Creates a significant community banking presence for Northrim in Southeast Alaska

Population in Southeast Alaska reached a new record of 74,423 in 2012 and between 2010 and 2012 was the fastest-growing region of the state with a population gain of 2,800.

The regional labor force increased by 1,800 and total labor force reached 46,000.

The 2013 salmon season has turned out to be the best ever for Southeast Alaska in terms of harvests.

Tourism has increased after recession-caused dips in 2010-2011.

And while there were some job losses in government and retail in Juneau, total wages remained up.

Mining is doing well, with the Kensington gold mine on Berners Bay producing at expected levels and output up sharply at the Greens Creek multi-metals mine on northern Admiralty Island, both near Juneau.
