Code of Business Conduct and Ethics.

The Company has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (Code) that applies to all directors, officers and employees of the Company and that qualifies as a code of ethics as that term is defined in Form 40-F. The Code is posted on the corporate governance section of our website and is available for viewing at:

<https://www.manulife.com/content/dam/corporate/global/en/documents/corporate-governance/codeofbusinessconductandethics>

In 2018, the Company made certain amendments to its Code to clarify several matters, including that all Ethics Hotline Reports are presumed to be made in good faith; that nothing in the Code should be construed as prohibiting communication with any regulator, either voluntarily or in response to a regulatory inquiry; that employees must report discrimination, harassment or violence experienced or observed in the workplace; and to express Manulife's commitment to doing its part to help eradicate human trafficking and its expectation that our business partners will adhere to ethical business conduct consistent with the Company's own. A provision relating to freedom of association was also added to the Code. There were no waivers, including implied waivers, from any provision of the Code during 2018.

Identification of the Audit Committee.

Information regarding the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors is set forth under the heading "Audit Committee Composition of the Audit Committee" in the Company's AIF dated February 13, 2019 for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2018, filed as Exhibit 99.3 to this Annual Report on Form 40-F.

Independence of Directors.

A majority of the directors and all members of the Board's standing committees must be independent so that the Board operates independently of management.

A director is independent if he or she does not have a direct or indirect relationship with the Company that could reasonably be expected to interfere with the director's ability to exercise independent judgment. The Company has established an independence policy for the Board which is consistent with applicable legal and regulatory requirements, including those established under Canadian and U.S. securities law, the Insurance Companies Act (Canada) and the rules of the New York Stock Exchange. The independence policy is available on our website (www.manulife.com).

Each year the Board, with the assistance of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, reviews the independence of each director and has determined that 13 of the 14 directors are independent and that the members of the Audit Committee and the Management Resources and Compensation Committee meet the additional independence requirements for those committees. As CEO, Roy Gori is not independent.

Presiding Director at Meetings of Non-Management Directors.

The independent directors meet regularly with senior executives and have an opportunity to meet privately without management present during closed sessions held at each Board and committee meeting. They may also use these sessions to meet privately with members of management or independent advisors.

In addition, the independent directors meet without the CEO present to review the performance and approve the compensation of the CEO, to review the Board's effectiveness assessments and to approve the Board's objectives for the following year.

Communication with Non-Management Directors.

Shareholders wishing to contact non-management Directors of the Company may write to the Chairman of the Board, in care of the Corporate Secretary, at the head office of the Company, 200 Bloor Street East, Toronto, Ontario, Canada, M4W 1E5.

Corporate Governance Guidelines.

The Company's governance practices are consistent in all material respects with the requirements of the Insurance Companies Act (Canada), the corporate governance guidelines established by the Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions (Canada) and by the Canadian Securities Administrators, the New York Stock Exchange corporate governance rules for domestic issuers and the applicable U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission rules and regulations. The Company's statement of corporate governance practices is posted on the corporate governance section of our website and is available at:

<http://manulife.force.com/servlet/servlet.FileDownload?file=00P50000010BL5nEAG&ver=10>

Board Committee Charters.

The Board has established four standing committees to assist it in fulfilling its mandate: Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, Audit Committee, Risk Committee, and Management Resources and Compensation Committee.

All of the members of the standing committees are independent. Each committee reviews and, as necessary, updates its charter every year and monitors compliance with its charter on a regular basis throughout the year. Each committee chair reports to the Board on the committee's deliberations and any recommendations that require Board approval.

The committee charters and the position description for each committee chair are posted on the corporate governance section of our website and are available at:

<https://www.manulife.com/en/about/corporate-governance/board-committees.html>

Mine Safety Disclosure.
