Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 28, 2012, the Registrant's wholly owned subsidiary Endo Pharmaceuticals Inc. ( Endo ) entered into a Settlement and License Agreement (the Settlement Agreement ) among Endo, Teikoku Pharma USA, Inc. ( TPU ), Teikoku Seiyaku Co., Ltd. ( TSC ) and together with TPU, Teikoku on the one hand, and Watson Laboratories, Inc. ( Watson ), on the other hand. The Settlement Agreement settles all ongoing patent litigation among the parties relating to Watson's generic version of Lidoderm. Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the parties dismissed their respective claims and counterclaims without prejudice.

As part of the settlement, Watson agreed not to challenge the validity or enforceability of Endo's and Teikoku's patents relating to Lidoderm (collectively, the Lidoderm Patents ) with respect to Watson's generic version of Lidoderm. Watson also agreed not to sell its generic version of Lidoderm until it receives approval of the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (the FDA ) and in any event no sooner than September 15, 2013, except in limited specific circumstances (such date being the Start Date ). Endo and Teikoku agreed to grant Watson a license under the Lidoderm Patents permitting the sale of generic Lidoderm upon the Start Date in the United States, including its territories, possessions and Puerto Rico (the Territory ). The license to Watson is exclusive as to Endo's launch of an authorized generic version of Lidoderm until the earlier of 1) the introduction of a generic version of Lidoderm by a company other than Watson, or 2) seven and a half months after Watson launches its generic version of Lidoderm. Endo will receive a 25% royalty of Watson's gross profit of its generic version of Lidoderm during any period during which Watson is the exclusive generic on the market.

Additionally, the Settlement Agreement provides that Endo and Teikoku will provide, at no cost, to Watson's wholesaler affiliate branded Lidoderm product for Watson's wholesaler affiliate's distribution, subject to certain terms and conditions as follows:

Beginning on January 1, 2013 through August 1, 2013, Endo and Teikoku will provide branded Lidoderm of value totaling $12 million (valued at the then-prevailing wholesale acquisition cost) each month. The obligation of Endo and Teikoku to provide this branded product at no cost terminates immediately upon the launch of a third party's generic version of Lidoderm in the Territory.

In the event Watson does not receive final FDA approval of its generic version of Lidoderm by January 1, 2014, then beginning on January 1, 2014 through December 1, 2014, Endo and Teikoku will provide branded Lidoderm product of value totaling $6.7 million (valued at the then-prevailing wholesale acquisition cost) each month. The obligation of Endo and Teikoku to provide this branded product at no cost terminates immediately upon the earlier of (a) the final approval of FDA of Watson's generic product or (b) the launch of a third party's generic version of Lidoderm in the Territory.

In the event Watson does not receive final FDA approval of its generic version of Lidoderm by January 1, 2015, then beginning on January 1, 2015 through September 1, 2015, Endo and Teikoku will provide branded Lidoderm product of value totaling $7.1 million (valued at the then-prevailing wholesale acquisition cost) each month. The obligation of Endo and Teikoku to provide this branded product at no cost terminates immediately upon the earlier of (a) the final approval of FDA of Watson's generic product or (b) the launch of a third party's generic version of Lidoderm in the Territory.

The company expects to take a charge in reported earnings in the second quarter of 2012, which could be material, primarily related to the fair value on a probability adjusted basis of branded Lidoderm product to be provided to Watson under the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Settlement Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety to the full text of the Settlement Agreement, which is filed as an exhibit to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 10.1.
