Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On October 10, 2013, II-VI Incorporated, a Pennsylvania corporation (II-VI or the Company), entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) by and among II-VI and Oclaro Technology Limited, a company incorporated under the laws of England and Wales (Oclaro), to acquire certain assets of Oclaro used in the fiber amplifier and micro-optics business (collectively, the Business). As of November 1, 2013, all conditions necessary to complete the transaction, including receipt of certain regulatory clearances, have been satisfied, and the transaction has been completed. Acquisition of the Business by II-VI was previously approved by the boards of directors of both II-VI and Oclaro. The transaction, valued at $88.6 million, consisted of a cash payment of $79.6 million and a $4.0 million hold-back until December 31, 2014 to address post-closing adjustments or claims. The remaining $5.0 million was previously paid to Oclaro on September 12, 2013 pursuant to the exclusive option received by II-VI to acquire the Business.

II-VI and Oclaro each provided customary and reciprocal representations, warranties and covenants in the Purchase Agreement. Further, II-VI and Oclaro have entered into transition services and manufacturing services and supply agreements to allow the Business to continue operations during the ownership transition.

The foregoing description of the Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby is not complete and is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Purchase Agreement, which is incorporated herein by reference to Exhibit 1.1 to II-VI s Current Report on Form 8-K (File No. 000-16195) filed on October 11, 2013.

The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Purchase Agreement are made solely for purposes of the agreement and are made as of specific dates; are solely for the benefit of the parties; may be subject to qualifications and limitations agreed upon by the parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the Purchase Agreement, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purpose of allocating contractual risk between the parties instead of establishing matters as facts; and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors or security holders. Investors and security holders should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of II-VI, Oclaro or their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Purchase Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures.
