement between NYSE Euronext (NYSE Euronext), Deutsche Börse AG (Deutsche Börse), Alpha Beta Netherlands Holding N.V., a public limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the Netherlands (Holdco), and Pomme Merger Corporation, a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Holdco (Merger Sub) pursuant to which NYSE Euronext and Deutsche Börse AG agreed to combine their respective businesses and become subsidiaries of Holdco (the combination) on February 15, 2011, several complaints were filed in the Delaware Court of Chancery (the Delaware Court); the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of New York (the New York Court); and the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York (the SDNY), each challenging the proposed combination. The Delaware cases were subsequently consolidated under the caption In re NYSE Euronext Shareholders Litigation, Consol. C.A. No. 6220-VCS (the Delaware action). The New York Court cases were coordinated, and a Master File was created, under the caption In re NYSE Euronext Shareholders Litigation, Index No. 773000/11 (the New York action) and together with the Delaware action, the actions). The actions were brought as putative class actions on behalf of shareholders of NYSE Euronext and variously name as defendants NYSE Euronext, its directors at the time of the announcement of the combination (together with NYSE Euronext, the NYSE Euronext defendants), Deutsche Börse, Merger Sub and Holdco, and allege that the individual defendants breached their fiduciary duties in connection with their consideration and approval of the combination and that the entity defendants aided and abetted those breaches. On May 26, 2011, plaintiffs in the actions filed a motion in the Delaware Court seeking a preliminary injunction enjoining the scheduled July 7, 2011 NYSE Euronext shareholder vote on the combination.

On June 16, 2011, the plaintiffs in the actions, the NYSE Euronext defendants, Deutsche Börse and Holdco entered into a memorandum of understanding (MOU) setting forth their agreement in principal regarding a proposed settlement of all claims asserted in the actions. As part of the settlement, the NYSE Euronext defendants acknowledged that the pendency and prosecution of the actions were a factor in the NYSE Euronext board of directors decision to support management s recommendation that Holdco declare a special dividend and consequently provide appraisal rights. Additionally, in the MOU, Holdco acknowledged its intent to recommend to the Holdco board of directors that following the completion of the combination Holdco act upon the recommendations of the boards of directors of NYSE Euronext and Deutsche Börse that Holdco issue the special dividend subject to the approval of the Holdco board of directors, consistent with its fiduciary duties. As part of the settlement, the parties agreed to seek to remove or withdraw any pending requests for interim relief, specifically including plaintiffs motion for a preliminary injunction in the Delaware action.

The settlement is contingent upon, among other items, the execution of a formal stipulation of settlement, Delaware Court approval following notice to the class, final dismissal of the actions with prejudice, and the completion of the combination. If Holdco were to fail to pay the special dividend, for any reason, the parties would have the option to terminate the settlement. If the settlement is consummated, it would release all claims that the plaintiffs and all members of the class may have arising out of or relating in any manner to the combination, as described in the MOU, including the federal action pending in SDNY.

Decision made on treatment of Deutsche Börse shares as components of DAX and STOXX indices in context of planned merger with NYSE Euronext

The Working Committee for Equity Indices decided to replace the Deutsche Börse share (ISIN DE0005810055) with the tendered Deutsche Börse share (ISIN DE000A1KRND6) with two trading days notice, provided an acceptance threshold of at least 50 percent is reached by the end of the initial acceptance period (i.e., on 13 July 2011) or at any time during the additional acceptance period. Once the 50% threshold is achieved the then larger share class is included in the DAX in accordance with the index rulebook. If the tendered Deutsche Börse share is still an index member after closing or discontinuation of the transaction, the tendered Deutsche Börse share will be replaced by the Alpha Beta Netherlands Holdings N.V. share (ISIN NL0009766997) or the Deutsche Börse share (ISIN DE0005810055), respectively, provided that, in the case of the closing of the transaction, the Alpha Beta Netherlands Holdings N.V. share fulfils the criteria for inclusion in the DAX. Deutsche Börse stated that it will follow the independent decision of the Working Committee for Equity Indices and will implement the adjustments as decided.

The Deutsche Börse share (ISIN DE0005810055) will be replaced in STOXX indices by the tendered Deutsche Börse share (ISIN DE000A1KRND6) with two trading days notice, provided an acceptance threshold of at least 75 percent is reached by 13 July 2011 or at any time during the additional acceptance period. The new free float market capitalisation will reflect the reached acceptance level. If the tendered Deutsche Börse share is still an index member, after closing or discontinuation of the transaction, the tendered Deutsche Börse share will be replaced by the Alpha Beta Netherlands Holdings N.V. share (ISIN NL0009766997) or the Deutsche Börse share (ISIN DE0005810055), respectively, provided that, in the case of the closing of the transaction, the Alpha Beta Netherlands Holdings N.V. share fulfils the criteria for inclusion in the STOXX indices.

With an increasing number of Deutsche Börse shares being tendered until 13 July 2011, there is a strong probability that the liquidity of the untendered Deutsche Börse shares (ISIN DE0005810055) will be significantly lower than the liquidity of the tendered Deutsche Börse shares (ISIN DE000A1KRND6).
