Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 28, 2012, Teledyne Technologies Incorporated ( "Teledyne" ), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement" ) with LeCroy Corporation ( "LeCroy" ), and Luna Merger Sub, Inc., a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Teledyne ( "Merger Sub" ). The Merger Agreement provides for the acquisition of LeCroy by Teledyne by means of a merger of the Merger Sub with and into LeCroy, with LeCroy being the surviving corporation. As a result of the Merger, LeCroy would become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Teledyne (the "Merger" ).

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time and as a result of the Merger:

Each share of LeCroy common stock (other than those shares owned by LeCroy and with respect to which appraisal rights are properly exercised and not withdrawn), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, will be converted into the right to receive a cash amount of $14.30 per share, without interest;

Each LeCroy vested or unvested stock option, stock appreciation right or other similar equity award outstanding at the effective time of the Merger (each a "LeCroy Stock Right" ), will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive a cash payment (less any applicable withholding) equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the total number of shares of LeCroy common stock subject to such LeCroy Stock Rights or to which such rights relate immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger by (y) the excess, if any, of $14.30 over the per share exercise price, strike price or (in the case of stock appreciation rights) base price, as the case may be, of such LeCroy Stock Right; and

Other LeCroy stock-based awards outstanding at the effective time of the Merger (whether vested or unvested) generally will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive a cash amount of $14.30 per share (less any applicable withholding), without interest.

The anticipated aggregate consideration to be paid by Teledyne to consummate the Merger is approximately $291 million taking into account LeCroy's stock options, stock appreciation rights and net debt as of March 31, 2012.

The closing of the transaction is subject to LeCroy stockholder approval, regulatory clearance under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 and the applicable merger control laws of certain foreign jurisdictions, and other customary closing conditions.

LeCroy and Teledyne have made certain customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including, among others, covenants that, subject to certain exceptions, (i) LeCroy will conduct its business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice, and refrain from taking specified actions, during the period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the effective time of the Merger, (ii) the Board of Directors of LeCroy will recommend to its stockholders adoption of the Merger Agreement, and (iii) LeCroy will not solicit, initiate, or knowingly encourage or facilitate, any inquiry or proposal from, furnish non-public information to, participate in any discussions with, or enter into any agreement with, any person or group regarding any alternative transaction, or approve, endorse or recommend any such alternative transaction. The completion of the merger is not subject to a financing condition.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Teledyne and LeCroy and further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, LeCroy may be obligated to pay Teledyne a termination fee of $10.5 million. In certain circumstances, LeCroy may also be required to reimburse Teledyne for documented out of pocket fees and expenses not to exceed $1 million.

The Boards of Directors of Teledyne and LeCroy have approved the Merger and the Merger Agreement. In addition, concurrently with the execution of the Merger Agreement, all directors and certain executive officers of LeCroy, who together currently hold approximately 5% of LeCroy's outstanding common stock have entered into stockholder agreements with Teledyne whereby they agree, among other things, to vote all shares of LeCroy common stock held by them in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement. As a condition to Teledyne's willingness to enter into the Merger Agreement, certain key employees of LeCroy have entered into 3-year non-compete agreements that will be effective upon closing of the Merger.

A copy of the Merger Agreement is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Report and is incorporated herein by reference. We encourage you to read the Merger Agreement for a more complete understanding of the transaction. The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement.
