Section 5 Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02. Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On March 8, 2012, KeyCorp (Key) entered into change of control agreements with its named executive officers, which amend and supersede Key's previous change of control agreements with such officers. A form of the agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference (hereinafter the form of agreement is referred to as the Agreement).

Under the Agreement, change of control benefits become payable only when there has been (i) a change of control, and (ii) the executive's employment with Key is terminated within the two-year period following the change of control. An executive may voluntarily terminate his or her employment with Key during this 2-year period, but only under conditions that constitute a good reason termination as that term is defined in accordance with the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Agreement contains clawback provisions that require either the forfeiture or repayment of payments and benefits provided to the executive under the Agreement if the executive engages in any Harmful Activity within 12 months following his or her termination from Key.
