MERGER AND SHARE ISSUANCE PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear Stockholder:

On January 5, 2016, OceanFirst Financial Corp., a Delaware corporation (which we refer to as "OceanFirst"), Cape Bancorp, Inc., a Maryland corporation (which we refer to as "Cape"), and Justice Merger Sub Corp., a Maryland corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of OceanFirst (which we refer to as "Merger Sub"), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (which we refer to as the "merger agreement") that provides for the combination of OceanFirst and Cape. Under the terms of the merger agreement, (i) Merger Sub will merge with and into Cape (which we refer to as the "first-step merger"), with Cape continuing as the surviving corporation in the first-step merger and as a wholly-owned subsidiary of OceanFirst, (ii) immediately following the completion of the first-step merger, Cape will merge with and into OceanFirst (which we refer to as the "second-step merger" and, together with the first-step merger, the "integrated mergers"), with OceanFirst continuing as the surviving corporation in the second-step merger and (iii) immediately following the completion of the integrated mergers, Cape Bank, a New Jersey-chartered stock savings bank and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cape (which we refer to as "Cape Bank"), will merge with and into OceanFirst Bank, a federally-chartered capital stock savings bank and a wholly-owned subsidiary of OceanFirst (which we refer to as "OceanFirst Bank"), with OceanFirst Bank being the surviving bank (which we refer to as the "bank merger" and, together with the integrated mergers, the "Transactions").

At the effective time of the first-step merger, each outstanding share of the common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Cape (which we refer to as "Cape common stock"), except for specified shares of Cape common stock owned by Cape or OceanFirst, will be converted into the right to receive $2.25 in cash, without interest (which we refer to as the "cash consideration"), and 0.6375 shares (such number being referred to as the "exchange ratio" and such shares being referred to as "stock consideration") of the common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of OceanFirst (which we refer to as the "OceanFirst common stock"), together with cash in lieu of fractional shares. The cash consideration and the stock consideration are collectively referred to as the "merger consideration."

Although the number of shares of OceanFirst common stock that holders of Cape common stock (which we refer to as the "Cape stockholders") will be entitled to receive is fixed, the market value of the stock consideration will fluctuate with the market price of OceanFirst common stock and will not be known at the time Cape stockholders vote on the first-step merger. However, as described in more detail elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, under the terms of the merger agreement, if the average price of OceanFirst common stock over a specified period of time decreases below certain specified thresholds, Cape would have a right to terminate the merger agreement, unless OceanFirst elects to increase the exchange ratio, which would result in additional shares of OceanFirst common stock being issued. Based on the $19.95 closing price of OceanFirst common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market (which we refer to as the NASDAQ) on January 5, 2016, the last full trading day before the public announcement of the Transactions, the per share value of the stock consideration was equal to approximately $12.72 and the per share value of the merger consideration was equal to approximately $14.97. Based on the $17.41 closing price of OceanFirst common stock on the NASDAQ on March 11, 2016, the latest practicable trading day before the printing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the per share value of the stock consideration was equal to approximately $11.10 and the per share value of the merger consideration was equal to approximately $13.35. Based on the 0.6375 exchange ratio and the number of shares of Cape common stock outstanding as of March 11, 2016, together with the number of shares of Cape common stock underlying Cape's restricted stock awards as of March 11, 2016, the maximum number of shares of OceanFirst common stock estimated to be issuable at the effective time of the first-step merger is 8,638,619. We urge you to obtain current market quotations for OceanFirst (trading symbol OCFC) and Cape (trading symbol CBNJ).

OceanFirst will hold a special meeting of its stockholders (which we refer to as the OceanFirst special meeting) in connection with the issuance of the shares of OceanFirst common stock representing a portion of the merger consideration (which we refer to as the OceanFirst share issuance). At the OceanFirst special meeting, the holders of OceanFirst common stock (which we refer to as the OceanFirst stockholders) will be asked to vote to approve the OceanFirst share issuance. Approval of the OceanFirst share issuance requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the total votes cast by the OceanFirst stockholders at the OceanFirst special meeting.

Cape will hold a special meeting of its stockholders (which we refer to as the Cape special meeting) in connection with the first-step merger. At the Cape special meeting, Cape stockholders will be asked to vote to approve the merger agreement and related matters as described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Under Maryland law, approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the total number of outstanding shares of Cape common stock entitled to vote at the Cape special meeting.

The OceanFirst special meeting will be held on April 25, 2016 at its headquarters, located at 975 Hooper Avenue, Toms River, New Jersey, at 6:00 PM local time. The Cape special meeting will be held on April 25, 2016 at The Greate Bay Country Club, 901 Mays Landing Road, Somers Point, New Jersey 08244, at 3:00 PM local time.

The Cape board of directors unanimously recommends that Cape stockholders vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the first-step merger, and FOR the other matters to be considered at the Cape special meeting.

The OceanFirst board of directors unanimously recommends that OceanFirst stockholders vote FOR the OceanFirst share issuance and FOR the other matter to be considered at the OceanFirst special meeting.

This joint proxy statement/prospectus describes the Cape special meeting, the OceanFirst special meeting, the Transactions, the OceanFirst share issuance, the documents related to the Transactions and other related matters. Please carefully read this entire joint proxy statement/prospectus, including Risk Factors, beginning on page 23, for a discussion of the risks relating to the proposed merger and the OceanFirst share issuance. You also can obtain information about OceanFirst and Cape from documents that each has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

*The following are some questions that you, as an OceanFirst stockholder or a Cape stockholder, may have about the Transactions, the OceanFirst share issuance, the OceanFirst special meeting or the Cape special meeting, as applicable, and brief answers to those questions. We urge you to read carefully the remainder of this joint proxy statement/prospectus because the information in this section does not provide all of the information that might be important to you with respect to the Transactions, the OceanFirst share issuance, the OceanFirst special meeting or the Cape special meeting, as applicable. For details about where you can find additional important information, please see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 126.*

*Unless the context otherwise requires, references in this joint proxy statement/prospectus to OceanFirst refer to OceanFirst Financial Corp., a Delaware corporation, and its affiliates, and references to Cape refer to Cape Bancorp, Inc., a Maryland corporation, and its affiliates.*

Q: What are the Transactions?

A: OceanFirst, Cape and Merger Sub entered into the merger agreement on January 5, 2016. The first-step merger is the first step in a series of transactions to combine OceanFirst and Cape, and their respective subsidiary banks, OceanFirst Bank and Cape Bank.

Under the terms of the merger agreement:

Merger Sub will merge with and into Cape, with Cape continuing as the surviving corporation in such merger and as a wholly-owned subsidiary of OceanFirst (which we refer to as the first-step merger).

Immediately following the completion of the first-step merger, Cape, as the surviving corporation in the first-step merger, will merge with and into OceanFirst, with OceanFirst being the surviving corporation (which we refer to as the second-step merger and, together with the first-step merger, the integrated mergers).

Immediately following the completion of the integrated mergers, Cape Bank will merge with and into OceanFirst Bank, with OceanFirst Bank being the surviving bank (which we refer to as the bank merger , and together with the integrated mergers, the Transactions).

A copy of the merger agreement is included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A.

The integrated mergers cannot be completed unless, among other things:

The holders (which we refer to as the OceanFirst stockholders) of the common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of OceanFirst (which we refer to as the OceanFirst common stock) approve the issuance of the shares of OceanFirst common stock in connection with the first-step merger (which we refer to as the OceanFirst share issuance).

The holders (which we refer to as the Cape stockholders) of the common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Cape (which we refer to as the Cape common stock) approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the first-step merger.

Additional conditions to completing the integrated mergers are discussed in the section entitled The Merger Agreement Conditions to Complete the Integrated Mergers beginning on page 100.

Q: Why am I receiving this joint proxy statement/prospectus?

A: We are delivering this document to you because it is a joint proxy statement being used by both the OceanFirst board of directors (which we refer to as the OceanFirst board) and the Cape board of directors

Table of Contents

(which we refer to as the Cape board) to solicit proxies of their respective stockholders in connection with approval of the OceanFirst share issuance and the first-step merger, as applicable, and related matters.

In order to approve the OceanFirst share issuance, OceanFirst has called a special meeting of the OceanFirst stockholders (which we refer to as the OceanFirst special meeting). In order to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the first-step merger, Cape has called a special meeting of the Cape stockholders (which we refer to as the Cape special meeting). This document serves as a joint proxy statement for the OceanFirst special meeting and the Cape special meeting and describes the proposals to be presented at each special meeting.

In addition, this document is also a prospectus that is being delivered to Cape stockholders because OceanFirst is offering shares of its common stock to Cape stockholders in connection with the first-step merger. It also constitutes a notice of special meeting with respect to the OceanFirst special meeting and the Cape special meeting.

This joint proxy statement/prospectus contains important information about the Transactions, the OceanFirst share issuance and the other proposal being voted on at the OceanFirst special meeting and the Cape special meeting, respectively. You should read this carefully and in its entirety. The enclosed materials allow you to have your shares voted by proxy without attending your special meeting. Your vote is important. We encourage you to submit your proxy as soon as possible.

Q: In addition to the OceanFirst share issuance, what else are OceanFirst stockholders being asked to vote on at the OceanFirst special meeting?

A: In addition to a proposal to approve the OceanFirst share issuance (which we refer to as the OceanFirst share issuance proposal), OceanFirst is soliciting proxies from the OceanFirst stockholders with respect to a proposal to adjourn the OceanFirst special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the OceanFirst share issuance proposal (which we refer to as the OceanFirst adjournment proposal). Completion of the integrated mergers is not conditioned upon approval of the OceanFirst adjournment proposal.

Q: In addition to the approval of the merger agreement and the first-step merger, what else are Cape stockholders being asked to vote on at the Cape special meeting?

A: In addition to a proposal to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the first-step merger (which we refer to as the Cape merger proposal), Cape is soliciting proxies from the Cape stockholders with respect to a proposal to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation that certain executive officers of Cape may receive in connection with the first-step merger pursuant to agreements or arrangements with Cape (which we refer to as the Cape merger-related compensation proposal) and a proposal to adjourn the Cape special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the Cape merger proposal (which we refer to as the Cape adjournment proposal). Completion of the integrated mergers is not conditioned upon approval of the Cape merger-related compensation proposal or the Cape adjournment proposal.

Q: What will Cape stockholders be entitled to receive in the first-step merger?

A: If the first-step merger is completed, each outstanding share of Cape common stock except for certain shares of Cape common stock owned by Cape or OceanFirst, will be converted into the right to receive $2.25 in cash, without interest, and 0.6375 shares of OceanFirst common stock, together with cash in lieu of fractional shares. OceanFirst will not issue any fractional shares of OceanFirst common stock in the first-step merger. Cape stockholders who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fractional share of OceanFirst common stock upon the completion of the first-step merger will instead be entitled to receive an amount in cash (rounded to the nearest cent) based on the average closing-sale price per share of OceanFirst common stock for the five full trading days ending on the day preceding the day on which the first-step merger is completed.

Q: What will OceanFirst stockholders be entitled to receive in the first-step merger?

A: OceanFirst stockholders will not be entitled to receive any merger consideration and will continue to hold the shares of OceanFirst common stock that they held immediately prior to the completion of the first-step merger.

Q: How will the first-step merger affect Cape equity awards?

A: The Cape equity awards will be affected as follows:

Restricted Stock Awards: At the effective time of the first-step merger (which we refer to as the effective time), each restricted stock award granted by Cape (or assumed by Cape from a prior acquisition) will become fully vested and each holder of such restricted stock awards will be entitled to receive the per share merger consideration for each share of Cape common stock held by such holder.

Stock Options: Also at the effective time, each stock option granted by Cape (or assumed by Cape from a prior acquisition) will be assumed and converted into an option to purchase a number of shares of OceanFirst common stock (rounded down to the nearest whole share) determined by multiplying (i) the number of shares of Cape common stock subject to such stock option by (ii) 0.75, at a per share exercise price (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (a) the per share exercise price for each share of Cape common stock subject to such stock option by (b) 0.75.

Q: Will the value of the merger consideration change between the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the time that the first-step merger is completed?

A: Yes. Although the exchange ratio is fixed, the value of the stock portion of the merger consideration will fluctuate between the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the closing date because the market value for OceanFirst common stock fluctuates. The cash consideration is fixed.

Q: How does the OceanFirst board recommend that I vote at the OceanFirst special meeting?

A: The OceanFirst board unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the OceanFirst share issuance proposal and FOR the OceanFirst adjournment proposal.

Q: How does the Cape board recommend that I vote at the Cape special meeting?

A: The Cape board unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the Cape merger proposal, FOR the Cape merger-related compensation proposal and FOR the Cape adjournment proposal.

Q: When and where are the meetings?

A: The OceanFirst special meeting will be held on April 25, 2016 at its headquarters, located at 975 Hooper Avenue, Toms River, New Jersey, at 6:00 PM local time.

The Cape special meeting will be held on April 25, 2016 at The Greate Bay Country Club, 901 Mays Landing Road, Somers Point, New Jersey 08244, at 3:00 PM local time.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: After you have carefully read this entire joint proxy statement/prospectus and have decided how you wish to vote your shares, please vote your shares promptly so that your shares are represented and voted at your special meeting. If you hold your shares in your name as a stockholder of record, you must complete, sign, date and mail your proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid return envelope as soon as possible. If you hold your shares in street name through a bank or broker, you must direct your bank or broker how to vote in accordance with the instructions you have received from your bank or broker. Street name stockholders who wish to vote in person at their special meeting will need to obtain a legal proxy from the institution that holds their shares.

Q: What constitutes a quorum for the OceanFirst special meeting?

A: The presence at the OceanFirst special meeting, in person or by proxy, of holders representing at least a majority of the outstanding shares of OceanFirst common stock entitled to be voted at the OceanFirst special meeting will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the OceanFirst special meeting. Once a share is represented for any purpose at the OceanFirst special meeting, it is deemed present for quorum purposes for the remainder of the OceanFirst special meeting or for any adjournment(s) thereof. Abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will be included in determining the number of shares present at the meeting for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

Q: What constitutes a quorum for the Cape special meeting?

A: The presence at the Cape special meeting, in person or by proxy, of holders representing at least a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Cape common stock entitled to be voted at the Cape special meeting will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Cape special meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will be included in determining the number of shares present at the meeting for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

Effect of abstentions and broker non-votes: If you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy, fail to submit a proxy or vote in person at the OceanFirst special meeting, or fail to instruct your bank or broker how to vote with respect to the OceanFirst share issuance proposal, it will have no effect on the OceanFirst share issuance proposal.

OceanFirst adjournment proposal:

Effect of abstentions and broker non-votes: If you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy, fail to submit a proxy or vote in person at the OceanFirst special meeting, or fail to instruct your bank or broker how to vote with respect to the OceanFirst adjournment proposal, it will have no effect on the proposal.

A: Cape merger proposal:

Standard: Approval of the Cape merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the total number of outstanding shares of Cape common stock.

Effect of abstentions and broker non-votes: If you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy, fail to submit a proxy or vote in person at the Cape special meeting, or fail to instruct your bank or broker how to vote with respect to the Cape merger proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the Cape merger proposal.

Cape merger-related compensation proposal:

Standard: The Cape merger-related compensation proposal will be approved if a majority of the votes cast on such proposal at the Cape special meeting are voted in favor of such proposal.

Effect of abstentions and broker non-votes: If you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy card, fail to submit a proxy card or vote in person at the Cape special meeting or fail to instruct your bank or broker how to vote with respect to the Cape merger-related compensation proposal, it will have no effect on such proposal.

Cape adjournment proposal:

Standard: The Cape adjournment proposal will be approved if a majority of the votes cast on such proposal at the Cape special meeting are voted in favor of such proposal.

Effect of abstentions and broker non-votes: If you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy card, fail to submit a proxy card or vote in person at the Cape special meeting, or fail to instruct your bank or broker how to vote with respect to the Cape adjournment proposal, it will have no effect on such proposal.

Q: Why is my vote important?

A: If you do not vote, it will be more difficult for OceanFirst or Cape to obtain the necessary quorum to hold their respective special meetings. In addition, if you are a Cape stockholder, your failure to submit a proxy or vote in person, or failure to instruct your bank or broker how to vote, or abstention with respect to the Cape merger proposal will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST approval of the Cape merger proposal. Separately, if you are an OceanFirst stockholder, your failure to submit a proxy or vote in person, or failure to instruct your bank or broker how to vote, or abstention with respect to the OceanFirst share issuance proposal will not be counted as a vote cast and will have no effect on the approval of such proposal, even though such approval is a condition to the completion of the integrated mergers. The merger agreement must be approved by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Cape common stock. The OceanFirst share issuance must be approved by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the total votes cast by the OceanFirst stockholders at the OceanFirst special meeting. The OceanFirst board unanimously recommends that the OceanFirst stockholders vote FOR the OceanFirst share issuance proposal and the Cape board unanimously recommends that the Cape stockholders vote FOR the Cape merger proposal.

Q: If my shares of common stock are held in street name by my bank or broker, will my bank or broker automatically vote my shares for me?

A: No. Your bank or broker cannot vote your shares without instructions from you. You should instruct your bank or broker how to vote your shares in accordance with the instructions provided to you. Please check the voting form used by your bank or broker.

Q: If I am a participant in Cape's ESOP or Cape's 401(k) Plan, how will shares owned through such plans be voted?

A: If you participate in the Cape Bank Employee Stock Ownership Plan (which we refer to as the Cape ESOP) or if you hold shares of Cape common stock through the Cape Bank Employees Savings & Profit Sharing Plan (which we refer to as the Cape 401(k) Plan) or the Colonial Bank 401(k) Savings Plan that was assumed by Cape (which we refer to as the Colonial 401(k) Plan, and together with the Cape 401(k) Plan, the 401(k) Plans), you will receive a proxy card for each plan in which you have an interest in Cape common stock that reflects all of the shares you may direct the trustee to vote on your behalf under the plans. Under the terms of the Cape ESOP, the Cape ESOP trustee votes all shares held by the Cape ESOP, but each Cape ESOP participant may direct the trustee how to vote the shares of Cape common stock allocated to his or her account. The Cape ESOP trustee, subject to the exercise of its fiduciary responsibilities, will vote all unallocated shares of Cape common stock held by the Cape ESOP and allocated shares for which no voting instructions are received in the same proportion as shares for which it has received timely voting instructions.

Table of Contents

Under the terms of the Cape 401(k) Plan and under the terms of the trust agreement for the Colonial 401(k) Plan, a participant is entitled to provide voting instructions for all shares credited to his or her 401(k) Plan account and held in the Stock Fund of such 401(k) Plan. Shares for which no voting instructions are given or for which voting instructions were not timely received will be voted in the same proportion as shares for which voting instructions were received.

The deadline for returning your voting instructions is April 19, 2016.

Q: If I am a participant in OceanFirst's ESOP or OceanFirst's 401(k) Plan, how will shares owned through such plans be voted?

A: If you participate in the OceanFirst Bank Employee Stock Ownership Plan (the OceanFirst ESOP), or the OceanFirst Bank Retirement Plan (which we refer to as the OceanFirst 401(k) Plan), you will receive a voting instruction form for each plan that reflects all shares that may vote under the particular plan. Under the terms of the OceanFirst ESOP, the OceanFirst ESOP trustee votes all shares held by the OceanFirst ESOP, but each OceanFirst ESOP participant may direct the trustee how to vote the shares of OceanFirst common stock allocated to his or her account. The OceanFirst ESOP trustee, subject to the exercise of its fiduciary responsibilities, will vote all unallocated shares of OceanFirst common stock held by the OceanFirst ESOP and allocated shares for which no voting instructions are received in the same proportion as shares for which it has received timely voting instructions.

Under the terms of the OceanFirst 401(k) Plan, a participant is entitled to provide instructions for all shares credited to his or her OceanFirst 401(k) Plan account. The trustee will vote all shares for which no directions are given or for which timely instructions were not received in the same proportion as shares for which voting instructions were timely received.

The deadline for returning your voting instructions is April 18, 2016.

Q: Can I attend the meeting and vote my shares in person?

A: Yes. All stockholders of OceanFirst and Cape, including stockholders of record and stockholders who hold their shares in street name through banks, brokers, nominees or any other holder of record, are invited to attend their respective meetings. Holders of record of OceanFirst and Cape common stock can vote in person at the OceanFirst special meeting and Cape special meeting, respectively. If you are not a stockholder of record, you must obtain a proxy card, executed in your favor, from the record holder of your shares, such as a broker, bank or other nominee, to be able to vote in person at your meeting. If you plan to attend your meeting, you must hold your shares in your own name or have a letter from the record holder of your shares confirming your ownership. In addition, you must bring a form of personal photo identification with you in order to be admitted. OceanFirst and Cape reserve the right to refuse admittance to anyone without proper proof of share ownership or without proper photo identification. The use of cameras, sound recording equipment, communications devices or any similar equipment during the special meetings is prohibited without OceanFirst's or Cape's express written consent, respectively.

Q: Can I change my vote?

A: OceanFirst stockholders: Yes. If you are a holder of record of OceanFirst common stock, you may change your vote or revoke any proxy at any time before it is voted by (i) signing and returning a proxy card with a later date, (ii) delivering a written revocation letter to OceanFirst's corporate secretary, or (iii) attending the OceanFirst special meeting in person, notifying the corporate secretary and voting by ballot at the OceanFirst special meeting. Attendance at the OceanFirst special meeting will not automatically revoke your proxy. A revocation or later-dated proxy received by OceanFirst after the vote will not affect the vote. OceanFirst's corporate secretary's mailing address is: Corporate Secretary, OceanFirst Financial Corp., 975 Hooper Avenue, Toms River, New Jersey 08753.

Table of Contents

Cape stockholders: Yes. If you are a holder of record of Cape common stock, you may change your vote or revoke any proxy at any time before it is voted by (i) signing and returning a proxy card with a later date, (ii) delivering a written revocation letter to Cape's corporate secretary, (iii) attending the Cape special meeting in person, notifying the corporate secretary and voting by ballot at the Cape special meeting or (iv) voting by telephone or the Internet at a later time. Attendance at the Cape special meeting by itself will not automatically revoke your proxy. A revocation or later-dated proxy received by Cape after the vote will not affect the vote. Cape's corporate secretary's mailing address is: Corporate Secretary, Cape Bancorp, Inc., 225 North Main Street, Cape May Court House, New Jersey 08210.

If you hold your shares of OceanFirst common stock or Cape common stock in street name through a bank or broker, you should contact your bank or broker to change your vote or revoke your proxy.

Q: Will OceanFirst be required to submit the OceanFirst share issuance proposal to its stockholders even if the OceanFirst board has withdrawn, modified or qualified its recommendation?

Q: Will Cape be required to submit the Cape merger proposal to its stockholders even if the Cape board has withdrawn, modified or qualified its recommendation?

A: Yes. Unless the merger agreement is terminated before the Cape special meeting, Cape is required to submit the Cape merger proposal to its stockholders even if the Cape board has withdrawn, modified or qualified its recommendation.

Q: What are the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the integrated mergers to Cape stockholders?

A: The obligations of Cape and OceanFirst to complete the integrated mergers are subject to, among other customary closing conditions described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the receipt by each of Cape and OceanFirst of the opinion of its counsel to the effect that the integrated mergers together will be treated as an integrated transaction that qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (which we refer to as the Code). Assuming that the integrated mergers qualify as a reorganization, Cape stockholders generally will recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount not to exceed the cash portion of the merger consideration for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

You should read the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Integrated Mergers beginning on page 106 for a more complete discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the integrated mergers. Tax matters can be complicated and the tax consequences of the integrated mergers to you will depend on your particular tax situation. You should consult your tax advisor to determine the tax consequences of the integrated mergers to you.

Q: Are Cape stockholders entitled to dissenters' rights?

A: No. Cape stockholders are not entitled to exercise dissenters' rights in connection with the Transactions. For further information, see The Transactions No Dissenters' Rights beginning on page 85.

Q: If I am a Cape stockholder, should I send in my Cape stock certificates now?

A: No. Please do not send in your Cape stock certificates with your proxy. Promptly following the completion of the first-step merger, an exchange agent will send you instructions for exchanging Cape stock certificates for the merger consideration. See The Merger Agreement Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Certificates beginning on page 88.

Q: What should I do if I hold my shares of Cape common stock in book-entry form?

A: You are not required to take any special additional actions if your shares of Cape common stock are held in book-entry form. Promptly following the completion of the first-step merger, shares of Cape common stock held in book-entry form automatically will be exchanged for shares of OceanFirst common stock in book-entry form and cash to be paid in exchange for fractional shares, if any.

Q: Whom may I contact if I cannot locate my Cape stock certificate(s)?

A: If you are unable to locate your original Cape stock certificate(s), you should contact Computershare, Cape's transfer agent, at 1-(800)-368-5948.

Q: What should I do if I receive more than one set of voting materials?

A: OceanFirst stockholders and Cape stockholders may receive more than one set of voting materials, including multiple copies of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and multiple proxy cards or voting instruction cards. For example, if you hold shares of OceanFirst and/or Cape common stock in more than one brokerage account, you will receive a separate voting instruction card for each brokerage account in which you hold such shares. If you are a holder of record of OceanFirst common stock or Cape common stock and your shares are registered in more than one name, you will receive more than one proxy card. In addition, if you are a holder of both OceanFirst common stock and Cape common stock, you will receive one or more separate proxy cards or voting instruction cards for each company. Please complete, sign, date and return each proxy card and voting instruction card that you receive or otherwise follow the voting instructions set forth in this joint proxy statement/prospectus to ensure that you vote every share of OceanFirst common stock and/or Cape common stock that you own.

Q: When do you expect to complete the Transactions?

A: OceanFirst and Cape currently expect to complete the Transactions in the summer of 2016. However, neither OceanFirst nor Cape can assure you of when, or if, the Transactions will be completed. The completion of the integrated mergers is subject to the fulfillment of customary closing conditions, including the approval by the OceanFirst stockholders of the OceanFirst share issuance proposal, the approval by the Cape stockholders of the Cape merger proposal and the receipt of necessary regulatory approvals.

Q: What happens if the first-step merger is not completed?

A: If the first-step merger is not completed, Cape stockholders will not receive any consideration for their shares in connection with the first-step merger. Instead, Cape will remain an independent public company and its common stock will continue to be listed and traded on the NASDAQ. In addition, if the merger agreement is terminated in certain circumstances, a termination fee may be required to be paid by either OceanFirst or Cape. For a more detailed discussion of the circumstances under which such payments will be required to be paid, please see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "The Merger Agreement - Termination Fee" beginning on page 102.

In the First-Step Merger, Cape Stockholders will be Entitled to Receive the Merger Consideration (page 52)

OceanFirst and Cape are proposing a strategic merger. If the first-step merger is completed, each outstanding share of Cape common stock, except for certain shares of Cape common stock owned by Cape or OceanFirst, will be converted into the right to receive $2.25 in cash, without interest, and 0.6375 shares of OceanFirst, together with cash in lieu of fractional shares common stock. OceanFirst will not issue any fractional shares of OceanFirst common stock in the first-step merger. Cape stockholders who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fraction of a share of OceanFirst common stock upon the completion of the first-step merger will instead be entitled to receive an amount in cash, rounded to the nearest cent, determined by multiplying the fraction of a share (rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed as a decimal form) of OceanFirst common stock to which the holder would otherwise be entitled by the average closing-sale price per share of OceanFirst common stock on the NASDAQ (as reported by The Wall Street Journal) for the five full trading days ending on the day preceding the day on which the first-step merger is completed. It is currently expected that the former Cape stockholders will own, in the aggregate, approximately 33.3% of the outstanding shares of OceanFirst common stock immediately after the first-step merger.

OceanFirst common stock is listed on the NASDAQ under the symbol `OCFC` and Cape common stock is listed on the NASDAQ under the symbol `CBNJ`. The following table shows the closing sale prices of OceanFirst common stock and Cape common stock as reported on the NASDAQ on January 5, 2016, the last full trading day before the public announcement of the Transactions, and on March 11, 2016 the latest practicable trading day before the printing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. This table also shows the implied value of the merger consideration payable for each share of Cape common stock, which was calculated by first multiplying the closing price of OceanFirst common stock on those dates by the exchange ratio of 0.6375, and then adding $2.25, representing the per share cash consideration.

	OceanFirst Common Stock	Cape Common Stock	Implied Value of Merger Consideration
January 5, 2016	$ 19.95	$ 12.39	$ 14.97
March 11, 2016	$ 17.41	$ 13.91	$ 13.35

The merger agreement governs the integrated mergers. The merger agreement is included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A. All descriptions in this summary and elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus of the terms and conditions of the integrated mergers are qualified by reference to the merger agreement. The Cape board unanimously recommends that Cape stockholders vote FOR the Cape merger proposal and FOR the other proposals presented at the Cape special meeting. For the factors considered by the Cape board in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "The Transactions – Cape's Reasons for the Transactions; Recommendation of the Cape Board" beginning on page 57.

For more information regarding the voting agreements, see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "The Merger Agreement – Voting Agreements" beginning on page 103.

Cape Stockholder Demand Letter Regarding the Transactions (page 59)

Cape received a letter, dated January 29, 2016, from a purported Cape stockholder demanding that the Cape board investigate the purported stockholder's allegation that the merger consideration undervalues Cape and is therefore a violation of the fiduciary duties of the Cape board. The Cape board believes the allegation is without merit, but will conduct a review in accordance with Maryland law to investigate the allegation.

Opinion of Cape's Financial Advisor (page 59 and Annex D)

On January 5, 2016, Raymond James & Associates, Inc. (which we refer to as "Raymond James") rendered its written opinion to the Cape board that as of the date of the opinion, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the merger consideration in the first-step merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to Cape stockholders. The full text of the Raymond James written opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached to this document as Annex D. Cape stockholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety. The Raymond James written opinion is addressed to the Cape board, is directed only to the merger consideration, and does not constitute a recommendation as to how any Cape stockholder should vote with respect to the Cape merger proposal, the Cape merger-related compensation proposal, or any proposals presented at the Cape special meeting.

On January 5, 2016, Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. (which we refer to as Sandler O'Neill) rendered its written opinion to the OceanFirst board that, as of the date of the opinion, and based upon and subject to the

The full text of the Sandler O'Neill written opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached to this document as Annex E. The Sandler O'Neill written opinion is addressed to the OceanFirst board, is directed only to the merger consideration, and does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of OceanFirst common stock should vote with respect to the OceanFirst share issuance proposal or any other matter.

The Cape equity awards will be affected as follows:

Restricted Stock Awards: At the effective time, each restricted stock award granted by Cape (or assumed by Cape from a prior acquisition) will become fully vested and each holder of such restricted stock awards will be entitled to receive the per share merger consideration for each share of Cape common stock held by such holder.

Only holders of record of OceanFirst common stock at the close of business on March 11, 2016 (which we refer to as the OceanFirst record date), will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the OceanFirst special meeting. Subject to the ten percent voting limitation set forth in OceanFirst's certificate of incorporation, each share of OceanFirst common stock is entitled to one vote on each proposal to be considered at the OceanFirst special meeting. As of the OceanFirst record date, there were 17,294,735 shares of OceanFirst common stock entitled to vote at the OceanFirst special meeting.

As of the OceanFirst record date, the directors and executive officers of OceanFirst and their affiliates beneficially owned and were entitled to vote approximately 1,984,227 shares of OceanFirst common stock representing approximately 5.9% of the shares of OceanFirst common stock outstanding on that date.

Approval of the OceanFirst share issuance requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the total votes cast by the OceanFirst stockholders at the OceanFirst special meeting. If you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy, fail to submit a proxy or vote in person at the OceanFirst special meeting or fail to instruct your bank or broker how to vote with respect to the OceanFirst share issuance proposal, it will have no effect on the OceanFirst share issuance proposal.

The OceanFirst adjournment proposal will be approved if a majority of the votes cast by the holders of OceanFirst common stock at the OceanFirst special meeting are voted in favor of such proposal. If you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy, fail to submit a proxy or vote in person at the OceanFirst special meeting or fail to instruct your bank or broker how to vote with respect to the OceanFirst adjournment proposal, it will have no effect on the proposal.

Certain Cape stockholders, including Patriot, and each of the directors and certain executive officers of Cape, have entered into separate voting agreements with OceanFirst, solely in his or her or its capacity as a Cape stockholder, pursuant to which they have agreed to vote in favor of the Cape merger proposal.

Approval of the Cape merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the total number of outstanding shares of Cape common stock entitled to vote at the Cape special meeting. If you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy, fail to submit a proxy or vote in person at the Cape special meeting, or fail to instruct your bank or broker how to vote with respect to the Cape merger proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal.

The Cape merger-related compensation proposal and the Cape adjournment proposal will each be approved if a majority of the votes cast on each such proposal at the Cape special meeting are voted in favor of each such proposal at the Cape special meeting. If you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy, fail to submit a proxy or vote in person at the Cape special meeting or fail to instruct your bank or broker how to vote with respect to either such proposal, it will have no effect on the Cape merger-related compensation proposal or the Cape adjournment proposal.

The obligations of Cape and OceanFirst to complete the integrated mergers are subject to, among other customary closing conditions described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the receipt by each of Cape and OceanFirst of the opinion of its counsel to the effect that the integrated mergers together will be treated as an integrated transaction that qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Assuming that the integrated mergers qualify as a reorganization, Cape stockholders generally will recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount not to exceed the cash portion of the merger consideration for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

You should read the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Integrated Mergers" beginning on page 106 for a more complete discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the integrated mergers. Tax matters can be complicated and the tax consequences of the integrated mergers to you will depend on your particular tax situation. You should consult your tax advisor to determine the tax consequences of the integrated mergers to you.

Cape's Directors and Officers Have Financial Interests in the Transactions that Differ from Your Interests (page 81)

In considering the recommendation of the Cape board to adopt the merger agreement, Cape stockholders should be aware that officers and directors of Cape have employment and other compensation agreements or plans that give them interests in the Transactions that are different from, or in addition to, their interests as Cape stockholders. The Cape board was aware of these circumstances at the time it approved the merger agreement. These interests include:

The employment agreement of Michael D. Devlin, President and Chief Executive Officer of Cape, that provides for a cash severance payment, life insurance and medical and dental benefits in the event of a termination of employment without cause or for good reason following a change in control;

Change in control agreements for Edward J. Geletka, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, Guy Hackney, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, James F. McGowan, Executive Vice President and Chief Credit Officer, Michelle Pollack, Executive Vice President and Chief Lending Officer, and Charles L. Pinto, Executive Vice President and Chief Banking Officer, as well as twelve other individuals that provide for cash severance payments, life insurance and medical and dental benefits in the event of a termination of employment without cause or for good reason following a change in control;

Michael D. Devlin, President and Chief Executive Officer, is expected to be appointed as a member of the OceanFirst board and the OceanFirst Bank board, or, if Mr. Devlin is unable to serve, an alternative member of Cape's current board shall be appointed to the OceanFirst and OceanFirst Bank boards;

Cape has made awards of stock options to certain officers and directors under its equity incentive plan. In addition, certain former officers and directors of Colonial Financial Services, Inc. (which we refer to as Colonial), which was acquired by Cape on April 1, 2015, continue to vest in stock options under Colonial's equity plan as officers and directors of Cape. As a result of the first-step merger, each stock option, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to closing will be converted into an option to acquire a number of shares of OceanFirst common stock (rounded down to the nearest whole share) determined by multiplying (x) the number of shares of Cape common stock subject to such Cape option immediately prior to the effective time by (y) 0.75; and the exercise price per share of the new option (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) will be equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (i) the per share exercise price for the shares of Cape common stock subject to such Cape option by (ii) 0.75;

Cape has made awards of restricted stock to certain of its directors under its equity incentive plan. In addition, certain former officers and directors of Colonial, continue to vest, as officers and directors of Cape, in restricted stock granted to them under Colonial's equity plan. As a result of the first-step merger, each restricted stock award shall become fully vested and each holder will be entitled to receive the per share merger consideration for each share of Cape common stock held by such holder; and

Cape Stockholders Are NOT Entitled to Assert Dissenters' Rights (page 85)

Cape stockholders are not entitled to exercise any rights of an objecting stockholder provided for under Maryland law because Cape's articles of incorporation provide that the holders of Cape common stock are not entitled to exercise such dissenters' rights unless the Cape board determines that such rights apply with respect to one or more transactions. However, the merger agreement contains certain restrictions on Cape's ability to take actions that would cause the Cape stockholders to be entitled to dissenters' rights. For further information, see "The Transactions - No Dissenters' Rights" beginning on page 85.

Completion of the Transactions; Conditions That Must Be Fulfilled For The Integrated Mergers To Occur (page 100)

Currently, Cape and OceanFirst expect to complete the Transactions in the summer of 2016. As more fully described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and in the merger agreement, the completion of the integrated mergers depends on a number of customary closing conditions being satisfied or, where legally permissible, waived. These conditions include:

approval of the merger agreement by the Cape stockholders and approval of the issuance of shares of OceanFirst common stock in connection with the first-step merger by the OceanFirst stockholders;

authorization for listing on the NASDAQ of the shares of OceanFirst common stock to be issued in the first-step merger;

the receipt of required regulatory approvals, including the approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (which we refer to as the "Federal Reserve Board") and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (which we refer to as the "OCC"). In addition, certain notices need to be filed with the Department of Banking and Insurance of the State of New Jersey (which we refer to as the "NJ Department"); effectiveness of the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus is a part;

the absence of any order, injunction or other legal restraint preventing the completion of the integrated mergers or making the completion of the integrated mergers illegal;

subject to the materiality standards provided in the merger agreement, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of OceanFirst and Cape in the merger agreement;

subject to the materiality standards set forth in the merger agreement, performance by each of OceanFirst and Cape of its obligations under the merger agreement; and receipt by each of OceanFirst and Cape of an opinion from its counsel as to certain tax matters. Neither Cape nor OceanFirst can be certain when, or if, the conditions to the integrated mergers will be satisfied or waived, or that the integrated mergers will be completed.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 101)

The merger agreement can be terminated at any time prior to completion of the first-step merger in the following circumstances:

by mutual written consent, if the OceanFirst board and the Cape board so determine;

by the OceanFirst board or the Cape board if (i) any governmental entity denies any requisite regulatory approval in connection with the Transactions and such denial has become final and nonappealable, or (ii) any governmental entity of competent jurisdiction has issued a final and nonappealable order prohibiting or making illegal the consummation of the transactions contemplated

by the merger agreement, unless the failure to obtain a requisite regulatory approval is due to the failure of the terminating party to perform or observe its obligations under the merger agreement;

by the OceanFirst board or the Cape board if the integrated mergers have not been completed on or before the one year anniversary of the date of the merger agreement (which we refer to as the termination date), unless the failure of the integrated mergers to be completed by such date is due to the failure of the terminating party to perform or observe its obligations under the merger agreement;

by the OceanFirst board or the Cape board (except that the terminating party cannot then be in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement) if the other party breaches any of its obligations or any of its representations and warranties (or any such representation or warranty ceases to be true) set forth in the merger agreement which either individually or in the aggregate would constitute, if occurring or continuing on the closing date, the failure of a closing condition of the terminating party and such breach is not cured within 45 days following written notice to the party committing such breach, or such breach cannot be cured during such period;

by Cape, if the OceanFirst board (i) fails to recommend in this joint proxy statement/prospectus that the OceanFirst stockholders approve the OceanFirst share issuance, or takes certain adverse actions with respect to such recommendation, or (ii) breaches certain obligations, including with respect to calling a meeting of its stockholders and recommending that they approve the OceanFirst share issuance, in any material respect;

by OceanFirst, if the Cape board (i) fails to recommend in this joint proxy statement/prospectus that the Cape stockholders approve the merger agreement, or takes certain adverse actions with respect to such recommendation, (ii) fails to recommend against acceptance of a tender offer or exchange offer for outstanding Cape common stock that has been publicly disclosed (other than by OceanFirst or an affiliate of OceanFirst) within ten business days after the commencement of such tender or exchange offer, (iii) recommends or endorses an acquisition proposal, or (iv) breaches certain obligations, including with respect to acquisition proposals or calling a meeting of its stockholders and recommending that they approve the merger agreement, in any material respect; or by Cape, if the market value of OceanFirst common stock on the determination date is less than $15.74 and OceanFirst common stock underperforms an index of financial institutions by more than a specified threshold calculated pursuant to a prescribed formula set forth in the merger agreement and described in more detail in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement beginning on page 101.

If the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, including circumstances involving alternative acquisition proposals with respect to Cape, changes in the recommendation of the Cape board or changes in the recommendation of the OceanFirst board, Cape or OceanFirst, as applicable, may be required to pay to the other party a termination fee equal to $7.2 million (which we refer to as the termination fee). The termination fee could discourage other companies from seeking to acquire or merge with Cape or OceanFirst.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Integrated Mergers and the Bank Merger (page 85)

Subject to the terms of the merger agreement, both Cape and OceanFirst have agreed to cooperate with each other and use their reasonable best efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals necessary or advisable to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These include approvals from, among others, the Federal Reserve Board and the OCC. Additionally, certain notices need to be filed with the NJ Department. OceanFirst and Cape have filed the required applications and notices. Although neither Cape nor OceanFirst knows of any reason why it cannot obtain these regulatory approvals in a timely manner, Cape and OceanFirst cannot be certain when, or if, they will be obtained.

The Rights of Cape Stockholders Will Change as a Result of the First-Step Merger (page 111)

OceanFirst is incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware and Cape is incorporated under the laws of the State of Maryland. Accordingly, Delaware law governs the OceanFirst stockholders and Maryland law governs the Cape stockholders. As a result of the first-step merger, Cape stockholders will become stockholders of OceanFirst. Thus, following the completion of the first-step merger, the rights of Cape stockholders who become OceanFirst stockholders in the first-step merger will be governed by the corporate law of the State of Delaware and will also then be governed by OceanFirst's certificate of incorporation and bylaws, rather than by the corporate law of the State of Maryland and Cape's articles of incorporation and bylaws.

See Comparison of Stockholders' Rights for a description of the material differences in stockholders' rights under the laws of the State of Delaware, the laws of the State of Maryland and each of the OceanFirst and Cape governing documents.

Table of ContentsSELECTED UNAUDITED PRO FORMA FINANCIAL DATA

The following table shows selected unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data about the financial condition and results of operations of OceanFirst giving effect to the Transactions. The selected unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information assumes that the Transactions are accounted for under the acquisition method of accounting with OceanFirst treated as the acquirer. Under the acquisition method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of Cape, as of the effective date, will be recorded by OceanFirst at their respective estimated fair values and the excess of the merger consideration over the fair value of Cape's net assets will be allocated to goodwill.

The table sets forth the information as if the Transactions had become effective on September 30, 2015, with respect to financial condition data, and at the beginning of the periods presented, with respect to the results of operations data. The selected unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data has been derived from and should be read in conjunction with the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information, including the notes thereto, which is included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus under the section entitled "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements." The selected unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data is presented for illustrative purposes only and does not necessarily indicate the financial results of the combined companies had the companies actually been combined at the beginning of the periods presented. The selected unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data also does not consider any potential impacts of current market conditions on revenues, potential revenue enhancements, anticipated cost savings and expense efficiencies, or asset dispositions, among other factors. Further, as explained in more detail in the notes accompanying the more detailed unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information included under "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements" beginning on page 29, the pro forma allocation of purchase price reflected in the selected unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is subject to adjustment and may vary from the actual purchase price allocation that will be recorded at the time the Transactions are completed. Additionally, the adjustments made in the unaudited pro forma condensed financial information, which are described in those notes, are preliminary and may be revised.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to general investment risks and the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed under the section Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements beginning on page 28 you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding how to vote for the proposals presented in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. You should also consider the other information in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the other documents incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 126.

Because the market price of OceanFirst common stock may fluctuate, Cape stockholders cannot be certain of the precise value of the stock portion of the merger consideration they will be entitled to receive.

At the time the first-step merger is completed, each issued and outstanding share of Cape common stock, except for certain specified shares owned by OceanFirst or Cape, will be converted into the right to receive $2.25 in cash, without interest, and 0.6375 shares of OceanFirst common stock, together with cash in lieu of fractional shares. There will be a time lapse between each of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the date of the OceanFirst special meeting, the date of the Cape special meeting and the date on which Cape stockholders entitled to receive the merger consideration actually receive the merger consideration. The market value of OceanFirst common stock may fluctuate during these periods as a result of a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in OceanFirst's businesses, operations and prospects and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are outside of the control of OceanFirst and Cape. Consequently, at the time Cape stockholders must decide whether to approve the merger agreement, they will not know the actual market value of the shares of OceanFirst common stock they may receive when the first-step merger is completed. Although the value of the cash portion of the merger consideration is fixed at $2.25 per share of Cape common stock, the value of the portion of the merger consideration that is represented by shares of OceanFirst common stock will depend on the market value of shares of OceanFirst common stock on the date the merger consideration is received. This value will not be known at the time of the Cape special meeting and may be more or less than the current price of OceanFirst common stock or the price of OceanFirst common stock at the time of the Cape special meeting.

The market price of OceanFirst common stock after the first-step merger is completed may be affected by factors different from those affecting the market price of Cape or OceanFirst common stock currently.

Upon completion of the first-step merger, Cape stockholders will become OceanFirst stockholders. OceanFirst's business differs in important respects from that of Cape, and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of OceanFirst common stock after the completion of the first-step merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each of OceanFirst and Cape. For a discussion of the businesses of OceanFirst and Cape and of some important factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see the documents incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and referred to under Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 126.

Regulatory approvals may not be received, may take longer than expected or may impose conditions that are not presently anticipated or that could have an adverse effect on the combined company following the Transactions.

Before the Transactions can be completed, OceanFirst and Cape must obtain approvals from the Federal Reserve Board and the OCC, and also file certain notices with the NJ Department. Other approvals, waivers or consents from regulators may also be required. In determining whether to grant these approvals, waivers and consents the regulators consider a variety of factors, including the regulatory standing of each party and the factors described under the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "The Transactions - Regulatory Approvals Required for the Transactions" beginning on page 85. An adverse development in either party's regulatory standing or these factors could result in an inability to obtain approval or delay their receipt. These regulators may impose conditions on the completion of the Transactions or require changes to the terms of the Transactions. Such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying or preventing completion of the Transactions or imposing additional costs on or limiting the revenues of the combined company following the completion of the Transactions, any of which might have an adverse effect on the combined company following the completion of the Transactions. However, under the terms of the merger agreement, in connection with obtaining such regulatory approvals, neither party is required to take any action, or commit to take any action, or agree to any condition or restriction, that would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect (measured on a scale relative to Cape) on any of OceanFirst, Cape or the surviving corporation, after giving effect to the integrated mergers (which we refer to as a "materially burdensome regulatory condition"). For more information, see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "The Transactions – Regulatory Approvals Required for the Transactions" beginning on page 85.

Combining the two companies may be more difficult, costly or time consuming than expected and the anticipated benefits and cost savings of the Transactions may not be realized.

OceanFirst and Cape have operated and, until the completion of the Transactions, will continue to operate, independently. The success of the Transactions, including anticipated benefits and cost savings, will depend, in part, on OceanFirst's ability to successfully combine and integrate the businesses of OceanFirst and Cape in a manner that permits growth opportunities and does not materially disrupt the existing customer relations nor result in decreased revenues due to loss of customers. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of either company's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect the combined company's ability to maintain relationships with clients, customers, depositors, employees and other constituents or to achieve the anticipated benefits and cost savings of the Transactions. The loss of key employees could adversely affect OceanFirst's ability to successfully conduct its business, which could have an adverse effect on OceanFirst's financial results and the value of its common stock. If OceanFirst experiences difficulties with the integration process, the anticipated benefits of the Transactions may not be realized fully or at all, or may take longer to realize than expected. As with any merger of financial institutions, there also may be business disruptions that cause OceanFirst and/or Cape to lose customers or cause customers to remove their accounts from OceanFirst and/or Cape and move their business to competing financial institutions. Integration efforts between the two companies will also divert management attention and resources. These integration matters could have an adverse effect on each of Cape and OceanFirst during this transition period and for an undetermined period after completion of the Transaction on the combined company. In addition, the actual cost savings of the Transactions could be less than anticipated.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements included in this document are preliminary and the actual financial condition and results of operations after the Transactions may differ materially.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements in this joint proxy statement/prospectus are presented for illustrative purposes only and are not necessarily indicative of what OceanFirst's actual financial condition or results of operations would have been had the Transaction been completed on the dates indicated. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements reflect adjustments to illustrate the effect of the Transactions had they been completed on the dates indicated, which are based upon preliminary estimates, to record the Cape identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed at fair value and the resulting goodwill recognized. The purchase price allocation for the first-step merger reflected in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is preliminary, and final allocation of the purchase price will be based upon the actual purchase price and the fair value of the assets and liabilities of Cape as of the date of the completion of the Transactions. Accordingly, the final acquisition accounting adjustments may differ materially from the pro forma adjustments reflected in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

For more information, see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements beginning on page 29.

Certain of Cape's directors and executive officers have interests in the Transactions that may differ from the interests of the Cape stockholders.

The Cape stockholders should be aware that some of Cape's directors and executive officers have interests in the Transactions and have arrangements that are different from, or in addition to, those of Cape stockholders generally. The Cape board was aware of these interests and considered these interests, among other matters, when making its decision to approve the merger agreement, and in recommending that Cape stockholders vote in favor of the Cape merger proposal and certain related matters and against alternative transactions.

The material interests considered by the Cape board were as follows:

The employment agreement of Michael D. Devlin, President and Chief Executive Officer of Cape, that provides for a cash severance payment, life insurance and medical and dental benefits in the event of a termination of employment without cause or for good reason following a change in control;

Change in control agreements for Edward J. Geletka, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Cape, Guy Hackney, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Cape, James F. McGowan, Executive Vice President and Chief Credit Officer of Cape, Michelle Pollack, Executive Vice President and Chief Lending Officer of Cape, and Charles L. Pinto, Executive Vice President and Chief Banking Officer of Cape, as well as twelve other individuals that provide for cash severance payments, life insurance and medical and dental benefits in the event of a termination of employment without cause or for good reason following a change in control;

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, OceanFirst and OceanFirst Bank have agreed to appoint Michael D. Devlin, President and Chief Executive Officer of Cape, to serve as a member of the OceanFirst board and the OceanFirst Bank board with a term expiring at the 2018 annual meeting of OceanFirst stockholders, or, if Mr. Devlin is unable to serve, an alternative member of Cape's current board shall be appointed to the OceanFirst and OceanFirst Bank boards;

Cape has made awards of stock options to certain of its officers and directors under the Cape Bancorp, Inc. 2008 Equity Incentive Plan. In addition, certain former officers and directors of Colonial, which was acquired by Cape on April 1, 2015, continue to vest in stock options under Colonial's equity plan as officers, employees and directors of Cape. As a result of the first-step merger, each stock option, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to closing will be converted into an option to acquire a number of shares of OceanFirst common stock (rounded down to the nearest whole share) determined by multiplying (x) the number of shares of Cape common stock subject to such Cape option immediately prior to the effective time by (y) 0.75; and the exercise per share of the new option (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) will be equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (i) the per share exercise price for the shares of Cape common stock subject to such Cape option by (ii) 0.75;

Cape has made awards of restricted stock to certain directors under its equity incentive plan. In addition, certain former officers and directors of Colonial, continue to vest, as officers and directors of Cape, in restricted stock granted to them under Colonial's equity plan. As a result of the first-step merger each restricted stock award shall become fully vested and the holder will be entitled to receive the per share merger consideration for each share of Cape common stock held by such holder; and

Rights of Cape officers and directors to continued indemnification coverage and continued coverage under directors' and officers' liability insurance policies.

For a more complete description of these interests, see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "The Transactions - Interests of Cape's Directors and Executive Officers in the Transactions" beginning on page 81.

Termination of the merger agreement could negatively impact Cape or OceanFirst.

If the merger agreement is terminated, there may be various consequences. For example, Cape's or OceanFirst's businesses may have been impacted adversely by the failure to pursue other opportunities due to management's focus on the Transactions, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the Transactions. Additionally, if the merger agreement is terminated, the market price of the Cape common stock or the OceanFirst common stock could decline to the extent that the current market prices reflect a market assumption that the Transactions will be completed. If the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, Cape or OceanFirst may be required to pay to the other party a termination fee of $7.2 million.

Cape and OceanFirst will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the Transactions are pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the Transactions on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on Cape or OceanFirst. These uncertainties may impair Cape's or OceanFirst's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the Transactions are completed, and could cause customers and others that deal with Cape or OceanFirst to seek to change existing business relationships with Cape or OceanFirst. Retention of certain employees by Cape or OceanFirst may be challenging while the Transactions are pending, as certain employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with OceanFirst. If key employees depart because of issues relating to the uncertainty and difficulty of integration or a desire not to remain with Cape or OceanFirst, Cape's business or OceanFirst's business could be harmed. In addition, subject to certain exceptions, Cape has agreed to operate its business in the ordinary course prior to closing, and each of Cape and OceanFirst has agreed to certain restrictive covenants. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "The Merger Agreement - Covenants and Agreements" beginning on page 92 for a description of the restrictive covenants applicable to Cape and OceanFirst.

If the Transactions are not completed, OceanFirst and Cape will have incurred substantial expenses without realizing the expected benefits of the Transactions.

Each of OceanFirst and Cape has incurred and will incur substantial expenses in connection with the negotiation and completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, as well as the costs and expenses of filing, printing and mailing this joint proxy statement/prospectus and all filing and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the first-step merger. If the Transactions are not completed, OceanFirst and Cape would have to recognize these expenses without realizing the expected benefits of the Transactions.

The merger agreement limits Cape's ability to pursue acquisition proposals and requires either company to pay a termination fee of $7.2 million under limited circumstances, including circumstances relating to acquisition proposals for Cape. Additionally, certain provisions of Cape's articles of incorporation and bylaws may deter potential acquirers.

The merger agreement prohibits Cape from initiating, soliciting, knowingly encouraging or knowingly facilitating certain third-party acquisition proposals. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "The Merger Agreement - Agreement Not to Solicit Other Offers" beginning on page 99. In addition, unless the merger agreement has been terminated in accordance with its terms, Cape has an unqualified obligation to submit the Cape merger proposal to a vote by Cape stockholders, even if Cape receives a proposal that the Cape board believes is superior to the Transactions. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "The Merger Agreement - Stockholder Meetings and Recommendation of the Boards of Directors of Cape and OceanFirst" beginning on page 98. The merger agreement also provides that OceanFirst or Cape must pay a termination fee in the amount of $7.2 million in the event that the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, including Cape's failure to abide by certain obligations not to solicit acquisition proposals. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "The Merger Agreement - Termination Fee" beginning on page 102. These provisions might discourage a potential competing acquirer that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of Cape from considering or proposing such an acquisition. Certain Cape stockholders, including Patriot, each director and certain executive officers of Cape, solely in his or her or its capacity as a Cape stockholder, have entered into separate voting agreements and have agreed to vote their shares of Cape common stock in favor of the Cape merger proposal and certain related matters, and against alternative transactions. The Cape stockholders that are party to these voting agreements beneficially own and are entitled to vote in the aggregate approximately 16.58% of the outstanding shares of Cape common stock as of the Cape record date. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "The Merger Agreement – Voting Agreements" beginning on page 103. Additionally, certain provisions of Cape's articles of incorporation or bylaws or of the Maryland General Corporation Law (which we refer to as the "MGCL") could make it more difficult for a third-party to acquire control of Cape or may discourage a potential competing acquirer.

The shares of OceanFirst common stock to be received by Cape stockholders as a result of the first-step merger will have different rights from the shares of Cape common stock.

The rights of Cape stockholders are currently governed by the MGCL, Cape's articles of incorporation and Cape's bylaws. Upon completion of the first-step merger, Cape stockholders will become OceanFirst stockholders and their rights as stockholders will then be governed by the Delaware General Corporation Law (which we refer to as the "DGCL"), the OceanFirst certificate of incorporation and the OceanFirst bylaws. The rights associated with Cape common stock are different from the rights associated with OceanFirst common stock. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "Comparison of Stockholders' Rights" beginning on page 111 for a discussion of the different rights associated with OceanFirst common stock.

Holders of Cape and OceanFirst common stock will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the first-step merger and will exercise less influence over management.

Holders of Cape and OceanFirst common stock currently have the right to vote in the election of the board of directors and on other matters affecting Cape and OceanFirst, respectively. Upon the completion of the first-step merger, each Cape stockholder who receives shares of OceanFirst common stock will become an OceanFirst stockholder with a percentage ownership of OceanFirst that is smaller than the stockholder's percentage ownership of Cape. It is currently expected that the former Cape stockholders as a group will receive shares in the first-step merger constituting approximately 33.3% of the outstanding shares of OceanFirst common stock immediately after the first-step merger. As a result, current OceanFirst stockholders as a group will own approximately 66.7% of the outstanding shares of OceanFirst common stock immediately after the first-step merger. Because of this, Cape stockholders may have less influence on the management and policies of OceanFirst than they now have on the management and policies of Cape, and current OceanFirst stockholders may have less influence than they now have on the management and policies of OceanFirst. Upon consummation of the Transactions, OceanFirst has agreed to increase the size of the OceanFirst board to ten members and to appoint Mr. Devlin (or, if Mr. Devlin is unable to serve, an alternative member of Cape's current board selected by OceanFirst and OceanFirst Bank, respectively) to the boards of directors of OceanFirst and OceanFirst Bank as a member of the class of directors with a term expiring at the 2018 annual meeting of OceanFirst stockholders.

Cape stockholders do not have dissenters' or appraisal rights in the first-step merger.

Dissenters' rights are statutory rights that, if applicable under law, enable stockholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, and to demand that the corporation pay the fair value of their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to stockholders in connection with the extraordinary transaction. Under Maryland law, a corporation may eliminate dissenters' rights for one or more classes of stock by explicitly denying such rights in its articles of incorporation. Cape's articles of incorporation provide that holders of Cape common stock are not entitled to exercise the rights of an objecting stockholder provided for under the MGCL, unless the Cape board adopts a resolution determining that such rights will apply. However, the merger agreement contains certain restrictions on Cape's ability to take actions that would cause the Cape stockholders to be entitled to dissenters' rights. Accordingly, holders of Cape common stock are not entitled to dissenters' rights in connection with the first-step merger.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This joint proxy statement/prospectus contains forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements may include: management plans relating to the Transaction; the expected timing of the completion of the Transaction; the ability to complete the Transaction; the ability to obtain any required regulatory, stockholder or other approvals; any statements of the plans and objectives of management for future operations, products or services, including the execution of integration plans; any statements of expectation or belief; projections related to certain financial metrics; and any statements of assumptions underlying any of the foregoing. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words such as believe, expect, anticipate, intend, outlook, estimate, forecast, project and other words and expressions. Forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties, which change over time and are beyond our control. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made. Neither OceanFirst nor Cape assumes any duty and does not undertake to update forward-looking statements. Because forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions and uncertainties, actual results or future events could differ, possibly materially, from those that OceanFirst or Cape anticipated in its forward-looking statements and future results could differ materially from historical performance. Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, those included under Item 1A Risk Factors in OceanFirst's Annual Report on Form 10-K, those included under Item 1A Risk Factors in Cape's Annual Report on Form 10-K, those disclosed in OceanFirst's and Cape's respective other periodic reports filed with the SEC, as well as the possibility: that expected benefits may not materialize in the timeframe expected or at all, or may be more costly to achieve; that the Transaction may not be timely completed, if at all; that prior to the completion of the Transaction or thereafter, OceanFirst's and Cape's respective businesses may not perform as expected due to transaction-related uncertainty or other factors; that the parties are unable to successfully implement integration strategies; that required regulatory, stockholder or other approvals are not obtained or other customary closing conditions are not satisfied in a timely manner or at all; reputational risks and the reaction of the companies' customers, employees and other constituents to the Transaction; and diversion of management time on merger-related matters. For any forward-looking statements made in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or in any documents, OceanFirst and Cape claim the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

Annualized, pro forma, projected and estimated numbers are used for illustrative purposes only, are not forecasts and may not reflect actual results.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The accompanying unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements present the pro forma consolidated financial position and results of operations of OceanFirst giving effect to the Transactions. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements are derived from and should be read in conjunction with the following historical financial statements, after giving effect to the Transactions, and adjustments described in the following footnotes, and are intended to reflect the impact of the proposed Transactions on OceanFirst:

separate historical audited consolidated financial statements of Cape as of and for the year ended December 31, 2014, and the related notes thereto, which are available in Cape's Annual Report on 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 and are incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

separate historical consolidated financial statements of Cape as of and for the nine months ended September 30, 2015, and the related notes thereto, which are available in Cape's Quarterly Report on 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2015 and are incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

separate historical audited consolidated financial statements of OceanFirst as of and for the year ended December 31, 2014, and the related notes thereto, which are available in OceanFirst's Annual Report on 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 and are incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

separate historical consolidated financial statements of OceanFirst as of and for the nine months ended September 30, 2015, and the related notes thereto, which are available in OceanFirst's Quarterly Report on 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2015 and are incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus; and separate historical audited consolidated financial statements of Colonial as of and for the years then ended December 31, 2014 and 2013, and the related notes thereto, which are incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus from Colonial's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014.

The accompanying unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements are presented for illustrative purposes only and do not reflect the realization of potential cost savings, revenue synergies or any potential restructuring costs. Certain cost savings and revenue synergies may result from the Transactions. However, there can be no assurance that these cost savings or revenue synergies will be achieved. Cost savings, if achieved, could result from, among other things, the reduction of operating expenses, changes in corporate infrastructure and governance, the elimination of duplicative operating systems and the combination of regulatory and financial reporting requirements under one federally-chartered bank. The pro forma information is not necessarily indicative of what the financial position or results of operations actually would have been had the Transactions been completed at the dates indicated. In addition, the unaudited pro forma combined financial information does not purport to project the future financial position or operating results of the combined company after completion of the Transactions.

Notes to Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements

Note 1. Description of Transaction

On January 5, 2016, OceanFirst and Cape publicly announced that they had entered into the merger agreement pursuant to which, Merger Sub will merge with and into Cape, with Cape surviving and, immediately following such first-step merger, Cape will merge with and into OceanFirst, with OceanFirst surviving.

If the first-step merger is completed, each outstanding share of Cape common stock, except for certain shares of Cape common stock owned by Cape or OceanFirst, will be converted into the right to receive $2.25 in cash, without interest, and 0.6375 shares of OceanFirst, together with cash in lieu of fractional shares common stock. OceanFirst will not issue any fractional shares of OceanFirst common stock in the first-step merger. Cape stockholders who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fraction of a share of OceanFirst common stock upon the completion of the first-step merger will instead be entitled to receive an amount in cash, rounded to the nearest cent, determined by multiplying the fraction of a share (rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed as a decimal form) of OceanFirst common stock to which the holder would otherwise be entitled by the average closing-sale price per share of OceanFirst common stock on the NASDAQ (as reported by The Wall Street Journal) for the five full trading days ending on the day preceding the day on which the first-step merger is completed.

Note 2. Basis of Presentation

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements included herein have been prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the SEC. Certain information and certain footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (which we refer to as GAAP) have been omitted pursuant to such rules and regulations. However, management believes that the disclosures are adequate to make the information presented not misleading.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of operations reflect the Transactions as if they had been consummated at the beginning of the periods presented and combine OceanFirst's historical results for the nine months ended September 30, 2015 and the year ended December 31, 2014 with Cape's historical results for the same periods.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements have been prepared to illustrate the effects of the Transactions under the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with Section 805 of the FASB Codification and upon the assumption set forth in the notes to the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements. The pro forma adjustments included herein are subject to change depending on changes in interest rates and the components of assets and liabilities and as additional information becomes available and additional analyses are performed.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of financial condition has been adjusted to reflect the preliminary allocation of the estimated purchase price to identifiable net assets acquired. The estimated purchase price was calculated based upon $16.83 per share, the closing trading price of OceanFirst common stock on February 12, 2016. The final allocation of the purchase price will be determined after the completion of the Transactions. This allocation is dependent upon certain valuations and other studies that have not progressed to a stage where sufficient information is available to make a definitive allocation. The purchase price allocation adjustments and related amortization reflected in the following unaudited pro forma combined financial statements are preliminary and have been made solely for the purpose of preparing these statements. The final allocation of the purchase price will be determined after the Transactions are completed and after completion of a thorough analysis to determine the fair value of Cape's tangible and identifiable intangible assets and liabilities as of the date that the Transactions are completed.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements have been prepared based upon available information and certain assumptions that OceanFirst and Cape believe are reasonable under the circumstances. A final determination of the fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed, which cannot be made prior to the completion of the Transactions, may differ materially from the preliminary estimates. The final valuation may change the purchase price allocation, which could affect the fair value assigned to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed and could result in a change to the unaudited pro forma combined financial statements.

OceanFirst expects to incur costs associated with integrating Cape. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements do not reflect nonrecurring transaction costs (unless indicated otherwise), the cost of any integration activities or the benefits that may result from synergies that may be derived from any integration activities.

The information presented below should be read together with the historical consolidated financial statements of OceanFirst and Cape, including the related notes, filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. See Where You Can Find More Information. In addition, the unaudited pro forma data includes adjustments that are preliminary and may be revised. At the Cape special meeting, you, as a Cape stockholder, will be asked to consider and vote upon the following matters:

the Cape merger proposal;

the Cape merger-related compensation proposal; and the Cape adjournment proposal.

Recommendation of the Cape Board

The Cape board has determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the first-step merger, are advisable and in the best interests of Cape and its stockholders, has unanimously approved the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that the Cape stockholders vote FOR the Cape merger proposal, FOR the Cape merger-related compensation proposal and FOR the Cape adjournment proposal. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled The Transactions Cape s Reasons for the Transactions; Recommendation of the Cape Board beginning on page 57 for a more detailed discussion of the Cape board s recommendation.

Cape Record Date and Quorum

The Cape board has fixed the close of business on March 8, 2016, as the Cape record date for determining the Cape stockholders entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the Cape special meeting.

As of the Cape record date, there were 13,540,875 shares of Cape common stock outstanding and entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Cape special meeting held by 1,253 holders of record. The presence at the Cape special meeting, in person or by proxy, of holders representing at least a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Cape common stock entitled to be voted at the Cape special meeting will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Cape special meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will be treated as present for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for all matters voted on at the Cape special meeting.

Table of Contents

Effect of abstentions and broker non-votes: If you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy card, fail to submit a proxy card or fail to vote in person at the Cape special meeting, or fail to instruct your bank or broker how to vote with respect to the Cape merger-related compensation proposal, it will have no effect on such proposal.

Shares Held by Officers, Directors and Certain Stockholders

As of the Cape record date, there were 13,540,875 shares of Cape common stock outstanding, held by 1,253 holders of record. As of the Cape record date, the directors and executive officers of Cape and their affiliates beneficially owned and were entitled to vote approximately 2,157,025 shares of Cape common stock, representing approximately 15.93% of the shares of Cape common stock outstanding on that date. The Cape stockholders that are party to these voting agreements beneficially own and are entitled to vote in the aggregate approximately 16.58% of the outstanding shares of Cape common stock as of the Cape record date. Voting of Proxies; Incomplete Proxies

Any Cape stockholder may vote by proxy or in person at the Cape special meeting. If you hold your shares of Cape common stock in your name as a stockholder of record, to submit a proxy, you, as a Cape stockholder, may use one of the following methods:

By telephone: by calling the toll-free number indicated on your proxy card and following the recorded instructions.

Table of Contents

Through the Internet: by visiting the website indicated on your proxy card and following the instructions.

Complete and return the proxy card in the enclosed envelope. The envelope requires no additional postage if mailed in the United States.

Cape requests that Cape stockholders vote by telephone, over the Internet or by completing and signing the accompanying proxy card and returning it to Cape as soon as possible in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. When the accompanying proxy card is returned properly executed, the shares of Cape common stock represented by it will be voted at the Cape special meeting in accordance with the instructions contained on the proxy card. If any proxy card is returned without indication as to how to vote, the shares of Cape common stock represented by the proxy card will be voted as recommended by the Cape board.

If any Cape stockholder's shares are held in street name by a broker, bank, or other nominee, the stockholder should check the voting form used by that firm to determine whether it may vote by telephone or the Internet.

Every Cape stockholder's vote is important. Accordingly, each Cape stockholder should sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card, or vote via the Internet or by telephone, whether or not the Cape stockholder plans to attend the Cape special meeting in person. Sending in your proxy card or voting by telephone or on the Internet will not prevent you from voting your shares personally at the meeting, since you may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted.

Shares Held in Street Name

If you are a Cape stockholder and your shares are held in street name through a bank, broker or other holder of record, you must provide the record holder of your shares with instructions on how to vote the shares. Please follow the voting instructions provided by the bank or broker. You may not vote shares held in street name by returning a proxy card directly to Cape or by voting in person at the Cape special meeting unless you obtain a legal proxy from your broker, bank or other nominee. Furthermore, brokers, banks or other nominees who hold shares of Cape common stock on behalf of their customers will not vote your shares of Cape common stock or give a proxy to Cape to vote those shares with respect to the Cape merger proposal without specific instructions from you, as brokers, banks and other nominees do not have discretionary voting power on such proposal.

Revocability of Proxies and Changes to a Cape Stockholder's Vote

You have the power to change your vote at any time before your shares of Cape common stock are voted at the Cape special meeting by:

attending and voting in person at the Cape special meeting;

giving notice of revocation of the proxy at the Cape special meeting;

voting by telephone or the Internet at a later time; or delivering to the Corporate Secretary of Cape at 225 North Main Street, Cape May Court House, New Jersey 08210 (i) a written notice of revocation or (ii) a duly executed proxy card relating to the same shares, bearing a date later than the proxy card previously executed.

Attendance at the Cape special meeting will not in and of itself constitute a revocation of a proxy.

If you choose to send a completed proxy card bearing a later date than your original proxy card, the new proxy card must be received before the beginning of the Cape special meeting. If you have instructed a bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares of Cape common stock, you must follow the directions you receive from your bank, broker or other nominee in order to change or revoke your vote.

Solicitation of Proxies

Cape will pay for the solicitation of proxies from the Cape stockholders. In addition to soliciting proxies by mail, Laurel Hill Advisory Group, LLC, Cape's proxy solicitor, will assist Cape in soliciting proxies from the Cape stockholders. Cape has agreed to pay $6,000, plus expenses, for these services. Cape will, upon request, reimburse brokers, banks and other nominees for their expenses in sending proxy materials to their customers who are beneficial owners and obtaining their voting instructions. Additionally, directors, officers and employees of Cape may solicit proxies personally and by telephone. None of these persons will receive additional or special compensation for soliciting proxies.

Attending the Cape Special Meeting

All Cape stockholders, including holders of record and Cape stockholders who hold their shares through banks, brokers, nominees or any other holder of record, are invited to attend the Cape special meeting. Cape stockholders of record can vote in person at the Cape special meeting. If you are not a Cape stockholder of record, you must obtain a proxy executed in your favor from the record holder of your shares, such as a broker, bank or other nominee, to be able to vote in person at the Cape special meeting. If you plan to attend the Cape special meeting, you must hold your shares in your own name or have a letter from the record holder of your shares confirming your ownership. In addition, you must bring a form of personal photo identification with you in order to be admitted. Cape reserves the right to refuse admittance to anyone without proper proof of share ownership and without proper photo identification. CAPE PROPOSALS

Proposal No. 1 Cape Merger Proposal

Cape is asking its stockholders to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the first-step merger. Cape stockholders should read this joint proxy statement/prospectus carefully and in its entirety, including the annexes, for more detailed information concerning the merger agreement and the Transactions. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A.

After careful consideration, the Cape board unanimously approved the merger agreement and declared the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the first-step merger, to be advisable and in the best interests of Cape and the Cape stockholders. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "The Transactions – Cape's Reasons for the Transactions; Recommendation of the Cape Board" beginning on page 57 for a more detailed discussion of the Cape board's recommendation.

The Cape board unanimously recommends a vote FOR the Cape merger proposal.

Proposal No. 2 Cape Merger-Related Compensation Proposal

Pursuant to the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010 and Rule 14a-21(c) of the Exchange Act, Cape is seeking non-binding, advisory stockholder approval of the compensation of Cape's named executive officers that is based on or otherwise relates to the first-step merger, as disclosed in "The Transactions – Interests of Cape's Directors and Executive Officers in the Transactions – Merger-Related Executive Compensation for Cape's Named Executive Officers" beginning on page 83. The proposal gives Cape stockholders the opportunity to express their views on the merger-related compensation of Cape's named executive officers. Accordingly, Cape is requesting that stockholders adopt the following resolution, on a non-binding, advisory basis:

RESOLVED, that the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Cape's named executive officers in connection with the first-step merger and the agreements or understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, in each case as disclosed pursuant to Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K in "The Transactions – Interests of Cape Directors and Executive Officers in the Transactions – Merger-Related Executive Compensation for Cape's Named Executive Officers," is hereby APPROVED.

Approval of this proposal is not a condition to completion of the integrated mergers, and the vote with respect to this proposal is advisory only and will not be binding on Cape or OceanFirst. If the first-step merger is completed, the merger-related compensation may be paid to Cape's named executive officers to the extent payable in accordance with the terms of the compensation agreements and arrangements even if Cape stockholders fail to approve the advisory vote regarding merger-related compensation.

The Cape board unanimously recommends a vote FOR, on an advisory basis, the Cape merger-related compensation proposal.

Proposal No. 3 Cape Adjournment Proposal

The Cape special meeting may be adjourned to another time or place, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the Cape special meeting to approve the Cape merger proposal.

If, at the Cape special meeting, the number of shares of Cape common stock present or represented by proxy and voting in favor of the Cape merger proposal is insufficient to approve the Cape merger proposal, Cape intends to move to adjourn the Cape special meeting in order to enable the Cape board to solicit additional proxies for approval of the Cape merger proposal. In that event, Cape will ask its stockholders to vote upon the Cape adjournment proposal, but not the Cape merger proposal or the Cape merger-related compensation proposal.

In this proposal, Cape is asking its stockholders to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by the Cape board on a discretionary basis to vote in favor of adjourning the Cape special meeting to another time and place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from Cape stockholders who have previously voted.

The Cape board unanimously recommends a vote FOR the Cape adjournment proposal.

This joint proxy statement/prospectus is accompanied by a notice of the OceanFirst special meeting and a form of proxy card that the OceanFirst board is soliciting for use at the OceanFirst special meeting and at any adjournments or postponements of the OceanFirst special meeting.

Date, Time and Place of the OceanFirst Special Meeting

The OceanFirst special meeting will be held on April 25, 2016 at its headquarters, located at 975 Hooper Avenue, Toms River, New Jersey, at 6:00 PM local time. On or about March 18, 2016, OceanFirst commenced mailing this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the enclosed form of proxy card to its stockholders entitled to vote at the OceanFirst special meeting.

Matters to Be Considered

At the OceanFirst special meeting, you, as an OceanFirst stockholder, will be asked to consider and vote upon the following matters:

the OceanFirst share issuance proposal; and the OceanFirst adjournment proposal.

Recommendation of the OceanFirst Board

The OceanFirst board has unanimously approved the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that OceanFirst stockholders vote FOR the OceanFirst share issuance proposal and FOR the OceanFirst adjournment proposal. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled The Transactions OceanFirst's Reasons for the Transactions; Recommendation of the OceanFirst Board beginning on page 67 for a more detailed discussion of the OceanFirst board's recommendation.

OceanFirst Record Date and Quorum

The OceanFirst board has fixed the close of business on March 11, 2016 as the OceanFirst record date for determining the OceanFirst stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the OceanFirst special meeting.

As of the OceanFirst record date, there were 17,294,735 shares of OceanFirst common stock outstanding and entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the OceanFirst special meeting held by approximately 1,000 holders of record. Subject to the ten percent voting limitation set forth in OceanFirst's certificate of incorporation, each share of OceanFirst common stock entitles the holder to one vote at the OceanFirst special meeting on each proposal to be considered at the OceanFirst special meeting.

The presence at the OceanFirst special meeting, in person or by proxy, of holders representing at least a majority of the outstanding shares of OceanFirst common stock entitled to be voted at the OceanFirst special meeting will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the OceanFirst special meeting. Once a share is represented for any purpose at the OceanFirst special meeting, it is deemed present for quorum purposes for the remainder of the OceanFirst special meeting or for any adjournment(s) thereof. Abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will be included in determining the number of shares present at the meeting for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

Table of Contents

Required Vote; Treatment of Abstentions, Broker Non-Votes and Failure to Vote

OceanFirst share issuance proposal:

Standard: Approval of the OceanFirst share issuance proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the total votes cast by the holders of OceanFirst's voting common stock at the OceanFirst special meeting.

Effect of abstentions and broker non-votes: If you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy, fail to submit a proxy or fail to vote in person at the OceanFirst special meeting, or fail to instruct your bank or broker how to vote with respect to the OceanFirst share issuance proposal, it will have no effect on the OceanFirst share issuance proposal.

OceanFirst adjournment proposal:

Standard: The OceanFirst adjournment proposal will be approved if a majority of the votes cast by the holders of OceanFirst's voting common stock at the OceanFirst special meeting are voted in favor of the OceanFirst adjournment proposal.

Effect of abstentions and broker non-votes: If you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy, fail to submit a proxy or fail to vote in person at the OceanFirst special meeting, or fail to instruct your bank or broker how to vote with respect to the OceanFirst adjournment proposal, it will have no effect on the proposal.

Shares Held by Officers, Directors and Certain Stockholders

As of the OceanFirst record date, there were 17,294,735 shares of OceanFirst common stock outstanding, held by approximately 1,000 holders of record. As of the OceanFirst record date, the directors and executive officers of OceanFirst and their affiliates beneficially owned and were entitled to vote approximately 1,984,227 shares of OceanFirst common stock representing approximately 5.9% of the shares of OceanFirst common stock outstanding on that date.

Each of the directors of OceanFirst has entered into separate voting agreements with Cape, solely in his or her capacity as an OceanFirst stockholder, pursuant to which each such OceanFirst director has agreed to vote in favor of the OceanFirst share issuance proposal. The OceanFirst directors beneficially own and are entitled to vote in the aggregate approximately 4.4% of the outstanding shares of OceanFirst common stock as of the OceanFirst record date. For more information regarding the voting agreements, see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled The Merger Agreement Voting Agreements beginning on page 104. As of the OceanFirst record date, Cape beneficially held no shares of OceanFirst common stock.

Voting of Proxies; Incomplete Proxies

Any OceanFirst stockholder may vote by proxy or in person at the OceanFirst special meeting. If you hold your shares of OceanFirst common stock in your name as a stockholder of record, to submit a proxy, you, as an OceanFirst stockholder, may use one of the following methods:

By telephone: by calling the toll-free number indicated on your proxy card and following the recorded instructions.

Through the Internet: by visiting the website indicated on your proxy card and following the instructions.

Complete and return the proxy card in the enclosed envelope. The envelope requires no additional postage if mailed in the United States.

OceanFirst requests that OceanFirst stockholders vote by telephone, over the Internet or by completing and signing the accompanying proxy card and returning it to OceanFirst as soon as possible in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. When the accompanying proxy card is returned properly executed, the shares of OceanFirst common stock represented by it will be voted at the OceanFirst special meeting in accordance with the instructions contained on the proxy card. If any proxy card is returned without indication as to how to vote, the shares of OceanFirst common stock represented by the proxy card will be voted as recommended by the Cape board.

If an OceanFirst stockholder's shares are held in street name by a broker, bank, or other nominee, the stockholder should check the voting form used by that firm to determine whether it may vote by telephone or the Internet.

Every OceanFirst stockholder's vote is important. Accordingly, each OceanFirst stockholder should sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card, or vote via the Internet or by telephone, whether or not the OceanFirst stockholder plans to attend the OceanFirst special meeting in person. Sending in your proxy card or voting by telephone or on the Internet will not prevent you from voting your shares personally at the meeting, since you may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted.

Shares Held in Street Name

Under NASDAQ rules, banks, brokers and other nominees who hold shares of OceanFirst common stock in street name for a beneficial owner of those shares typically have the authority to vote in their discretion on routine proposals when they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. However, banks, brokers and other nominees are not allowed to exercise their voting discretion with respect to the approval of matters determined to be non-routine, without specific instructions from the beneficial owner. Broker non-votes are shares held by a broker, bank or other nominee that are represented at the OceanFirst special meeting, but with respect to which the broker, bank or nominee is not instructed by the beneficial owner of such shares to vote on the particular proposal and the broker, bank or nominee does not have discretionary voting power on such proposal. If your broker, bank or other nominee holds your shares of OceanFirst common stock in street name, your broker, bank or other nominee will vote your shares of OceanFirst common stock only if you provide instructions on how to vote by completing the voter instruction form sent to you by your broker, bank or other nominee.

Revocability of Proxies and Changes to an OceanFirst Stockholder's Vote

You have the power to change your vote at any time before your shares of OceanFirst common stock are voted at the OceanFirst special meeting by:

attending and voting in person at the OceanFirst special meeting;

giving notice of revocation of the proxy at the OceanFirst special meeting; or delivering to the Corporate Secretary of OceanFirst at 975 Hooper Avenue, Toms River, New Jersey 08753 (i) a written notice of revocation or (ii) a duly executed proxy card relating to the same shares, bearing a date later than the proxy card previously executed.

Attendance at the OceanFirst special meeting will not in and of itself constitute a revocation of a proxy.

If you choose to send a completed proxy card bearing a later date than your original proxy card, the new proxy card must be received before the beginning of the OceanFirst special meeting. If you have instructed a bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares of OceanFirst common stock, you must follow the directions you receive from your bank, broker or other nominee in order to change or revoke your vote.

Solicitation of Proxies

OceanFirst will pay for the solicitation of proxies from the OceanFirst stockholders. In addition to soliciting proxies by mail, Georgeson LLC, OceanFirst's proxy solicitor, will assist OceanFirst in soliciting proxies from the OceanFirst stockholders. OceanFirst has agreed to pay $8,000, plus expenses, for these services. OceanFirst will, upon request, reimburse brokers, banks and other nominees for their expenses in sending proxy materials to their customers who are beneficial owners and obtaining their voting instructions. Additionally, directors, officers and employees of OceanFirst may solicit proxies personally and by telephone. None of these persons will receive additional or special compensation for soliciting proxies.

Attending the OceanFirst Special Meeting

All OceanFirst stockholders, including holders of record and OceanFirst stockholders who hold their shares through banks, brokers, nominees or any other holder of record, are invited to attend the OceanFirst special meeting. OceanFirst stockholders of record can vote in person at the OceanFirst special meeting. If you are not an OceanFirst stockholder of record, you must obtain a proxy executed in your favor from the record holder of your shares, such as a broker, bank or other nominee, to be able to vote in person at the OceanFirst special meeting. If you plan to attend the OceanFirst special meeting, you must hold your shares in your own name or have a letter from the record holder of your shares confirming your ownership. In addition, you must bring a form of personal photo identification with you in order to be admitted. OceanFirst reserves the right to refuse admittance to anyone without proper proof of share ownership and without proper photo identification. The use of cameras, sound recording equipment, communications devices or any similar equipment during the OceanFirst special meeting is prohibited without OceanFirst's express written consent.

Delivery of Proxy Materials to OceanFirst Stockholders Sharing an Address

As permitted by the Exchange Act, only one copy of this joint proxy statement/prospectus is being delivered to multiple OceanFirst stockholders sharing an address unless OceanFirst has previously received contrary instructions from one or more such stockholders. This is referred to as householding. OceanFirst stockholders who hold their shares in street name can request further information on householding through their banks, brokers or other holders of record. Proposal No. 2 OceanFirst Adjournment Proposal

If, at the OceanFirst special meeting, the number of shares of OceanFirst common stock present or represented by proxy and voting in favor of the OceanFirst share issuance proposal is insufficient to approve the OceanFirst share issuance proposal, OceanFirst intends to move to adjourn the OceanFirst special meeting in order to enable the OceanFirst board to solicit additional proxies for approval of the Cape share issuance proposal. In this proposal, OceanFirst is asking its stockholders to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by the OceanFirst board on a discretionary basis to vote in favor of adjourning the OceanFirst special meeting to another time and place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from OceanFirst stockholders who have previously voted.

THE TRANSACTIONS

The following discussion contains certain information about the Transactions. The discussion is subject, and qualified in its entirety by reference, to the merger agreement attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and incorporated herein by reference. We urge you to read carefully this entire joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the merger agreement attached as Annex A, for a more complete understanding of the Transactions.

Structure of the Transactions

Each of the OceanFirst board and the Cape board has unanimously approved the merger agreement. The merger agreement provides that (i) Merger Sub will merge with and into Cape, with Cape continuing as the surviving corporation in the first-step merger and as a wholly-owned subsidiary of OceanFirst, (ii) immediately following the first-step merger, Cape will merge with and into OceanFirst, with OceanFirst continuing as the surviving corporation in the second-step merger and (iii) immediately following the completion of the integrated mergers, Cape Bank will merge with and into OceanFirst Bank, with OceanFirst Bank being the surviving entity in the bank merger.

At the effective time of the first-step merger, each issued and outstanding share of Cape common stock, except for certain specified shares owned by OceanFirst or Cape, will be converted into the right to receive the per share cash consideration of $2.25, without interest, and 0.6375 shares of OceanFirst common stock, together with cash in lieu of fractional shares. No fractional shares of OceanFirst common stock will be issued in connection with the first-step merger, and Cape stockholders will instead be entitled to receive cash in lieu thereof.

Cape stockholders are being asked to approve the merger agreement and the first-step merger. OceanFirst stockholders are being asked to approve the OceanFirst share issuance. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "The Merger Agreement" beginning on page 87 for additional and more detailed information regarding the legal documents that govern the Transactions, including information about the conditions to the completion of the integrated mergers and the provisions for terminating or amending the merger agreement.

Background of the Transactions

Since its demutualization and the concurrent purchase of Boardwalk Bank in 2008, Cape has periodically considered strategic alternatives to enhance stockholder value, including potential acquisitions of other financial institutions, strategic partnerships, merger transactions and remaining independent.

During the course of his banking career, Michael D. Devlin, President and Chief Executive Officer of Cape, has maintained a network of regional and local bank presidents with whom he communicates regularly. These informal meetings have covered a variety of topics, including merger and acquisition activity in the region. More specifically, on three occasions over the prior four year period, Cape contacted other financial institutions to gauge their interest in a possible business combination or a merger of equals, but these contacts did not lead to more formal discussions or proposals.

In the course of normal operations, the Cape board has routinely reviewed the financial performance of Cape Bank, the efficacy of its business model, and the limitations on the market value the investment community placed on financial institutions headquartered on the New Jersey shore. In addition, risk assessment, succession planning and opportunities for organic growth were also routinely reviewed by the Cape board. These efforts led to Cape's restructuring of its product lines and balance sheet beginning in 2012 as well as its geographic expansion, including the acquisition of Colonial, a branch acquisition, a bulk loan purchase and the establishment of loan production offices in metropolitan Philadelphia.

As part of his ongoing networking with bank presidents, Mr. Devlin met periodically with Christopher D. Maher, President and Chief Executive Officer of OceanFirst, to discuss the banking industry, their respective market areas, and merger and acquisition activity in the region. During these meetings, there was no specific discussion of a combination of Cape and OceanFirst.

On August 17, 2015, the Cape board held an executive session before the regular meeting of the Cape board to discuss merger and acquisition activity in its regional market and the implications of such activity for Cape's strategic plan. The executive session included a discussion concerning Cape's market value as an ongoing entity, as well as an acquisition target. Two likely acquirors were noted, one of which was OceanFirst, and the Cape board discussed the relative merits of both potential acquirors. Potential combinations with other financial institutions were also discussed, including Cape acquiring companies in southwestern New Jersey and the Philadelphia metropolitan area in an effort to continue its westward expansion. The Cape board also discussed the execution risk associated with its business plan, and the implications of a highly competitive market on its potential growth and market value. The Cape board recommended that an investment banking firm be invited to its meeting to discuss valuations and market conditions.

On September 21, 2015, Raymond James made a presentation to the Cape board regarding current market conditions for financial institutions. Raymond James discussed the intensifying competitive pressures faced by smaller financial institutions and the increased level of merger activity due to competitive pressures, increased compliance costs for financial institutions and a desire to improve earnings per share for Cape stockholders. Raymond James also discussed the high level of loans to deposits at some banks, which could prompt interest in financial institutions with strong deposit franchises. Further, Raymond James analyzed the positive effects of greater pro forma asset size on market value, which has increased consolidation efforts in the banking industry. The presentation included comments on the disparity in pricing and acquisition interest in southern New Jersey banks compared to those in northern New Jersey markets.

In assessing Cape, Raymond James noted Cape's strong core deposit market share and low-cost deposit base, diversified balance sheet and successful westward expansion into the Philadelphia metropolitan area. Raymond James also noted demographic and economic trends in Cape's market area, as well as costs related to Cape continuing as an independent entity. The Cape board discussed Mr. Devlin's relationships with many regional and local bank presidents and encouraged Mr. Devlin to continue his informal discussions with such individuals.

In early October 2015, Mr. Devlin met with the President and Chief Executive Officer of Company A, a community banking institution (which we refer to as Company A), to discuss its interest in expanding into the southern New Jersey market. The President and Chief Executive Officer of Company A indicated that while it would be interested in considering a potential acquisition of Cape at a later time, it was not in a position to consider any near term partnerships in southern New Jersey.

Also in early October, Mr. Devlin contacted the President and Chief Executive Officer of Company B, a community banking institution (which we refer to as Company B), to discuss the merits of a potential merger of equals. The President and Chief Executive Officer of Company B indicated that the timing was not right for Company B to engage in such deliberations.

In late October, Mr. Devlin discussed merger and acquisition opportunities in the region with a representative of Raymond James. This discussion included strategies and the processes that could be utilized by Cape in order to increase Cape stockholder value through a possible acquisition of Cape by another party. Raymond James's representative noted that it was likely that two parties, one of which was OceanFirst, would have the most interest in acquiring Cape, and Mr. Devlin previously had been in contact with both companies during his informal meetings referenced above.

On October 29, 2015, Mr. Devlin met with the President and Chief Executive Officer of Company C, a community banking institution (which we refer to as Company C), to discuss community banking and to gauge its interest in establishing a New Jersey presence. While some interest was expressed, it was clear that any discussions about a possible acquisition of Cape by Company C would not be in Company C's near-term strategic plans.

On November 13, 2015, Mr. Devlin updated the Cape board on his discussions with other institutions and his discussions with Raymond James. He requested that the Cape board authorize an ad hoc committee to interview at least two investment banking firms with particular expertise in the regional mergers and acquisitions market and begin a more formal process.

Prior to the regularly scheduled board meeting on November 16, 2015, Mr. Devlin was contacted by Mr. Maher suggesting that the two meet to discuss a possible combination of Cape and OceanFirst. Although Messrs. Maher and Devlin informally discussed the relative merits of a proposed combination of the two companies, there was no specific discussion of the potential pricing of such a business combination.

At the November 16, 2015 board meeting, Mr. Devlin updated the Cape board on OceanFirst's potential interest in combining the two companies. The Cape board indicated that OceanFirst's proposal was worth pursuing, although it did not preclude Cape from considering other strategic alternatives if discussions with OceanFirst did not proceed. Also at such meeting, the Cape board established a strategic alternatives committee for the purpose of retaining an investment banking firm for Cape, and a December 1, 2015 date was set for meetings with Raymond James and a second investment banking firm.

On November 18, 2015, the OceanFirst board held a regularly scheduled meeting during which Mr. Maher discussed various strategic alternatives, including the potential acquisition of Cape or one alternative bank in substantive detail. The OceanFirst board determined that Mr. Maher should pursue the opportunities for a strategic acquisition and provide an update at the OceanFirst board meeting scheduled for December 16, 2015.

On December 1, 2015, the strategic alternatives committee of Cape met with and interviewed Raymond James and a second investment banking firm. Each investment banking firm presented its mergers and acquisitions credentials, its experience in advising banks in the local market and valuation metrics based on the assumption of a transaction with one of two potential acquirors of Cape, one of which was OceanFirst. Raymond James's model included projected valuations for a combined OceanFirst and Cape with ranges based on analysts' estimates of OceanFirst's future earnings, as well as projected Cape valuation on a stand-alone basis. At the conclusion of this meeting, the strategic alternative committee chose to retain Raymond James to act as Cape's financial advisor in a potential transaction, and Raymond James was instructed to prepare a formal engagement letter for Cape's review.

On December 2, 2015, Messrs. Devlin and Maher met again to discuss the possible terms of a merger between Cape and OceanFirst. The discussion included a review of certain assumptions to be used in valuing Cape, the appropriate form and amount of consideration, and the anticipated reaction to such a merger by the companies' respective stockholders and the investment community. At the conclusion of the meeting, Mr. Maher indicated that he would be in a position to provide a price range to Cape on December 16, 2015, pending OceanFirst board review and approval. Mr. Maher further indicated that, following the approval of Cape's board to move forward with more detailed negotiations for a possible combination, he would approach the OceanFirst board and obtain its authorization to move to forward with merger negotiations. Messrs. Devlin and Maher agreed that it would be valuable for Mr. Maher to meet with the Cape board to give the Cape board an overview of OceanFirst and its strategic goals.

On December 3, 2015, Cape and OceanFirst executed a Non-Disclosure Agreement. On December 4, 2015, OceanFirst provided access to confidential due diligence materials to Cape's management and representatives, including Cape's special counsel and investment banking firm. Likewise, on December 4, 2015, Cape provided access to confidential due diligence materials to OceanFirst's management and representatives, including OceanFirst's special counsel and investment banking firm. The parties conducted due diligence from December 4, 2015 through January 4, 2016.

Table of Contents

On December 5, 2015, Cape formally engaged Raymond James as its financial advisor for a possible acquisition by OceanFirst. On December 10, 2015, OceanFirst engaged Sandler O'Neill as its financial advisor for the possible acquisition of Cape.

On December 11, 2015, Cape's board met with Mr. Maher. Cape's executive management team, special counsel and representatives of Raymond James also attended this meeting. Mr. Maher delivered a comprehensive presentation, which included an overview of OceanFirst, its structure, products, management team and long term goals. The Cape board then engaged in a discussion with Mr. Maher regarding specific aspects of his presentation. Mr. Maher indicated that he would consult with the OceanFirst board and seek its approval to present a non-binding proposal to Cape. Concurrently with the Cape board meeting, OceanFirst's financial advisor, Sandler O'Neill, verbally provided an initial price range to Raymond James of between $14.00 and $14.50 per share of Cape stock, with the proposed merger consideration to be in the form of OceanFirst common stock and cash. After Mr. Maher's presentation, the Cape board, with input from Raymond James and management, discussed the $14.00 through $14.50 price range. The Cape board thoroughly discussed the benefits of the combination as well as valuation metrics. The Cape board focused on the potential value and benefits to Cape stockholders associated with being part of a larger organization compared to continuing to operate independently. Raymond James also provided several models that suggested value ranges and discussed the assumptions employed by OceanFirst in its proposal. Upon completion of the discussion, the Cape board determined that it was appropriate to pursue the OceanFirst proposal further and authorized management to continue with due diligence and update the Cape board as due diligence progressed.

Also on December 16, 2015, the OceanFirst board met in a regularly scheduled board meeting, which included a detailed review of the opportunity to acquire Cape. As part of the discussion, Sandler O'Neill presented an overview of the current bank mergers and acquisitions environment, a preliminary assessment of the opportunity to acquire Cape, and a pro-forma financial model outlining the financial impact of OceanFirst's proposed acquisition of Cape. The OceanFirst board provided Mr. Maher with authority to issue a written non-binding indication of interest with terms consistent with those discussed in the meeting.

On December 16, 2015, Cape received a written non-binding indication of interest from OceanFirst, which proposed merger consideration consisting of 85% OceanFirst common stock and 15% cash, with an exchange ratio of 0.6511 and cash of $2.11 for each share of Cape common stock. Based upon OceanFirst's closing price on December 16, 2015 of $19.83, the per share proposed merger consideration was valued at $15.02 per share of Cape common stock. The indication of interest further provided that OceanFirst would require Cape to agree to exclusive negotiations of a merger transaction for a period of 30 days upon Cape's acceptance of the indication of interest. The Cape board determined that, based upon its prior discussions of Cape's market valuation, Mr. Devlin's discussions with other potential bidders and the limited number of potential bidders, it was appropriate to enter into exclusive negotiations with OceanFirst and continue to pursue a merger transaction.

On December 18, 2015, the Cape board received a memorandum from Cape's special counsel reviewing the Cape board's fiduciary duties in a potential merger transaction, which special counsel reviewed with the Cape board on several occasions at various board meetings throughout the merger process.

Also on December 18, 2015, Cape's special counsel received the initial draft of a merger agreement from OceanFirst's special counsel.

On December 21, 2015, the Cape board met with management, Raymond James and Cape's special counsel to discuss the initial terms of the merger agreement. Special counsel to Cape again reiterated the fiduciary duties of the Cape board with respect to a potential merger transaction that included a significant portion of the proposed merger consideration in the form of the acquiror's common stock. Following this meeting, Mr. Devlin countersigned the indication of interest letter, and Cape's special counsel revised the draft merger agreement with input from Cape senior management and board and subsequently began discussions with OceanFirst's special counsel concerning the terms of the merger agreement.

On December 22, 2015, Cape's management, special counsel and Raymond James interviewed OceanFirst's management as part of its due diligence effort, and thereafter continued its due diligence to determine if there were any issues concerning OceanFirst that may affect the suitability of OceanFirst as a merger partner or the pricing of the transaction. OceanFirst conducted similar interviews with selected Cape management with the participation and support of Sandler O'Neill.

On December 28, 2015, Cape's management, Raymond James and special counsel presented a revised draft of the merger agreement to the Cape board, which included the changes to the original draft of the merger agreement that Cape management, Raymond James and special counsel had proposed. Following a lengthy discussion of material terms of the merger agreement and Cape's obligations pursuant to the merger agreement, the Cape board authorized Cape management to provide the revised draft of the merger agreement to OceanFirst.

On December 31, 2015, Messrs. Devlin and Maher discussed OceanFirst's analysis of Cape's market value based on OceanFirst's review of the confidential due diligence materials. Mr. Maher indicated that OceanFirst's preference was to revise the consideration offered by OceanFirst in the proposed merger transaction based on OceanFirst's analysis of certain transaction costs and pro forma earnings adjustments.

Beginning on December 31, 2015 and several times thereafter, Mr. Devlin updated the Cape board on the status of negotiations with OceanFirst, including the possibility of a change to the proposed merger consideration.

Between December 31, 2015 and January 2, 2016, the parties continued to discuss the assumptions supporting the transaction costs, credit marks, OceanFirst's trading value and pro forma earnings. Following these discussions, on January 2, 2016, OceanFirst revised its proposal to offer Cape stockholders 0.6375 shares of OceanFirst common stock and $2.25 in cash per share. Based on OceanFirst's closing price on December 31, 2015 of $20.03, the overall proposed merger consideration was valued at $15.02 per share of Cape common stock.

Between December 31, 2015 and January 3, 2016, counsel for both parties continued to negotiate the terms of the merger agreement. On January 4, 2016, the Cape board reviewed a revised draft merger agreement, which reflected the material terms of the transaction, including the mix of cash and stock consideration described above, and also a memorandum prepared by Cape's special counsel summarizing the material terms of the merger agreement.

On January 5, 2016, the Cape board met to consider the proposed transaction. Representatives of Luse Gorman and Raymond James were present at that meeting. Representatives of Raymond James provided a financial analysis of the proposed transaction and a verbal fairness opinion, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, dated January 5, 2016 and which is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex D, as to the fairness, as of the date of the opinion, from a financial point of view, to the Cape stockholders of the merger consideration. Representatives of Luse Gorman reviewed the Cape board's fiduciary duties in connection with its consideration of the proposed transaction, as well as the terms of the proposed merger agreement. After extensive discussions, including a consideration of these presentations and the factors described in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "Cape's Reasons for the Transactions; Recommendation of the Cape Board," the Cape board unanimously approved the merger agreement and determined to recommend that the Cape stockholders approve the merger agreement and the first-step merger.

Also on January 5, 2016, the OceanFirst board met to discuss the proposed transaction. Representatives of Sandler O'Neill and Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP (which we refer to as "Skadden") were present at that meeting. Representatives of Sandler O'Neill rendered its written opinion, a copy of which is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex E, to the OceanFirst board that, as of the date of the opinion, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the merger consideration in the first-step merger was reviewed in detail the results of its due diligence investigation of Cape. A Representative of Skadden reviewed the terms of the proposed merger agreement with the OceanFirst board. After extensive discussions, including a consideration of these presentations and the factors described in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "OceanFirst's Reasons for the Transactions; Recommendation of the OceanFirst Board," the OceanFirst board unanimously approved the merger agreement and determined to recommend that the OceanFirst stockholders approve the OceanFirst share issuance.

Following the close of business on January 5, 2016, the parties executed the merger agreement and issued a joint press release announcing the Transactions.

Cape's Reasons for the Transactions; Recommendation of the Cape Board

In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, and approve the integrated mergers and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and to recommend that Cape's stockholders approve the merger agreement, the Cape board evaluated the Transactions in consultation with Cape's management, as well as Cape's financial and legal advisors, and considered a number of factors, including the following material factors:

the Cape board's knowledge of Cape's business, markets, financial condition, results of operations and prospects, including but not limited to, its business plan and its potential for growth, development, productivity and profitability;

the current and prospective environment in which Cape operates, including national and local economic conditions, the competitive environment for financial institutions generally, the increased regulatory burden on financial institutions generally and the trend toward consolidation in the financial services industry;

the Cape board's review, with the assistance of Cape's management and legal and financial advisors, of strategic alternatives to the Transactions, including the possibility of remaining independent;

the Cape board's belief that Cape needs to continue to grow to be in a position to deliver a competitive return to its stockholders and the difficulty of sustained organic growth;

results that could be expected to be obtained by Cape if it continued to operate independently, and the likely benefits to stockholders of such continued independence, while factoring in the risks of executing Cape's strategic plans as compared to the value of the merger consideration being offered by OceanFirst;

the Cape board's review, based in part on the due diligence performed by Cape in connection with the Transactions, of OceanFirst's business, financial condition, results of operations and management;

the then-current value of the merger consideration offered by OceanFirst, which represented 139% of Cape's September 30, 2015 tangible book value per share and approximately 22.8x Cape's last twelve months core

net income per share;

the expectation that the Transactions will provide holders of Cape common stock the opportunity to receive a reasonable premium over the price they could expect to receive if they sold their shares of Cape common stock;

the mixture of the stock consideration and the cash consideration to allow Cape stockholders to continue as OceanFirst stockholders;

the fact that the integrated mergers are expected to be treated as an integrated transaction that qualifies as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes and therefore that Cape stockholders will not recognize gain or loss with respect to their receipt of the stock portion of the merger consideration;

the board of directors' assessment that it was unlikely that another acquirer had both the willingness and the financial capability to acquire Cape at a value that was materially higher than that being offered by OceanFirst;

the ability of OceanFirst to execute a merger transaction from a financial and regulatory perspective, and its recent history of being able to successfully integrate merged institutions into its existing franchise;

the historical stock market performance of Cape and OceanFirst; that the transaction is estimated to be approximately 13% accretive on an earnings per share basis in the first full year after completion;

the geographic fit between Cape's and OceanFirst's service areas;

the Cape board's expectation that the combined entity will have sufficient capital upon completion of the Transactions;

the pro forma combined asset size and the pro forma combined deposits of the combined entity of nearly $4.3 billion and $3.4 billion, respectively, which could increase valuation multiples of the combined entity;

the Cape board's review with its legal and financial advisors of the financial and other terms of the merger agreement, including the fixed exchange ratio, tax treatment and termination fee provisions;

the opinion, dated January 5, 2016, of Raymond James to the Cape board as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, to the holders of Cape common stock of the merger consideration, as more fully described below under "Opinion of Cape's Financial Advisor" on page 59;

the similarity between Cape's and OceanFirst's management philosophies, approaches and commitments to the communities, customers and stockholders they each serve;

the impact of the Transactions on depositors, customers and communities served by Cape, and the expectation that the combined entity will continue to provide quality service to the communities and customers currently served by Cape and will be able to offer a broader range of services (including mortgage lending and wealth management); and the degree of continuity to the Cape stockholders following the Transactions that is expected to result from OceanFirst's agreement, upon the closing of the integrated mergers, to appoint Michael D. Devlin, or, if Mr. Devlin is unable to serve, an alternative member of Cape's current board of directors, as a director of OceanFirst and OceanFirst Bank.

All business combinations, including the Transactions, include certain risks and disadvantages. The material potential risks and disadvantages to Cape stockholders identified by the Cape board and management include the following material matters, the order of which does not necessarily reflect their relative significance:

the risk that, with the stock consideration to be paid to Cape stockholders being based on a fixed exchange ratio, such consideration could be adversely affected by a decrease in the value of OceanFirst common stock during the pendency of the integrated mergers;

the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the Transactions and the expectation that such regulatory approvals will be received in a timely manner and without the imposition of unacceptable conditions;

the potential for diversion of management and employee attention, and for employee attrition, during the period prior to the completion of the Transactions and the potential effect on Cape's business and relations with customers, service providers and other stakeholders, whether or not the Transactions are completed;

the merger agreement provisions generally requiring Cape to conduct its business in the ordinary course and the other restrictions on the conduct of Cape's business prior to completion of the Transactions, which may delay or prevent Cape from undertaking business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the Transactions;

the risk that the expected benefits and synergies sought in the Transactions, including cost savings and OceanFirst's ability to successfully market its financial products to Cape's customers, may not be realized or may not be realized within the expected time period;

the challenges of integrating the businesses, operations and employees of Cape and OceanFirst;

certain provisions of the merger agreement prohibiting Cape from soliciting, and limiting its ability to respond to, proposals for alternative transactions;

the risk that Cape's obligation to pay OceanFirst a termination fee of $7.2 million in certain circumstances, as described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Termination Fee" on page 102, may deter others from proposing an alternative transaction that may be more advantageous to Cape stockholders;

that Cape's directors and executive officers may have interests in the Transactions that are different from or in addition to those of its stockholders generally, as described in the section entitled "Interests of Cape's Directors and Executive Officers in the Transactions" on page 81; and the other risks described in the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 23.

The discussion of the information and factors considered by the Cape board is not exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the Cape board. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by the Cape board in connection with its evaluation of the Transactions and the complexity of these matters, the Cape board did not attempt to quantify, rank, or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision. Furthermore, in considering the factors described above, individual members of the Cape board may have given different weights to different factors. The Cape board evaluated the factors described above and reached the unanimous decision that the Transactions were in the best interests of Cape and its stockholders. The Cape board realized that there can be no assurance about future results, including results expected or considered in the factors listed above. However, the Cape board concluded that the potential positive factors outweighed the potential risks of completing the Transactions. It should be noted that this explanation of the Cape board's reasoning and all other information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under the heading "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 28.

The Cape board unanimously recommends that Cape stockholders vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement and the first-step merger.

Cape Stockholder Demand Letter Regarding the Transactions

Cape received a letter, dated January 29, 2016, from a purported Cape stockholder demanding that the Cape board investigate the purported stockholder's allegation that the merger consideration undervalues Cape and is therefore a violation of the fiduciary duties of the Cape board. The Cape board believes the allegation is without merit, but will conduct a review in accordance with Maryland law to investigate the allegation.

Opinion of Cape's Financial Advisor

Cape retained Raymond James as financial advisor on December 5, 2015. Pursuant to that engagement, the Cape board requested that Raymond James evaluate the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the Cape stockholders of the merger consideration to be received by such Cape stockholders pursuant to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement.

At the January 5, 2016 meeting of the Cape board, a representative of Raymond James rendered its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion to the Cape board dated January 5, 2016, as to the fairness, as of such date, from a financial point of view, to the Cape stockholders of the merger consideration to be received by such Cape stockholders in the first-step merger pursuant to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, based upon and subject to the qualifications, assumptions and other matters considered in connection with the preparation of its opinion.

The full text of the written opinion of Raymond James is attached as Annex D to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The summary of the opinion of Raymond James set forth in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such written opinion. Cape stockholders are urged to read this opinion in its entirety.

Raymond James provided its opinion for the information of the Cape board (solely in its capacity as such) in connection with, and for purposes of, its consideration of the first-step merger and its opinion only addresses whether the merger consideration to be received by the Cape stockholders in the first-step merger pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such Cape stockholders. The opinion of Raymond James does not address any other term or aspect of the merger agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby. The Raymond James opinion does not constitute a recommendation to the Cape board or to any Cape stockholder as to how the Cape board, such Cape stockholder or any other person should vote or otherwise act with respect to the first-step merger or any other matter. Raymond James does not express any opinion as to the likely trading range of OceanFirst common stock following the Transactions, which may vary depending on numerous factors that generally impact the price of securities or on the financial condition of OceanFirst at that time.

In connection with its review of the proposed Transactions and the preparation of its opinion, Raymond James, among other things:

reviewed the financial terms and conditions as stated in the draft of the merger agreement dated January 4, 2016 (which we refer to in this section as the draft agreement);

reviewed certain information related to the historical, current and future operations, financial condition and prospects of Cape made available to Raymond James by Cape, including, but not limited to, financial projections prepared by the management of Cape relating to Cape for the periods ending December 31, 2015 2020, as approved for Raymond James's use by Cape (which we refer to in this section as the Cape projections);

reviewed Cape's and OceanFirst's recent public filings and certain other publicly available information regarding Cape and OceanFirst;

reviewed financial, operating and other information regarding Cape and the industry in which it operates;

reviewed the financial and operating performance of Cape and those of other selected public companies that Raymond James deemed to be relevant;

considered the publicly available financial terms of certain transactions that Raymond James deemed to be relevant;

reviewed the current and historical market prices and trading volume for Cape common stock, and the current market prices of the publicly traded securities of certain other companies that Raymond James deemed to be relevant;

conducted such other financial studies, analyses and inquiries and considered such other information and factors as Raymond James deemed appropriate; and discussed with members of the senior management of Cape certain information relating to the aforementioned and any other matters which Raymond James deemed relevant to its inquiry.

With Cape's consent, Raymond James assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all information supplied by or on behalf of Cape, or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with Raymond James, and Raymond James did not undertake any duty or responsibility to, nor did Raymond James, independently verify any of such information. Raymond James did not make or obtain an independent appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Cape or OceanFirst. With respect to the Cape projections and any other information and data provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with Raymond James, Raymond James, with Cape's consent, assumed that the Cape projections and such other information and data were reasonably prepared in good faith on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of management of Cape and Raymond James relied upon Cape to advise Raymond James promptly if any information previously provided became inaccurate or was required to be updated during the period of its review. Raymond James expressed no opinion with respect to the Cape projections or the assumptions on which they were based. Based upon the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, Raymond James assumed that the integrated mergers will qualify as a tax-free reorganization under the provisions of Section 368(a) of the Code. Raymond James relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that the final form of the merger agreement would be substantially similar to the draft agreement reviewed by Raymond James in all respects material to its analysis, and that the integrated mergers would be consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement without waiver of or amendment to any of the conditions to the merger agreement. Furthermore, Raymond James assumed, in all respects material to its analysis, that the representations and warranties of each party contained in the merger agreement were true and correct and that each party will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by it under the merger agreement without being waived. Raymond James also relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that (i) the integrated mergers would be consummated in a manner that complies in all respects with all applicable international, federal and state statutes, rules and regulations, and (ii) all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the integrated mergers would be obtained and that no delay, limitations, restrictions or conditions would be imposed or amendments, modifications or waivers made that would have an effect on the integrated mergers or Cape that would be material to its analysis or opinion.

Raymond James expressed no opinion as to the underlying business decision to effect the Transactions, the structure or tax consequences of the Transactions, or the availability or advisability of any alternatives to the Transactions. The Raymond James opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to be received by the Cape stockholders. Raymond James expressed no opinion with respect to any other reasons (legal, business, or otherwise) that may support the decision of the Cape board to approve or consummate the first-step merger. Furthermore, no opinion, counsel or interpretation was intended by Raymond James on matters that require legal, accounting or tax advice. Raymond James assumed that such opinions, counsel or interpretations had been or would be obtained from appropriate professional sources. Furthermore, Raymond James relied, with the consent of Cape, on the fact that Cape was assisted by legal, accounting and tax advisors, and, with the consent of Cape relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of the assessments by Cape and its advisors, as to all legal, accounting and tax matters with respect to Cape and the first-step merger.

In formulating its opinion, Raymond James considered only the merger consideration to be received by the Cape stockholders, and Raymond James did not consider, and its opinion did not address, the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to be paid or payable to any of the officers, directors or employees of Cape, or such class of persons, in connection with the Transactions whether relative to the merger consideration or otherwise. Raymond James was not requested to opine as to, and its opinion did not express an opinion as to or otherwise address, among other things: (1) the fairness of the first-step merger to the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of Cape, or to any other party, except and only to the extent expressly set forth in the last sentence of its opinion or (2) the fairness of the first-step merger to any one class or group of Cape's or any other party's security holders or other constituents vis-à-vis any other class or group of Cape's or such other party's security holders or other constituents (including, without limitation, the allocation of any consideration to be received in the first-step merger amongst or within such classes or groups of security holders or other constituents). Raymond James expressed no opinion as to the impact of the Transactions on the solvency or viability of Cape or OceanFirst or the ability of Cape or OceanFirst to pay their respective obligations when they come due.

Selected Companies Analysis. Raymond James analyzed the relative valuation multiples of 19 publicly-traded banks and thrifts in the Mid-Atlantic (Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania) and Northeast (Connecticut, Massachusetts, Maine, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont) with assets between $1.0 billion and $2.5 billion, LTM (as defined below), Core ROAA (as defined below) between 0.40% and 1.05% and nonperforming assets less than 4.0% that it deemed relevant, including:

Raymond James calculated various financial multiples for each company, including (i) price per share compared to tangible book value, referred to as TBV, per share as of September 30, 2015, (ii) price per share compared to core earnings per share (core earnings defined as net income after taxes and before extraordinary items, less net income attributable to noncontrolling interest, gain on the sale of held to maturity and available for sale securities, amortization of intangibles, goodwill and nonrecurring items, as calculated by and sourced from SNL Financial LC) for the most recent actual twelve months results ended September 30, 2015, referred to as LTM, and (iii) price per share compared to Wall Street research analysts estimates for calendar year 2016 earnings per share. The estimates published by Wall Street research analysts were not prepared in connection with the integrated mergers or at the request of Raymond James and may or may not prove to be accurate. Raymond James reviewed the mean, median, 25th percentile and 75th percentile relative valuation multiples of the selected public companies and compared them to corresponding valuation multiples for Cape implied by the merger consideration. The results of the selected public companies analysis are summarized below:

Raymond James examined valuation multiples of transaction value compared to the target companies' most recent quarter tangible book value (which we refer to as MRQ), LTM core earnings and MRQ core deposits, where such information was publicly available. LTM core earnings is defined as net income after taxes and before extraordinary items, less net income attributable to noncontrolling interest, gain on the sale of held to maturity and available for sale securities, amortization of intangibles, goodwill and nonrecurring items, as calculated by and sourced from SNL Financial LC. Raymond James reviewed the mean, median, 25th percentile and 75th percentile relative valuation multiples of the selected transactions and compared them to corresponding valuation multiples for Cape implied by the merger consideration. Furthermore, Raymond James applied the mean, median, 25th percentile and 75th percentile relative valuation multiples to Cape's MRQ tangible book value, LTM core earnings and MRQ core deposits to determine the implied equity price per share and then compared those implied equity values per share to the merger consideration of $14.79 per share, adjusted for the dilutive effect of Cape's stock options. The results of the selected transactions analysis are summarized below:

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Raymond James analyzed the discounted present value of Cape's projected free cash flows for the quarter ending March 31, 2016 through the year ending December 31, 2020 on a standalone basis. Raymond James used tangible common equity in excess of a target ratio of 8.0% at the end of each projection period for free cash flow.

The discounted cash flow analysis was based on the Cape projections. Consistent with the periods included in the Cape projections, Raymond James used calendar year 2020 as the final year for the analysis and applied multiples, ranging from 13.0x to 16.0x, to calendar year 2020 net income in order to derive a range of terminal values for Cape in 2020.

The projected unleveraged free cash flows and terminal values were discounted using rates ranging from 12.0% to 15.0%. The resulting range of present equity values was divided by the number of diluted shares outstanding in order to arrive at a range of present values per Cape share. Raymond James reviewed the range of per share prices derived in the discounted cash flow analysis and compared them to the price per share for Cape implied by the merger consideration. The results of the discounted cash flow analysis are summarized below:

	Equity Value/ Per Share
Minimum	$ 11.33
Maximum	$ 14.45
Merger Consideration	$ 14.79

Additional Considerations. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Raymond James believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, without considering the analyses taken as a whole, would create an incomplete view of the process underlying its opinion. In addition, Raymond James considered the results of all such analyses and did not assign relative weights to any of the analyses, but rather made qualitative judgments as to significance and relevance of each analysis and factor, so the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis described above should not be taken to be the view of Raymond James as to the actual value of Cape.

In performing its analyses, Raymond James made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic and regulatory conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Cape. The analyses performed by Raymond James are not necessarily indicative of actual values, trading values or actual future results which might be achieved, all of which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Such analyses were provided to the Cape board of directors (solely in its capacity as such) and were prepared solely as part of the analysis of Raymond James of the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the Cape stockholders of the merger consideration to be received by such Cape stockholders in connection with the first-step merger pursuant to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement. The analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which companies may actually be sold, and such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty. The opinion of Raymond James was one of many factors taken into account by the Cape board in making its determination to approve the first-step merger. Neither Raymond James' opinion nor the analyses described above should be viewed as determinative of the Cape board's or Cape management's views with respect to Cape, OceanFirst or the first-step merger. Raymond James provided advice to Cape with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Raymond James did not, however, recommend any specific amount of consideration to the Board or that any specific merger consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration for the first-step merger. Cape placed no limits on the scope of the analysis performed, or opinion expressed, by Raymond James.

The Raymond James opinion was necessarily based upon market, economic, financial and other circumstances and conditions existing and disclosed to it on January 4, 2016, and any material change in such circumstances and conditions may affect the opinion of Raymond James, but Raymond James does not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm that opinion. Raymond James relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that there had been no change in the business, assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows or prospects of Cape since the respective dates of the most recent financial statements and other information, financial or otherwise, provided to Raymond James that would be material to its analyses or its opinion, and that there was no information or any facts that would make any of the information reviewed by Raymond James incomplete or misleading in any material respect.

During the two years preceding the date of Raymond James' written opinion, Raymond James has been engaged by or otherwise performed services for Cape for which it was paid a fee (separately from any amounts that were paid to Raymond James under the engagement letter described in this proxy statement pursuant to which Raymond James was retained as a financial advisor to Cape to assist in reviewing strategic alternatives).

Cape has agreed to pay Raymond James a fee for advisory services in connection with the Transactions in an amount equal to 1.0% of the merger consideration at the closing of the Transactions. Cape has paid Raymond James a retainer fee of $100,000 in connection with its engagement as Cape's financial advisor, which will be credited fully towards any transaction fee due at closing. For services rendered in connection with the delivery of its opinion, Cape paid Raymond James a fee of $250,000 upon delivery of its opinion, $50,000 of which will be credited towards any transaction fee due at closing. Cape has also agreed to reimburse Raymond James for its expenses incurred in connection with its services, including the fees and expenses of its counsel, and will indemnify Raymond James against certain liabilities arising out of its engagement.

Raymond James is actively involved in the investment banking business and regularly undertakes the valuation of investment securities in connection with public offerings, private placements, business combinations and similar transactions. In the ordinary course of business, Raymond James may trade in the securities of Cape and OceanFirst for its own account and for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. Raymond James may provide investment banking, financial advisory and other financial services to Cape and/or OceanFirst or other participants in the Transactions in the future, for which Raymond James may receive compensation.

OceanFirst's Reasons for the Transactions; Recommendation of the OceanFirst Board

After careful consideration, the OceanFirst board, at a meeting held on January 5, 2016, unanimously approved the merger agreement. Accordingly, the OceanFirst board unanimously recommends that OceanFirst stockholders vote FOR the OceanFirst share issuance proposal.

In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, the integrated mergers and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and to recommend that its stockholders approve the OceanFirst share issuance, the OceanFirst board evaluated the merger agreement and the Transactions in consultation with OceanFirst management, as well as OceanFirst's legal counsel and financial advisor, and considered a number of factors in favor of the Transactions, including the following material factors, which are not presented in order of priority:

the effectiveness of the Transactions as a method of extending OceanFirst's New Jersey branch network into complementary New Jersey markets, and that the Transactions are expected to create the preeminent New Jersey based community banking franchise operating throughout Central and Southern New Jersey;

the fact that the Transactions are expected to diversify OceanFirst's geographic loan concentration and provide a gateway into the demographically attractive Philadelphia metropolitan area;

each of OceanFirst's and Cape's businesses, operations, financial condition, asset quality, earnings and prospects, including the view of the OceanFirst board that Cape's business and operations complement OceanFirst's existing operations and lines of business;

the fact that the Transactions will enhance OceanFirst's operating scale and core deposit funding base;

the current and prospective environment in which OceanFirst and Cape operate, including national, regional and local economic conditions, the competitive environment for financial institutions generally, and the likely effect of these factors on OceanFirst both with and without the Transactions;

its review and discussions with OceanFirst's management and its legal counsel and financial advisor concerning the due diligence investigation of Cape and the potential financial impact of the Transactions on the combined company;

management's expectation that OceanFirst will retain its strong capital position upon completion of the Transactions;

the financial presentation, dated January 5, 2016, of Sandler O'Neill to the OceanFirst board and the opinion, dated January 5, 2016, of Sandler O'Neill to the OceanFirst board as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, to OceanFirst of the merger consideration, as more fully described below under the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "Opinion of OceanFirst's Financial Advisor";

the terms of the merger agreement, including the expected tax treatment and deal protection and termination fee provisions, which it reviewed with OceanFirst's outside legal and financial advisors; and the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the Transactions and the expectation that such regulatory and other approvals will be received in a timely manner and without the imposition of unacceptable conditions.

The OceanFirst board also considered potential risks associated with the Transactions in connection with its deliberations of the Transactions, including (i) the potential risk of diverting management attention and resources from the operation of OceanFirst's business and towards the completion of the Transactions; (ii) the potential risks associated with achieving anticipated cost synergies and savings and successfully integrating Cape's business, operations and workforce with those of OceanFirst; and (iii) the other risks identified in the sections of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 23 and "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 28.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the OceanFirst board is not intended to be exhaustive, but, rather, includes the material factors considered by the OceanFirst board. In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, the integrated mergers and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The OceanFirst board did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The OceanFirst board considered all these factors as a whole and overall considered the factors to be favorable to, and to support, its determination. It should be noted that this explanation of the OceanFirst board's reasoning and all other information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 28.

For the reasons set forth above, the OceanFirst approved the merger agreement. The OceanFirst board unanimously recommends that the OceanFirst stockholders vote FOR the OceanFirst share issuance proposal and FOR the OceanFirst adjournment proposal.

Opinion of OceanFirst's Financial Advisor

By letter dated December 10, 2015, OceanFirst retained Sandler O'Neill, to act as financial advisor to the OceanFirst board in connection with OceanFirst's consideration of a possible business combination involving OceanFirst and Cape. Sandler O'Neill is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal industry specialty is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, Sandler O'Neill is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

Sandler O'Neill acted as financial advisor in connection with the Transactions and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to the execution of the merger agreement. At the January 5, 2016 meeting at which the OceanFirst board considered and discussed the terms of the merger agreement and the Transactions, Sandler O'Neill delivered to the OceanFirst board its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of such date, the merger consideration was fair to OceanFirst from a financial point of view. The full text of Sandler O'Neill's opinion is attached as Annex E to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in rendering its opinion. The description of the opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. Holders of OceanFirst common stock are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the Transactions.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was directed to the OceanFirst board in connection with its consideration of the Transactions and is directed only to the fairness of the merger consideration to OceanFirst from a financial point of view. It does not address the underlying business decision of OceanFirst to engage in the Transactions or any other aspect of the Transactions and is not a recommendation to any holder of OceanFirst common stock as to how such stockholder should vote at the OceanFirst special meeting with respect to the OceanFirst share issuance or any other matter. Sandler O'Neill's opinion does not address the underlying business decision of OceanFirst to engage in the Transactions or any other aspect of the Transactions, the relative merits of the Transactions as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for OceanFirst or the effect of any other transaction in which OceanFirst might engage. Sandler O Neill did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Transactions by any OceanFirst or Cape officer, director or employee, or class of such persons, if any, relative to the amount of compensation to be received by any other stockholder.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Sandler O Neill reviewed and considered, among other things:

a draft of the merger agreement, dated January 5, 2016;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of OceanFirst that Sandler O Neill deemed relevant;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Cape that Sandler O Neill deemed relevant;

publicly available consensus median analyst earnings per share estimates for OceanFirst for the quarter ended December 31, 2015 and years ending December 31, 2016 and December 31, 2017 as well as an estimated earnings and dividend payout ratio for the years thereafter, as provided by and discussed with the senior management of OceanFirst;

financial projections for Cape for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2019, as provided by and confirmed with the senior management of OceanFirst;

the pro forma financial impact of the integrated mergers on OceanFirst based on assumptions relating to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and an adjustment to Cape's estimated provision expense, as discussed with and confirmed by the senior management of OceanFirst, as well as a core deposit intangible asset;

the publicly reported historical price and trading activity for OceanFirst and Cape common stock, including a comparison of certain stock market information for OceanFirst and Cape common stock and certain stock indices as well as similar publicly available information for certain other similar companies the securities of which are publicly traded;

a comparison of certain financial information for OceanFirst and Cape with similar institutions for which publicly available information is available;

the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the commercial banking industry on a national basis, to the extent publicly available;

the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant.

Sandler O Neill also discussed with certain members of senior management of OceanFirst the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of OceanFirst and held similar discussions with the senior management of Cape regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Cape.

In performing its review, Sandler O Neill relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to it from public sources, that was provided to it by OceanFirst and Cape, or that was otherwise reviewed by it, and Sandler O Neill assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering its opinion without any independent verification or investigation. Sandler O Neill relied, at the direction of OceanFirst, without independent verification or investigation, on the assessments of the management of OceanFirst as to its existing and future relationships with key employees and partners, clients, products and services and Sandler O Neill assumed, with OceanFirst's consent, that there would be no developments with respect to any such matters that would affect its analyses or opinion. Sandler O Neill further relied on the assurances of the senior management of each of OceanFirst and Cape that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading in any material respect. Sandler O Neill was not asked to and did not undertake an independent verification of any such information and did not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. Sandler O Neill did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of OceanFirst or Cape, or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor was Sandler O Neill furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Sandler O Neill did not render an opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of OceanFirst or Cape. Sandler O Neill did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of OceanFirst, Cape or the combined entity after the Transactions and did not review any individual credit files relating to OceanFirst or Cape. Sandler O Neill assumed, with OceanFirst's consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both OceanFirst and Cape were adequate to cover such losses and would be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O Neill used publicly available consensus median analyst earnings per share estimates for OceanFirst for the quarter ended December 31, 2015 and years ending December 31, 2016 and December 31, 2017 as well as an estimated earnings and dividend payout ratio for the years thereafter, as provided by and discussed with the senior management of OceanFirst, as well as financial projections for Cape for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2019, as provided by and confirmed with the senior management of OceanFirst. Sandler O Neill also received and used in its pro forma analyses certain assumptions relating to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and an adjustment to Cape's estimated provision expense, as discussed with and confirmed by the senior management of OceanFirst. With respect to the foregoing information, the senior management of OceanFirst confirmed to Sandler O Neill that such information reflected (or, in the case of the publicly available median analyst earnings per share estimates referred to above, were consistent with) the best currently available projections, estimates and judgments of the senior management of OceanFirst of the future financial performance of OceanFirst and Cape, and Sandler O Neill assumed that such performance would be achieved. Sandler O Neill expressed no opinion as to such projections, estimates or judgments, or the assumptions on which they are based. Sandler O Neill also assumed that there was no material change in OceanFirst's or Cape's assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to Sandler O Neill. Sandler O Neill assumed in all respects material to its analysis that OceanFirst and Cape would remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to its analyses.

Sandler O Neill also assumed, with OceanFirst's consent, that (i) each of the parties to the merger agreement would comply in all material respects with all material terms of the merger agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement were true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to the merger agreement would perform in all material respects all of the covenants and other obligations required to be performed by such party under the merger agreement and that the conditions precedent in the merger agreement were not waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the integrated mergers, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition would be imposed that would have an adverse effect on OceanFirst, Cape or the integrated mergers or any related transactions, (iii) the integrated mergers and any related transactions would be consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements, (iv) the Transactions will be consummated without Cape's rights under Section 8.1(g) of the merger agreement having been triggered, and (v) the integrated mergers would together qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Finally, with OceanFirst's consent, Sandler O Neill relied upon the advice that OceanFirst received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the integrated mergers and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Sandler O'Neill's analyses were necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to it as of, the date of the opinion. Events occurring after the date of the opinion could materially affect Sander O'Neill's opinion. Sandler O'Neill has not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date of the opinion. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to the trading values of OceanFirst common stock or Cape common stock after the date of its opinion or what the value of OceanFirst common stock would be once it is actually received by the holders of Cape common stock. Sandler O'Neill's opinion was approved by its fairness opinion committee.

In rendering its opinion, Sandler O'Neill performed a variety of financial analyses. The summary below is not a complete description of the analyses underlying Sandler O'Neill's opinion or the presentation made by Sandler O'Neill to the OceanFirst board, but is a summary of all material analyses performed and presented by Sandler O'Neill. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Sandler O'Neill believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses to be considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. Also, no company included in Sandler O'Neill's comparative analyses described below is identical to OceanFirst or Cape and no transaction is identical to the Transactions. Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or merger transaction values, as the case may be, of OceanFirst and Cape and the companies to which they are being compared. In arriving at its opinion, Sandler O'Neill did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered. Rather, Sandler O'Neill made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Sandler O'Neill did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative) considered in isolation supported or failed to support its opinion; rather, Sandler O'Neill made its determination as to the fairness of the merger consideration on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all its analyses taken as a whole.

In performing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which cannot be predicted and are beyond the control of OceanFirst, Cape and Sandler O'Neill. The analyses performed by Sandler O'Neill are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, both of which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Sandler O'Neill prepared its analyses solely for purposes of rendering its opinion and provided such analyses to the OceanFirst board at its January 5, 2016 meeting. Estimates on the values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and actual values may be materially different. Accordingly, Sandler O'Neill's analyses do not necessarily reflect the value of OceanFirst common stock or the prices at which OceanFirst common stock or Cape common stock may be sold at any time. The analyses of Sandler O'Neill and its opinion were among a number of factors taken into consideration by the OceanFirst board in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of the OceanFirst board or management with respect to the fairness of the Transactions. See OceanFirst's Reasons for the Transactions; Recommendation of the OceanFirst Board of Directors for additional information on the factors the OceanFirst board considered in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement.

Summary of Proposed Merger Consideration and Implied Transaction Metrics. Sandler O'Neill reviewed the financial terms of the proposed Transactions. As described in the merger agreement, each share of Cape common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will be converted into the right to receive, without interest, (a) $2.25 in cash and (b) 0.6375 shares of OceanFirst common stock. Using OceanFirst's January 4, 2016 closing stock price of $19.67, and based upon 13,540,875 shares of Cape common stock outstanding, which included outstanding restricted stock awards, and all options to purchase shares of Cape common stock outstanding rolled into options to purchase shares of OceanFirst common stock at an exchange ratio of 0.7500, based on the vested portion of the options using the Black Scholes model, Sandler O'Neill utilized an implied transaction price per share of $15.00 and calculated an aggregate implied transaction value of approximately $205.6 million. Based upon financial information for Cape as of or for the twelve months ended September 30, 2015, Sandler O'Neill calculated the following implied transaction metrics:

Net Present Value Analyses. Sandler O'Neill performed an analysis that estimated the net present value per share of OceanFirst common stock assuming OceanFirst performed in accordance with publicly available median analyst earnings per share estimates for OceanFirst for the quarter ending December 31, 2015 and years ending December 31, 2016 and December 31, 2017 as well as an estimated earnings and dividend pay-out ratio for the years thereafter, as provided by and discussed with the senior management of OceanFirst. To approximate the terminal value of a share of OceanFirst common stock at December 31, 2019, Sandler O'Neill applied price to 2019 earnings multiples ranging from 13.0x to 20.5x and multiples of December 31, 2019 tangible book value ranging from 135% to 210%. The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 9.0% to 15.0% chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of OceanFirst common stock. As illustrated in the following tables, the analysis indicates an imputed range of values per share of OceanFirst common stock of $15.08 to $28.28 when applying multiples of earnings and $15.32 to $28.38 when applying multiples of tangible book value.

In connection with its analyses, Sandler O'Neill considered and discussed with the OceanFirst board how the present value analyses would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions. Sandler O'Neill noted that the net present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, and the results thereof are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Sandler O'Neill analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the Transactions based on the following assumptions: (i) the Transactions close in the second calendar quarter of 2016; (ii) as described in the merger agreement, each share of Cape common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be converted into the right to receive, without interest, (a) $2.25 in cash and (b) 0.6375 shares of OceanFirst common stock; (iii) all outstanding Cape options are converted into OceanFirst options at an exchange ratio of 0.7500, based on the vested portion of the options using the Black Scholes model; and (iv) OceanFirst's closing stock price of $19.67 on January 4, 2016. Sandler O'Neill also incorporated the following assumptions, each of which were discussed with and confirmed by OceanFirst's senior management: (a) financial projections for Cape for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2019; (b) estimated earnings per share projections for OceanFirst, based on publicly available analyst consensus median earnings per share estimates for the years ending December 31, 2016 and December 31, 2017 with an estimated long-term earnings growth rate for the years thereafter; (c) purchase accounting adjustments, including a gross credit mark on loans, a positive interest rate mark on held-to-maturity investment securities, a negative interest rate mark on available-for-sale investment securities and outstanding interest rate swaps, a gross loan positive interest rate mark, an owned real estate write-down, a negative interest rate mark on time deposits, a positive interest rate mark and write-off of pre-payment penalties associated with FHLB, and a pension obligation (liability) fair value adjustment; (d) the reversal of Cape's existing allowance for loan and lease losses; (e) an estimated provision expense on Cape's new loan growth; (f) estimated cost savings; and (g) pre-tax one-time transaction costs and expenses. In addition, Sandler O'Neill assumed a core deposit premium on Cape's core deposits with sum of the years depreciation over 10 years and a pre-tax opportunity cost of cash of 1.25%. The analysis indicated that the Transactions would be accretive to OceanFirst's estimated earnings per share in 2016 (excluding transaction expenses in 2016) and dilutive to estimated tangible book value per share at close.

In connection with this analyses, Sandler O'Neill considered and discussed with the OceanFirst board how the analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including the impact of final purchase accounting adjustments determined at the closing of the transaction, and noted that the actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

Sandler O'Neill's Relationship. Sandler O'Neill is acting as financial advisor to the OceanFirst board in connection with the Transactions and, under the terms of Sandler O'Neill's engagement letter, Sandler O'Neill is entitled to receive a transaction fee in an amount equal to 0.75% of the aggregate merger consideration; 10% of such fee was paid to Sandler O'Neill upon OceanFirst's entry into the merger agreement and the remainder will become payable at the time of closing of the Transactions. In addition, Sandler O'Neill received a fee in an amount equal to $200,000 upon rendering its fairness opinion to the OceanFirst board in connection with the Transactions, which fairness opinion fee will be credited in full towards the portion of the transaction fee which becomes payable to Sandler O'Neill on the day of closing of the Transactions. OceanFirst has also agreed to reimburse Sandler O'Neill for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with its engagement, including the reasonable fees and disbursements of its legal counsel up to a maximum of $15,000 without OceanFirst's prior approval. OceanFirst has also agreed to indemnify Sandler O'Neill and its affiliates and their respective partners, directors, officers, employees and agents against certain expenses and liabilities, including liabilities under applicable federal or state law.

In the two years preceding the date of Sandler O'Neill's opinion, Sandler O'Neill provided certain other investment banking services to OceanFirst and received fees of approximately $125,000 for such services. In addition, in the two years preceding the date of Sandler O'Neill's opinion, Sandler O'Neill Mortgage Finance

L.P., an affiliate of Sandler O'Neill, acted as introducing broker to OceanFirst and received fees of approximately $280,000 for such services. In the ordinary course of Sandler O'Neill's business as a broker-dealer, Sandler O'Neill may purchase securities from and sell securities to OceanFirst, Cape and their respective affiliates. Sandler O'Neill may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of OceanFirst and Cape or their respective affiliates for its own account and for the accounts of its customers.

Interests of Cape's Directors and Executive Officers in the Transactions

In considering the recommendation of the Cape board that you vote to approve the Cape merger proposal, you should be aware that some of Cape's officers and directors have employment and other compensation agreements or economic interests that are different from, or in addition to, those of Cape stockholders generally. The Cape board was aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the merger agreement, and in recommending to the Cape stockholders that the merger agreement be approved.

Employment Agreement with Cape. Cape Bank is a party to an employment agreement with Michael D. Devlin, its president and chief executive officer, which provides for a lump sum cash severance payment upon his termination without cause or for good reason (as defined in the employment agreement) within one year following a change in control equal to two times Mr. Devlin's then base salary and the average bonus earned (other than signing or retention bonuses) during the three years prior to the year in which the termination of employment occurs. In addition, he would also receive, at no cost to him, continued life and non-taxable medical and dental insurance coverage for a period of two years following his termination. Assuming the effective date of the first-step merger is July 1, 2016 and assuming that Mr. Devlin experiences a qualifying termination of employment at the effective time of the first-step merger, the cash severance payment to be made to Mr. Devlin is estimated to be approximately $959,609.

Change in Control Agreements with Cape. Cape Bank is also a party to change in control agreements with seventeen officers that provide severance benefits to the officer upon an involuntary termination of employment or a voluntary termination of employment for good reason (as defined in the change in control agreements) following a change in control. The change in control agreements provide that the officer will be paid a lump sum cash severance payment equal to either one times or two times his or her base salary (as applicable) and the average bonus earned by the officer during the three years preceding the year in which the termination occurs. In addition, the officer would be entitled to receive, at no cost to him or her, continued life insurance coverage and non-taxable medical and dental insurance coverage for 12 months to 24 months following termination of employment. Assuming the effective date of the first-step merger is July 1, 2016, the estimated cash severance payments which would be made to Messrs. Hackney, McGowan, Jr., Pinto and Geletka and to Ms. Pollack (Cape's executive officers, each of whom have a cash severance multiple of two times) in connection with a qualifying termination of employment at the effective time of the first-step merger are $517,406, $455,964, $466,929, $379,000 and $605,857, respectively.

One New Director. Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, OceanFirst and OceanFirst Bank have agreed to appoint Michael D. Devlin to the boards of directors of OceanFirst and OceanFirst Bank as a member of the class of directors with a term expiring at the 2018 annual meeting of the stockholders.

Outstanding Stock Options and Restricted Stock.

Conversion of Outstanding Stock Options

Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, each stock option issued under the Cape Bancorp, Inc. 2008 Equity Incentive Plan and the Colonial Financial Services, Inc. 2011 Equity Incentive Plan, which was assumed by Cape, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to closing will be converted into an option to acquire a number of shares of OceanFirst common stock (rounded down to the nearest whole share) determined by multiplying (x) the number of shares of Cape common stock subject to such Cape option immediately prior to the effective time by (y) 0.75; and the exercise per share of the new option (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) will be equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (i) the per share exercise price for the shares of Cape common stock subject to such Cape option by (ii) 0.75. The Cape Bancorp, Inc. 2008 Equity Incentive Plan and the Colonial Financial Services, Inc. 2011 Equity Incentive Plan each provide for accelerated vesting upon the involuntary termination of the option holder or the resignation of an employee option holder for good reason (as such term is defined in the plan) following a change in control. Based upon the equity holdings as of February 1, 2016 (the latest practicable date prior to the initial filing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus), the number of OceanFirst stock options that will be held by the executive officers and non-employee directors of Cape following the conversion is as follows:

In addition, as a result of the first-step merger, each outstanding restricted stock award granted under the above plans shall become fully vested and each holder will be entitled to receive the per share merger consideration for each restricted stock award held by such holder. Based upon the equity holdings as of February 1, 2016 (the latest practicable date prior to the initial filing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus), the number of unvested restricted stock awards that will become vested as a result of the first-step merger, assuming that the effective date of the first-step merger is July 1, 2016, held by the executive officers and non-employee directors of Cape is as follows:

Merger-Related Executive Compensation for Cape's Named Executive Officers. The following table and related footnotes provide information about the compensation to be paid to Cape's named executive officers that is based on or otherwise relates to the first-step merger (which we refer to as the merger-related executive compensation). The merger-related executive compensation shown in the table and described in the footnotes below is subject to an advisory (non-binding) vote of the Cape stockholders as more fully described in the section entitled "Cape Proposals - Proposal No. 2 Cape Merger-Related Compensation Proposal" beginning on page 42.

The table below sets forth the aggregate dollar value of the various elements of merger-related executive compensation that each named executive officer of Cape would receive that is based on or otherwise relates to the first-step merger, assuming the following:

the estimated effective date of the first-step merger is July 1, 2016;

the employment of each named executive officer is terminated by OceanFirst without cause at the effective time of the first-step merger;

as required by SEC rules, all amounts below have been calculated based on a per share price of Cape common stock of $13.83 (the average closing market price of Cape common stock over the first five business days following the public announcement of the Transactions on January 5, 2016); and there are no regulatory restrictions to paying the merger-related executive compensation provided below to the named executive officers.

Table of Contents

As a result of the foregoing assumptions, the actual amounts received by a named executive officer may materially differ from the amounts set forth below:

Golden Parachute Compensation

Executive	Cash ($)⁽¹⁾	Equity ($)⁽²⁾	Pension/ NQDC ($)	Perquisites/ Benefits ($)⁽³⁾	Tax Reimbursement ($)	Other ($)	Total ($)
Michael D. Devlin	959,609			16,454			976,093
Guy Hackney	517,406			2,528			519,934
Michele Pollack	605,857			3,253			609,110
James F. McGowan, Jr.	455,964			29,887			485,851
Charles L. Pinto	466,929	43,680		38,523			549,132

- (1) The amount in this column represents the cash severance payments that would be made to each of Cape named executive officers in the event of their qualifying termination of employment (for Mr. Devlin, under his employment agreement, and for each of Messrs. Hackney, McGowan, Jr. and Pinto and Ms. Pollack, under their change in control agreements). Each of these amounts are payable only upon a qualifying termination of employment within 12 months after the effective date of the first-step merger, subject to the named executive officer's compliance with certain post-termination obligations (including non-solicitation and, for Mr. Devlin only, non-competition provisions and release of claims).
- (2) The amounts in this column are double trigger and represent, with respect to Mr. Pinto, the-in-the-money value of his unvested options, the vesting of which would be accelerated in the event of his termination of employment at any time following the effective date of the first-step merger. This amount is based on the per share value of $13.83 (which reflects the average closing price of the shares of Cape common stock over the first five business days following announcement of the Transactions on January 5, 2016), less the applicable per share exercise price ($10.19) multiplied by 12,000, the number of Mr. Pinto's unvested stock options. None of the other named executive officers hold any unvested equity awards.
- (3) The amounts in this column are payable only on a qualifying termination of employment within 12 months after the effective date of the first-step merger and represent the total amount of the continuing life, medical and dental insurance coverage that would be payable by OceanFirst to each of the named executive officers for 24 months in the event of the named executive officer's qualifying termination of employment within 12 months after the effective date of the first-step merger, based on the cost of such coverage at the effective date of the first-step merger, and subject to the release and post-termination obligations described above in footnote 1 to this table.

Indemnification. Pursuant to the merger agreement, OceanFirst has agreed that it will, from and after the effective time of the first-step merger, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, indemnify and hold harmless each present and former officer, employee or director of Cape and its subsidiaries against any costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees), judgments, fines, losses, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative arising before or after the effective time arising out of the fact that such person is or was an officer, employee or director of Cape. Any such claim must pertain to a matter arising, existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time of the first-step merger, regardless of whether such claim is asserted or claimed before or after the effective time of the first-step merger.

Directors and Officers Insurance. OceanFirst has further agreed to maintain in effect the current officers and directors liability insurance policies maintained by Cape or to substitute substantially comparable policies of at least the same coverage and amounts with terms and conditions no less advantageous to the insured for a period of at least six years after the effective time of the first-step merger, provided, that OceanFirst is not required to spend more than 200% of the annual premiums currently paid by Cape and if such premiums would exceed this cap, then OceanFirst will provide the maximum coverage available at an annual premium equal to the cap.

Public Trading Markets

OceanFirst common stock is listed for trading on the NASDAQ under the symbol OCFC and Cape common stock is listed on the NASDAQ under the symbol CBNJ. Upon completion of the first-step merger, Cape common stock will no longer be listed on the NASDAQ Stock Market and will be de-registered under the Exchange Act. It is a condition to each party's obligations to complete the integrated mergers that the OceanFirst common stock to be issued pursuant to the merger agreement be authorized for listing on the NASDAQ (subject to official notice of issuance). Immediately following the completion of the Transactions, shares of OceanFirst common stock will continue to be traded on the NASDAQ under the symbol OCFC.

Dividend Policy

OceanFirst currently pays a quarterly cash dividend of $0.13 per share, which is expected to continue, although the OceanFirst board may change this dividend policy at any time. Cape currently pays quarterly cash dividends of $0.10 per share, which is expected to continue until the effective time, although, subject to certain restrictions in the merger agreement, the Cape board may change this dividend policy at any time. OceanFirst stockholders will be entitled to receive dividends when and if declared by the OceanFirst board out of funds legally available for dividends. The OceanFirst board will consider OceanFirst's financial condition and level of net income, future prospects, economic condition, industry practices and other factors, including applicable banking laws and regulations, in determining whether to pay dividends in the future and the amount of such dividends.

OceanFirst's principal source of income is dividends that are declared and paid by OceanFirst Bank on its capital stock. Therefore, OceanFirst's ability to pay dividends is dependent upon the receipt of dividends from OceanFirst Bank. Insured depository institutions such as OceanFirst Bank are prohibited from making capital distributions, including the payment of dividends, if, after making such distribution, the institution would become undercapitalized, as such term is defined in the applicable law and regulations. In the future, any declaration and payment of cash dividends will be subject to the OceanFirst board's evaluation of OceanFirst's operating results, financial condition, future growth plans, general business and economic conditions, and tax and other relevant considerations. The payment of cash dividends by OceanFirst in the future will also be subject to certain other legal and regulatory limitations and ongoing review by the OceanFirst's banking regulators.

No Dissenters' Rights

Dissenters' rights are statutory rights that, if applicable under law, enable stockholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, and to demand that the corporation pay the fair value of their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to stockholders in connection with the extraordinary transaction. Under Maryland law, a corporation may eliminate dissenters' rights for one or more classes of stock by explicitly denying such rights in its articles of incorporation. Cape's articles of incorporation provide that holders of Cape common stock are not entitled to exercise the rights of an objecting stockholder provided for under the MGCL, unless the Cape board adopts a resolution determining that such rights will apply. However, the merger agreement contains certain restrictions on Cape's ability to take actions that would cause the Cape stockholders to be entitled to dissenters' rights. Accordingly, holders of Cape common stock are not entitled to dissenters' rights in connection with the first-step merger.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Transactions

Completion of the Transactions is subject to receipt of certain approvals and consents from applicable governmental and regulatory authorities, without certain conditions being imposed by any governmental authority as part of a regulatory approval that would reasonably be expected to result in a materially burdensome regulatory condition. Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, OceanFirst and Cape have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts and cooperate to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation and to obtain as promptly as practicable all regulatory approvals necessary or advisable to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. On a date before the closing, Cape plans to provide notice of the Transactions to the NJ Department. On February 11, 2016, OceanFirst requested a waiver from the Federal Reserve Board of the need to obtain its approval of the Transactions. The Federal Reserve Board granted that waiver on February 22, 2016. On February 8, 2016, OceanFirst applied to the OCC for approval of the Transactions. As of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, OceanFirst has not received approval from the OCC. Although neither Cape nor OceanFirst knows of any reason why it cannot obtain this regulatory approval in a timely manner, Cape and OceanFirst cannot be certain when, or if, it will be obtained.

Federal Reserve Board

OceanFirst is a savings and loan holding company regulated and supervised by the Federal Reserve Board under the Home Owners Loan Act of 1933 (which we refer to as "HOLA"). Unless granted an exemption by the Federal Reserve Board, the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement require prior approval of the Federal Reserve Board under HOLA. In evaluating an application for such approval, the Federal Reserve Board takes into consideration a number of factors, including (i) the competitive impact of the transaction; (ii) the financial condition and future prospects, including capital positions and managerial resources of the institutions, on both a current and pro forma basis; (iii) the convenience and needs of the communities to be served and the record of the insured depository institution subsidiaries of the holding companies under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977 (which we refer to as the "CRA"); (iv) the effectiveness of the holding companies and the depository institutions concerned in combating money laundering activities; and (v) the extent to which the proposal would result in greater or more concentrated risks to the stability of the U.S. banking or financial system. In connection with its review, the Federal Reserve Board provides an opportunity for public comment on the application and is authorized to hold a public meeting or other proceeding if it determines that such meeting or other proceeding would be appropriate.

Office of the Comptroller of the Currency

OceanFirst Bank is an insured depository institution regulated and supervised by the OCC. The merger of Cape Bank with and into OceanFirst Bank requires prior approval of the OCC under the Bank Merger Act. In evaluating an application for such approval, the OCC takes into consideration a number of factors, including (i) the competitive impact of the transaction; (ii) financial and managerial resources of the bank parties to the bank merger or integrated mergers both on a current and pro forma basis; (iii) the convenience and needs of the community to be served and the record of the banks under the CRA, including their CRA ratings; (iv) the banks' effectiveness in combating money laundering activities; and (v) the extent to which the bank merger or integrated mergers would result in greater or more concentrated risks to the stability of the U.S. banking or financial system. In connection with its review, the OCC provides an opportunity for public comment on the application and is authorized to hold a public meeting or other proceeding if it determines that would be appropriate.

New Jersey Department of Banking and Insurance

Cape Bank is a state savings bank chartered, regulated and supervised by the NJ Department. The transactions contemplated by the merger agreement require certain notices to be filed with the NJ Department under applicable New Jersey banking laws. Cape has filed the required notices with the NJ Department.

Additional Regulatory Approvals and Notices

OceanFirst and Cape believe that the Transactions do not raise substantial antitrust or other significant regulatory concerns and that the parties to the Transactions will be able to obtain all requisite regulatory approvals. However, neither OceanFirst nor Cape can assure you that all of the regulatory approvals described above will be obtained and, if obtained, OceanFirst and Cape cannot assure you as to the timing of any such approvals, their ability to obtain the approvals on satisfactory terms or the absence of any litigation challenging such approvals. In addition, there can be no assurance that such approvals will not impose conditions or requirements that, individually or in the aggregate, would or could reasonably be expected to have a materially burdensome regulatory condition.

Neither OceanFirst nor Cape is aware of any material governmental approvals or actions that are required for completion of the Transactions other than those described above. It is presently contemplated that if any such additional governmental approvals or actions are required, those approvals or actions will be sought. There can be no assurance, however, that any additional approvals or actions will be obtained.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following description of the merger agreement is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the express terms of the merger agreement, which is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A and is incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. We urge you to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety, as it is the legal document governing the integrated mergers.

Structure of the Transactions

Each of the OceanFirst board and the Cape board has unanimously approved the merger agreement. The merger agreement provides for (i) the merger of Merger Sub with and into Cape, with Cape continuing as the surviving corporation in the first-step merger and as a wholly-owned subsidiary of OceanFirst, (ii) immediately following the completion of the first-step merger, Cape will merge with and into OceanFirst, with OceanFirst continuing as the surviving corporation in the second-step merger and (iii) immediately following the completion of the integrated mergers, Cape Bank will merge with and into OceanFirst Bank, a wholly owned bank subsidiary of OceanFirst, with OceanFirst Bank continuing as the surviving bank in the bank merger.

Prior to the completion of the Transactions, Cape and OceanFirst may, by mutual agreement, change the method or structure of effecting the combination of Cape and OceanFirst, except that no such change may (i) alter or change the amount and kind of the merger consideration, (ii) adversely affect the tax treatment of Cape stockholders or OceanFirst stockholders, (iii) adversely affect the tax treatment of Cape or OceanFirst, or (iv) materially impede or delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement in a timely manner.

Merger Consideration

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, at the effective time, each share of Cape common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the first-step merger, except for specified shares of Cape common stock owned by Cape or OceanFirst, will be converted into the right to receive $2.25 in cash, without interest, and 0.6375 shares of OceanFirst common stock.

If the outstanding shares of OceanFirst common stock or Cape common stock is increased, decreased, changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities as a result of a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split, or other similar change in capitalization, or there is any extraordinary dividend or distribution, an appropriate and proportionate adjustment will be made to the merger consideration.

Fractional Shares

OceanFirst will not issue any fractional shares of OceanFirst common stock in the first-step merger. Instead, any Cape stockholder who otherwise would have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of OceanFirst common stock will instead be entitled to receive an amount in cash, rounded to the nearest cent, determined by multiplying the fraction of a share (rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed in decimal form) of OceanFirst common stock to which the holder would otherwise be entitled by the average closing-sale price per share of OceanFirst common stock on the NASDAQ (as reported by The Wall Street Journal) for the five full trading days ending on the day preceding the day on which the first-step merger is completed.

Governing Documents; Directors and Officers; Governance Matters

Upon the consummation of the integrated mergers, the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of OceanFirst in effect immediately prior to the effective time will be the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the surviving corporation after completion of the integrated mergers, until thereafter amended in accordance with applicable law.

Table of Contents

Effective as of the effective time, OceanFirst has agreed to (i) increase the size of the OceanFirst board to ten members and (ii) appoint Michael D. Devlin to the boards of directors of OceanFirst and OceanFirst Bank, respectively, as a member of the class of directors that has a term expiring at the 2018 annual meeting of OceanFirst stockholders. In the event that Mr. Devlin is unable to serve, OceanFirst and OceanFirst Bank, respectively, have agreed to select and appoint a director from the existing Cape board to serve as a member of the class of directors of OceanFirst and OceanFirst Bank, respectively, for a term to expire at the 2018 annual meeting of OceanFirst stockholders.

Treatment of Cape Equity-Based Awards

Restricted Stock

At the effective time, each restricted stock award in respect of shares of Cape common stock granted under a Cape equity plan (or assumed by Cape from a prior acquisition) will become fully vested and the restrictions thereon will lapse, and each holder of such restricted stock awards will be entitled to receive the merger consideration.

Stock Options

Also at the effective time, each stock option granted by Cape (or assumed by Cape from a prior acquisition) will be assumed and converted into an option to purchase from OceanFirst, on the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such Cape stock option, the number of shares of OceanFirst common stock (rounded down to the nearest whole share) determined by multiplying (i) the number of shares of Cape common stock subject to such Cape stock option immediately prior to the effective time by (ii) 0.75, at a per share exercise price (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (a) the per share exercise price for each share of Cape common stock subject to such Cape stock options by (b) 0.75.

Closing and Effective Time

The integrated mergers will be completed only if all conditions to the integrated mergers discussed in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and set forth in the merger agreement are either satisfied or waived. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled Conditions to Complete the Integrated Mergers.

The first-step merger will become effective as set forth in the articles of merger to be filed with the Maryland State Department of Assessments and Taxation. The second-step merger will become effective as set forth in the certificate of merger to be filed with the Delaware Secretary of State. The closing of the integrated mergers will occur at 10:00 a.m., New York City time, on a date no later than two business days after the satisfaction or waiver of the last to occur of the conditions set forth in the merger agreement, unless another date or time is agreed to in writing by OceanFirst and Cape. OceanFirst and Cape currently expect to complete the Transactions in the summer of 2016, subject to the requisite approval of the OceanFirst stockholders, the requisite approval of the Cape stockholders, the receipt of regulatory approvals and the fulfillment of other customary closing conditions set forth in the merger agreement, but neither Cape nor OceanFirst can guarantee when, or if, the Transactions will be completed.

Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Certificates

The conversion of Cape common stock into the right to receive the merger consideration will occur automatically at the effective time. Promptly following completion of the first-step merger, the exchange agent will exchange certificates representing shares of Cape common stock for the merger consideration to be received pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement.

Letter of Transmittal

As promptly as practicable after the effective time, and in no event later than five business days thereafter, the exchange agent will mail to each holder of record of Cape common stock immediately prior to the effective time a letter of transmittal and instructions on how to surrender shares of Cape common stock in exchange for the merger consideration the holder is entitled to receive under the merger agreement.

If a certificate for Cape common stock has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the exchange agent will issue the merger consideration upon receipt of (i) an affidavit of that fact by the claimant and (ii) if required by OceanFirst, the posting of a bond in an amount as OceanFirst may determine is reasonably necessary as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such certificate.

Following completion of the first-step merger, there will be no further transfers on the stock transfer books of Cape of shares of Cape common stock that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time.

Withholding

OceanFirst and the exchange agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the merger consideration any cash in lieu of fractional shares of OceanFirst common stock, cash dividends or distributions payable or any other cash amount payable under the merger agreement to any person the amounts they are required to deduct and withhold under the Code or any provision of state, local or foreign tax law. If any such amounts are so withheld and paid over to the appropriate governmental authority, these amounts will be treated for all purposes of the merger agreement as having been paid to the stockholders from whom they were withheld.

Dividends and Distributions

No dividends or other distributions declared with respect to OceanFirst common stock will be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered certificates of Cape common stock until the holder surrenders such certificate in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. After the surrender of a certificate in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, the record holder of such certificate will be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without any interest thereon, which were previously payable with respect to the stock consideration which the shares of Cape common stock represented by such certificate have been converted into the right to receive under the merger agreement.

Representations and Warranties

The representations, warranties and covenants described below, and elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, and included in the merger agreement, were made by OceanFirst and Cape solely for the benefit of the other such party, only for purposes of the merger agreement and as of specific dates. In addition, the representations, warranties and covenants may be subject to limitations, qualifications or exceptions agreed upon by the parties to the merger agreement, including those included in confidential disclosures made for the purposes of, among other things, allocating contractual risk between OceanFirst and Cape rather than establishing matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality that differ from those standards relevant to investors. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the merger agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by OceanFirst or Cape. Therefore, you should not rely on the representations, warranties, covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of OceanFirst, Cape or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates, without considering the foregoing. The representations and warranties and other provisions of the merger agreement should not be read alone, but instead should be read only in conjunction with the information provided elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and in the documents incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 126.

OceanFirst and Cape will provide additional disclosure in their respective public reports to the extent they become aware of the existence of any material facts that are required to be disclosed under federal securities laws

Covenants and Agreements

Conduct of Businesses Prior to the Effective Time

Cape has agreed that, prior to the effective time (or earlier termination of the merger agreement), subject to specified exceptions, it will, and will cause each of its subsidiaries to, conduct its business in the ordinary course in all material respects, use reasonable best efforts to maintain and preserve intact its business organization, employees, independent contractors and advantageous business relationships, and take no action that would reasonably be expected to adversely affect or delay its ability to obtain any necessary approvals of any governmental entity or regulatory agency required for the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or to perform its covenants and agreements under the merger agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated thereby on a timely basis.

Additionally, prior to the effective time (or earlier termination of the merger agreement), subject to specified exceptions, Cape may not, and may not permit any of its subsidiaries to, without the prior written consent of OceanFirst (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld), undertake the following actions:

other than in the ordinary course of business, incur any indebtedness for borrowed money (other than indebtedness of Cape or any of its wholly owned subsidiaries to Cape or any of its other subsidiaries), assume, guarantee, endorse or otherwise as an accommodation become responsible for the obligations of any other individual, corporation or other entity;

adjust, split, combine or reclassify any of its capital stock;

make, declare or pay any dividend, or make any other distribution on, or directly or indirectly redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire, any shares of its capital stock or any securities or obligations convertible (whether currently convertible or convertible only after the passage of time or the occurrence of certain events) into or exchangeable for any shares of its capital stock (except (i) regular quarterly cash dividends by Cape at a rate not in excess of $0.10 per share of Cape common stock, (ii) dividends paid by any of the subsidiaries of Cape to Cape or any of its wholly owned subsidiaries, or (iii) the acceptance of shares of Cape common stock as payment for the exercise price of stock options or for withholding taxes incurred in connection with the exercise of stock options or the vesting or settlement of equity compensation awards, in each case, in accordance with past practice and the terms of the applicable award agreements);

Regulatory Matters

OceanFirst and Cape have agreed to use their respective reasonable best efforts to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings, to obtain all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and governmental entities which are necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. However, in no event will OceanFirst or Cape be required to take any action, or commit to take any action, or agree to any condition or restriction, in connection with obtaining the required permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of governmental entities that would reasonably be expected to result in a materially burdensome regulatory condition. OceanFirst and Cape have also agreed to furnish each other with all information reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with any statement, filing, notice or application to any governmental entity in connection with the Transactions, as well as to keep each other apprised of the status of matters related to the completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Employee Benefit Matters

OceanFirst has agreed that, for the period commencing on the effective time and ending on the first anniversary of the effective time, OceanFirst will cause the surviving corporation to provide the employees of Cape and its subsidiaries who continue to be employed by OceanFirst or its subsidiaries immediately following the effective time, while employed by OceanFirst or its subsidiaries after the effective time, with base salaries and wages no less favorable than, and with employee benefits that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to the base salaries, wages and employee benefits provided to similarly situated employees of OceanFirst and its subsidiaries, except that (a) OceanFirst may satisfy this obligation by providing such continuing employees with base salaries and wages that are no less favorable than, and with employee benefits that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to, the base salaries, wages and employee benefits provided by Cape or its subsidiaries to such continuing employees immediately prior to the effective time and (b) to satisfy this obligation, OceanFirst is not obligated to provide to such continuing employees any equity or equity-based compensation.

Under the merger agreement OceanFirst has agreed to assume and honor all Cape benefit plans in accordance with their terms. OceanFirst has further acknowledged that a change in control within the meaning of the Cape benefit plans will occur at the effective time of the first-step merger. The merger agreement provides that any employee of Cape or Cape Bank whose employment is terminated by OceanFirst or OceanFirst Bank (other than for cause) and who is not a party to an employment, change in control or severance agreement or contract providing severance payments will be covered and be eligible to receive severance benefits under, and subject to the terms and conditions of, the severance plan or policy of OceanFirst, on the condition that such employee enters into a release of claims against OceanFirst, any OceanFirst subsidiary, Cape, Cape Bank and any subsidiary or affiliate of any of the above, in a customary form reasonably satisfactory to OceanFirst. Notwithstanding the forgoing, at the written direction of OceanFirst to Cape prior to the closing, Cape or Cape Bank has agreed to pay such cash severance benefit to any Cape or Cape subsidiary employee whose employment will be terminated at closing.

The merger agreement requires the surviving corporation to use commercially reasonable efforts to, with respect to the continuing employees:

waive all exclusions and waiting periods with respect to participation and coverage requirements applicable to such employees and their eligible dependents under any benefit plans of the surviving corporation, subject to certain limitations;

provide each such employee and their eligible dependents with credit for any co-payments and deductibles paid prior to the effective time under a benefit plan sponsored by Cape to the same extent that such credit was given under the analogous Cape benefit plan prior to the effective time of the first-step merger in satisfying any applicable deductible or out-of-pocket requirements under any new benefit plans of the surviving corporation; and recognize all service of such employees with Cape and its subsidiaries, for all purposes in any new benefit plan of the surviving corporation to the same extent that such service was taken into account under the analogous Cape benefit plan prior to the effective time, subject to certain limitations.

Effective prior to the closing, Cape will terminate the Cape ESOP and (unless OceanFirst requests otherwise in writing) the Cape 401(k) Plan, in each case, in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. As soon as practicable following the effective time, OceanFirst will permit or cause its subsidiaries to permit the continuing employees to roll over their account balances and outstanding loan balances, if any, under the Cape 401(k) Plan into an eligible retirement plan within the meaning of Section 402(c)(8)(B) of the Code maintained by OceanFirst or its subsidiaries. The accounts of all participants and beneficiaries in the Cape ESOP as of the effective time shall become fully vested as of the effective time. Any unallocated shares of Cape common stock held in the Cape ESOP's suspense account after repayment of the Cape ESOP loan will be converted into merger consideration and will be allocated as earnings to the accounts of Cape ESOP participants who are employed as of the effective time based on their account balances under the Cape ESOP as of the effective time. As soon as practicable following the receipt of a favorable determination letter from the IRS regarding the qualified status of the Cape ESOP upon the termination of the Cape ESOP, the account balances in the Cape ESOP will either be distributed to participants and beneficiaries or transferred to an eligible tax-qualified retirement plan or individual retirement account as a participant or beneficiary may direct. OceanFirst has agreed to permit the Cape ESOP participants who become employees of OceanFirst or OceanFirst subsidiaries to roll over their account balances in the Cape ESOP to the OceanFirst ESOP.

Under the terms of the merger agreement OceanFirst has agreed to, following the effective time, indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, all present and former directors, officers and employees of Cape and its subsidiaries against all costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, whether arising before or after the effective time, arising out of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer or employee of Cape or its subsidiaries and pertaining to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time, to the fullest extent as would have been permitted by Cape pursuant to the Cape articles, the Cape bylaws or the governing or organizational documents of any subsidiary of Cape and the MGCL immediately prior to the effective time, and has also agreed to advance expenses to such persons to the fullest extent as would have been permitted by Cape pursuant to the Cape articles, the Cape bylaws or the governing or organizational documents of any subsidiary of Cape and the MGCL immediately prior to the effective time, except that, if required, such person provides an undertaking to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to indemnification.

The merger agreement requires the surviving corporation to maintain for a period of six years after completion of the integrated mergers, Cape's existing directors' and officers' liability insurance policy, or policies with a substantially comparable insurer of at least the same coverage and amounts and containing terms and conditions that are no less advantageous to the insured, with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred at or prior to the completion of the integrated mergers. However, the surviving corporation is not required to spend annually more than 200% of the current annual premium paid as of the date of the merger agreement by Cape for such insurance (which we refer to as the premium cap), and if such premiums for such insurance would at any time exceed that amount, then the surviving corporation will maintain policies of insurance which, in its good faith determination, provide the maximum coverage available at an annual premium equal to the premium cap. In lieu of the foregoing, Cape, in consultation with, but only upon the prior written consent of OceanFirst, may (and at the request of OceanFirst, Cape will use its reasonable best efforts to) obtain at or prior to the effective time a six year tail policy under Cape's existing directors and officers insurance policy providing equivalent coverage to that described in the preceding sentence if such a policy can be obtained for an amount that, in the aggregate, does not exceed the premium cap.

Restructuring Efforts

In the absence of additional circumstances specified in the merger agreement, neither OceanFirst nor Cape is permitted to terminate the merger agreement based on the failure of either such party to obtain the required vote of its stockholders. Instead, each of the parties will in good faith use its reasonable best efforts to negotiate a restructuring of the transaction (except that neither party will have any obligation to alter or change any material terms, including the amount or kind of the consideration to be issued to holders of the capital stock of Cape as provided for in the merger agreement, in a manner adverse to such party or its stockholders) and/or resubmit the merger agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby (or as restructured) to its respective stockholders for approval.

OceanFirst Voting Agreements

Under the merger agreement, OceanFirst has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to cause each of the directors and certain executive officers of OceanFirst to, as soon as reasonably practicable following the date of the merger agreement (and in any event no later than the 30th day following the date of the merger agreement), enter into separate voting agreements with Cape in respect of the requisite OceanFirst vote, on such terms and conditions as are customary for agreements of that type. A form of the OceanFirst voting agreement is attached as Annex C and such voting agreements have been executed by each of the OceanFirst directors in their capacity as OceanFirst stockholders.

Certain Additional Covenants

The merger agreement also contains additional covenants, including, among others, covenants relating to the filing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, obtaining required consents, the listing of the shares of OceanFirst common stock to be issued in the first-step merger, access to information of the other company, the permissibility of representatives of OceanFirst and OceanFirst Bank's attendance of Cape board meetings and certain committee meetings following the receipt of the requisite regulatory approvals, exemption from takeover laws and public announcements with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Stockholder Meetings and Recommendation of the Boards of Directors of Cape and OceanFirst

Each of Cape and OceanFirst has agreed to hold a meeting of its stockholders for the purpose of voting upon approval of the merger agreement, in the case of Cape stockholders, and upon the OceanFirst share issuance, in the case of OceanFirst stockholders, in each case, as soon as reasonably practicable after this joint proxy statement/prospectus is declared effective. Cape has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain from its stockholders the vote required to approve the merger agreement, including by communicating to its stockholders its recommendation (and including such recommendation in this joint proxy statement/prospectus) that they approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and OceanFirst has made similar covenants with respect to the OceanFirst share issuance. However, if the OceanFirst board, after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisors, determines in good faith that it would be reasonably likely to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend the merger agreement, then it may (but will not be required to) submit the merger agreement to its stockholders without recommendation and may communicate the basis for its lack of a recommendation to its stockholders to the extent required by law. If the Cape board, after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisors, determines in good faith that it would be reasonably likely to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend the merger agreement, then it may (but will not be required to) submit the merger agreement to its stockholders without recommendation and may communicate the basis for its lack of a recommendation to its stockholders to the extent required by law; except that the Cape board may not take any such actions in connection with an acquisition proposal unless (i) such acquisition proposal did not result from a breach by Cape of its obligations relating to the non-solicitation of acquisition proposals; (ii) such acquisition proposal constitutes a superior proposal; (iii) Cape gives OceanFirst at least three business days' prior written notice of its intention to take such action and a reasonable description of the event or circumstances giving rise to its determination to take such action, including its basis for determining that such acquisition proposal, constitutes a superior proposal (including the latest material terms and conditions of, and the identity of the third-party making, any such acquisition proposal, or any amendment or modification thereof, or describe in reasonable detail such other event or circumstances) and (iv) at the end of such notice period, the Cape board takes into account any amendment or modification to the merger agreement proposed by OceanFirst (it being understood that OceanFirst will not have any obligation to propose any adjustments, modifications or amendments to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement), and after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisors, again determines in good faith that such acquisition proposal constitutes a superior proposal and that it would nevertheless be reasonably likely to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend the merger agreement. Any material amendment to any acquisition proposal will require a new determination and notice period.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, each of OceanFirst and Cape has agreed to adjourn or postpone the OceanFirst special meeting or the Cape special meeting, as the case may be, if, as of the time for which such meeting is originally scheduled, there are insufficient shares of OceanFirst common stock or Cape common stock, as the case may be, represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of such meeting, or if on the date of such meeting, Cape or OceanFirst, as applicable, has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of shares necessary to obtain the requisite Cape stockholder approval or the requisite OceanFirst stockholder approval. However, if (i) OceanFirst submits the merger agreement to the OceanFirst stockholders without recommendation, or (ii) Cape submits the merger agreement to the Cape stockholders without recommendation, then, in each case, an adjournment or postponement of the meeting due to an insufficient quorum or the failure to obtain the requisite Cape stockholder approval or the requisite OceanFirst stockholder approval, as applicable, is not required by the terms of the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

Under the merger agreement, unless the merger agreement has been terminated in accordance with its terms, OceanFirst has an unqualified obligation to convene the OceanFirst special meeting and to submit the merger agreement to the OceanFirst stockholders for the purpose of approving the OceanFirst share issuance proposal, and Cape has an unqualified obligation to convene the Cape special meeting and to submit the merger agreement to the Cape stockholders for the purpose of approving the Cape merger proposal.

Agreement Not to Solicit Other Offers

Cape has agreed that it will not, and will cause its subsidiaries and its and their officers, directors, agents, advisors and representatives not to, directly or indirectly, (i) initiate, solicit, knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate inquiries or proposals with respect to, (ii) engage or participate in any negotiations with any person concerning, or (iii) provide any confidential or nonpublic information or data to, or have or participate in any discussions with, any person relating to, any acquisition proposal except to notify such person of the existence of these non-solicit provisions of the merger agreement. However, if Cape receives an unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal prior to the date of the Cape special meeting and such proposal did not result from a breach of Cape's non-solicitation obligations under the merger agreement, Cape may, and may permit its subsidiaries and its and its subsidiaries' officers, directors, agents, advisors and representatives to, furnish or cause to be furnished nonpublic information or data and participate in negotiations or discussions to the extent that the Cape board concludes in good faith (after receiving the advice of its outside counsel, and with respect to financial matters, its financial advisors) that (1) such acquisition proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal and (2) failure to take such actions would be reasonably likely to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law, except that, prior to providing any such nonpublic information or data, or participating in any negotiations or discussions, in each case, Cape enters into a confidentiality agreement with such third-party on terms no less favorable to it than the confidentiality agreement between OceanFirst and Cape, and which confidentiality agreement does not provide such person with any exclusive right to negotiate with Cape.

Cape has also agreed to, and to cause its officers, directors, agents, advisors and representatives to, immediately cease and terminate any activities, discussions or negotiations conducted before the date of the merger agreement with any person other than OceanFirst, with respect to any acquisition proposal. In addition, Cape has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts, subject to applicable law, to (a) enforce any confidentiality, standstill or similar agreement relating to an acquisition proposal and (b) within ten days after the date of the merger agreement, request and confirm the return or destruction of any confidential information provided to any person other than OceanFirst. Cape has also agreed to promptly (and in any event within 24 hours) advise OceanFirst following receipt of any acquisition proposal or any inquiry which could reasonably be expected to lead to an acquisition proposal, and the substance thereof (including the terms and conditions of and the identity of the person making such inquiry or acquisition proposal, copies of any written acquisition proposal and written summaries of any material oral communications relating to an acquisition proposal), and to keep OceanFirst apprised of any related developments, discussions and negotiations on a current basis, including any amendments to or revisions of the terms of such inquiry or acquisition proposal.

For purposes of the merger agreement, an acquisition proposal means, other than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, any offer, proposal or inquiry relating to, or any third-party indication of interest in, (i) any acquisition or purchase, direct or indirect, of 25% or more of the consolidated assets of Cape and its subsidiaries or 25% or more of any class of equity or voting securities of Cape or its subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute more than 25% of the consolidated assets of Cape, (ii) any tender offer (including a self-tender offer) or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in such third-party beneficially owning 25% or more of any class of equity or voting securities of Cape or its subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute more than 25% of the consolidated assets of Cape, or (iii) a merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, reorganization, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or other similar transaction involving Cape or its subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute more than 25% of the consolidated assets of Cape. For purposes of the merger agreement, a superior proposal means any bona fide written offer or proposal made by a third party to consummate an acquisition proposal that the Cape board determines in good faith (after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisors): (1) would, if consummated, result in the acquisition of all, but not less than all, of the issued and outstanding shares of Cape common stock or all, or substantially all, of the assets of Cape; (2) would result in a transaction that (A) involves consideration to the holders of the shares of Cape common stock that is more favorable, from a financial point of view, than the consideration to be paid to the stockholders of Cape pursuant to the merger agreement, considering, among other things, the nature of the consideration being offered and any material regulatory approvals or other risks associated with the timing of the proposed transaction beyond, or in addition to, those specifically contemplated hereby, and which proposal is not conditioned upon obtaining financing and (B) is, in light of the other terms of such proposal, more favorable to the stockholders of Cape than the integrated mergers and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; and (3) is reasonably likely to be completed on the terms proposed, in each case, taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the acquisition proposal.

Conditions to Complete the Integrated Mergers

OceanFirst's and Cape's respective obligations to complete the integrated mergers are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following customary closing conditions:

the approval of the merger agreement by the Cape stockholders and the approval of the OceanFirst share issuance by the OceanFirst stockholders;

the authorization for listing on the NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance, of the OceanFirst common stock to be issued pursuant to the merger agreement;

the receipt of requisite regulatory approvals, including from the Federal Reserve Board and the OCC and the filing of certain notices with the NJ Department and certain other approvals necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and the expiration of all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof, without the imposition of a materially burdensome regulatory condition;

the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus is a part with respect to the OceanFirst common stock to be issued upon the consummation of the first-step merger, and the absence of any stop order (or proceedings for that purpose initiated or threatened and not withdrawn);

the absence of any order, injunction, or decree by any court or agency of competent jurisdiction or other legal restraint or prohibition preventing the completion of the integrated mergers or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and the absence of any statute, rule, regulation, order, injunction or decree enacted, entered, promulgated or enforced by any governmental entity which prohibits or makes illegal consummation of the integrated mergers;

the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party contained in the merger agreement as of the date on which the merger agreement was entered into and (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date, in which case such representations and warranties shall be so true and correct as of such earlier date) as of the date on which the first-step merger is completed, subject to the materiality standards provided in the merger agreement (and the receipt by each party of an officers certificate from the other party to such effect);

the performance by the other party of all obligations required to be performed by it under the merger agreement at or prior to the date on which the integrated mergers are completed, subject to the materiality standards provided in the merger agreement (and the receipt by each party of an officers certificate from the other party to such effect);

receipt by such party of an opinion of legal counsel to the effect that on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth or referred to in such opinion, the integrated mergers will together be treated as an integrated transaction that qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code; and receipt by OceanFirst of a duly executed certificate stating that Cape is not, and has not been during the relevant period, a United States real property holding corporation .

Neither Cape nor OceanFirst can be certain when, or if, the conditions to the integrated mergers will be satisfied or waived, or that the integrated mergers will be completed.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement can be terminated at any time prior to completion of the first-step merger in the following circumstances:

by mutual written consent, if the OceanFirst board and the Cape board so determine;

by the OceanFirst board or the Cape board if (i) any governmental entity denies any requisite regulatory approval in connection with the Transactions and such denial has become final and nonappealable, or (ii) any governmental entity of competent jurisdiction has issued a final and nonappealable order prohibiting or making illegal the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, unless the failure to obtain a requisite regulatory approval is due to the failure of the terminating party to perform or observe its obligations under the merger agreement;

by the OceanFirst board or the Cape board if the integrated mergers have not been completed on or before the termination date, which is the one year anniversary of the date of the merger agreement, unless the failure of the integrated mergers to be completed by such date is due to the failure of the terminating party to perform or observe its obligations under the merger agreement;

by the OceanFirst board or the Cape board (except that the terminating party cannot then be in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement) if the other party breaches any of its obligations or any of its representations and warranties (or any such representation or warranty ceases to be true) set forth in the merger agreement which either individually or in the aggregate would constitute, if occurring or continuing on the closing date, the failure of a closing condition of the terminating party and such breach is not cured within 45 days following written notice to the party committing such breach, or such breach cannot be cured during such period;

by Cape, if the OceanFirst board (i) fails to recommend in this joint proxy statement/prospectus that the OceanFirst stockholders approve the OceanFirst share issuance, or takes certain adverse actions with respect to such recommendation, or (ii) breaches certain obligations, including with respect to calling a meeting of its stockholders and recommending that they approve the OceanFirst share issuance, in any material respect; or by OceanFirst, if the Cape board (i) fails to recommend in this joint proxy statement/prospectus that the Cape stockholders approve the merger agreement, or takes certain adverse actions with respect to such recommendation, (ii) fails to recommend against acceptance of a tender offer or exchange offer for outstanding Cape common stock that has been publicly disclosed (other than by OceanFirst or an affiliate of OceanFirst) within ten business days after the commencement of such tender or exchange offer, (iii) recommends or endorses an acquisition proposal, or (iv) breaches certain obligations, including with respect to acquisition proposals or calling a meeting of its stockholders and recommending that they approve the merger agreement, in any material respect.

Additionally, Cape may terminate the merger agreement if, at any time during the five-day period commencing on the first date on which all requisite regulatory approvals (and waivers, if applicable) necessary for consummation of the integrated mergers have been received (disregarding any waiting period) (which we refer to as the determination date) both of the following conditions are satisfied: (i) the OceanFirst market value on the determination date is less than $15.74 and (ii) the number obtained by dividing the OceanFirst market value on the determination date by $19.67 (subject to certain adjustments), is less than the number obtained by dividing (x) the average of the daily closing value of the NASDAQ Bank Index for the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding the determination date by (y) the closing value of the NASDAQ Bank Index on January 5, 2016 minus 0.15.

If Cape elects to exercise its termination right as described above, it must notify OceanFirst in writing of such election no later than the last day of the five day period commencing on the determination date. During the five day period commencing with OceanFirst's receipt of such notice, OceanFirst will have the option to increase the exchange ratio to a level that would cause either of the requirements described in the preceding paragraph not to be satisfied. If within such five day period, OceanFirst delivers written notice to Cape that it intends to proceed with the integrated mergers by paying such additional consideration, and notifies Cape of the revised exchange ratio, then no termination will have occurred, and the merger agreement will remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms (except that the exchange ratio will have been so modified).

Effect of Termination

If the merger agreement is terminated, it will become void and have no effect, except that (i) each of OceanFirst and Cape will remain liable for any liabilities or damages arising out of its fraud or knowing, intentional and material breach of any provision of the merger agreement and (ii) designated provisions of the merger agreement will survive the termination, including those relating to payment of termination fees and expenses and the confidential treatment of information.

Termination Fee

In the event that, after the date of the merger agreement and prior to the termination of the merger agreement, a bona fide acquisition proposal has been made known to senior management or the Cape board or has been made directly to its stockholders generally or any person has publicly announced (and not withdrawn) an acquisition proposal with respect to Cape and (i) thereafter the merger agreement is terminated by either OceanFirst or Cape because the integrated mergers have not been completed prior to the termination date, and without the requisite Cape stockholder vote having been obtained or (ii) thereafter the merger agreement is terminated by OceanFirst based on a breach of the merger agreement by Cape that would constitute the failure of a closing condition and that has not been cured during the permitted time period or by its nature cannot be cured during such period, and (iii) within 18 months after the date of such termination, Cape enters into a definitive agreement or consummates a transaction with respect to an acquisition proposal (whether or not the same acquisition proposal as that referred to above), then Cape will, on the earlier of the date it enters into such definitive agreement and the date of consummation of such transaction, pay OceanFirst, by wire transfer of same day funds, (a) a $7.2 million termination fee.

In the event that the merger agreement is terminated by OceanFirst based on the Cape board having (i) failed to recommend in this joint proxy statement/prospectus that the Cape stockholders approve the merger agreement, or withdrawn, modified or qualified such recommendation in a manner adverse to OceanFirst, or resolved to do so, or failed to reaffirm such recommendation within two business days after OceanFirst has requested in writing that such action be taken, or failed to recommend against acceptance of a tender offer or exchange offer for outstanding Cape common stock that has been publicly disclosed (other than by OceanFirst or an affiliate of OceanFirst) within ten business days after the commencement of such tender or exchange offer, (ii) recommended or endorsed an acquisition proposal, or (iii) breached certain obligations, including with respect to the non-solicitation of acquisition proposals or calling a meeting of its stockholders and recommending that the Cape stockholders approve the merger agreement, in any material respect, then Cape will pay OceanFirst, by wire transfer of same day funds, a $7.2 million termination fee on the date of termination.

OceanFirst will pay Cape, by wire transfer of same day funds on the date of termination, a $7.2 million termination fee, in the event that the merger agreement is terminated by Cape based on the OceanFirst board having (i) failed to recommend in this joint proxy statement/prospectus that the OceanFirst stockholders approve the OceanFirst share issuance, or withdrawn, modified or qualified such recommendation in a manner adverse to Cape, or resolved to do so, or failed to reaffirm such recommendation within two business days after Cape requests in writing that such action be taken or (ii) breached certain obligations, including with respect to calling a meeting of its stockholders and recommending that they approve the OceanFirst share issuance, in any material respect.

Expenses and Fees

All costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby will be paid by the party incurring such expense, except that the costs and expenses of printing and mailing this joint proxy statement/prospectus and all filing and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the integrated mergers will be borne equally by OceanFirst and Cape.

Amendment, Waiver and Extension of the Merger Agreement

Subject to compliance with applicable law, the merger agreement may be amended by the parties at any time before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with integrated mergers by the stockholders of OceanFirst and Cape, except that after approval of the merger agreement by the Cape stockholders or the approval of the issuance of shares of OceanFirst common stock in connection with the first-step merger by the OceanFirst stockholders, there may not be, without further approval of such stockholders, any amendment of the merger agreement that requires further approval under applicable law.

At any time prior to the completion of the first-step merger, the parties may, to the extent legally allowed, extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party, waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to the merger agreement, and waive compliance with any of the agreements or satisfaction of any conditions contained in the merger agreement, except that after approval of the merger agreement by the Cape stockholders or the approval of the issuance of shares of OceanFirst common stock in connection with the first-step merger by the OceanFirst stockholders, there may not be, without further approval of such stockholders, any extension or waiver of the merger agreement or any portion thereof that requires further approval under applicable law.

Cape Voting Agreements

Simultaneously with the execution of the merger agreement, each of Cape's directors and certain of its executive officers and Patriot, solely in their capacities as Cape stockholders, separately entered into voting agreements with OceanFirst (which we refer to as the "Cape voting agreements") in which they agreed, among other things, to vote all shares of Cape common stock that they own of record or beneficially, and that they subsequently acquire, in favor of the approval of the merger agreement and the approval of the first-step merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and any other matter that is required to be approved by the Cape stockholders to facilitate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These stockholders also agreed to vote against (i) any acquisition proposal made in opposition to or otherwise in competition or inconsistent with the first-step merger or the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, (ii) any agreement, amendment of any agreement (including the Cape articles of incorporation and bylaws), or any other action that is intended or would reasonably be expected to prevent, impede, or, in any material respect, interfere with, delay, postpone, or discourage the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and (iii) any action, agreement, transaction or proposal that would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or other obligation of Cape in the merger agreement. As of the Cape record date, these stockholders beneficially owned and were entitled to vote, in the aggregate, 2,245,863 shares of the Cape common stock, allowing them to exercise approximately 16.58% of the voting power of the shares of Cape common stock outstanding as of the Cape record date.

Table of Contents

Each Cape stockholder who executed a Cape voting agreement agreed, in such Cape stockholder's capacity as a Cape stockholder, not to, directly or indirectly, (i) solicit, initiate, encourage or knowingly facilitate any inquiries, proposals or offers with respect to, or the making or completion of, any proposal that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, an acquisition proposal, (ii) provide or cause to be provided any nonpublic information or data relating to Cape in connection with, or have any discussions with, any person relating to or in connection with an actual or proposed acquisition proposal (except to disclose the existence of these restrictions), (iii) engage in any discussions or negotiations concerning an acquisition proposal (provided that such Cape stockholder may refer any such person or entity to these restrictions) or otherwise take any action to encourage or knowingly facilitate any effort or attempt to make or implement an acquisition proposal, (iv) approve, recommend, agree to or accept, or propose publicly to approve, recommend, agree to or accept, any acquisition proposal, (v) solicit proxies or become a participant in a solicitation (as such terms are defined in the Exchange Act) with respect to an acquisition proposal or otherwise encourage or assist any party in taking or planning any action that would reasonably be expected to compete with, restrain or otherwise serve to interfere with or inhibit the timely consummation of the first-step merger in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, (vi) initiate a stockholders' vote or action by consent of Cape stockholders with respect to an acquisition proposal, (vii) except by reason of the Cape voting agreement, become a member of a group (as such term is used in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) with respect to any voting securities of Cape that takes any action in support of an acquisition proposal, or (viii) approve, endorse or recommend, agree to or accept, or propose to approve, endorse, recommend, agree to or accept, or execute or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger agreement, investment agreement, acquisition agreement, option agreement or other similar agreement related to any acquisition proposal.

The foregoing description of the Cape voting agreements is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the Cape voting agreements, a form of which is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B and is incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

OceanFirst Voting Agreements

Each of OceanFirst's directors has entered into separate voting agreements with Cape, solely in his or her capacity as an OceanFirst stockholder, pursuant to which each such OceanFirst director has agreed to vote in favor of the OceanFirst share issuance proposal. A form of the OceanFirst voting agreement is attached as Annex C.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT

The integrated mergers will be accounted for using the acquisition method of accounting, in accordance with the provisions of FASB ASC Topic 805-10, Business Combinations. Under the acquisition method of accounting, the assets (including identifiable intangible assets) and liabilities (including executory contracts and other commitments) of Cape as of the effective date of the integrated mergers will be recorded at their respective fair values and added to those of OceanFirst. If the purchase price exceeds the difference between the fair value of assets acquired and the fair value of the liabilities assumed, then such excess will be recorded as goodwill. Financial statements of OceanFirst issued after the completion of the integrated mergers will reflect these fair values and will not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of Cape before the integrated mergers.

U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE INTEGRATED MERGERS

The following is a discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the integrated mergers to U.S. holders (as defined below) of Cape common stock and is based upon the Code, Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, administrative rulings and judicial decisions in effect as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, all of which are subject to change at any time, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such change could affect the accuracy of the statements and conclusions set forth in this discussion. This discussion does not address any tax consequences arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010 nor does it address any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, local or foreign jurisdiction or under any U.S. federal laws other than those pertaining to the income tax.

The following discussion applies only to U.S. holders of Cape common stock who hold such shares as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). Further, this discussion does not purport to consider all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that might be relevant to U.S. holders in light of their particular circumstances and does not apply to U.S. holders subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws (such as, for example, dealers or brokers in securities, commodities or foreign currencies, traders in securities that elect to apply a mark-to-market method of accounting, banks and certain other financial institutions, insurance companies, mutual funds, tax-exempt organizations, holders subject to the alternative minimum tax provisions of the Code, partnerships, S corporations or other pass-through entities or investors in partnerships, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, controlled foreign corporations, passive foreign investment companies, former citizens or residents of the United States, holders whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar, holders who hold shares of Cape common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale or conversion transaction or other integrated investment, holders who acquired Cape common stock pursuant to the exercise of employee stock options, through a tax qualified retirement plan or otherwise as compensation, holders who exercise appraisal rights or holders who actually or constructively own five percent or more of Cape common stock).

For purposes of this discussion, the term U.S. holder means a beneficial owner of Cape common stock that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (i) an individual citizen or resident of the United States, (ii) a corporation, or entity treated as a corporation, organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state thereof or the District of Columbia, (iii) a trust if (a) a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (b) such trust has made a valid election to be treated as a U.S. person for U.S. federal income tax purposes or (iv) an estate, the income of which is includible in gross income for U.S. federal income tax purposes, regardless of its source.

If an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds Cape common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in such partnership generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Any entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes that holds Cape common stock, and any partners in such partnership, should consult their tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of the integrated mergers to their specific circumstances.

It is a condition to the obligation of OceanFirst and Cape to complete the integrated mergers that they receive a written opinion from their counsel, dated the closing date of the integrated mergers, to the effect that the integrated mergers will together be treated as an integrated transaction that qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. In the opinion of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP and Luse Gorman, PC, the integrated mergers will together be treated as an integrated transaction that qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, with the tax consequences described below. These opinions of counsel will be given in reliance on facts and representations contained in representation letters provided by OceanFirst and Cape and on customary assumptions. These opinions will not be binding on the Internal Revenue Service (the IRS) or any court. OceanFirst and Cape have not sought and will not seek any ruling from the IRS regarding any matters relating to the integrated mergers and, as a result, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the conclusions set forth below. In addition, if any of the representations or assumptions upon which those opinions are based are inconsistent with the actual facts, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the integrated mergers could be adversely affected.

U.S. holders of Cape common stock generally will recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the U.S. holder's gain realized (i.e., the excess, if any, of the sum of the amount of cash consideration and the fair market value (as of the effective time of the integrated mergers) of the OceanFirst common stock received over the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in its shares of Cape common stock surrendered) and (ii) the amount of cash consideration received pursuant to the integrated mergers. Any gain or loss realized generally must be calculated separately for each identifiable block of shares surrendered in the exchange, and a loss realized on one block of shares may not be used to offset a gain realized on another block of shares. Any recognized gain generally will be long-term capital gain if the U.S. holder's holding period for its Cape common stock exceeds one year at the effective time of the integrated mergers (except for gain treated as a dividend, as discussed below).

A U.S. holder's aggregate tax basis in its OceanFirst common stock received pursuant to the integrated mergers, including the basis allocable to any fractional share of OceanFirst common stock for which cash is received, will be equal to the U.S. holder's aggregate tax basis in the Cape common stock surrendered pursuant to the integrated mergers, decreased by the amount of cash received (excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of OceanFirst common stock) and increased by the amount of gain, if any, recognized or any amount treated as a dividend, as described below (but excluding any gain resulting from the deemed receipt and redemption of fractional shares).

A U.S. holder's holding period in its OceanFirst common stock received pursuant to the integrated mergers will include the holding period for its shares of Cape common stock surrendered in exchange therefor. U.S. holders who hold shares of Cape common stock with differing bases or holding periods should consult their tax advisors with regard to identifying the bases or holding periods of the particular shares of OceanFirst common stock received in the integrated mergers.

Potential Treatment of Cash as a Dividend. The receipt of cash by a U.S. holder may have the effect of a distribution of a dividend, in which case any gain recognized will be treated as a dividend for U.S. federal income tax purposes to the extent of the U.S. holder's ratable share of Cape's accumulated earnings and profits. In general, the determination of whether such gain recognized will be treated as capital gain or has the effect of a distribution of a dividend depends upon whether and to what extent the exchange reduces the U.S. holder's deemed percentage of stock ownership of OceanFirst. For purposes of this determination, the U.S. holder generally will be treated as if it first exchanged all of its shares of Cape common stock solely for OceanFirst common stock and then OceanFirst immediately redeemed a portion of the OceanFirst common stock in exchange for the cash the U.S. holder actually received, which redemption we refer to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as the deemed redemption. Such gain recognized by a U.S. holder pursuant to the deemed redemption will be treated as capital gain if the deemed redemption is (i) substantially disproportionate with respect to the U.S. holder (and after the deemed redemption the U.S. holder actually or constructively owns less than 50% of the voting power of the outstanding OceanFirst common stock) or (ii) not essentially equivalent to a dividend.

The deemed redemption generally will be substantially disproportionate with respect to a U.S. holder if the percentage of the outstanding OceanFirst common stock that the U.S. holder actually and constructively owns immediately after the deemed redemption is less than 80% of the percentage of the outstanding OceanFirst common stock that the U.S. holder is deemed actually and constructively to have owned immediately before the deemed redemption. The deemed redemption will not be considered to be essentially equivalent to a dividend if it results in a meaningful reduction in the U.S. holder's deemed percentage of stock ownership of

OceanFirst. The IRS has ruled that a minority shareholder in a publicly held corporation whose relative stock interest is minimal and who exercises no control with respect to corporate affairs is considered to have experienced a meaningful reduction if the shareholder has at least a relatively minor reduction in such shareholder's percentage of stock ownership under the above analysis. In applying the above tests, the U.S. holder may, under the constructive ownership rules, be deemed to own stock that is owned by other persons or otherwise in addition to the stock the U.S. holder actually owns or owned.

Cash In Lieu of Fractional Shares. A U.S. holder that receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of OceanFirst common stock generally will be treated as having received such fractional share and then as having received such cash in redemption of the fractional share. Gain or loss generally will be recognized based on the difference between the amount of cash received in lieu of the fractional share and the portion of the U.S. holder's aggregate adjusted tax basis in the shares of Cape common stock surrendered which is allocable to the fractional share. Such gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder's holding period for its Cape common stock exceeds one year at the effective time of the integrated mergers.

This discussion of U.S. federal income tax consequences is for general information purposes only and is not intended to be, and should not be construed as, tax advice. Determining the actual tax consequences of the integrated mergers to you may be complex and will depend on your specific situation and on factors that are not within our control. You should consult your tax advisors with respect to the application of U.S. federal income tax laws to your particular situations as well as any tax consequences arising under the U.S. federal estate or gift tax rules or under the laws of any state, local, foreign or other taxing jurisdiction or under any applicable tax treaty.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK OF OCEANFIRST

The following is a brief description of the terms of the capital stock of OceanFirst. This summary does not purport to be complete in all respects. This description is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to the DGCL, federal law, OceanFirst's certificate of incorporation and OceanFirst's bylaws. Copies of OceanFirst's certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws have been filed with the SEC and are also available upon request from OceanFirst. To find out where copies of these documents can be obtained, see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 126.

Authorized Capital Stock

OceanFirst's authorized capital stock consists of 55,000,000 shares of common stock, $0.01 par value per share, and 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock, $0.01 par value per share.

Common Stock

OceanFirst's certificate of incorporation currently authorizes the issuance of up to 55,000,000 shares of common stock, of which 17,294,735 shares were outstanding as of the OceanFirst record date. As of the OceanFirst record date, there were (i) 17,294,735 shares of OceanFirst common stock issued and outstanding, including 94,354 shares of OceanFirst common stock issued in respect of outstanding awards of restricted OceanFirst common stock under OceanFirst equity plans, (ii) 2,103,781 shares of OceanFirst common stock reserved for issuance upon the exercise of outstanding stock options to purchase shares of OceanFirst common stock granted under such OceanFirst equity plans and (iii) 1,118,740 shares of OceanFirst common stock reserved for issuance pursuant to future grants under such OceanFirst equity plans.

OceanFirst common stock is currently listed for quotation on the NASDAQ under the symbol OCFC.

Preemptive Rights; Redemption Rights; Terms of Conversion; Sinking Fund and Redemption Provision

OceanFirst's common stock does not have preemptive rights, redemption rights, conversion rights, sinking fund, or redemption provisions.

Voting Rights

The holders of OceanFirst common stock have exclusive voting rights in OceanFirst. They elect the OceanFirst board and act on other matters as are required to be presented to them under Delaware law or as are otherwise presented to them by the OceanFirst board. Generally, each holder of common stock is entitled to one vote per share and will not have any right to cumulate votes in the election of directors. The OceanFirst certificate of incorporation provides that stockholders who beneficially own in excess of 10% of the then outstanding shares of OceanFirst common stock are not entitled to any vote with respect to the shares held in excess of the 10% limit. A person or entity is deemed to beneficially own shares that are owned by an affiliate as well as persons acting in concert with such person or entity. If OceanFirst issues shares of preferred stock, holders of the preferred stock may also possess voting rights. Certain matters require an 80% stockholder vote, which is calculated after giving effect to the provision in the OceanFirst certificate of incorporation limiting voting rights as described above.

Liquidation Rights

In the event of OceanFirst's liquidation, dissolution or winding up, holders of common stock would be entitled to receive, after payment or provision for payment of all its debts and liabilities, all of the assets of OceanFirst available for distribution. If preferred stock is issued, the holders thereof may have a priority over the holders of the common stock in the event of liquidation or dissolution. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of OceanFirst Bank, OceanFirst, as the holder of 100% of OceanFirst Bank's capital stock, would be entitled to receive, after payment or provision for payment of all debts and liabilities of OceanFirst Bank, including all deposit accounts and accrued interest thereon, and after distribution of the balance in the special liquidation account to eligible account holders and supplemental eligible account holders, all assets of OceanFirst Bank available for distribution.

Dividend Rights

Holders of OceanFirst common stock are entitled to receive ratably such dividends as may be declared by the OceanFirst board out of legally available funds. The ability of the OceanFirst board to declare and pay dividends on OceanFirst common stock is subject to the terms of applicable Delaware law and banking regulations. If OceanFirst issues shares of preferred stock, the holders thereof may have a priority over the holders of the common stock with respect to dividends. For more information regarding OceanFirst's ability to pay dividends, see the sections of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "The Transactions - Dividend Policy" beginning on page 85 and "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 126. OceanFirst's principal source of income is dividends that are declared and paid by OceanFirst Bank on its capital stock. Therefore, OceanFirst's ability to pay dividends is dependent upon the receipt of dividends from OceanFirst Bank. Insured depository institutions such as OceanFirst Bank are prohibited from making capital distributions, including the payment of dividends, if, after making such distribution, the institution would become undercapitalized, as such term is defined in the applicable law and regulations. In the future, any declaration and payment of cash dividends will be subject to the OceanFirst board's evaluation of OceanFirst's operating results, financial condition, future growth plans, general business and economic conditions, and tax and other relevant considerations. The payment of cash dividends by OceanFirst in the future will also be subject to certain other legal and regulatory limitations and ongoing review by the OceanFirst's banking regulators.

Restrictions on Ownership

HOLA requires any savings and loan holding company, as defined in HOLA, to obtain the approval of the Federal Reserve Board before acquiring 5% or more of OceanFirst common stock. Any person, other than a savings and loan holding company, is required to obtain the approval of the Federal Reserve Board before acquiring 10% or more of OceanFirst common stock under the Change in Bank Control Act. Any holder of 25% or more of OceanFirst common stock, a holder of 33% or more of OceanFirst's total equity or a holder of 5% or more of OceanFirst common stock if such holder otherwise exercises a controlling influence over OceanFirst, is subject to regulation as a savings and loan holding company under HOLA.

Preferred Stock

The OceanFirst certificate of incorporation authorizes the OceanFirst board, without further stockholder action, to issue up to 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock. The OceanFirst certificate of incorporation further authorizes the OceanFirst board, subject to any limitations prescribed by law, to provide for the issuance of the shares of preferred stock in series, and by filing a certificate pursuant to the applicable law of the State of Delaware, to establish from time to time the number of shares to be included in each such series, and to fix the designation, powers, preferences, and rights of the shares of each such series and any qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof. As of the OceanFirst record date, there were no shares of OceanFirst preferred stock outstanding. Preferred stock may be issued with preferences and designations as the OceanFirst board may from time to time determine. The OceanFirst board may, without stockholder approval, issue shares of preferred stock with voting, dividend, liquidation and conversion rights that could dilute the voting strength of the holders of OceanFirst common stock and may assist management in impeding an unfriendly takeover or attempted change in control.

Table of ContentsCOMPARISON OF STOCKHOLDERS RIGHTS

If the first-step merger is completed, Cape stockholders will be entitled to receive shares of OceanFirst common stock in exchange for their shares of Cape common stock. OceanFirst is organized under the laws of the State of Delaware and Cape is organized under the laws of the State of Maryland. As a result of the integrated mergers, Cape stockholders will become stockholders of OceanFirst. Thus, following the integrated mergers, the rights of Cape stockholders who become OceanFirst stockholders as a result of the integrated mergers will be governed by the corporate law of the State of Delaware and will also then be governed by the OceanFirst certificate of incorporation and the OceanFirst bylaws. The OceanFirst certificate of incorporation and bylaws will be unaltered by the merger.

The following is a summary of the material differences between (1) the current rights of Cape stockholders under the MGCL, Cape's articles of incorporation and Cape's bylaws and (2) the current rights of OceanFirst stockholders under the DGCL, OceanFirst's certificate of incorporation and OceanFirst's bylaws. OceanFirst and Cape believe that this summary describes the material differences between the rights of OceanFirst stockholders as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the rights of Cape stockholders as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus; however, it does not purport to be a complete description of those differences. Copies of OceanFirst's and Cape's governing documents have been filed with the SEC. To find out where copies of these documents can be obtained, see the section of this joint proxy statement entitled "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 126.

OCEANFIRSTCAPE*AUTHORIZED CAPITAL STOCK

OceanFirst's certificate of incorporation authorizes it to issue up to 55,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, and 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share. As of the OceanFirst record date, there were 17,294,735 shares of OceanFirst common stock outstanding, and no shares of OceanFirst preferred stock outstanding.

Cape's articles of incorporation authorize it to issue up to 100,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, and up to 50,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share. As of the Cape record date, there were 13,540,875 shares of Cape common stock outstanding, and no shares of Cape preferred stock outstanding.

OceanFirst's certificate of incorporation further provides that the number of authorized shares of preferred stock may be increased or decreased (but not below the number of shares thereof then outstanding) by the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of OceanFirst common stock, without a vote of the holders of the preferred stock, or of any series thereof, unless a vote of any such holders is required pursuant to the terms of any preferred stock designation.

Cape's articles of incorporation authorize the Cape board, pursuant to a resolution approved by a majority of the Cape Board, and without action by the stockholders, to amend Cape's articles of incorporation to increase or decrease the aggregate number of shares of stock of any class or series that Cape has authority to issue.

SIZE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

OceanFirst's bylaws currently provide that the number of directors of OceanFirst shall be such number as designated by the OceanFirst board from time to time, except in the

Cape's bylaws currently provide that the number of directors of Cape shall, by virtue of the Cape's election made hereby to be governed by Section 3-804(b) of the absence of such designation the number shall be 9.

In the merger agreement, OceanFirst has agreed to increase the size of the OceanFirst board from 9 to 10 members and appoint Michael D. Devlin, or, if Mr. Devlin is unable to serve, an alternative member of Cape s current board of directors, to the OceanFirst board.

MGCL, be fixed from time to time by a resolution adopted by a majority vote of the Cape board; provided, however, that such number shall never be less than the minimum number of directors required by the MGCL.

Under the OceanFirst bylaws, unless the OceanFirst board determines otherwise, vacancies in the OceanFirst board are filled by a majority vote of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum. The person who fills any such vacancy holds office for the unexpired term of the director to whom such person succeeds.

The Cape bylaws provide that, by virtue of Cape s election to be subject to Section 3-804(c) of the MGCL, vacancies in the Cape board are filled only by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the remaining directors in office, even if the remaining directors do not constitute a quorum, and any director elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the full term of the class of directors in which the vacancy occurred and until a successor is elected and qualifies. No decrease in the number of directors constituting the Cape board shall shorten the term of any incumbent

Such written request must state the purpose or purposes of the meeting and the matters proposed to be acted upon at the meeting, and shall be delivered at the principal office of Cape addressed to the president or the secretary. The secretary shall inform the stockholders who make the request of the reasonably estimated cost of preparing and mailing a notice of the meeting and, upon payment of these costs to Cape, notify each stockholder entitled to notice of the meeting.

The OceanFirst bylaws provide that at any special meeting of the stockholders, only such business shall be conducted as shall have been brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the board of directors.

Cape's articles of incorporation provide that stockholder proposals to be presented in connection with a special meeting of stockholders shall be presented by Cape only to the extent required by Section 2-502 of the MGCL and the Cape bylaws.

DISSENTERS RIGHTS

Under the DGCL, a stockholder of a Delaware corporation generally has the right to dissent from a merger or consolidation in which the corporation is participating or a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation, subject to specified procedural requirements. However, this right to demand and receive payment of fair value is not available, except for transactions governed by the Maryland Business Combination Act, if (i) the stock is listed on a national securities exchange, with limited exceptions, (ii) the stock is that of a successor in a merger, unless the merger alters the contract rights of the stock and the articles of incorporation does not reserve the right to do so or the stock is changed into something other than stock in the successor or cash, scrip or other rights or interest arising out of the treatment of fractional shares, (iii) the stock is not entitled to be voted on the transaction, (iv) the articles of incorporation provide that the holders of the stock are not entitled to exercise the rights of an objecting stockholder, or (v) the stock is that of an open-end investment company.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

This AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER, dated as of January 5, 2016 (this Agreement), is by and among OceanFirst Financial Corp., a Delaware corporation (Parent), Justice Merger Sub Corp., a Maryland corporation and a wholly-own Subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), and Cape Bancorp, Inc., a Maryland corporation (the Company).

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Boards of Directors of Parent and the Company have determined that it is in the best interests of their respective companies and their shareholders to consummate the strategic business combination transaction provided for herein, pursuant to which (i) Merger Sub will, subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, merge with and into the Company (the First-Step Merger), so that the Company is the surviving corporation in the First-Step Merger and a wholly-owned Subsidiary of Parent and (ii) immediately thereafter, the Company, as the surviving corporation in the First-Step Merger, will merge (the Second-Step Merger), and together with the First-Step Merger, the Integrated Mergers) with and into Parent, with Parent being the surviving corporation (hereinafter sometimes referred to in such capacity as the Surviving Corporation);

WHEREAS, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, it is intended that the Integrated Mergers shall together be treated as a single integrated transaction that qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), and this Agreement is intended to be, and is adopted as, a plan of reorganization for purposes of Sections 354, 361 and 368 of the Code and within the meaning of Treasury regulation section 1.368-2(g);

WHEREAS, concurrently with the execution and delivery of this Agreement, as a condition and an inducement for Parent to enter into this Agreement, certain shareholders of the Company have simultaneously herewith entered into separate voting agreements with Parent (collectively, the Voting Agreements) in connection with the First-Step Merger; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to make certain representations, warranties and agreements in connection with the Integrated Mergers and also to prescribe certain conditions to the Integrated Mergers.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants, representations, warranties and agreements contained herein, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

THE INTEGRATED MERGERS

1.1 The Integrated Mergers; Effective Time.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, in accordance with the Maryland General Corporation Law (the MGCL), at the Effective Time, Merger Sub shall merge with and into the Company. The Company shall be the surviving corporation in the First- Step Merger, and shall continue its corporate existence under the laws of the State of Maryland. Upon consummation of the First-Step Merger, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub shall terminate. On or before the Closing Date, Parent and the Company, respectively, shall cause to be filed articles of merger with the Maryland State Department of Assessments and Taxation (the SDAT) in accordance with the MGCL (the Articles of Merger). The First-Step Merger shall become effective as of the date and time specified in the Articles of Merger (such date and time, the Effective Time).

(b) Immediately following the Effective Time, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, in accordance with the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL) and the MGCL, the Company, as the surviving corporation in the First-Step Merger, shall merge with and into Parent. Parent shall be the Surviving Corporation in the Second-Step Merger, and shall continue its corporate existence under the laws of the State of Delaware. Upon consummation of the Second-Step Merger, the separate corporate existence of the Company shall terminate. On or before the Closing Date, Parent and the Company, respectively, shall cause to be filed a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware (the Delaware Secretary) and articles of merger with the SDAT (collectively, the Second-Step Merger Certificates). The Second-Step Merger shall become effective as of the date and time specified in the Second-Step Merger Certificates.

1.2 Closing. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the closing of the Integrated Mergers (the Closing) will take place at 10:00 a.m., New York City time, at the offices of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher and Flom LLP, on a date which shall be no later than two (2) business days after the satisfaction or waiver (subject to applicable law) of the latest to occur of the conditions set forth in Article VII hereof (other than those conditions that by their nature can only be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver thereof), unless another date, time or place is agreed to in writing by Parent and the Company. The date on which the Closing occurs is referred to in this Agreement as the Closing Date.

1.3 Effects of the Integrated Mergers. At and after the Effective Time, the First-Step Merger shall have the effects set forth in the applicable provisions of the MGCL. At the effective time of the Second-Step Merger, the Second-Step Merger shall have the effects set forth in the applicable provisions of the DGCL and the MGCL.

1.4 Effects of First-Step Merger on Merger Sub and Parent Common Stock. At and after the Effective Time, each share of (a) capital stock of Merger Sub issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into and become one newly and validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of the capital stock of the Company and (b) common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Parent (the Parent Common Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain issued and outstanding and shall not be affected by the First-Step Merger.

1.5 Conversion of Company Common Stock. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the First-Step Merger and without any action on the part of Parent, Merger Sub or the Company or the holder of any of the following securities:

(a) Subject to Section 2.2(e), each share of the common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the Company Common Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, except for shares of Company Common Stock owned by the Company as treasury stock or owned by the Company or Parent (in each case, other than shares of Company Common Stock held in any Company Benefit Plans or related trust accounts, managed accounts, mutual funds and the like, or otherwise held in a fiduciary or agency capacity or as a result of debts previously contracted (collectively, the Exception Shares)), shall be converted, in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Agreement, into the right to receive the following, without interest:

(i) $2.25 in cash (the Cash Consideration); and

(ii) 0.6375 (the Exchange Ratio) validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable shares of Parent Common Stock (the Stock Consideration and, together with the Cash Consideration, the Merger Consideration) and cash in lieu of fractional shares as calculated pursuant to Section 2.2(e); it being understood that upon the effective time of the Second-Step Merger, the Parent Common Stock, including the shares issued to former holders of Company Common Stock as Merger Consideration, shall be the common stock of the Surviving Corporation.

(b) All of the shares of Company Common Stock converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to this Article I shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and shall cease to exist as of the Effective Time, and each certificate (each, an Old Certificate, it being understood that any reference herein to Old Certificate shall be deemed to include reference to book-entry account statements relating to the ownership of shares of Company Common Stock) previously representing any such shares of Company Common Stock shall thereafter represent only the right to receive (i) the Merger Consideration in accordance with, and subject to, Section 1.5(a), (ii) cash in lieu of fractional shares which the shares of Company Common Stock represented by such Old Certificate have been converted into the right to receive pursuant to this Section 1.5 and Section 2.2(e), without any interest thereon and (iii) any dividends or distributions which the holder thereof has the right to receive pursuant to Section 2.2(b). Old Certificates previously representing shares of Company Common Stock shall be exchanged for evidence of shares in book entry form or, at Parent's option, certificates (collectively referred to herein as New Certificates), representing the Stock Consideration (together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto and cash in lieu of fractional shares issued in consideration therefor) and the Cash Consideration, as applicable, upon the surrender of such Old Certificates in accordance with Section 2.2, without any interest thereon. If, prior to the Effective Time, the outstanding shares of Parent Common Stock or Company Common Stock shall have been increased, decreased, or changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities, in any such case as a result of a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split, or other similar change in capitalization, or there shall be any extraordinary dividend or distribution, an appropriate and proportionate adjustment shall be made to the Merger Consideration to give holders of Company Common Stock the same economic effect as contemplated by this Agreement prior to such event.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, at the Effective Time, all shares of Company Common Stock that are owned by the Company or Parent (in each case, other than the Exception Shares) shall be cancelled and shall cease to exist and neither the Merger Consideration nor any other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

1.6 Effects of Second-Step Merger on Capital Stock. At the effective time of the Second-Step Merger, each share of (a) Parent Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to such time shall remain issued and outstanding and shall not be affected by the Second-Step Merger and (b) capital stock of the Company, as the surviving corporation in the First-Step Merger, issued and outstanding immediately prior to such time, shall be cancelled and shall cease to exist and neither the Merger Consideration nor any other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

1.7 Treatment of Company Equity Awards.

(a) At the Effective Time, each option granted by the Company to purchase shares of Company Common Stock under the Cape Bancorp, Inc. 2008 Equity Incentive Plan (the Company Equity Plan) and the Colonial Financial Services, Inc. 2011 Equity Incentive Plan, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the Effective Time (a Company Stock Option) shall, without any further action on the part of any holder thereof, be assumed and converted into an option to purchase from Parent, on the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such Company Stock Option immediately prior to the Effective Time, a number of shares of Parent Common Stock (rounded down to the nearest whole share) determined by multiplying (x) the number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to such Company Stock Option immediately prior to the Effective Time by (y) 0.75, at a per share exercise price (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (i) the per share exercise price for each share of Company Common Stock subject to such Company Stock Option by (ii) 0.75 (each, as so adjusted, a Converted Company Option). All rounding described in this Section 1.7(a) shall be done on an aggregate basis.

(b) The Converted Company Options shall have the same vesting schedule (including any acceleration of vesting as provided in the Company Equity Plan) as the Company Stock Options and otherwise shall have the same terms and conditions as such Company Stock Options; provided, that Parent shall convert the Company Stock Options into Converted Company Options in a manner consistent with the requirements of Sections 409A and 424(a) of the Code, as applicable. After such assumption and conversion, the Converted Company Options shall be subject to all of the terms and conditions of the plan and grant agreements under which the Company Stock Options were originally issued (including any applicable change in control or other accelerated vesting provisions, and this transaction shall constitute a change in control for all relevant provisions).

(c) At the Effective Time, each restricted stock award in respect of shares of Company Common Stock granted under the Company Equity Plan that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (a Company Restricted Stock Award) shall be or become fully vested and the restrictions thereon shall lapse, and each holder thereof shall be entitled to receive the Merger Consideration in accordance with Section 1.5 of this Agreement. The Company will be entitled to deduct and withhold such amounts as may be required to be deducted and withheld under the Code and any applicable state or local tax laws as allowed under the Company Equity Plan. For purposes of this Agreement, the Company Stock Options and Company Restricted Stock Awards shall be referred to as the Company Equity Awards.

(d) At or prior to the Effective Time, the Company, the Board of Directors of the Company and its compensation committee, as applicable, shall adopt any resolutions and take any actions that are necessary, including obtaining any consents, to (i) effectuate the provisions of this Section 1.7, (ii) ensure that following the Effective Time, there are no obligations with respect to the Company Equity Awards other than as set forth in this Section 1.7 and (iii) terminate the Company Equity Plan solely for purposes of granting new Company Equity Awards, effective as of the Effective Time; provided, that no action taken by the Company shall be required to be irrevocable until immediately prior to the Effective Time.

1.8 Certificate of Incorporation of Surviving Corporation. At the Effective Time, the Articles of Incorporation of Merger Sub (the Merger Sub Articles), as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the Articles of Incorporation of the Company until thereafter amended in accordance with their terms and applicable law. At the effective time of the Second-Step Merger, the Certificate of Incorporation of Parent (the Parent Certificate), as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the Certificate of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended in accordance with their terms and applicable law.

1.9 Bylaws of Surviving Corporation. At the Effective Time, the Bylaws of Merger Sub (the Merger Sub Bylaws), as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the Bylaws of the Company until thereafter amended in accordance with their terms and applicable law. At the effective time of the Second-Step Merger, the Bylaws of Parent (the Parent Bylaws), as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended in accordance with their terms and applicable law.

1.10 Directors; Officers. At and immediately after the Effective Time, the directors and officers of the Company shall consist of the directors and officers of Merger Sub in office immediately prior to the Effective Time until their respective successor are duly elected or appointed and qualified. Subject to Section 6.11, the directors and officers of the Surviving Corporation in the Second-Step Merger shall be the directors and officers of Parent in office immediately prior to the effective time of the Second-Step Merger.

1.11 Tax Consequences. For U.S. federal income Tax purposes, (a) the parties intend that (i) the Integrated Mergers shall together be treated as a single integrated transaction that qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and (ii) Parent, Merger Sub and the Company shall each be a party to such reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Code, and (b) this Agreement is intended to be, and is hereby adopted as, a plan of reorganization for purposes of Sections 354, 361 and 368 of the Code and within the meaning of Treasury regulation Section 1.368-2(g).

1.12 Bank Merger. Immediately following the consummation of the Integrated Mergers, Cape Bank, a New Jersey-chartered stock savings bank and a wholly-owned Subsidiary of the Company (Company Bank), will merge wholly-owned Subsidiary of Parent (Parent Bank), pursuant to the agreement and plan of merger attached hereto as Exhibit A, dated as of the date hereof, by and between Company Bank and Parent Bank (the Bank Merger Agreement). Parent Bank shall be the surviving bank in the Bank Merger and, following the Bank Merger, the separate corporate existence of Company Bank shall cease. The parties agree that the Bank Merger shall become effective immediately after the effective time of the Second-Step Merger. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall cause Company Bank, and Parent shall cause Parent Bank, to execute such certificates or articles of merger and such other documents and certificates as are necessary to make the Bank Merger effective (the Bank Merger Certificate) immediately following the effective time of the Second-Step Merger.

(the Bank Merger) with and into OceanFirst Bank, a federally-chartered capital stock savings bank and a

ARTICLE IIEXCHANGE OF SHARES

2.1 Parent to Make Merger Consideration Available. Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with a bank or trust company designated by Parent and reasonably acceptable to the Company (the Exchange Agent), for the benefit of the holders of Old Certificates, for exchange in accordance with this Article II, (a) New Certificates representing the aggregate Stock Consideration to be issued pursuant to Section 1.5 and exchanged pursuant to Section 2.2(a), and (b) cash in an amount sufficient to pay (i) the aggregate Cash Consideration payable to holders of Company Common Stock and (ii) cash in lieu of any fractional shares of Parent Common Stock (such cash and New Certificates described in the foregoing clauses (a) and (b), together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto (after giving effect to Section 6.10), being hereinafter referred to as the Exchange Fund). The Exchange Agent shall invest any cash included in the Exchange Fund as directed by Parent, provided that no such investment or losses thereon shall affect the amount of Merger Consideration payable to the holders of Old Certificates. Any interest and other income resulting from such investments shall be paid to Parent.

2.2 Exchange of Shares.

(a) As promptly as practicable after the Effective Time, but in no event later than five (5) business days thereafter, Parent shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each holder of record of one or more Old Certificates representing shares of Company Common Stock immediately prior to the Effective Time that have been converted at the Effective Time into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Article I and who has not previously submitted its Old Certificates, a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Old Certificates shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Old Certificates to the Exchange Agent) and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Old Certificates in exchange for the Merger Consideration which such holder shall have become entitled to receive in accordance with, and subject to, Section 1.5(a), and any cash in lieu of fractional shares which the shares of Company Common Stock represented by such Old Certificate or Old Certificates shall have been converted into the right to receive pursuant to this Agreement as well as any dividends or distributions to be paid pursuant to Section 2.2(b). From and after the Effective Time, upon proper surrender of an Old Certificate or Old Certificates for exchange and cancellation to the Exchange Agent, together with such properly completed letter of transmittal duly executed, the holder of such Old Certificate or Old Certificates shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor, as applicable, (i) a New Certificate representing the Stock Consideration to which such holder of Company Common Stock shall have become entitled to receive in accordance with, and subject to, Section 1.5(a), and (ii) a check representing the amount of (1) the Cash Consideration which such holder has the right to receive in respect of the surrendered Old Certificate or Old Certificates in accordance with, and subject to, Section 1.5(a), (2) any cash in lieu of fractional shares which such holder has the right to receive in respect of the surrendered Old Certificate or Old Certificates pursuant to Section 2.2(e) and (3) any dividends or distributions which the holder thereof has the right to receive pursuant to Section 2.2(b), and the Old Certificate or Old Certificates so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled. No interest will be paid or accrued on the Cash Consideration or any cash in lieu of fractional shares payable to holders of Old Certificates. Until surrendered as contemplated by this

A-5

Table of Contents

Section 2.2, each Old Certificate shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive, upon surrender, the Merger Consideration and any cash in lieu of fractional shares or in respect of dividends or distributions as contemplated by this Section 2.2.

(b) No dividends or other distributions declared with respect to Parent Common Stock shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Old Certificate until the holder thereof shall surrender such Old Certificate in accordance with this Article II. After the surrender of an Old Certificate in accordance with this Article II, the record holder thereof shall be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without any interest thereon, which were previously payable with respect to the Stock Consideration which the shares of Company Common Stock represented by such Old Certificate have been converted into the right to receive (after giving effect to Section 6.10).

(c) If any New Certificate representing shares of Parent Common Stock is to be issued in a name other than that in which the Old Certificate or Old Certificates surrendered in exchange therefor is or are registered, it shall be a condition of the issuance thereof that the Old Certificate or Old Certificates so surrendered shall be properly endorsed (or accompanied by an appropriate instrument of transfer) and otherwise in proper form for transfer, and that the person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Exchange Agent in advance any transfer or other similar Taxes required by reason of the issuance of a New Certificate representing shares of Parent Common Stock in any name other than that of the registered holder of the Old Certificate or Old Certificates surrendered, or required for any other reason, or shall establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such Tax has been paid or is not payable.

(d) After the Effective Time, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of the Company of the shares of Company Common Stock that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Old Certificates representing such shares are presented for transfer to the Exchange Agent, they shall be cancelled and exchanged for the Merger Consideration, cash in lieu of fractional shares and dividends or distributions that the holder presenting such Old Certificates is entitled to, as provided in this Article II.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no New Certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of Parent Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Old Certificates, no dividend or distribution with respect to Parent Common Stock shall be payable on or with respect to any fractional share, and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a shareholder of Parent. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional share, Parent shall pay to each former shareholder of the Company who otherwise would be entitled to receive such fractional share an amount in cash (rounded to the nearest cent) determined by multiplying (i) the average of the closing-sale prices of Parent Common Stock on The Nasdaq Global Select Market (NASDAQ) (as reported by The Wall Street Journal) for the five (5) full trading days ending on the day preceding the Closing Date by (ii) the fraction of a share (rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed in decimal form) of Parent Common Stock which such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to Section 1.5.

(f) Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains unclaimed by the shareholders of the Company for one (1) year after the Effective Time shall be paid to the Surviving Corporation. Any former shareholders of the Company who have not theretofore complied with this Article II shall thereafter look only to the Surviving Corporation for payment of the Merger Consideration, cash in lieu of any fractional shares and any unpaid dividends and distributions on the Parent Common Stock deliverable in respect of each former share of Company Common Stock such shareholder holds as determined pursuant to this Agreement, in each case, without any interest thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of Parent, the Company, the Surviving Corporation, the Exchange Agent or any other person shall be liable to any former holder of shares of Company Common Stock for any amount delivered in good faith to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

(g) Each of Parent and Merger Sub shall be entitled to deduct and withhold, or cause the Exchange Agent to deduct and withhold, from the Merger Consideration, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock, cash dividends or distributions payable pursuant to this Section 2.2 or any other amounts otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of Company Common Stock such amounts as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code or any provision of state, local or foreign Tax law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by Parent, Merger Sub or the Exchange Agent, as the case may be, and paid over to the appropriate governmental authority, the withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of Company Common Stock in respect of which the deduction and withholding was made by Parent, Merger Sub or the Exchange Agent, as the case may be.

(h) In the event any Old Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Old Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if requested by Parent, the posting by such person of a bond in such amount as Parent may determine is reasonably necessary as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Old Certificate, the Exchange Agent or Parent, as applicable, will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Old Certificate the Merger Consideration and any cash in lieu of fractional shares deliverable in respect thereof pursuant to this Agreement.

ARTICLE III

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE COMPANY

Except (i) as disclosed in the disclosure schedule delivered by the Company to Parent concurrently herewith (the Company Disclosure Schedule); provided, that (a) no such item is required to be set forth as an exception to a representation or warranty if its absence would not result in the related representation or warranty being deemed untrue or incorrect, (b) the mere inclusion of an item in the Company Disclosure Schedule as an exception to a representation or warranty shall not be deemed an admission by the Company that such item represents a material exception or fact, event or circumstance or that such item is reasonably likely to result in a Material Adverse Effect and (c) any disclosures made with respect to a section of Article III shall be deemed to qualify (1) any other section of Article III specifically referenced or cross-referenced and (2) other sections of Article III to the extent it is reasonably apparent on its face (notwithstanding the absence of a specific cross-reference) from a reading of the disclosure that such disclosure applies to such other sections or (ii) as disclosed in any Company Reports filed by the Company since December 31, 2014 and prior to the date hereof (but disregarding risk factor disclosures contained under the heading Risk Factors, or disclosures of risks set forth in any forward-looking statements disclaimer or any other statements that are similarly non-specific or cautionary, predictive or forward-looking in nature), the Company hereby represents and warrants to Parent as follows:

3.1 Corporate Organization.

(a) The Company is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Maryland, and is duly registered with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the Federal Reserve Board) as a bank holding company under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended (BHCA). The Company has the corporate power and authority to own or lease all of its properties and assets and to carry on its business as it is now being conducted. The Company is duly licensed or qualified to do business in each jurisdiction in which the nature of the business conducted by it or the character or location of the properties and assets owned or leased by it makes such licensing or qualification necessary, except where the failure to be so licensed or qualified would not, either individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company. As used in this Agreement, the term Material Adverse Effect means, with respect to Parent, the Company or the Surviving Corporation, as the case may be, a material adverse effect on (i) the business, properties, assets, liabilities, results of operations or financial condition of such party

Neither Parent nor the Company nor any of their respective Subsidiaries shall be required to provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure would violate or prejudice the rights of Parent's or the Company's, as the case may be, customers, jeopardize the attorney-client privilege of the institution in possession or control of such information (after giving due consideration to the existence of any common interest, joint defense or similar agreement between the parties) or contravene any law, rule, regulation, order, judgment, decree, fiduciary duty or binding agreement entered into prior to the date of this Agreement. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall give either party, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the operations of the other party prior to the Effective Time. Prior to the Effective Time, each party shall exercise, consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, complete control and supervision over its and its Subsidiaries' respective operations.

6.3 Shareholders' Approvals.

(a) Each of Parent and the Company shall call a meeting of its shareholders (the Parent Meeting and the Company Meeting, respectively) to be held as soon as reasonably practicable after the S-4 is declared effective for the purpose of obtaining the Requisite Company Vote and the Requisite Parent Vote required in connection with this Agreement, the First-Step Merger and the issuance of shares of Parent Common Stock in connection with the First-Step Merger and, if so desired and mutually agreed, upon other matters of the type customarily brought before an annual or special meeting of shareholders to approve a merger agreement or otherwise approve the transactions contemplated hereby, and each shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause such meetings to occur as promptly as reasonably practicable and on the same date.

(b) Subject to Section 6.3(c) and Section 6.3(d), as applicable, the Board of Directors of each of Parent and the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain from the shareholders of Parent and the Company, as the case may be, the Requisite Parent Vote, in the case of Parent, and the Requisite Company Vote, in the case of the Company, including by communicating to its respective shareholders its recommendation (and including such recommendation in the Joint Proxy Statement) that such shareholders approve (i) this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, in the case of the Company, and (ii) the issuance of shares of Parent Common Stock in connection with the First-Step Merger, in the case of Parent.

(c) Subject to Section 8.1 and Section 8.2, if the Board of Directors of Parent, after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisors, determines in good faith that it would be reasonably likely to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend this Agreement, then in submitting this Agreement to its shareholders, the Board of Directors of Parent may (but shall not be required to) submit this Agreement to Parent's shareholders without recommendation (although the resolutions approving this Agreement as of the date hereof may not be rescinded or amended), in which event the Board of Directors of Parent may communicate the basis for its lack of a recommendation to Parent's shareholders in the Joint that it would be reasonably likely to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend this Agreement, then in submitting this Agreement to its shareholders, the Board of Directors of the Company may (but shall not be required to) submit this Agreement to the Company's shareholders without recommendation (although the resolutions approving this Agreement as of the date hereof may not be rescinded or amended), in which event the Board of Directors may communicate the basis for its lack of a recommendation to the Company's shareholders in the Joint Proxy Statement or an appropriate amendment or supplement thereto to the extent required by law; provided, that the Board of Directors of the Company may not take any actions under this Section 6.3(d) in connection with an Acquisition Proposal unless (i) such Acquisition Proposal did not result from a breach by the Company of Section 6.12; (ii) such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal; (iii) the Company gives Parent at least three (3) business days' prior written notice of its intention to take such action and a reasonable description of the event or circumstances giving rise to its determination to take such action, including its basis for determining that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal (including the latest material terms and conditions of, and the identity of the third party making, any such Acquisition Proposal, or any amendment or modification thereof, or describe in reasonable detail such other event or circumstances) and (iv) at the end of such notice period, the Board of Directors of the Company takes into account any amendment or modification to this Agreement proposed by Parent (it being understood that Parent shall not have any obligation to propose any adjustments, modifications or amendments to the terms and conditions of this Agreement), and after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisors, again determines in good faith that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal and that it would nevertheless be reasonably likely to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law to continue to recommend this Agreement. Any material amendment to any Acquisition Proposal will be deemed to be a new Acquisition Proposal for purposes of this Section 6.3(d) and will require a new determination and notice period as referred to in this Section 6.3(d).

(e) Parent or the Company shall adjourn or postpone the Parent Meeting or the Company Meeting, as the case may be, if, as of the time for which such meeting is originally scheduled there are insufficient shares of Parent Common Stock or Company Common Stock, as the case may be, represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of such meeting, or if on the date of such meeting the Company or Parent, as applicable, has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of shares necessary to obtain the Requisite Company Vote or the Requisite Parent Vote (it being understood that, (i) if Parent, pursuant to Section 6.3(c), submits this Agreement to Parent's shareholders without recommendation, or if (ii) the Company, pursuant to Section 6.3(d), submits this Agreement to Company's shareholders without recommendation, an adjournment or postponement of the meeting due to an insufficient quorum or the failure to obtain the Requisite Company Vote or the Requisite Parent Vote, as applicable, shall not be required by this Section 6.3(e)). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, unless this Agreement has been terminated in accordance with its terms, each of the Parent Meeting and the Company Meeting shall be convened and this Agreement shall be submitted to the shareholders of each of Parent and the Company at the Parent Meeting and the Company Meeting, respectively, for the purpose of voting on the adoption of this Agreement and the issuance of shares of Parent Common Stock in connection with the First-Step Merger, as applicable, and the other matters contemplated hereby, and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to relieve either Parent or the Company of such obligation.

6.4 Legal Conditions to Merger. Subject in all respects to Section 6.1 of this Agreement, each of Parent and the Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, use their reasonable best efforts (a) to take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary, proper or advisable to comply promptly with all legal requirements that may be imposed on such party or its Subsidiaries with respect to the Integrated Mergers and the Bank Merger and, subject to the conditions set forth in Article VII hereof, to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and (b) to obtain (and to cooperate with the other party to obtain) any material consent, authorization, order or approval of, or any exemption by, any Governmental Entity and any other third party that is required to be obtained by the Company or Parent or any of their respective Subsidiaries in connection with the Integrated Mergers, the Bank Merger and the other transactions

6.6 Employee Matters.

(a) During the period commencing at the Effective Time and ending on the first anniversary thereof, Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, provide the employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries who continue to be employed by Parent or its Subsidiaries (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries) immediately following the Effective Time (the Continuing Employees), while employed by Parent or its Subsidiaries after the Effective Time, with base salaries and wages no less favorable than, and with employee benefits that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to, the base salaries, wages and employee benefits provided to similarly situated employees of Parent and its Subsidiaries; provided that (A) Parent may satisfy its obligation under this Section 6.6(a) by providing or causing the Surviving Corporation to provide such Continuing Employees with base salaries and wages that are no less favorable than, and with employee benefits that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to, the base salaries, wages and employee benefits provided by the Company or its Subsidiaries to such Continuing Employees immediately prior to the Effective Time and (B) to satisfy its obligation under this Section 6.6(a), Parent shall not be obligated to provide to such Continuing Employees any equity or equity-based compensation.

(b) Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation, to assume and honor all Company Benefit Plans in accordance with their terms. Parent hereby acknowledges that a change in control (or similar phrase) within the meaning of the Company Benefit Plans will occur at the Effective Time. Any employee of Company or Company Bank whose employment is terminated by Parent or Parent Bank (other than for cause) and who is not a party to an employment, change in control or severance agreement or contract providing severance payments shall, in the manner set forth on Section 6.6(b) of the Parent Disclosure Schedule, be covered and be eligible to receive severance benefits under, and subject to the terms and conditions of, the severance plan or policy of Parent (the Parent Severance Plan), set forth on Section 6.6(b) of the Parent Disclosure Schedule, provided, however that such employee enters into a release of claims against Parent, any Parent Subsidiary, Company, Company Bank and any Subsidiary or Affiliate of any of the above, in a customary form reasonably satisfactory to Parent. Notwithstanding the forgoing, at the written direction of Parent to Company prior to the Closing, Company or Company Bank shall pay such cash severance benefit to any Company or Company Subsidiary employee whose employment will be terminated at Closing.

(c) With respect to any employee benefit plans of Parent or its Subsidiaries in which any Continuing Employees become eligible to participate on or after the Effective Time (the New Plans), Parent shall or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to use commercially reasonable efforts to: (i) waive all exclusions and waiting periods with respect to participation and coverage requirements applicable to such employees and their eligible dependents under any New Plans, except to the extent such pre-existing conditions, exclusions or waiting periods would apply under the analogous Company Benefit Plan, (ii) provide each such employee and their eligible dependents with credit for any co-payments and deductibles paid prior to the Effective Time under a Company Benefit Plan (to the same extent that such credit was given under the analogous Company Benefit Plan prior to the Effective Time) in satisfying any applicable deductible or out-of-pocket requirements under any New Plans, and (iii) recognize all service of such employees with the Company and its Subsidiaries for all purposes in any New Plan to the same extent that such service was taken into account under the analogous Company Benefit Plan prior to the Effective Time; provided that the foregoing service recognition shall not apply (A) to the extent it would result in duplication of benefits for the same period of services, (B) for purposes of any defined benefit pension plan or benefit plan that provides retiree welfare benefits, or (C) to any benefit plan that is a frozen plan or provides grandfathered benefits.

(d) Unless Parent requests otherwise in writing, effective prior to the Closing, the Company shall terminate the Cape Bank Employees Savings & Profit Sharing Plan (the Terminated Plan). The Company shall provide Parent with resolutions adopted by the Company's board of directors terminating the Terminated Plan, the form and substance of which shall be subject to the reasonable advance approval of Parent. As soon as practicable following the Effective Time, with respect to the Terminated Plan, Parent shall permit or cause its Subsidiaries (including the Surviving Corporation) to permit the Continuing Employees to roll over their account balances and outstanding loan balances, if any, thereunder into an eligible retirement plan within the meaning of Section 402(c)(8)(B) of the Code maintained by Parent or its Subsidiaries (including the Surviving Corporation).

(e) Company Bank shall, effective no later than immediately prior to, and contingent upon, the Effective Time (the ESOP Termination Date), adopt such necessary resolutions and or amendments to the Company Bank Employee Stock Ownership Plan (the Company ESOP) to (i) direct the Company ESOP trustee to deliver a sufficient number of unallocated shares of Company Common Stock held in Company ESOP's Suspense Account (as defined in the Company ESOP) to Company to repay any outstanding Company ESOP loan at the Effective Time, (ii) provide for treatment of all remaining shares of Company Common Stock held in the Company ESOP trust in accordance with Sections 2.1 and 2.2 of this Agreement, and (iii) provide that no new participants shall be admitted to the Company ESOP on or after the ESOP Termination Date. The form and substance of such resolutions and any necessary amendments shall be subject to the review and approval of Parent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Company shall deliver to Parent an executed copy of such resolutions and any necessary amendments as soon as practicable following their adoption by the Board of Directors of Company and shall fully comply with such resolutions and any necessary amendments. The accounts of all participants and beneficiaries in the Company ESOP as of the ESOP Termination Date shall become fully vested as of the ESOP Termination Date. Any unallocated shares of Company Common Stock held in the Company ESOP's Suspense Account after repayment of the Company ESOP loan shall be converted into Merger Consideration and shall be allocated as earnings to the accounts of Company ESOP participants who are employed as of the ESOP Termination Date based on their account balances under the Company ESOP as of the ESOP Termination Date. As soon as practicable after the date of this Agreement, Company shall file or cause to be filed all necessary documents with the IRS for a determination letter for termination of the Company ESOP. As soon as practicable following the receipt of a favorable determination letter from the IRS regarding the qualified status of the Company ESOP upon its termination, the account balances in the Company ESOP shall either be distributed to participants and beneficiaries or transferred to an eligible tax-qualified retirement plan or individual retirement account as a participant or beneficiary may direct. Parent agrees to permit Company ESOP participants who become employees of Parent or Parent Subsidiaries to roll over their account balances in the Company ESOP to the Parent Employee Stock Ownership Plan (Parent ESOP).

(f) Except as provided in Section 6.6(i) below, nothing in this Agreement shall confer upon any employee, officer, director, independent contractor or consultant of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates any right to continue in the employ or service of the Surviving Corporation, the Company, Parent or any Subsidiary or affiliate thereof, or shall interfere with or restrict in any way the rights of the Surviving Corporation, the Company, Parent or any Subsidiary or affiliate thereof to discharge or terminate the services of any employee, officer, director or consultant of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates at any time for any reason whatsoever, with or without cause. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to (i) establish, amend, or modify any Company Benefit Plan, New Plan or any other benefit or employment plan, program, agreement or arrangement, or (ii) alter or limit the ability of the Surviving Corporation or any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates to amend, modify or terminate any particular Company Benefit Plan, New Plan or any other benefit or employment plan, program, agreement or arrangement after the Effective Time. Without limiting the generality of the third sentence of Section 9.10, nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any person, including without limitation any current or former employee, officer, director, independent contractor or consultant (or any spouse or dependent of such individual) of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates, any right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, each of Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each present and former director, officer or employee of the Company and its Subsidiaries (in each case, when acting in such capacity) (collectively, the Company Indemnified Parties) against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, whether arising before or after the Effective Time, arising out of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer or employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and pertaining to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time, including the transactions contemplated by this Agreement to the fullest extent as would have been permitted by the Company pursuant to the Company Articles, the Company Bylaws, the governing or organizational documents of any Subsidiary of the Company and the MGCL immediately prior to the Effective Time; and Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall also advance expenses as incurred by such Company Indemnified Party to the fullest extent as would have been permitted by the Company pursuant to the Company Articles, the Company Bylaws, the governing or organizational documents of any Subsidiary of the Company and the MGCL immediately prior to the Effective Time; provided, that, if required, the Company Indemnified Party to whom expenses are advanced provides an undertaking to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that such Company Indemnified Party is not entitled to indemnification.

(b) For a period of six (6) years after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall cause to be maintained in effect the current policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained by the Company (provided, that the Surviving Corporation may substitute therefor policies with a substantially comparable insurer of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are no less advantageous to the insured) with respect to claims arising from facts or events which occurred at or before the Effective Time; provided, however, that the Surviving Corporation shall not be obligated to expend, on an annual basis, an amount in excess of 200% of the current annual premium paid as of the date hereof by the Company for such insurance (the Premium Cap), and if such premiums for such insurance would at any time exceed the Premium Cap, then the Surviving Corporation shall cause to be maintained policies of insurance which, in the Surviving Corporation's good faith determination, provide the maximum coverage available at an annual premium equal to the Premium Cap. In lieu of the foregoing, the Company, in consultation with, but only upon the prior written consent of Parent, may (and at the request of Parent, the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to) obtain at or prior to the Effective Time a six-year tail policy under the Company's existing directors and officers insurance policy providing equivalent coverage to that described in the preceding sentence if and to the extent that the same may be obtained for an amount that, in the aggregate, does not exceed the Premium Cap.

(c) The provisions of this Section 6.7 shall survive the Effective Time and are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Company Indemnified Party and his or her heirs and representatives. If the Surviving Corporation or any of its successors or assigns will consolidate with or merge into any other entity and not be the continuing or surviving entity of such consolidation or merger, transfer all or substantially all of its assets or deposits to any other entity or engage in any similar transaction, then in each case, the Surviving Corporation will cause proper provision to be made so that the successors and assigns of the Surviving Corporation will expressly assume the obligations set forth in this Section 6.7. The obligations of the Surviving Corporation, Parent and the Company under this Section 6.7 shall not be terminated or modified in a manner so as to adversely affect the Company Indemnified Party or any other person entitled to the benefit of this Section 6.7 without the prior written consent of the affected Company Indemnified Party or affected person.

6.8 Additional Agreements. In case at any time after the Effective Time any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement (including, without limitation, any merger between a Subsidiary of Parent, on the one hand, and a Subsidiary of the Company, on the other hand) or to vest the Surviving Corporation with full title to all properties, assets, rights, approvals, immunities and franchises of any of the parties to the Integrated Mergers, the proper officers and directors of each party to this Agreement and their respective Subsidiaries shall take all such necessary action as may be reasonably requested by Parent.

6.9 Advice of Changes. Parent and the Company shall each promptly (but in no event more than 24 hours) advise the other party of any change or event (i) that has had or is reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on it or (ii) which it believes would or would be reasonably likely to cause or constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained herein or that reasonably could be expected to give rise, individually or in the aggregate, to the failure of any condition in Article VII; provided, that any failure to give notice in accordance with the foregoing with respect to any breach shall not be deemed to constitute a violation of this Section 6.9 or the failure of any condition set forth in Section 7.2 or 7.3 to be satisfied, or otherwise constitute a breach of this Agreement by the party failing to give such notice, in each case unless the underlying breach would independently result in a failure of the conditions set forth in Section 7.2 or 7.3 to be satisfied.

6.10 Dividends. After the date of this Agreement, each of Parent and the Company shall coordinate with the other the declaration of any dividends in respect of Parent Common Stock and Company Common Stock and the record dates and payment dates relating thereto, it being the intention of the parties hereto that holders of Company Common Stock shall not receive two dividends, or fail to receive one dividend, in any quarter with respect to their shares of Company Common Stock and any shares of Parent Common Stock any such holder receives in exchange therefor in the First-Step Merger.

6.11 Corporate Governance. Effective as of the Effective Time, Parent and Parent Bank, respectively, shall (i) increase the size of the Board of Directors of Parent and Parent Bank to ten (10) members and (ii) appoint Michael D. Devlin to the Board of Directors of Parent and Parent Bank, respectively, as a member of the class of directors that has a term expiring at the 2018 annual meeting of the stockholders. In the event that Mr. Devlin is unable to serve, Parent and Parent Bank, respectively, shall select and appoint a director from the existing Board of Directors of the Company to serve as a member of the class of directors of Parent and Parent Bank, respectively, for a term to expire at the 2018 annual meeting of the stockholders.

6.12 Acquisition Proposals.

(a) The Company agrees that it will not, and will cause its Subsidiaries and its and their officers, directors, agents, advisors and representatives (collectively, Representatives) not to, directly or indirectly, (i) initiate, solicit, knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate inquiries or proposals with respect to, (ii) engage or participate in any negotiations with any person concerning, or (iii) provide any confidential or nonpublic information or data to, or have or participate in any discussions with, any person relating to, any Acquisition Proposal, except to notify such person of the existence of the provisions of this Section 6.12(a); provided, that, prior to the date of the Company Meeting, in the event the Company receives an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal that did not result from a breach of this Section 6.12(a), it may, and may permit its Subsidiaries and its and its Subsidiaries Representatives to, furnish or cause to be furnished nonpublic information or data and participate in such negotiations or discussions to the extent that its Board of Directors concludes in good faith (after receiving the advice of its outside counsel, and with respect to financial matters, its financial advisors) that (1) such Acquisition Proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to a Superior Proposal and (2) failure to take such actions would be reasonably likely to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law; provided, further, that, prior to providing any nonpublic information or data, or participating in any negotiations or discussions, in each case, permitted pursuant to the foregoing proviso, the Company shall have entered into a confidentiality agreement with such third party on terms no less favorable to it than the Confidentiality Agreement, which confidentiality agreement shall not provide such person with any exclusive right to negotiate with the Company. The Company will, and will cause its Representatives to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated any activities, discussions or negotiations conducted before the date of this Agreement with any person other than Parent with respect to any Acquisition Proposal and will use its reasonable best efforts, subject to applicable law, to (x) enforce any confidentiality, standstill or similar agreement relating to an Acquisition Proposal and (y) within ten (10) business days after the date hereof, request and confirm the return or destruction of any confidential information provided to any person (other than the Company) pursuant to such agreement. The Company will promptly (and in any event within twenty-four

(24) hours) advise Parent following receipt of any Acquisition Proposal or any inquiry which could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal, and the substance thereof (including the terms and conditions of and the identity of the person making such inquiry or Acquisition Proposal, copies of any written Acquisition Proposal and written summaries of any material oral communications relating to an Acquisition Proposal), and will keep Parent apprised of any related developments, discussions and negotiations on a current basis, including any amendments to or revisions of the terms of such inquiry or Acquisition Proposal.

(b) As used in this Agreement,

(i) Acquisition Proposal shall mean, other than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, any offer, proposal or inquiry relating to, or any third party indication of interest in, (i) any acquisition or purchase, direct or indirect, of 25% or more of the consolidated assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries or 25% or more of any class of equity or voting securities of the Company or its Subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute more than 25% of the consolidated assets of the Company, (ii) any tender offer (including a self-tender offer) or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in such third party beneficially owning 25% or more of any class of equity or voting securities of the Company or its Subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute more than 25% of the consolidated assets of the Company, or (iii) a merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, reorganization, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or other similar transaction involving the Company or its Subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute more than 25% of the consolidated assets of the Company; and

(ii) Superior Proposal shall mean any bona fide written offer or proposal made by a third party to consummate an Acquisition Proposal that the Company's Board of Directors determines in good faith (after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisors) (1) would, if consummated, result in the acquisition of all, but not less than all, of the issued and outstanding shares of Company Common Stock or all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company; (2) would result in a transaction that (A) involves consideration to the holders of the shares of Company Common Stock that is more favorable, from a financial point of view, than the consideration to be paid to the shareholders of the Company pursuant to this Agreement, considering, among other things, the nature of the consideration being offered and any material regulatory approvals or other risks associated with the timing of the proposed transaction beyond, or in addition to, those specifically contemplated hereby, and which proposal is not conditioned upon obtaining financing and (B) is, in light of the other terms of such proposal, more favorable to the shareholders of the Company than the Integrated Mergers and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and (3) is reasonably likely to be completed on the terms proposed, in each case, taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the Acquisition Proposal.

(c) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall prevent the Company or its Board of Directors from complying with Rule 14d-9 and Rule 14e-2 under the Exchange Act with respect to an Acquisition Proposal; provided, that such Rules will in no way eliminate or modify the effect that any action pursuant to such Rules would otherwise have under this Agreement.

6.13 Board of Directors and Committee Meetings. Subsequent to the receipt of all Requisite Regulatory Approvals, the Company shall permit representatives of Parent and Parent Bank to attend any meeting of its board of directors or the executive and loan committees thereof as an observer, subject to the Confidentiality Agreement; provided, that the Company shall not be required to permit such representatives to remain present during any confidential discussions of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby or any Acquisition Proposal or during any other matter (a) that the Board of Directors of the Company has reasonably determined to be confidential with respect to the participation of Parent or Parent Bank or (b) that the Company would not be required to disclose under Section 6.2 of this Agreement.

6.14 Public Announcements. The Company and Parent shall each use their reasonable best efforts to develop a joint communications plan, to ensure that all press releases and other public statements with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby shall be consistent with such joint communications plan, and except in respect of any announcement required by applicable law, or by obligations pursuant to any listing agreement with or rules of any securities exchange, to consult with each other before issuing any press release or, to the extent practical, otherwise making any public statement with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

6.15 Change of Method. The Company and Parent shall be empowered, upon their mutual agreement, at any time prior to the Effective Time, to change the method or structure of effecting the combination of the Company and Parent (including the provisions of Article I), if and to the extent they both deem such change to be necessary, appropriate or desirable; provided, however, that no such change shall (i) alter or change the amount or kind of the Merger Consideration provided for in this Agreement, (ii) adversely affect the Tax treatment of the Company's shareholders or Parent's shareholders pursuant to this Agreement, (iii) adversely affect the Tax treatment of the Company or Parent pursuant to this Agreement or (iv) materially impede or delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement in a timely manner. The Parties agree to reflect any such change in an appropriate amendment to this Agreement executed by both parties in accordance with Section 8.3.

6.16 Restructuring Efforts. If either the Company or Parent shall have failed to obtain the Requisite Company Vote or the Requisite Parent Vote at the duly convened Company Meeting or Parent Meeting, as applicable, or any adjournment or postponement thereof, each of the parties shall in good faith use its reasonable best efforts to negotiate a restructuring of the transaction provided for herein (it being understood that neither party shall have any obligation to alter or change any material terms, including the amount or kind of the consideration to be issued to holders of the capital stock of the Company as provided for in this Agreement, in a manner adverse to such party or its shareholders) and/or resubmit this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby (or as restructured pursuant to this Section 6.16) to its respective shareholders for approval.

6.17 Takeover Statutes. None of the Company, Parent or their respective Boards of Directors shall take any action that would cause any Takeover Statute to become applicable to this Agreement, the Integrated Mergers, or any of the other transactions contemplated hereby, and each shall take all necessary steps to exempt (or ensure the continued exemption of) the Integrated Mergers and the other transactions contemplated hereby from any applicable Takeover Statute now or hereafter in effect. If any Takeover Statute may become, or may purport to be, applicable to the transactions contemplated hereby, each of Parent and the Company and the members of their respective Boards of Directors will grant such approvals and take such actions as are necessary so that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated hereby and thereby and otherwise act to eliminate or minimize the effects of any Takeover Statute on any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including, if necessary, challenging the validity or applicability of any such Takeover Statute.

6.18 Exemption from Liability Under Section 16(b). The Company and Parent agree that, in order to most effectively compensate and retain the Company Insiders (as defined below), both prior to and after the Effective Time, it is desirable that the Company Insiders not be subject to a risk of liability under Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law in connection with the conversion of shares of Company Common Stock and the Company Equity Awards in the First-Step Merger, and for that compensatory and retentive purpose agree to the provisions of this Section 6.18. Assuming the Company delivers to Parent in a reasonably timely fashion prior to the Effective Time accurate information regarding those officers and directors of the Company subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act (the Company Insiders), the Board of Directors of Parent and of the Company, or a committee of non-employee directors thereof (as such term is defined for purposes of Rule 16b-3(d) under the Exchange Act), shall reasonably promptly thereafter, and in any event prior to the Effective Time, take all such steps as may be required to cause (in the case of the Company) any dispositions of Company Common

the Company Insiders, and (in the case of Parent) any acquisitions of Parent Common Stock by any Company Insiders who, immediately following the Integrated Mergers, will be officers or directors of the Surviving Corporation subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, in each case pursuant to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, to be exempt from liability pursuant to Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

6.19 No Control of Other Party's Business. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall give Parent, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the operations of the Company or its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time, and nothing contained in this Agreement shall give the Company, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the operations of Parent or its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time. Prior to the Effective Time, each of Parent and the Company shall exercise, consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, complete control and supervision over its and its Subsidiaries' respective operations.

6.20 Parent Voting Agreements. Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause each of the directors and certain executive officers of Parent to, as soon as reasonably practicable following the date of this Agreement (and in any event no later than the 30th day following the date hereof), enter into separate voting agreements with the Company in respect of the Requisite Parent Vote, on such terms and conditions as are customary for agreements of that type (the Parent Voting Agreements).

Parent shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of the Company by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of the Company to the foregoing effect.

(b) Performance of Obligations of the Company. In rendering such opinion, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP may rely upon the certificates, representations and covenants referred to in Section 5.4.

(d) FIRPTA Certificate. The Company shall have delivered to Parent a duly executed certificate, in form and substance as prescribed by Treasury regulations promulgated under Section 1445 of the Code, stating that the Company is not, and has not been, during the relevant period specified in Section 897(c)(1)(A)(ii) of the Code, a United States real property holding corporation within the meaning of Section 897(c) of the Code.

The Company shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of Parent by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of Parent to the foregoing effect.

Parent shall have performed in all material respects the obligations required to be performed by it under this Agreement at or prior to the Closing Date, and the Company shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of Parent by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of Parent to such effect.

(c) Tax Opinion. The Company shall have received the written opinion of Luse Gorman, PC, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Company, dated as of the Closing Date, to the effect that, on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth or referred to in such opinion, that are consistent with the state of facts existing in the Effective Time, the Integrated Mergers shall together be treated as an integrated transaction that qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. In rendering such opinion, Luse Gorman, PC may rely upon the certificates, representations and covenants referred to in Section 5.4.

ARTICLE VIII

TERMINATION AND AMENDMENT

8.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after the obtainment of the Requisite Company Vote or the Requisite Parent Vote:

(a) by mutual consent of Parent and the Company in a written instrument, if the Board of Directors of each so determines by a vote of a majority of the members of its entire Board;

(b) by either the Board of Directors of Parent or the Board of Directors of the Company if any Governmental Entity that must grant a Requisite Regulatory Approval has denied approval of the Integrated Mergers or the other transactions contemplated hereby and such denial has become final and nonappealable or any Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction shall have issued a final nonappealable order permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting or making illegal the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, unless the failure to obtain a Requisite Regulatory Approval shall be due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate this Agreement to perform or observe the covenants and agreements of such party set forth herein;

(c) by either the Board of Directors of Parent or the Board of Directors of the Company if the Integrated Mergers shall not have been consummated on or before the one (1) year anniversary of the date of this Agreement (the Termination

Date), unless the failure of the Closing to occur by such date shall be due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate this Agreement to perform or observe the covenants and agreements of such party set forth herein;

(d) by either the Board of Directors of Parent or the Board of Directors of the Company (provided, that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein) if there shall have been a breach of any of the covenants or agreements or any of the representations or warranties (or any such representation or warranty shall cease to be true) set forth in this Agreement on the part of the Company, in the case of a termination by Parent, or Parent, in the case of a termination by the Company, which breach or failure to be true, either individually or in the aggregate with all other breaches by such party (or failures of such representations or warranties to be true), would constitute, if occurring or continuing on the Closing Date, the failure of a condition set forth in Section 7.2, in the case of a termination by Parent, or Section 7.3, in the case of a termination by the Company, and which is not cured within 45 days following written notice to the Company, in the case of a termination by Parent, or Parent, in the case of a termination by the Company, or by its nature or timing cannot be cured during such period (or such fewer days as remain prior to the Termination Date);

(e) by the Company, if the Board of Directors of Parent shall have (i) failed to recommend in the Joint Proxy Statement that the shareholders of Parent approve the issuance of shares of Parent Common Stock in connection with the First-Step Merger, or withdrawn, modified or qualified such recommendation in a manner adverse to the Company, or resolved to do so, or failed to reaffirm such recommendation within two (2) business days after the Company requests in writing that such action be taken, or (ii) breached its obligations under Section 6.3 in any material respect;

(f) by Parent, if the Board of Directors of the Company shall have (i) failed to recommend in the Joint Proxy Statement that the shareholders of the Company adopt this Agreement, or withdrawn, modified or qualified such recommendation in a manner adverse to Parent, or resolved to do so, or failed to reaffirm such recommendation within two (2) business days after Parent requests in writing that such action be taken, or failed to recommend against acceptance of a tender offer or exchange offer for outstanding Company Common Stock that has been publicly disclosed (other than by Parent or an affiliate of Parent) within ten (10) business days after the commencement of such tender or exchange offer, in any such case whether or not permitted by the terms hereof, (ii) recommended or endorsed an Acquisition Proposal, or (iii) breached its obligations under Sections 6.3 or 6.12 in any material respect; or

(g) By the Company, if its Board of Directors so determines by a vote of a majority of the members of its entire board within a five (5) day period commencing on the Determination Date, if both of the following conditions are satisfied, such termination to be effective on the tenth (10th) day following the Determination Date: (i) the Parent Market Value on the Determination Date is less than $15.74 and (ii) the number obtained by dividing the Parent Market Value on the Determination Date by the Initial Parent Market Value is less than the number obtained by dividing (x) the Final Index Price by (y) the Initial Index Price minus 0.15; subject, however, to the following three sentences. If the Company elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to this Section 8.1(g), it shall promptly (and in any event no later than the last day of the five (5) day period commencing on the Determination Date) notify Parent in writing of such election. During the five (5) day period commencing with Parent's receipt of such notice, Parent shall have the option to increase the Exchange Ratio to equal the lesser of (x) a quotient, the numerator of which is equal to the product of the Initial Parent Market Value, the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect), and the Index Ratio minus 0.15 and the denominator of which is equal to the Parent Market Value on the Determination Date; or (y) the quotient determined by dividing the Initial Parent Market Value by the Parent Market Value on the Determination Date, and multiplying such quotient by the product of the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect) and 0.80. If within such five (5) day period, Parent delivers written notice to the Company that it intends to proceed with the Integrated Mergers by paying such additional consideration as contemplated by the preceding sentence, and notifies the Company of the revised Exchange Ratio, then no termination shall be permitted by, or shall have occurred pursuant to, this Section 8.1(g), and this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms (except that the Exchange Ratio shall have been so modified). If Parent or any company belonging to the Index declares or effects a stock dividend, reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or similar transaction between the date of this Agreement and the Determination Date, the prices for the common stock of such company shall be appropriately adjusted for the purposes of applying this Section 8.1(g). For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

- (i) The Determination Date means the first date on which all Requisite Regulatory Approvals (and waivers, if applicable) necessary for consummation of the Integrated Mergers have been received (disregarding any waiting period).
- (ii) The Final Index Price means the average of the daily closing value of the Index, for the ten (10) consecutive trading days immediately preceding the Determination Date.
- (iii) The Index means the NASDAQ Bank Index or, if such Index is not available, such substitute or similar Index as substantially replicates the NASDAQ Bank Index.
- (iv) The Index Ratio means the Final Index Price divided by the Initial Index Price.
- (v) The Initial Index Price means the closing value of the Index on the date of this Agreement.
- (vi) The Initial Parent Market Value means, $19.67, adjusted as indicated in the last sentence of Section 8.1(g).
- (vii) The Parent Market Value means, as of any specified date, the average of the daily closing sales prices of a share of Parent Common Stock as reported on the NASDAQ for the ten (10) consecutive trading days immediately preceding such specified date.

8.2 Effect of Termination.

(a) In the event of termination of this Agreement by either Parent or the Company as provided in Section 8.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no effect, and none of Parent, the Company, any of their respective Subsidiaries or any of the officers or directors of any of them shall have any liability of any nature whatsoever hereunder, or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, except that (i) Section 6.2(b) and this Section 8.2 and Article IX shall survive any termination of this Agreement, and (ii) notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, neither Parent nor the Company shall be relieved or released from any liabilities or damages arising out of its fraud or knowing, intentional and material breach of any provision of this Agreement.

(b) In the event that after the date of this Agreement and prior to the termination of this Agreement, a bona fide Acquisition Proposal shall have been made known to senior management or the Board of Directors of the Company or has been made directly to its shareholders generally or any person shall have publicly announced (and not withdrawn) an Acquisition Proposal with respect to the Company and (x) (A) thereafter this Agreement is terminated by either Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 8.1(c) without the Requisite Company Vote having been obtained or (B) thereafter this Agreement is terminated by Parent pursuant to Section 8.1(d), and (y) on or prior to the date that is eighteen (18) months after the date of such termination, the Company enters into a definitive agreement or consummates a transaction with respect to an Acquisition Proposal (whether or not the same Acquisition Proposal as that referred to above), then the Company shall, on the earlier of the date it enters into such definitive agreement and the date of consummation of such transaction, pay Parent, by wire transfer of same day funds, a fee equal to $7,200,000.00 (the Termination Fee).

(c) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by Parent pursuant to Section 8.1(f), then the Company shall pay Parent, by wire transfer of same day funds, a fee equal to the Termination Fee on the date of termination.

(d) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by the Company pursuant to Section 8.1(e), then Parent shall pay the Company, by wire transfer of same day funds, a fee equal to the Termination Fee on the date of termination.

(e) Each of Parent and the Company acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 8.2 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that, without these agreements, the other party would not enter into this Agreement; accordingly, if Parent or the Company fails promptly to pay the amount due pursuant to this Section 8.2, and, in order to obtain such payment, the other party commences a suit which results in a judgment against the non-paying party for the Termination Fee, such non-paying party shall pay the costs and expenses of the other party (including attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with such suit. In addition, if Parent or the Company fails to pay the amounts payable pursuant to this Section 8.2, then such party shall pay interest on such overdue amounts at a rate per annum equal to the prime rate (as announced by JPMorgan Chase & Co. or any successor thereto) in effect on the date on which such payment was required to be made for the period commencing as of the date that such overdue amount was originally required to be paid.

8.3 Amendment. Subject to compliance with applicable law, this Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto, by action taken or authorized by their respective Boards of Directors, at any time before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with the Integrated Mergers by the shareholders of Parent and the Company; provided, however, that after adoption of this Agreement by the shareholders of the Company or the approval of the issuance of shares of Parent Common Stock in connection with the First-Step Merger by the shareholders of Parent, there may not be, without further approval of such shareholders, any amendment of this Agreement that requires further approval under applicable law. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto.

8.4 Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties hereto, by action taken or authorized by their respective Boards of Directors, may, to the extent legally allowed, extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties hereto, waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto, and waive compliance with any of the agreements or satisfaction of any conditions contained herein; provided, however, that after adoption of this Agreement by the shareholders of the Company or the approval of the issuance of shares of Parent Common Stock in connection with the First- Step Merger by the shareholders of Parent, there may not be, without further approval of such shareholders, any extension or waiver of this Agreement or any portion thereof that requires further approval under applicable law. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in a written instrument signed on behalf of such party, but such extension or waiver or failure to insist on strict compliance with an obligation, covenant, agreement or condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure.

ARTICLE IX

GENERAL PROVISIONS

None of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in this Agreement or in any instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement (other than the Confidentiality Agreement, which shall survive in accordance with its terms) shall survive the Effective Time, except for Section 6.7 and for those other covenants and agreements contained herein and therein which by their terms apply in whole or in part after the Effective Time.

9.2 Expenses. Except as expressly provided herein, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be paid by the party incurring such expense; provided, however, that the costs and expenses of printing and mailing the Joint Proxy Statement and all filing and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the Integrated Mergers shall be borne equally by Parent and the Company.

9.6 Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including the documents and the instruments referred to herein) together with the Confidentiality Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the parties and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof.

9.7 Governing Law; Jurisdiction.

(b) Each party agrees that it will bring any action or proceeding in respect of any claim arising out of or related to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby exclusively in any federal or state court sitting in the State of Delaware (the Chosen Courts), and, solely in connection with claims arising under this Agreement or the transactions that are the subject of this Agreement, (i) irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Chosen Courts, (ii) waives any objection to laying venue in any such action or proceeding in the Chosen Courts, (iii) waives any objection that the Chosen Courts are an inconvenient forum or do not have jurisdiction over any party and (iv) agrees that service of process upon such party in any such action or proceeding will be effective if notice is given in accordance with Section 9.3.

9.8 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW AT THE TIME OF INSTITUTION OF THE APPLICABLE LITIGATION, ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT. 9.11 Severability. Whenever possible, each provision or portion of any provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but if any provision or portion of any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect under any applicable law or rule in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision or portion of any provision in such jurisdiction, and this Agreement shall be reformed, construed and enforced in such jurisdiction such that the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision or portion thereof shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable.

9.12 Delivery by Facsimile or Electronic Transmission. This Agreement and any signed agreement or instrument entered into in connection with this Agreement, and any amendments or waivers hereto or thereto, to the extent signed and delivered by means of a facsimile machine or by e-mail delivery of a .pdf format data file, shall be treated in all manner and respects as an original agreement or instrument and shall be considered to have the same binding legal effect as if it were the original signed version thereof delivered in person. No party hereto or to any such agreement or instrument shall raise the use of a facsimile machine or e-mail delivery of a .pdf format data file to deliver a signature to this Agreement or any amendment hereto or the fact that any signature or agreement or instrument was transmitted or communicated through the use of a facsimile machine or e-mail delivery of a .pdf format data file as a defense to the formation of a contract and each party hereto forever waives any such defense.

FORM OF VOTING AGREEMENT

This VOTING AGREEMENT, dated as of January 5, 2016 (this Agreement), is by and between OceanFirst Financial Corp., a Delaware corporation (Parent), and the undersigned shareholder (the Shareholder). Capitalized terms used herein and not defined shall have the meanings specified in the Merger Agreement (as defined below).

WHEREAS, concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, Cape Bancorp, Inc., a Maryland corporation (the Company), Parent and Justice Merger Sub Corp., a Maryland corporation (Merger Sub), are entering into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) pursuant to which, among other transactions, (i) Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company on the terms and conditions set forth therein, with the Company surviving such merger (the First-Step Merger) and (ii) immediately thereafter, the Company will merge with and into Parent, with Parent being the surviving corporation (collectively with the First-Step Merger, the Integrated Mergers) and, in connection therewith, the shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (Company Common Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will, without any further action on the part of the holder thereof, be automatically converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration as set forth in the Merger Agreement, subject to the terms and conditions therein;

WHEREAS, as of the date hereof, the Shareholder is the record and beneficial owner of, has the sole right to dispose of and, subject to Article 5, Section D of the Company Articles, has the sole right to vote, the number of shares of Company Common Stock set forth below the Shareholder's signature on the signature page hereto (such Company Common Stock, together with any other capital stock of the Company acquired by the Shareholder after the execution of this Agreement, whether acquired directly or indirectly, upon the exercise of options, conversion of convertible securities or otherwise, and any other securities issued by the Company that are entitled to vote on the approval the Merger Agreement held or acquired by the Shareholder (whether acquired heretofore or hereafter), being collectively referred to herein as the Shares);

WHEREAS, receiving the Requisite Company Vote is a condition to the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; and

WHEREAS, as an inducement to Parent to enter into the Merger Agreement and incur the obligations therein, Parent has required that the Shareholder enter into this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, the mutual covenants and agreements set forth herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

Section 1. Agreement to Vote; Restrictions on Voting and Dispositions.

(a) Agreement to Vote Company Common Stock. The Shareholder hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that from the date hereof until the Expiration Time, at any meeting (whether annual or special and each adjourned or postponed meeting) of the Company's shareholders, however called, the Shareholder will (x) appear at such meeting or, subject to Article 5, Section D of the Company Articles, otherwise cause all of the Shareholder's Shares to be counted as present thereat for purposes of calculating a quorum and (y) subject to Article 5, Section D of the Company Articles, vote or cause to be voted all of such Shares, (1) in favor of the approval of the Merger Agreement, the First-Step Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, (2) against any Acquisition Proposal, without regard to any recommendation to the shareholders of the Company by the Board of Directors of the Company concerning such Acquisition Proposal, and without regard to the terms of such Acquisition Proposal, or other proposal made in opposition to or that is otherwise in competition or inconsistent with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, (3) against any agreement, amendment of any agreement (including the Company Articles and the Company Bylaws), or any other action that is intended or would reasonably be expected to prevent, impede, or interfere with, delay, postpone, or discourage the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and (4) against any action, agreement, transaction or proposal that would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or other obligation of the Company in the Merger Agreement.

(b) Restrictions on Transfers. The Shareholder hereby agrees that, from the date hereof until the earlier of the receipt of the Requisite Company Vote or the Expiration Time, the Shareholder shall not, directly or indirectly, sell, offer to sell, give, pledge, grant a security interest in, encumber, assign, grant any option for the sale of or otherwise transfer or dispose of, or enter into any agreement, arrangement or understanding to take any of the foregoing actions, any Shares (collectively, Transfer) other than in connection with bona fide estate planning purposes to his or her affiliates or immediate family members; provided that as a condition to such Transfer, such affiliate or immediate family member, as applicable, shall execute an agreement that is identical in form and substance to this Agreement; provided, further, that the Shareholder shall remain jointly and severally liable for the breaches of any of his or her affiliates or immediate family members of the terms hereof. Any Transfer in violation of this provision shall be void. The Shareholder further agrees to authorize and request the Company to notify the Company's transfer agent that there is a stop transfer order with respect to all of the Shares owned by the Shareholder and that this Agreement places limits on the voting of the Shareholder's Shares.

(c) Transfer of Voting Rights. The Shareholder hereby agrees that the Shareholder shall not deposit any Shares in a voting trust, grant any proxy or power of attorney or enter into any voting agreement or similar agreement or arrangement in contravention of the obligations of the Shareholder under this Agreement with respect to any of the Shares owned by the Shareholder.

(d) Acquired Shares. Any Shares or other voting securities of the Company with respect to which beneficial ownership is acquired by the Shareholder or any of his or her affiliates, including, without limitation, by purchase, as a result of a stock dividend, stock split, recapitalization, combination, reclassification, exchange or change of such Shares or upon exercise or conversion of any securities of the Company, if any, after the date hereof shall automatically become subject to the terms of this Agreement.

(e) No Inconsistent Agreements. The Shareholder hereby agrees that he or she shall not enter into any agreement, contract or understanding with any person prior to the termination of this Agreement, directly or indirectly, to vote, grant a proxy or power of attorney or give instructions with respect to the voting of the Shareholder's Shares in any manner which is inconsistent with this Agreement.

Section 2. Non-Solicit. In his or her capacity as a shareholder of the Company, and not in his or her capacity as a director or officer of the Company (in which capacity the Shareholder may act in accordance with Sections 6.3 and 6.12 of the Merger Agreement), the Shareholder shall not, and shall use his or her reasonable best efforts to cause his or her affiliates and each of their respective officers, directors, employees and Representatives not to, directly or indirectly, (a) solicit, initiate, encourage (including by providing information or assistance) or knowingly facilitate any inquiries, proposals or offers with respect to, or the making or completion of, any proposal that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Proposal, (b) provide or cause to be provided any non-public information or data relating to the Company in connection with, or have any discussions with, any person relating to or in connection with an actual or proposed Acquisition Proposal (except to disclose the existence of the provisions of this Section), (c) engage in any discussions or negotiations concerning an Acquisition Proposal (provided that the Shareholder may refer any such person or entity to the provisions of this Section) or otherwise take any action to encourage or knowingly facilitate any effort or attempt to make or implement an Acquisition Proposal, (d) approve, recommend, agree to or accept, or propose publicly to approve, recommend, agree to or accept, any Acquisition Proposal, (e) solicit proxies or become a participant in a solicitation (as such terms are defined in the Exchange Act) with respect to an Acquisition Proposal or otherwise encourage or assist any party in taking or planning any action that would reasonably be expected to compete with, restrain or otherwise serve to interfere with or inhibit the timely consummation of the Integrated Mergers in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, (f) initiate a shareholders' vote or action by consent of the Company's shareholders with respect to an Acquisition Proposal, (g) except by reason of this Agreement, become a member of a group (as such term is used in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) with respect to any voting securities of the Company that takes any action in support of an Acquisition Proposal or (h) approve, endorse or recommend, agree to or accept, or propose to approve, endorse, recommend, agree to or accept, or execute or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger agreement, investment agreement, acquisition agreement, option agreement or other similar agreement related to any Acquisition Proposal.

Section 3. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of the Shareholder.

(a) Representations and Warranties. The Shareholder represents and warrants to Parent as follows:

(i) Capacity; Consents. The Shareholder is an individual and has all requisite capacity, power and authority to enter into and perform his or her obligations under this Agreement. No filing with, and no permit, authorization, consent or approval of, a Governmental Entity is necessary on the part of the Shareholder for the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Shareholder or the consummation by the Shareholder of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(ii) Due Execution. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Shareholder.

(iii) Binding Agreement. Assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery of this Agreement by Parent, this Agreement constitutes the valid and binding agreement of the Shareholder, enforceable against the Shareholder in accordance with its terms (except in all cases as such enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, reorganization or similar laws affecting the rights of creditors generally and the availability of equitable remedies).

(iv) Non-Contravention. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Shareholder does not, and the performance by the Shareholder of his or her obligations hereunder and the consummation by the Shareholder of the transactions contemplated hereby will not, violate or conflict with, or constitute a default under, any agreement, instrument, contract or other obligation or any order, arbitration award, judgment or decree to which the Shareholder is a party or by which the Shareholder or his or her property or assets is bound, or any statute, rule or regulation to which the Shareholder or his or her property or assets is subject. Except as contemplated by this Agreement, neither the Shareholder nor any of his or her affiliates (a) has entered into any voting agreement or voting trust with respect to any Shares or entered into any other contract relating to the voting of the Shares or (b) has appointed or granted a proxy or power of attorney with respect to any Shares.

(v) Ownership of Shares. Except for restrictions in favor of Parent pursuant to this Agreement or voting restrictions contained in Article 5, Section D of the Company Articles, and except for such transfer restrictions of general applicability as may be provided under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the blue sky laws of the various States of the United States, the Shareholder owns, beneficially and of record, all of the Shareholder's Shares free and clear of any proxy, voting restriction, adverse claim, security interest, or other lien, and has sole voting power and sole power of disposition with respect to such Shares with no restrictions on the Shareholder's rights of voting or disposition pertaining thereto, and no person other than the Shareholder has any right to direct or approve the voting or disposition of any of the Shareholder's Shares. As of the date hereof, the number of the Shareholder's Shares is set forth below the Shareholder's signature on the signature page hereto. The Shareholder has possession of an outstanding certificate or outstanding certificates representing all of the Shareholder's Shares (other than Shares held in book-entry form) and such certificate or certificates does or do not contain any legend or restriction inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby.

(vi) Legal Actions. There is no action, suit, investigation, complaint or other proceeding pending against the Shareholder or, to the knowledge of the Shareholder, any other person or, to the knowledge of the Shareholder, threatened against the Shareholder or any other person that restricts or prohibits (or, if successful, would restrict or prohibit) the exercise by Parent of its rights under this Agreement or the performance by any party of its obligations under this Agreement.

(vii) Reliance. The Shareholder understands and acknowledges that Parent is entering into the Merger Agreement in reliance upon the Shareholder's execution and delivery of this Agreement and the representations and warranties of the Shareholder contained herein.

(b) Covenants. From the date hereof until the Expiration Time:

(i) The Shareholder agrees not to take any action that would make any representation or warranty of the Shareholder contained herein untrue or incorrect or have the effect of preventing, impeding, or, in any material respect, interfering with or adversely affecting the performance by the Shareholder of his or her obligations under this Agreement.

(ii) The Shareholder hereby agrees to promptly notify Parent of the number of shares of Company Common Stock acquired by the Shareholder, if any, after the date hereof. Any such shares shall be subject to the terms of this Agreement as though owned by the Shareholder on the date hereof and shall be deemed Shares for all purposes hereof.

(iii) The Shareholder hereby authorizes Parent and the Company to publish and disclose in any announcement or disclosure required by applicable Law and any proxy statement filed in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement the Shareholder's identity and ownership of the Shares and the nature of the Shareholder's obligation under this Agreement.

Section 4. Further Assurances. From time to time, at the request of Parent and without further consideration, the Shareholder shall execute and deliver such additional documents and take all such further action as may be necessary to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 5. Termination. Other than this Section 5 and Section 6, which shall survive any termination of this Agreement, this Agreement will terminate upon the earlier of (a) the Effective Time and (b) the date of termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms (the Expiration Time); provided that no such termination shall relieve any party hereto from any liability for any breach of this Agreement occurring prior to such termination.

Section 6. Miscellaneous.

(a) Expenses. All expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be paid by the party incurring such expenses.

(b) Notices. Any notice required to be given hereunder shall be sufficient if in writing, and sent by email or facsimile transmission (provided that any notice received by facsimile transmission or otherwise at the addressee's location on any business day after 5:00 p.m. (addressee's local time) shall be deemed to have been received at 9:00 a.m. (addressee's local time) on the next business day), by reliable overnight delivery service (with proof of service), hand delivery or certified or registered mail (return receipt requested and first-class postage prepaid), addressed as follows:

(c) Amendments, Waivers, Etc. This Agreement may not be amended, changed, supplemented, waived or otherwise modified or terminated except by an instrument in writing signed by each of the parties hereto.

(d) Successors and Assigns. No party hereto may assign any of its rights or delegate any of its obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other parties hereto, except Parent may, without the consent of any other party hereto, assign any of its rights and delegate any of its obligations under this Agreement to any affiliate of Parent. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties and their respective successors and assigns, including without limitation any corporate successor by merger or otherwise. Notwithstanding any Transfer of shares of Company Common Stock consistent with this Agreement, the transferor shall remain liable for the performance of all obligations of transferor under this Agreement.

(e) Third Party Beneficiaries. Nothing expressed or referred to in this Agreement will be construed to give any person, other than the parties to this Agreement and their respective successors and permitted assigns, any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or with respect to this Agreement or any provision of this Agreement.

(f) No Partnership, Agency, or Joint Venture. This Agreement is intended to create, and creates, a contractual relationship and is not intended to create, and does not create, any agency, partnership, joint venture or any like relationship between the parties hereto.

(g) Entire Agreement. This Agreement embodies the entire agreement and understanding among the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings relating to such subject matter.

(h) Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any rule or law, or public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner to the end that the transactions contemplated hereby are fulfilled to the extent possible.

(i) Specific Performance: Remedies Cumulative. The parties hereto acknowledge that money damages are not an adequate remedy for breaches of this Agreement, that any breach of this Agreement would cause irreparable harm to the non-breaching party and that any party, in addition to any other rights and remedies which the parties may have hereunder or at law or in equity, may, in its sole discretion, apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for specific performance or injunction or such other relief as such court may deem just and proper in order to enforce this Agreement or prevent any violation hereof and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, each party waives any objection to the imposition of such relief. All rights, powers and remedies provided under this Agreement or otherwise available in respect hereof at law or in equity shall be cumulative and not alternative, and the exercise or beginning of the exercise of any thereof by any party shall not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise of any other such rights, powers or remedies by such party.

(j) No Waiver. The failure of any party hereto to exercise any right, power or remedy provided under this Agreement or otherwise available in respect hereof at law or in equity, or to insist upon compliance by any other party hereto with its obligations hereunder, and any custom or practice of the parties at variance with the terms hereof, shall not constitute a waiver by such party of its right to exercise any such or other right, power or remedy or to demand such compliance.

(k) Governing Law. This Agreement and all disputes or controversies arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the internal laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to any applicable conflicts of law principles.

(l) Submission to Jurisdiction. The parties hereto agree that any suit, action or proceeding brought by either party to enforce any provision of, or based on any matter arising out of or in connection with, this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby shall be brought in any federal or state court located in the State of Delaware. Each of the parties hereto submits to the jurisdiction of any such court in any suit, action or proceeding seeking to enforce any provision of, or based on any matter arising out of, or in connection with, this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, and hereby irrevocably waives the benefit of jurisdiction derived from present or future domicile or otherwise in such action or proceeding. Each party hereto irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding in any such court or that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

(m) Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY HERETO ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY THAT MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH PARTY HEREBY KNOWINGLY, INTENTIONALLY AND VOLUNTARILY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, ARISING OUT OF, OR RELATING TO, THIS AGREEMENT, OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT (A) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER, (B) EACH PARTY UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER, (C) EACH PARTY MAKES THIS WAIVER VOLUNTARILY, AND (D) EACH PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION.

(n) Drafting and Representation. The parties hereto have participated jointly in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement. No provision of this Agreement will be interpreted for or against any party because that party or its legal representative drafted the provision.

(o) Name, Captions, Gender. Section headings of this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are to be given no effect in the construction or interpretation of this Agreement. Whenever the context may require, any pronoun used herein shall include the corresponding masculine, feminine or neuter forms.

(p) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed by facsimile or other electronic means and in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which together shall constitute one instrument. Each counterpart may consist of a number of copies each signed by less than all, but together signed by all, the parties hereto.

FORM OF VOTING AGREEMENT

This VOTING AGREEMENT, dated as of February 10, 2016 (this Agreement), is by and between Cape Bancorp, Inc., a Maryland corporation (the Company), and the undersigned stockholder (the Stockholder). Capitalized terms used herein and not defined shall have the meanings specified in the Merger Agreement (as defined below).

WHEREAS, on January 5, 2016, OceanFirst Financial Corp., a Delaware corporation (Parent), the Company and Justice Merger Sub Corp., a Maryland corporation (Merger Sub), entered into that certain Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) pursuant to which, among other transactions, (i) Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company on the terms and conditions set forth therein, with the Company surviving such merger (the First-Step Merger) and (ii) immediately thereafter, the Company will merge with and into Parent, with Parent being the surviving corporation (collectively with the First-Step Merger, the Integrated Mergers) and, in connection therewith, the shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (Company Common Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will, without any further action on the part of the holder thereof, be automatically converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration as set forth in the Merger Agreement, subject to the terms and conditions therein;

WHEREAS, as of the date hereof, the Stockholder is the record and beneficial owner of, has the sole right to dispose of and, subject to Article IV, Section C of the Parent Certificate, has the sole right to vote, the number of shares of Parent Common Stock set forth below the Stockholder's signature on the signature page hereto (such Parent Common Stock, together with any other capital stock of Parent acquired by the Stockholder after the execution of this Agreement, whether acquired directly or indirectly, upon the exercise of options, conversion of convertible securities or otherwise, and any other securities issued by Parent that are entitled to vote on the issuance of the new shares of Parent Common Stock representing a portion of the Merger Consideration as contemplated by the Merger Agreement held or acquired by the Stockholder (whether acquired heretofore or hereafter), being collectively referred to herein as the Shares);

WHEREAS, receiving the Requisite Parent Vote is a condition to the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 6.20 of the Merger Agreement, the Company has required that Parent use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Stockholder to enter into this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, the mutual covenants and agreements set forth herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

Section 1. Agreement to Vote; Restrictions on Voting and Dispositions.

(a) Agreement to Vote Company Common Stock. The Stockholder hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that from the date hereof until the Expiration Time, at any meeting (whether annual or special and each adjourned or postponed meeting) of the Parent's shareholders, however called, the Stockholder will (x) appear at such meeting or, subject to Article IV, Section C of the Parent Certificate, otherwise cause all of the Stockholder's Shares to be counted as present thereat for purposes of calculating a quorum and (y) subject to Article IV, Section C of the Parent Certificate, vote or cause to be voted all of such Shares, (1) in favor of the issuance of Parent Common Stock in connection with the First-Step Merger, (2) against any action, agreement, transaction or proposal that would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or other obligation of Parent in the Merger Agreement, and (3) against any other action that is intended or would reasonably be expected to prevent, impede or interfere with, delay, postpone or discourage the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

(b) Restrictions on Transfers. The Stockholder hereby agrees that, from the date hereof until the earlier of the receipt of the Requisite Parent Vote or the Expiration Time, the Stockholder shall not, and shall not enter into any agreement, arrangement or understanding to, directly or indirectly, sell, offer to sell, give, pledge, grant a security interest in, encumber, assign, grant any option for the sale of or otherwise transfer or dispose of (collectively, "Transfer") any Shares if, after giving effect to such Transfer, the Stockholder would hold less than fifty percent (50%) of the Shares held by such Stockholder as of the date hereof, except that the Stockholder may Transfer any Shares in connection with bona fide estate planning purposes to his or her affiliates or immediate family members (a "Permitted Transfer"); provided that as a condition to any Permitted Transfer, such affiliate or immediate family member, as applicable, shall execute an agreement that is identical in form and substance to this Agreement; provided, further, that the Stockholder shall remain jointly and severally liable for the breaches of any of his or her affiliates or immediate family members of the terms hereof. Any Transfer in violation of this Section 1(b) shall be void. The Stockholder further agrees to authorize and request the Company to notify the Company's transfer agent that there is a stop transfer order with respect to Transfers in violation of this Section 1(b) and that this Agreement places limits on the voting of the Stockholder's Shares.

(c) Transfer of Voting Rights. The Stockholder hereby agrees that the Stockholder shall not deposit any Shares in a voting trust, grant any proxy or power of attorney or enter into any voting agreement or similar agreement or arrangement in contravention of the obligations of the Stockholder under this Agreement with respect to any of the Shares owned by the Stockholder.

(d) Acquired Shares. Any Shares or other voting securities of Parent with respect to which beneficial ownership is acquired by the Stockholder or any of his or her affiliates, including, without limitation, by purchase, as a result of a stock dividend, stock split, recapitalization, combination, reclassification, exchange or change of such Shares or upon exercise or conversion of any securities of Parent, if any, after the date hereof shall automatically become subject to the terms of this Agreement.

(e) No Inconsistent Agreements. The Stockholder hereby agrees that he or she shall not enter into any agreement, contract or understanding with any person prior to the termination of this Agreement, directly or indirectly, to vote, grant a proxy or power of attorney or give instructions with respect to the voting of the Stockholder's Shares in any manner which is inconsistent with this Agreement.

Section 2. Non-Solicit. In his or her capacity as a stockholder of Parent, and not in his or her capacity as a director or officer of Parent (in which capacity the Stockholder may act in accordance with Section 6.3 of the Merger Agreement), the Stockholder shall not, and shall use his or her reasonable best efforts to cause his or her affiliates and each of their respective officers, directors, employees and Representatives not to, directly or indirectly, solicit proxies or become a participant in a solicitation (as such terms are defined in the Exchange Act) or otherwise encourage or assist any party in taking or planning any action that would reasonably be expected to compete with, restrain or otherwise serve to interfere with or inhibit the timely consummation of the Integrated Mergers in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Section 3. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of the Stockholder.

(a) Representations and Warranties. The Stockholder represents and warrants to the Company as follows:

(i) Capacity; Consents. The Stockholder is an individual and has all requisite capacity, power and authority to enter into and perform his or her obligations under this Agreement. No filing with, and no permit, authorization, consent or approval of, a Governmental Entity is necessary on the part of the Stockholder for the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Stockholder or the consummation by the Stockholder of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(ii) Due Execution. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Stockholder.

(iii) Binding Agreement. Assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Company, this Agreement constitutes the valid and binding agreement of the Stockholder, enforceable against the Stockholder in accordance with its terms (except in all cases as such enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, reorganization or similar laws affecting the rights of creditors generally and the availability of equitable remedies).

(iv) Non-Contravention. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Stockholder does not, and the performance by the Stockholder of his or her obligations hereunder and the consummation by the Stockholder of the transactions contemplated hereby will not, violate or conflict with, or constitute a default under, any agreement, instrument, contract or other obligation or any order, arbitration award, judgment or decree to which the Stockholder is a party or by which the Stockholder or his or her property or assets is bound, or any statute, rule or regulation to which the Stockholder or his or her property or assets is subject. Except as contemplated by this Agreement, neither the Stockholder nor any of his or her affiliates (a) has entered into any voting agreement or voting trust with respect to any Shares or entered into any other contract relating to the voting of the Shares or (b) has appointed or granted a proxy or power of attorney with respect to any Shares.

(v) Ownership of Shares. Except for restrictions in favor of the Company pursuant to this Agreement or voting restrictions contained in Article IV, Section C of the Parent Certificate, and except for such transfer restrictions of general applicability as may be provided under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the blue sky laws of the various States of the United States, the Stockholder owns, beneficially and of record, all of the Stockholder's Shares free and clear of any proxy, voting restriction, adverse claim, security interest, or other lien, and has sole voting power and sole power of disposition with respect to such Shares with no restrictions on the Stockholder's rights of voting or disposition pertaining thereto, and no person other than the Stockholder has any right to direct or approve the voting or disposition of any of the Stockholder's Shares. As of the date hereof, the number of the Stockholder's Shares is set forth below the Stockholder's signature on the signature page hereto. The Stockholder has possession of an outstanding certificate or outstanding certificates representing all of the Stockholder's Shares (other than Shares held in book-entry form) and such certificate or certificates does or do not contain any legend or restriction inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby.

(vi) Legal Actions. There is no action, suit, investigation, complaint or other proceeding pending against the Stockholder or, to the knowledge of the Stockholder, any other person or, to the knowledge of the Stockholder, threatened against the Stockholder or any other person that restricts or prohibits (or, if successful, would restrict or prohibit) the exercise by the Company of its rights under this Agreement or the performance by any party of its obligations under this Agreement.

(b) Covenants. From the date hereof until the Expiration Time:

(i) Subject to Section 1(b), the Stockholder agrees not to take any action that would make any representation or warranty of the Stockholder contained herein untrue or incorrect or have the effect of preventing, impeding, or, in any material respect, interfering with or adversely affecting the performance by the Stockholder of his or her obligations under this Agreement.

(ii) The Stockholder hereby agrees to promptly notify the Company of the number of shares of Parent Common Stock acquired by the Stockholder, if any, after the date hereof. Any such shares shall be subject to the terms of this Agreement as though owned by the Stockholder on the date hereof and shall be deemed Shares for all purposes hereof.

(iii) The Stockholder hereby authorizes Parent and the Company to publish and disclose in any announcement or disclosure required by applicable Law and any proxy statement filed in connection with the

Section 5. Termination. Other than this Section 5 and Section 6, which shall survive any termination of this Agreement, this Agreement will terminate upon the earlier of (a) the Effective Time and (b) the date of termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms (the Expiration Time); provided that no such termination shall relieve any party hereto from any liability for any breach of this Agreement occurring prior to such termination.

Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties and their respective successors and assigns, including without limitation any corporate successor by merger or otherwise. Notwithstanding any Transfer of shares of Parent Common Stock consistent with this Agreement, the transferor shall remain liable for the performance of all obligations of transferor under this Agreement.

(e) Third Party Beneficiaries. Nothing expressed or referred to in this Agreement will be construed to give any person, other than the parties to this Agreement and their respective successors and permitted assigns, any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or with respect to this Agreement or any provision of this Agreement.

In addition, we have not made or obtained an independent appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Company or OceanFirst. With respect to the Projections and any other information and data provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with us, we have, with your consent, assumed that the Projections and such other information and data have been reasonably prepared in good faith on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of management of the Company. We have relied upon, without independent verification, the assessment of the Company's management and its legal, tax, accounting and regulatory advisors with respect to all legal, tax, accounting and regulatory matters, including without limitation that the Transaction will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Our opinion is based upon market, economic, financial and other circumstances and conditions existing and disclosed to us as of January 4, 2016 and any material change in such circumstances and conditions would require a reevaluation of this Opinion, which we are under no obligation to undertake. the most recent financial statements and other information, financial or otherwise, provided to us that would be material to our analyses or this Opinion, and that there is no information or any facts that would make any of the information reviewed by us incomplete or misleading in any material respect.

We express no opinion as to the underlying business decision to effect the Transaction, the structure or tax consequences of the Transaction or the availability or advisability of any alternatives to the Transaction. We provided advice to the Board with respect to the proposed Transaction. We did not, however, recommend any specific amount of consideration or that any specific consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration for the Transaction. We did not solicit indications of interest with respect to a transaction involving the Company. This letter does not express any opinion as to the likely trading range of OceanFirst stock following the Transaction, which may vary depending on numerous factors that generally impact the price of securities or on the financial condition of OceanFirst at that time. Our opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to be received by the holders of the Common Stock.

We express no opinion with respect to any other reasons, legal, business, or otherwise, that may support the decision of the Board of Directors to approve or consummate the Transaction. Furthermore, no opinion, counsel or interpretation is intended by Raymond James on matters that require legal, accounting or tax advice. It is assumed that such opinions, counsel or interpretations have been or will be obtained from the appropriate professional sources. Furthermore, we have relied, with the consent of the Board, on the fact that the Company has been assisted by legal, accounting and tax advisors and we have, with the consent of the Board, relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of the assessments by the Company and its advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters with respect to the Company and the Transaction.

In formulating our opinion, we have considered only what we understand to be the consideration to be received by the holders of Common Stock as is described above and we did not consider and we express no opinion on the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to be paid or payable to any of the Company's officers, directors or employees, or class of such persons, whether relative to the compensation received by the holders of the Common Stock or otherwise. We have not been requested to opine as to, and this Opinion does not express an opinion as to or otherwise address, among other things: (1) the fairness of the Transaction to the holders of any class of securities, creditors, or other constituencies of the Company, or to any other party, except and only to the extent expressly set forth in the last sentence of this Opinion or (2) the fairness of the Transaction to any one class or group of the Company's or any other party's security holders or other constituencies vis-à-vis any other class or group of the Company's or such other party's security holders or other constituents (including, without limitation, the allocation of any consideration to be received in the Transaction amongst or within such classes or groups of security holders or other constituents). We are not expressing any opinion as to the impact of the Transaction on the solvency or viability of the Company or OceanFirst or the ability of the Company or OceanFirst to pay their respective obligations when they come due.

The delivery of this opinion was approved by an opinion committee of Raymond James.

Raymond James has been engaged to render financial advisory services to the Company in connection with the proposed Transaction and will receive a fee for such services, a substantial portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Transaction. Raymond James will also receive a fee upon the delivery of this Opinion, which is not contingent upon the successful completion of the Transaction or on the conclusion reached herein. In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse certain of our expenses and to indemnify us against certain liabilities arising out of our engagement.

In the ordinary course of our business, Raymond James may trade in the securities of the Company and OceanFirst for our own account or for the accounts of our customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. Furthermore, Raymond James may provide investment banking, financial advisory and other financial services to the Company and/or OceanFirst or other participants in the Transaction in the future, for which Raymond James may receive compensation.

It is understood that this letter is for the information of the Board of Directors of the Company (solely in each directors capacity as such) in evaluating the proposed Transaction and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of the Company regarding how said shareholder should vote on the proposed Transaction. Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration to be received by the holders of the Common Stock in the Transaction pursuant to the Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

Very truly yours,

Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Agreement. The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement. You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to Parent.

Sandler O Neill & Partners, L.P. (Sandler O Neill , we or our), as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed and considered, among other things: (i) a draft of the Agreement, dated January 5, 2016; (ii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Parent that we deemed relevant; (iii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Company that we deemed relevant; (iv) publicly available consensus median analyst earnings per share estimates for Parent for the quarter ended December 31, 2015 and years ending December 31, 2016 and December 31, 2017 as well as an estimated earnings and dividend payout ratio for the years thereafter, as provided by and discussed with the senior management of Parent; (v) financial projections for Company for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2019, as provided by and confirmed with the senior management of Parent; (vi) the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on Parent based on assumptions relating to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and an adjustment to Company s estimated provision expense, as discussed with and confirmed by the senior management of Parent, as well as a core deposit intangible asset; (vii) the publicly reported historical price and trading activity for Parent and Company common stock, including a comparison of certain stock market information for Parent and Company common stock and certain stock indices as well as similar publicly available information for certain other similar companies the securities of which are publicly traded; (viii) a comparison of certain financial information for Parent and Company with similar institutions for which publicly available information is available; (ix) the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the commercial banking industry on a national basis, to the extent publicly available; (x) the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and (xi) such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant. We also discussed with certain members of the senior management of Parent the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Parent and held similar discussions with certain members of the senior management of Company regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Company.

In performing our review, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to and reviewed by us from public sources, that was provided to us by Parent or Company, or their respective representatives, or that was otherwise reviewed by us and we have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion without any independent verification or investigation. We have relied, at the direction of Parent, without independent verification or investigation, on the assessments of the management of Parent as to its existing and future relationships with key employees and partners, clients, products and services and we have assumed, with your consent, that there will be no developments with respect to any such matters that would affect our analyses or opinion. We have further relied on the assurances of the respective managements of Parent and Company that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. We have not been asked to and have not undertaken an independent verification of any of such information and we do not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We did not make an independent evaluation or perform an appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Parent or Company, or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. We render no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of Parent or Company. We did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Parent or Company, or the combined entity after the Merger, and we have not reviewed any individual credit files relating to Parent or Company.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used publicly available consensus median analyst earnings per share estimates for Parent for the quarter ended December 31, 2015 and years ending December 31, 2016 and December 31, 2017 as well as an estimated earnings and dividend payout ratio for the years thereafter, as provided by and discussed with the senior management of Parent, as well as financial projections for Company for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2019, as provided by and confirmed with the senior management of Parent. Sandler O'Neill also received and used in its pro forma analyses certain assumptions relating to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and an adjustment to Company's estimated provision expense, as discussed with and confirmed by the senior management of Parent. With respect to the foregoing information, the senior management of Parent confirmed to us that such information reflected (or, in the case of the publicly available median analyst earnings per share estimates referred to above, were consistent with) the best currently available projections, estimates and judgments of the senior management of Parent of the future financial performance of Parent and Company and we assumed that such performance would be achieved. We express no opinion as to such projections, estimates or judgments, or the assumptions on which they are based. We have also assumed that there has been no material change in Parent's or Company's assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us. We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that Parent and Company will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to our analyses.

We have also assumed, with your consent, that (i) each of the parties to the Agreement will comply in all material respects with all material terms and conditions of the Agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements are true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements will perform in all material respects all of the covenants and other obligations required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements are not and will not be waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the Merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Parent, Company or the Merger or any related transaction, (iii) the Merger and any related transactions will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements, (iv) the Merger will be consummated without Company's rights under Section 8.1(g) of the Agreement having been triggered, and (v) the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Finally, with your consent, we have relied upon the advice that Parent has received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement.

Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect this opinion. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof. We express no opinion as to the trading values of Parent Common Stock or Company Common Stock after the date of this opinion or what the value of Parent Common Stock will be once it is actually received by the holders of Company Common Stock.

We have acted as Parent's financial advisor in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for our services, a substantial portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Merger. We will also receive a fee for rendering this opinion. Parent has also agreed to indemnify us against certain claims and liabilities arising out of our engagement and to reimburse us for certain of our out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with our engagement. In the two years preceding the date of this opinion, we have provided certain other investment banking services to Parent and received fees for such services. In addition, Sandler O'Neill Mortgage Finance L.P., an affiliate of Sandler O'Neill, has acted as introducing broker to Parent in the two years preceding the date of this opinion and has received fees for such services. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may purchase securities from and sell securities to Parent, Company and their respective affiliates. We may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of Parent and Company or their respective affiliates for our own account and for the accounts of our customers.

Our opinion is directed to the Board of Directors of Parent in connection with its consideration of the Agreement and Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Parent as to how any such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the issuance of additional shares of Parent Common Stock in connection with the Merger. Our opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to Parent and does not address the underlying business decision of Parent to engage in the Merger, the form or structure of the Merger and/or other transactions contemplated in the Agreement, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other alternative transactions or business strategies that might exist for Parent or the effect of any other transaction in which Parent might engage. We also do not express any opinion as to the amount of compensation to be received in the Merger by any Parent or Company officer, director or employee, if any, relative to the amount of compensation to be received by any other shareholder. This opinion has been approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee. This opinion shall not be reproduced without Sandler O'Neill's prior written consent, provided however Sandler O'Neill will provide its consent for the opinion to be included in regulatory filings, including the registration statement on Form S-4, and the joint proxy statement/prospectus included therein, to be filed by Parent in connection with the Merger, to be completed in connection with the Merger.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration is fair to Parent from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,
