In each case, the redemption price will also include accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption.

Redemption for Tax Reasons:

If, as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the tax laws of the United States or the official interpretation thereof, the Issuer becomes or, based upon a written opinion of independent counsel selected by the Issuer, will become obligated to pay additional amounts with respect to the Notes, the Issuer may at any time at its option redeem, in whole, but not in part, the Notes at 100% of the principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption.

Change of Control:

If a change of control triggering event occurs, unless the Issuer has exercised its right to redeem the Notes as described under Optional Redemption, each holder will have the right to require the Issuer to purchase all or a portion of such holder's Notes at a purchase price of 101% of the principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of purchase.

* Under Rule 15c6-1 of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, trades in the secondary market generally are required to settle in three business days, unless the parties to any such trade expressly agree otherwise. Accordingly, purchasers who wish to trade Notes on the trade date or the next five succeeding business days will be required, by virtue of the fact that the notes initially will settle in T+6, to specify an alternate settlement cycle at the time of any such trade to prevent a failed settlement. Purchasers of notes who wish to trade notes on the trade date or the next two succeeding business days should consult their own advisors.

 A securities rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time.
