GENERAL INFORMATION

This Proxy Statement is furnished to holders of common stock, $1.25 par value per share (Common Stock), of First National Corporation (the Company) in connection with the solicitation of proxies on behalf of the Company by the Board of Directors (the Board) of the Company to be used at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on May 14, 2013 at 10:00 a.m. at Holiday Inn and Suites at Blue Ridge Shadows Resort, 111 Hospitality Drive, Front Royal, Virginia, and any adjournment thereof (the Annual Meeting).

The principal executive offices of the Company are located at 112 West King Street, Strasburg, Virginia 22657. The approximate date on which this Proxy Statement, the accompanying proxy card and Annual Report to Shareholders (which is not part of the Company s soliciting materials) are being mailed to the Company s shareholders is April 5, 2013. The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company.

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on March 22, 2013 (the Record Date) will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. On the Record Date, there were 4,901,464 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding and 634 shareholders of record and approximately 562 additional beneficial owners of shares of Common Stock.

Voting

Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote at the Annual Meeting. A majority of the shares of Common Stock entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting.

Shareholders are encouraged to vote using any of the methods available to our shareholders. If you are a registered shareholder and attend the meeting, you may deliver your completed proxy card in person. Street name shareholders who wish to vote at the meeting will need to obtain a proxy form from the institution that holds their shares. The Company is pleased to offer its shareholders the convenience of voting by phone and online via the Internet. Please check your proxy card for instructions. Please be aware that if you vote your shares by phone or over the Internet, you may incur costs or charges from your phone service or Internet access provider for which you are responsible.

The proxy solicited hereby, if properly signed and returned to the Company and not revoked prior to its use, will be voted in accordance with the instructions contained thereon. Any shareholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time before it is exercised by (i) filing written notice thereof with the Secretary of the Company (Secretary, First National Corporation, c/o Registrar and Transfer Company, P.O. Box 1010, Cranford, New Jersey 07016); (ii) submitting a duly executed proxy bearing a later date; or (iii) appearing at the Annual Meeting or at any adjournment thereof and giving the Secretary notice of his or her intention to vote in person. Proxies solicited hereby may be exercised only at the Annual Meeting and any adjournment thereof and will not be used for any other meeting.

A shareholder may abstain or (only with respect to the election of directors) withhold his or her vote (collectively, Abstentions) with respect to each item submitted for shareholder approval. Abstentions will be counted for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum. Abstentions will not be counted as voting in favor of or against the relevant item.

A broker who holds shares in street name has the authority to vote on certain items when it has not received instructions from the beneficial owner. Except for certain items for which brokers are prohibited from exercising their discretion, a broker is entitled to vote on matters presented to shareholders without instructions from the beneficial owner. Broker shares that are voted on at least one matter will be counted for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. Where brokers do not have or do not exercise such discretion, the inability or failure to vote is referred to as a broker nonvote. Under the circumstances where the broker is not permitted to, or does not, exercise its discretion, assuming proper disclosure to the Company of such inability to vote, broker nonvotes will not be counted as voting in favor of or against the particular matter. A broker is prohibited from voting on the election of directors, the advisory vote on executive compensation and the advisory vote on the frequency of future advisory votes without instructions from the beneficial owner; therefore, there may be broker nonvotes on Proposals One, Two and Three. We expect that brokers will be allowed to exercise discretionary authority for beneficial owners who have not provided voting instructions with respect to Proposal Four; therefore, no broker nonvotes are expected to exist in connection with this proposal.

If no contrary instructions are given, each proxy executed and returned by a record shareholder will be voted for the election of the nominees described in this Proxy Statement, for 3 Years on Proposal Three, and for Proposals Two and Four. The proxy also confers discretionary authority upon the persons named therein, or their substitutes, with respect to any other matter that may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

Delivery of Proxy Materials for the Annual Meeting

The Company has taken advantage of the householding rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) that permit the delivery of one set of the proxy materials to shareholders who have the same address, to conserve resources and achieve the benefit of reduced printing and mailing costs. Shareholders residing at a shared address will continue to receive separate proxy cards. If you wish to receive a separate set of materials, or if you are currently receiving multiple copies of materials and wish to receive a single set, please write or call the Secretary of the Company at 112 West King Street, Strasburg, VA 22657, telephone number (540) 465-9121, and the Company will promptly mail it to you at no charge. The Compensation and Governance Committee's risk oversight duties include reviewing and recommending the levels and types of compensation of officers and employees, including salaries, bonuses and benefits to the Board. The Committee also reviews and recommends employment agreements and other compensation related matters, including fees paid to directors of the Company. The Committee is responsible for assisting the Board in attracting, motivating and retaining high-quality executives that will advance the interests of shareholders and for delivering levels of compensation that are commensurate with performance. The Compensation and Governance Committee assists the Board of Directors in fulfilling its fiduciary responsibilities as to their oversight of management compensation and the organizational structure of the Company.

Because the Company participated in the U.S. Treasury's Capital Purchase Program (CPP), it was subject to the executive compensation and corporate governance standards of the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008, as amended (EESA), which required the Committee to oversee a process that ensures that incentive plans do not encourage unnecessary and excessive risk-taking or the manipulation of earnings to enhance employee compensation. This process includes designating a Senior Risk Officer (SRO) to review the company's compensation plans, and a meeting with the SRO at least semiannually to discuss and evaluate employee compensation plans in light of an assessment of risk posed to the Company for such plans. The U.S. Treasury sold all of its investment in Preferred Shares of the Company on August 29, 2012. Therefore, the Company is no longer subject to the executive compensation and corporate governance standards of the EESA.

Management provides compensation recommendations for the Committee's consideration and manages the Company's executive compensation programs, policies and governance. Direct responsibilities of management include, but are not limited to:

providing an ongoing review of the effectiveness of the compensation programs, including competitiveness, and alignment with the Company's objectives;

recommending changes, if necessary to ensure achievement of all program objectives; and recommending pay levels and bonus payouts for executive officers other than the chief executive officer.

The Compensation and Governance Committee also serves as a focal point for identifying, evaluating and recommending candidates and nominees for Board membership. The Committee is also responsible for evaluating the adequacy of the current Board membership and recommending changes. The Committee assists the Board in fulfilling its fiduciary responsibilities as to their risk oversight of the Company, including corporate governance matters, such as the determination of Board and Committee independence.

The Board has adopted a written charter for the Compensation and Governance Committee. The Compensation and Governance Committee Charter is available on the Company's website at www.fbvirginia.com, under Committee Charters.

The Board has determined in its business judgment that all members of the Compensation and Governance Committee are independent as that term is defined in the listing standards of the NASDAQ. The Compensation and Governance Committee met three times during the year ended December 31, 2012.

Director Selection Process

The Compensation and Governance Committee operates under a written Charter. The Committee has established procedures that provide guidance for evaluating the composition of the Board, current directors and director nominees. Procedures include, but are not limited to the following processes and evaluation criteria:

Table of Contents

The Process

Evaluating the need for additional Board positions;

Considering candidates for Board membership suggested by its members and other Board members, as well as management and shareholders;

Consulting about potential candidates with the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, and other Directors as appropriate;

Evaluating the prospective nominee against the specific criteria established for the position, including, but not limited to the criteria below;

Interviewing the nominee, if the Committee decides to proceed with further consideration;

Recommending an action to the full Board that makes the final determination whether to nominate or appoint the new Director after considering the Committee's report; and Generally maintaining criteria for Board positions which are utilized to evaluate directors and director nominees.

The Evaluation Criteria

The ability to represent the interests of the shareholders of the Company;

Standards of integrity, commitment and independence of thought and judgment;

The ability to dedicate sufficient time, energy and attention to the diligent performance of his or her duties, including the prospective nominee's service on other public company boards;

The extent to which the prospective nominee assists in achieving a mix of Board members that achieves the proper balance of skills, expertise, experience, independence and community representation;

The extent of contribution to the range of talent, skill and expertise appropriate for the Board;

The willingness to meet at least the minimum equity interest holding required by law; and

The willingness to serve on the Board for an appropriate period of time to develop comprehensive knowledge about the Company's principal operations.

In the consideration of director nominees, including any nominee that a shareholder may submit formally (as described below) or informally (by contacting a director), the Board considers, at a minimum, the above evaluation criteria factors for new directors, or the continued service of existing directors.

Shareholders entitled to vote for the election of directors may submit candidates for formal consideration by the Compensation and Governance Committee in connection with an annual meeting if the Company receives timely written notice, in proper form, for each such recommended director nominee. If the notice is not timely and in proper form, the nominee will not be considered by the Company. To be timely for the 2014 Annual Meeting, the notice must be received within the time frame set forth in Shareholder Communications in the Other Information section of this Proxy Statement. To be in proper form, the notice must include each nominee's written consent to be named as a nominee and to serve, if elected, and information about the shareholder making the nomination and the person nominated for election. These requirements are more fully described in Article II, Section F, of the Company's Bylaws, a copy of which will be provided, without charge, to any shareholder upon written request to the Secretary of First National Corporation, whose address is First National Corporation, 112 West King Street, Strasburg, Virginia, 22657.

In addition to fulfilling the evaluation criteria, each director brings a strong and unique background and set of skills to the Board, providing the Board as a whole competence and experience in a wide variety of areas.

Leadership Structure of the Board

The positions of Chairman of the Board and President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company have traditionally been held by separate persons. The principal role of the President and Chief Executive Officer is to execute on board developed strategies and to manage the business of the Company in a safe, sound, and profitable manner. The role of the Board is to provide independent oversight of the President and Chief Executive Officer, formulate strategy and policy, and to monitor and measure risks within the Company.

Board's Role in Risk Oversight

The Board oversees risk management to be reasonably certain that the Company's risk management policies, procedures, and practices are consistent with corporate strategy and functioning appropriately.

The Board performs its risk oversight in several ways. The Board establishes standards for risk management by approving policies that address and mitigate the Company's most material risks. These include policies addressing credit risk, interest rate risk, capital risk, and liquidity risk. The Board also monitors, reviews, and reacts to risk through various reports presented by management, internal and external auditors, and regulatory examiners.

The Board conducts certain risk oversight activities through its committees with direct oversight over specific functional areas. The risk oversight activities of the Audit and Compensation and Governance Committees are described in the Committees and Audit-Related Matters sections of this proxy statement. These committees are all comprised exclusively of independent directors.

The Board is empowered to create additional standing and ad hoc committees to facilitate regular monitoring and deeper analysis of matters that may arise from time to time. The Board also meets regularly in executive session to discuss a variety of topics, including risk, without members of management present.

In the foregoing ways, the full Board is able to monitor the Company's risk profile and risk management activities on an ongoing basis.

Attendance at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders

The Company encourages members of the Board to attend the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. All of the directors attended the 2012 Annual Meeting.

Communications with Directors

Any director may be contacted by writing to him or her c/o First National Corporation, 112 West King Street, Strasburg, Virginia, 22657. Communications to the non-management directors as a group may be sent to the same address, c/o the Secretary of First National Corporation. The Company promptly forwards, without screening, all such correspondence to the indicated directors.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Company strives to attract, motivate and retain high-quality executives by providing total compensation that is performance-based and competitive with the various labor markets and industries in which the Company competes for talent. The Company provides incentives to advance the interests of shareholders and deliver levels of compensation that are commensurate with performance. Overall, the Company designs its compensation plan to support the corporate business strategy and business plan by clearly communicating what is expected of executives with respect to goals and results and by rewarding achievement, retaining and recruiting executive talent, and creating strong performance aligned with shareholders' interest. The Company seeks to achieve these objectives through two key compensation elements, a base salary and a performance-based annual cash bonus.

Capital Purchase Program

From March 2009 through August 2012, the Company was a participant in the CPP. As a result, the Company was subject to certain executive compensation and corporate governance requirements under section 111 of EESA, as implemented by Treasury regulations. Those requirements applied to certain of our executive officers and employees, including Scott C. Harvard, Dennis A. Dysart and M. Shane Bell (collectively, the SEOs). Those requirements include:

Prohibiting the payment of any severance payments to our SEOs and next five most highly compensated employees;

Prohibiting the payment or accrual of any bonus payment to Mr. Harvard, our most highly compensated employee, except for an award of long-term restricted stock with a value not exceeding one-third of his annual compensation;

Subjecting our SEOs and our next twenty most highly compensated officers to recovery of any bonus or incentive compensation paid to them where the payment was later found to have been based on statements of earnings, gains, or other criteria which prove to be materially inaccurate; and Limiting the Company's tax deduction for compensation paid to any SEO of $500,000 annually.

In addition, the regulations generally required the Compensation and Governance Committee to meet at least every six months with the Company's senior risk officers to evaluate compensation plans to ensure that these plans did not encourage unnecessary and excessive risk taking that threatened the value of the Company, to consider ways to limit those risks, and to evaluate these plans to ensure that they do not encourage the manipulation of reported earnings.

The Compensation and Governance Committee believes that its compensation policies were consistent with EESA and the regulations thereunder and modified its compensation policies and agreements in order to meet these requirements while any CPP assistance was outstanding.

Table of Contents2012 Shareholder Advisory Vote

In 2012, our shareholders voted their approval of the compensation of our executives as described in the proxy statement for the 2012 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Approximately 88% of all votes cast were for approval of our executive compensation. The Compensation and Governance Committee considers these results and appreciates this strong showing of shareholder support for our compensation philosophy, plans and practices. The Compensation and Governance Committee strives to continue its work consistent with this support.

Summary Compensation Table

The following table provides information concerning total compensation earned or paid to the Chief Executive Officer and the two other most highly compensated executive officers of the Company who served in such capacities as of December 31, 2012 for services rendered to the Company. These executive officers are referred to as the named executive officers in this proxy statement. The named executive officers received compensation from First Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of First National Corporation. The named executive officers did not receive any compensation from the Company. Employment agreements for named executive officers are described in more detail below under the headings Employment Agreements and Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change of Control. There were no awards granted under the Performance-Based Compensation Plan or the Executive Incentive Plan in 2012.

Performance-Based Compensation Plan

The Company's Performance-Based Compensation Plan was suspended for 2012 for named executive officers. However, when it is an active part of overall compensation, the annual bonus process for named executive officers involves four basic steps.

At the outset of the year:

- (1) Set overall Company performance goals for the year;
- (2) Set individual performance measures for the year; and
- (3) Set a target bonus for each individual.

After the end of the year:

- (4) Measure actual performance (individual and Company-wide) against the Company performance goals and individual performance measures to determine the appropriate adjustment to the target bonus, as well as other performance considerations related to unforeseen events during the year.

Under the Performance-Based Compensation Plan, the Board reserves the right to withhold or adjust individual awards provided that the Board notifies the executive officer, in writing, within a reasonable period of time following the decision to withhold. In addition, unless the Board deems otherwise, awards will not be paid if minimum profitability levels and regulatory ratings are not obtained. The Board has not exercised its discretion to withhold bonus payments in the past.

In March 2012, the Compensation Committee suspended the Performance-Based Compensation Plan for all employees.

Executive Incentive Plan

In November 2012, the Board of Directors adopted a cash Executive Incentive Plan (the Plan) to reward certain executive officers for achieving performance goals. A revised Plan was adopted by the Board in March 2013. The duration of the Plan is indefinite, and the Plan may be amended or terminated by the Board at any time. Participation is limited to those employees selected by the Chief Executive Officer and approved by the Compensation Committee of the Board each Plan year. Dennis A. Dysart and M. Shane Bell were selected to participate in the Plan along with certain other executive officers, effective January 1, 2012. No awards were made under the Plan for 2012.

Under the Plan, the Board is responsible for establishing and approving annual performance objectives for the Company and Plan participants, based upon such criteria as may be recommended by the Chief Executive Officer, and the award formula by which all incentive awards under the Plan are calculated. Plan participants are entitled to a cash distribution under this Plan if, upon the approval of the Board, the Plan award is earned as a result of the attainment of Plan performance objectives and the participant is employed on the payment date. Awards shall be paid on or after January 1 of the year following the performance period, and no later than March 15 of the year following the performance period.

Table of Contents

In the event of a participant's termination of employment for any reason, including due to death, permanent disability or retirement, any unpaid awards (including any earned but unpaid awards) shall be forfeited by such participant. The Company has the right to recover compensation that the Company determines, in its sole discretion, was unjustly paid to an employee under the Plan.

Employment Agreements

Effective as of October 1, 2002, the Company entered into employment contracts with Dennis A. Dysart and M. Shane Bell. These contracts were amended December 1, 2008. The contracts with Mr. Dysart and Mr. Bell provide for their services in senior management or executive capacities at initial base annual salaries of $157,500 and $140,000, respectively.

Material terms of these agreements included prohibiting the Company from decreasing the salary of the employee, to provide certain severance payments to the employee if terminated without Cause or in the event of a change of control, and an agreement not to compete with the Company. On March 13, 2009, the agreements were amended to (1) prohibit any payment to these employees for departure from the Company for any reason, except payment for services or benefits accrued and (2) to eliminate the agreement not to compete with the Company. Both of these amendments were effective while any Capital Purchase Program assistance was outstanding. The prohibition of payments for departure from the Company was required to comply with Treasury requirements under the Capital Purchase Program. Due to the U.S. Treasury's sale of the Company's Preferred Stock in August 2012, these Treasury requirements no longer apply and these amendments are no longer effective.

Effective as of May 9, 2011, the Company entered into an employment contract with Scott C. Harvard. The term of the Agreement began on May 9, 2011 and shall terminate on May 22, 2014, unless it is terminated earlier in accordance with its provisions. The contract with Mr. Harvard provides for his service as President and Chief Executive Officer of both the Company and the Bank at an initial base annual salary of $350,000. The Agreement provides for the termination of Mr. Harvard's employment by the Company without cause and termination by him for good reason (as those terms are defined in the Agreement). Subject to certain conditions of the Agreement, termination under either of these circumstances will entitle Mr. Harvard to receive reimbursement for the sum of (i) up to twelve months' rent on his principal residence, if he leases his principal residence, or the amount of any loss he sustains on his principal residence, if he owns his principal residence, and (ii) the expenses for relocating his principal residence.

The Agreement contains restrictive covenants relating to the protection of confidential information, non-disclosure, non-competition and non-solicitation. The non-competition and non-solicitation covenants continue generally for a period of 12 months following the last day of his employment.

Mr. Harvard will not be entitled to any termination compensation and benefits if he breaches any of the covenants in the Agreement relating to the protection of confidential information, non-disclosure, non-competition and non-solicitation. He will also not be entitled to any compensation or other benefits, other than payment for all time worked, if his employment is terminated for cause or if Mr. Harvard terminates his employment for other than good reason.

Table of ContentsRetirement Benefits

The Bank has a noncontributory, defined benefit pension plan for all full-time employees hired before May 1, 2011 who are over 21 years of age and have at least one year of credited service. Benefits are generally based upon years of service and average compensation for the five highest-paid consecutive years of service. The Bank's funding practice has been to make at least the minimum required annual contribution permitted by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, and the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

The Company also maintains a 401(k) plan and an employee stock ownership plan (ESOP) for all eligible employees. All employees who are age nineteen or older are eligible for the 401(k) plan and the ESOP.

The Company did not provide nonqualified deferred compensation plans for employees during 2012.

Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change of Control

Each employment contract with Mr. Dysart and Mr. Bell provides that the officer's employment may be terminated by the Company with or without cause. If he resigns for good reason or is terminated without cause (as those terms are defined in the respective employment agreement), however, he is entitled to his salary and benefits for the remainder of his contract. The term of the agreements is at all times two years, which means that at the end of every day, the term of the agreements are extended for one day. If his employment terminates for good reason or without cause within one year of a change in control of the Company, he will be entitled to severance payments approximately equal to 299% of his annual cash compensation for a period that precedes the change in control as determined under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The following table provides payments that could be due the named executive officers under different scenarios:

Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change of Control

Name	Terminate Employment for Good Reason or Without Cause ($)(1)	Terminate Employment for Good Reason or Without Cause within 12 months post Change of Control ($)(2)
Dennis A. Dysart	400,000	598,000
M. Shane Bell	360,000	538,200

- (1) Subject to applicable Treasury restrictions described above under Summary Compensation Table Employment Agreements, Mr. Dysart and Mr. Bell would have received the payments from the Company shown in the above table for termination of employment between April 1, 2012 and March 31, 2013 for Good Reason or without Cause. Payments would have been made to these executives in the form of a lump sum payment on the date of termination or resignation.
- (2) Subject to applicable Treasury restrictions described above under Summary Compensation Table Employment Agreements, Mr. Dysart and Mr. Bell would have received the payments from the Company shown above for termination of employment between April 1, 2012 and March 31, 2013 for Good Reason or without Cause within 12 months post Change of Control. Payments would have been made to these executives in the form of a lump sum payment on the date of termination or resignation.

Each contract also contains a covenant not to compete that is in effect while the officer is an officer and employee of the Company and for a 12-month period after termination of his employment.

Mr. Dysart and Mr. Bell may also elect to receive pension benefits, which the Company makes available generally to all full-time employees hired before May 1, 2011, upon the termination of employment for any reason.

Mr. Harvard's employment agreement provides that termination of employment by the Company without cause or for good reason will entitle Mr. Harvard to receive reimbursement for the sum of (i) up to twelve months' rent on his principal residence, if he leases his principal residence, or the amount of any loss he sustains on his principal residence, if he owns his principal residence, and (ii) the expenses for relocating his principal residence.

Other Compensation

The Company has not made any grants of stock options or stock awards to its named executive officers, and it does not have any stock-based incentive plans. In addition, none of the named executive officers hold any unexercised stock options or unvested stock awards as of December 31, 2012.

The following table provides information about the components of director compensation for the year ended December 31, 2012.

(1) Amounts represent retainer fees paid by the Company to directors on a monthly basis for board meetings.

(2) Amounts represent life insurance premiums paid by the Bank pursuant to the director's Split Dollar Life Insurance Plan. The policies are owned by the Bank and the premium payments are expected to be recovered by the Bank under the Split Dollar Life Insurance Plan. Directors have designated beneficiaries that are entitled to a potential death benefit totaling $100,000.

Table of Contents

Non-employee directors receive a retainer fee of $1,700 per month. They do not receive additional fees for attending meetings. The Chairman of the Board receives an additional retainer fee of $150 per month, and the Vice Chairman of the Board receives an additional retainer fee of $50 per month. Scott C. Harvard, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, did not receive fees for his service on the Board.

In 1999, the Bank adopted a Director Split Dollar Life Insurance Plan (the Plan). The Plan currently provides life insurance coverage to 10 non-employee directors of the Bank, all of whom are also directors of the Company. Scott C. Harvard does not participate in the Plan. The Bank owns the policies and is entitled to all values and proceeds. The Plan provides retirement benefits and the payment of benefits at the death of the insured director. Payments of benefits at the death of the insured director will be split between the Bank and the director's beneficiary. The amount of benefits will be determined by the performance of the policies over each director's life. During the year ended December 31, 2012, the Bank paid premiums in an aggregate amount of $40,346 for the benefit of directors under the Plan.

Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions

Some of the directors and officers of the Company are customers of the Bank. Except for the loans discussed in the following paragraph, no loans to directors or officers involve more than the normal risks of collectability or present other unfavorable features, or are non-accrual, past due, restricted or considered potential problem loans. All such loans were made in the ordinary course of business and were originated on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with persons not related to the Company or the Bank. The balances of loans to directors, executive officers and their associates totaled $8.9 million at December 31, 2012 or 20% of the Company's equity at that date.

As a consequence of the downturn in the economy and the effect this has had on the value and salability of real estate, including projected cash flows of real estate developments; loans made to certain of our directors have been adversely affected. The Company currently considers certain loans to Dr. Brill and Mr. Nicholls to be substandard. The loans to Dr. Brill are considered potential problem loans. Potential problem loans consist of loans that are generally performing in accordance with contractual terms but for which we have concerns about the ability of the borrower to continue to comply with repayment. The loans to Mr. Nicholls are considered impaired. A loan is considered impaired when, based on current information and events, it is probable that the Company will be unable to collect all the scheduled payments of principal or interest when due according to the contractual terms of the loan agreement. With respect to Dr. Brill's loans, the largest aggregate amount of principal outstanding during 2012 was $5.1 million; the last principal balance as of the record date was $3.8 million, with $1.3 million of principal and $230 thousand of interest being paid in 2012. The interest rate on the loans ranged from 3.25% to 6.50%. With respect to Mr. Nicholls' loans, the largest aggregate amount of principal outstanding during 2012 was $1.8 million, the last principal balance as of the record date was $1.8 million, with $87 thousand of principal and $100 thousand of interest being paid in 2012. The interest rate on the loans ranged from 5.00% to 6.50%. All loans to Dr. Brill and Mr. Nicholls are currently performing in accordance with their contractual terms. These directors are not standing for re-election at the Annual Meeting on May 14, 2013.

Table of Contents

The Company has adopted a formal written policy that covers the review and approval of related person transactions by the Board. The Board reviews all such transactions that are proposed to it for approval. During such a review, the Board will consider, among other things, the related person's relationship to the Company, the facts and circumstances of the proposed transaction, the aggregate dollar amount of the transaction, the related person's relationship to the transaction and any other material information. Based on the Company's Conflict of Interest Policy, the Board also has the responsibility to review conflicts of interest involving directors or executive officers.

PROPOSAL TWO:

ADVISORY VOTE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

In 2010, Congress enacted the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010, usually referred to as the Dodd-Frank Act. Among the provisions of the act is the opportunity for our shareholders to vote their approval, on a non-binding basis, of the compensation of our executives as disclosed pursuant to the compensation disclosure rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

In order to comply with the Dodd-Frank Act, the Board of Directors of the Company is providing you the opportunity, as a shareholder, to endorse or not endorse our executive pay programs and policies through the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the shareholders approve the compensation of executive officers as disclosed in this proxy statement pursuant to the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Non-binding approval of the Company's executive compensation program would require that a majority of the shares present or represented at the annual meeting vote in favor of the proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted as votes cast and therefore will not affect the determination as to whether the Company's executive compensation program as disclosed in this proxy statement is approved.

Because your vote is advisory, it will not be binding upon the Board of Directors, overrule any decision made by the Board of Directors or create or imply any additional fiduciary duty by the Board of Directors. The Compensation and Governance Committee may, however, take into account the outcome of the vote when considering future executive compensation agreements.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR APPROVAL OF PROPOSAL TWO ADVISORY VOTE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION.

Table of Contents

PROPOSAL THREE:

ADVISORY VOTE ON FREQUENCY OF FUTURE VOTES ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

In addition to the non-binding advisory vote regarding executive compensation, our shareholders also have the opportunity to vote, on an advisory basis, for their preference as to whether this advisory vote should be conducted every one, two, or three years. This non-binding vote on frequency will be provided at least once every six years beginning with our 2013 Annual Meeting.

After careful consideration, our Board and Compensation and Governance Committee believe that conducting the say-on-pay advisory vote every three years is appropriate for the Company for the following reasons:

A three-year voting cycle allows shareholders to review compensation over a longer period by not just reviewing current year information but also the three-years of compensation information that we report in the proxy. This longer period also allows shareholders sufficient time to evaluate the impact of changes made in one year where outcomes may not be immediately known.

A three-year voting cycle is more closely aligned with a longer-term view of compensation.

A three-year voting cycle allows sufficient time for the Compensation and Governance Committee to more fully evaluate philosophy and long-term compensation strategy, conduct more meaningful dialogue with shareholders, and implement and evaluate the impact of changes deemed appropriate.

The Company recognizes that shareholders may have different views as to the best approach for the Company, and we look forward to hearing from our shareholders as to the frequency of an advisory vote on executive compensation. As with the advisory nature of the say-on-pay vote on executive compensation, the advisory vote on frequency of such voting is also non-binding on the Board and Compensation and Governance Committee. However, the Compensation and Governance Committee will give careful consideration to guidance expressed by the voting results of our shareholders.

The proxy card provides shareholders with the opportunity to choose among four options (rotating the vote every one, two or three years, or abstaining) and, therefore, shareholders will act by voting to approve or disapprove the recommendation of the Board.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR A THREE-YEAR CYCLE OF VOTING ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION.

Policy for Approval of Audit and Permitted Non-Audit Services

All audit-related services, tax services and other services, as described above, were pre-approved by the Audit Committee, which concluded that the provision of such services by Yount, Hyde & Barbour, P.C. was compatible with the maintenance of that firm's independence in the conduct of its auditing functions. The Audit Committee Charter provides for pre-approval of the auditor's fees and is available on the Company's website at www.fbvirginia.com, under "Committee Charters." As provided for in the Charter, the Committee reviews, prior to the annual external audit, the scope and general extent of the auditor's audit procedures, including their engagement letter. The Committee also reviews the extent of non-audit services provided by the external auditors in relation to the objectivity needed in their audit. It was determined the external auditors maintained objectivity considering the non-audit services provided.
