Item 8.01 Other Information.

On February 21, 2017, Rubicon Technology, Inc. (the Company) released a letter to its stockholders (the Stockholder Letter) from Don Aquilano, the Chairman of the Board of Directors (the Board). The Stockholder Letter describes the Company's recent restructuring and updates stockholders on the Company's activities, including its evaluation of strategic acquisition opportunities, and certain recent and proposed corporate governance changes.

On February 14, 2017, the Board determined to reduce the size of the Board to five members to be effective as of May 3, 2017, the date of the Company's 2017 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the 2017 Annual Meeting). Raymond Spencer, one of the Company's Class I directors whose term expires at the 2017 Annual Meeting, will not stand for re-election.

In addition, because acquisitions are being given greater consideration by the Board, the Board has decided to commence a search for a new Chief Executive Officer (CEO) with more extensive experience in mergers and acquisitions. William F. Weissman, the current CEO, is expected to stay with the Company until a new CEO is hired. As of February 14, 2017, Mr. Weissman has agreed to step down from the Board if a new CEO joins the Company in order for the new CEO to assume Mr. Weissman's position on the Board.

The Stockholder Letter also announces the Company's intent to seek stockholder approval at the 2017 Annual Meeting of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation to declassify the Board and provide for the annual election of directors beginning with the election of directors at the 2018 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the 2018 Annual Meeting). This amendment was approved by the Board on February 14, 2017, and on the same date, the incumbent directors whose terms would not otherwise expire at the 2018 Annual Meeting, including Mr. Weissman who will be up for re-election at the 2017 Annual Meeting, agreed to resign from the Board effective as of the date of the 2018 Annual Meeting if the amendment is approved by the stockholders. This would allow for the election of the entire Board for a one-year term at the 2018 Annual Meeting and going forward.

A copy of the Stockholder Letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is hereby incorporated by reference.
